Chapter 771: 0 Memories

A genius from God's Domain?

Xu Ming couldn't help but follow the direction of Xu Bin's gaze and looked over.

Sure enough, he saw that there were ten geniuses, and their aura was obviously much stronger than other geniuses; the unbridled look on his brows was also very unscrupulous. competitor.

Seeing that these ten geniuses from the God Realm were so reckless and full of a "dog's eye to see people low", Xu Ming suddenly lost interest in making friends.

The genius of God's Domain?

so what?

It is nothing more than being born in the realm of the gods, and the cultivation environment is better than that of the dust world! It cannot be proved that their future achievements must be higher than the geniuses in the dust world!

Xu Ming couldn't help shaking his head secretly—he didn't even know where these geniuses from the God Realm got their "superiority of fascination".

However, these geniuses of God's Domain really have a very strong sense of superiority.

One of them was a demigod in red, with yellow hair standing taller than his head. He leaned one leg on the chair, his expression was like he was going crazy, he was grinding his nails, and he seemed to be talking to himself, and he said it very loudly: "A group of rogues from the world of dust, also delusionally trying to pass the king. Level trial, become the direct successor of the general? – What a joke!"

Another genius of the God Realm wearing tiger skin also said: “There are still people who are gearing up there, but I don’t think about it, what does this king-level trial have to do with you? It must be our ‘Shao Shao’!”

Shao Shao, that is, the cold young man who was surrounded by the middle of the ten geniuses of the gods.

Shao Shao’s full name is “Qian Yi Shang”. It is said that even in the Huangquan Realm of God’s Domain, he has a great background!

Another fiery red-haired genius of the God Realm said: “You can’t say that! – As far as I know, this king-level trial is divided into three stages! There is still hope for this group of aborigines in the dust world to be in the first place. In the stage, pick up some junk to go back!”

“Yes, hahahaha...”

From the beginning to the end, the icy young man “Qian Yishang” never made a sound; it was as if he didn’t even bother to say a word to the natives of the Dust World.

The geniuses of the dust world, none of them are good stubborn, immediately scolded angrily:

“Humph! Isn’t it from the realm of the gods? A pair of dog eyes have grown to the top of the head!”

“That is, who knows what you are in the God’s Domain! – Maybe, it’s just a group of trash who can’t get along in the God’s Domain, and they came here to show off their power!”

“It must have been bullied for a long time in the realm of the gods, and my psychology has become abnormal; therefore, I only look down on people as soon as I have the opportunity!”

There are also geniuses in the dust world who have been scolded as “extensive”:

“I * with your old mother! – Your mother gave birth to you bunch of dogs after selling it in the brothel of God’s Domain!”

“I don’t know how much I can do, but pretending to be X is quite capable! When the trial starts, don’t be cowardly like a dog!”

Facts have proved that ten mouths can only scold more than a hundred mouths.

There are only ten geniuses in God’s Domain. As soon as the scolding started, they were immediately scolded so much that they couldn’t even jump out.

In the end, the red-clothed and yellow-haired genius of the Divine Realm had no choice but to say viciously, “If it weren’t for the fact that it is strictly forbidden to do anything here, how could you all have a chance to speak!?”

“Humph!” Xu Bin also scolded red-faced, “You can’t do anything here, you can do whatever you want! – If you really have the ability, when the trial starts, your subordinates will see the real chapter!”

“A group of rabble! Wait, I’ll let you see the difference!” The red-clothed and yellow-haired genius hummed.

Xu Ming’s eyes narrowed slightly, and voice transmission asked, “Brother Xu Bin, can’t you do something here?”

Xu Ming was also from the Mote World—these ten geniuses from the God Realm were scolded all the geniuses in the Mote World; there was no doubt that Xu Ming was also scolded in it.

If he can do it, Xu Ming will definitely give them a “slap feast” and teach them how to behave.

“Brother Xu Ming, don’t mess around!” Xu Bin guessed of course, why did Xu Ming ask, “It is strictly forbidden to do this here! If anyone dares to take the initiative, they will be expelled and will no longer be able to participate in the king-level test. Practicing!”

“Okay...” Xu Ming had to temporarily write down the account.

If he was unable to participate in the king-level trial for the sake of ten wastes from God's Domain, Xu Ming certainly wouldn't do such a business.

Keep the accounts first, and then clean them up when the opportunity arises.

As for whether it can be cleaned up... Joke! Even the gods, Xu Ming had fought head-on, although he didn't win; could it be that he was still afraid of these ten scoundrels of the gods?

Together, Xu Ming and Xu Bin found a place to sit down.

Then, the geniuses of the dust world came one after another.

One day later...

An old man in gray robe stepped into the hall: "All 130 'personal successor candidates' have arrived, then, let's start the king-level trial!"

There are a total of 130 candidates; ten of them are from God's Domain.

"Let's briefly talk about the rules first!" the gray-robed old man said, "This king-level trial is divided into three stages! In the first stage, all 130 of you can participate; in the second stage, only 30 people can participate. Participate; in the third stage, only ten people can participate!"

That is to say: in the first stage of the trial, one hundred geniuses will be eliminated! In the second stage of the trial, another 20 people will be eliminated! The third stage of the trial directly determines who the "general's personal successor" is.

"But..." the gray-robed old man said again, "It's not easy for you to enter the king-level trial! Therefore, in each stage of the trial, even if you are eliminated, you can still get some rewards~www.readwn.com ~As an encouragement!—Okay, now follow me to the trial grounds of the first stage!"

One hundred and thirty geniuses all followed the gray-robed old man to a stone pagoda.

The stone tower is ordinary, and you can't feel the slightest aura fluctuation.

At the top of the stone tower, two books are suspended; one is gold and the other is taupe. The two books also did not feel the slightest aura fluctuation.

The gray-robed old man said: "The golden book, called 'The Book of Nine Feet High in the Dao', can test your attainment in the Dao of Heaven; the gray-brown book, called the 'Book of Heaven's Fate', can test your compatibility with the Dao of Heaven!— The trial of this first stage is to test your understanding of the Tao of Heaven and the compatibility of the Tao of Heaven!"

"The Nine-foot Book of Dao Gao, the Record of Heaven's Fate..." The red-clothed and yellow-haired genius of the God Realm secretly said, "These two treasures are extremely precious even in God's Realm, and I have never seen them before! Unexpectedly, this king-level trial, As soon as I came up, I used these two treasures to conduct a test..."

After a little hesitation, the red-clothed and yellow-haired genius shouted: "I will be the first test! — I will show this group of natives of the dust world how big the gap is between them and us! Hahahaha..."

Chapter 779: There Are Ways To Kill You

"The first stage of the test, the number one is... Xu Ming!"

City Lord Naihe announced the ranking without hesitation.

"Ranked second, Qian Yishang!"

This ranking should be said to be expected by most people. However, Qian Yishang's face suddenly became ugly.

"I'm not convinced!" Qian Yishang continued, "My level of understanding of the Dao of Heaven is so high, according to the usual judging rules, the first ranking should be mine!"

Usually, the judging rules of the first stage test are as follows: the total score of the Tiandao perception level test is "one hundred", and the total score of the Tiandao fit test is also "one hundred”; the scores of the two tests are added up, and the score The higher the ranking, the higher the ranking.

Qian Yishang argued with reason: “I am seven feet seven inches tall, so I can get seventy-seven points in the perception level of the heavenly way. And in terms of the degree of compatibility with the heavenly way, I am a seven-star first-class, and I can also get it. More than 70 points! – Adding the two points together, I can get at least 150 points!”

“And Xu Ming...” Qian Yishang continued, “Although he can get a full score of 100 points in terms of his compatibility with the Dao of Heaven, his understanding of the Dao of Heaven is only one foot and one inch, and he can only get a dozen points!—Two Adding up the items, his score is less than 120 points!”

Qian Yishang said unconvincingly: “I am one hundred and fifty points, he is one hundred and twenty points, why, but he is the number one!? – Naihe City Lord, the ranking you gave is unfair. Bar?”

Qian Yishang also relied on his extraordinary background in God’s Domain, so he dared to question City Lord Naihe like this.

“Is it unfair?” Naihe City Lord said calmly, “Qian Yishang, the judgment rules you said are indeed correct! But... those are just the judging rules under ‘normal’ circumstances!”

“What is the normal situation?” City Lord Naihe laughed. “That is—if those who take the test are ‘only’ geniuses of your level; then, it is called the normal situation!”

Naihe City Lord specially increased his voice on the word “just”, which made Qian Yishang look embarrassed for a while – this is his contempt for Chi Guoguo!

“But now, the ‘unusual’ situation has appeared!” City Lord Nai He smiled calmly, “The king-level trial was originally designed to screen out the best talents! Xu Ming, a ten-star genius, has no doubts about his talent; he Got a ‘No. 1’ rank on the Stage 1 quiz, any questions?”

“But...his level of understanding of the Dao of Heaven is so much lower than mine...” Qian Yishang insisted on this point.

“Lower than you?” City Lord Naihe sneered, “How old are you now? Judging from your aura, it should be over five million years old; and Xu Ming, only five thousand years old! – Your cultivation time, It’s a thousand times longer than Xu Ming! Do you have the nerve to compare the understanding of the heavens with Xu Ming?”

But the city owner didn’t know that Xu Ming’s real age was only in his fifties; Qian Yishang’s cultivation years were not a thousand times longer than Xu Ming, but... 100,000 times longer!

But it doesn’t matter!

Because, whether it is “a thousand times” or “one hundred thousand times”, anyway, in short, Xu Ming and Qian Yishang, in terms of talent, one in the sky and the other in the ground are completely different!

Not a level of talent at all!

Nothing to compare at all!

“I...”

Qian Yishang wanted to say something, but was directly interrupted by City Lord Naihe: “Think again, what achievements did you have when you were five thousand years old!? – With your talent, you still want to compare with Xu Ming. ? It’s shameless!”

Naihe City Lord speaks rudely!

Qian Yishang was so speechless that his neck was shrunk in, and he was speechless—as City Lord Naihe said, he and Xu Ming are more talented than Xu Ming, and there is nothing comparable!

“Humph!” After a long time, Qian Yishang snorted indignantly, “Okay, Naihe City Lord! As you said, the first stage of the test is mainly about talent; then, the second stage, the third stage The stage test should always be a comparison of strength, right?”

“Strength is the main thing...” City Lord Naihe said helplessly.

Naihe City Lord certainly hopes that Xu Ming can win the king-level trial; after all, a ten-star genius is definitely the perfect personal successor!

However, City Lord Nai He is very clear that the possibility of Xu Ming winning is very small; because the tests in the second and third stages are mainly based on strength, not talent!

From City Lord Naihe's point of view, Xu Ming is only "one foot and one inch tall", and his strength is definitely not comparable to other geniuses.

But is it really so?

Do not!

Xu Ming's understanding of the Dao of Heaven is relatively low, but he is not weak! – Xu Ming's "eighteenth-order" strength is not fake! Compared to Qian Yishang, they are only strong but not weak!

Qian Yishang wants to crush Xu Ming in terms of strength... I really think too much!

After announcing the rankings, City Lord Nai He led one hundred and thirty geniuses to the Dao Mark Hall.

In the hall, three hundred and eight Dao Marks of the Great Power are placed on a high wall and arranged in a pyramid shape – from the outside, each of the Marks of the Great Power is similar; however, the higher the place, the more precious.

On the top of the pyramid, there is only a powerful Dao mark, which is exactly the Dao mark left by the "imperial existence".

"That's it!" Xu Ming's eyes stared at this powerful Dao Mark at a glance, "On the way here, Naihe City Lord specially told me that the emperor-level existence can be regarded as the top existence in the God's Domain. ;Let me cherish the opportunity to comprehend this powerful Dao Mark..."

Xu Ming actually wanted to see how powerful the traces left by the “Emperor-level existence” would be!

“Xu Ming!”

Suddenly, Xu Ming received a sound transmission; to his surprise, this sound transmission came from Qian Yishang.

“Huh?” Xu Ming couldn’t help looking at him suspiciously.

Qian Yishang continued to secretly transmit his voice: “Xu Ming, this ‘Emperor-level Dao Mark’ is extremely important to me! Can you give up your love and give it to me to comprehend?”

What?

Hearing Qian Yishang’s words, Xu Ming was stunned for a moment – how “naive” does he have to be to say such a thing?

Immediately afterwards, Qian Yishang said again: “Of course, don’t worry, I won’t let you suffer in vain!”

“Oh?” Although Xu Ming could not give him the opportunity to comprehend the emperor-level dao marks, he still asked with great interest, “What can you give?”

Qian Yishang Niu X coaxed: “In the future, when you come to the God’s Domain and come to the Yellow Spring Hall, I promise that no one will dare to deceive you!”

“This condition... I’m really not interested!” Xu Ming smiled, “Is there something practical? Like a divine stone or something?”

“Of course there is no problem with the divine stones!” Qian Yishang said, “As long as you come to the Yellow Springs Hall to find me, I will give you ten thousand divine stones, okay?”

Ten Thousand Stones...

Sounds like a lot!

However, Xu Ming said: “I think I want it ‘now’, can you give it to me?”

“I want it now?” Qian Yishang hurriedly shook his head, “It’s impossible! I’m in the realm of the gods, and it’s impossible to send the  stone to the world of dust!”

“Oh... That is to say, even if I give you the emperor-level dao marks, I still won’t get any benefit, right? – In this case, I will not have any interest!” Xu Ming He didn’t want to do this “sale The reason why he asked so many questions was actually to test whether it was easy or difficult to come from the realm of the gods to the world of dust!

The answer is: difficult!

At the same time, Xu Ming had a concept in his heart—in the Divine Realm, the Holy Emperor City might be stronger than the Huangquan Palace! After all, people from Holy Emperor City can come to the world of dust, but people from Huangquan Temple are “simply impossible” to come.

“I don’t know what kind of power Yin Ran is in the Holy Emperor City in the God’s Domain...” Xu Ming suddenly missed Yin Ran.

“Xu Ming!” Seeing Xu Ming rejecting him, Qian Yishang’s tone suddenly became cold, “I beg you, but you won’t even give me this face? – Believe it or not, you won’t give it today. My face, from now on, when you come to Huangquan Hall, I have a way to kill you!”

“Oh?” Xu Ming narrowed his eyes slightly, “Really?”

“Yes!” Qian Yishang thought that Xu Ming had softened, and his tone became tougher.

Unexpectedly, Xu Ming smiled playfully: “If this is the case, why should I go to Huangquan Temple? – I’m a big deal, what can you do with me?”

Chapter 780: 1 Finger

“Forehead!?”

Qian Yishang couldn't help but startled – Xu Ming's answer, why didn't he play his cards according to common sense?

How vast is God's Domain?

Even if it is just one of the continents of the vast God Realm, it is difficult for Qian Yishang to travel all over the world! If Xu Ming didn't go to Huangquan Hall, Qian Yishang would not be able to find Xu Ming at all, let alone deal with Xu Ming!

Therefore, Qian Yishang's threat is so powerless to Xu Ming!

"My Huangquan Temple is a great power in the realm of the gods, with endless opportunities, wouldn't you come?" Qian Yishang said again.

"Haha..." Xu Ming couldn't help laughing, "With my talent, the various forces in the God's Domain are not vying for me? Why do I have to go to your Huangquan Temple?"

Indeed, as long as Xu Ming showed his "ten-star" compatibility with the Heavenly Dao, in the Divine Realm, some major forces wanted him.

"This..." Qian Yishang obviously knew that what Xu Ming said was completely true, and was speechless for a while.

"Ha!" Xu Ming sneered softly – in his eyes, Qian Yishang was just a clown jumping on the beam! If it wasn't for Naihe City's ban, Xu Ming would have taught him how to behave with a slap!

At this time, City Lord Naihe asked, "Xu Ming, which Dao Mark of Great Power do you want to choose?"

In fact, City Lord Naihe asked this question completely—he had already said that the Dao marks left by the 'Emperor-level existence' were the most precious; how could Xu Ming not choose?

"I choose Emperor-level Dao Marks!" Xu Ming said without hesitation.

Qian Yishang's body froze obviously, and his face became very ugly. He couldn't help but transmit his voice again: "Xu Ming, you are brave enough to actually choose the emperor-level dao marks! —Humph! , it is best not to come to Huangquan Hall; otherwise, I will definitely let you experience my 'warm hospitality'!"

"Really?" Xu Ming glanced at Qian Yishang disdainfully, "In the beginning, I'm not necessarily interested in Huangquan Palace! But after hearing what you said, maybe I will go to Huangquan Palace in the future. Looking for you to 'play'!"

Will Xu Ming be afraid of Qian Yishang?

how is this possible!

Xu Ming was just disdainful of wasting time on a cat and a dog like Qian Yishang!

However, since the other party is jumping again and again, Brother Ming might really have a whim and go to Huangquan Hall to "play" with him!

Naihe City Lord took down the emperor-level Dao Mark placed at the highest point, and in the envious eyes of everyone, handed it over to Xu Ming: "You can choose a room in the Dao Mark Hall to retreat and enlighten. Remember, you The time is only three days; after three days, the second stage of the test will be conducted!"

"Yes!" Xu Ming took the Emperor-level Dao Mark.

Then, City Lord Naihe turned to Qian Yishang again: "Which piece of the Dao Mark do you want to choose?"

"I choose Xuanwu Dao Mark!" Qian Yishang said angrily – the Emperor-level Dao Mark has been selected, and he can only choose the next "Pseudo-Emperor-level Dao Mark".

In a room of Dao Mark Hall.

The purple cloud incense was burning.

Xu Ming sat cross-legged, with a seemingly ordinary Dao Mark floating in front of him.

“This is the Emperor-level Dao Mark? It contains the ‘Tao’s trace’ left when the Emperor-level almighty shot?”

Xu Ming is very curious, what kind of existence is the emperor-level almighty?

Xu Ming’s spiritual power penetrated into it, and in accordance with the magic formula of Bishop Nai He City, he stimulated this emperor-level Dao mark.

boom!

Suddenly, Xu Ming’s mental power was completely attracted.

Immediately, he appeared above an endless vast ocean—this is the image in the Dao Mark of the Great Power.

However, this image is very real; Xu Ming stands above the ocean, as if he was there.

“This ocean...”

In the video, Xu Ming found that this ocean seems to be much vaster than the entire endless continent. What shocked Xu Ming even more was that he could feel that every drop of sea water contained extremely terrifying coercion; every drop of sea water was like a star, making people feel extremely oppressive – fortunately, this was just an image, otherwise, Xu Ming would have felt extremely oppressive. Ming is afraid that under the terrible pressure, he will be crushed to the point of annihilation!

“What the * is this place, so terrifying!?” Xu Ming couldn’t imagine it.

At this time, Xu Ming saw that a man in white appeared on the endless ocean.

The man in white has an ordinary temperament, but Xu Ming couldn't see his face no matter what.

Immediately afterwards, the man in white slowly stretched out a finger and said, "See clearly! My move, called 'One Finger Breaks the Sky', contains the mystery of reaching the peak! – If you can use this move for me In, realize a scale and a half angle; then, the 'thread of cause and effect' will lead us to meet!"

Then, the man in white slowly pointed his finger at the sky, and said softly, "Broken!"

Xu Ming's eyes widened abruptly – he saw that the endless power of heaven was gathering between the fingers of the man in white; the nine heavenly ways of 'gold, wood, water, fire, earth, yin, yang, wind, and thunder' seemed to surround this slender finger, forming a cycle of reincarnation. .

"The power of the nine heavens can be perfectly integrated?" Xu Ming seemed to see something extremely incredible, and it seemed as if the door to a new world had been opened. At this moment, inspiration continued to burst out in his mind.

Then, the power of this finger shot towards the sky.

And then, there's nothing left! – The energy in the emperor-level dao marks has been exhausted, and Xu Ming's mental power immediately retreated.

However, deep in Xu Ming's heart, it was extremely shocking.

"Is this the strength of an emperor-level almighty?"

The emperor-level almighty is too far away from Xu Ming; Xu Ming still has a lot of mysteries in this finger, and he can't understand it at all! – For example, at the moment when the white-robed man pointed, time and space were chaotic, and cause and effect were also chaotic; in a single finger, there was an endless cycle of birth and death...

However, these mysteries that Xu Ming can't feel now have been deeply planted in his heart. When Xu Ming reaches a certain level, these mysteries will gradually take root in Xu Ming's heart.

Of course, Xu Ming has also benefited a lot.

“It turns out that different ways of heaven can actually be integrated like this...”

This emperor-level dao mark is like a beacon, illuminating Xu Ming’s martial arts path.

Xu Ming seemed to see the direction of the future clearly at once – the integration of the nine heavens!

He believes that when he perfectly integrates the nine heavenly ways, he will enter a completely new realm!

At the same time, countless heavenly insights erupted in Xu Ming’s heart like a volcanic eruption.

The most “eruption” is still Xu Ming’s best at several major heavens – wind, water, thunder...

The perceptions of these great heavens are rapidly increasing at a rocket-like speed!

After just a few hours, Xu Ming discovered in horror: “It’s time to condense the ‘Flower of Tao’...”

Moreover, it is still the three heavenly ways of wind, water, and thunder, which together condense the flowers of the Tao!
