

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6436-“James, take us with you. We are your friends. We have experienced life and death together.”

Hearing everyone talk, James was in disbelief. His mind buzzed.

The people in his memory were all here. All of their familiar faces could be seen clearly.

Looking at the anticipation, excitement, admiration, and happy tears in their eyes, James didn't know what to think. 'This is impossible. There's no way everyone can gather here. This is the birthplace of the Marciais Combat Form, the most mysterious place of the Yin's Void. No one can gather here.' Then, James held his head and roared, “You guys can't be my friends. This is an illusion.”

“James.” Suddenly, a voice sounded from the void.

Hearing the familiar voice, James looked up. She saw Thea in the state of the Dark Heavenly Path appear in the sky.

She was divine and beautiful. She looked majestic.

With a distorted expression, James shouted, “No, you aren't Thea. You aren't my wife! You guys can't be them!”

Then, the terrifying Chaos Essence exploded in his Ultimate Golden Body. It spread everywhere. At once, the familiar figures shattered.

The area fell silent.

When James returned to his senses, he noticed that the familiar figures appeared again. However, they no longer had happy expressions. Instead, their expressions turned fierce.

“You...” James frowned. “You guys aren't my friends. You aren't my wife either.”

Then, the living beings who turned into Stephen and Xzavion attacked him first.

What surprised James was that not only did they steal Stephen's and Xzavion's appearances, but they also stole their Supernatural Powers and attack tactics.

With a sword, James shattered Xzavion and Stephen. Then, he began to attack the other living beings.

At this moment, James' mind was in chaos. Although he knew this group of people wasn't his friends, it was still traumatic for him to kill them because of their appearances.

He couldn't imagine what would happen if his friends, even his wife and kids, became enemies and betrayed him. He didn't know if he would have the courage to use his Supernatural Powers to kill them.

With only a few moves, James had dealt with most of the mysterious living beings. On the battlefield, Yegor, Lyla and Rebella, who were the most powerful living beings, were left. Aside from them, there was also Dark Thea, who was acting as the Heavenly Path in the void and hadn't made a move.

"Return to your original forms." James clenched his fists. "Otherwise, I will annihilate you."

Upon hearing that, the living beings with Yegor's appearance laughed.

"Do you really think we stole their appearances?"

James frowned. "What do you mean?"

"Let me tell you the truth." Yegor said coldly, "We truly exist, but we are different from our main selves. We are formed by our emotions and desires."

In short, you will harm our main selves if you kill us. Are you sure you can do that?"

When James heard that, he was stunned.

They were formed by their main selves' emotions and desires?

At this time, James heard Lesia's voice in his head. "Don't listen to his nonsense. They are the emotions and desires that were cut off when their main selves were in the Transcendental Bliss Rank. So, they ran here and cultivated since.

“Don’t hesitate just because they share a connection with their main selves. They aren’t the people you know.”

Then, the living being acting as Yegor hit James’ chest.

At the same time, Lyla and Rebella used their swords to pierce James’ Ultimate Golden Body from two different directions.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6437-James spat out blood. With bloodshot eyes, he looked furious.

The living beings portraying Yegor, Lyla and Rebella smiled evilly as if they had won.

“Go to hell.”

Suddenly, James roared. The terrifying Chaos Essence exploded again.

Once the black-and-white light spread, Yegor, Lyla and Rebella flew away. All of them spat out blood. They were severely injured as they fell to the ground.

James turned around heavily and stared at them with Murderous Energy. “It’s time for the game to end.”

“Why?” Spitting a mouthful of blood, Yegor roared, “Why do our main selves want to get rid of us? How are we affecting their cultivation? Why must they keep us in this boundless darkness and suffering?”

“That’s right.” Lyla spat out blood and snorted. “Although we are our main selves’ emotions and desires, they created us. Then, they found us annoying and kicked us away. They don’t have a conscience.”

Rebella said, “Now, we aren’t only emotions and desires. Although we can’t get out of this illusion, our cultivation has improved. We can become living beings.”

Hearing their roars, James, who was initially filled with Murderous Energy, was stunned.

At this time, the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell flew out from his Ultimate Golden Body. It turned into a terrifying lightsaber. Following three loud sounds, it shattered Yegor, Lyla and Rebella instantly.

James was astonished when he saw that.

Lesia didn't stop controlling the lightsaber. She turned around and headed to Thea who had turned into the Heavenly Path in the sky.

In the sky, Thea was about to activate the Heavenly Path Power when Lesia pierced her body with the terrifying lightsaber.

"James, you're ruthless. I will never forgive you," roared Thea. Then, she exploded in the void and disappeared.

Seeing that countless people James knew were rushing toward James, Lesia didn't hesitate at all. After shattering the fake Thea of the Heavenly Path, she turned into countless Sword Lights and went toward the group of familiar figures.

Under the loud explosions, Lesia moved like a life harvester. With only a sword, she killed all the living beings present.

James was shocked. Lesia turned into a huge sword and appeared before James.

"You are too emotional. This is your weakness. If you don't kill all of them, you will be stuck in this illusion forever and won't get out of it."

James' heart trembled. He looked up. "Lesia, aren't they real?"

"They are formed by your Inner Demon." Lesia said, "This is all Hador's fault. He should give you the Xeme Supreme Sutra, yet he skipped this step, causing you to be trapped here.

"Let me tell you this. If you keep thinking about these people, they will appear immediately. They will use all kinds of methods to get close to you. Then, they will launch a critical attack on you.

"Your Ultimate Golden Body might be useful in the outside world, but in front of their ever-changing changes, it can't defend you."

After hearing Lesia's words, James took a sharp breath. "Is this also a trial?"

“Of course.” Lesia explained, “The reason I asked you to learn the four Supernatural Powers in the Ying World is because of this.

“Do you still remember? When you arrived here, you used the Terrastride Step and Dawnblaze Form. After arriving on this star, you used the Chaos Yin-Yang Eyes to break the darkness and see the light.

“However, you are trapped here because you didn’t cultivate the Xeme Supreme Sutra. If you thinking of something, that thing will happen in front of you. Everyone will appear before you.”

When James heard that, his face twitched. “How do I break this illusion?”

“Meditation.” Lesia instructed, “You can’t be distracted by the outside world. You have to keep thinking that you want to cultivate the Marciais Combat Form Power to its peak. You can’t hesitate at all.”

After hearing Lesia’s words, James did as she said. He sat on the ground in a lotus position and closed his eyes.

His Zen entered the Golden Bones. Sensing the changes of the three powers, he got rid of all distracting thoughts.

Soon, three powers exuded from his Ultimate Golden Body. They floated above James’ head. It was as if they wanted to fuse into one.

At this time, Jacopo and the others appeared around James again. Dark Thea was among them.

When she saw that, Lesia sighed helplessly. “They’re here again. I’ll teach them a lesson today.”

Then, she turned the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell into a lightsaber again. Following the loud sounds, she shattered the familiar figures again.

However, as they were shattered, more and more familiar figures appeared in the void. It was neverending.

“Why do you have so many distracting thoughts?” Lesia exclaimed. Then, he pushed out Hemera and Fennec from the lightsaber made of the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

The three spirits attacked all the familiar figures created by James' distracting thoughts. They carried out a massacre.

Nonetheless, they realized that the more people they killed, the number of the figures increased. It was endless.

After killing a wave of distracting thoughts, Lesia used the lightsaber to knock James' head.

James looked up.

"Let out your pet bird. You can only get rid of your thoughts and this illusion with her around," said Lesia.

"Pet bird?" James frowned. "Do you mean Yukha?"

Lesia urged, "Hurry up, or you'll never get out of this illusion."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6438-James was at a loss for words.

He used the Chaos Absinthe to make Yukha drunk. In Hador's words, Yukha would at least be drunk for two entrapochs. 'It's only been one entrapoch, so how could...' he wondered.

However, while he was hesitating, fluctuations came from the space.

In the next second, the divine bird that Yukha turned into flew out of James' space. It expanded into a huge divine bird that could cover the sky.

The divine bird exuded colorful light. Spreading its wings, it flew around the void. Its aura was powerful.

As the light filled the area, the illusionary living beings around James turned into ashes and smoke.

Upon seeing that, James was astonished. He didn't expect Yukha to wake up and fly out.

More importantly, there was such a magical effect when she appeared. It was as expected of the ancestor of the flying living beings.

At this time, Lesia reminded, "Ride on her and break the illusion."

James signaled that he had heard that and instantly activated the Dawnblaze Form. Then, he appeared on the back of the divine bird that was Yukha's original form.

"I hate you," blurted Yukha.

"Be good." James patted her on the neck. "After this, I will reward you with more Chaos Absinthe."

When Yukha heard that, her huge body trembled. She immediately shut her mouth. She had cursed James for being shameless and vicious countless times in her heart.

"Break the illusion." James reminded, "Don't you want to head to divinity?"

Upon hearing that, Yukha was taken aback. It was only then she flapped her wings and engulfed the entire area with blue light.

At the same time, countless swords filled the sky and headed toward the surrounding areas. Thus, the illusionary living beings created by James shattered one group after another.

At this moment, James was sitting in a lotus position on Yukha's back. His eyes were shut. The gray Historial Power, black Marciais Combat Form Power, and black-and-white power of Yin and Yang that exuded from his body hovered above his head. They were distinctive.

As his distracting thoughts were gotten rid of, again and again, there were countless living beings. They were everywhere. At once, they were shattered by the Supernatural Power Yukha used.

Gradually, the trace of power left behind by the shattered distracting thoughts gathered above James' head, forming a rotating energy ball.

As it rotated, the three powers in James' body rotated around them.

Then, the Chaos Essence in his body controlled by his Zen was injected into the rotating energy ball. Instantly, the energy ball exuded dazzling and colorful light.

At the same time, the three powers around the energy ball entered the energy ball one by one. Thus, the energy ball exploded into colorful light.

At this moment, James felt terrible pain. His soul seemed to be attacked continuously too. So, he, who was strong, couldn't help but cry out in pain.

Yukha also felt the terrifying aura. Instantly, she asked, "Are you entering the Xaeclon Rank?"

"How do I know? My entire body is in pain." James said hurriedly, "It's as if my entire body is about to explode."

"Endure it." Yukha instructed, "It seems that you're going to enter another Xaeclon Rank because you fused three powers. You can't give up."

Then, she shot out a richer blue light and engulfed James.

The blue power had a healing effect. It reduced James' pain. Thus, James tried his best to endure it.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6439-When the mysterious power entered James' Eight Extraordinary Meridians, under the harmony of the chaotic essence spreading from the golden bone, with the Chaos Essence spread from the Golden Bones, James gradually calmed down. The terrible pain finally subsided.

The blue light that engulfed James dissipated. Then, he spread his arms. In the Ultimate Holden Body, a potent and extreme power of the light spread in all directions. It headed toward the cracked wall of the illusionary space. Following the sound of a loud boom, the space exploded.

The earth and mountains shook. The air fluctuated quickly, shaking the area.

"You have succeeded in reaching the Xaeclon Rank." Lesia cheered happily. "Congratulations." Upon hearing that, James slowly raised his hands. Looking at the light moving all over his body, he felt excited.

Was this the rumored Xaeclon Rank? He had finally reached this rank.

How many powerhouses from Genesis World were still his match?

“Congratulations.” Yukha said suddenly, “But I still hate you.

James smiled. With a grab, a bottle of Chaos Absinthe appeared in his hand.

Looking at it, Yukha shouted in fear, “I don’t want it. I’m not going to drink it. Don’t dare make me drunk again.”

James said, ‘This is your reward.’

Suddenly, Yukha screamed, “James, you’re ungrateful! I broke the illusion for you, yet you-” “Huh? Break the illusion?” When James heard that, he raised his head and looked at his surroundings.

He noticed that the environment moments ago had disappeared. It was replaced by mountains and waters, as well as blue sky and white clouds. The scenery was beautiful.

More importantly, James saw a mysterious man in a black robe and a hat by the creek.

He was quiet. He didn’t exude an aura, but he looked prestigious. It was as if he knew everything, and everything was unrelated to him.

Was he the Grand Supernatural in the Fourth Marciais Combat Form that James was looking for?

Upon thinking of that, James patted Yukha on the neck. “Descend now.” “You’re hurting me,” complained Yukha. Then, she flapped her wings and landed on the ground.

After James got down from her back, she immediately turned into her human form.

She wanted to say something When she saw James rush over to the mysterious man, but held back.

“Not bad.” At this time, an illusionary figure of a little girl that exuded three-color light appeared behind Yukha. The figure tapped on her shoulder.

When Yukha turned around, she was shocked. “You-” With her hands behind her back, Lesia said domineeringly, “Speak to me respectfully. I’m Master’s second body.”

Yukha snorted. Right when she was about to hit Lesia, the latter turned into a colorful robe. Instantly, Yukha was tied up.

“Do you have a death wish?” Yukha was furious.

Lesia smiled playfully and said, ‘Try breaking free. If you can, anyway.’

Yukha was enraged. She used all her strength to break free, but she still couldn’t. In the end, she could only say, “James, control your pet.”

At this moment, James, who was approaching the mysterious man, was shocked by her voice.

While cursing silently, he was about to turn around when he saw the mysterious man turn his head.
