

The Alpha Train Novel - Chapter 41

Chapter 41

Chapter 41 "Are there ten deer in your herd?" Will asks, having spotted the deer in the distance. "Eleven with the fawn." I say, still sniffling the air with my eyes closed. "And you have, what, four coyotes nearby?" Benjamin asks, his head tilted to the side very similar to what his wolf would look like if he was listening to the sounds. I sniff the air. "I smell four." "I do as well." Daniel says. When I look, he has the same stance that I do; eyes closed, nose in the air. "Alright!

Now it's time to see what everyone has been waiting for," James says, rubbing his hands together quickly as if this is the most exciting thing ever. It's pretty close. "The Beast?" Logan asks. "The Beast," James says. The young Alphas begin chanting way out of the sensory area and inst Beast. Beast' as we make our the strength training area. Out of habit. I look up at Christina's room. I know she's not there, but I can't stop myself from looking just in case.

I see that she's opened her windows to air out her room. I did the same in my room. I get a flash of last night's dream, me thrusting into her, letting myself lose control while the gentle breeze floats over my skin, atte ting to cool the heat that she ignites inside me. 12:19 Chapter 41 288 Mouchers I drag my eyes away, forcing myself to focus, just as the Alphas stop their chanting. "What the fuck is that?" Noah asks. "That, my young Alphas, is the Beast.

You didn't think it was actually going to be easy, did you?" he asks them in a mocking tone. "Holy shit," Ezra says. "Damn, I'd forgotten how big it was," Daniel says. "Gentlemen and assistants, the Beast spreads out over two acres. It is partially outside and partially inside, rising up to six stories high in some areas and even going underground in other areas. As you can see, it is meant to test your strength, your intelligence, and your instincts.

The Beast isn't just about using your muscles to get through. This bad boy is riddled with tricks, traps, snares, and ambushes that will push you to your limits." "Do all Alphas make it through by the end of the semester?" Tyler asks. staring at the sight in front of him. "Nope," James says, practically gleeful. "How many make it through?" Liam asks. "Some semesters, none of the Alphas do. You can test yourself in human form and wolf form.

Points are given if you finish it before anyone else in the class in that form," I tell them. "I think I'll be happy if I just make it through," Logan says. "Shit, I'm beginning to wonder how I ever made it through," njamin says, staring at the Beast. "Did it get bigger?" 12 191 James chuckles. "Nope, we've just fine tuned it a couple of times" "Oh, good, because it wasn't hard enough before." Benjamin says. rolling his eyes. "Wait.

Alpha Sebastian, you added more points for one of us defeating an instructor on the Beast," Ezra says. looking at me "That's correct," I say. "Did you mean that we just have to outlast an instructor, or we have to finish the obstacle course before an instructor?" "Finish before an instructor," I clarify. "Did Alpha Christina understand that? Because she seemed excited about the challenge," he says, frowning as he looks back at the Beast.

"I'll clarify with her, but I'm pretty sure she understood the assignment." "Shit, she's going to be tougher than I thought," he murmurs. He has no idea. After dinner, we all stay in the dining hall that is also used as a meeting area for the Academy. My nerves have been ratcheting up ever since we arrived. I can't afford to fail, and I refuse to let my family, my pack, and most importantly, my brother down. But that doesn't mean that this isn't more intimidating than I was expecting.

The Beast is well, I'm just glad I wasn't the only one who was startled to see how difficult that thing looks. But to hear that not everyone can get through the obstacle course? I grit my teeth together, I don't have a choice. I have to do it. I have to pass the Academy. I feel a gentle hand on my shoulder a moment before I smell her 12:19 Chapter 41 lavender and grapefruit scent mixed with the black tea she sets in front of me. I smile up into her sweet greenish-brown eyes.

"Thank you, Haley, Are you able to get together again tonight?" I ask her. She smiles sweetly and nods. "I thought we could walk around the Academy's grounds, take a look at them a bit slower, what do you think?" I ask her. Chapter 42

Chapter 42 "I love that idea. I know it was a lot to take in all at once and I don't want to get lost," she says. "Me either. I can't be late for class because I couldn't find it," I whisper conspiratorially. It's not a large campus, and I'm pretty sure I won't get lost, but I like the feeling that she and I are working together for the same cause. "Do you want to sit beside me while we hear what Alpha James has to say?" I ask her. "The assistants all sit up in the front with the instructors.

That's what Christina told me anyway." "Okay, afterwards we can go for a walk then?" "I'd love that." I watch her walk up to the front, feeling Noah nudge me from my right. "She's a cutie," he murmurs. "She's too nice for you," I say, feeling an unexpected wave of jealousy. He snorts. "Charlotte's pretty hot," he says as we watch the others begin to file in. "I'm holding out for Christina," Liam says. I'm not the only one who laughs at that. "What?" he frowns, looking at us.

Chapter 42 "No way she lets YOU touch her. She's an Alpha, not some warrior who is going to fall at your feet, moron." Ezra says. "Oh, you think you have a better chance with her?" Liam asks. "I have enough respect for her that I won't be trying to get her into my bed. And I think she'll respect that a whole lot more than the pitiful way you tried to hit on her. All of us saw that you only became interested once you realized she was an Alpha. You didn't even bother remembering her name.

Although how you didn't smell the Alpha on her when you walked on the train is beyond me," Ezra says. "Scent isn't my primary sense," Liam growls. "It isn't mine either," Ezra says. "Alright everyone," Alpha James begins and Charlotte walks over to us, handing out folders with this semester's information enclosed. I open mine immediately, quickly looking through it to see what information is available before refocusing on Alpha James. "Let's start with the class schedules and instructors.

Classes run seven days a week. Monday through Thursday, you will have four classes a day. Friday through Sunday, you will have three. On those days, I suggest you use your free time to do homework or get with any of the instructors on areas where you are struggling. You have ten weeks to pass or fail this Academy. That doesn't leave a lot of time for you to fall behind." It doesn't leave ANY time to fall behind. I pull out the class schedule noting the days for each class.

"Strength and sensory classes run five days a week. Communication runs four days, Managing the Pack, Pack Finances, and Dealing with Crisis all run three days and the sex class runs two days." I follow along, seeing how they've broken up the classes so they can all be achieved in the week. "Let's start with the strength class. Alpha Sebastian will be the lead instructor for that class. His assistant this semester is Christina.

As you know by now, Christina is not only an assistant this semester, but also a student. Alpha Daniel will be the back-up instructor for this class and Mia will be his assistant this semester." I look over at Christina. Of everyone here, she and Ezra are the two that I've deemed my true competition. Logan and Liam are too arrogant, and there's something almost lazy about Noah. I think he'll pass the Academy, but he won't excel in it. "The sensory class will be led by me.

My strongest sense is hearing. My assistant this semester is Sylvie. Alphas Will and Daniel will be my back-ups in the class. Alpha Will's strongest sense is sight and Alpha Daniel's is smell. Make sure you know which instructor matches your own heightened sense. We're going to improve all of your senses. but we'll make sure to hone your strongest one. Alpha Will's assistant this semester is Haley," he says, and I turn, smiling at Haley.

She blushes the prettiest shade of pink I've ever seen, and I feel Noah nudge me again. I ignore him. Instead, I wink and I feel Noah blush deepens. Haley, smiling as the I look back at the instructors, making a mental note that Alpha Daniel and I share the same heightened sense. "The communication class will be led by me and my back up is Alpha Benjamin whose assistant this semester is Emma." I realize that leaves two assistants not assigned to an instructor, Laura and Charl 12.19

Chapter 43 "Pack Finances will be led by Alpha Will and Alpha Benjamin will be his back up. Managing the Pack will be led by Alpha Daniel and Alpha Sebastian will be his back up, and Dealing with Crisis will be led by Alpha Benjamin and Alpha Will is going to be his back up. That leaves the sex class." if I look over at Haley again. I'm not sure if she keeps looking at me, it's the mention of the sex class, or if she feels my gaze on her again, but she looks over and smiles at me.

She's got a beautiful smile. "Alpha Sebastian will be leading the sex class, and I'll be his back up. Your partners have been chosen by me and unless there is a good reason why you can't work with your partner, you'll figure it out. I will reiterate that all sexual interaction outside of the classroom will be at the discretion of your partner. I would suggest that you start getting to know them before the first class Tuesday evening.

Alpha Ezra, your partner is Charlotte." Ezra looks over and nods. Charlotte smiles shyly and I'm glad that I already started talking to Haley. Tuesday is going to be VERY awkward for some. "Alpha Logan, your partner is Sylvie." "Shit," he murmurs under his breath. "Alpha Liam, your partner will be Mia. Alpha Noah, your partner will be Emma, and Alpha Tyler, your partner will be Haley," he says and I once again wink at Haley. "You knew?" Noah asks. I shrug.

Chapter 43 "She told me." "Smart, getting to know her already," Ezra says, still watching Charlotte like he's trying to figure out how to break the ice with her. "So, if Christina is Alpha Sebastian's assistant..." Noah begins. "Yeah, good luck getting her into bed when she's got an experienced Alpha strumming her body," Logan smirks. "He's too old for her. She needs someone young, someone with stamina. Someone like me," Liam smirks arrogantly.

"You do realize that Alpha Sebastian was number one of the leaderboard when he went to the Academy, and it was only when his son took the number one spot four years ago that he was bumped off the leaderboard entirely?" I ask him. I am over his arrogance. Luna Sylvie was right. Christina has more class than to ever bother with someone like Liam. "He was number one on the leaderboard?" Liam asks, shocked. "So, was Alpha James, moron.

Try looking up your instructors so you know who you're dealing with before you do something stupid like think you can get away with anything while you're here. Oh, that's right, you already did something stupid. Two things, actually. You insulted Alpha Christina and pissed off Luna Sylvie. Not a good start for you," Ezra says. I like Ezra's no-nonsense approach. Mine is different, softer, but his works because it comes from a place of honesty, not arrogance.

"Now, let's talk about points," Alpha James says, getting our attention again. "You need eighty points to pass the Academy. There are nineteen ten-point coins-for the semester. I say nineteen even though one of those is rarely, if ever, used." Chapter 43 "Wait, that's not enough for all of us to pass," Noah says. He's right, if those were our only points. But I know from Tanner that they aren't. Alpha James holds up his finger to silence Noah, then continues.

"Five of those nineteen come from the sex class." He lifts one finger. "First to give their partner an orgasm. One winner for the 10 points. He holds up a second finger. "Bringing your partner to orgasm through touch alone. These points are available to anyone who achieves the goal." He holds up a third finger. "Bringing your partner to orgasm through oral stimulation, also available to anyone who achieves this goal." He holds up a fourth finger.

"Bringing your partner to orgasm through penile stimulation, available to anyone who achieves this goal. And finally, the highest number of orgasms provided to your partner in one session, one winner of the ten points.

All of these are determined by your partner and only the last one must be completed in class so we can ensure that your partners aren't trying to give you an unfair advantage by getting points you haven't earned." "Wait," Ezra says, lifting his hand in the air and glancing at Charlotte before looking back at Alpha James. "We have to bring our partners to orgasm multiple times in class? Is that even possible? I mean, there will be others in the room. Won't that make things uncomfortable for our partners?" -288 Wor Chapter 44

"After the first week, there will be curtains between each of the tables. If you are doing what you should be doing, you'll be focusing on your partner and not what everyone else is doing. This is part of the trust that you need to build with them. I would suggest that you spend as much time out of class as your partner will allow building that trust," Alpha Sebastian says. I already knew this. I can see the wheels in Ezra's head turning.

"That's why you and Alpha Christina get together every night?" "Absolutely." The others had been talking about the two of them having an affair, much like Alpha James and Sylvie, but I knew it wasn't that. If you pay attention, you can see that Alpha Sebastian and Alpha Christina aren't as comfortable together as Alpha James and Luna Sylvie are.

Ezra turns and looks at me, the realization that Haley was in my bedroom last night building trust finally dawns on him.

He didn't give me a hard time about it like the others did this morning, but I can tell he doesn't like the knowledge that I'm already ahead of him in earning trust with my partner. He's definitely going to be tough competition. "The sex classroom will remain open if your partners feel more comfortable meeting there, or if you want to work on them feeling more comfortable in an open-air environment.

Otherwise, you can meet whenever and wherever you and your partners are most comfortable," Alpha Sebastian says, "Moving on to the strength class. Most of you know that Ai, Sebastian has added another category this semester, which is open to Chapter 44 1233 Mecha everyone. Defeat an instructor on the Beast by completing it before he does. Those points are available to anyone.

There are thirty other points that can be obtained in that class: Number one in sparring, first to complete the Beast in human form, and first to complete the Beast in wolf form. Obviously, those are only for the best or first to achieve the goal." No one has any questions about those points. "The sensory class also has forty points available all for the best: best in sight, best in hearing, best in smell, and overall best in sensory.

"So, you can win twice in that class?" Ezra asks, making notes of where and how he can get points. "No. You're either best in one sense or you are best overall. There are only six of you, so these should be relatively easy points to obtain." I look around, wondering who the other scent person is in our class. I hope it's not Christina, although that would give me a good challenge. "What's your heightened sense?" Noah asks, leaning over to whisper. "Scent." "Me too," he says, and I smile.

I've got those ten points in the bag. "There are ten points for the person who is top in the Communication ructors, ten points for being class as determined by your top in Managing the Pack, which is instructor and test determined, and ten points for being top in Dealing with Crisis which is instructor determined." I look over the list of points I'd written down. "That's only seventeen, Alpha," I say and Ezra nods . Chapter 44 "You said there were nineteen," he adds. "That's correct.

One is rarely given, but it does happen. There are ten points if someone actually has to and appropriately deals with a crisis during their time in the Academy. And the final ten points are for the first person who earns a point from every assistant." "Individual points?" Logan asks. "Yes. You will be using what you learn in your classes during your interactions with each other with your instructors, and with the assistants. It is at all of our discretion to give you individual points.

To go back to your previous question, Alpha Noah, you do not have to earn any points in any class to pass the Academy if you earn them individually. It's a lot harder that way, but many young Alphas have passed the Academy by earning individual tokens." "How do we earn them?" Ezra asks. "By being good Alphas," Alpha James says cryptically before turning to the assistants.

"Ladies, can you give the young Alphas examples of reasons you give them individual points?" "Being helpful." "Being polite." "Going out of their way to assist with something." "Listening." One by one, Luna Sylvie, Luna Mia, Christina, and Laura all give examples of reasons they've given points. "So, it's objective. It's anything YOU deem worthy of giving a token for?" Ezra clarifies. "That's correct." "Why would we give points away? We'd only be helping our competition." Liam asks.

"Maybe that competition is the reason you're not kicked out of the Academy." Alpha Sebastin says. Chapter 45

Chapter 45 "Or that you pass a class," Alpha Benjamin says. "Or that you find a way to defeat the Beast," Alpha Daniel says. "There are a lot of reasons why you could and should thank your fellow Alphas. If you're giving away more than you're receiving, perhaps you need to think long and hard about why that is," Alpha James says. "If you're doing well, you can afford to be generous. He looks around, waiting for more questions. "Points are disseminated.

every night during dinner for the previous twenty-four hours. Yes, we do it publicly and yes you have to say why you are giving the points," he says, looking over at the assistants before looking back at us. "We do it publicly so that you can clearly see who your competition is. Does it put a target on your back? Possibly. Or maybe it just gives others the necessary incentive to work harder." "Do instructors still earn points?" Alpha Will asks, making me frown. "Fuck yeah we do!

I love earning more points than the young Alphas." Alpha James says, smirking at us. I smile at his enthusiasm. Once an Alpha, always an Alpha. When all questions have been answered, Alpha James dismisses us. I'm sure the others' brains are swirling with the information we just learned, I know mine is. But I have work to do tonight. I walk over to Haley. "I'm going to drop this off then we can. eat down here and go for that walk?" 12:200 "I'll be here," she says.

"Excellent." I turn to walk out, seeing Noah walking over to Emma, and Ezra coming up to Charlotte. "Hi, Charlotte. I'm Alpha Ezra. I thought maybe we could talk and get to know each other a bit." "Okay," she says. I walk out of the room and see Logan and Liam heading outside to go for a run. I shake my head as I jog upstairs. Those two will be lucky if their arrogance doesn't get in the way of them graduating.

Now that we're finally at the Academy, it's time for me to show Christina what it will be like for her in the classroom and also for me to make her come. I'm more excited about that than I should be. Almost as excited as I am about tasting her, but that's still a few days off. As we all begin to leave after our meeting, I walk up to Christina who is watching the young Alphas approach their partners. Well, three of them anyway. Logan and Liam walk out.

"Well, that's disappointing," Mia says, shaking her head. "They're not even going to make an effort." "Are you really surprised? Considering who we're assigned to?" Sylvie asks. "Nope." "Christina," I say, as I approach. 12200 Chapter 45 "Hello. Sebastian. Where did you want to meet tonight?" 1208 Vouchers "I'd like to meet in the classroom, let you get a feel for being in the front of the class. How do you feel about that?" I ask her. "I'm nervous," she says honestly.

"But I think I need to do it. Like you said, better now than on Tuesday night." "Exactly." I say. "Take your bathrobe, Christina. Change in the bathroom and walk out in it. That will be something else you'll have to get used to. I'd start tonight because it's not something that is immediately comfortable," Sylvie says. "Agreed." Mia says to her. She nods. "I think I should have brought a different bathrobe," she says. "We have some in storage. Grab one if you want it.

I keep them stocked for this class," Sylvie says to her. "Thanks," she says before turning back to me. "I guess I'll meet you there?" I nod. "I'll go get set up." I walk to the classroom that is designed specifically for this class. Five is a large class of Alphas. Usually, there are empty beds between the tables which gives the partners a bit more privacy, but we won't have that this semester.

When I turn on the lights, letting my eyes adjust to the harsh glow, I check the dimmer to make sure it's working properly. I turn the lights back up, wanting Christina to feel exactly what it will be like when she Chapter 45 1244 Vouchers walks in Tuesday night, then I go check the table. I've just made sure that the locking mechanism is working so the table won't collapse while she's on it and that the heat is turned on when she walks in from the bathroom area.

She looks around, holding her bathrobe closed tightly at her chest. It's a fluffy white bathrobe with matching slippers that all the partners wear for this class. I give her a minute to take it in then hold out my hand to help her up the steps as she walks over. Chapter 46 Chapter 46

Chapter 46 "Is it always this bright?" she asks. "No, only when we first come in and begin. Have a seat on the table, I'll show you," I say, walking to the dimmer and lowering the lights. She chuckles. "What?" I ask as I walk back. "I'll definitely be getting some naps in here," she says. "Good. That means you think you can relax enough to sleep even in the front of a room full of others.

Why don't you turn around and face the room," I suggest, walking in front of her as she swings her legs over the table and spins around. "While you're up here, I'll be talking. Others will be talking as well, but their voices should remain quiet. The goal is to have everyone relax and if any of the young Alphas don't cooperate, they'll be removed from the class by James.

As the lead instructor, I'll mostly remain up here with you, but there may be times I need to go down to assist one of the Alphas." "Assist?" she asks, frowning. "I don't touch their partners.

All of you have only agreed to allow one of us to touch you, But that doesn't mean that I can't provide direct *tch." instruction to the Alpha who may need assistance: Depending on what they are or aren't doing, I may need to be close enough to "That can't be comfortable for the partner," she says, still frowning. Chapter 45 "It's not common. It usually only happens in the instance where an Alpha is too cocky or arrogant and isn't paying attention to their partner's body language.

And if that's the case, the partner isn't exactly enjoying themselves anyway. I give her a minute to look around and take it in. "If you want to start on your stomach tonight, so I can help you relax, we can. Otherwise, I'd like to start with you on your back. That won't be part of class until next week, but I want to make sure you're comfortable before we get to that point," I say. "Plus.

that will be a lot less comfortable than me being on my stomach up here," she says, rubbing her hands over her bathrobe. "It's good that we're doing this now. This is more uncomfortable for me than I realized." I stop, watching her. "Are you having second thoughts? I need to know before Tuesday. " She shakes her head. "No. It's just... it's a lot of exposure and it's not just laying here. You'll be touching me too and I'm sure I'll be responding." "That is the goal," I say.

"Right." She takes a deep breath, closing her eyes and letting it out slowly. Then she does it again before opening her eyes. "Are you good?" I ask, smiling. " Yes." "Is there anything you want to talk about before we get started tonight?" 1230 288 Voucher "Uh, yes, actually. You offered to be my partner if I decided to take the sex class. Is that offer still open?" I smile. At the same time, my cock comes to life in my pants.

The idea of being Christina's partner this semester is exhilarating, almost as exhilarating as what it means that she wants to take the class. "You're going for the leaderboard," I say excitedly. She shrugs, a smile tugging at her lips. "Go big or go home, right?" "You're not going home. Not yet anyway," I say, raising my hand in a high five gesture. When she slaps it, I grab hold of her hand.

"I can't wait to see your name on there." She huffs a sigh, and I tilt my head in a silent question as I release her hand. "Apparently, I really am the only one that doesn't think I can get on that leaderboard." I put my hands on either side of her and lean in. "Maybe you're the only one who doesn't believe in you. But the rest of us see what you're capable of, Christina. I can't wait until you have that same confidence in yourself. So yeah, I'll be your partner.

And like I said before, we can talk about whatever struggles you're having during our evenings together. I'll help you in any way you need. You are going to have the hardest time of everyone because you'll be working too, but I know you're up for the challenge." "Thanks, Sebastian." "Anything else?" I ask her. "No. Not right now anyway. Chapter 46 1200 Mouchits "Okay, why don't you put your robe over there and lie down on the table, face up." She takes another deep breath and does as I ask.

I have to control my already aching cock when she lays down. My memory isn't nearly as good as the real thing. Her body is fucking perfect. Chapter 47 1288 Mouch Chapter 47

Chapter 47 "So, just like when you're on your stomach, I'll always start at your head and work my way down and then back up. Tonight, I'd like to make you come. It's easier in this position, since I have access to your clit if needed. Are you willing to let me touch you and make you come?" I ask her. She nods, her chest is rising and falling as her breaths come more quickly and her heart rate increases a bit. "Relax. That's all you have to do.

Just relax and tell me if I touch you in any way that you don't like. I begin with her shoulders and neck, watching as her eyes close and her body slowly relaxes as if she's already used to my touch. She moans softly as I find the knots in her shoulders and begin working them out. "How long is this class?" she asks, not opening her eyes. "An hour to an hour and a half.

It can go longer, but that's usually only when someone is struggling." "So, between Liam and Logan, we'll be having two-hour classes for a while," she says, making me smile. "Probably," I say, moving to her chest. "Do I get massaged the entire time?" "If you'd like. If you fall asleep, I may soften my touch to keep you Chapter 47 asleep and not wake you." 284 Vouchers "How will it work if I take the class but you're the lead instructor?" she asks.

"That's a great question," I say running my hands over her breasts. She gasps and arches into my hands. Her nipples are already pebbled from exposure, and I slide my thumbs over them watching her mouth fall open as she moans again. I love how fucking responsive she is to me. "I need you as my partner in the class. But maybe we can use two nights a week for you to practice on me.

We can do that wherever you're most comfortable, here or in one of our rooms," I tell her, moving to her side and running my hands over her stomach. "I'm going to use my mouth on you again, okay?" She nods, her breath becoming more ragged. I use one hand to continue massaging her stomach while the other gently massages her breast. I lean over and flick my tongue over her nipple. Her body tenses and arches as she moans again.

The scent of her arousal gets stronger, and I suck her nipple into my mouth, swirling my tongue around in soft, but firm circles. I feel her hands clench at her sides, and I pull off her nipple, letting my teeth graze over them as I do, eliciting another, deeper moan. Interesting. "You can hold on to me if you'd like," I tell her. She nods as she lifts one hand to grip my shoulder and the other goes into my hair. I suck her other nipple into my mouth, swirling until it's in a nice hard peak.

Then I gently bite down, holding her nipple between my teeth as 1220 Chapter 47 I continue to swirl my tongue over the tip. Her grip on my hair is almost painful as her body arches into my mouth and the scent of her arousal fills my nose, making my head spin. I slide my hand between her thighs and feel how soaked she is. I smile to myself. She likes just a little pain with her pleasure. I pull off her nipple again and begin kissing my way down her stomach.

She's panting as I begin massaging her upper thigh on this side. As much as I want to taste her. I need to make sure I can make her come easily just from my touch. I swirl my tongue around her belly button before lifting my head and focusing on the massage. I work my way down her muscular thighs, running my thumbs over her shins and working through the knots that I find there before getting to her feet.

Her feet are easier to massage in this position, so I spend some time rubbing her feet, taking in her heated skin, her breathing that is still heightened, and how her body is shifting just enough for me to know that she's aching and needs a release. I begin working my way back up her body. Her thighs roll if beckoning me to relieve her ache. When I slide my hand between her thighs again, she's dripping. vard, as " Open your legs for me." I murmur, fascinated by the sight of her in front of me.

She does as I ask, and I slide my fingers through her slit to her entrance. I look up to watch her as I slowly slide a finger inside her. Chapter 48

Chapter 48 Fuck, she is so fucking wet and so warm. My cock twitches painfully in my pants. I slide my free hand up to her nipple, tugging it, then rolling it between my fingers. She whimpers, her body pushing against my hand. I slide a second finger inside her, feeling her inner walls fluttering around my fingers. She's so fucking close. I move my hand to the other nipple, teasing it in the same way as the first as I begin thrusting my fingers in and out of her slick heat.

Her breathing becomes more ragged, and she grips the edge of the table, her body tensing like a taut spring. I growl softly as I hook my fingers inside her, rubbing the spot that I know will make her come. Her eyes flash open and she cries out as her inner walls clench around my fingers. I hold her there for a moment, then slowly bring her down. When her body's contractions slow, I slide my fingers out of her, practically desperate to taste her, but I don't want to cross that boundary.

Instead, I wipe my hand on the towel beside the table, making a mental note to bring another one tomorrow night. "Better?" I ask her. She nods, still panting from her release. "Good. Tomorrow we'll try for more than one orgasm. He does that sound?" She nods again, but there's something off about the look on her face. Chapter 48 1280 Maybe she's uncomfortable that I just made her come like I did, so I step back and offer her the bathrobe so she doesn't feel vulnerable.

"How about Mondays and Wednesdays. Or Mondays and Thursdays?" I ask. "What?" she asks, her voice still deep from her orgasm. "For you to practice on me? You can start this Wednesday if you'd like. I'd still like tomorrow to prepare you for Tuesday, if you agree." "Yeah, okay," she says, and I can feel her starting to mentally get back to normal. "Good. Then, I'll see you tomorrow night?" "I'll be here," she says, still looking uncomfortable. "Christina, is everything okay?" "Perfect.

Thank you, Sebastian." "You're welcome. Sleep well, Christina." "You too, Sebastian," she says before walking back into the bathroom to change. I watch her go, holding back the pride that I feel. I can't wait until tomorrow night at dinner when she gives me that 'O' token she's been holding onto for two years. Christina I faked it. I faked my orgasm with Sebastian. I had been so lose and then, the same thing that happens every time I'm with someone happened again. I can't let go.

I can't let go of the control needed to let Chapter 48 someone bring me to orgasm. I had been so close, so damn close and then my brain had locked down. I was afraid that he'd keep trying and that I would lose the control, so I faked it. I learned how to do that very well years ago. And it worked. But now, if he finds out... After tossing and turning all night, even after I finally gave myself the release my body was desperate for, I couldn't sleep.

Today is the first day of the Academy and I can't fucking sleep. It's a great start to my one and only semester of taking the classes and trying to get on the leaderboard. I roll my eyes and toss the blankets aside before pulling on my running clothes. I could run in wolf form, but right now, I need to feel the burn of mental peace and figure in these muscles. I need to find some sort out some way to talk to Sebastian.

The whole point of me being his assistant in this class was so he could show the other Alphas how to make a woman orgasm, and my brain won't let it happen. As soon as my feet hit the pavement, my mind begins working through everything. Maybe I can pretend that the orgasm was real. No, that's not fair to Sebastian. I should have said something last night, but I couldn't. I was feeling raw at having come so close to letting go, at giving him that power over my body.

How am I ever going to get through this class if I can't relax enough to give him control? Honestly. the student part with me being in control seems a whole lot easier than being in the assistant role. Eventually, the rhythmic pounding of my feet and the cool morning air help to clear my head. I've just finished the second loop around the running path, nearly five miles, when the classroom building comes into view.

Without really understanding why, I find myself inside the building and in front of the current leaderboard, staring at Dane's name. In order for me to give it my all this semester, I have to go up against my hero, my brother. I'm still not sure I'm ready for that.

"Whose ghost are you chasing?" Alpha Tyler asks, walking up so silently that I didn't even hear him.

I smile. "You've been talking to Sebastian."

"More like he was talking to me," he says, shrugging.

"Number two, that's my brother." I turn and look at him. I already know the answer, but I wonder if he'll open up to me. "Whose ghost are you chasing?"

"Number four. That's MY brother."

"At least yours really is a ghost," I say, then flinch. "Sorry, that was insensitive."

"No, it was the truth. But I don't think that makes it any easier for me than it is for you. But as Alpha Sebastian told me, your brother's shoes aren't yours to fill. You shouldn't try. Walk in your own shoes and be who you are, Alpha Christina."

"You think it's that easy?"

"Oh hell no. But I think I'm uniquely qualified to understand the feeling of wanting to fill another's shoes and knowing I can't. I'm still trying to come to terms with the fact that mine will have to be enough for my pack," he says, staring up at the leaderboard, then turning to me.

"Do you know who number one is?"

I look up and see the name, Alpha Ryan, but don't recognize where he's from. It was before I started working here. "No. I just know he's the Alpha that bumped my brother out of the number one spot four years ago."

"That's Alpha Sebastian's son. If there is anyone who could help you achieve your potential and put your ghosts to rest, it's him."

"Maybe that's why he's taken such an interest in me this semester. He seems to see something in me that I don't see in myself."

Tyler turns to look at me fully. "You really don't see it?"

I raise an eyebrow. "You do?"

"From the moment I saw you. I didn't know you were Alpha Dane's sister either. I just saw it in you right away."

I blow out a breath. Everyone seems to see something in me that I don't see in myself. "Well, I guess I'll find out just how much I'm not seeing this semester."

"If you really don't see it, then I think you'll be surprised. I didn't call you my greatest competition for no reason, or because you said I was yours. You have a strength, a confidence in you Christina. It's obvious to anyone paying attention from the moment they meet you. I have no doubt if you had been the heir to your pack, that your name would already be on that leaderboard."

I push off the wall and stand. I need to get showered and get to breakfast so I can get to class early to help Sebastian.

"For the record, Alpha Tyler, I said you were, and I still feel that you are, my greatest competition this semester." I glance back up at Dane's name. "I saw my brother leave for the Academy knowing he couldn't afford to fail. He didn't just succeed; he excelled because he felt like he had to. I think you'll do the same and I believe that you'll be more than enough for your pack, Alpha."

"Thanks, Christina."

"Thank you," I say and head out.

My mind is full of everything while I shower and get changed into sparring clothes, then head to breakfast.

"Good morning, sunshine," Sylvie says with a big smile on her face.

"Someone woke up on the right side of a dick," Mia scowls, drinking her coffee.

"Is there a wrong side?" Sylvie asks, smirking.

"Apparently not for you," I say, getting some coffee. "What's for breakfast?"

"Haley, what delightful dish are you tempting James with this morning?" Sylvie calls out.

"Skillets," she says, making me smile.

"What kind of skillets?" I ask.

She pokes her head around the part of the stove that is set up as a griddle. It makes cooking large breakfasts much easier. "All kinds. Laura has been great at prepping the ham, bacon, and beef, while Charlotte has been chopping veggies, and I have the potatoes cooking now, so I can make them to order."

"I'll take an everything skillet," James says, walking in and nipping Sylvie on the side of her neck. "I'm very hungry this morning," he growls.

"Yeah, you are," she murmurs.

Sylvie doesn't have any problems letting go and letting James give her orgasms. Just me. Just Christina.

"Good morning, Alpha Sebastian," Mia says.

The Alpha Train Novel - Chapter 50

Chapter 50

Chapter 50

Later that day, Sebastian approaches me with a challenging gleam in his eyes.

"Christina, I think it's time you faced the Beast."

I feel my stomach drop. The Beast - the Academy's most notorious obstacle course. I've watched countless Alphas attempt it, and seen many carried off to the infirmary with broken bones and twisted joints.

"Are you serious?" I ask, trying to keep the nervousness out of my voice.

"Dead serious. If you're going to compete at the level your brother did, you need to push your limits."

"Yeah!" I hear the other Alphas begin to cheer as word spreads that we're heading to the Beast. I don't feel confident, not at all. I've never attempted the Beast before, but I've seen many young Alphas go to the infirmary because of it.

"Human or wolf form?" Sebastian asks.

I look over the Beast, studying its intimidating structure. Since I've never done it, it feels safer to try it in human form first. "Human."

"Let's do it."

We move to the starting point and take our positions. The Beast is set up to allow competitions like this. There is a small separation between the two sides, but anyone could move from one side to the other easily, unless you're neck and neck with your competition.

"You've got this, Christina," Ezra says. Surprised, I turn and look at him. He nods at me, and I smile. I appreciate the encouragement.

I turn back, ready to go.

"Kick his ass, Christina," James says, stepping up to the starting line and showing Alpha Daniel how to call the start.

"Really?" Sebastian asks him.

He shrugs unapologetically. "Just hedging my bets."

"Competitors ready?" Alpha Daniel calls out.

Sebastian and I both crouch into our starting positions.

"GO!"

Chapter 51

I take off like a shot, hearing the cheers of the Alphas behind me as I race up the ramp to the first challenge. These are padded balls that spin as you run across them. I leap quickly, stepping on each one only once and not giving the padding time to spin and throw me off.

I reach the landing and look ahead at the bar that I'll have to move up, like a ladder, with nothing but my upper body strength. I leap, grabbing hold of the bar and begin pulling myself up, then quickly lifting the bar up into the next ring before gravity takes my weight and pulls me back down.

Sebastian is a step behind me getting off the rolling pads, but I hear him quickly catching up on the bar climb. He passes me, then kicks his feet up and slides onto the ramp above us as I pull myself up to get my bar in the last rungs.

"Come on, Christina, keep up!" he grins at me before taking off to the next challenge.

I get the bar into the last slot and slide my body onto the ramp, quickly getting to my feet and running. I've just about hit the rope bridge when I see something flying at Sebastian's head. He ducks just in time and the arrow hits a target beside the bridge.

I look on my side and see the targets. I take a breath and begin running, listening for the shot or whistling of the arrows. The bridge bounces, making it hard to move fast enough to get out of the way. I hear the first arrow launch and I look just in time to arc my body into a C as the arrow whizzes past my stomach.

Shit! I move quickly between the targets, then stop, looking at where the arrows shoot from. Rather than trying to run, I dive, curling my body into a tight ball and landing on the other side of the target as an arrow nicks the back of my calf. As I roll up, I check it. It's bleeding but my wolf will heal me before I'm done with the Beast.

Once again, I quickly run between the targets then assess the angle of the arrow launcher before leaping over the area, using the target to help give me some height. The arrow shoots where my thigh was a moment ago.

I race to the last target and check the arrow launcher. I know from seeing Sebastian that this one is aimed higher at head and shoulder level. I duck as I run, feeling the arrow graze over my back as I get to the other side of the challenge.

I look up to see Sebastian. He's on a level above me, having already completed the next challenge.

"Keep going!" he encourages.

I look at the next challenge. I can't tell what it is, but this one has walls on either side of it. I smell gas and fire.

I swing my hand in front of me and flames shoot out. I yank my hand back before it can get burned. Well, this looks super fun.

I take a step, leaning back, but there is a trigger on the floor as well and more flames leap out. I yank my leg back but not before I feel the heat of the fire against my leg.

Shit. This is going to be harder than I thought.

I study the pattern of the flames, watching how they trigger. There has to be a way through this without getting burned alive. Sebastian made it through, so there must be a technique.

Taking a deep breath, I prepare for the next phase of the Beast, knowing that each challenge will only get more difficult from here.
