

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7031-Facing Yehria's curses, Xanthakos was so enraged that he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Then, he pointed at Yehria with a shaky hand and laughed. "Alright. You will suffer."

After that, he shot up to the sky but was stopped by the Sword Light James shot out.

"James, what do you mean by this?" Xanthakos asked angrily. "We have signed the soul contract."

"Since we've signed it, we should fulfill it." Enunciating each word, James said, "Let go of Morgott."

Upon hearing that, Xanthakos waved his hand. He withdrew the Nothingness

Dead Energy that trapped Morgot before disappearing from the Gate of Mystery.

It was only then that James turned around and looked at Yehria.

"W-What are you looking at?" Yehria panicked and asked, is this your first time seeing a beautiful woman?"

However, in the next second, James' expression changed. He carried Yehria and moved away.

Then, an amethyst-red spear passed by where James and Yehria were previously. It had terrifying Demonic Energy.

Returning to her senses, Yehria realized that she was in James' embrace. Her heart couldn't help but skip a beat.

On the other hand, James was frowning. He watched the amethyst-red Tyrant Spear that passed by turn into Morgott's figure.

Angrily, Morgott said, "You're ungrateful. Frona was so loyal to you, yet you abandoned her and teamed up with Xanthakos, a lunatic. You're evil. I was blind before this, so I will kill you today!" Then, Morgott waved the Tyrant Spear in his hand and rushed toward James.

In the void, a ray of black Sword Light flew by and began to fight against Morgott.

“Yianni is still alive,” exclaimed Yehria when she saw the black Sword Light fighting against Morgott.

It was only then that James noticed he was still hugging Yehria. She was warm, and her fragrance was intoxicating. It only lasted for a short while before he distanced himself from Yehria. He waved his hand and put her in the soul space.

In the next second, James pushed out his palm. A huge black dragon headed toward the Sword Light and Morgott’s spear while roaring.

The black dragon shook the area. Under the gush of strong wind, Yianni who had turned into a ray of Sword Light, and Morgott who was attacking with the Tyrant Spear were sucked into the wind.

Following James’ actions, the black dragon along with Yianni and Morgott were quickly thrown into the Nothingness Formation.

James sighed. Then, he took a few steps forward. Ignoring the wall of the Nothingness Formation, he walked into it.

Seeing that Morgott and Yianni still wanted to fight in the formation, James said angrily, “That’s enough. Don’t ruin the peace.”

Upon hearing that, Morgott glared at James with bloodshot eyes. “James, don’t think that I won’t kill you because you have someone backing you up. We are sworn enemies.”

Then, he jumped up into the sky. He hit the top of the Nothingness Formation and fell back down, before James. He was on all fours, making him look funny.

Upon seeing that, James facepalmed helplessly, thinking, ‘He’s so stubborn.’

Then, he said, “Hurry up and come out. He wants to risk his life because of you.”

Then, a transparent figure came out from James’ body. Lesia’s beautiful figure showed up. At this moment, Morgott who had just gotten up wanted to pierce James’ throat with the spear.

“Emperor Kaelisar, you’re an idiot.” The sudden voice stunned Morgott. The tip of the Tyrant Spear was less than an inch away from James’ throat.

Shocked, he turned around. When he saw Lesia, he looked as if he saw a ghost. “What’s the matter? Are you guys only friends on the surface?” With her hands behind her back, Lesia laughed. “It seems like you guys are fighting because of me.”

“N-No...” Morgott’s face twitched. “Frona, didn’t you commit suicide because James pressured you?”

“Yeah.” With a smile, Lesia nodded. “But I committed suicide with my second body. I’m still around.”

When Morgott heard that, he was so shocked that he almost dropped the Tyrant Spear.

James pinched the tip of the Tyrant Spear with his fingers. He played with it.

“Didn’t you die?” Morgott stared at Lesia. “Or have you reincarnated?”

“It can be said that I’ve reincarnated.” Lesia walked over to Morgott with a smile.

“I’m no longer my master’s second body. I’m the real me. I’m the cute Lesia.”

Then, she flicked Morgott’s forehead playfully.

Feeling the pain, Morgott returned to his senses. When he withdrew the Tyrant Spear, he screamed.

“You shocked me.” Lesia jumped.

Sadly, Morgott said, “M-My Tyrant Spear...” Lesia was taken aback. She raised her head and looked at the Tyrant spear in Morgott’s hand. She noticed that the tip of the spear had been pulled to become bigger. There were nine spikes on it, forming a nine-tooth rake.

“This weapon is quite unique.” Lesia’s eyes lit up as she hurried over to touch Morgott’s Tyrant Spear.

“Why did it become a rake?” Morgott was about to cry. Then, he turned around and glared at James.

However, James shrugged his hands innocently as if he didn’t do it.

“This weapon isn’t bad.” Suddenly, Yianni appeared beside James. With a smile, he said, “If Morgott’s nose and ears can be pulled to become longer, in addition to having two pig teeth, it will be perfect.”

Upon hearing that, James smiled as he looked at Yianni. “Have you remembered it too?”

“I’ve always remembered it.” Yianni laughed and said, “But he really does look like it.”

At that, James and Yianni laughed.

Seeing the two laughing suddenly, Lesia and Morgott were confused.

A while later, James wrapped his arm around Yianni's shoulders. "Mr. Yianni, we can now take action quietly."

Yianni smiled and nodded. "You managed to fool Xanthakos. As expected of you, the most outstanding living being in the human race."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7032-"Outstanding?" Suddenly, Morgott said with an unfriendly tone, "James, you're terrifying. You're more terrifying than Xanthakos and Waitara. I'm scared to be your friend. What if you sell me off without me knowing and I count the money for you?"

Upon hearing that, James and Yianni exchanged glances and laughed.

"Why are you laughing?" Angrily, Morgott shouted, "All of you are smart. Only I'm dumb. I deserved to be deceived and be a fool. Are we friends or M Before he could finish speaking, James waved his hand. A black energy bead appeared before Morgott. It exuded a rich Demonic Energy.

Morgott was taken aback. Then, he grabbed the energy bead. He liked it a lot as he played around with it excitedly.

"It's the Innate Demonic Bead. This is Hokuwn's greatest treasure. It's on par with the Three Treasures Integration." Then, he raised his head and looked at James. "Where did you get it?"

"Is this enough for the compensation?" James asked.

Excitedly, Morgott nodded. "It's definitely enough."

"Are we good then?" James rolled his eyes.

Morgott answered, "Of course."

James repeated the question in another language. At once, Morgott was bewildered. Lesia burst into laughter while clutching her stomach. Even Yianni smiled bitterly and shook his head.

Then, Morgott who was enraged because he was deceived instantly became James' servant and supporter. He spun around the latter and massaged him. He also praised him endlessly.

Nonetheless, about James' and Lesia's act, not only did Morgott want to know what happened, but Yianni was curious too.

Truthfully, it was all thanks to James entering the Zenthur Rank.

The Zenthur Rank was the most primitive, simple, and essential existence.

Everything was centered on letting nature take its course, which was the core of Daoism and transcended any cultivation.

Thus, as James' second body, Lesia was no longer useful. Besides, she was the Soremsia of the head of the Nine Caeloros Gods of Nothingness, Frona. So, she chose to kill her second body and return to the Soremsia of Frona. It was a natural process.

It was just that James and Lesia took this opportunity to set up an Enchantment Formation for Xanthakos and acted out an exciting act.

After hearing James' and Lesia's explanation, Morgott asked, confused, "What did you get from putting on this act? Aren't you still trapped in the Gate of Mystery?"

"You're seriously dumb." Lesia flicked Morgott's forehead again. "We gained a lot. There are three main benefits. Firstly, by putting up this act, Master ended the confrontation with Xanthakos and rescued you.

"Secondly, Master and Xanthakos signed a soul contract. For three entrapochs, Xanthakos can't attack all worlds and the Great Historial Land. Instead, he will return to the Fortieth Heaven and fight for dominance."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7033-"Thirdly, by using the soul contract, Master has gotten the Gate of Mystery and the most precious time," said Lesia."

At that, Morgott looked as if he had seen a ghost. "T-The Gate of Mystery?"

Then, he looked at James. "Are you ill? How can you get the Gate of Mystery?"

James rolled his eyes at Morgott. "I have even obtained the Innate Demonic Bead you need the most, let alone the Gate of Mystery."

Upon hearing that, Morgott was shocked.

He didn't expect that the Innate Demonic Bead he needed the most was stolen by James from Xanthakos.

James was truly courageous and good at coming up with plans. Besides, his intellect had surpassed his strength. He was commendable.

Slowly turning around, he pointed at the Nothingness Formation. "Lesia, our plan is almost perfect, but you're careless!" Lesia was taken aback. She looked at the formation James was pointing at. She immediately understood.

"You didn't withdraw the formation. You're careless!"

"We were almost exposed." James smiled and said, "Thankfully, Xanthakos was excited because you committed suicide. Then, he was angered by his illegitimate daughter, Yehria. Thus, he didn't notice this. But this is the most critical one."

Upon hearing that, Yianni quickly instructed, "Hurry up and withdraw the Nothingness Formation. Otherwise, Xanthakos could check the Gate of Mystery at any time."

"No need." James smiled and shook his head. "With the soul contract he signed with me, we can use the Gate of Mystery at any time we want within three entrapochs. If he asks about it, it means he has gone against the contract. We can kill him by then."

After hearing James' words, Yianni laughed and pointed at James. "You're smart."

"Let's not waste any more time." James stopped smiling. "Let's make our move now. The Gate of Mystery is the root of all worlds. It's where the cultivation resources of all worlds are located."

"You will gather the energy and I will refine it. Then, I'll provide it to you. You guys must empty all the energy, power, weapons and Supernatural Power in the Gate of Mystery."

Upon hearing that, Morgott couldn't help but take a sharp breath. "James, can you refine all the resources here?"

Enunciating each word, Yianni said, "The Zenthur Rank allows natural operation. Currently, James has a body that can refine all Paths and energies.

It's only a step away from the Wuia Body."

Then, James suddenly sat down in the void. He closed his eyes. Forty-nine black dragons circled him. The Three Treasures Integration made him, in the center of millions of light-years, be engulfed in three rays of light, black, white, and gray, that were rotating slowly.

In the Gate of Mystery, there were countless energy and power. They were absorbed at lightning speed, forming a halo one after another. Even when it had reached the millionth halo, they were still being absorbed.

At this moment, James was like the universe's most terrifying black hole. He could devour everything.

Upon seeing that, Morgott, Lesia and Yianni made a move. They headed toward the Gate of Mystery.

They needed to get everything in the Gate of Mystery and let James refine and absorb everything. Then, James would provide them with the energy and power they needed.

In other words, James had half the ability of a God of Creation. At least, in the Haleth Realm, he was invincible.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7034-The mountains were green; the water was clear; the sky was blue; and the clouds were white. The scenery was beautiful.

In the sky, countless flying beasts were flying around. They were roaring endlessly. Each flying beast had an exceptional Supernatural Power. They could change the world easily.

On the ground, there was a white mist. It engulfed countless plants and flowers.

Each plant was powerful and beautiful.

There had never been such a realm and beauty.

This place was one part of the legendary Forty-Ninth Heaven. The most beautiful and outstanding things of all worlds were here.

There were rich cultivation resources and beasts. At times, cultivators were walking in the sky, holding furnaces, preying, using Supernatural Powers, or having fun.

As it was the first time Thea came here, she was stunned by the sight.

Although she used to be the Yin governor, her activity scope was below the Thirty-Third Heaven. There was a clear distinction between black and white.

There would only be a gray passage that appeared at random times.

It was the first time she experienced such an orderly place.

"What fruit is that?" Thea who was looking around suddenly pointed at the huge fruit on a Hellebore Tree in the near distance.

Yiulia was taken aback. Then, she shook her head. 'That's the Wuia Spiritual Fruit. If one consumes the fruit, one's cultivation can increase by 100 thousand entrapochs.'

When Thea heard that, her eyes lit up.

"Don't go." Suddenly, Yiulia pulled Thea. "With your cultivation, you can kill the guardian beast. However, you will alert the lord of this world. She shouldn't be provoked."

Upon hearing that, Thea was doubtful. "Who's the lord of this world? Why is she more powerful than you?"

"It's Emperor Tapia." Yiulia took a deep breath. "She's a Nothingness God from the Xanadu Realm. Even Xanthakos has to respect her."

Thea was at a loss for words.

She thought that the Five Path Emperors were the strongest existence in the Forty-Ninth Heaven. She didn't expect a god more powerful than the Five Path Emperors to exist.

"Let's go. We need to get to the Wuia Palace as soon as possible." Yiulia urged, "Xanthakos' Natal Primordial Spirit is hidden inside. It's a key step in our plan."

After hearing that, Thea nodded. When she took a step forward, she seemed to have stepped on something. The entire area started to shake. The flying spirit beasts in the sky froze at this moment.

"Hurry up," shouted Yiulia anxiously.

"I-I seem to have stepped on something. I can't move," said Thea, confused.

Yiulia's face darkened. At once, she waved her hand. A ray of Bohnwer Light shone on the most below, showing the true appearance.

It was a turtle with a colorful body. To be exact, it wasn't a turtle. It was a monster that looked like a turtle but with wings, a long tail, and feelers on its head.

"It's Marius!" When Yiulia saw that, she was frightened.

"Marius?" Thea was confused. "Isn't it a turtle..."

Before she could finish speaking, Yiulia covered her mouth.

In the next second, the monster that Thea stepped on suddenly exuded purple light. Its tiny body began to expand quickly.

Thea and Yiulia hurriedly stepped backward. When they faced the monster that was still expanding, their faces turned pale.

“What did you call me?” the monster questioned angrily.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7035-“Marius has just come to the Forty-Ninth Heaven. He’s immature. You can ignore him.” Yiulia flashed and blocked Thea behind her.

The huge monster chuckled. “Emperor Zdravko of the Five Path Emperors dares to sneak into our Wyrmscale Source. This is rare. Since you came uninvited, I won’t hold back.”

Then, the huge monster opened his mouth. A ray of purple light appeared. He engulfed Yiulia and Thea entirely.

In the purple light, Thea turned around and shot up to the sky. She sat on a large lotus.

At the same time, she activated the Three Treasures Integration. Behind her were countless lotuses. They bloomed at the same time. Countless illusionary hands appeared.

“Don’t move,” Yiulia quickly shouted, “We aren’t his opponents.”

It was a pity that she was too late. The monster roared angrily and blew a strong wind that couldn’t be resisted.

The strong wind caught Yiulia off guard. She was blown away immediately.

Nonetheless, Thea reached out two illusionary hands and caught her.

In the next second, Thea waved her hands. Eighty-one sacred lotuses shot out and went against the strong wind.

There was a loud explosion. The strong wind shattered from the collision with the eighty-one sacred lotuses.

The aftershock spread quickly. It destroyed the beautiful scenery.

“Oh no.” In Thea’s embrace, Yiulia said dejectedly, “We can never go out.”

Thea wasn't as cowardly as Yiulia. After she crushed the strong wind, the illusionary hands that were formed by countless lotuses shot out. They headed toward the huge monster at lightning speed.

"It's the Heavenly Path. How interesting." The huge monster shook his body.

Countless feelers appeared. They wrapped around Thea's every illusionary hand.

Then, the large monster turned around. Thea and the lotus beneath her were pulled up. They were thrown around in the void.

Upon seeing that, Thea snorted. Her main self integrated with the Innate Black Lotus. She turned into the Bohnwer Light Sword and headed straight to the monster.

"No!" Yiulia shouted.

The Bohnwer Light Sword that Thea turned into had already penetrated the monster's outer layer of defense with great force. She pierced through the latter's body. There were splashes of blue blood.

With a loud sound, the monster stumbled a few steps backward.

Seeing the huge blue holes in his body, the monster was enraged. "You're strong. I have underestimated you."

The monster didn't move his body. However, countless feelers appeared. They headed toward the Sword Light formed by Thea. They surrounded her.

"No!" Yiulia quickly shouted, "Marius, she's the Yin governor."

Marius said, "Even if Xanthanos is here, it's not possible."

Then, the countless feelers around Thea tightened.

"She's the wife of James, the Chosen One." Yiulia roared, "If you hurt her, James will kill you."

Her words seemed to be useful. The countless feelers around Thea instantly froze.
