

Revenge On Love Rats After Rebirth by Olivia Marsh Chapter 1331 Memories Of The Past

Chapter 1331 Memories of the Past

He stared at Selena's dark and cold eyes, finally admitting a fact.

He couldn't use the relationship of kinship to shake this child!

She really didn't care about their grandparents, and she didn't even care about the entire Riddle family. She didn't like the Riddle family, and she even deeply hated them.

The girl's ruthlessness exceeded everyone's expectations.

Maddox's eyes sank deeply. "You care so much about Hattie, I thought..."

Selena sneered, "I care about Hattie, and it has nothing to do with your Riddle family."

After pausing for a moment, Selena glanced at Maddox and said with a smile, "If Hattie was born in another family, I would still save her and care about her."

In other words, she only cared about Hattie. It didn't matter what her surname was or who her parents were.

If Selena really cared about so-called kinship, why wasn't she closer to Leon?

After listening to this answer, Maddox was silent for a long time before asking, "The Turner family will face the Shaw family, the Poole family, and even the Soo family next. Have you ever thought about getting support from the Riddle family?"

Selena's expression instantly became playful. "Maddox, you're wrong."

Maddox seemed to have guessed what Selena was going to say, and his expression changed slightly.

Selena said with a smile, "The Turner family will face the Riddle family, the Shaw family, the Poole family, and the Soo family next."

"You Riddle family will be the first among them."

After all, the Shaw family, the Poole family, and the Soo family were only taking advantage of the situation to seize the power of the Turner family.

The Riddle family was suspected of killing Lady Nevaeh!

Maddox's face finally changed, and he stared at Selena. "Do you really want to take action against the Riddle family?"

"I will or will not take action against Selena, depending on how cruel you were to my mother back then," Selena said in a flat tone. "Pray, Maddox, that I don't investigate what happened when my mother brought me back to the Riddle family and why she died shortly after returning to Creephia."

"Why did your Riddle family tolerate those hyenas, wolves, tigers, and leopards that have been hurting your daughter for the past decade or so..."

"If I find out that any of you, Daphne, or anyone from your Riddle family has anything to do with it--" Selena's eyes glimmered with hatred and anger, "I won't spare any of the killers who caused my mother's death!"

Maddox felt a chill run down his spine from the coldness in her eyes.

He looked at Selena for a long time without saying a word.

And Selena understood from Maddox's reaction that he knew about the fact that her memories had been erased.

Then another question arose in her mind.

Did Lady Nevaeh erase her memory or someone else did it?

If it was Lady Nevaeh, did she really want her daughter to forget those frightening and scary things, or were there deeper reasons?

Selena was puzzled in her heart but showed no expression on her face.

Maddox seemed to have finally realized that he couldn't regain the affection of his granddaughter, whether by using family ties or the temptation of power, and got up to leave.

He said nothing and walked out with his cane.

Selena didn't like to watch him leave, so she lowered her head and picked up the tea cup on the table.

Suddenly, she heard Maddox's voice from the front, "Nevaeh's greatest wish was to receive her father and mother's care."

"You are her daughter, and if she were still alive, she would certainly want..."

A wave of anger surged in Selena's eyes, and she slammed the tea cup heavily on the table, "Stop right there!"

Maddox's footsteps halted, and he turned to look at Selena.

Selena said coldly, "What my mother longed for was her father and mother's care, but have you given her any?"

"She did hope for her daughter's happiness, but after she passed away, her daughter never had a good day!"

"For the past decade or so, her daughter has been living in repression and pain every day!"

"And you, instead of giving her care and attention, would rather continue to pamper Kiera's daughter like a precious jewel."

"You, who are so heartless, what right do you have to talk to me about family ethics?"

"What right do you have to ask me to spare the Riddle family, spare you?"

"Listen, Maddox!" Selena's tone was cold and icy, "As long as it's someone who, back then, hurt my mother, no matter who he is, he will never escape punishment!"

"I will make you all pay back what you owe my mother, twice over!"

"I will make all those who have harmed my mother and hurt me pay the price they deserve!"

Along with Selena's words, the atmosphere at the scene froze abruptly.

Maddox looked at the angry girl across the table, her eyes clearly telling him that she was not talking in anger, let alone being alarmist.

She really wanted to confront these great families with her own strength!

Such a confident and arrogant girl was like Callum and Nevaeh back then.

That couple, back then, was also this proud and reckless.

It was as if Maddox recalled, the day when Nevaeh was forced to leave the capital ...

If she had been willing to bow down, she, along with her daughter, would not have had to suffer all these hardships.

What other people could not get in their lifetime was casually discarded by Nevaeh ...

From that day on, Maddox knew that even if Kiera looked more like Nevaeh, she would not be the true daughter of the Riddle family after all.

The daughter of the Riddle family will always be just Nevaeh.

The old man's eyes went dim for a moment, and without another word, he turned and left.

As soon as Maddox had left, Hattie ran out of the room.

Hattie walked up to Selena with an guilty expression, "Sorry, Selena, next time I go out, I will definitely prepare well in advance."

Selena looked at her flustered expression, raised her hand and stroked her hair, her voice returned to gentle, "It's okay."

If Maddox had intention, he would always be able to see her.

Probably no one would believe that Selena's attitude towards the Riddle family would be so cold and decisive.

In the heart of the vast majority of the capital, although Selena was temporarily at odds with the Riddle family, but with the bloodline there, and her being at such a high level, together with Loen and Hattie, it was only a matter of time before she made up with the Riddle family.

However, Selena had never thought of using her blood ties to pull the Riddle family into doing anything for her.
