

A World 801

Chapter 801: Otherworldly Routines Are Deep

clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap...

Slaps resounded throughout the martial arts formation.

The spectators outside the grand formation are speechless at the moment – this is the battle that decides the “number one” of the king-level trial! It would be like this...

“What happened to Qian Yishang? He has been abused like this, and he still refuses to admit defeat? – Does he still think he has any hope of winning?”

“Xu Ming is also strange! He can easily defeat Qian Yishang, but he refuses to defeat him. Instead, he ravages the opponent like this...”

Naihe City Lord and others were stunned by the harmonious scene of “one willing to fight and one willing to suffer” in the martial arts formation.

Really very harmonious!

Weirdly harmonious!

“Could it be that... Xu Ming will continue to smoke? And Qian Yishang, will he continue to be slapped and slapped?” Everyone couldn’t help but wonder.

Suddenly, City Lord Naihe seemed to have guessed something. He couldn’t help but transmit Xu Ming and asked, “Xu Ming, did the old ghost Mo Fang find you?”

Although Xu Ming was fighting, it was still easy to distract and chat: “Yes!”

“He wants you to give up the first king-level trial?” Naihe City Lord said again.

“Yes!”

“How did you decide?”

Xu Ming didn't hide it: “I sold him the ‘number one’ position!”

“Sold it?” Naihe City Lord was slightly startled, and then said, “Mo Fang is a treacherous man, even if you give up the ‘first’, then go to Huangquan Hall, I guess he will not give you the treasure. Instead, it might kill you!”

Naihe City Lord knows Mo Fang too well!

Xu Ming said: “No! I asked him to send the treasure to the world of dust that I am in!”

“Huh!?” City Lord Naihe was taken aback, “How to send it? He can't go to the dust world again!”

“Mo Fang said, you can pass through the Temple of Time and Space!”

“Space-Time Palace...” City Lord Nai He pondered, “If you pass through the Space-Time Palace, you can indeed send treasures to you! But... I'm sure you have been deceived!”

“Did you cheat?” Xu Ming actually thought about this possibility.

“Yes, I was definitely deceived!” City Lord Naihe said with great certainty, “Please ask the Temple of Time and Space to deliver the treasure, the price is extremely high! The old ghost Mo Fang can't afford this price!”

“Haha!” City Lord Naihe laughed, “Do you know how expensive it would be for the Space-Time Palace to transport treasures to the dust world? – No matter what treasures are transported, at least one million divine stones are required!”

A million gods?

Also “at least”?

Xu Ming just wanted to say – this “express delivery” is too expensive, right?

“One million divine stones can make the old ghost Mo Fang bleed! I’m sure, with his treacherous personality, it is impossible to do this!” City Lord Naihe said, “Also, if the old ghost Mo Fang really invites Time and Space Palace transports treasures, then the treasures should have been shipped long ago!”

“Ah? Isn’t it at least a month to transport the treasure to the dust world?”

“One month?” Naihe City Lord sneered, “The time and space hall transports treasures, and they can be delivered in an instant!”

“That’s it...” Xu Ming narrowed his eyes slightly, “Thank you City Lord Naihe for reminding me!”

“Then what are you going to do now? Defeat Qian Yishang directly and win the ‘first’?”

“No!” Xu Ming smiled, “I’m still here as planned!”

“Oh?” City Lord Naihe was startled; he immediately realized that Xu Ming might have left his hand behind, so he didn’t say anything.

Of course, Xu Ming still kept his hand.

After all, this year, the otherworld’s routines are deep! Don’t leave a hand, no way!

“Humph! Dare to deceive Brother Ming?” Xu Ming sneered in his heart.

Is Brother Ming so deceitful?

I lied to Brother Ming, is it so easy?

“Wait and see!”

Thinking of this, the strength in Xu Ming’s hands couldn’t help but intensify a little bit, until Qian Yishang cried for his father and mother.

“Xu Ming!” Elder Mo Fang felt uncomfortable when he saw his nephew being drawn like this, so he couldn’t help shouting coldly, “Just a few slaps! Don’t go too far! – Don’t admit defeat!”

Xu Ming laughed and said, “Don’t be so angry, Elder Mo Fang! – I will definitely not admit defeat until the divine stone is delivered to me!”

“What?” Mo Fang was stunned – Xu Ming didn’t admit defeat before the divine stone arrived?

But...

Mo Fang didn’t plan to give Xu Ming the Divine Stone at all!

After thinking about it, Mo Fang said angrily: “It will take at least half a month for the divine stone to be delivered to you! Could it be that you will not admit defeat for half a month?”

“Yeah!” Xu Ming said as a matter of course, “There is no time limit for this battle. The big deal, I’ll slap me for half a month!”

At the end, Xu Ming added another sentence: “If I haven’t seen the Divine Stone in half a month; then, I will smoke him for another half a month!”

“You...” Elder Mo Fang almost vomited blood – this Xu Ming is too shameless, right?

Elder Mo Fang has been in the Divine Realm for hundreds of millions of years, but he has never seen a person as shameless as Xu Ming!

According to Xu Ming's approach, wouldn't Qian Yishang be slapped for a month in vain? Moreover, after the end, there is nothing to get!

However, Elder Mo Fang is also quite cunning and cunning; with a slight movement in his mind, he found another rhetoric: "When the Temple of Time and Space delivers the Divine Stone, you need to pick it up yourself! But now, your consciousness is all in Naihe City, How to get it?"

When the conscious body is in action, the body is indeed almost unconscious!

Elder Mo Fang continued: "Even if the Divine Stone has already arrived, I'm afraid you don't know it, right? – So, you first admit defeat and go back and wait for the Divine Stone! Don't worry, I am a dignified elder of Huangquan Hall, and I won't deceive you a demigod!"

The routine is deep!

It's so deep!

Moreover, Elder Mo Fang not only has deep routines, but is also very shameless! – He obviously didn't intend to give Xu Ming the Divine Stone at all, but he could still look righteous and act as if he had really invited the Temple of Time and Space.

"Don't worry, old ghost Mo Fang!" Xu Ming laughed, "I have a clone! If the divine stone is really delivered, my consciousness here will know even if I don't go back!"

"You have a clone!?" At this moment, Mo Fang really had nothing to do.

Mo Fang's routine is deep, and Xu Ming's routine is even deeper!

Mo Fang is shameless, Xu Ming is even more shameless!

Than routines? than shameless? – Xu Ming would be afraid of him?

Xu Ming's current thinking is very simple – keep the same and respond to changes!

Anyway, if I didn't see the divine stone, I kept pumping Qian Yishang! If after a month, you still haven't seen the Divine Stone, at that time, kick Qian Yishang directly and end the battle!

In the end, Qian Yishang didn't even want to get any benefits, he could only get a big slap in vain!

Want to lie to Brother Ming?

too naive!

Brother Ming is so deceitful?

"What should I do? Do you really want to ask the Temple of Time and Space to send the Divine Stone to Xu Ming?" Elder Mo Fang hesitated.

But this hesitation only lasted for a short while.

If you ask the Time and Space Palace to transport the treasure, you will have to pay at least one million divine stones; the price is too high to be worth it!

Immediately, Mo Fang voiced Qian Yishang and said, "Xiaoshang, admit defeat!"

"Admit defeat?" Qian Yishang was startled, even forgetting the burning pain on his cheeks.

"Xu Ming will not give you the 'number one', admit defeat!" Mo Fang said again.

"Ah!?" Qian Yishang's mood seemed to fall into hell, "Then I can't become the direct successor of the general? I just received so many slaps, won't it be all in vain?"

"It's better than continuing to be slapped for a month in vain?" Elder Mo Fang snorted coldly, "Stop talking nonsense, just admit defeat!"

Chapter 802: Run Away After Hitting The Face

Confessing defeat means that all the slaps you have received before are all in vain; not admitting defeat means that you will continue to receive more slaps in vain.

How to choose is almost indisputable.

“I...I admit defeat!”

When she shouted the word “admit defeat”, Qian Yishang felt... as if her body was hollowed out.

At the same time, Qian Yishang just wanted to say—this uncle is really a nephew!

Indeed, if it wasn’t for the bad idea that Elder Mo Fang came up with, Qian Yishang wouldn’t have been drawn like this!

“Admit defeat?”

Since the opponent had conceded defeat, Xu Ming was not interested in continuing to draw; with a slap, Qian Yishang was directly pulled out of the martial arts formation.

Xu Ming wins!

...

No one expected that the decisive battle of the king-level trial would come to an end in such a dramatic way.

City Lord Nai He announced: “The winner of this king-level trial is – Xu Ming!”

“City Lord Naihe.” Xu Ming asked with a smile, “If you win the test in the third stage, what are the rewards?”

“Reward?” Nai He smiled, “You are now the direct successor of the general, and will inherit the position of the general in the future—isn’t this reward big enough?”

General's seat...

To be honest, Xu Ming didn't know how much benefit he would gain from inheriting the position of general.

After all, Xu Ming didn't know anything about God's Domain.

Xu Ming guessed that after inheriting the position of general, his status should be slightly inferior to that of Elder Mo Fang, and it is estimated that it is similar to City Lord Naihe; however, they are all on the same level and will not be much different.

"It's just that old ghost Mo Fang and City Lord Naihe are in God's Domain, what is their status?" Xu Ming had no idea.

However, Xu Ming was not in a hurry to know about this; anyway, when he arrived in God's Domain, he would naturally know.

"Xu Ming!" Mo Fang came over, his eyes were as cold as a poisonous snake.

"Old Ghost Mo Fang, what else do you have to teach me?" Xu Ming didn't take Mo Fang's old ghost in his eyes at all – after all, the other party couldn't come to the world of dust, so he was not a threat to Xu Ming.

"You are very good! Very good!" Mo Fang sneered, "How many years... no one has dared to be so arrogant in front of me! I admire your courage!"

Xu Ming smiled lightly: "Then?"

"Humph! Don't think that if you become the direct successor of the general, you will be able to inherit the position of the general! First of all...you have to have a life to inherit it!" Mo Fang sneered, "If you haven't inherited the position of the general, then Unfortunately, he died early; then, the position of general belongs to Xiao Shang!"

Qian Yishang ranked second in the king-level trial, so he was the "second successor"; if Xu Ming died, then Qian Yishang would become the direct successor.

And if Xu Ming and Qian Yishang both died, then the “third heir” would become the direct heir.

“Oh? Really?” Xu Ming narrowed his eyes slightly, looking at Mo Fang, “Are you threatening me?”

Nai He City Lord also looked over: “Mo Fang, you dare to threaten Xu Ming? – If something happens to Xu Ming in the future, you can’t escape the investigation!”

“No, no, no!” Mo Fang shook his head with a smile, “I’m not threatening him! I just reminded him kindly and told him to be careful – after all, God’s Domain is dangerous, and it’s easy to kill people!”

“Humph!” City Lord Naihe snorted coldly, “I hope you are a kind reminder!”

“Of course it is!” Mo Fang said with a smile, looking at Xu Ming, his eyes seemed to be very kind, “Xu Ming, you must not have an accident! I am in the Huangquan Hall of God’s Domain, waiting for you!”

However, as long as you are a discerning person, you can fully see that Mo Fang is a threat from Chi Guoguo!

threaten?

Xu Ming is not afraid of threats!

“City Lord Naihe.” Xu Ming suddenly asked, “If you beat someone in Naihe City, what are the consequences?”

What are the consequences of hitting someone?

After listening to Xu Ming’s words, Elder Mo Fang and City Lord Naihe felt a little strange – wondering why Xu Ming asked this question.

Could it be that Xu Ming wanted to hit someone?

But who does he want to hit? – Qian Yishang? Nope! In the martial arts formation just now, Xu Ming should have slapped Qian Yishang enough in the face!

Moreover, Xu Ming here is just a conscious body; even if he does it, it has no lethal power!

However, City Lord Naihe replied with a smile: “Under normal circumstances, those who beat people will be expelled from Naihe City!”

“Is that so...” Xu Ming thought for a while, “Then, City Lord Naihe, my trials in Naihe City are over, right? Are all the rewards that I should receive finished?”

“The trial is over of course!” City Lord Naihe said, “As for the reward, it has already been given to you – you are now recognized as the ‘successor of the general’s personal inheritance’, as long as you go to the Huangquan Hall of the God’s Domain, you will be able to inherit the position of the general. !”

“That’s good!” Xu Ming smiled. Then, he looked at Elder Mo Fang and slapped him violently—this slap was not an ordinary slap, but Xu Ming’s “forced slap in the face”!

Snapped!

An extremely clear voice resounded throughout the audience.

This slap made the whole audience bewildered.

“Xu Ming actually... punched Mo Fang in the face?” City Lord Naihe looked at him in disbelief.

“Xu Ming actually smoked Elder Mo Fang?” The eyes of the geniuses of the God Realm were bigger than lanterns, as if they saw something extremely frightening – Elder Mo Fang! What kind of status is in Huangquan Temple! He has always been the only one who smoked others, how could there be any reason for others to smoke him?

“I...” Mo Fang himself felt incredible—how precious is his face! Actually, he was pumped by a demigod of a dusty world!

Moreover, Mo Fang didn't even see clearly how the slap just now landed on his face.

"You..." Mo Fang turned into anger and anger, "You dare to beat me?"

Snapped!

Another slap!

Xu Ming directly answered Mo Fang with this slap, whether he dared to slap him.

"You..." Mo Fang was simply stunned – he was stunned by anger!

clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap clap...

Xu Ming said nothing, the "forced face slap" hook started frantically, leaving a series of gorgeous slaps.

Mo Fang was horrified to find that he couldn't stop Xu Ming's slap!

Of course it can't be stopped!

If Xu Ming didn't open the "forced slap in the face", I'm afraid he really didn't have the ability to slap the face of the God Domain Great Master; The face, brother Ming also draws it correctly!

A series of slaps came down Xu Ming felt that his palms were full of satisfaction.

Slap in the face is a very happy sport.

Playing the super-powerful face, happiness and satisfaction will undoubtedly be more satisfying!

Xu Ming put away his slap, looked at City Lord Naihe who was completely stunned, and said, "Quickly expel me from Naihe City!"

If you don't go now, do you want to stay and wait for the old ghost Mo Fang to pull him back?

"Uh... good!" City Lord Naihe waved his hand subconsciously and expelled Xu Ming from Naihe City.

"Quack quack..." Xu Ming's mean smile still echoed in the air.

Run away after slap in the face, it's so  exciting!

"Stop it! Don't let him go!" Mo Fang then reacted and shouted.

But at this time, Xu Ming had disappeared without a trace.

Chapter 803: Heaven's Heart

Elder Mo Fang's mood at the moment, he felt that he was being wheeled by ten thousand horses. Moreover, after the round, the 10,000 horses have all run away!

"Depend on!"

"Depend on!"

"Depend on!"

Elder Mo Fang was full of murderous aura, and his blood-red eyes seemed to be devoured by someone.

"How about old ghost, Xu Ming?" Mo Fang roared like an angry beast.

"Xu Ming has been expelled from Naihe City by me!" Naihe City Lord said lightly.

“You...” Mo Fang’s voice was low and hoarse, “He hit me in the face, and you let him go like that?”

“Old ghost Mo Fang, who am I going to expel from Naihe City, I’m afraid it won’t be your turn to tell the truth?” Naihe City Lord sneered, “If you have nothing else to do, please do it!”

City Lord Naihe looked like he was seeing off guests.

“Humph! Naihe old ghost! I remember this account!” Mo Fang shouted coldly.

“Whatever!” City Lord Naihe doesn’t care about Mo Fang’s anger at all—he lives in Naihe City and will never leave here; and Mo Fang’s real body cannot come to Naihe City. In other words, Mo Fang could never threaten him.

If that’s the case, why give Mo Mianzi?

“Humph!” Mo Fang also knew that it was useless to talk too much; with a wave of his sleeves, his consciousness dissipated directly.

“Humph!” City Lord Naihe shook his head disdainfully.

At this time, other geniuses also walked up to City Lord Naihe, cupped their hands, and said, “City Lord Naihe, we are leaving too!”

“Well, let’s go!”

The consciousness of each genius dissipated.

After the king-level trial was over, Naihe City returned to silence and desolation.

“They’re all gone...” Naihe City Lord looked up slightly, and a relaxed smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, “There’s only one left...”

Naihe City Lord took a step; the next moment, he returned to his room.

Naihe City Lord's room was very simply furnished.

In front of a wooden tea table without the slightest pattern, a young man is sitting here, drinking tea leisurely.

This young figure is... Xu Ming.

"Haha, Naihe City Lord, why didn't you expel me from the city?" Xu Ming said deliberately.

City Lord Naihe said with a smile: "The rules of Naihe City are all set by me; if I want to expel, I will expel, and if I don't want to be exiled, I will not expel! – But your kid is really good enough! Mo Fang's face, if you want to expel, you will be exiled. !"

"Hey, I caused you trouble!" Xu Ming apologized slightly.

"I'm not in any trouble! I'm staying in Naihe City, and Mo Fang has nothing to do with me; moreover, even if I go to God's Domain, I won't be afraid of him!" Naihe City Lord sat down and poured himself a cup of tea, "It's you who actually slapped Mo Fang in the face; if you go to Huangquan Hall in the future, I'm afraid there will be a lot of trouble..."

"Never mind, let's talk about it!" Xu Ming smiled indifferently.

"Just because of your courage, the position of general should really be inherited by you!" City Lord Naihe boasted, and then said, "I left you here because there are some things I want to tell you!"

"Please tell me!" Xu Ming restrained his jokes and said slightly sternly.

"Xu Ming, I found out... Are you very eager to become a god?" City Lord Naihe asked.

"Yes!" Xu Ming said directly, "I am facing a great enemy, a god! – If I don't become a god, I can't defeat him!"

"God..." City Lord Naihe pondered, "Demigods are indeed impossible to defeat against gods!"

“Can City Lord Naihe give some pointers on the way to the gods?” Xu Ming asked.

City Lord Nai He shook his head: “I told you before that to become a god, you need to gather the ‘heart of heaven’ and chance; however, everyone’s ‘heart of heaven’ is different, and others can’t point it out. !”

“City Lord Naihe, the Heart of Heaven... What is it?” Xu Ming had been comprehending it for a long time, but he still didn’t realize what the “Heart of Heaven” was. “Also, what is the chance to become a god?”

“Heaven of Heaven...” City Lord Nai He thought for a while, “Let’s put it this way... The way of heaven you understand now belongs to this world, not your own!”

“Is there a difference?” Xu Ming couldn’t help but ask curiously.

“Of course there is!” City Lord Naihe said, “You think, there are big differences in body, soul, and even mind between different people! However, all people, even monsters, demons, etc. , as long as the comprehension of a certain Heavenly Dao reaches the ‘demi-god limit’; then, their understanding of this Heavenly Dao is exactly the same! – Don’t you think, this shouldn’t be?”

“Actually, the way of heaven that exists between heaven and earth is just for us to learn and refer to!” City Lord Naihe continued, “After learning what heaven and earth naturally teach us, of course we have to comprehend what belongs to us! – Wu When it arrives, you will be able to integrate the heavenly way between heaven and earth into your body and soul, and become your own heavenly way! At that time, you can condense the ‘heavenly way of mind’, form the ‘fruit of the way’, and transform into a ‘divine body’, Become a God!”

“As for when you can realize it, it depends on the chance to become a god! If you don’t get the chance, you can’t become a  no matter how anxious you are! – However, with a talent like you, the chance to become a  will definitely come, it’s just sooner or later. It’s just a problem!”

Xu Ming was still a little confused – the road to proving the Tao and becoming a  is really mysterious enough!

“The chance to become a  will definitely come, it’s just a matter of sooner or later...”
However, Xu Ming was in a hurry to become a god!

When you become a god, you can slaughter gods!

“Then, City Lord Naihe... Do you have a way to let me kill the gods?” Xu Ming asked expectantly.

“No!” Naihe City Lord said without hesitation, “Demigods can’t kill gods!”

“Okay...” Xu Ming couldn’t help feeling powerless and desperate.

Prove the Tao and become a  – I don’t know if I have to wait until the year of the monkey and the month of the horse.

God Stone – Naihe City Lord doesn’t have it here either! And even if there is, Xu Ming is just a conscious body, and he cannot bring it back to the Endless Continent.

“It seems... we can only hope for the hydrogen bomb!”

In the end Xu Ming found out that if he wanted to kill Erke, he could only rely on a super-large hydrogen bomb!

“There is no theoretical upper limit to the power of a hydrogen bomb! I hope... I can kill Erke in one fell swoop!”

If it doesn’t blow up, Xu Ming really can’t think of any way!

“Naihe City Lord, I will leave first!” Xu Ming said with a heavy heart – he originally hoped to find a way to defeat and kill Erke in this king-level trial! But now, it has not been found.

“Yeah! Go!” Naihe City Lord thought for a while, and said, “Gods, not demigods can match! I suggest you, before you become a god, don’t imagine defeating gods; you should honestly find a place to hide and practice. !”

Hide and practice?

However, there is an entire human race behind Xu Ming! – If he hides, the hundreds of millions of compatriots in the human race will be ruined!

“Thank you City Lord Naihe for your guidance, I’ll go first!”

After speaking, Xu Ming’s body of consciousness also dissipated directly.

Chapter 804: You Are A Blast!

The Endless Continent, the 3,600-land territory of the human race, is a peaceful and peaceful scene, and it does not face the tension and oppression of the catastrophe at all.

Farmers work, the master teaches, martial artists practice martial arts, children play... everything is in order.

The people at the bottom live in a small circle that belongs to them; they don’t even know what kind of danger the ethnic group is facing.

swoosh—

Above the endless sky, Xu Ming turned into a streamer, flying over one territory after another.

“Life is so beautiful...”

Looking down at these low-level human races, Xu Ming couldn’t help but recall the little bits and pieces of how he grew up till now...

External training, internal training, innate, condensing pill, spiritual realm, Taoist, Taoist, Taoist, demigod... In just over 30 years, they have possessed the strength of a “21st-order” demigod, which is absolutely the absolute power of the entire human race. The first master!

The path of Xu Ming’s legendary martial arts has been extremely smooth all the way.

just now...

Xu Ming faced an incomparably powerful enemy – True God Erke!

“If you want to destroy my human race...Even if it is a god, I will slaughter it!” Xu Ming’s eyes were very firm.

However, Xu Ming still has no idea how to condense the “heart of heaven”; Xu Ming does not know when the opportunity to become a  will come!

If you can’t become a god, can you still kill Erke smoothly? – Xu Ming has no absolute certainty.

but...

“If you can’t kill it, you have to kill it! The big deal, use that trick...” Xu Ming’s eyes gradually showed grimness and determination.

“That trick”, Xu Ming really didn’t want to try it! Because, once it is used, the consequences are completely unpredictable by Xu Ming!

But if even the super-large hydrogen bomb can’t help Erke, then, for the sake of the human race, Xu Ming has to take the risk!

“Hope...don’t push me to that point!”

Back in the wild mountain range, Xu Ming directly entered the independent space and began to retreat and practice – there are nearly five years before the ten-year appointment, Xu Ming must of course hurry up! Maybe he will break through and become a  after proving the Dao?

...

“To condense the ‘heart of Heaven’s Dao’, we first need to find the point of convergence between body and mind and the Dao of Heaven...” Above the endless clouds in the independent space, Xu Ming’s deity and his two clones sat cross-legged and meditated, “Only by finding the meeting point, the Dao of Heaven can Really integrate into my body and mind, and transform it into my heavenly way... Then, condensing the ‘heavenly way’, forming the ‘fruit of the way’, and transforming into a ‘divine body’, are naturally a matter of course!”

“However, where does this fit point come from?” Xu Ming had no clue at all.

Moreover, looking for a fit with the way of heaven, this kind of thing can only rely on Xu Ming himself, no one can help him!

...

Time goes by, and spring comes.

Unconsciously, there are only the last three years left in the ten-year appointment.

During this period of time, Xu Ming’s understanding of the Heavenly Dao of Water has improved a lot; he has also gone further in the integration of the Heavenly Dao of Fire and the Heavenly Dao of Wind! However, it still failed to condense the heart of heaven.

rumbling...

Suddenly, through the membrane wall of the independent space, Xu Ming felt that the endless continent outside was shaking and trembling faintly.

Yes, the entire endless continent is shaking and trembling!

“What’s going on?” Xu Ming was horrified; with a teleport, he was outside the independent space.

You know, the Endless Continent is a behemoth that spans billions of miles! What happened to make such a behemoth shake? – Xu Ming is unimaginable!

“Xu Ming!” Suddenly, the master of the Jitian Palace came over, “True God Erke, it is very likely that he is attacking the deity of the Bamboo Saint!”

“What!?” In Xu Ming’s mind, the image of the giant bamboo that was more than one million miles tall and more than ten thousand miles thick suddenly appeared.

Xu Ming’s subconscious reaction was – is Erke crazy? To go to the trouble of going to the Bamboo Saint deity! ?

You must know that once the Bamboo Sage becomes mad, he chooses to explode his body as large as a million miles; then, the entire endless continent will be blown up! The major ethnic groups on the Endless Continent will probably be wiped out directly! ——Erke actually made a move on this “big bomb”? Just crazy!

“No, I’m going to have a look!”

Before, Xu Ming had left a space coordinate point near the deity of the Bamboo Sage. The “coordinate positioning” was turned on, and soon, Xu Ming was teleported to the vicinity of the Bamboo Saint deity.

really!

As soon as Xu Ming sent it over, he saw an extremely chaotic scene. The fiery red flames shot up into the sky, brutally burning the whole world.

At the center of the angry flames, the Bamboo Saint’s body that was more than a million miles tall was dancing frantically, obviously angered to the extreme. And the monsters living on the Bamboo Saint and the surrounding monsters have long since died.

wow wow wow wow...

The Bamboo Sage was obviously aware of the danger, and thousands of bamboo leaves shook off his body, all “floating” towards True God Erke.

Every bamboo leaf is like a continent of thousands of miles.

Thousands of bamboo leaves instantly wrapped up and down the four directions of True God Erke.

burst! burst! burst! burst! burst! ...

In an instant, the Bamboo Sage blew up all the bamboo leaves.

You must know that when Xu Ming fought against the Bamboo Sage, the Bamboo Sage just blew a bamboo leaf, which made Xu Ming feel the infinite power.

Now, when thousands of bamboo leaves explode together, what kind of power will it be?

The terrifying power of the explosion swept away violently; in an instant, it swept across several territories.

When the shock wave of the explosion swept through, the life in these territories instantly turned into flying ashes. Once, the Bamboo Saint was the safest area of the entire demon clan; at this time, it became a place of death. land.

After the explosion wave, everything in several territories was razed! Mountains, giant trees... all disappeared!

Even the earth was completely cracked; the monsters living in the depths of the earth were still unable to escape death!

Moreover, the explosion wave continued to spread out in a mighty manner, sweeping to more places. Although it is only the aftermath, the power is not something that the bottom of the demon clan can bear!

Great Destruction!

The end is coming!

Xu Ming was not at the very core of the explosion but he didn't feel much pressure.

“Will Erke be killed?” Xu Ming looked expectantly – although he knew that this was impossible!

Sure enough, when the explosion ended, Xu Ming saw that Erke appeared unharmed again.

“Bamboo Saint, you are so capable?” True God Erke sneered.

“Erke, don’t force me!” At this time, the bamboo sage had lost the bamboo leaves, and there were only countless bare bamboo branches; If you kill me, I will blow myself up, and everyone will die together!”

“Self-destruction?” Xu Ming was horrified—what he was most afraid of was the self-destruction of the Bamboo Sage!

Once the Bamboo Sage blew himself up, the entire Endless Continent would probably be blown up; the human race on the other side of the Endless Continent would definitely suffer annihilation! Moreover, the endless continent after the destruction is likely to be no longer suitable for the reproduction of life for a long time!

The tiny True God Erke calmly raised his head and looked up at the Bamboo Sage who was more than a million miles tall: “Explode yourself? You are exploding!”

Chapter 805: Emerald Green Bamboo Pole

“you...”

The Bamboo Sage was finally completely angry: “You forced me! This is what you forced me! – If that’s the case, let’s die together! The entire Endless Continent will be buried together! Hahahaha...”

The bamboo branches of the Bamboo Saint are overwhelmingly covering the sky towards True God Erke. Large and small, dense bamboo branches, like a huge cage, locked Erke in the cage.

“Let’s die together!” Bamboo Sage is ferocious – he doesn’t believe it, his terrifying body that is more than a million miles tall blew himself up, and he couldn’t kill Erke!

Not only to blow up Erke, but also to blow up the entire endless continent! Let the hundreds of millions of creatures on the Endless Continent be buried with its Bamboo Saint!

“No!” Xu Ming was terrified – such a giant bamboo sage blew himself up, the consequences were truly unimaginable!

“burst!!”

“burst!!”

The Bamboo Saint roared frantically.

However...

Except for the roar, there seems to be no movement at all...

There was no sign of self-destruction at all.

“What’s going on?” Xu Ming was stunned, “Could it be that the Bamboo Sage is greedy for life and fear of death, so he doesn’t dare to blow himself up? – But, even if he doesn’t blow himself up, he will be killed by Erke!”

“Hahahahaha...” At this moment, Erke’s laughter came from the huge cage made of entwined bamboo branches, “You’re a blast! Hahaha...”

“You...” Bamboo Saint was startled and frightened, “What have you done to me?”

“It’s just a little trick to ban your self-destruction!” Erke laughed loudly, “In front of me, you also want to self-destruct? Hahahahaha...”

The Bamboo Saint is just terrifyingly huge; in terms of strength, it is not necessarily strong – facing True God Erke, it has no resistance at all, and it can’t even blow itself up!

“Now, you can die in peace!”

Erke's body erupted with endless divine power, madly blasting the Bamboo Saint. With every blow, countless bamboo branches will be annihilated.

And all the attack methods of the Bamboo Saint fell on Erke, but they could not cause the slightest damage to Erke.

The Bamboo Sage could only watch helplessly as he walked towards death step by step.

"Xu Ming!" In desperation, the Bamboo Sage couldn't help shouting, "If you don't make a move, join me to deal with him!"

Team up with Bamboo Saint?

Xu Ming shook his head secretly—he knew very well that even if they joined forces, it would be impossible to hurt Erke! Therefore, this kind of alliance is meaningless, but may anger Erke and let him take action against the human race.

"Xu Ming! You coward!" The Bamboo Sage saw that Xu Ming only knew how to watch the battle, but he refused to take action, and his voice became more sharp, "After I die, do you think Erke will let you go? Let go of your human race? – Don't hurry to join hands with me, so, maybe there is still a glimmer of hope to defeat Erke!"

coward?

Of course not Xu Ming!

Xu Ming is just very clear – there is no "silver ray of hope"!

"Haha, stop doing unnecessary struggles! It's useless!" True God Erke shouted, "In comparison, Xu Ming is much smarter than you! Hahahaha..."

call-

In Erke's eyes, a black phantom suddenly appeared; the phantom sometimes looked like a poisonous snake, sometimes like a roc, and sometimes like a mysterious turtle...

“The Eye of Extinction!”

The ever-changing phantom suddenly shot out, centering on the backbone of the Bamboo Sage—it was the soul attack secret technique “Eye of Destruction”.

“Roar-”

The Bamboo Sage suddenly let out an extremely sharp and painful roar, and the billions of bamboo branches seemed to twitch, trembling frantically.

Obviously, the Bamboo Sage is suffering tremendous pain under this attack of his soul!

Sudden!

The Bamboo Sage suddenly stopped trembling, and the hundreds of millions of bamboo branches drooped down weakly; even the trunk, which was more than a million li high, suddenly lost its breath of life.

Bamboo Sage...

die!

“What a powerful soul attack!” Xu Ming was horrified.

Although the Bamboo Saint is extremely huge, it does not mean how strong its soul is. Under Erke’s “eye of annihilation” with all his strength, the Bamboo Sage didn’t even hold on for too long, and his soul was completely annihilated.

“Too weak...” True God Erke stood proudly in the void, sneering disdainfully.

Then, he looked at Xu Ming: “Xu Ming, don’t forget, there are still three years left before our ten-year appointment! – After three years, I want to see the ‘teleport’ secret; otherwise, although I can’t kill it You, but will destroy your human race!”

“Humph!” Xu Ming just snorted coldly, “Don’t worry!”

“Hahahaha...” True God Erke laughed wildly, then rushed to the sky and left here.

“It’s only been three years...” Xu Ming stood alone in front of the Bamboo Saint’s remains, under tremendous pressure.

After three years, he must behead Erke! Otherwise, the disaster of the human race is about to come!

“Zhang Hao has already built a super-large hydrogen bomb, but I still need him to build a few more!” Xu Ming secretly said, “I don’t know... Can a hydrogen bomb that can cover a hundred territories be able to kill Erke...”

Can you blow up, you have to blow up and see, you will know!

“Rest in peace, Bamboo Sage...” Xu Ming took one last look at Bamboo Sage and was about to turn around and leave.

Bamboo Saint, on the endless continent, is also a legend! – In the era when the gods do not exist, the Bamboo Sage is an invincible existence!

It’s a pity... As soon as the gods came out, the Bamboo Sage, who had difficulty even moving, couldn’t even escape, and couldn’t hide;

When Xu Ming saw the death of the Bamboo Sage, the only feeling he felt was the sadness of the death of the rabbit and the fox.

Aren’t the ordinary people of the human race, like the Bamboo Sage, unable to escape or hide? – After all, the independent space of Jiuyu Divine Kingdom and Xu Ming is only so large; it can only hold a small number of clansmen in the 3,600 territory.

“gone!”

Xu Ming was about to leave when a sudden change occurred.

I saw that the remains of the Bamboo Sage that were more than a million miles high began to glow on ; after that, the Bamboo Sage seemed to be set on fire, and the entire body began to burn.

“Huh?” Xu Ming was startled, “What’s the situation? Could it be... Bamboo Sage is going to explode?”

Xu Ming was not afraid of the Bamboo Saint exploding. After all, he could enter the state of “absolute invisibility” at any time, immune to all damage.

However, the explosion of a huge body more than a million miles high made Xu Ming really worried that the Endless Continent would be blown up!

Fortunately, what Xu Ming feared did not happen.

The Bamboo Sage just burned, but showed no signs of exploding.

Under the constant burning, the giant bamboo that is more than one million miles high is constantly annihilated into pure energy, and it converges towards the position of the “bamboo heart”.

“What’s going on?” Xu Ming looked up in surprise.

Soon, the gigantic remains of the Bamboo Sage were completely burned; only a green bamboo pole only one inch thick was left.

Chapter 806: The Last Card

This green bamboo pole is one inch thick and nine feet long.

On the emerald green bamboo pole, Xu Ming felt an extremely strong breath of life.

“This is...”

Xu Ming remembered that the Bamboo Sage was able to grow to a height of more than one million miles because he absorbed some kind of special treasure from heaven and earth.

And now, although the Bamboo Saint is dead, after its body was incinerated, all the essence of the heavenly materials and earthly treasures that it absorbed at the beginning were left behind, and gathered into this green bamboo pole in front of him.

Xu Ming picked up the emerald green bamboo pole and felt a warm feeling. With a sudden force with both hands, he tried to crush the bamboo pole; however, there was an extremely tenacious feeling on the bamboo pole, which was not something Xu Ming could crush.

“It’s also a treasure!” Xu Ming didn’t think too much, he put the emerald green bamboo pole into the world ring.

...

After returning to the independent space.

Xu Ming originally thought that after Erke killed the Bamboo Saint, the Endless Continent should return to peace. Unexpectedly, this is just the beginning of the chaos!

Next, Erke swept the territory of the demon race, then swept the territory of the blood race, and then swept the territory of the spirit race...

One by one, the tribes swept the past!

The human race was lucky not to be swept away because of the agreement between Xu Ming and Erke.

After the sweep, the major ethnic groups were almost wiped out; in each ethnic group, there were only three or two big cats and kittens left, hiding in the corners of the endless continent, struggling to survive.

At the same time, the traces of the Demon Race began to spread all over the Endless Continent in a very high-profile manner.

The endless continent returns to peace.

But Xu Ming knew that this was the calm before the storm.

If there is no way to kill Erke, then the human race is not far from the great annihilation!

There is not much time left for Xu Ming!

As for Xu Ming, he still did not find the point of convergence between himself and the Tao of Heaven; therefore, he still could not prove the Tao and become a god.

Anxiety was useless, Xu Ming could only slowly comprehend the way of heaven and find the point of convergence with the way of heaven.

...

Endless continent, the sun rises and sunsets, spring and autumn come.

The closer the war broke out, the more peaceful the atmosphere on the Endless Continent became.

It's just that this piece of tranquility will usher in destruction at some point!

There is only the last year left in the "10-year appointment".

"Xu Ming!" The message from the Palace Master Jitian resounded in Xu Ming's mind.

Xu Ming's human avatar suddenly woke up from the state of cultivation: "Palace Master Ji Tian, what's going on? – Could it be that Erke didn't keep his promise and came early?"

"No!" Jitian Palace Master said, "It's Erke who is... opening up the kingdom of God!"

"Open up a kingdom of gods!?" Xu Ming couldn't help but be surprised.

Jitian Palace Master said: “To open up the kingdom of God requires massive resources and treasures! Even if all the treasures of the Demon Race are exhausted, I am afraid it will not be enough to open up the kingdom of God! – However, Erke has swept the major alien races and must have plundered them. Enough treasures have arrived; so, now he begins to carve out the kingdom of God!”

“It turns out... Erke swept the major alien races for the purpose of plundering resources!” Xu Ming suddenly understood – he was a little strange at first, why Erke wanted to slaughter the major ethnic groups in such a hurry; now, Xu Ming knew.

Jitian Palace Master said helplessly: “After Erke has established the kingdom of God, even if you become a * in the future, I am afraid it will be difficult to kill him!”

“Alas...” Xu Ming certainly understood this.

But even if you understand, what’s the use? Could it be that he is being asked to harass Erke to open up the kingdom of God? – Not to mention whether the harassment can be successful, even if the harassment is successful, I am afraid that Erke will be angry and kill the human race.

“Hey...” Palace Master Ji Tian also sighed – his strength is not as good as others, so he can only swallow his anger, “I will tell you about this, you can continue to practice!”

“Um!”

Xu Ming was about to cut off the communication when suddenly, he thought of something, and a sharp light flashed in his eyes.

“Palace Master Jitian!” Xu Ming continued, “When opening up the kingdom of God, is it necessary to establish the ‘land of origin of the kingdom of God’ first?”

“That’s right!” said the master of Jitian Palace, “The source of the kingdom of God is the core of the entire kingdom of God! Like me, the reason why I can repel Erke in the kingdom of God is because, from the source of the kingdom of God, I can repel Erke. Earth, called ‘Original Energy’!”

The Lord of Jitian Palace is the controller of the Jiuyu Divine Kingdom, and he naturally knows a lot about the structure of the Divine Kingdom: “The source energy of the Divine Kingdom is extremely powerful, even stronger than the gods themselves!”

“Oh...” Xu Ming knew almost nothing about the structure of the kingdom of God; he asked again, “When the ‘Original Land’ was established, was the origin energy very unstable?”

“Yes!” Jitian Palace Master was startled, “Xu Ming, do you want to...”

Xu Ming’s eyes narrowed slightly, with a ruthless look in his eyes: “I’m thinking...this is an opportunity! – an opportunity to kill Erke!”

“Palace Master Extreme Heaven!” Xu Ming said seriously, “Although I have cultivated the two heavenly ways of wind and fire to the limit of demigods, but I still don’t have a clue as to how to become a god!” There is only one year left, I know myself, and I want to become a  within a year, but the hope is extremely slim!”

“Since this is the case...” Xu Ming’s eyes were firm and decisive, “It’s better to take advantage of it now and give it a shot! Maybe, I can take the opportunity to kill Erke!”

Palace Master Ji Tian pondered for a while: “Xu Ming, how sure are you?”

“I don’t know!” Xu Ming said truthfully.

He really didn’t know – after all, Xu Ming had no way of knowing how strong the vitality and defense of the gods were.

“But...” Xu Ming said again, “If you don’t care about the consequences, Erke should definitely die!”

“Huh?” Jitian Palace Master heard that Xu Ming might want to put himself in too!

“Xu Ming!” Jitian Palace Master continued, “You are the future hope of the human race! Your safety is the most important! If you really can’t kill Erke, then...” Jitian Palace Master’s voice was a bit bitter, “Then you will Come back! – To the ethnic group, your life is much more important than the lives of hundreds of millions of people at the bottom!”

The implication of the Jitian Palace Master is: I would rather give up the hundreds of millions of people at the bottom of the 3600 territory than Xu Ming to go all out!

After all, no matter how many people at the bottom die, it doesn't take many years to multiply and spread throughout the endless continent. But such a monster genius like Xu Ming can't be produced by the entire human race in countless eras! – Hundreds of millions of people and Xu Ming, which one is more important?

“I have my own measure!” Xu Ming said, “By the way, Palace Master Ji Tian, are you ready for everything I want you to prepare?”

“It's been ready for a long time!” Jitian Palace Master said, “All the artifacts of the human race are already here with me, you can just come and get them! – But Xu Ming, can you tell me that you bring so many artifacts? , what's the use? It's like a material attack artifact, you have to bring six or seven pieces at the same time?”

All the artifacts of the human race, including those in Xu Ming's hands, totaled nine!

Among them seven are material attack artifacts, a soul attack artifact “Eye of Withering”, and a domain artifact “Ask the Sky Mirror”.

“Secret!” Xu Ming said, “This is my last trump card. If it's not a last resort, I really don't want to use this trick!”

Ji Tian Palace Master didn't ask much. He believed in Xu Ming.

...

At the same time, Xu Ming sent a message to Zhang Hao: “Xiaohao, how many hydrogen bombs have you made?”

“Eleven!” Zhang Hao replied, “I have strictly calculated the power, and they are all powers covering a hundred territories!”

“Okay! I’ll get it now!” Xu Ming said.

“So soon, Brother Ming?” Zhang Hao was startled, “Isn’t there a year left?”

“It’s ahead of schedule!” Xu Ming didn’t say more, a teleportation appeared beside Zhang Hao. Then, he teleported to Jiuyu Divine Kingdom to find the main artifact of Jitian Palace.

Chapter 807: How Can You Not Die!

In the very depths of the space crack, the space turbulence is extremely violent.

Many great masters like to hide their secret realms deeply; after all, the deeper they hide, the harder it is for others to discover! – Erke’s secret realm is hidden deep within the cracks in space.

At this time, Erke has prepared a lot of resources and treasures, and is about to upgrade his secret realm to “God Kingdom”!

rumbling...

Erke closed his eyes and crossed his knees, sitting at the very core of the secret realm.

The power of the Heavenly Dao in the entire secret realm condensed into countless horned dragons that destroyed the sky and the earth, gathered in the palm of Erke’s left hand, and formed a rapidly rotating black vortex.

The black vortex is only one foot in size, and it does not have any tyrannical momentum; but if you think about it with your toes, you can guess that the black vortex must contain extremely terrifying power!

In the palm of Erke’s right hand, there is a golden vortex formed by countless divine powers.

To open up the kingdom of God, we must first establish the “land of origin”.

The foundation of the source land is composed of “the power of heaven” and “divine power”. Erke is now compressing the power of heaven and divine power; at this time, the most taboo is to be disturbed.

call out!

Suddenly, Xu Ming teleported into Erke’s secret realm.

“Huh?” Erke immediately opened his eyes and said coldly, “Xu Ming, what are you doing!?”

Xu Ming smiled and said, “Let me learn how the kingdom of God was created! After all, I will definitely create the kingdom of God in the future!”

“Go away!” Erke cursed without hesitation.

Erke’s feeling now is as if he was squatting in the pit, but Xu Ming ran over to watch him squatting in the pit – this feeling made Erke feel very uncomfortable.

“Get out of my secret realm immediately, or you will be at your own risk!” Erke shouted coldly.

“Don’t do this!” Xu Ming said cheaply, “I’m just watching from the side, and it won’t affect you!”

“If you don’t get out again, after I open up the kingdom of God, I will definitely slaughter your human race immediately!” Erke’s voice was cold and ruthless.

“Stingy...” Xu Ming sneered, “Why don’t you just watch and learn, you won’t let it! – Forget it, don’t show it if you don’t show it, I’ll go to the head office!”

Saying that, Xu Ming actually turned around and flew towards the membrane wall of the secret realm.

In the next instant, Xu Ming drilled through the membrane wall, left the secret realm, and disappeared into Erke’s field of vision.

“Humph!” Erke snorted coldly, “Want to learn how to open up the kingdom of God with me? – It’s a shame he dared to think!”

Erke was about to close his eyes again and focus all his energy on opening up the kingdom of God; suddenly, he felt a chill behind him! -Yes! The moment Xu Ming left the secret realm, he immediately teleported and came behind Erke.

“Xu Ming, how dare you harass me to open up the kingdom of God... Really courting death!” Erke was furious.

At this moment, Erke saw that Xu Ming threw out eleven rings!

“Na Jie?” Erke was slightly startled – he couldn’t understand what Xu Ming was doing.

Yeah, what are you throwing the ring for?

It’s very simple... Eleven super large hydrogen bombs are hidden in the eleven Na ring!

While Xu Ming threw the cashier ring, he had already detonated all eleven hydrogen bombs!

“Enjoy it well, Erke!” Deep in Xu Ming’s eyes, there was a ferocious look of anticipation—expecting to blow up Erke in one fell swoop!

Then, Xu Ming directly activated the “absolute stealth” link and disappeared in place.

“What’s going on!?” Erke felt a little inexplicable, and at the same time felt extremely strong heart palpitations, as if a catastrophe was imminent.

“Is there something very scary in these Na Rings?” Erke immediately guessed.

He guessed it right!

But... guessing right is useless!

rumbling...

How can the fragile space in the Na ring stop the devastating power of the hydrogen bomb?

Almost at the same instant, the eleven Na Rings shattered, and the spaces in the Na Ring collapsed. The terrifying power of destroying the knuckles and pulling the rotten, swept out from the shattered Na ring, making Erke feel extremely palpitated!

“This is...” Immediately, Erke’s expression changed – of course he could feel the terrifying power of this power!

“Xu Ming!!” Erke’s eyes were splitting.

boom! ! !

The power of eleven super-large hydrogen bombs exploded at the same time.

Erke, who was sitting cross-legged, was swallowed up by the terrifying mushroom cloud formed by the explosion of eleven hydrogen bombs before he could even lift his feet to escape.

The most terrifying thing is that the “Heavenly Power Vortex” and “Divine Power Vortex” in Erke’s left and right hands also became unstable under the power of this terrifying explosion, and also joined the ranks of explosions!

And the explosive power of these two vortexes is more pure and more terrifying!

boom! ! !

boom! ! !

Eleven super large hydrogen bombs, the vortex of the power of heaven, the vortex of divine power... exploded at the same time!

And Erke, unfortunately, is at the very heart of the explosion!

“I...” At this moment, Erke just wanted to say – what a dog!

boom! ! ! !

The terrifying power that annihilates everything and devours everything swept through the entire secret realm.

Under the power of destroying and destroying, this “poor” secret realm was directly blown up to the point where not even the * was left!

Yes!

Not even the scum is left!

The power of the explosion is still spreading out in the spatial turbulence.

You must know that the explosive power of each super-large hydrogen bomb can cover a hundred territories. Now eleven detonated at the same time, and the vortex of the power of heaven and the vortex of divine power is the icing on the cake; just a moment later, the area swept by the explosion is more than a hundred territories!

Fortunately, this is the deepest part of the space crack; only a very small part of the terrifying explosive power can be transmitted back to the Endless Continent—Xu Ming also understands this, so he dares to detonate eleven super hydrogen bombs at the same time!

rumbling...

This super explosion lasted for a quarter of an hour before it gradually subsided.

At this time, with the explosion point as the center, there is nothing left; Erke’s entire secret realm has also been bombed and disappeared without a trace.

terrible!

“What about Erke?”

Xu Ming found that Erke, who was not far away, had also disappeared.

“Could it be that he was killed by a terrifying explosion!?”

After seeing the terrifying power of the explosion Xu Ming felt that it would be impossible to directly kill Erke!

Whoosh!

Xu Ming broke away from the state of “absolute invisibility”; the majestic spiritual power, like a tide, spread in all directions.

There is no trace of Erke!

There is no trace of the existence of the secret realm!

It seemed that everything... was destroyed in a terrifying explosion.

Suddenly, Xu Ming’s mental power detected a few pieces of metal wreckage in a very distant place.

“This...” Xu Ming observed the patterns on the wreckage, “Isn’t this the Demon Destruction Armor that Erke just wore?”

Destroy the magic armor, a material defense artifact!

“Even the divine weapon, the Destruction Demon Armor, was blown to pieces, Erke... how could he not die!”

Chapter 808: Particle Shape

“Even the divine weapon, the Destruction Demon Armor, was blown to pieces, Erke... how could he not die!”

In Xu Ming’s opinion, no matter how strong Erke’s divine body is, he can’t possibly be stronger than a divine weapon, right?

Therefore, Erke must die!

However, if Erke really died like this, Xu Ming always felt it was weird – in this case, the gods would be too good to kill, right?

“Is he dead?” Xu Ming’s mental power covered him, but he found no trace of Erke, but found that there seemed to be many “black particles” in the surrounding space.

The black particles were extremely small, so small that even Xu Ming could not see their appearance, and could only vaguely sense their existence.

“What is this?” Xu Ming was very puzzled.

At this moment, countless extremely small black particles began to converge into a tiny black sphere.

In this black sphere, Xu Ming actually felt a trace of Erke’s breath!

“Huh!?” Xu Ming was horrified, “Could it be that these incomparably small black particles are all formed by the decomposition of Erke?”

This kind of thing is already beyond Xu Ming’s understanding.

“No matter what, we can’t let them converge smoothly!”

Xu Ming burst out suddenly!

The terrifying strength of the “21st-order” is all condensed on the tip of the artifact ice gun.

boom! !

The tiny black spheres that had just gathered were blasted to pieces—but they were only split into two halves, and the tiniest black particles were not reduced at all.

In an instant, the cracked black sphere immediately returned to its original state. Obviously, Xu Ming's shot did not achieve much effect.

At the same time, more and more black particles gathered rapidly; the black sphere continued to grow.

When the black sphere grew to about the size of the “little finger”, there was suddenly a hint of Erke's breath.

“Huh? It's really Erke!” Xu Ming was horrified—what kind of means is this! ?

boom!

Xu Ming fired another shot! – Now that he knows that this is Erke, Xu Ming certainly cannot be soft-hearted!

However, Xu Ming's shot only made the black sphere tremble slightly, and it had no other effect!

“This...” Xu Ming became more and more horrified.

Immediately afterwards, the black sphere began to burn, like fiery red lava, filled with hot breath.

More and more black particles came together, and the “lava” became bigger and bigger and began to change shape.

The attack was ineffective, Xu Ming could only stand by and watch the change.

Soon, the lava formed by the gathering and burning of countless black particles condensed into a “human shape” – although the face has not yet formed, the body shape is obviously Erke!

“Erke isn’t dead...”

At this time, Erke’s body was fiery red, like lava; his whole body was faintly glowing, radiant and soul-stirring.

“Xu Ming!” Erke’s face gradually became clear; his eyes were extremely cold and vicious, “You are such a good trick... I really underestimate you!”

“Humph!” Xu Ming just snorted, “Erke, I hate not being able to blow you up!”

“Want to blow up me?” Erke sneered, “Just this little trick, let alone blowing me up, I can’t even get hurt!”

Yes, Erke is indeed not injured!

No injuries at all!

“But...” Erke added, “I really didn’t expect that you, a demigod, could make me return to the ‘particle form’... I didn’t expect it! I didn’t expect it! Fortunately, you don’t have the means to annihilate particles; Otherwise, I was really in danger just now!”

“Particle form?” Xu Ming wondered.

In fact, Xu Ming did not know that the biggest difference between the flesh of a demigod and the divine body of a deity is that the flesh of a demigod is made up of flesh and blood, while the divine body of a demigod is not flesh and blood, but is made of extremely small “particles”. ” constituted.

It doesn’t matter which part of the divine body: eyes, hands, heart, etc... it doesn’t really make a difference! Because, its essence, is exactly the same particle!

Moreover, the gods are harmless!

Because every part of the divine body is essentially the same particle, but it just shows a different appearance. Even if the divine body is smashed to pieces, as long as the “particles are immortal”, the divine spirit will not be hurt in the slightest! -Like Erke, the entire divine body was blown into extremely small black particles, but there was no damage at all!

And the means of “annihilation particles” are only available to the gods, not to the demigods – that’s why it is said that the demigods cannot defeat the gods anyway!

Xu Ming doesn’t know about these things right now; however, when he becomes a  in the future, he will naturally understand.

“Xu Ming, you really angered me!”

Erke looked around—he used to be his secret realm; now, the entire secret realm has been bombed to the point where there is no  left...

Moreover, the treasures on Erke’s body, including the divine artifact Destruction Demon Armor and the Reincarnation Bell, were also blown up!

Now, Erke has no treasures! Even the underwear was transformed with divine power!

Thinking about it carefully, Erke is really quite desolate – he was doing “renovation” at home, but Xu Ming, a “rogue”, rushed in and dropped eleven super hydrogen bombs, directly blowing up his house. Now, he even went bankrupt...

“die!!”

Erke made a claw with one hand and slammed towards Xu Ming without warning.

boom! !

However, Xu Ming had been wearing the “energy shield” all the time. This kind of sneak attack would naturally not hurt him in the slightest.

“Humph!” Erke had expected this to be the case.

“Xu Ming, ah Xu Ming!” Erke squinted his eyes slightly and looked at Xu Ming coldly, “What secret is there in you! Even I can’t hurt you in the slightest...”

The current situation of Xu Ming and Erke is that no one can hurt anyone!

Moreover, Xu Ming wanted to slaughter the demons, but Erke couldn’t stop it; Erke wanted to slaughter the human race, but Xu Ming still couldn’t stop it!

“I really want to know, what secrets are there in you!” Erke sneered, “But now, you have completely angered me! I decided to slaughter your human race first!”

“You dare!?” Xu Ming shouted angrily If you slaughter the humans, I will slaughter the demons! ”

To slaughter, “mutually slaughter”!

Erke was not threatened at all: “I don’t care about the survival of those trash in the tribe; if you want to slaughter, just slaughter it! – Not to mention, I will go to your human territory first and vent my anger! ”

Erke felt that his anger was in urgent need of venting! -Since there is no way to take Xu Ming, then go and slaughter the human race!

Whoosh!

Saying that, Erke’s figure flashed, and in the turbulent space, he quickly swept away in the direction of the human race’s territory.

“Not good!” Xu Ming was in a hurry – his speed was far inferior to Erke;

But what’s the use of chasing it?

Xu Ming couldn’t kill Erke! He can’t even hurt Erke!

The great demise of the human race is coming!

Chapter 809: Unpredictable Consequences

“Erke, stop!” Xu Ming teleported and stopped in front of Erke.

“Go away!” Erke raised his hand and slapped Xu Ming aside with a bang, “I want to slaughter the human race, you can’t stop it!”

“I...” Xu Ming suddenly felt a strong sense of powerlessness – even though he has the terrifying combat power of “21st rank”, but facing the real gods, he still has no way to cause any damage to the opponent. .

If you want to hurt the gods, unless the attack reaches the level of “annihilation particles”!

However, only a god-level attack can be so powerful that it can annihilate the tiniest particles! Xu Ming’s attack, even the explosion of a super hydrogen bomb, was far from reaching this level in terms of “quality”!

Xu Ming couldn’t hurt Erke at all!

call out!

Xu Ming teleported again and arrived at Erke’s side! – His speed is not as fast as Erke, and if he wants to catch up with Erke, he can only constantly cast teleportation.

“Erke, stop!” Xu Ming’s voice was cold, with madness in his eyes, “Don’t force me!”

“I forced you?” Erke sneered, “You blew up my secret realm when I opened up the kingdom of God! – Now, you still say I forced you?”

Xu Ming was silent.

He had to do it too!

“Erke!” Xu Ming thought for a while and said, “This time, I admit that I made a mistake! Let’s sit down and have a good talk?”

There is no right or wrong in the battle between ethnic groups! A big fist is right; a small fist is wrong! At this time, in order to save the human race, Xu Ming even humiliated in front of Erke.

However, this doesn’t seem to work!

“Talk?” Erke’s mouth curled into a wicked smile, “When I finish slaughtering your human race, then sit down with you and have a good talk!”

Now, Erke just wants to slaughter the human race!

“Erke!” Xu Ming shouted angrily, “Are you really going to force me?”

“What’s wrong with you?” Erke sneered disdainfully, “I don’t believe it, what other means do you have to threaten my divine body!”

The divine body of the gods cannot be destroyed at the demigod level at all! – Erke is convinced of this! Xu Ming also deeply understood this after seeing some terrifying aspects of the divine body.

Therefore, Xu Ming wants to slaughter the god, unless... he can raise his combat power to the level of a god!

However, even though Xu Ming was frantically opening all combat plug-ins, his combat power was only “21st-order demigod”! It is still far, far away from the real gods!

The only thing that can make Xu Ming leapfrog and defeat the gods is... “Soul Possession”!

Hanging with “Soul Possession”, summoning the power of the gods, Xu Ming can have the fighting power of the gods!

But... Requires a level 9 hanging point!

And Xu Ming doesn't have a level 9 hanging point!

Or, yes, but not far! Because, * stone fragments can also be exchanged for level 9 hanging points, but the "exchange ratio" is very touching – two hundred * stone fragments can be exchanged for 1 point of level 9 hanging points!

At the Huangquan Mausoleum, Xu Ming "kidnapped" more than a thousand Taoist priests of different races, and "extorted" about three thousand pieces of divine stone from all the different races.

Later, when the army of alien demigods attacked the Dao Palace, Xu Ming also got some fragments of the divine stone.

In addition, there are some divine stone fragments in the treasury of the human race! – All the pieces of the * stone can be put together to make about 10,000 pieces! Redeem it into a level 9 hanging point, which is about fifty points!

And summoning the weakest gods and powers to possess souls requires 100 points of level 9 hanging points! Moreover, it is hard to say whether the weakest * can beat Erke!

Xu Ming's heart was ruthless, and he could only pin his hopes on the last trump card – the divine weapon!

Use the artifact to exchange for level 9 hanging points!

However, you must know that there is a great risk in exchanging artifacts for level 9 hanging points!

Because, any artifact must have an artifact spirit! And Xu Ming remembered very clearly that Xiaohang once warned himself very solemnly: Do not exchange treasures with spirits for hanging points, otherwise it will cause unpredictable serious consequences!

Unpredictable serious consequences!

What are the consequences? How serious is it? – Xu Ming is unknown!

However, since Xiaohang warned extremely solemnly, the consequences must be very serious!

But now, Xu Ming found that he had no choice but to use this last hole card to exchange the divine weapon for level 9 hanging points! Otherwise, the entire human race, 3,600 territories, hundreds of millions of compatriots, countless warrior monks who pursue the martial arts... will all be ruined!

Watching the entire human race die?

Although Xu Ming is not a kind person, he can't be so cold-blooded – after all, this is not one or two human races, nor one thousand ten thousand, but billions!

As the saying goes, when the sky falls, the tallest man is on the top!

And Xu Ming is the tallest in the entire human race! – Can he stand it?

If he doesn't support it, who will support it?

“Erke!” In Xu Ming's icy voice, there was a resolute look, “I'll ask you, and I'll only ask you once – do you want to live or die?”

Erke was slightly startled by Xu Ming's tone – do you want to live, or do you want to die?

What an arrogant question!

Such a domineering tone!

But then, Erke couldn't help sneering – when did he become so timid? He was actually frightened by what Xu Ming said!

“Hmph! Stop pretending there!” Erke snorted coldly, “If you have any skills, just use it!”

“Then you choose... want to die!” Xu Ming's voice seemed to come from the bottom of Jiuyou, and it seemed to be a trial!

For some reason, Erke's heart throbbed violently!

"What's wrong with me? So suspicious!" Erke sneered at himself.

As for Xu Ming, he began to count the artifacts at hand: the Ice Fire Spear, the Sky-Questing Mirror, the Eye of Withering, the Divine Phoenix Sword, the Heaven Slaying, the Taitian Stick, the Blood Ruler Evil Blade...etc.

A total of nine artifacts!

"Since you want to exchange the artifact for the hanging point, then you can exchange it all at once!" Xu Ming said with a ruthless heart, "Leave only the ice and fire gun, and use it in battle, that's enough!"

Make up your mind Xu Ming shouted directly in his heart: "Little hanging, help me convert these eight artifacts into level 9 hanging points!"

"Artifacts have artifact spirits, once they are exchanged for hanging points, there will be unpredictable serious consequences!" Xiao Hanglian warned.

"It doesn't matter what serious consequences are not serious consequences for him, he can't care about so much! Let's exchange it!" Xu Ming's voice was extremely firm.

"It is extremely risky to exchange treasures with spirits for hanging points. Are you sure about the exchange?"

"Sure!" Xu Ming's voice was calm and firm.

"After the exchange is completed, there may be unpredictable serious consequences. Are you sure about the exchange?" Xiaohang confirmed again and again.

"Sure!"

"Please think twice, host, are you sure!" Xiao Hang rarely became very long-winded.

“Sure!”

After counting the interest, Xiaohang’s voice sounded again: “Start to exchange...”

Chapter 810: The Order Of The Universe

After a short while, Xiaohang’s voice sounded again: “The exchange is successful! This exchange, a total of 320 points for level 9 hanging points!”

Xu Ming exchanged the eight divine tools and all the divine stone fragments into hanging points!

“Three hundred and twenty points... This is all the level 9 hanging points I can get!” Xu Ming secretly said.

And these three hundred and twenty-point 9-level hanging points are also the whole reliance of Xu Ming to kill Erke! – If he still can’t kill Erke, then he will have no means to stop Erke from slaughtering the human race!

“Kill it!” Xu Ming’s eyes were bloodthirsty.

But at this moment...

In Xu Ming’s mind, Xiaohang’s voice suddenly sounded frantically, as if confused:

“Drip drip drip drip drip!”

“Warning! Warning!”

“Dangerous! Dangerous!”

“Because the host forcibly exchanged the divine artifact with the artifact spirit into a hanging point; so that the existence of this plug-in system has attracted the attention of the ‘cosmic order’!”

The existence of plug-ins is against the order of the universe.

It's like playing a game, once a cheat is detected, it's easy to get banned!

If Xu Ming kept a low profile, followed Xiaohang's reminders, and didn't go beyond the thunder pool, that would be fine. Generally, it would not be "detected" by the order of the universe's operation! However, Xu Ming ignored Xiaohang's reminder and did something he shouldn't have done, which would be dangerous!

But Xu Ming is also a last resort – if he doesn't do this, the human race will be slaughtered!

"What's the situation?" Xu Ming was startled, "What is the cosmic order? What happens when the cosmic order pays attention? – Also, didn't I just exchange some artifacts with artifact spirits? As for the serious consequences??"

As for?

Of course!

You must know that "tool spirit" is actually a form of life!

And as long as it is life, even if it is as small as an ant or even as a bacteria, it must follow the rules of "reincarnation"!

Born, the essence of heaven and earth condenses into life; extinction is the return of life to the origin of the universe! – It goes on and on, and on and on, forever!

However, beings "devoured" by plug-ins are different from normal dead beings. They will not return to the origin of the universe, but are directly dragged "outside of reincarnation". In this way, in the reincarnation, there will be a few fewer lives, which violates the rules of reincarnation; the order of the universe's operation will be monitored abnormally!

"If the cosmic order finds out that he is using a plug-in, the host will be blocked!" Xiao Hang's voice was extremely nervous and urgent.

"Ban!?" Xu Ming was stunned – he really knew how to "ban"?

“Then what to do now!?” Faced with this incredible situation, Xu Ming was at a loss.

Xiao Hang said: “The plug-in is about to enter a dormant state to avoid the supervision of the order of the universe!”

But even if it enters the dormant state, it is still unknown whether it can escape the inspection! If you can’t escape, then there are only two words left for Xu Ming – tragedy!

“The host will not be able to use plug-ins for the time being, please ask yourself for more blessings!”

Can’t use plug-in temporarily?

Xu Ming just wanted to say – I’m going! Then I haven’t been killed by Erke!

Moreover, Xu Ming didn’t know how long Xiaohang said “temporarily”! – How many days? Or how many years? Or tens of thousands of years?

Taking advantage of the fact that the plug-in can still be used now, Xu Ming’s heart is stunned, and he can’t take care of so much: “Little hang, use up all the 9-level hang points, immediately summon a * of power for me, soul possessed!”

“Opening the current state will greatly increase the possibility of being blocked!” Xiaohanglian reminded.

“If you are blocked, you will be blocked!” Xu Ming roared, “Immediately activate the ‘Soul Possession’ link!”

If you hang up, you will be more likely to be blocked; but if you don’t hang up, you will be killed by Erke immediately! – How else can Xu Ming choose?

Had to hang up!

All of this happened in an extremely short period of lightning, not even a moment.

boom!

An extremely tyrannical soul attached to Xu Ming.

“The ‘Soul Possession’ hang has been opened! A powerful  has been summoned for the host!”

Xu Ming felt it: “What a powerful force! -Is this the power that belongs to the level of the gods? It’s really indescribable!”

The power on his body is really different from Xu Ming’s own power, it is completely different! As a result, Xu Ming couldn’t even feel what level this power was; he only knew...it was very strong! Strong!

Very strong!

Strong enough to allow Xu Ming to despise Erke!

As for Xiaohang, after helping Xu Ming open the plug-in, he went into a dormant state and “hide”.

hum...

At the same time, an invisible cosmic operating order swept into the area where Xu Ming and Erke were!

The order in which the universe operates is an existence that is above the Dao of Heaven! Even the operation of the Nine Heavens must follow the order of the universe’s operation!

All living beings and everything are under the control of the order of the universe’s operation! Except... Xu Ming’s plug-in!

As for Xu Ming and Erke, although they both possessed the combat power of the gods at this time, they could not feel the coming of the order of the universe’s operation at all! – The levels are so different that I can’t feel it at all!

call out!

The “eyes” of the order of the universe’s operation instantly focused on Xu Ming.

Then...

There was a trace of... doubt in this high “look”.

Yes, doubt!

“It” clearly felt that there was an abnormality in this space-time; however, it could not detect any abnormality.

How strange!

The eyes of the order of the universe’s operation were again directed towards the depths of Xu Ming’s body, and probed away.

Xu Ming’s whole person, from the outside to the inside, from the body to the soul and then to the mind, has been seen to the fullest!

From the point of view of “it”, although there are many inconceivable things about Xu Ming; for example, at this time, Xu Ming’s weak body is attached to a powerful soul of a god! But... the vastness of the universeXu Ming is a little unbelievable, in the eyes of “it”, it is nothing at all.

The working order of the universe swept around several times.

Result of the sweep: everything works!

strangeness!

call...

The next moment, the attention of the order of the universe's operation receded like a tide – after all, the order of the universe's operation must maintain the stable operation of the entire universe;

And this whole process—from the arrival to the departure of the order of the universe's operation, Xu Ming and Erke didn't realize it!

Xu Ming did not know that he had just escaped a death catastrophe!

A real catastrophe!

Moreover, Xu Ming is not really safe now – in the future, the order of the universe will definitely pay more attention to Xu Ming! If there is another abnormality around Xu Ming, then the order of the universe's operation is likely to directly block him!
