60 A Villa Worth 180 Million In Hand (2)

“Mr. Luo, may I know what you mean by this?”

“5 million? And you’re even deducting 0.5 kg for yourself?”

Gu Xiaofang had a bad temper, and upon hearing Luo Feng’s ludicrous’ statement, she burst out in anger.

Miss Su would almost never associate with people of low rank, much less treat them amicably, but she was all smiles that day.

Moreover, she had even recommended a house to Luo Feng.

Although Su Meiji did not go as far as selling her body to strike a deal with the villa’s owner, she still needed to treat them to several meals and had to go through several rounds of negotiations to reach the current settlement.

And yet!

Luo Feng was demanding such an exorbitant price?

“Ms. Su, it seems that your assistant has a rather foul temper.”

Luo Feng chuckled. It was normal for girls to be impulsive.

“Xiaofang, you misunderstood Mr. Luo’s words. Apologize to him now.”

Su Meiji could feel a creeping headache as she put her fingertips on her temples and smiled apologetically at Luo Feng.

“I...”

Gu Xiaofang did not understand. Why did she need to apologize?

Was 5 million yuan not an outrageous amount?

“Hehe, then I take that you’ve accepted my offer then. Ms. Su, let’s keep in touch. Feel free to come to my house to collect the honey when you have the time!”

“Also, thanks for the villa. We’ll move over in a few days.”

Luo Feng did not make things any more difficult for the assistant.

He stood up and left the private room.

Su Meiji also saw him off at the door.

After all, Luo Feng still had more treasures to hunt. Regardless of how beautiful Su Meiji was, Luo Feng's sights were focused solely on making money.

"Miss, why did you agree to a price of 5 million yuan? Isn't that ridiculously expensive?"

Gu Xiaofang and Su Meiji returned to the private room.

The assistant asked frantically.

"Just like he had mentioned earlier, it's all because of this title that's been attached to me!"

"Think about the forces backing my pursuers! They are basically either billionaires or maybe even multi-billionaires!"

"Now put yourself in his shoes, wouldn't getting involved with me be equivalent to putting yourself on a stake to be burned?"

"And as for the benefits that I gain by becoming acquaintances with him, well, I'll let you know soon enough."

"But still... 5 million yuan is..."

"There's also a plus side to this pricing. After all, the more extravagant the spending, the purer my relationship with him will be in the eyes of outsiders. It'll look like a standard transaction."

Upon hearing the last point, Gu Xiaofang finally understood.

"Wow, this man, he's able to think this far ahead?"

Gu Xiaofang suddenly realized and felt that her IQ was not enough.

"No, no, I have to apologize to him. My attitude just now was horrendous!"

As Gu Xiaofang spoke, she looked out of the window. She wanted to chase after him, but it was probably already too late.

"No worries, I got his WeChat, so let me contact him for you!"

Su Meiji stated as she flicked the hair in front of her forehead and spoke into her phone's microphone, "Mr. Luo, excuse me, but my assistant has just apologized for her rashness."

Ding Dong.

Luo Feng was just about to start driving when he received in message. He responded, "It's okay, she's young, and I've already forgiven her. Don't tell me that she's fallen for me?"

Haha!

Su Meiji laughed out loud.

When she passed the voice message to her assistant, she immediately ran away with a red face.

She went to the cashier outside to settle the bill.

However, she it was then that she learned that Luo Feng had already paid for it.

Sure enough, news of Su Meiji obtaining the honey had reached Mrs. Han's Healthy Restaurant.

And soon enough, they began to spread nasty rumors regarding the relationship between Su Meiji and Luo Feng, claiming that Su Meiji had seduced the young man with her looks.

Both organizations were competitors to begin with, and scuffles among them were commonplace.

However, Su Meiji's screenshot of the 5 million yuan transaction was akin to a hard slap across the other party's face.

Of course, Luo Feng had returned the extra 2.6 million yuan to Su Meiji. The whole point of the exorbitant price was for Su Meiji to get that expensive screenshot.

The 5 million yuan was a fake transaction between them.

...

"Good job, Brother Feng!"

"This villa is so beautiful!"

"What a big villa! It's so luxurious!"

"Man, what'd I give to live in a villa as luxurious as this! I wouldn't even ask for much, just a 10 year stay is enough to satisfy my cravings!"

"Good for you! As long as one follows Brother Luo to hunt treasures, everyone will have a chance to make money!"

"Agreed, Lucky Dog Wang has already made 5 million from following Luo Feng!"

"That extends to Blind Chen too! What he lacks in vision, he makes it up in luck! Not only did he recently purchase a BMW, I heard he even got hitched with a long-legged beauty! I'm so goddamn envious of him!"

"Shut up man! Don't remind me, I've only made 300 thousand!"

Three days after meeting Su Meiji, Luo Feng officially brought his parents into his new abode.

He also invited his friends from the village to come over for the open house.

There were about 80 people in his villa, making it a raucous and lively scene.

Moreover, due to the villa's massive size, even with 80 guests, there was still plenty of space to spare!

The second floor of the villa had a large living room of more than 400 square meters, which was somewhat like a small square.

There were more than ten tables of people.

Some played cards.

Some played Mahjong.

The women, on the other hand, went to the kitchen to cook. There was top-quality beef, pork trotters, mutton, and other ingredients in stock.

They would be taken out of the pot and enjoyed later.

“Don’t flatter me. I already said that this is only a temporary residence. I really can’t afford its 180 million price tag.”

Luo Feng modestly stated.

“Cousin, where should we go next?”

“The places you told us about in the past, we’ve already visited most of them!”

“My net worth is only 1.2 million at the moment, I feel like I’m lacking!”

In the face of Luo Yun’s question.

Luo Feng touched his chin and told him the next location he had chosen.

“Xin’an County is a large area with several mountains and rivers. I think it’s a good spot for treasure-hunting. Let’s go there next!”

In truth, the real reason Luo Feng had decided to head there was due to depth now being perceived by the system’s scanning abilities.

As such, Luo Feng was now able to scan mountains without issues.

This was because as long as an unexplored ancient ruins could be detected, the excavation process would definitely be much more cost-effective and time-saving compared to the scattered treasures from villages.

This was because the ruins were usually clumped up together, and there was no need to run around.

This was in contrast to village treasures where Luo Feng had to move about to locate scattered groups of treasures.

One of these options was clearly superior than the other.

“Xin’an County? What massive undertaking! Not only are the mountains there massive, there are also many villages!”

Upon learning of the new location, Luo Yun immediately looked forward to it.

“If you guys intend on following me, it’ll be very far from home. I think it’s best for you to rent a house in the county!”

“But don’t worry, I have a friend who said he knows a local boss there. He claims that they’ve recently moved out of a hotel, and I offered to rent the entire building!”

“You guys are really lucky to be able to use the rent of an ordinary house to stay in a hotel!”

The group of villagers laughed out loud at Luo Feng’s statement.

Meanwhile, Luo Yun had caught a glance of something.

“Wow, cousin, that person, could it be Ms. Su?”

“Yeah, that must be Ms. Su, right?”

“That woman is really beautiful. She’s a perfect match for Brother Luo!”

After all, Su Meiji had come to get honey.

The woman’s looks made the people in the village dumbfounded.

Luo Feng had no doubt that when the villagers returned home that night, their minds would likely be filled with images of her.

“Don’t cause any trouble for me. Her powerful suitors would definitely cause me no end of trouble!”

Luo Feng shook his head helplessly.

The difference in their status was too great.

What on earth were they thinking?

Before all else, he needed to look for more treasures to properly secure the 180 million villa he was currently living in.

“What are you afraid of, Brother Luo? With us here, the hundreds of people in the village will f*ck them up!”

“That’s right, so what if they’re a rich second-generation heir? If we continue following Brother Luo, we’ll all be equally as rich in the future!”

In truth, Luo Feng was not actually worried about Su Meiji’s suitors.

However, his main goal was to make money.

Love can come later once he had made enough of money.

Another three days passed.

Luo Yun led the young treasure hunters from the village and finally checked into the “ruins” of the former Jiangshan hotel.

While they were settling down, Luo Feng began scanning the outskirts of Xin ‘an County.

He scanned a few places.

Since there were not much treasures in the spots he scanned, he chose to let the villagers handle them instead.

The next morning, after having breakfast in the county, Luo Feng drove off in his Hummer.

“Brothers! It’s been ten days! Your host is now back!”

He looked at the mountain in front of him.

After properly placing his phone, he started the livestream...
