The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2441—Dhiteus was not the strongest man in this crowd.

However, he was the leader that gathered everyone together.

His voice carried clearly through the air.

Then, he revealed James' vicious deeds to them.

He told them that James had conspired with the demons to destroy the Divinity Sect and went as far as to kill one of his sect's elders.

At that moment, someone stood up and posed a question. "How do you know of these events, Dhiteus? As far as I know, James has never done anything utterly unconscionable despite having a Demonic Body. He is merely dedicated to protecting the human race."

"I agree. Although Earth is full of sinners, the ones at fault are actually their ancestors. These humans. don't deserve to die. James only wanted to thwart humanity's Second Calamity and was forced to fight Lucifer from the Demon Race."

Many of the powerhouses were still very rational and took James' side.

"Outrageous! He's the descendant of sinners! His practice of Demonic Arts is enough to justify his death."

I agree. The battle from ancient times affected the whole universe. To unite the universe, the demons led a widespread massacre across all the worlds. Many planets were destroyed as a result. They ultimately managed to invade the earth. The strongest people in the universe gathered on Earth to fight off the demons. If it weren't for the betrayal of the Ten Emperors, the demons would've been defeated."

"The Ten Emperors' betrayal was why countless lives were tragically sacrificed."

"Haven't we learned our lesson from that battle?"

"James must die."

"Putting aside the fact that he has a Demonic Body, he also has a very close relationship with the demons. This is a good enough reason we should kill him."

Many powerhouses hissed lividly as they expressed their hatred for James,

Dhiteus was very satisfied with their reaction.

He knew many of these powerhouses had disciples who were killed by demons. Their anger was provoked when they found out James and the demons were on amicable terms.

Dhiteus said, "Since most of us agree that James deserves to die, we need to find a way to send powerhouses to Earth and kill him."

"How do we get to Earth?"

"The seal is too strong right now. It's impossible for us to pass through to Earth."

"Yeah. The Earth is one of the central worlds. We can travel through the Three Thousand Worlds, but traveling to Earth is impossible. What's more, James possesses terrifying strength. Even if a Sage traveled to Earth, it would be difficult to kill him."

"I'll go."

At that moment, the Divine Holy Emperor walked over.

He said respectfully, "Esteemed brothers, my strength is still relatively low, so the price I'll have to pay for passing through the seal will be insignificant. As long as everyone can provide me with a protective shield, I can easily go to Earth."

The stronger a person was, the harder it was for them to pass through the Earth's seal.

The Sages passing through to Earth now were only at the Sage Rank's First Stage. Despite that, they still had to pay a great price to traverse the seal. One careless misstep while crossing through the seal could easily cost them their life.

As a result, not many Sages made it to Earth.

Likewise, the Divine Holy Emperor also did not dare to recklessly pass through the seal.

However, that would be much easier if he had a protective shield cast by these powerhouses.

"Alright."

Dhiteus opened his mouth and agreed immediately. "It's decided then. You'll go in our stead. Your strength should be enough to kill James. However, James has many treasures belonging to the humans with him. Before you kill him, you must force him to hand over these treasures. After you obtain them, we shall discuss and bequeath them to a prodigy with great potential."

"Good idea. I agree."

“Get James to hand over the treasures and kill him!”

Many powerhouses expressed their approval of Dhiteus’ plan.

Those who were against killing James remained silent. They would have to face the majority if they spoke up for James.

After they came to an agreement, everyone helped to cast a protective shield for the Divine Holy Emperor.

Then, the Divine Holy Emperor went through the seal.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2442—With the protective shield cast by countless powerhouses, the Divine Holy Emperor easily crossed over to Earth.

After the Divine Holy Emperor successfully passed through the seal, he hovered over the air somewhere on Earth. He looked down at the mountains and rivers of Earth and sensed the extremely powerful Empyrean Spiritual Energy.

He spread open his arms and said, “Hark, Earth. I have come.”

Immediately afterward, his expression darkened. “James, you bastard. Your time’s up.

The Divine Holy Emperor’s goal to kill James was actually an idea conceived by the Hadean Clan.

He had taken refuge with the Hadean Clan and learned many Demonic Arts, including the Demon Race’s Supreme Curse Magic

Although Lucifer favored James, other powerhouses in the Hadean Clan disagreed with his choice. They did not like James and wanted to get rid of him. To add to that, Lucifer was merely the son of a Demon Emperor Despite being the young master of the Hadean Clan, he did not return to the Demon Realm. Moreover, he was not very strong, so his words did not have much influence in the Hadean Clan.

James was unaware that the Divine Holy Emperor had already come to Earth.

Right now, he was making his way to Cansington.

Sophie warned James that he would run into some trouble in the future. Unfortunately, Thea had gone to the Chamber of Scriptures to meditate in seclusion. Thus, he had to protect the Callahans in her place and ensure their safety.

Thea would not forgive him if something happened to the Callahans because he was careless.

He arrived at Cansington and explained the situation to the Callahans. Then, he brought everyone to the Callahans into the Celestial Abode. related

After he brought all the people related to the Callahans into the Celestial Abode, he heaved a sigh of relief. Now that he had ensured their safety, he was not afraid of the dangers that would come his way.

If worse came to worst, he could just run away. As long as he remained alive, there would still be hope.

He just had to ensure his survival.

Later, James returned to Wrymstead.

A lot of people were gathered in the Wrymstead's main hall.

James sat in the head seat, and looked at the people below him as he said, "I'm going to have to deal with unfavorable circumstances soon. I'm not sure what that will entail yet. All I know is that I've attracted the attention of countless powerhouses from the Three Thousand Worlds after I made two consecutive breakthroughs.

"What's more, I have a Demonic Body and am on good terms with the Demon Race. Someone will definitely use these facts to cause some friction. Therefore, I'm planning to remain in hiding for a while."

Standing below in the main hall, Henry asked, "Where are you going. James?"

James shook his head slightly and said, "I don't have a destination in mind yet. The only thing I'm worried about right now is Wrymstead. However, Lucifer promised me that he wouldn't touch humans for the next ten thousand years. With this in mind, I believe Wrymstead will be fine for now.

"As for the rest of you, enter the Celestial Abode and settle down there for now. I don't want anything to happen to any of you."

Quincy frowned and said. "If we all enter the Celestial Abode, then what will happen to Wrymstead?"

After stating her concern, she looked at the other people in the main hall and said, "You guys should go ahead and enter James' Celestial Abode. I'll stay in Wrymstead. Leave the country to me. As long as I'm still breathing. I'll ensure nothing happens to Wrymstead."

James' brows furrowed as he stared at Quincy. He made sure once more. 7 might leave Earth for a very long time, and I can't guarantee when I will return. Are you sure you don't want to leave with me?"

Quincy looked at him with a smile, "Wrymstead still needs someone to run the show. I'll stay behind and help you look after the country."

James nodded gently and did not persuade her anymore.

Afterward, the central heads of Wrymstead entered the Celestial Abode.

James knew trouble was brewing on the horizon, so he wanted to do everything possible to resolve it. At the same time, he did not want to let people with malicious intentions take advantage of the situation

He intended to leave Earth and head to unknown regions to train.

Now, he had almost finished tying up loose ends. The only person left to deal with was Thea.

It was time he made a trip to the Chamber of Scriptures

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2443—Everything was settled, and everyone associated with James had relocated to the Celestial Abode.

Only one person chose to stay behind-Quincy

Quincy and James walked side by side in the Imperial Palace's backyard.

James sighed deeply and said, "Thank you, Quincy. You've been working really hard and doing a lot for Wrymstead."

Quincy smiled and said, "What I've done is nothing compared to you. I don't have a talent for cultivation and might never become a powerhouse. I'm only doing my best to support you in helping all humanity get through this tumultuous time."

James was relieved to hear Quincy's virtuous conviction.

"Please be careful while running Wrymstead. No matter what happens, your survival is of the utmost importance. Do you hear me?"

"Alright, I understand "Quincy nodded.

The two had a simple conversation.

After giving Quincy a couple of reminders, James left Wrymstead.

He headed to Mount Tai, traveled to the bottom of the mountain ravine, and arrived at the first floor of the Chamber of Scripture.

“Ms Custodian!”

James stepped into the empty first floor and shouted. His voice rang through the chamber and echoed back at him.

Swoosh!

A white light glimmered in front of him.

It slowly dissipated, and a woman in a white dress appeared. She looked at James, and a smile appeared on her beautiful face. She praised James, “I know everything you’ve done up to now, James. You did an excellent job.”

James smiled wryly and said, “Now that I’ve obtained the first providence, the matter about the second providence has spread throughout the Three Thousand Worlds. Some formidable people will surely come after my life after hearing the news. I came to see Thea. After I see her, I’ll have to escape as far as I can.”

The custodian replied, “I’m afraid I’ll have to put a hold on your plans.”

“Did something happen?” James was puzzled.

The custodian said, “Under current circumstances, it’s very challenging for humans to successfully cultivate. The difficulty has increased manifold, making it tough to break through into higher ranks. To allow Thea to improve rapidly in a short period, I sent her to a special place.”

“Where did you send her?” asked James.

The custodian gently waved her hand and said, “You don’t have to know. However, I can assure you that Thea is in a safe place. She has a Supreme Spiritual Root, the blood of the Four Holy Beasts, and learned the Four-Quadrant Art created by a prodigious powerhouse. She has great potential. All she needs now is time

Hearing this, James was slightly disappointed.

He wanted to see Thea but was unable to do so.

Ever since the world started undergoing drastic changes, he had a chance to see Thea.

Since he could not see her, he accepted the reality silently. Instead, he asked, "Where's my mother then?"

"She's fine but is still purifying her Demonic Energy. It won't take long before she completely gets rid of the Demonic Energy within her."

James sighed in relief.

The custodian looked at James and asked, "Did you come just to see Thea?"

James replied, "Yeah. Some powerhouses are targeting me right now. I've already made arrangements for everything. I came to see Thea before I leave. I might return when I can finally kill a Sage with my own strength"

The custodian asked, "Where are you going?"

James shook his head.

He had no idea where he was going next.

The custodian suggested, "Maybe you can consider going to the Demon Realm."

"The Demon Realm?" James' eyes widened in surprise.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2444—The custodian nodded slightly and said, "The demons aren't an unreasonable bunch. In ancient times, demons invaded the earth to unite the universe. It was done in accordance with the Heavenly Path. The Ten Emperors of Earth learned about Heavenly Path's rules and took the demons' side."

James was highly intrigued by the custodian's description of past events.

"Ms. Custodian, why did the demons attack the Earth and why did the Ten Emperors side with the demons?"

The custodian shook her head and said. "I'm uncertain of the reasons behind these events. I only know it's related to the Earth's ultimate secret and concerns the origin of the earth and the universe. The demons were merely acting in accordance with the Heavenly Path. Even if the demons hadn't taken action, the universe's powerhouses would still have died regardless, and the earth would still have been sealed."

"It's all in accordance with the will of the Heavenly Path."

“The demons were simply upholding the Heavenly Path’s grand designs.”

Although the custodian tried her best to explain, it only served to confuse James even more. If anything, it had only made his curiosity grow.

“Alright, that’s enough. These aren’t things you should concern yourself with right now. Although you have the strength to kill Sages, you can only kill the lowest-ranked ones. There are many powerhouses in the Demon Realm. Once you go there, you’ll discover the strength of the universe’s real powerhouses.”

“How do I get there though?” James frowned.

The Demon Realm?

He heard from Sophie that the Demon Realm was 300,000,000 light-years away from Earth—an astronomical distance. He initially planned to quietly go to one of the realms within the Three Thousand Worlds and cultivate there. Then, he would return to Earth when the Third Calamity began.

However, he might not return to Earth in time for the Third Calamity if he traveled to the Demon Realm.

“I can personally send you there. At the very least, I’m capable of opening a spatial passage for you to travel to the Demon Realm.”

James did not doubt the custodian’s strength.

Since the custodian could refine the Demonic Lotus, she was at least on par with Sophie.

Sophie was already on the cusp of becoming a Grand Emperor.

As for the custodian herself, she might already have become a Grand Emperor.

James had never inquired about the custodian’s cultivation rank before.

James fell into thought.

‘Should I go to the Demon Realm? James contemplated in his heart.

The custodian said, “If you go to the Demon Realm, no one will suspect you’re a human since you have a Demonic Body. Moreover, you can summon the Demonic Lotus and are almost at the Mage Rank. As for your Yogacara, you’ll have to figure that out on your own”

After a slight pause, the custodian continued to speak, "Since you're capable of summoning the Demonic Lotus and have obtained the Five Elements of Genesis, I'm guessing your Yogacara will be something related to them. Right now, the Earth is too small for you. You'll need to travel a bigger world."

"The Demon Realm is very suitable for your continued growth.

"Moreover, you must experience more things and encounter more powerful people. After you go to the Demon Realm, you'll realize that Sages are among those on the bottom of the food chain there."

The custodian continued to persuade him.

"Alright. Then I'll go to the Demon Realm."

After mulling it over for a bit, James nodded and accepted the suggestion.

"Mhm, good." The custodian smiled brightly.

James asked, "Ms. Custodian, when will the Earth's Third Calamity strike?"

The custodian replied, "Don't worry. It won't be happening anytime soon. You go and cultivate at ease. I hope you'll be strong enough to stand on your own when you return to Earth"

James was relieved at the custodian's words.

The custodian asked, "When do you plan to leave?"

James replied, "I've already made arrangements for everything. If possible, I'd like to leave for the Demon Realm immediately."

He was about to embark on a new journey to the Demon Realm. Would he meet Maxine again there?

What new experiences await him in the Demon Realm?

His exciting journey was about to begin.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2445—James had already tied up all his loose ends on Earth.

Lucifer promised that the beasts would not attack humans for the next 10,000 years.

Unfortunately, his acquisition of the Four Elements of Genesis caught many powerhouses' attention. Thus, he sent everyone associated with him to the Celestial Abode.

Now, he did not have anything to worry about on Earth.

As for Thea, the custodian had informed him that she was meditating in seclusion. Although he was unsure where exactly she was, he was reassured knowing the custodian was watching over her.

James looked at the beautiful custodian and said, "I'm ready, Ms. Custodian. Please send me to the Demon Realm.

"Alright." The custodian nodded.

She led him outside of the Chamber of Scriptures.

The custodian stood on the top of the mountain. Her long black hair fluttered in the air as extremely powerful energy flowed out from her body. Then, she made a light hand gesture, and mysterious symbols and inscriptions materialized in her palm.

The symbols and inscriptions quickly gathered together and formed an extraordinary formation.

Ripples appeared in the center of the formation.

Immediately afterward, a dark void appeared within the formation.

The custodian said, "This is the spatial passage, James. After you enter the passage, you'll be sent through the universe and arrive directly in the Demon Realm."

"Thank you, Ms. Custodian."

James wore a grateful expression.

In a split second, he jumped into the air and entered the space passage that the custodian had opened for him.

After entering the space passage, his vision blurred, and his thoughts went hazy.

The entire ordeal lasted for approximately ten seconds.

Ten seconds later, his body fell from the sky.

He quickly mobilized his True Energy and righted himself, steadily landing on a big tree.

After he gained a stable foothold, he scanned his surrounding.

He was within a mountain range that was full of towering trees. James could not identify what kind of trees they were as he had never seen them on Earth before.

“So this is the Demon Realm?”

James sensed his surroundings and noticed a very unusual energy from the heavens and the earth itself.

The energy was unusual because it was extremely scarce on Earth; to the point where it was almost nonexistent

Immediately afterward, his body was invigorated, and the unusual energy seeped into his body. It nourished his body and made him feel relaxed.

“This is very miraculous energy. It almost immediately fused with my body.” James was overjoyed.

The Emyprean Spiritual Energy from the surroundings greatly enhanced his body.

It was also proof that he had arrived in the Demon Realm.

James raised his head and looked to the sky.

It was nighttime.

The stars illuminated the sky. To his surprise, he saw many moons and some huge stars.

It was vastly different from the nighttime sky on Earth.

He looked at the bright stars and murmured, “I probably can’t see Earth from this place.”

Haah!

James took a deep breath and put away his anxious thoughts.

He decided to cross that bridge whenever he got to it.

Since he had arrived at the Demon Realm, he wanted to train dilligently until the earth’s Third Calamity happened.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2446—Sophie and the Chamber of Scriptures' custodian reassured him that Earth's Third Calamity would be happening anytime soon. Thus, he had enough time to cultivate. He had to grow stronger in order to avert the impending Third Calamity.

James scanned his surroundings again.

It was the first time James had come to the Demon Realm, and he knew very little about it. He had no idea about the Demon Realm's current situation, nor did he know where he was.

After looking around for a bit, he chose to travel in a random direction.

It did not take long before he heard a commotion.

Boom!

Suddenly, a huge explosion went off ahead of him. The ground shook, and the mountain range crumbled to dust instantly.

Following the explosion, a terrifying force swept toward him like a tsunami.

"What the f*ck?"

James sensed the threatening force and backed away in fear.

Although he reacted quickly, he still ended up being struck by the force. Wounds covered his body and he instantly turned into a bloodied mess. If it wasn't for his Demonic Body, he would have died the moment the force made contact with his body.

Right then, a defensive force came out from his ring and protected him from the onslaught.

James hovered in the air and watched as the force swept past him.

Everything in the force's path was obliterated.

Several million kilometers of land around the force's epicenter was completely flattened in an instant.

Sophie's voice echoed from the Celestial Abode. "It's a fight between very strong people."

“Huff!” James sucked in a sharp breath.

“How strong must they be to have such destructive power?”

Sophie smiled and said, “The road of cultivation stretches on endlessly. You’d merely be considered a beginner in your current state. The Sage Rank you’ve heard so much about is actually at the bottom of the ladder when it comes to cultivation.”

“Sages are only considered strong because of the unique situation on earth.

“You’re in the Demon Realm-the strongest among the Seven Realms of the universe. There’s an abundance of exceedingly talented people here. I suggested going to Demon Realm because I wanted you to see for yourself what a real powerhouse is like and to broaden your horizons.”

“Ms. Sophie, could you tell me the ranks that come after the Sage Rank?”

James wanted to know what lay beyond. He only knew Grand Emperors were the strongest in the Primordial Age. Unexpectedly, another rank beyond that appeared in the Primeval Age called the Ancestral God Rank.

He was utterly clueless on matters relating to the other ranks.

Sophie’s voice came from the Celestial Abode again. “The Sage Rank consists of six main ranks, which are further divided into thirty-six stages. The six main ranks are Sage, Sage King, Sage Emperor, Great Sage, Holy Sage, and Divine Sage.

“The First to Sixth Stages encompass the Sage rank. The Seventh to Twelfth Stage is the Sage King rank. Then, the Thirteenth to Eighteenth Stage falls under the Sage Emperor rank. When you reach the Nineteenth to Twenty-Fourth Stage, you’re considered a Great Sage. The Twenty-Fifth Stage to Thirtieth Stage is called Holy Sage rank. Lastly, the Thirty-First to the Thirty-Sixth Stage is when one reaches the Divine Sage rank.”

“After the Sage Rank lies the Divine Rank.

“The Divine Rank is divided into three stages, called the Three Divine Stages.”

“After the Divine Rank is the Emperor Rank, which you already know about.”

James listened carefully to Sophie’s explanation on the cultivation ranks. After hearing there were still so many ranks that he had yet to encounter, he was dumbfounded.

His current physical strength had reached the Mage Rank, and he could kill a Sage if he unleashed his full strength. He considered himself a powerhouse, but he was humbled when he realized how weak he was after learning of the other cultivation ranks.

"I-I still have a long way to go to become a Grand Emperor." James stammered uneasily.

"Haha."

Sophie laughed and said, "You're really naive. You've only cultivated for a mere handful of years. The universe has existed for a very long time. Only a handful of people had become Grand Emperors in this long history.

"The higher you climb in your cultivation, the more difficult it becomes. Many cultivators at the Sage Rank take millions to tens of millions of years to break through one stage, let alone get to the Divine Rank." James smirked and said, "That's because they're weak. If it were me, I'd progress significantly in a very short period."

"I believe in you, so do your best. You'll have a great future ahead of you and will definitely shine brightly. I look forward to seeing you stand at the top of the Seven Realms and become unrivaled throughout the universe"

Her few words of encouragement made James' blood boil with excitement.

He was also looking forward to that day.

If it were to really happen, he would be free to explore the universe's ultimate secret with the remainder of his life.

"By the way, how big is the Demon Realm, Ms. Sophie?" asked James.

Sophie replied with another question, "How big do you think the Earth in its entirety is?"

James thought for a while.

The earth actually was not that big.

However, the majority of the earth's areas were sealed. There are about 3000 seals, and many Sealed

Realms existed beyond these seals.

Every Sealed Realm was at least few times larger than the earth.

Some of them could even be 10,000 times larger than Earth.

Once the seals were open, Earth's area would increase significantly.

James could not fathom the Earth's real size. He shook his head and replied, "I don't know."

Sophie said, "The Earth is one of the Seven Realms. During the Primordial Age, it used to be vast. Let me put it this way, the real size of the earth is ten thousand times larger than your solar system."

"However, the Human Realm is the smallest among the Seven Realms. Meanwhile, the Demon Realm is ten thousand times larger than the Human Realm. Perhaps it's even much larger than my estimation."

After hearing Sophie's explanation, James began to get a better understanding.

However, it was still hard for him to comprehend how big the Demon Realm was. The only thing he was certain of was that it was incredibly vast and boundless Sophie continued to speak, "The Demon Realm is divided into three layers, more commonly known as the Three Dimensions, namely the Mortal Dimension, Sage Dimension, and Divine Dimension.

"Actually, the Demon Realm isn't the only one that has the Three Dimensions. These dimensions are also found across the Seven Realms."

James was dumbfounded.

The Seven Realms were already hard to wrap his head around, but now there was another thing called the Three Dimensions?

Sophie saw James' confused face and explained further, "The Seven Realms are the seven major worlds that steer the universe, whereas the Three Dimensions are the different realms that exist within a specific world. You can understand the Three Dimensions as having a two-dimensional space, three-dimensional space, and four-dimensional space."

"Individuals without a cultivation base and cultivators below the Sage Rank live within the Mortal Dimension.

"Sage Ranked cultivators stay in the Sage Dimension.

"The Divine Dimension, as the name suggests, is populated by cultivators at the Divine Rank."

“Those from the Divine Dimension can travel to the Sage and Mortal Dimensions. However, those from the Sage Dimension can only travel to the Mortal Dimension. Lastly, those living in the Mortal Dimension cannot visit neither the Sage nor Divine Dimensions.”

Sophie briefly explained the difference between the Seven Realms and the Three Dimensions.

The Seven Realms referred to seven different planets.

The Three Dimensions referred to the different worlds within each of these planets.

Things became much simpler to James after Sophie explained it to him. He asked, “So, I’m currently in the Demon Realm’s Mortal Dimension?”

Sophie replied, “Correct. You’re in the Mortal Dimension right now. With your current strength, you won’t be able to travel to the Sage Dimension. Only after you become a Sage, can you break through the realm barriers and enter the Sage Dimension.

“The Sage Dimension’s Empyrean Spiritual Energy is stronger than the Mortal Dimension, and it’s called Sage Energy, whereas the energy in the Divine Dimension is called Divine Energy. Beyond Divine Energy, there is Primordial Energy.

“The higher the Empyrean Spiritual Energy’s rank, the purer its power.”

“I get it.” James nodded in understanding.

“Thanks for the explanation, Ms. Sophie.”

Sophie said, “To put it simply, you’re still very weak and must continue putting in your utmost efforts. You have the Infinity Steles and the Five Elements of Genesis. These formidable treasures are enough to get you to the top and become a Grand Emperor.”

“Indeed.” James chuckled.

Grand Emperor?

He would eventually attain that rank as long as he worked hard enough.

“By the way...” James suddenly thought of something and asked, “What rank were the powerhouses that were fighting just now? The aftermath of their battle was terrifying! They destroyed everything within a several million kilometer range.”

Sophie replied, “It’s a battle between powerhouses at the Divine Rank’s Third Stage. Those individuals were very close to becoming Grand Emperors. It seems there are a few of them hanging around the area. It’s possible a great treasure has appeared somewhere, attracting these amazing powerhouses to fight over it.”

“They’re at the Divine Rank’s Third Stage and are very close to becoming Grand Emperors, you say?”

James sucked in a sharp breath.

“Aren’t we in the Mortal Dimension? Why are powerhouses from the Divine Dimension here?”

“I’m not sure, but be extremely careful. This area is full of dangers, and you might die if you act recklessly.”

“Then I’d better get going and leave this place as soon as possible.”

James did not dare to linger in the area a moment longer.

Powerhouses at the Divine Rank’s Third Stage who were at the cusp of becoming Grand Emperors were fighting around the area. They could kill him several times over with the flick of a finger.

“Don’t leave.”

Sophie replied, “It must be an exceptional treasure for such powerful people to be fighting over it. Let’s have a look. Who knows? We might get lucky.”

“Huh?”

Shocked, James asked, “Get lucky? Are you joking, Ms. Sophie? It’s a fight between powerhouses at the Divine Rank’s Third Stage. I’d be walking straight into my grave.”

Sophie replied indifferently, “Pfft. Why are you worrying about them when I’m here? Chill out.”

“Hmm? Aren’t you scared of accumulating Karma by helping me?”

Inside the Celestial Abode, Sophie was seated in the gazebo in the City Lord’s Mansion’s backyard. She rolled her eyes and replied, “You’re still hung up on that? I almost got killed by the Heavenly Path trying to figure out how to help you get the Five Elements of Genesis. Fortunately, Emperor Jabari's soul hadn't completely dissipated, and he protected me. Otherwise, I'd already be dead by now. Right now, our fates are strongly bound together. As such, I've nothing to worry about."

Startled, James asked, "Are you serious? You almost died? Why didn't you tell me about it?"

"What's the use of telling you?"

Haah!

James took a deep breath, then put that thought away. He tilted his head. "So does that mean you can directly involve yourself and help kill the enemies that stand in my way?"

Sophie shook her head and said, "Nope. If you're always depending on me, it'll be detrimental to your growth."

"Fine." James pouted disappointedly.

"However, I'll help you this once. So go ahead and check it out. I'm curious to see how strong they are and what they're fighting over."

Sophie's voice came from the Celestial Abode.

"Okay." James readily agreed.

With Sophie providing him support, he had nothing to fear.

However, he was still in the dark about Sophie's cultivation rank and just had to ask her, "Ms. Sophie, are you already a Grand Emperor?"

Sophie said, "It's not that easy to reach that stage. Only a handful of people have become Grand Emperors since ancient times. Although I'm not yet a Grand Emperor, I'm very close to it. I'm considered a Quasi-Emperor at the moment. Unless I face a Grand Emperor, I'm pretty much invincible."

"Incredible." James could not help but express his admiration.

Then, he walked through the air.

The mountain range below him before was turned into heaps of rubble from the battle's aftermath.

Some beasts dwelling in these mountains were also killed.

The whole area was dead silent.

James floated through the air and could only see rubble as far as his eye could see.

After journeying for three days, he still had not reached the battlefield. James' traveling speed made Sophie impatient, so she used her power to wrap around James and propel him forward.

Sophie unleashed an explosive burst of energy and brought him to the perimeter of the battlefield in an instant.

James saw the fierce battle taking place in front of him.

The person was a middle-aged man dressed in a gray robe and holding onto a long sword. His sword gleamed with deadly energy.

The two beasts, on the other hand, were creatures James had not seen before.

One of the beasts resembled a lizard. It had a long body about a kilometer in length. Its body was covered in black scales with a pair of black wings growing out of its back.

The other was an enormous orangutan. It was a thousand meters tall and covered in red fur. It had a ferocious and terrifying appearance.

The three of them fought fiercely in the area. The atmosphere was tense, and their surroundings were the victims of their blind destruction.

Even though James watched from afar and was protected by Sophie's energy, he was still shaken by the scene.

Without Sophie's protective shield, he would not be able to stand firmly.

"Haah!" Seeing the intense battle ahead of him, James inadvertently gasped.

He asked, "What kind of beasts are those two, Ms. Sophie? Why are they so strong?"

Sophie's voice flowed from the Celestial Abode. "That's a Demon Lizard and Demon Orangutan. Both of them are primordial races. Their strength is at the Divine Rank's Third Stage. If they were to go all out, they would destroy the Demon Realm's Mortal Dimension. However, they're suppressing their power and not allowing their strength to affect the entire realm. Otherwise, the Mortal Dimension would've already. ceased to exist by now."

"What about the human? Who is he?" asked James

Sophie replied, "He's not exactly human either. Although he has a human appearance, he's not one of your kind. Judging from his energy, he is likely from the Demon Race's Azuream Clan."

"Is that Marcello's clan?"

"Mhm. Yeah."

James and Sophie watched from a distance.

Although Sophie's physical body was within the Celestial Abode, her consciousness was able to sense the surroundings on the outside.

"It's Sword Energy!"

Sophie exclaimed in discovery.

James inquired, "What kind of Sword Energy?"

Sophie explained, "Remember how I once taught you sword techniques and told you it belonged to an incredible powerhouse? He lived in the Primordial Age and was an Ancestral God.

"I just sensed Sword Energy left behind by this unrivaled powerhouse."

James immediately understood her implications and said, "So it's Sword Energy left by an Ancestral God? No wonder three powerhouses at the Divine Rank's Third Stair are fighting over it."

"James."

"Yeah? I'm listening."

Sophie said, "You're about to reach the Mage Rank, and your Yogocara will be related to your past growths. I'm guessing your Yogocara might be related to the Demonic Lotus or the Five Elements of Genesis."

James listened attentively since he knew very little about this stuff.

Sophie continued to speak, "I think you should remain on the path of swordsmanship. How about I snatch the Sword Energy, and you refine it into your Yogocara?"

“Are you sure it’s feasible?” James was slightly worried.

There were three formidable powerhouses ahead of him.

Moreover, all of them were at the peak of the Divine Rank’s Third Stage and very close to becoming Grand Emperors.

Could Sophie handle the three of them alone?

Her confident voice echoed from the Celestial Abode, “It shouldn’t be a problem. I’ll make my move when the three of them are worn out. We’re in no rush. Let’s wait in hiding for now.”

After speaking, she instructed James to retreat from the battlefield.

James listened to her and backed away, staying far from the violent trio.

He lurked around the area and waited for their battle to end.

James was currently in the wilderness of the Demon Realm’s Mortal Dimension.

The three powerhouses fought in the depths of the wilderness, and their overwhelming energy swept across the Mortal Dimension. The living beings in the Mortal Dimension were terrified and stayed on the ground. None of them dared to move, fearing the force would tear their bodies apart.

Even the powerhouses in the Sage and Divine Dimensions could sense the battle.

“That’s some devastating energy”

“What kind of powerhouses are fighting in the Mortal Dimension?”

“Fortunately, they’re still acting rationally and are not going all out. Otherwise, they’d really destroy the Mortal Dimension.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 2450–Powehouses from the Sage and Divine Dimension were also paying attention to the battle taking place in the Mortal Dimension.

The fierce battle between the three powerhouses at the Divine Rank’s Third Stage lasted for three years. After three years of intense combat, the three powerhouses were almost out of strength.

James waited outside of the battlefield all this time.

Sophie had been protecting him throughout the time he hid himself. Otherwise, he would never have been able to linger around the area for as long as he did because the aftermath of the trio's battle was deadly.

Even a powerhouse at the Divine Rank would die instantly if they got caught up in the battle's aftermath, let alone someone as weak as him.

"It's almost time, James. Get ready. I'll possess your body and defeat them all at once."

Sophie's voice chimed from within the Celestial Abode.

James' body trembled uncontrollably when he heard her.

"A-Are you sure about this, Ms. Sophie?"

"Of course. Who do you think I am?" Sophie snorted confidently.

Immediately afterward, James sensed an assertive force entering his body. At that moment, he lost control of his body, and Sophie took over.

Now that Sophie was in control, she used James' body to dash into the battlefield.

The three powerhouses were still engaged in a fierce battle. Seeing someone suddenly barge into their fight, they were all stunned for a moment.

James, under Sophie's control, stood on the battlefield.

Sophie summoned mysterious inscriptions from James' palms, and they spread throughout the sky.

"Th-The Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts?"

The seemingly human man immediately recognized the technique.

At that moment, a dreadful force filled the air and wounded him instantly.

The two beasts were also caught in Sophie's attacks and sustained damage.

"Haah!"

James breathed in nervously.

Although he could not control his body, he could see Sophie defeating the three formidable powerhouses with just one move.

'Is this the power of a Quasi-Emperor? thought James.

In the distance, the man dressed in black was worn down and proceeded to vomit blood. He wiped the blood from the corner of his lips and looked at James floating in the sky. He clasped his hands together and inquired, "Who might you be, Sir? How do you know the Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age?"

"Get lost."

Sophie used James' body to tersely address the man, "That Sword Energy belongs to an Emperor like myself. If you guys are sensible enough, you'll leave immediately. Otherwise, you only have yourself to blame for incurring my wrath."

Hearing James claiming to be an Emperor, the three powerhouses paled in fear.

"He's a powerhouse at the Emperor Rank?"

"When did an Emperor-ranked powerhouse like him exist in the Demon Realm?"

"I've never seen him before."

The three powerhouses were all perplexed.

The three of them fought such a drawn out battle to obtain the Sword Energy. Now a powerhouse at the Emperor Rank appeared all of a sudden and claimed it. Although they were reluctant, they had no choice but to yield since the person that showed up easily repelled the tree of them with just one move.

Moreover, he used a signature skill from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

The three of them would not stand a chance against him.

The middle-aged man in black said doubtfully, I'm Caelum Wachtman from the Azurean Clan. May I ask for your name, Sir?"

"James Caden," Sophie replied through James.

"Alright. I look forward to our paths crossing again."

Caelum from the Azurean Clan did not say anything further.

He turned around and immediately left the area.

The other two powerful beasts exchanged a few glances and then also retreated.

Haah!

Seeing the powerhouses leave, James sighed in relief.

At the same time, he was in awe of Sophie's strength. He barely held back his praises for her. "Ms. Sophie, you're incredible! What incredible power! By the way, what's Three-Thousand Cultivation Arts?"
