

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6431-“Cultivation?” Hador laughed and asked, “Is cultivation still important to you right now?”

James was taken aback.

“Let me phrase it in this way.” Hador sighed. “Another great nine-star powerhouse has appeared in Ying World again. The disciple has surpassed his teacher.”

A great nine-star powerhouse?

James was shocked. Had he become stronger than Hador, the Grand Patriarch of Ying World? How was that possible?

After the fight against Hador, although they were evenly matched, James couldn't defeat him. He flew back from the impact and spat out blood in the end.

He wanted to speak up, but Hador beat him to it. “James, it's time for me to let you meet someone you should meet. That's your final fortune.”

Upon hearing that, James frowned. “I still need to meet someone? It's never-ending.” “Don't you want to know about the secret of the Fourth Marciais Combat Form?” Hador asked.

Hearing that, James widened his eyes. “Mr. Hador, do you mean the person I'm going to meet is the powerhouse in Daeclon Rank who created the Marciais Combat Form?”

Hador smiled but kept silent. He stared at James meaningfully.

“Say something,” urged James anxiously.

“I'll give you some time to talk to your wife.” With his hands behind his back, Hador smiled and said, “Then, we'll meet the person that you want to meet the most.”

Now, James knew for sure that he was going to meet Yianni, the person who created Marciais Combat Form. He couldn't suppress his excitement. Hurriedly, he flashed to the mysterious sanctuary of Ying World.

When he appeared in the mysterious sanctuary of Ying World, Dark Thea was sitting in a lotus position on a mountain peak. She was surrounded by evil energy. The power was intimidating.

She was already enchanting, but now, she looked even more charming. She was probably the most beautiful person in the world.

"Darling," shouted James.

Thea's eyelids moved. She shuddered but didn't speak.

"Why aren't you speaking?" James walked toward her.

"Don't come near me." Dark Thea waved her hand and stopped him. "I'm scared of you. stop troubling me."

James felt awkward. "It has been a long time. Haven't you recovered..."

With her eyes shut, Thea snorted and said, "You're evil. If you dare to come over, I will consume you."

James was at a loss for words. He didn't expect his wife would dislike him for being strong in that aspect.

Feeling helpless, he could only find a place to sit near her. He gazed at Dark Thea, spaced out. His expression was full of love.

When Dark Thea felt awkward about being stared at for a long time, she said, "I'm on the verge of becoming a demon. I won't recognize anyone by then. I will consume anyone. Then, you will no longer like me!" "Nonsense!" James rolled his eyes. "I will follow you everywhere. If you become a demon, can't I become the Demon Lord?"

Upon hearing that, Dark Thea opened her eyes. Looking at James, who had a smug expression, she laughed.

Her laugh sounded beautiful.

It was the first time she laughed ever since she got rid of her emotions and desires.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6432-“You’re a fool!” Dark Thea rolled her eyes at James. “You’re old. Why are you still so soft? Good-for- nothing.”

“My wife is the Yin governor. Why do I need to be successful? Don’t forget. I’m relying on you to survive,” said James. Then, he took out a bottle of Chaos Absinthe and drank it.”

Looking at James’ actions, Dark Thea felt her heart tighten. “Stop drinking. I can’t help you again.”

“I’m not drinking wine.” James glanced at Dark Thea. “It’s my wife’s love.”

“You’re shameless!” Dark Thea mumbled before sighing. “I have watched the battle between you and Hador. Now, you’re the second great nine-star powerhouse in Ying World.”

Upon hearing that, James straightened his back. “Oh, yeah. I’m confused about this. Everyone says that I’m a great nine-star powerhouse, but I spat out blood because of a nine-star powerhouse’s attack. How can this be explained?”

“There are several aspects for this.” Playfully, Dark Thea said, “Firstly, he’s better at using his Supernatural Powers than you. Secondly, he has more combat experience. Thirdly, your cultivation rank isn’t as high as his. Fourthly, your Pure Yang Body has just been successful, so the three powers in your body haven’t fused.”

When James heard that, he was shocked. “Doesn’t that mean I’m weaker than a nine-star powerhouse?”

“We say that you’re a great nine-star powerhouse because you have met all the conditions of a great nine-star powerhouse.” Patiently, Dark Thea explained, “Once you meet that person and obtain the inheritance of the Fourth Marciais Combat Form, you will be an actual great nine-star powerhouse.”

James sighed helplessly. "But I want to know what cultivation rank I am in now."

Dark Thea answered, "The peak of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation."

Upon hearing that, James got up from the ground. He exclaimed, "Have I finally become a powerhouse at the peak of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank's Ninth Tribulation?"

Dark Thea was helpless. She looked at the void. "Hador, you should pass the Xeme Supreme Sutra to him. He has lost his mind because of the power of Yin and Yang."

James was speechless.

"Stop being stupid." Dark Thea looked at James again. "Just go. I'll wait for you here. I need some time to digest the power of Yin and Yang too."

Then, she raised her hand. An item similar to a white jade pendant appeared before James.

"What is this?" James asked curiously.

"It's the Dragontooth's Void. It's a favor I left with him." In a low voice, Dark Thea said, "Once he sees this token, he will teach you."

Taking the glowing Dragontooth's Void, James was bewildered.

Could it be that Dark Thea had a history with the founder of the Marciais Combat Form?

Thinking about it, James realized that everything happened because of Yianni. If he hadn't asked about the Daeclon Rank, Dark Thea wouldn't have suffered so much and be suppressed by Tai Chi.

It could be seen that the favor Dark Thea left with Yianni was precious.

At that thought, James kept the jade pendant and looked at Dark Thea. "You said you will wait for me. I hope you won't go back on your word this time. I don't need white lies."

“We will live and die together. We won’t lose each other.” Dark Thea didn’t say many emotional words. After saying that, she waved her hand. A purple-pink power pulled James up from the ground and into the void.

At this time, Hador had been waiting for James for a long time.

Touching his beard, he looked at James. “There’s still someone else. Do you want to meet him?”

James knew who Hador was talking about. He glared at the latter. “Do you want my wife to beat me to death? You’re evil.”

Hador laughed. Then, the Marciais Combat Power Power engulfed James. “Let’s go. It’s time to see your final fortune.”

A black light flashed. An elderly man and a young man disappeared from the void.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6433-In an unnamed universe in Yin’s Void, on a dazzling huge red star, James and Hador stood side by side.

They looked at the huge black ball in front of them. They were shocked by its magnificent aura and terrifying power.

The black ball didn’t exude the mysterious smoke or the Quasar Divine Light, but it exuded a strong Marciais Combat Form Power. The power engulfed the entire Yin’s Void.

However, between them and the black ball, there was a huge sea of stars. Each star was equivalent to a huge wave. It was engulfed in magnificent power. It rose and fell, spun quickly, forming dense black cyclones.

Because of that, they couldn’t teleport or fly. It was as if all Supernatural Powers had become a taboo.

After a while of silence, Hador pointed at the black ball. “That’s the birthplace of the Marciais Combat Form Power. It’s also the power source of Yin’s Void. It’s the land of our ancestors.”

Upon hearing that, James took a sharp breath.

He had been in the Dark World for so long. He had gone to almost every corner of the Dark World, yet he had never discovered such a place.

Could it be that everything needed providence? Or was it because his cultivation and strength were too weak in the past, so he couldn't detect such a high-ranking space?

"James." Hador smiled and looked at James. "That's the place of your final fortune."

James looked at the huge black ball and frowned. "I can't fly or teleport. I can't even step into the void. How can I go there?"

With his hands behind his back, Hador laughed. "My mission is to bring you here. As for the rest, you need to rely on yourself."

James rubbed his chin. Pondering for a while, he said, "That means it's another trial."

With a smile, Hador nodded. "It depends on your comprehension. If you want to do it, you can."

"I'll give it a try, then." Then, James suddenly used the Terrastride Step. The moment he took a step, he was immediately by the countless Marciais Combat Form Power. A potent force slowed him down.

James frowned. Immediately, he took another step. He passed through the resistance. Then, he found himself in the sky above the cyclone of the black sea of stars.

Happily, he shouted, "Mr. Hador, there's a door."

At once, Hador became anxious. "You have to be careful. This isn't a joke. If you take one wrong step, you will suffer from countless tribulations."

Then, he saw James get swept away by countless cyclones. James was instantly consumed by the magnificent power.

"Oh no." Hador was shocked. He took a step hurriedly but was flung back by the cyclones.

Hador steadied himself. Anxiously, he looked at James, who was consumed by the black cyclones. Then, shock turned into happiness.

It was because James barged out of the cyclones by using the Dawnblaze Form. With the Terrastride Step, he walked over to the huge black ball.

And every step he took, a ball of black-and-white light would appear under his legs. When he took the next step, the previous ball of black-and-white light would explode. It was full of danger.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6434-Since James had gradually gotten used to using the Terrastride Step, he could deal with the black cyclones easily.

When he reached the center of the sea of stars, not only did he face the cyclones, but countless stars headed toward him like lightning.

These huge stars had the power to destroy worlds. They were quick, shocking people.

Shocked, James activated the Dawnblaze Form and dodged them. At the same time, he used the Terrastride Step to rush forward. He was fearless.

Whenever he passed a place, he was like a ray of light in the black sea of stars, making the countless cyclones and stars miss him. He advanced courageously.

"He's indeed extraordinary." Hador laughed and said, "I'm jealous of Yukha. She can become holy with him."

Then, he saw the stars that failed to hit James rush toward him quickly.

"I'll leave, alright?" Hador exclaimed before running away. However, the stars didn't want to let him go. It was as if they wanted to chase him out of the place.

Meanwhile, James could use the Terrastride Step and Dawnblaze Form more naturally. Thus, he dodged the cyclones and the attacks of the stars more easily.

When he was about to step on the black ball filled with Marciais Combat Form Power, the surrounding areas fell silent.

Excluding the black-and-white light from his Ultimate Golden Body, he was surrounded by darkness. It was as if he was placed in endless darkness.

In such a place, eyes were useless. So, James could only utilize his Chaos Yin-Yang Eyes and maximize his Zen to see the movements in the surroundings.

Suddenly, in his Zen, countless stars headed toward him. They spun quickly and surrounded him.

James frowned. He prepared himself to deal with the stars. The gray, black, and white powers in his body were on high alert.

He expected the stars spinning around him quickly to attack him immediately, but they didn't. Instead, they formed several illusions of men in black robes.

After these illusions turned into human forms, they rotated even quicker with all kinds of stances, movements, and weapons in their hands. They also changed places. In the end, all of them formed a huge illusion.

James was shocked, but he didn't dare to act recklessly. After all, he didn't know their strength.

Suddenly, ten of the human figures were spinning, with countless afterimages, they rushed toward James from ten different directions. Under such a combined attack, James dared not act recklessly. He released three powers at the same time. Using the hands of the Ultimate Golden Body as hands, he fought against the countless afterimages.

Under the loud sounds, the black-and-white Sword Energy suddenly swept across. The power made of the ten illusions turned into a huge black formation, trapping James inside.

When James was exhausted from dealing with the ten illusions, countless illusions came toward him from all directions. Some were in the sky while some were on the ground. They surrounded James and were going to attack him.

James was shocked. He used his legs and hands, using the Terrastride Step and Dawnblaze Form to the extreme. He also used the Chaos Yin-Yang Eyes to the extreme. Thus, his eyes were red as if he was a violent beast.

He was injured. His Ultimate Golden Body was full of wounds and covered in blood. It was a horrifying scene.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6435-“This is never-ending.” Suddenly, James roared angrily. He entered the Third Marciais Combat Form immediately. His hair turned gray. With the Ultimate Golden Body and Golden Bones, his power reached the extreme.

In an instant, James’ speed increased. Firstly, he moved his hand made of the Judgment Scythe and put all his focus on the power of Yin and Yang. He shot up to the sky.

Boom!

The explosions sounded when James shot up to the sky. Thus, the illusions that surrounded James in the sky were wiped out right away.

Then, James occupied the highest spot. His other hand turned into the Nether Demonic Sword. Injecting Marciais Combat Form Power into it, he waved it.

At once, countless golden Sword Energies appeared and struck like meteors.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Countless explosions sounded again. The illusions on the ground exploded under these Sword Energies.

Following the rise and fall of the explosions, the surrounding areas that were initially dark gradually brightened up.

In the void, James landed on the ground with his injured Ultimate Golden Body.

He was surrounded by mountains and waters, blue sky and white clouds, as well as lush trees and flowers. There were farmers farming, and children playing around. It was like a paradise.

Seeing that magical scene, James was shocked. “What is going on now?”

“Teacher.” A familiar voice interrupted James’ thoughts.

Looking in the direction of the voice, James saw Stephen, Xzavion, Quattro and the others. They were cheering as Quattro ran over to him.

They were all his friends from the Dark World. They had all gathered here.

“James.” Another voice sounded. On the other side, a group of people ran over to James happily.

Seeing that, James was stunned.

What was going on? Why were his close friends gathered here?

More importantly, they looked real, and their actions didn’t seem to be a portrayal.

“Dad, I finally meet you again.”

Another voice sounded. On the other side, Jacopo, Winnie, Xainte and Noel ran over. They were all excited.

This was truly an illusion. There was no way everyone was here.

After confirming this, James raised his hand. The Marciais Combat Form Power swept across, followed by the sound of explosions. Instantly, he stopped everyone from coming over.

Seeing their unbelievable expressions, James was wary. “Who are you guys?”

“Dragon General, it’s us.” Suddenly, a group of familiar people appeared outside.

“Demon General, don’t you remember us?”

“James, your achievements are beyond our reach.”
