

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6788

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6788-Xenovs nodded hurriedly in response. Before he could speak, the formation suddenly froze.

James activated the Chaos Yin-Yang Eyes and searched his Soul Energy Ball, instantly obtaining all the information.

He reached out his hand and sucked the Soul Energy Ball into his hand. Then, he crushed it into pieces.

Xenova screamed and fell suddenly into the blazing ten-color flames.

Sylvia's eyes widened in horror after witnessing the brutal scene. Even Lesia had a surprised look on her face. "Why did you kill him?"

As James slowly lifted his hand, he let the crushed Soul Energy Ball scatter bit by bit.

"He is no longer useful, so there was no need to keep him around."

Taken aback, Lesia approached him and said, "But he was at the Yitro Daeclon Rank.

Hemera and Fennec could've consumed him..."

Before she could finish speaking, terrifying red lights shot out from James' eyes and instantly grabbed the Soul Energy Balls in Hemera and Fennec's hands.

"Master." Fennec was about to protest, but Hemera instantly covered his mouth.

Hemera whispered, "Shut up. Master must have his reasons."

After James searched the Soul Energy Balls, he crushed them without exception.

Hemera and Fennec were like kids who had their lollipops taken from them.

Disappointed, their heads hung low.

After scattering the remains of the crushed Soul Energy Balls, James said, “Not everything is worth keeping. They seem to be at the Yitro Daeclon Rank but are actually only at the peak of the Xurxo Daeclon Rank. They’ve hit their limits and can no longer grow.”

He looked at the downcast Hemera and Fennec, explaining, “If you consumed these kinds of Soul Energy Balls, you might be able to enter the Daeclon Rank.

However, you’ll be confined permanently to the Xurxo Daeclon Rank.”

Upon hearing James’s insights, Hemera and Fennec quickly lifted their heads in shock.

The Xurxo Daeclon Rank was beyond their reach for now. Still, they had aspirations that stretched far beyond just reaching this level—they dreamed of someday achieving the Yitro, Soma, Historial Daeclon Rank, and even the Daeclon Mahayana.

Though James was harsh, his actions were ultimately meant for their own good.

James said firmly, “If you want to grow stronger, you must do it step by step.

Instead of consuming external energies, improving through your own effort is important.

Then, he called upon the Wisdom Tower and the Perceiver Tower. Then, he said, “The powers of the ten holy temples are gathered inside these two towers.

You two have been with me for a very long time. It’s time I award you two.

“Go on. As for what opportunities or heights you reach, it will depend on your determination and will.”

Hemera and Fennec’s eyes sparkled with excitement.

Just as Fennec was about to leap forward, Hemera grabbed him.

“But Master, you’re about to ascend to the Thirty-Third Heaven and fight Yehria.

If we enter the towers now, you'll lose to helpers. We're supposed to face whatever comes together."

Realizing Hemera's intention, Fennec quickly agreed, "Let us fight, Master! We'll enter the towers after the battle."

Lesia laughed and teased, "Such loyal kids. Unfortunately, you two are still too weak and won't be of much help. It'll be better to enter the towers and reach the Daeclon Rank soon. By doing so, Master's formation can unleash its full potential."

James smiled at them and urged, "Get going."

Hemera and Fennec exchanged a glance, then clenched their teeth. The next second, they transformed into light beams, each entering a tower.

After James stored the towers away, Lesia put her hands behind her back and asked, "How come I couldn't see they were at the Xurxo Daeclon Rank's peak and not the Yitro Daeclon Rank?"

James pointed at the bodies within the formation and explained, "Their powers were not from within their souls, but bodies. Go check for yourself if you don't believe me."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6789-Doubtful, Lesia descended from the sky. After checking several of the bodies, she immediately understood the situation. "Damn it, Yehria. She has been giving the Tai Chi Soul Pearl's powers to everyone. I knew having so many powerhouses at the Yitro Rank below the Fortieth Heaven was weird. So it was because of Tai Chi Power."

James pointed at Sylvia behind him and said, "Not all of them thought. She had just reached the Yitro Daeclon Rank and is a rare Hydrogenate, possessing a body with the water element."

Lesia looked at Sylvia and asked instinctively, "Are you planning to make her your woman in Thea's absence?"

James rolled his eyes at the question.

On the other hand, Sylvia, though unable to speak, her cheeks flushed.

Lesia continued, "I think..."

James instantly activated the Dawnblaze Form, got close to her, and covered her mouth.

"Mmm!!!"

James snapped, "Enough. Now, it's time to play your part."

Lesia pried James' hand away and accused, "You monster! Are you really thinking of taking me as your woman too? Are you a narcissist? I'm your second body.Mmm!!!"

James covered her mouth again and said angrily, "Enough! When have you become such a pervert?"

You're so young and shouldn't have such...uh...dirty thoughts."

Lesia was stared at him, speechless.

James sighed. "Let's focus on important matters. Though these guys aren't really at the Yitro Daeclon Rank, they are sitting on a heap of useful information."

Lesia stepped back and asked urgently, "Is there any news about Thea?"

James shook his head and said, "No. However, I discovered from their Soul Energy Balls that a trap had been set up for us in the Tai Chi Grand Temple. At least five powerhouses at the Soma Daeclon Rank are waiting for us.

After retracting his hand, James turned around and sneered, "They're from various temples below the Fortieth Heaven. On the surface, they pretend to be enticed by Yehria to capture me and are trying to force me to surrender Morgott's spirit.

"However, they're trying to trap me for eternity to ensure I won't stand in Marci's way of becoming the Supreme Path."

Lesia's eyes widened in shock. She asked, "But how do they know we left the Great Historial Land? How do they know to set up the trap in the Thirtieth and Thirty-Third Heaven in advance?"

“Considering that we control the Ten Holy Temples and Marci, it’s impossible for news to spread so quickly.”

“Even when we entered Zymurgy, Yegor had been fighting on your behalf.

Moreover, you have the Hongrome Hidden Bead, and they shouldn’t be able to detect you.”

Lesia, ever astute, pinpointed the crucial issue at hand.

James said smilingly, “What if someone had already been monitoring us long before this?”

Lesia’s brows furrowed at the realization.

James smiled and said, “Let’s not spell it out. I’d rather hope someone will lead us to where Light Thea and Abelard are held captive.

As James stepped back from the discussion, heading back to the formation, Lesia hesitated to voice her concern.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6790-The Thirtieth Heaven was left in a disastrous state after the battle. On the ruins, hundreds of severely wounded beings at the Xaeclon Rank sat in lotus positions, channeling their powers to recuperate.

Many of Tai Chi’s disciples, guardians, heavenly paths, and leaders were among the wounded. These were essential figures who served Tai Chi, and were stationed in different parts of the Greater Relms. They were considered her elite forces.

James observed them for a while, and a sinister smile appeared on his face.

“Do you think Yehria will be furious if I kill them all?”

Lesia scoffed, “That’s pointless. Everything below the Thirty-Third Heaven is under her control. She’s a god and can resurrect them anytime.”

James asked, “What if we kill them inside the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell?”

Lesia laughed. “Your brilliance knows no bounds, Master! Leave it to me!”

After speaking, she activated the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell and charged toward the group of beings.

James suddenly ordered, "Leave the familiar faces for now. They'll be useful."

The next moment, the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell descended from the sky and trapped the group of creatures, filling the area with screams and cries of terror.

James placed his hands behind his back and turned around with a smile.

In the distance, he saw Qadirre and Ylva, who were waiting to be officiated as the Yin and Yang governors. One held spirit pearls, and the other scrolls, frozen in sheer panic.

Qadirre's eyes widened with absolute dread after witnessing the group being trapped by the Yuraeceon Genesis Bell.

Never in his wildest dreams would he have imagined the event to become a massacre of the Tai Chi Sect. Not even the two of them were spared from doom.

Ylva pointed at James and shouted, "Y-You're Forty-nine!"

Qadirre snapped back to reality and stammered, "H-How are you still alive? Not even seven powerhouses at the Yitro Daeclon Rank could kill you? Are you a monster?"

James smiled indifferently as he unleashed a vibrant ten-colored light at them, instantly surrounding them and pulling them toward him.

They immediately tried to resist but realized their powers had already been sealed.

James had not even moved but managed to seal their powers with just a thought. To seal the powers of beings at the Xurxo Daeclon Rank, he had to possess terrifying strength.

"You two have long dreamed of becoming the Yin and Yang governors, right?"

Alright, I'll grant your wishes."

James' body erupted with a blood-red light, which quickly enveloped Qadirre and Ylva.

Immediately, the spirit pearls and scrolls in their hands fused with their bodies, unleashing a burst of purple-gold light.

“Argh!!!” With a cry, Qadirre extended his arms, and a purple-gold radiance burst out from his body. He soared into the sky, breaking free from James' blood-red light.

Ylva also uttered a sharp cry and ascended into the void, wrapped in a golden halo.

Terrifying powers emerged from their bodies, quickly permeating the entire Thirtieth Heaven.
