Could There Be a Treasure Worth Hundreds of Millions? (3)

“What’s wrong, brother? I just want to earn some money from you! Are you giving me a chance to get rich together?”

Huang Tianba’s eyes were smiling while his words were very explicit. Any smart person could hear it.

“Let’s talk about cooperation next time. I want to do it alone this time. Brother, just name a price.”

Luo Feng continued to play dumb, not understanding what the other party was saying.

There were so many ponds with red dots.

‘Split it with you? What the hell are you thinking?’

“You...”

When Huang Tianba heard Luo Feng’s words, he was a little unhappy. However, he still smiled and said, “Brother, I’ll be straightforward. If you find any big treasures under me, let’s work together to develop them. You don’t have to contract the fish pond. As long as the things are worth hundreds of millions, you can take 70% and I can take 30%!”

Huang Tianba calculated. If it was a hundred million, wouldn’t he be earning thirty million?

“Brother, what are you thinking about? I’m contracting the fish pond just to fish when I have nothing to do. Besides, I’ve thought about it. This place is very suitable to set up a paid fishing venue. After all, there are many men in the city whose hobby is fishing.”

Obviously, Luo Feng used Taichi again.

The other party did not fall for it. In any case, he was determined to work with Luo Feng.

Luo Feng denied him the treasure.

The other party would never believe it. It was already a dozen lines of dialogue.

“Alright, alright. Kid, you’re not honest at all. You want to eat alone, right? Let me tell you, no way! Without my permission, you can forget about the treasures below!”

Huang Tianba had already spoken to the other party nicely today. However, the other party refused no matter what. It was obvious that there was a treasure.

Why are you pretending to be a big bad wolf?

Disgusting.

He didn’t know how to share at all.

“Hehe, that’s fine. Since you know, I won’t pretend anymore. That’s right, I found a treasure! But without me, Luo Feng, I’m afraid you won’t be able to find it even if you drain the pond!

“Perhaps, do you have the guts to drain the pond and dry it yourself? What if you can’t find it? Hehe...”

When Luo Feng saw this, he did not indulge the other party.

He flicked his sleeves and turned to leave.

...

But just at that time, Su Meiji’s assistant, Gu Xiaofang, rushed into her office.

“Miss Su, I’ve found the host’s address! He actually went to your cousin’s house, and Luo Feng wants to contract Huang Man’er’s fish pond!”

“It looks like we can’t reach an agreement! Huang Man’er’s cousin, Duan Tiancheng, told me about this when we were chatting on WeChat!”

Huang Tianba was naturally a domineering title, and Huang Man’er was definitely his other name.

However, not many people in the village dared to mention it.

“Then, Luo Feng asked Huang Man’er to contract the pond? Didn’t they come to an agreement? What do you mean?”

Su Meiji was reading a document on her desk. The sudden incident made her a little dumbfounded.

Gu Xiaofang did not stand on ceremony and commented, “It’s very simple. Huang Man’er thinks that Luo Feng is searching for treasures everywhere, and must have found some treasures in his fish pond, so he wants to have a 50-50 chance of winning. It’s not like you don’t know Huang Man’er. He’s greedy and lustful.”

Huang Tianba had visited his cousin Su Meiji several times, and he even kicked himself too many times.

“Nonsense! Tell him to agree to transfer the fish pond immediately. Otherwise, it’ll be impossible for him to get my help again. I’ll ignore him from now on!”

Su Meiji was furious.

Her huge chain healthcare center was waiting for other people’s precious honey.

Why would her cousin make her unhappy now?

Wasn’t the powerful relative from Huang Tianba’s city Su Meiji who had made a fortune in the last seven or eight years? Because she was beautiful and capable at work, Su Meiji’s connections were also very strong.

Otherwise, Huang Tianba would be a pitiful person who couldn’t even find a wife.

“Okay, okay, okay!”

Gu Xiaofang quickly agreed. She did not dare to delay the big matter and quickly went out to call Huang Tianba...
