Chapter 1096

Chapter 1096

After sending Thomas away Bryana Cameron turned to Alexander and said Mr. Davis since you said he handed the Schneider Group over to me do I have the right to dispose of Alexander had a bad feeling in his heart but he braced himself and said "Yes but it's said to be your personal property

"Then you donated all of it for me"

She didn't want to take over the Schneider Group nor did she want to have any further relations with the Schneider family

Alexander's face stiffened, and he was silent for a while before he carefully spoke "Ms Cameron, perhaps you should reconsider. I've heard about your issues with Mr. Schneider but the Schneider Group is not just Mr Schneider alone there are hundreds and thousands Of employees. If you deal with the Schneider Group in this way they will be unemployed I hope you can reconsider!"

Seeing the sincerity on Alexander's face, a flash of surprise flickered in Briana Cameron's eyes

"Did you really work as a secretary for Zane for three years

Zane he didn't seem like the kind of person who would consider his employees

Alexander paused for a moment then nodded and said. "Yes, I couldn't find a job back then it was Mr Schneider who gave me a job opportunity Although I didn't do very well. Mr. Schneider always encouraged me, which allowed me to get where I am today

Briana Cameron:

The Zane he spoke of was not at all the Zane he knew.

If it weren't for the fact that Alexander looked nothing like Zane, Briana Cameron would have suspected that he was Zane's illegitimate child who had been left out in the world.

“Ms. Cameron..... How about you set aside one day each week, and I’ll bring over the documents that the Schneider Group needs to be handled? You won’t have to worry about anything else, what do you think?”

Briana Cameron shook her head and said. “I’ve decided to deal with the Schneider Group, regardless of the unemployment of those employees. It has nothing to do with me. It’s Zane’s fault. If he had focused on his work instead of having children, we wouldn’t be in this situation today. I can’t be expected to bear the consequences of his mistakes, can I?”

Upon hearing this, Alexander’s face instantly turned incredibly unpleasant.

“Ms. Cameron, that’s not what I meant...”

“I knew you didn’t mean that, but I had never considered taking over the Schneider Group. It’s not like I had to accept just because Zane offered it, right?”

Seeing her determined expression, it was clear that she would not be swayed by him. Alexander’s face gradually turned ashen.

After a long while, he finally lowered his head and said, “I understand, Ms. Cameron, I will take care of the Schneider Group as soon as possible.”

He bowed his head and silently put away the documents he had brought. Before he came, he had thought of many words to persuade Briana Cameron.

But seeing her determined gaze, he knew, those words were of no avail, she would not change her mind.

Having packed up his things, he took a deep breath and slowly said, “Ms. Cameron. I appreciate your willingness to meet with me today. I apologize for the inconvenience.”

After speaking, Alexander turned around and left directly.

Just as she reached the door, the calm voice of Briana Cameron sounded from behind.

“Mr. Davis. I suggested that you persuade Zane not to leave the Schneider Group to me. Perhaps this could allow the Schneider Group to continue to exist.”

For her, the Schneider Group was nothing more than a burden.

Alexander's silhouette stiffened for a moment. After a while, he said in a low voice, "I understand, Ms. Cameron, your thoughts. I will convey them to Mr. Schneider, but whether Mr. Schneider is willing or not. I don't know."

After leaving the Cameron family, Alexander went straight to the police station.

After knowing Briana Cameron's thoughts, Zane was silent for a long time, then said softly, "If this is what she wants, then let's do it."

"Mr. Schneider! How could this be! The Schneider Group is the company you've protected for so many years, to just sell it like this, not to mention you, I can't bear it either!"

There was no warmth in Zane's eyes, "What else can I do if I don't sell "

Chapter 1097

Alexander fell silent for a moment, then looked at him and said, "Perhaps... we could ask the lady to come back and take charge. After all, she used to be a shareholder of the company..."

No sooner had the words fallen than they were vetoed by Zane

"No, I've already divorced her, she definitely won't come back! Even if I go to find her, it would just be humiliating myself!"

"If Ms. Cameron had persuaded her, perhaps she would have agreed, after all, she had planned to leave all her property to Ms. Cameron."

Upon hearing this, Zane fell silent for a moment.

"Did you know where she is now?"

If possible, Zane didn't want to approach Mallory at all, but now, to keep the company running and not be taken over by others, Mallory indeed was the best choice.

“The lady hadn’t left Haseton yet, if we go to find her now, perhaps we could still make it in time.”

Zane lowered his head, his hand on the table involuntarily tightened, and after a good while, he finally gave a slight nod.

A glint of joy flashed in Alexander’s eyes, he quickly said, “I’ll send someone to find out where the lady is right now!”

“Mm—hmm.”

Soon, Alexander received the news that Mallory was at the airport, preparing to return to Bridenville.

He hurriedly drove to the airport. Whether he could save the Schneider. Group or not depended on if he could persuade Mallory.

When he arrived at the airport, Mallory was about to go through security check.

“Madam, I wanted to talk to you...”

Upon seeing that it was Zane’s secretary, Mallory’s face instantly turned incredibly cold.

“I had nothing left to discuss with Zane. He deserved to be caught, and there was no way I was going to bail him out!”

Panting heavily, Alexander said, “Madam, I didn’t want you to save Mr. Schneider, but to discuss the Schneider Group with you.”

“The Schneider Group also had nothing to do with me.”

“The Schneider Group was supposed to belong to Ms. Cameron. Now, Ms. Cameron doesn’t want it and plans to dispose of the Schneider Group. Are you really willing to see the Schneider Group, which originally belonged to Ms. Cameron, be taken away by other members of the Schneider family?!”

Mallory’s footsteps faltered as she left. She had no particular affection for the Schneider family. Over the years, due to her inability to bear a son, the elderly Schneiders had been very dissatisfied with her, often scolding her behind her back.

And his younger uncle’s family had always wanted to take over the control of the Schneider Group.

Now that Zane was arrested, if Briana Cameron didn’t want the Schneider Group, her uncle’s family would definitely come to fight for it.

She certainly wouldn't hand over the Schneider Group to them.

As for Briana Cameron, who was unwilling to accept, it would be the same to hand over the company to her after she gradually forgave herself and Zane.

"Would Zane really hand over the Schneider Group to me? Wasn't he afraid that he would get nothing once I took control of the Schneider Group?"

Alexander gave a slight smile, pausing after each word, "The Schneider Group being in your hands is certainly better than it being in the hands of other members of the Schneider family. After all, you would definitely consider your own daughter, wouldn't you?"

As long as the heir to the Schneider Group was Zane's biological daughter, he didn't care about it.

After all, he didn't have a son to inherit anymore.

Mallory took a deep breath and said, "Alright, I can agree to your request, but the Schneider Group can't stay in Haseton any longer. Zane has managed to offend everyone in Haseton that he could, this branch will only continue to lose money. It's better to merge this branch with the one in Bridenville!"

Chapter 1098

"Alright, we'll do as you say!"

Soon, the news of the Schneider Group's withdrawal from Haseton had spread throughout the entire Haseton business community.

When Kathy learned about the news, she was doing laundry for senior Mrs. Bynes at the Bynes family's place..

The Bynes family clearly had servants, but when Kathy made a mistake, their method of punishment was to have her serve senior Mrs. Bynes and senior Mr. Bynes as if she were a servant.

Originally, Kathy's marriage into the Bynes family was considered a good match, and naturally, she always followed the arrangements of the Bynes family. It had been like this for many years.

The servant next to her couldn't help but look at her with mocking disdain, his eyes full of contempt.

"Some people, even if they become Mrs. Bynes, so what? They still can't compare to the lady of the house in any way I've never seen the lady of the house do laundry!"

"Don't even mention the lady washing clothes for the old lady. If the lady is not in a good mood one day, everyone in the house has to appease her!"

"Yeah, I said women should still believe in reincarnation, it's better to be born well than to marry well!"

Kathy's face turned ashen with anger, just as she was about to speak, a cold female voice sounded from behind a few servants.

"What are you?! Nothing but servants paid by the Schneider family! How dare you speak so boldly in front of your master, it seems like you don't want to work anymore!"

Several people turned around in terror, only to see Kayla Bynes standing there, which immediately unnerved them.

"Miss San, that's not what we meant..."

"Miss San, I'm sorry, we were just leaving..."

"Miss San, let me explain..."

Kayla sneered. "Collect your wages and leave immediately, I don't want to see you at the Bynes family again!"

A few people still wanted to speak, but Kayla continued, "You should know I have a bad temper. If there's any more nonsense, I won't be so nice later."

Upon hearing this, the expressions of several people changed, and they didn't dare to say anything more. They quickly left.

Kathy rose to her feet with a look of surprise, "Kayla, how come you're back?! Aren't you supposed to be abroad at this time?"

Kayla walked up to Kathy, her eyes slightly red, gritting her teeth and said, “If I hadn’t come back, who knows how much you would have been bullied. Grandpa and grandma are too much!”

Kathy sighed and slowly said, “There’s no helping it, I sided with your uncle wrongly, causing the Bynes family to lose a lot of money and connections. Your grandparents punishing me like this is justified.”

“Mom, don’t worry, I won’t let you continue this kind of life. This time when I returned to the country, I brought back the latest developed chip. With this chip, we, mother and daughter, can also live the kind of life Auntie has!”

From a young age. Kayla had learned to read people under Kathy’s guidance. However, she was not satisfied. She was no less than her cousins, so why did her grandparents always favor them and were extremely strict with her?

Thinking of all the things her cousins used to have that she didn’t, a touch of coldness unconsciously flashed in Kayla’s eyes.

This time when she came back, she would definitely fight for her interests, ensuring that she and her mother held the same status as the great-aunt in the Bynes family!

Upon hearing this, Kathy’s face lit up with disbelief, “Really? Did you really bring the chip back?”

Kayla nodded. “Yes, and this is something I developed with my own team Mom, don’t worry, you won’t have to live like this anymore. If the Bynes family ever gives you a hard time again, we’ll just move out!”

Chapter 1099

Chapter 1099

Seeing her daughter so tough, Kathy was filled with joy, but at the same time, she was also somewhat worried.

“About the chip, it’s better not to tell them so soon. Who knows what they might do to make you hand it over. Wait until you’ve settled down before mentioning it.”

Kayla held Kathy’s hand, nodded, and said, “Hmm, don’t worry, I know what to do.”

“That worked.”

“Alright. I’ve finally returned. Leave these clothes for the maid to wash. I want to eat the sweet and sour ribs you make!”

“Alright, mom will make it for you right away.”

Now that Kayla had returned, the fighting spirit in her heart, which had been almost worn down by the Bynes family, had also returned. As long as they, mother and daughter, were united, they would definitely be able to carve out their own path from the Bynes family.

The news of Kayla’s return quickly reached senior Mrs. Bynes and senior Mr. Bynes. Knowing that their granddaughter had gone straight to Kathy without coming to greet them, senior Mrs. Bynes frowned

“This Kayla is becoming more and more disrespectful. Shouldn’t she have come to see us first after returning to the country? As expected, you can’t raise a lady of distinction from a woman of humble background!”

When the senior Mrs. Bynes spoke, her eyes were filled with anger and dissatisfaction.

Upon hearing this, senior Mr. Bynes coldly said. “Enough, say no more. I never approved of you harassing Kathy in the first place. If others found out, they would definitely gossip behind our backs. But you didn’t listen. Now that our granddaughter is back, it’s only natural for her to visit her mother first.”

Upon hearing this, senior Mrs. Bynes immediately disagreed.

“Who was I doing this for?! She never had any manners to begin with, have you forgotten what happened at your birthday party last time? It was utterly embarrassing! I don’t even know why we were so foolish to let her in the first place!”

“Bang!”

Senior Mr. Bynes slammed his brush onto the table, the black ink from the tip instantly splattering onto the characters he had just practiced, creating blotches of ink and ruining the entire sheet of paper.

“Have you said enough?!” If not, go stand at the door and say it, let everyone know that you chose this daughter-in-law yourself. Now, no matter what she has done wrong, you must bear it!”

Senior Mrs. Bynes was taken aback and snapped angrily, "Can't I speak if I made the choice?!"

"Kayla is back now. If you argue in front of her, it will only make her dislike you. No matter how much you dislike Kathy, Kayla is always your granddaughter. Your previous favoritism is in the past. Over the past few years, Kayla has developed many useful technologies for the Bynes Group while abroad. You should restrain yourself in the future!"

Senior Mrs. Bynes snorted, "I'm not a fool, of course I know to treat her well!"

Senior Mr. Bynes didn't speak again, he just furrowed his brows tightly.

Previously, the Bynes family wasn't particularly nice to Kayla, and it was unclear if she held any resentment. If that was the case, she wouldn't have put her heart and soul into helping the Bynes Group.

Due to the erroneous association with Kingly Group, the partners of the Bynes Group had already started to express dissatisfaction during this period. If the Bynes Group wanted to maintain its partners, it would have to put in more effort.

Thinking of this, senior Mr. Bynes felt irritated again, and his head started to ache a bit.

Perhaps, he should have delegated authority to his two sons, after all, he was getting old.

It wasn't until the evening that Kayla came to see senior Mr. Bynes and senior Mrs. Bynes.

After giving them the gifts she had brought back, Kayla asked with a smile, "Grandpa, Grandma, how are you feeling?"

Upon seeing the pair of valuable jade bracelets that she had brought for herself, a sincere smile spread across the face of the elder Mrs. Bynes.

"Your grandfather and I were doing well. As for you, living abroad is not the same as being at home. Have you been feeling uncomfortable these past few years?"

Chapter 1100

Kayla chuckled and said, "It was alright. I wasn't used to it at first, but after a while, it didn't feel much different from back home."

"You came back this time, first take a good rest at home for a while, then go to the company."

Upon hearing this. Kayla looked at senior Mr. Bynes and nodded, saying, "Alright, I'll listen to grandpa."

After having dinner with the two elderly people, Kayla returned to her own room.

Thinking of the lukewarm attitude the two had shown her just now, a hint of coldness flashed in Recharge successful!

She had to come up with a solution as soon as possible. Only by changing her grandparents' perception of her could she and her mother live a better life.

After pondering for a while, Kayla took out her phone and dialed Aurora's number.

"Aurora. I've returned to the country. Let's get together when you have some free time."

"Really? Why didn't you tell me to pick you up at the airport? Don't you consider me as your sister anymore?"

Kayla chuckled, "Not at all, I just thought about how busy you've been recently. I even heard about your engagement with Maxim while I was abroad."

Chapter 1100

There was silence on the phone for a few seconds before Aurora's low voice came through, "Don't mention it, I don't even know when I'll be able to get married. Let's not talk about this, when are you free?"

"I just returned to the country, basically not much going on. If you have time, let's have lunch together tomorrow noon."

"Alright, I went to check the restaurant."

After hanging up the phone, Aurora lowered her head, a glint of coldness flashing in her eyes.

Kayla was cousins with Briana Cameron. To deal with Briana Cameron, perhaps one could take advantage of Kayla.

***

The next afternoon, the two met at a restaurant near the Fredrick Group.

After some pleasantries, Aurora looked at Kayla and sighed, “Kayla, if you go back to your country at this time, will the Bynes family have any objections?”

A flash of surprise flickered in Kayla’s eyes as she arched an eyebrow, “Why would anyone have a problem with me?”

“After all, your uncle had arranged for your mother to cooperate with Kingly Group before, which offended many people. I heard that the business of the Bynes family has declined a lot recently.”

Kayla flicked her hair, her expression indifferent as she said, “That has nothing to do with me. But if I had returned to my country earlier, I would definitely not have let my mother get involved with my uncle.”

For Zane, Kayla felt nothing but disgust, she didn’t consider him as her family at all.

“Actually, I also heard that your mother was not doing very well in the Bynes family. I originally wanted to help her, but after all, this is your family matter. If I intervened, I don’t know how the Bynes family would treat your mother.”

“Alright, let’s not talk about this anymore. Since I’ve returned, I’ll handle it well.”

Aurora lowered her gaze, murmuring, “Hmm, I believe you. After all, you have developed quite a few technological products abroad, which is an endless wealth for the Bynes family.”

Hearing the probing in Aurora’s tone, Kayla smiled nonchalantly, “Those research products are all patented, I can’t just bring them back. But it’s true that I’ve learned a lot of knowledge.”

A flash of jealousy crossed Aurora’s eyes as she was about to speak, when out of the corner of her eye, she suddenly saw Briana Cameron and a middle-aged man in his thirties or forties walking into the restaurant, talking and laughing.

And that man, was precisely the one that the Fredrick Group had recently wanted to collaborate with.

Aurora gritted her teeth, stood up and said. “Kayla, I have something to do today, let’s meet another time.”

After she finished speaking, she was ready to leave. Kayla looked at her with a puzzled expression, "Aurora, what's wrong with you? Why has your face suddenly turned so pale?"

"I was fine, just suddenly saw a familiar client. If I didn't hurry up, this client might have been taken by someone else."
