

The Alpha Train Novel - Chapter 15

Chapter 15

Chapter 15 Sebastian I told Christina I needed ten minutes so I'd have time to deal with this hard on that won't go away , then wash 9 , and pour another drink . I feel like a damn teenager again . What is wrong with me ? " Excuse me . Sebastian , is it common for instructors and assistants to meet often ? I overheard you tell Christina that you wanted to meet and talk , " Benjamin says . Oh fuck .

I don't want to rush him , but if I don't , I ' m going to struggle the entire time Christina's in my room tonight . " It is when you need to talk about class preparation , expectations , or things of that nature . For Christina , this is not only her first time in the sex class , but I'm the instructor in the class , so we have a lot to work through . I'm also encouraging her to take the classes , so I want to be a support when needed and to give her encouragement as needed .

" " So , I should meet with Emma , one on one ? " he asks me , obviously uncomfortable with the idea . " If I were you , I would do it in a public place . I know Christina , I've worked with her for two years , and I trust her . I have no problem meeting with her in my room . But Emma's new and has already shown that she's not very good with boundaries . " 甘 " Yeah . I had that same thought , " he says .

" I was going to meet with Haley , and I just saw Luna Mia approaching Daniel Why don't we meet with our assistants in the dining car ? That way no one feels uncomfortable during this first meeting . " Will says , walking up . " That would be great . Thanks , Will , " Benjamin says . " Let me know if you need anything . " I tell him before walking quickly to my room . I look at my watch . Christina is always punctual which means I have about four minutes left .

I set the glasses down and rush to the bathroom . I can barely get my pants down and step in the shower before I start stroking myself . I lean my hand against the wall and the image of her from earlier , of her underneath me as I'm inside her , that deep , sexy voice , has me shooting off fast . My orgasm is so hard that I feel my claws start to extend . What the fuck ? That hasn't happened well , not since I was mated . since I don't have time to think about it though .

I turn on the shower , letting it wash my release down the drain while I pull my pants back on . I've just gotten them buttoned and zipped when I hear the knock on the door . I turn off the water and go to open the door for Christina . " I got stopped in the hall , so I don't have your drink ready yet . " I say as I open the door and step aside , letting her come in . She tsks at me , shaking her head with a smile . " Is this the sort of thing I can expect from you all semester . Sebastian ?

" she teases . I realize that I could have saved myself four minutes . I'm hard again already " Why don't you sit , and I'll pour . " she says , looking around . " If you tell me where you keep your whiskey and ice . " The rooms are small , so there isn't much space for me to put my drinks . but I try to keep my quarters neat and tidy . I step around her opening a lower - level cupboard and pull out the whiskey . " The mini fridge is over there , " I say pointing .

I sit on the couch , as she suggested , and watch her . I notice her scent is a bit muted from earlier . I noticed it when we went into the meeting room as well , although her scent got stronger as we went through the meeting . Now , she's worked to reduce her scent again . I wonder if she ' s doing that for me or for herself . When she hands me my drink , she looks around , obviously looking for a chair . " I have an idea .

Why don't you take off your shoes and sit on the opposite side of the couch . I'll rub your feet while we talk . It will help . you get used to my touch and I can start getting to know how your body responds to pleasure and pain points , " I say . Yeah , it's an excuse , I want to touch her . But it IS a good opportunity for her to see what it will be like for me to have my hands on her .

She looks at me for a moment and I raise my eyebrow at her , challenging her to push herself " Yeah , alright , " she says kicking off her shoes and pulling off her socks Unlike Emma , Christina's attire is work attire . She dresses to be on her feet and working all day . When she sits . I tap my thigh and she turns to face me , putting her feet on my leg . She's got pretty feet . They're strong from running . I'm sure she runs in both human and wolf forms .

Her toenails are painted a pretty pink . color . I'm not sure why that surprises me , but I like it . I take a sip of my whiskey and set it aside , moving her right foot closer to my body , but being careful that she doesn't touch my dick . Not only would that be inappropriate , but I'd probably blow my fucking load like a goddess- damned teenager ! I take both hands and using what I know of women who spend a lot of time on their feet .

I start by sliding my thumbs up her arch from heel to toes . She gasps out an ' Oh ' and her eyes roll back in her head . " Oh shit , " she breathes . I smile , pleased that she's responding so easily and quickly to my touch . If the ache in my groin is any indication , my body likes it just as much as my mind does . " What are we talking about ? " she asks .

Her eyes are still closed , and she's lifted her chin , not enough to submit , but enough that I feel an almost desperate need to lean over and accept her submission anyway I already know the breathy sound of her voice is going to plague my dreams tonight . " What do you think of Alpha Daniel ? " I ask her She takes a deep breath , then opens her eyes and looks at me . taking a sip of her whiskey before answering . " I think he's going to struggle this semester with our blurred hierarchy .

I don't know that he'll have trouble with Mia . It was smart of Alpha James to put her with him , but I think he'll struggle with Haley , Laura , and for as long as she's with us , Emma

. " I find knot in her arch and begin gently rubbing it . She whimpers softly and her eyes close again . I have to look away . She's not the only one that's going to be pushed this semester . " I agree . If you see or hear anything . I hope you'll let me know . " I say .

" If I hear or see anything , I won't hesitate to remind Alpha Daniel about the differences between the Academy and the packs , " she says . making me smile . " What did you confirm about Emma tonight ? " I stop , turning to look at her . Her eyes are intent on mine . " When Alpha James was talking about not falling in love with the Alphas , about how their feelings will change when they find their mates , you nodded . It looked like you confirmed something to yourself about her .

" That was very observant of you , Christina Are you always that observant ? " I ask her Her cheeks turn the faintest shade of pink My wayward mind wonders how pink her cheeks get when she's in the full throes of an orgasm . " I try to be , " she says . " That will serve you well this semester in the Academy . But before we get to that , let me answer your question .

I'm beginning to wonder if Emma didn't sleep with her Alpha before he found his mate , and he used the Academy as his way to get her off his hands . " " I would hope that he wouldn't think she'd entrap another Alpha , " she says , looking concerned . " I would hope not as well . More likely , he's hoping she finds her mate and becomes someone else's problem . " " She's not Luna material . That's not to say that she wouldn't be mated to an Alpha , but I don't see it .

You put her up beside Mia or Sylvie and there is no comparison . She's too self - centered to be a Luna , or at least a good one " " I see we're in agreement again . " I say , moving my massage up to her ankle . " Holy Mother Moon Goddess , Sebastian . How do you know exactly where I'm sore ? " " Have you never had a massage before , Christina ? " " No. But you can bet your sexy Alpha ass that this won't be my last . " she says I smile waiting for her to realize what she said .

Her eyes flash open and she opens her mouth to apologize . " Thank you . I'm glad you find my ass sexy . " I say , not letting her . apologize for the unexpected compliment . I stay in shape . I have to at the Academy to keep up with the young Alphas coming in , but I like knowing that Christina has not only noticed my ass but also likes it " You're welcome , " she murmurs , taking another sip of her whiskey and looking away . " Now , let's talk about your classes , " I say , switching topics .

She refocuses on me , ready to start giving me her reasons that she can't take all the classes , I'm sure , when I find another knot in her foot . Instantly , her body relaxes and whatever argument she was about to give me falls away . " I think it will be good for you to take all the classes . I know we talked about only taking some , but then I started thinking about it . There's no class schedule will reason why you shouldn't take all of them Our about it .

There's no make it easy for Sylvie to put you on the lunch schedule and we can use our evening time together to talk over anything that you have questions about or need clarification on . I'll also work with you on the weekends if needed . It obviously gives you a bit of a handicap ahead of time since the other Alphas won't be working , but I think our time together can make up for that . As Sylvie mentioned , having Charlotte here will take even more of the burden off of you and the others .

It's really the perfect semester for you to do this , Christina , " I say , negating every possible reason I can think of that she would say no . " Do you think the other Alphas will be bothered that they are competing against me ? " she asks as I move up her leg . Once again , I ' hear her sweet moan as I find the tight muscles in her calves .

I could work out that tightness better if she were on a table , but this is more of a first chance for her to see what it would be like with me touching her . Hopefully , if she agrees to be my assistant and a couple of nights of this , she'll be ready for the table and a full body massage on Sunday night . " I think they might be , but for the wrong reasons at first .

I think once they realize just how strong you are , they'll be bothered because I believe you have a very good chance of scoring higher than all of them . " " Ezra and Tyler will be my biggest competition , " she says , her voice . soft with her relaxed state . Her eyes are closed again and while I've been massaging her , she's slowly slid down on the couch so her head is lying on the armrest . " Why Tyler ? " I ask , taking the opportunity to look at her legs as I Chapter 15 massage them .

I'm not surprised that they are strong as muscular , like the rest of her . " He reminds me of Dane . He can't afford to not be perfect , " she says . softly . I stop and look at her . She really does have hero worship for her brother . That's not necessarily a bad thing , considering he's such a great Alpha . But it makes her feel that she can never measure up and that's what I have to help her overcome .

Her eyes open and she looks at me , then she looks around and realizes that she's relaxing on my couch . " Oh my goddess , I'm so sorry . " " Why , relaxation is what massage is for . Well , it's for other things too , but that's for another time . However , I think we should call it a night . Hopefully , that will help you sleep . " " Thanks , Sebastian , " she says , standing . I stand to walk her to the door . She stops and turns to me . " I like talking with you . Maybe it could .

work for me to take the classes if I can talk them through with you at night . " " We'll make it work , " I say , opening the door for her . She steps out and begins walking to her room . I look to make sure there's no one else in the hallway . Chapter 15 17 " Oh , and Christina ? My sexy Alpha ass is betting that you'll agree to being my assistant this semester in the sex class . If so , there will be a whole lot more of that type of massage in your future .

" I watch as her lips part and her eyes go dark . " Sweet dreams , " I say before closing the door .

The Alpha Train Novel - Chapter 16

Chapter 16

Chapter 16 I've been waiting a week to have James inside me again . I don't know how he spends his week off , or who he spends it with , but for me , I haven't been with another man in years . After I lost my mate , I didn't expect to find anyone who would make me feel good again , make me feel whole . But James does . He'd come to me before Ewan , my son , went to the Academy . He , like me , lost a mate and needed direction . My direction , after losing Ethan .

was focusing on my son , making sure no one tried to take the pack from him before he could go to the Academy . Once he passed the Academy , I'd had no idea what I was going to do . That is , until James came to talk to me . " Give the Academy a try . If you don't like it , you can go do whatever you planned to do after Ewan graduates . But if you do , if you're like me , it will give you purpose , it will give your life meaning again . One semester , Sylvie . Three months .

If you hate it , you don't have to come . back . " That was three and a half years ago . That first semester . James was teaching the sex class and he wanted me as his assistant . I'm not sure if he knew that I'd struggled with intimacy after the death of my mate , or if he just wanted to make sure he didn't have some young impressionable she - wolf as his assistant . That semester , I realized that my mate wasn't the only man who could bring me mind - altering orgasms .

James prides himself on strumming a woman's body into utter bliss and he's a master at it . We hadn't become a pair right away . But I did return to the Academy . Those first few semesters . I changed instructors . If James needed an assistant to teach the sex class , I was more than willing . Somewhere around a year into working at the Academy . James and I decided that we liked working together and we were good at it .

He leads the Academy , and it was easy for me as a previous Luna to run the Academy beside him . We've never made our attachment official . At first . I don't think either of us wanted that . But somewhere along the line . I lost my heart to James . He's not just fantastic in bed , but he's smart and caring . He's everything a good Alpha should be . But he doesn't want more than what we have , and I have to respect that . When we're here . I get to have him to myself .

What he does when he's home isn't my business . I don't ask him , and he doesn't ask me . I was surprised when he said that Sebastian was running the sex class. this semester .

James has run the class ever since I started working here except one semester early on . But ever since he and I paired up , he's run that class . It makes me wonder if he's feeling the need for separation , wanting to put some distance between us and our relationship .

TAL If that's what he's looking for , then this will be good for both of us . It will be the first time in almost two years that another man has touched me . Chapter 16 But tonight , I get the fantastic man that I've fallen for , and I can't wait . I strip out of my clothes , putting on a robe while I wait . I learned quickly that if James is feeling possessive , he has no problem ripping my clothes off of me .

I don't mind , it just means I have to always remember to have extra clothes at the Academy . When the knock comes , I open it , stepping aside as he walks in . His mouth is on mine before the door closes . I begin pulling his shirt over his head and he pushes my robe off my shoulders as he walks me backwards to the bed . I undo his belt quickly , desperate for him to be inside me . His warm whiskey and cigar scent has made my body ache for him ever since I got on the train .

" I need you inside me , " I moan . " You know I refuse to rush my time with you , " he growls . It's true . He may rip my clothes off so he can see me , but he never , ever rushes the sex . His beard and mustache tickle my lips as he devours my mouth . I shove his pants down , taking his large , thick length in my hands . He lifts me up and tosses me on the bed . " Not yet , Sylvie .

I'll give you what you want , but not until I've taken what I want , " he says , his warm mouth attaching to my nipple while his hands trace over my body , as if making sure that nothing has changed since the last time he touched me I scrap my nails over his back , just enough to leave marks that will gone by morning , then slide them up , pulling the leather tie out of his hair and letting it fall free .

I arch up into his mouth as he moves from one breast to the other , his fingers sliding over my body in the way he knows makes my body hum for him . I grab his hair and pull him off of my breast , growling at him . " Take your time after this first time . I need you inside me . " He tugs my hips to the edge of the bed , watching me with eyes nearly as black as the night . " Is this what you want , " he growls , sliding the tip of his cock against my soaked entrance .

" Yes , " I say , my growl turning to a moan of pleasure . He holds my hips as he slams into me , filling me and stretching me , finally rubbing against the ache inside me . He slowly pulls out , watching his cock that is now covered in my arousal . " My cock looks so good fucking your pretty little pussy , Sylvie . " " Your cock feels so good in my pussy , James . " " How many do you think you've got for me tonight , beautiful ?

" he asks , still watching himself slide in and out of me , but now gently tugging on my nipples in the way he knows will make me come hard and fast . " At least four , " I breathe . " Not good enough . I won't take less than six , even if it takes me all night , " he growls . In the end , he gave me eight explosive orgasms , and it didn't take him all night .

Christina POV ' Sweet dreams , ' he said . Yeah right . My dreams were anything BUT sweet .

Naughty and sexy and hot as fuck , but not sweet . My dreams were filled with the sound of Sebastian's deep voice and his strong sure hands touching my body . Only in my dreams , he wasn't touching my feet . If I hadn't already decided to take the sex class , I would have after last night . I want a chance to feel what happens when a man whose hands feel that good on my feet , touches me everywhere .

In the morning , I get up and get ready , knowing that we'll need coffee ready when the instructors get up . Since Mia and Sylvie were on clean up last night , I'm not surprised when the coffee is ready to go . I plug it in and breathe in the scent of fresh coffee brewing as I think through this morning's breakfast menu . 11 I go to the fridge and get some bacon , putting it on the skillet oven to slow cook while I start chopping vegetables for omelets .

The kitchen on the Train is nice , but the kitchen at the Academy is excellent . " You're my very favorite person in the whole world for a reason , Christina , " Sylvie says , walking in and going straight to the coffee maker . She looks tired but happy . I wonder if there will be a time over this semester when I look like that . " Did someone have a late night ? " I ask with mock innocence . " It was a VERY late night , " she says .

" I hope that's not a complaint , " Alpha James says , walking in behind . her . I look away from the heat in both of their eyes . " What's for breakfast ? " Haley asks , walking in . Her hair is in a messy bun on top of her head and she's still rubbing sleep from her eyes . " How would you feel about making pancakes or waffles ? " I ask her . " I can do that , " she says . " How was your meeting with Alpha Will last night ? " Alpha James asks her . " It was good . It was really helpful .

I feel like I have a much better understanding of what to expect this semester . " " Good , I'm glad to hear it , " James says . " Please tell me that my nose isn't deceiving me and there's coffee . " Alpha Daniel says , walking in . " Coffee pot is over there , " Sylvie says , pointing . " Mugs are above the coffee pot .

" " And if you want cream and sugar , they're right here , " I say , getting cream out of the fridge and grabbing the container of sugar along with a spoon to put over by the coffee . " Something smells delicious , " Sebastian says , walking in . " What's for breakfast ? " " Omelets , bacon , and ... " I turn , looking at Haley . " Pancakes . " " Excellent . What time does the Train stop at the station today ? " he asks . " Eleven thirty , Alpha . Just in time for lunch , " Sylvie says .

" Who are we expecting at the first station ? " I ask . " Alphas Logan and Ezra . " Alpha James says . When I look up , I see him watching me . " Have you made your decision about assisting in the sex class , Christina ? " he asks . I look at Sebastian , who is also watching me intently before turning back to James . " I'll sign the consent forms after breakfast , Alpha . " " Perfect . "

The Alpha Train Novel - Chapter 17

Chapter 17

Chapter 17 I'm thrilled that Christina agreed to sign the consent forms . Now it's just a matter of building trust and having her let me learn how she does and doesn't like to be touched . I already know her muscles are tight . Over breakfast , I develop a plan for our evening talk and massage . I'll see if she's willing to remove her shirt and let me massage her neck and shoulders while sitting on the floor in front of the couch .

I can't wait until we get to the Academy , and I can have her relax on the table while I take my time learning every line , every knot , and every sensitive area of her body . After breakfast , I meet with Will , Benjamin , and Daniel to talk about . the course work . I haven't taught the sex course before , but I'm usually the back - up for James , so I'm familiar with how the class runs .

However , I want to be sure that I maintain a level of decorum , that I lead through example , and in that class more than any other , it's a very fine line . Almost before I know it , the whistle is blowing that we're coming up to today's stop . I pack up my things , wanting to spend lunch and the afternoon with the new Alphas as they join the Train . I'm interested more in Ezra than Logan . I watched Christina take notes last night and she put a star next to Ezra's picture .

After talking to her about why she considers Tyler her biggest competition , I realized that she considers Ezra to be in the running as competition too . I'm glad to know that she doesn't consider Logan competition . I doubt he's anywhere close to her Chapter 17 H league of Alpha . As the train comes to a stop , I step out of my cabin and walk to the entryway where the others have congregated .

I'm less surprised to see Emma dressed like she's ready to party than I was seeing her actually showing up to work at breakfast . I wonder if Benjamin is already having a positive effect on her . I hope so . James is at the front , ready to greet our new Alphas . " Alphas , welcome to the Alpha Train . I'm Alpha James , the lead instructor at the Academy and the biggest hard ass you've ever met , " he says , by way of greeting . " Alpha Logan , " Logan says , introducing himself .

I watch him look Emma up and down , deciding that she's an easy lay before turning to me . " Alpha Sebastian . And I'm pretty sure I'M the biggest hard ass you've ever met , " I say , making James snort as he greets Ezra . I watch Ezra glance at Emma and immediately dismiss her . Christina and I were right . He's here to learn and to get his name on the leaderboard . " Well , hello beautiful . What's a pretty little Alpha like you doing riding the Train ?

" Logan asks , obviously talking to Christina . I feel my blood boil and my fists clench at my side for no good reason . Alphas always hit on Christina She's an unmated Alpha female and no matter the age difference , unmated Alphas want her . Apparently , I'm not excluded from that desire . Somewhere deep inside me , my wolf snarls , ready to challenge the young Alpha for Christina . I rein myself in . knowing that Christina is perfectly capable of taking care of herself .

She doesn't disappoint . " Alpha Logan , my name is Christina . I'm much too old for you and besides that , I'm not interested , " she tells him . " You sure about that , beautiful ? I'm pretty sure I could rock your world , " he says , trying again . " Since I happen to know that you're here to learn how to rock any woman's world , I'll take my chances , " she says . I see Ezra smile . He likes her spunk . " I'm Alpha Ezra , Alpha Christina . It's nice to meet you . " " You as well , Alpha .

And in the Academy , I'm just Christina . " " Oh , I doubt that you're ' just ' anything , " he says . It's a way to state that he's interested in her without being offensive like Logan . Yeah , I'll be keeping my eye on that one . " Lunch is ready . Alphas . Have a seat , " Sylvie says to them . " Can I get you something to drink , Alphas ? " Haley asks " Yes , Alpha Logan . Can I get you something to drink ? " Emma asks , bending over to give him a view of her cleavage . I look at James .

" We need to talk , " I say quietly to him . He sighs and nods . The Alphas sit , obviously prepared to eat with the instructors , but James and I pull up chairs and I notice that Will does as well . Benjamin and Daniel watch , then follow our lead . " How many Alphas are on the Train ? " Ezra asks frowning at the number of chairs . " The assistants cat with us . They aren't omegas , and even if they were , on the Train and in the Academy , they aren't treated as such , " I say .

The first few days on the train are the hardest since the young Alphas expect that they'll be treated with reverence like they are in their packs . and that the assistants will wait on them like omegas . They learn quickly that that's not the case . Here , everyone is equal . Everyone can succeed or fail on their own merits . Not surprisingly , Emma seats herself between Logan and Ezra .

12 Christina doesn't sit next to me , she sits beside Daniel , which would bother me except it puts her directly across from Ezra . I fight my smile . She's sizing up her competition . " So. Alphas , tell us about yourselves , " Mia says , as we all start eating . Both Alphas noses go up in the air . " Luna , what would you like to know ? " Ezra asks . " Alpha Logan , what do you expect to learn at the Academy this . semester ? " she asks . This is typical .

Usually , Mia , Sylvie , and Christina ask the Alphas questions . It's not so much their answers , it's how they answer and how they speak to them that they are interested . in . " How to run a pack . I mean , isn't that why we're here ? To take over from our fathers . Mia , unimpressed , turns to Ezra . " And you , Alpha Ezra ? " He finishes swallowing the food in his mouth then turns his full attention to Mia . I look at James .

Ezra has already been practicing focused attention when communicating . " Luna , I've reviewed the different courses that we will be taught during the Academy . I would be interested in finding out which instructor 13 will be teaching each class . But to answer your question . I expect that I'll be driven to become physically stronger , that I will learn proper communication skills along with how to manage a crisis , and how to manage a pack including fiscal management of the pack .

Along with that , my understanding is that the Academy teaches Alphas to be the best lovers they can possibly be . Did I miss anything ? " he asks . It's not arrogant , but there's a bit too much confidence behind his question . " Don't forget the sensory class , Alpha Ezra , " James says . " And I'm teaching that one . " " What about the others ? Are we allowed to know who is teaching what class this semester ? " he asks . " You are .

You'll receive a packet Sunday night when we meet at the Academy . But for now , " he says and goes around the table , listing off the classes that each of us is teaching . " Do you know what I'd like to know ? " Alpha Logan asks , his focus . turning to Christina . " What's an Alpha female doing riding the Train ? " Before she can answer , I feel the need to step in . " An interesting question , Alpha Logan , made more so because Christina has decided to take the classes this semester .

She will be in all your classes and competing alongside you this semester . " I see Christina glance at me , but it's Ezra's narrowed eyes that I focus on . " How old are you , Alpha ? " he asks her . " Twenty - eight . " " Why aren't you mated , if you don't mind me asking ? " " I never found my mate . " " Maybe I'm your mate , " Logan says , waggling his eyebrows at her . Christina looks annoyed but Emma looks pissed . She's sitting right .

beside Logan , but he's barely paid her any attention . I doubt that means . that she won't end up in his bed tonight . He doesn't stand a chance with Christina , so he'll take what's easy and offered . " I'm pretty sure my mate died . " " What's your last name ? " Ezra asks , once again asking the right question . " Kneeland . " Both Alphas suck in air . Christina , being the good Alpha that she is , doesn't flinch or show any emotion at their response .

But we both know what these Alphas are thinking . Dane's warning is still going strong over a decade after he warned the Alphas to stay away from his sister . I guess it's a good thing that I don't scare easily .  17 Chapter Chapter 18

Chapter 18 Christina " " What the fuck , Dane ? Even today's young Alphas know about your threat if they touch me . " I say. I'm not shouting , per se , but damn . What the hell did my brother say to make EVERY damn Alpha lift their hands up and step back when they hear my name ? " I told you . I may have made a mistake in protecting you so thoroughly , " he says . " Dane Kneeland , I'm pretty sure you've never made a mistake in your life . " " Well , you'd be wrong there , little sister .

But I try to limit the number of mistakes I make . So , are either of these Alphas actually interesting you ? " he asks , obviously wondering if I've decided to try having a relationship with an Alpha . 10 " Two words . Logan Crossing . " Dane growls . " If you sleep with him , I'll be forced to lock you up due to temporary insanity or just plain stupidity . Since I know you're not stupid , I'd have to go with insanity . Who else ? " " Ezra Fields . " " He's decent .

" " " He's also ten years younger than me and he's at the Academy . I wouldn't waste my time with any of these guys until AFTER graduation . And then , it's too close to them finding their mate , so why bother ? " " Anyone else interesting this semester ? " he asks me . " Yeah . Tyler Mitchell . " " Aww . shit . Tanner was a good Alpha . Tyler has some really big shoes to fill . " he says . It reminds me of Sebastian telling me that Dane's shoes aren't mine to fill .

" Maybe he just needs to find his own shoes and not try to live in the shadow of his brother , " I say . Dane is quiet on the other end for a very long moment . " Who's your instructor this semester ? " " Alpha Sebastian . " " How very interesting . I look forward to hearing more about your Chapter 11 semester , Chrissy . " " Say high to Harper and the kids for me , " I say . " I will . And Chrissy , stay away from Logan . He's an asshole .

" " Already figured that out , big bro , " I say , before saying goodbye and hanging up . I look at my watch . I have a few minutes before I meet with Sebastian . I don't know why , but after last night , I feel the need to take a quick shower and brush my teeth . If the man is going to be touching me , I don't want him to be repulsed by my scent . I finish getting ready and pull my hair in a ponytail before stepping out of my room .

As I walk to Sebastian's room , I can hear chatter going on in the dining car . It sounds like a small party is going on . They better get it out of their system now . They won't have the time or energy for that once we get to the Academy . I knock on Sebastian's door and almost immediately it opens . " Good evening , Christina . Come in , " Sebastian says . He offers me a drink like last night and I accept again . " Did you get a chance to relax this evening ?

" he asks me as he pours two glasses . " Well , none of them have a personal masseuse to help relax them each night either , do they ? " I ask smiling . " No , they don't . Or if they do , we won't necessarily know about it . Speaking of that , I'd like to try something different tonight , if you're willing and comfortable , " he says . I'm not sure why , but something about the way he says it makes my heart flutter . " Okay , what do you want to try ?

" " I'd like to massage your shoulders and neck and even your upper back , tonight . But I want you to start getting comfortable around me with me touching your bare skin and you wearing fewer clothes than you are . So , my suggestion is that you take off your shirt , leave your bra on , and you sit in front of me on the floor while I sit on the couch . I'll massage your head , neck , shoulders , and upper back , while we talk . What do you think ?

" he asks me , taking another sip of his drink while watching me . I'm beginning to realize that this is his way of collecting his thoughts and assessing what's going on around him . I've lived in a pack all my life . Nudity is a very common thing in the packs . Unless you want to rip through your clothes every time you shift , you have to strip out of your clothes and then you have to shift back before getting dressed again .

It's why we , as werewolves , can have something like a sex class , whereas humans would never be accepting of something like that . But somehow , taking off my shirt in front of Sebastian , here in his room , feels very intimate and very sexual . I know it's not for him and that's the only reason that I'm able to nod . " Did you want to start now ? " I ask , suddenly feeling shy . " Whenever you're ready , " he says , I nod and shoot the rest of the whiskey before setting the glass aside .

I can feel my heartbeat increasing and I work to bring it back to normal knowing that Sebastian can hear it . Without thinking too much about it , I pull my shirt over my head and lay it across his bed . " Where do you want to sit ? " I ask , without looking at him . Geez , I signed the consent forms this morning and right now , I can't even look Sebastian in the eye without my shirt on . He's right that we need this time to become comfortable together . me .

" I hear him move and I look behind me . " Come sit in front of me , " he Says . I do and almost instantly , his warm hands are gently running over my shoulders , his talented thumbs already seeking out the knots in my shoulders and neck . " Why don't we start with any questions you have for me , Christina , " he says . His thumbs slide up my neck and I feel my eyes roll closed as his warm 12 hands begin to work their magic .

" What number were you on the leaderboard when you came to the Academy? " I ask . I feel his thumbs stop for a moment before they continue on . " What makes you think I made it onto the leaderboard ? " he asks , and I snort . " I hear things , " I say . " I was number one , " he says , and my eyes shoot open . " Seriously ? " I ask him . " Yep . I bumped James out of first place two years after he got it , " he says .

His thumbs seemed to have decided that my shoulders and neck need to have the knots worked out and his touch strengthens , his thumbs rubbing deeper into my sore muscles . " How did I not know I was sore ? " I ask without thinking . He chuckles . " I think you'll find that you mentally shut down the aches of pains of the day , Christina . " 17 Suddenly , his face is beside mine and his voice is in my ear , sending shivers down my spine . " But don't worry . I'll make sure to work them all out for you

Chapter 19

Chapter 19 Christina This man is entirely too sexy . AND he was number one on the leaderboard . I knew I was right about him , and it explains Dane going quiet on the phone . I didn't tell him I had decided to take the classes , but he must know that Sebastian spent a lot of years on the leaderboard , so he knows that he'll push me . I moan as Sebastian pushes my head forward , pulling my hair out of the ponytail and working his strong fingers into my scalp .

I feel goosebumps rise all over my body . " Any other questions for me ? " he asks softly . I can feel his breath on my neck , and it sends shivers down my spine . There's no way he didn't feel that . " What's your primary sense ? " I ask , hoping it's not scent . But , of course , I'm not that lucky . " Scent . And yours is hearing . But we can work around that if you struggle in that class . But I doubt you will , " he says . " Why do you say that ? " " You like to be the best .

I think now that you've decided to take the classes , we're about to see a whole other side of Alpha Christina . " I shrug and moan again as his fingers move to my neck . " All Alphas are competitive , " I say . Fuck , is this really what they teach . in the Academy ? No wonder Sylvie and Mia told me I need to take the sex class . I think they get massaged like this the entire semester . " That's true . All Alphas are competitive . But not all of them are trying to prove something and you are .

" " You're talking about Dane now . " " I am . I think I've been clear about my thoughts of you being in his shadow . " " You have , " I say . I'm already learning from Sebastian , and we haven't even arrived at the Academy yet . " Any other questions for me ? " " Less a question and more of an epiphany , " I say and even I can hear the change in my voice . Sebastian's hands are working magic on my scalp . My voice is getting softer and deeper .

I have no doubt that when lie flat on the table , he'll either put me to sleep or into that trance he's working hard to get me into right now . 1 can Chapter 19 " What was your epiphany ? " he asks , his voice staying low . It's so fucking sexy that I have to squeeze my legs together . Damn him and his heightened sense of smell . " The idea of walking in someone else's shoes , I got that from Dane . " " Mmm , yes , that makes sense .

He has probably felt like he was walking in his father's shoes his whole life . Why did you have the epiphany now ? " " We were talking about Tyler . He said he has big shoes to fill . " " And what did you say to that ? " " I said that maybe Tyler should find his own shoes and not live in his brother's shadow . " I feel lips press to the point where my neck and shoulder connect , and I gasp . " I'm sorry , I should have asked first . May I put my mouth on you ?

Just in the area where I'm massaging . It will help you adjust to having my mouth on you .
" Okay , " I say as my heartrate speeds up even more . How can I feel so relaxed and so tightly wound up all at once ? " Thank you , " he says , and I feel his warm lips kissing the back of my neck , sending even more shivers down my spine . " That was a perfect response by the way . How did Dane respond ?

" He's leaving a trail of white - hot kisses across my shoulder , each kiss igniting flames that are stoking a fire that is now burning low and steady in my core . It's making me feel dizzy and hot and needy . " He asked who my instructor was this semester . " " Interesting . " he says , and I open my eyes . " That's what he said . I'm not sure what's so interesting about it . " " He can tell that I'm already pushing you to change , " he says , moving to kiss the other shoulder .

" Was there more to your epiphany ? " " No. " I say . His hands are still massaging me as his mouth teases my body . When his mouth returns to my neck , I feel his warm tongue making lazy circles in a sensitive area of my neck . I cry out before I can cut off the sound and he stops . " Based on your scent , I'd say you liked that , but I'd like confirmation . Was that okay ? " Chapter 19 " Yes . " " Your body is very responsive , Christina .

You are going to make my job very easy this semester . How are you feeling ? " he asks . " Hot , " I say . It's the first word that comes to mind . " I could ease that ache for you , but I don't think we're there yet . Are you okay to continue , or is this too much ? " " I'm okay , " I say , not ready to have him stop touching me with both his mouth and his hands . He starts massaging me again as he asks the next question . " I know Dane doesn't think much of Alpha Logan , but what about you ?

What were your impressions of the young Alpha ? " I feel like I'm going into a trance , like his words are floating in the air around me and the only thing keeping me grounded is the pressure of his firm hands working through the knots between my shoulder blades and his warm lips . pressed against my skin . " The same as Alpha James . He's cocky and arrogant and he'll struggle because he's used to being top dog and here , he'll be nothing , " I s say . " Nothing ?

" " Isn't that what you say you do to the young Alphas ? You strip them Chapter 19 down then build them back up again , stronger than before ? " " Stripping them down doesn't mean they're nothing . But sometimes , it makes them feel like they're nothing . We strip the Alphas to their core , to the person they are without anything else making them who they are .

Some Alphas don't like what they see when they get stripped down because there isn't a lot to them without their title and physical strength . Some Alphas , like your brother , have more than enough of a foundation to build themselves back up again . " I don't have to ask him where he thinks I fall in that spectrum . He wouldn't be pushing me to prove myself if he didn't think I had a substantial core to build off of . " What about Alpha Ezra ? " he asks .

I feel his teeth graze the back of my neck , sending another round of shivers down my body . " I like him , " I moan . The fingers stop momentarily , and I wonder if he's surprised by my assessment . " What do you like about him ? " " First , he ignored Emma completely . That earns points in my book . Second , he's intense . He's already asking better questions than Logan is . Logan's questions are superficial . Ezra is getting more to the heart of what's going on around him .

I'm not sure Logan would have ever Chapter 19 realized my last name was Kneeland if he hadn't been there when Ezra asked me . He's respectful of my title without looking like he wants to fuck me just because I'm an Alpha female . What about you , Sebastian ? What's your assessment of Alpha Ezra ? " I don't bother asking about Logan , I know my assessment of him is accurate . " I think James is right and if your little star rating is correct , then you ' re right about him too .

He will give you the competition you're craving this semester . " " My star rating ? " I ask . " On his bio . You put a star next to his picture . " " You don't miss anything , do you ? " I ask him . " I try not to , but I'm sure I do . I'm not perfect , Christina . Being a good Alpha isn't about being perfect . It's about being the best you can be every minute of every day .

" This time when he kisses me , his teeth don't just graze my skin , he puts some pressure behind it , gently sinking them into my skin and muscle . where my neck meets my shoulder . It's almost exactly where he started kissing me and liquid fire shoots straight to my core . " Based on your scent , I think we're done for tonight . Tomorrow night , I'd like to massage your legs and back , but on the train , you'll either have to be on my bed or on the couch .

Think about it and you can let Chapt me know if you're comfortable with that tomorrow . If not , I'll come up with an alternate plan that you can feel comfortable with . " " I might fall asleep if I lay on your bed , " I say as he runs his fingers through my hair one more time . " That's okay . The goal is to make you relaxed . Thank you for trusting . me and talking to me this evening .

I'm already enjoying our evening chats , " he says , his tone getting stronger , more normal as he talks , Lopen I open my eyes and look around , feeling a bit dizzy from the massage and the emotions that he's igniting in me . He stands , carefully moving around me before offering me his hand . I take it and he helps me up , his hands going to my hips when I sway slightly . " Give it a minute , " he says , watching me closely . I lick my lips , and his eyes track to the movement .

" Is kissing part of the class ? " I ask , realizing that if I wasn't still feeling so dazed , I would never have asked that . " That's up to the partners . Kissing can sometimes feel more intimate than touching . We can talk about that when your head is clearer . Get some sleep , and maybe before that , take care of that ache . " " Oh , I intend to , " I tell him , as he hands me my shirt . I pull it over my head and walk to his door . " Good night , Sebastian . " " Good night , Christina . "

The Alpha Train Novel - Chapter 20

Chapter 20

Chapter 20 Sebastian This semester is going to be the death of me . No , scratch that , Christina Kneeland is going to be the death of me , She smells so fucking good when she's aroused . Her sweet moans and soft , breathy voice make me so fucking hard that I can hardly hold myself back from touching her . I shouldn't have started putting my mouth on her so soon , but the pull , the intense desire to taste her was more than I could withstand .

If I was a smart man , I'd tell her it's not a good idea for her to be my assistant . I'm already struggling to control my body's response when I'm around her . I should tell her I'll find someone else . But for the first time in my life , I realize that I may not be a smart man , because I have no intention of finding any other assistant . I want her . And the more time I spend with her , the more I want her .

Unlike the Alphas Dane has kept from her, I want Christina the woman , not Christina the Alpha . Although , the Alpha in me loves the challenge that the Alpha in her presents me . Challenge number one : Try to make it through the semester without rubbing my dick raw . I swear I haven't jacked off like this since I was a teenager . After another long night of wet dreams where Christina starred once again , I get up and head to the kitchen for coffee .

Somehow , those of us who have been on the Train together for years , all seem to congregate for coffee at the same time . This morning is no different . " Anyone have any idea how late that party went last night ? " James asks . " I got up to get some water around midnight and it didn't look like it was winding down at all , " Laura says . Just then , Haley walks in , rubbing her eyes and yawning hugely . " I went to bed at one and Alpha Ezra left when I did .

Alpha Logan and Emma were still up partying . " I look up and meet Christina's gaze . I can tell she's thinking the same thing I am . Logan better wrap his shit up or that girl will trap him . " I'll talk to him , " James says , just as Will walks in . " Good morning , everyone . This seems to be a popular place first thing in the morning , " he says , smiling at Haley . " Coffee , " we all say . " Would you like a cup , Alpha ? " Haley asks him . " I can get it , Haley , " he tells her .

Yep , I like him . I doubt he'll be back next semester because of his mate , but maybe he'll enjoy this semester enough to join us one semester a year or something . He fits in well and has the fatherly approach that works well with some of the younger she - wolves that come to work on the Train . " It's okay , Alpha . I'm making mine already . Plus , you like it black , so it ' s easy . Pour and drink , " she says . " What time does the train get to the station today ? " James asks .

" Two o'clock . And this stop is two hours long , so we all have time to let our wolves out or just get off the Train and stretch our legs , " Sylvie says to him , leaning against the counter beside him . I sip my coffee remembering what Christina said about Sylvie being in the sex class this semester . She's right . I don't see how either of them are comfortable with it .

I don't have a relationship with Christina , but I ' d struggle to watch someone else teasing her body the way that I want . to . And James and Sylvie have been together for years . I'm so deep in thought , that it takes me a moment to realize that James . is watching me watching him . When he finally catches my eye , he raises an eyebrow , silently asking if there's a problem . shake my head , no . " It'll be good to go for a run .

My wolf always gets antsy on these week- long train rides , " I say . " Agreed , " Will says . " I was hoping to go for a run before we left the station back home , but I arrived too late . " " We're picking up Alpha Tyler and Charlotte today , right ? " Mia asks . " That's ' s right , " Christina says . She and Haley seem to have taken charge of breakfast , so while we stand around talking , they prepare the food to start cooking .

" That's good , because once again , I don't see Emma in here , " Sylvie says , scowling . Alphas Benjamin , Daniel , and Ezra all arrive soon after Christina and Haley begin cooking . Logan and Emma don't arrive until we're already halfway done with breakfast . Logan is sporting several hickeys . I notice one of them is on his marking spot . He's playing a dangerous game with Emma . After breakfast , I pull Christina aside . " How are you feeling after last night ? " " Physically or mentally ? " she asks .
