

Revenge On Love Rats After Rebirth by Olivia Marsh Chapter 1324 No More Drinking

Chapter 1324 No More Drinking

Nova saw Selena's confused look and took out her phone, showing her a video she had saved from before. It was the scene of Selena getting drunk and getting jealous of Vivian.

Selena's face gradually turned sullen as she watched the entire video.

The Cooke sisters looked at Selena's beautiful face and saw it turn darker and darker.

Feeling the chill emanating from Selena, the twins swallowed nervously, afraid.

Leia, who was driving, was so scared that she couldn't even breathe properly.

Candy stammered, "Selena... calm down, don't worry, your image is still okay..."

Selena took a deep breath and suppressed her anger, then started reading the comments. To her surprise, the comments were all funny and off-topic.

"Ah! Why is this man so lucky?! Even when Selena is drunk, she's so cute!!!"

"I'm dying of laughter, I'm so happy watching this!!"

"Well done! You have to go crazy once in a while, throw a tantrum, or else we'll all think Selena is a 'god' who doesn't live in the human world..."

"Who does Vivian Shaw think he is?! If she hadn't bitten something off the Turner family, the Shaw family wouldn't even be worth a fart! Eating the flesh and blood of the Turner family to get rich, and still looking down on Selena's background? Ridiculous!"

"Boyfriend, if you don't do anything when someone bullies Selena, we'll have to incite Ghost to steal her!!"

Selena looked at these comments, which had gone way off-topic, and her frozen face gradually thawed. Thank goodness! Her image was still intact! If those people found out that Miss Riddle had gone crazy with alcohol and fought over a man in public... they would be laughing themselves to death.

Selena handed the phone back to Nova and whispered, "It's okay."

The Cooke sisters exchanged a glance and felt that something was still not quite right, but seeing that Selena's expression was completely normal, they started playing around again.

After having dinner with the Cooke sisters and strolling around the streets for the afternoon, it was dark when Selena sent the two sisters back home.

The Cooke family's villa was located in the city center, and Candy and Nova got out of the car and walked into the gate. Selena was about to tell Leia to drive away when Nova suddenly ran back.

She stood in the night, with a lovely smile on her pretty face. "Selena, it's my birthday next month. Will you come and play with me?"

Selena originally wanted to refuse, but seeing the expectation in she's eyes, she changed her mind and agreed.

Nova smiled happily and waved at Selena, "It's a deal. You have to come!"

She then turned around and ran to catch up with Candy, who was waiting for her up ahead.

Selena watched her figure gradually disappear under the dim streetlights until she reached another figure.

A person grabbed her hand, and the two sisters frolicked into the brightly lit gate. Selena finally looked away, let out a slight breath, and said, "Let's go back."

Leia drove and took Selena back to the villa.

A black-haired and black-clothed person was standing on the steps, obviously waiting for Selena to come back.

After Leia handed Selena over to Osvaldo, she left.

Osvaldo held she's hand and carefully observed her expression. Although she looked a bit tired, there was still a smile in her eyes that hadn't dissipated yet.

It was clear that her mood was good.

Osvaldo took Selena into the hall.

Selena secretly glanced at the man's expression, thinking about how to explain her behavior when she got drunk...

"I'm not like this when I'm drunk normally..."

As Miss Riddle, due to her poor health, she never touched alcohol.

Even in some necessary occasions, her glass was replaced with water early on.

Therefore, before appearing in Creephia, Selena had no concept of her alcohol tolerance.

She never expected that she would get drunk so easily and even make a scene by publicly fighting over a man...

Selena's pretty face turned black again, and she cautiously watched Osvaldo's expression.

Suddenly, Osvaldo stopped walking and turned around.

Selena looked at him nervously and said softly, "I won't drink anymore in the future..."

Osvaldo couldn't bear to see she anxious and uneasy, it hurt his heart. He lifted his hand, and his long, fair fingers landed on her eyes. His tone was hard to tell whether it was gentle or cold, "Selena, you can take action against the Shaw family now."

Selena was suddenly shocked.

She was so shocked that she forgot about her embarrassing drunken incident and looked at Osvaldo in disbelief.

But... isn't Freddie his brother?

If she went after his brother, wouldn't that ultimately hurt him? If not for that, how could she tolerate Vivian's repeated rudeness in front of her?

"That's enough," Osvaldo said in a very calm tone. Looking at Selena with a tender gaze, he said, "No one is more important than you."

Selena looked into Osvaldo's dark and mysterious eyes and suddenly seemed to understand something. She smiled brightly and said, "I understand."

The glory and wealth achieved by loyal blood will eventually return to dust.

Osvaldo looked at her quietly for a while before taking Selena by the hand and leading her into the hall. The night passed peacefully.

The next morning, Selena got ready and went to the research institute.

With Oscar's recommendation, Selena became the new head of the research department, and her reputation in the institute reached an unprecedented height.

Now, when she stands in the research institute, she no longer hears any derogatory remarks like she did when she first arrived. It's a world of difference.

Marley stood at the entrance of the research department, watching the beautiful and noble girl step by step towards her. She respectfully lowered her eyes.

She didn't think Selena would care about someone like her, but unexpectedly, Selena stopped in front of her.

"Are you a regular employee now?" Selena suddenly asked her.

Marley was stunned. She never thought Selena would remember her. Her eyes showed a hint of shock.

After coming back to her senses, she said, somewhat flustered, "I have been regularized and am currently working under Professor Sutton doing experiments..."

With the fall of the Baxter family, Marley, who was already insignificant, was met with cold eyes within the research institute. Moreover, many people harbored resentment towards her due to their dislike of Constance's character.

These days, Marley's life in the research institute has been difficult.

Selena nodded and said in a calm tone, "Professor Sutton is very capable. Learn well from him."
