

A Trash 90

Chapter 90 - 90 Another Treasure Chest! Worth 140 million! \(1\)

90 Another Treasure Chest! Worth 140 million! (1)

“It can’t possibly be an atomic bomb, right?”

Luo Feng was not sure.

After all, the tip of the cylinder was rather sharp, making it look like a missile head.

However, it did not matter much.

Once he had dug it out a little more, he would be able to identify what the item was.

Unfortunately, not long after digging around the item, he received a system notification.

[ Ding! You have dug up a mine!]

[ It is worth 999 Yuan!]

F*ck!

!!!

!!!

Luo Feng almost lost his balance from the revelation.

A goddamn mine!

This is considered a treasure?

Are you sure it’s not a gift?

A grenade would only explode when it was thrown.

But for land mines, stepping on them had almost certainly equated to death.

“Li Shishi, what did you find? Why does Old Luo look like he’s holding a hot potato?”

When Zhang Shunyong noticed that something had been discovered and promptly ran over.

A few other rich second generation heirs also ran over.

“It’s a mine! Everyone, be careful!” Luo Feng took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down.

“F*ck me! A mine? An actual land mine!?”

Zhang Shunyong was shocked and immediately took a few steps back.

He was afraid that he accidentally stepped on the land mine.

“Crap, a landmine?”

“Sh*t! This is much more dangerous than a frag grenade!”

“Host, hit it with your hoe. Let’s see if it’s a dud!”

“Do you want to see the host being blown up?”

“Hurry up and call the police!”

Luo Feng was speechless. Out of all things he could find, why this? He looked at the second generation heirs surrounding him with palpable fear in his eyes.

He was not afraid of grenades as it was difficult to trigger them with the hoe’s effect.

However, the hoe’s ability was likely useless against land mines that exploded upon being stepped on!

“Stop all digging, there are mines here!”

“I’m not sure if the mines in this area are still active!”

“Just stop whatever you’re doing and hold still!”

Should it explode, it would also take several lives with it.

“Everyone, don’t move! Everyone, don’t move!”

“And stop digging!”

“This area might be a minefield!”

“Just stand where you are and don’t move! Don’t move your feet!”

To think that all this happened because Li Shishi wanted to take advantage of Luo Feng’s luck.

Now, they were all stuck in a minefield...

However, it did not seem like it was Luo Feng who found it.

The root of the issue had stemmed from Li Shishi who thought she had found some kind of great treasure.

“Luo Feng, I won’t move, I won’t move. But, do you think I’m currently stepping on a land mine?”

Li Shishi was simply scared out of her wits.

Her legs were shuddering hard.

After all, even she knew that land mines would only explode once someone took their feet off of one.

“Don’t worry, I’ll call the police immediately.”

Luo Feng was also very worried. He took out his phone and made a call.

“Ah? Little Luo, so, what’s the situation this time?”

“Did you find another cannon?”

After all, Luo Feng had found grenades and a cannon the previous day.

Captain Sun doubted that anything would top the surprise he had felt.

...

However, what he heard the next moment made him take back his words.

“Captain Sun, I’ve found a minefield, and it seems like there are plenty of these mines...”

F*ck!

!!!

!!!

When Captain Sun heard this, he was speechless and went completely silent.

“Hello, Captain Sun, are you listening?”

“Ah, Little Luo, I’m here. What did you just say, I could’ve sworn that I heard...”

“A mine!”

Thump. Thump.

Thump. Thump.

...

Captain Sun gulped down hard. “Alright, I got it. I’ll contact the combat division. Don’t move!”

Oh my God.

It was grenades and a cannon yesterday, and now, it’s land mines!?

Today, he directly planted a land mine?

After contacting the combat division, Captain Sun also mobilized the military engineering group.

They would arrive in about an hour.

But that only applied to the police, as they had to arrive earlier to maintain order at the scene.

The military would come later as their base is located quite a distance away from the area.

“Alright, I got it!”

Once he hung up on the phone, Luo Feng shouted to everyone, “Everyone, calm down! The military will be here in around an hour! We’ll be safe once they’re here!”

Although Luo Feng was overwhelmed with fear at first, he had eventually calmed down.

However, the rich second generation heirs did not seem to be calming down.

After all, how would any sane person calm down if they were to learn of potential land mines under them?

Although only one mine had been unearthed so far, Luo Feng knew that land mines were usually laid out in groups and not individually.

Wait...

Land mines...

They should only be priced at a couple thousand yuan each, right?

They probably wouldn't show up as dots then.

So what about the dot below me? It couldn't be a mine, right?

Upon this thought, Luo Feng slammed his hoe down into the soil and resumed digging.

This sent terror running down the spines of the second generation heirs.

What was going on?

Why is Luo Feng still digging?

F*CK!

You're in a minefield and you're still digging?

Isn't this a minefield? Do you tire of life?

Dong!

A light thrum could be heard.

Luo Feng had found something.

[ Ding! You have dug up a treasure with dozens of dots once again! ]

[ Value: 140 million ]

Holy sh*t!

Hundreds of millions?

There were indeed some good things lying in wait below.

This one treasure alone was even more impressive than most of his haul yesterday.

Then, deciding to test out the Swallowtail Hoe's death-defying ability, Luo Feng began to dig closer and closer towards the mine.

The closer he got, the more he found the hoe warping its digging spot against his wishes.

Does this mean that the Swallowtail Hoe can innately avoid the landmine?

Holy crap, this changes things!

If that's the case, I can safely remove the mine!

I can avoid it, after all!

This feeling made Luo Feng very uncomfortable, as this was some reality-bending level of cheats. It was as if he had God Mode on...