

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 6971-James was at a loss for words. He didn't refute or explain.

Thea pinched his ear, making him grit his teeth in pain. He quickly begged for mercy.

"We can take our time to settle the scores." Thea said, "As for now, you must listen to me, or else we can't get through the Solemnity Tribulation."

James felt helpless. "I've always listened to you."

"You didn't listen to me before," Thea said sharply, "Did you think I wouldn't recognize you because you were possessed?"

James was speechless.

"I didn't expose you because we were being watched," Thea continued. "I let you leave not because I wanted you to leave me behind but to let you temporarily leave the Fortieth Heaven. That way, they couldn't activate their trap and the Solemnity Tribulation.

"If you're outside, even if they're bold, they can't do anything to me.

"On the other hand, you're infatuated. Why must you die with me? Now, your wish might come true."

At this time, James was like a child who had done something wrong and was reprimanded by a teacher.

"Your weakness is too obvious." Thea let go of James' ear. Feeling pleased and sad, she said, "The opponent can catch you easily."

Shrugging his shoulders, James pursed his lips and said, "Since it's a Solemnity Tribulation, no one can escape it."

"Not only have I prepared to face the Solemnity Tribulation, but I've also prepared to be trapped here for a long time, face life-and-death, separation with my family and friends and become a target."

Looking at James, Thea frowned. James was stubborn. He knew everything.

Who told him all that?

Turning around slowly, James looked up at the Energy Wall in the void. “ Darling, let’s have a match. Let’s see if your Three Treasures Integration is better than mine.” “Calm down.” Thea seemed to know what James wanted to do. She pulled him.

‘To activate the tribulation, the Five Path Emperors needed energy. I don’t believe that the tribulation can go on forever.

“Once the tribulation stops, we will have a chance. By then, we can deal with them.”

“I’m afraid that the matter isn’t that simple.” Suddenly, from the void far away, Marcus and Mical rushed over.

The two were severely injured. They were covered in blood. Their hair was messy, but they still had their essence.

Upon seeing them, James showed a nice expression.

“Yin governor.” Marcus said respectfully, “Let’s get straight to the point.

“We realized that the Wuinfinite Formation and the formation that sealed us previously are similar. They can’t be broken.

“Not only can’t it be broken, but the power that traps US will grow stronger.”

Mical said in a low voice, “It is said that the Wuinfinite Formation is mysterious, but it isn’t only limited to this tribulation. If you enter it forcefully, you might activate something unexpected, such as illusions, dreams, and reincarnation.”

Upon hearing that, James narrowed his eyes. “Is there a method to solve it?”

“You need talismans,” Marcus said slowly, “Especially Waitara’s talismans.

Otherwise, even resisting will be in vain.” When James heard that, he snorted and pulled out the Jozo Sword. “What if I use this?”
