

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6516

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6516-Yegor finally stopped laughing.

He looked at James excitedly. "Didn't I say that James will always bring US the greatest luck and surprises? I told you so, Herodias!" Herodias was rendered speechless by his sudden taunt. Then, she turned her gaze toward James.

She already knew that James was their lucky star from the first time she saw him. She did not need Yegor to tell her that.

Since they had gotten rid of the unwanted karma and tribulations, James raised his hand and summoned the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell back to his body.

As the bell chimes stopped, the dark light around them faded away a few seconds later.

Yegor and Herodias each raised a hand. A strong flow of Tirta Power circulated above their palms as they tried to check their powers.

The couple was on cloud nine.

"Now, I can help you fuse with the Golden Bodies." James reminded them about the next step.

Herodias and Yegor looked up and smiled at James with gratitude.

"Let's start with Mr. Yegor." James went on, "Your Great Genesis Pearl is still with me." "You still remember about that?" Yegor chuckled. "Just keep it..."

Before he could finish, a sparkly pearl materialized before James' chest.

The pearl appeared to be coated by a layer of mysterious dark light.

"Woah!" Yegor exclaimed, "It got a lot bigger. Lucky me!"

Meanwhile, James channeled his powers and sent the Great Genesis Pearl into the Golden Body intended for Yegor.

Then, he pushed his palms forward and lifted Yegor's body. Once he positioned Yegor next to the Golden Body, James started fusing the two bodies.

A bright red light emanated just as the bodies became one.

Simultaneously, James cast four beams of Chaos Essence onto Yegor's Golden Body from his eyes and the center of his palms.

A brief moment later, the Golden Body started moving.

As it extended its arms, the Chaos Essence circulated in its body and promoted the formation of the Eight Extraordinary Meridians, the blood vessels, and various organs.

By the time the red light dimmed and vanished, the Golden Body had adopted all of Yegor's exterior features.

Yegor's eyes flew open, and he shot up in the air. A tremendous amount of Qrohms and righteous aura radiated from his new Ultimate Golden Body.

Herodias gasped. "Wow! He skipped the First Xaeclon Rank and entered the Second Xaeclon Rank!"

The winds started blowing roughly as Yegor flipped his palms up. An immense amount of Tirta Power flowed rapidly toward Yegor as he absorbed them into his body.

Yegor's body shone with a beautiful golden light six times shortly afterward. His Qrohms intensified by folds.

Even James felt threatened by that amount of Qrohms. He quickly channeled the tricolor energy in his body to hold up against the pressure.

As he looked to the side, James could see Herodias and Taotie were already pressed against the floor due to Yegor's Qrohms.

"The Eighth Xaeclon Rank." James inhaled deeply. "Mr. Yegor, you need to suppress your Qrohms! It's so strong that it may kill Ms. Herodias and Taotie."

Yegor snapped to his senses upon hearing James' warning. He suppressed his Qrohm immediately and lowered himself to the ground.

Herodias gave him a hefty kick as soon as she got up. However, she was sent flying backward with a loud crash. "Yegor! I'm going to beat you to a pulp!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6517-Herodias scrambled to her feet and rushed toward Yegor again.

However, James had lifted her with his powers before Herodias could get close to Yegor.

Similar to what he did for Yegor, James fused Herodias with her Golden Body too.

To everyone's surprise, Herodias absorbed all of the Tirta Power contained in the Tirta Grand Formation after she had fused with the Golden Body.

In the end, Herodias managed to achieve the Ninth Xaeclon Rank.

As soon as the process was completed, Herodias immediately chased after Yegor and threw punches at him. James found it extremely amusing.

Yegor cried, 'That's enough! I'm his senior, after all. Can't you do this when there's only the two of US around?' "James isn't a total stranger to US." Herodias kicked Yegor's behind forcefully. "This is what you get for making me look like a fool just now!"

James chuckled as he watched Yegor fly out of the main hall. "Ms. Herodias, with your current level of powers, you guys can leave the Telhervo Holy Site any time you want."

Herodias turned around and grinned at him. "Well, we have to thank you for that. What would you like in return for this huge favor?"

James' brows lifted.

He did not expect that the seemingly free-spirited Herodias would be so perceptive and sharp. As expected, cultivators who had reached their levels of cultivation were no ordinary people.

James' smile broadened. "In that case, I'll be frank. You and Mr. Yegor are now pretty much matchless in the Genesis World."

He looked at Herodias. "However, it would be a waste of your powers if you only wanted to become the top cultivators of the Genesis World."

Herodias' brows arched. "You want US to target Yehria?"

James said unhurriedly, "I'm doing this to get my revenge. For you and Mr. Yegor, isn't this a good chance to eliminate a great threat?"

Herodias smiled enigmatically. Then, she pointed at James and laughed. "You're really good at persuasion." "Mr. Yegor and you were Tirta's students. Yehria was also in the same batch of students as you two." James continued, "It's also easy for you and Mr. Yegor to travel up the Thirty-Three Heavens. Therefore, I'd like to request the two of you to head up the Thirty-Three Heavens and keep Tai Chi's main body occupied for at least two or three entrapochs.

"During that time, I will gain control over the entire Genesis World and take away Tai Chi's support."

Herodias fell silent after listening to James' plans.

On the other hand, James produced the Chaos Absinthe and sipped on it slowly.

After a while, Herodias suddenly looked in a certain direction. "Get in here!

Why are you eavesdropping on US?"

Yegor smiled sheepishly and walked into the hall.

While everyone had lowered their guard, Yegor teleported and snatched away the crock James was holding.

"Mr. Yegor, you can't drink that!" James called after him.

Unfortunately, it was too late. Yegor lifted the crock and downed almost half of its content.

Then, Yegor dropped the crock and fell forward...

James quickly performed the Dawnblaze Form and caught the crock just in time. As for Yegor, he was already lying on the floor face down.

"There he goes acting tough again." Herodias rolled her eyes. "How embarrassing!"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6518-James looked at the drunk Yegor and said resignedly, "He'll be out for at least two entrapochs after drinking that. It'll be too late for anything by then." "That's the Chaos Absinthe, right?" Herodias asked.

James raised his brows. "You know about the liquor too, Ms. Herodias?" "I used to have some close friends from the Ying World." Herodias sighed softly. "I received several dozens of these crocks filled with the Chaos Absinthe from them."

She turned her gaze toward Yegor. "I was worried that this guy would do something foolish if he knew about the Chaos Absinthe.

"So, I hid them from him all this time. Yet, he managed to make a fool out of himself anyway."

James' eyes twinkled. "Ms. Herodias, can you give them to me?"

Herodias seemed slightly surprised. "The Chaos Essence you used to fuse us with our Golden Body came from the Chaos Absinthe?" "That's right!" James nodded vigorously. "I don't get drunk from drinking the liquor. I even gain a lot of benefits from drinking them." "I don't mind giving them to you." Herodias dropped her gaze. "More importantly, are you sure you want to execute the plan that you've just mentioned to me?"

James paused momentarily. Then, he laughed heartily. “You doubt that I can gain control of the Genesis World in just two entrapochs. Am I right, Ms. Herodias?” “Mhm.” Herodias replied honestly, “Yegor and I can go up to the Thirty Third Heaven and fight with the real Tai Chi to keep her busy.

“Yehria may be a Daeclon Rank cultivator, but she won’t be able to deal US fatal injuries.

“Still, she has four clones. The lowest cultivation rank among those clones is at least the Seventh Xaeclon Rank. On the contrary, I can see that you are only on the Fifth Xaeclon Rank.

An enigmatic smile hung on James’ face. “Ms. Herodias, I’ve sealed the Yang governor and left him in the Ying World.”

Herodias had a look of bewilderment on her face. “You defeated the Yang governor?!” “It’s not just him. I defeated the Yin-Yang Tai Chi as well.” James’ grin widened.

His words caught Herodias completely off guard.

She never would have expected that James would be able to defeat one of Tai Chi’s clones. He had gone up against a Seventh Xaeclon Rank cultivator when he only reached the Fifth Xaeclon Rank.

“Ms. Herodias, do you have any other questions?” James smiled confidently.

Herodias responded firmly, “Nope! When do you plan to start?”

James tapped his finger against his chin. “Skynet is the first place I come to since I want to repay you and Mr. Yegor for all your previous help.

“Also, I’m concerned about Skynet’s security issues.”

He pointed to Taotie. i’ll have him stationed here. Coupled with Xitlaly and other cultivators’ help, all of them should be able to defend Skynet from Tai Chi’s lackeys’ attacks.

“I also need to drop by the Forladtt Land and reinforce their defense forces. Only then will I be able to initiate my subjugation of the Genesis World.”

Herodias nodded. "It is wise to execute your plans meticulously one step at a time. However, you must make your decisions carefully."

"This is your only chance to give Tai Chi a lethal strike. If the plan fails and your identity is exposed, Tai Chi probably won't focus on punishing US first. Instead, she'll go after you."

James smiled wryly. "Do you think she will go after my wife or me first?"

Herodias chuckled. "You were a couple. Even if the Yin governor had helped the Dark Heavenly Path remove all her emotions and desires, you two were still once the most important person to each other."

"Would either of you not do anything if Tai Chi managed to kill the other person?"

James fell silent. Herodias' words were irrefutable. She was wise and insightful.

She knew that James and Thea were willing to sacrifice themselves to help the other person if the situation called for it. This was probably the reason why Herodias had concerns about James' plan.

Herodias sighed. "James... Sometimes, you must look at the bigger picture if you want to achieve your purpose."

"Protecting a loved one is important. However, you mustn't let it hold you back from doing the right thing."

"You must figure out whether the current Dark Heavenly Path or the Yin governor is your wife. If you don't solve this issue first, you won't be able to deal with other problems."

Herodias' remarks hit home. That was the biggest dilemma for James.

Meanwhile, Herodias turned around and cast a blast of her powers at the still-unconscious Yegor.

After a loud boom, Yegor's eyes flew open. As he slowly sat up, the others could see that Yegor's face was covered in black soot. It was as if he had just come out of a coal mine.

“Get up! It’s time to work.” Herodias wore an expression of pure annoyance. ‘Why drink when you’re such a lightweight?’

Yegor paused briefly. Then, he looked at James. “Where am I? Which dimension are we in now? Who am I?”

James was at a loss for what to say.

On the other hand, Herodias covered her face in embarrassment.

James turned his gaze toward Herodias. “Ms. Herodias, I’ll take the Direguard Lock with me. You and Mr. Yegor can head to the Thirty-Third Heaven right away.”

Herodias smiled slightly. “You’re truly a sly little fox. Yehria is about to have a hard time facing you.”

James gave a slight nod and teleported away.

After exiting the main hall, James demonstrated the Terrastride step and flew straight into the black and white masses of gas holding the Direguard Lock.

Sounds of thunder rumbling came from the masses of gas. After a brief moment, a deafening noise rang out.

Simultaneously, the black and white lights emitted from the gases went out. The masses of gas slowly disappeared as well.

James was left levitating in the spot where the masses of gas were. He was holding a shiny rope in his hand.

Just then, Herodias and Yegor shot up in the air. James could hear their excited laughs as the couple headed in the direction of Zymurgy.

“I hope you’ll be able to hold her long enough,” James muttered. Then, he teleported and vanished from the spot.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6519-As James re-emerged somewhere a little further from the Telhervo Holy Site, he spotted Xitlaly who was still waiting nearby.

Xitlaly was commendable for her alertness and prudence. However, it appeared she had not leveled up much.

James lifted his hand and channeled a tremendous amount of Marciais Power toward Xitlaly.

By the time she wanted to defend herself, the Marciais Power had washed over her. Xitlaly could not even move a muscle.

Suddenly, Xitlaly sensed numerous mysterious and powerful energies flowing into her body.

Important notice: Dear readers, Please bookmark our new site: to continue reading the Novels. Thank you. Recommend: Clean Your Brower Cache now to access missing chapters.

Those energies enhanced her bones and organs, her bloodline power, her soul, and her body.

Xitlaly soon realized she could assume a seated position. After that, she started channeling the Genesis Power and the fragment of Historial Power she had in her body.

To her surprise, her powers increased drastically.

Eventually, James put down his hand. He cast a soundproof formation around them.

“You still have to experience several tribulations before entering the Xaeclon Rank. So, I won’t build the Golden Body for you soon.

“However, your enhanced body possesses almost half of the strength of a Golden Body. It is enough for you to protect the beings living in Skynet.”

The Marciais Power cast onto her was lifted. She stood up. “Mr. Biefren, why are you...”

Before she could finish her question, James sent a long, compact black inscription toward Xitlaly.

As Xitlaly opened her hands, the inscription transformed into three black scrolls on her palms.

‘Those are the scrolls for learning the first three stages of the Marciais Combat Form.’ James continued, ‘You should pick out a batch of trustworthy and talented men from Skynet’s Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation cultivators.’

‘Put these men through intense training. You need to form an army of men who have mastered the Third Marciais Combat Form and achieved the peak of Yuraeceon Daelm Rank’s Ninth Tribulation within one entrapoch.’

Xitlaly’s eyes widened. ‘That...’ ‘Taotie!’ James cut her off again.

With a roar, Taotie flew up in the air and headed toward James.

James pointed at Taotie and transformed him into the human form. Then, he directed his gaze back at Xitlaly. ‘He’s an Eight-Star Combat Power cultivator from the Ying World.’

‘He is more skilled and powerful than you. I’ll have him help you with defending Skynet and teaching our men the Marciais Combat Form. You can trust him.’

Xitlaly had a look of bewilderment on her face. ‘Who are you really, mister?’

‘Why are you giving US so much help?’

A faint smile played across his lips. ‘Take care, Xitlaly. I’ll bring the kids with me.’

James gave her a wink. Then, he lifted the soundproof formation around them.

With a light wave of his hand, James produced the tricolored energy, which swept around him, Jacopo, and Xainte.

The tricolored energy carried them and shot out of the Tirta Grand Formation.

Xitlaly was momentarily stunned.

She snapped to her senses sometime later. Then, Xitlaly stared in the direction where the energy headed off. ‘James... James is back!’ She was delighted to see James again.

‘You must keep it a secret. Otherwise, I will kill you.’ Taotie reminded her.

Then, he asked, “Do you have any food? I’m hungry.” Xitlaly was rendered speechless by his last remark.

On the other hand, Herodias and Yegor had arrived safely on the Thirty Third Heaven.

A majestic building stood before them. There was an air of holiness about the place as it was surrounded by mysterious-looking black and white gases.

Herodias and Yegor narrowed their eyes as they stared up at the plaque which had the name, Tai Chi Grand Temple, written on it.

It was not the couple’s first time visiting this place.

In the past, the place was named Tirta Grand Temple. It was the place where Yegor and Herodias had once lived and trained.

Sadly, many things changed since then.

The couple exchanged a glance. Then, Yegor raised his hand and hurled a blast of righteous aura at the Tai Chi Grand Temple’s front door.

Before Yegor’s attack reached its target, two huge masses of black and white gases formed in front of the door.

However, the gases were blown away as soon as Yegor’s attack hit them.

The building shook a little due to the impact of the collision. Cracks formed in the space near the building.

Three figures teleported out of the Tai Chi Grand Temple the next instant, leaving trails of black and white lights behind them.

Two women and a man in robes of black and white colors stopped before Yegor and Herodias.

Those three people’s faces were concealed by the black and white Tai Chi Aura.

Nevertheless, anyone could sense their immense amounts of Qrohm. Their powers seemed to be on par with those of Yegor’s and Herodias’.

Yegor let out a cheerful laugh. "Who knew we'd be meeting our old friends here today?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6520-"Yegor, what are you doing?"

The man asked in a stern voice, "According to the Law of Path, you should have been imprisoned. Why..." "Qadirre." Yegor interrupted, "You and I were friends in the past. So, don't waste my time with your nonsense and move aside."

The man, Qadirre Trench, fell silent.

One of the women started, "Yegor and Herodias, this is the Tai Chi Grand Temple, the most sacred place in the Thirty-Third Heaven. You are breaking the rules..."

Smack!

Before the woman could finish, she was slapped hard across the face by a palm formed from the Tirta Power. She dropped to the floor due to the force.

Everyone looked in Herodias' direction.

Herodias stretched and shook her hand a little. Then, she put her hand on her back. "You, a mere servant, dares to bring up rules before me?"

The woman on the floor wanted to launch an attack on Herodias. However, the other female cultivator signaled for her to be patient.

That female cultivator said in a mocking tone, "Ylva, don't you see it? She's Tirta's daughter. Tirta and her followers may be no more, but she won't lose her pride."

Herodias directed her gaze at that female cultivator and chuckled maliciously. "Xavria, do you honestly think I won't kill you just because you have Yehria's backing?"

Xavria Denoe scoffed. "A prisoner of Path like you shouldn't be spouting nonsense like that. If you have the guts..."

Boom!

Herodias pierced through Xavria's abdomen by launching a bolt of Tirta Power at her.

In an instant, the black and white gases around Xavria swirled quickly.

The Tai Chi Power contained in her body gushed out through the holes made in her body. Xavria screamed hysterically as her body started to lose shape.

To Ylva Reylah's and Qadirre's horror, Xavria dropped to the floor and disintegrated to form a cloud of dark, murky gases. Then, the gases were absorbed by Herodias.

Yegor snickered as he watched from the side. "It's her fault for making Herodias mad." "Get lost!" Herodias pointed to Ylva and Qadirre.

Ylva and Qadirre came to their senses and hurriedly knelt on the floor.

"Lady Herodias, we know you want to see Tai Chi. However, she's not at the Thirty-Third Heaven at the moment." "That's right, Lady Herodias. Even if you kill US and break into the Tai Chi Grand Temple, it will only add to your tribulations."

Yegor frowned slightly. "Where's Yehria?"

Ylva and Qadirre exchanged a glance. Then, they bowed deeply to the couple in silence.

"Answer him!" Herodias bellowed.

Qadirre replied, 'Tai Chi went to the Forty-Ninth Heaven to attend the Waitara Gathering.' "It's the truth! We're not sure when she'll be back either," Ylva added.

"The Waitara Gathering in the Forty-Ninth Heaven?" Yegor mumbled.

He looked at Herodias. "Why would the Waitara Path hold a gathering so suddenly?"

Herodias curled her lips. “No wonder our journey in Zymurgy went so smoothly. We didn’t even run into Wesley. So, that’s the reason.”

She shot a glare at the kneeling Ylva and Qadirre. “I don’t care if she’s here or not. I’m entering the temple.”

Herodias took Yegor’s hand and strode past Qadirre and Ylva. “You can either go and inform her now, or wait until she’s back and complain to her. My husband and I are going to wait here. If she doesn’t show up, we will tear down her temple.”

Qadirre and Ylva subconsciously held their breaths as they listened to Herodias’ warnings.
