

Life After Prison Chapter 2091-Severin remained calm when he sensed the imminent war. He had already predicted that the news of Uzair's death would bring about a war once everyone got wind of it.

Moreover, Sian and others came out before him and would definitely inform Deifirm Sect of the news. Delfirm Sect would never let him off the hook once they learned that their prodigy was murdered.

Severin sneered inwardly when he saw that paragon cultivators were attacking him as soon as he stepped out of the vortex. Although he did not know Gwono very well, his cultivation must be a level nine paragon to be an elder of Deifirm Sect.

The anger of the powerful paragon cultivators caused the color of the sky to change. Severin did not want Diane and the other women to get hurt because of him, so he shot up to the sky and came to stand beside Myles in the air.

When Myles saw Severin arriving beside him, he secretly transmitted a message to Severin using his divine sense while resisting Gwono's surging aura.

"Severin, you really caused me a lot of trouble this time," grumbled Myles with a wry smile.

He really did not expect that Severin would kill Deifirm Sect's prodigy, Uzair.

They were really in a pickle! Moreover, the fact that Severin obtained the inheritance of Wildfire royal paragon and the best spiritual treasure did not make things any better. After all, those two items were the envy of many paragon cultivators.

Myles knew the elders of the various sects were all thinking about killing Severin to seize the treasures. Thus, he would not be surprised if Severin would not be able to get out of Artic Heights alone.

Although Myles was a sword cultivator, and his combat power was far greater than that of a paragon in the same realm, Gwono was not the only paragon in Artic Heights. Favian from the Gahrns was also watching from the side, with a bit of murderous intent and greed in his eyes. He also wanted to avenge Sian.

Further away, the elders of Purevoid Sect, Marvair Sect, the Steeles, and others were also watching from the sidelines as if they were watching a drama unfold on TV.

'If Gwono defeats me and kills Severin, everyone will start fighting each other for the royal paragon spiritual treasure,' thought Myles, his head hurting even more.

He only hoped that the Oskar could come over quickly after receiving the message.

Otherwise, he might be unable to protect Severin against so many, paragons with his cultivation level!

After pondering for a few seconds, he then sent a message to Severin using his divine Sense.

"Severin, when the fight starts, you should run away immediately. I'll buy you some time." Hearing that Myles was so serious, Severin also understood that if he continued to stay here, he would cause further trouble, so he nodded.

At the same time, Gwono, standing in mid-air, saw Myles looking determined to protect Severin, causing his own face to darken suddenly.

When Gwono heard Myles asking him whether he thought that he would really stand by and do nothing while he threatened Severin, he was so angry that he almost had a stroke.

After all, he was an elder of Deifirm Sect and a cultivator of the

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

Life After Prison Chapter 2092-"Have it your way! Let's see who has the last laugh!" roared Gwono angrily with a darkened face.

After saying that, a blazing divine light burst out from every cell in his body, causing his robes to flap wildly. The strong power of heaven and earth rose into the sky like a brilliant light.

In an instant, a bright and blazing light burst out from the vast mountains and illuminated the earth. Along with the shining light, a boundless aura of terror rose up.

Everyone knew that the war against Severin was finally about to begin when they saw that. They all saw Gwono, shrouded in bright light, slowly reaching out with a finger.

The next moment, the entire sky shook violently, and then a finger, like a divine pillar, came crashing down on Severin from high above the sky. In an instant, the whole sky was filled with strong winds, flashing thunder, and flying silver snakes.

The entire Artic Heights turned into a scene from an apocalyptic doomsday!

Crack!

As the huge finger fell, there was a faint sound of breaking in the surrounding space as if even the time-space fabric itself could not hold up to the oppression.

Tobias could not help but clench his fists when he saw that the sky-high finger was about to fall toward Severin. He stared at him with a light smile, shouting, "Severin! Let's see how you escape this time!" Not far away, Soran, who had a grudge against Severin, laughed +25 BONUS conempluvudly unubulu ong, ph: Leto out now you can attack from a paragon, Severin!" After a pause, he shook his head and said with a look of regret on his face, "It's just a pity that I couldn't kill you with my own hands." Soran had thoughts about killing Severin ever since he was forcibly driven away by Severin from the palace while fighting for the royal paragon relics.

However, due to the overwhelming oppression of Severin at that time, Soran was not completely sure that he could defeat him. In the end, he had no choice but to reluctantly withdraw from the palace.

Thus, Soran was naturally overjoyed when an elder from the paragon realm was personally taking action.

At that moment, a Purevoid Sect elder dressed in a black robe had a flash of light in his deep eyes. He said to the Soran using his divine sense, "I'll block Severin's escape route if Favian from the Gahrns also takes action. You go steal the royal paragon relics from Severin when that happens." Soran nodded confidently. "Don't worry. You can leave it to me." At that moment, everyone's eyes were on Severin. The few prodigies who had a bone to pick with Severin were looking forward to seeing his death. At the same time, those who had no grudges against Severin were waiting for him to be killed so they could compete for the spiritual treasures and the Wildfire royal paragon relics!

Severin's robes were blowing crazily under the overwhelming pressure and some parts of it were even crumbling away. After all, it was a paragon-level attack that could mobilize the power of heaven and earth, far beyond what a supreme saint cultivator could handle.

The pressure alone made the faces of Diane and the other women not far away turn pale. They wanted to fly into the air now, but they were unable to move. It was as if they were imprisoned by an invisible cage! Although the target of the aura was not them, the terrifying coercion emanating from Gwono still made them tremble subconsciously.

At that moment, Myles took action. With a wave of his hand, he launched a palm strike against the sky-reaching finger, and the two collided.

Boom!

Accompanied by a deafening roar, the ground began to shake violently, and the huge finger in the sky was blown away. The originally chaotic world returned to silence in the next instant as if nothing had happened. However, the billowing dust on the ground proved that a terrifying collision had occurred.

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

Life After Prison Chapter 2094-Severin was trying to steady himself when a large number of Deifirm Sect disciples were already chasing after him.

Seeing this, he immediately said to Raymond and Celeste beside him, "Can you two please escort my wives to safety, and I'll deal with the pursuers behind!" Upon hearing this, Raymond's expression changed slightly. He was under Myles' order to escort Severin to safety, but did Severin want to deal with his pursuers himself?

Isn't this putting the cart before the horse?' he thought.

Although he was also upset with Severin taking the royal paragon relics and top spiritual treasure for himself, it was also the sect's interests at stake. Thus, it was impossible for him to act like a sinister villain.

Raymond immediately shook his head and said, "No! You have to come with us!" Severin sighed and said, "I'm afraid all of us won't be able to get out of here safely if I go with you." At that moment, more and more Deifirm Sect disciples were chasing after them.

Seeing this, Raymond gave up on insisting Severin go with them.

He quickly led Diane and the women to fly outside of Artic Heights.

After making sure the women had gone, Severin turned around. He took out two spiritual treasures, Darkgold Bell and Scarletsky Sword. With aura blazing to the extreme, he rushed toward the Deifirm Sect disciples.

The group of Deifirm Sect disciples, whose highest cultivation level was only level six or seven of supreme saints, went down one by one with each of Severin's strikes. It was as easy as chopping vegetables! While killing the disciples, he continued to evacuate out of Artic Heights.

Seeing that even the Deifirm Sect disciples could not capture Severin, Favian looked anxiously at Gwono, who was being dragged down by Myles. He was certainly beginning to panic.

He raised his hand and formed it into a claw while shouting loudly, "You little brat! How dare you hurt my disciple! There's no way I'm going to let you escape." In an instant, a huge claw strike as big as a mountain formed in the sky, and the terrifying aura emanating from it made everyone tremble nonstop.

Thinking that Favian was shameless for bullying those weaker than him, Myles, who was fighting with Gwono, roared murderously at him, "Favian!

How dare you attack my disciple? Mark my words, us Grandino Sect will definitely pay you Gahrns pay for this!” Favian remained unmoved. He turned his five fingers into claws to control the phantom claw, which struck in the sky to press down on Severin.

At that moment, Severin, who was fighting with the disciples of Deifirm Sect, raised his head and glanced at the sharp phantom claw strike above him. His pupils shrank when he felt the trembling aura coming toward him.

It was the first time that Severin felt so close to death.

Soran, Tobias, Sian, and the other prodigies all felt joy when they saw the incoming attack on Severin. It was as if they had already seen his death.

213 However, there was a strange vibration in the distant sky, like the sound of a big bell striking.

The sound shook the sky and shocked everyone. Just when they were still wondering where the sound came from, the paragon-level elders in the major sects jolted, and fear washed over their faces.

Under the gaze of everyone, endless brilliance bloomed in the eastern sky.

There was also a majestic breath of eternity, which seems to obliterate all time and all beings. Moreover, there was a hint of anger mixed in the terrifying aura.

It was as if it would burn the whole world, horrifying everyone.

Suddenly, a voice that sounded like it was coming from heaven itself sounded in everyone’s ears.

“Favian, did you think I, from the Evarius Sect, would just let you do whatever you want to my disciple?”

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

Life After Prison Chapter 2095-With an angry roar, everyone felt a terrifying pressure coming toward them. It was as if the majestic heaven and earth were bearing down on their chest, making it difficult for them to breathe.

The overwhelming anger made everyone scared. Especially the gloomy-face and skinny Gwono, who was dressed in a green robe; he could not help but tremble deep in his heart after hearing the angry roar.

He looked at the rainbow emerging from the distance in the sky, causing his pupils to shrink violently. Even his tone was trembling when he uttered the name, "Os... Oskar Bur... Burton!" Gwono's horrified expression and Oskar's name shocked everyone in Artic Heights.

"Grandiuno Sect Leader, Oskar Burton, is here?!" "Gasp... This is a royal paragon cultivator we're talking about!" "I can't believe the sect leader of Grandiuno Sect would personally intervene!"

"Does that mean Severin is saved?" Exclamations continued to ring out from all around.

A long rainbow flew quickly toward Severin through the Artic Heights' sky.

!

Inside the rainbow was a middle-aged man wearing a gray robe. There was a trace of anger mixed in with resoluteness in his face. His majestic body seemed to contain endless power while a terrifying aura continued to exude out of it.

The man was none other than Oskar, the sect leader of Grandiuno Sect!

13 At that moment, Oskar was standing in mid-air. He was full of anger while his robes flapped crazily in the wind.

He stared condescendingly at Gwono, who was not far away, and Favian Gahrns, who had launched an attack at Severin.

"How dare you, Gwono!" roared Oskar, his voice sweeping across every inch of the sky.

In an instant, a majestic pressure spread crazily downward at Gwono. In the face of Oskar's question, Gwono, who had been arrogant just now, turned pale.

He was so terrified that he could not even speak!

Not far away, Favian, who was wearing a black robe, was looking solemnly and fearfully at the unfolding scene. Oskar was a genuine royal paragon, while he was only a level nine paragon. There was no way he could win against him!

It was not only Gwono and Fabrian who were frightened by the blazing aura coming from Oskar. At that moment, the Steeles and the paragon-level elders of Purevoid Sect, Marvair Sect, and other sects were all shocked when Oskar appeared.

They did not dare to say anything since there was such a huge gap in their power compared to Oskar. Everyone just stared at him and instinctively took a few steps back.

Although there was only a level of difference between the royal paragon level and level nine paragon, the gap was like an insurmountable chasm!

Myles, with a terrifying aura shrouding his body, was still holding his spiritual treasure sword in mid-air. A smile immediately bloomed on his face the moment he saw Oskar appear. The anger on his face also dissipated, and he was finally able to relax.

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

Life After Prison Chapter 2093-Tobias' joy turned to anger when he saw that the attack from Gwono was neutralized. He cursed angrily, thinking it was a pity. He was not the only person who thought that. The others also felt disheartened to see that Severin was safe.

Myles took a step forward, and his majestic aura spread widely through the air, shocking everyone who was watching. At the same time, he also sent a message to Severin using his divine sense, "Run!" When Severin heard this, he did not hesitate. His entire power exploded, and then he rose into the sky, turned into a rainbow, and flew toward the Artic Heights's exit.

The moment he saw Severin soaring into the sky, Gwono immediately ordered his disciples, "Disciples of Deifirm Sect, stop Severin from leaving this place! He must not be allowed to leave." The disciples of Deifirm Sect burst out their auras and rushed toward Severin.

They flew from all over to join the battlefield, and the scene became even more chaotic.

Seeing this, Myles ordered Raymond and Celeste, "You two go help Severin escape while I'll hold back Gwono and Favian." As soon as he finished speaking, Myles raised his hand and immediately pulled out the spiritual treasure sword.

The next moment, the blazing sword intent around him rose up like a radiant light, penetrating the sky and flying in the air while exuding an extremely terrifying aura.

After seeing Myles taking out his spiritual treasure, Gwono did not +25 BONUS Treonate. i have souls WILL THIS munus aD THE TODO nuppou vruzlly in the wind.

Along with his seal, traces of thunder surged out from his body, converging in front of him to form a thunder spear as thick as a pillar while an overpowering aura constantly came out of it.

"Die!" roared Gwono fiercely.

The earth and the sky seemed to shake violently, and a strong and unknown aura spread crazily throughout the sky. The expressions of the elders from the other sects watching the battle from a distance immediately changed when they felt the aura.

"That's Deifirm Sect's thunder combat techniques. It seems that Gwono is pulling out all the big guns to kill Severin!" Just as the exclamation started, Gwono, who had condensed the thunder spear, sneered at Myles and threw his thunder spear toward him.

Whoosh!

The sky was torn apart by thunder in an instant, causing large cracks to form in the time-space fabric itself. The terrifying power collapsed the earth and shattered the sky, causing violent winds, earth, water, wind, and fire to appear wherever the thunder spear passed as if all the space along the way was shattered into heavy chaos!

Myles did not dare to underestimate Gwono's incoming attack. The spiritual energy in his body burst out, exuding a strong power of heaven and earth, pouring into the spiritual treasure sword in his hand.

In an instant, a sharp sword intent suddenly rose from earth and into the sky.

"Slash!" roared Myles softly. He swung the long sword in his hand, and a blue sword beam that was several miles long seemed to split 40 Boom!

muy me viure any wí MILY ivigno.

The huge explosion set off a terrifying shock wave, instantly razing an area of more than ten miles to the ground!

Severin, who was flying, was also thrown away by the shock wave.

Click to rate this post!

[Total: 0 Average: 0]

