

The Almighty Dragon General

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7126-Thea declared proudly, “My husband is the Greater Realms’ hero. Soon, he will become the sole ruler of the Greater Realms. Anyone who has objections will be met with my blade!”

Her proclamation echoed through the void of the Wyrmscale Source, causing the Wyrmscale beings to bow their heads.

The other eight Spiritual Saints, who had drawn their weapons, exchanged uneasy glances.

Their arrogance and defiance had completely vanished, replaced by uncertainty and hesitation.

Lark shouted furiously, “Ha! The Greater Realm’s hero? I’ll destroy you, then crush your husband!”

He spread out his arms and was instantly surrounded by numerous dragons.

Their mighty roars instantly echoed throughout the area.

The next moment, Lark returned to his real form, a massive purple-golden dragon. Without any hesitation, he charged toward Thea.

He opened his bloody mouth, and smaller dragons emerged, heading straight for Thea.

Seeing how things had unfolded, Emperor Zdravko attempted to intervene.

However, Thea calmly picked one of the lotus from above her head, summoned a longsword, and charged at the dragons.

Boom!

Boom!

A series of loud explosions erupted, and the dragons were obliterated.

Their flesh and blood splattered from the void as the shockwave continued to spread.

Amid the carnage, a beautiful woman wielding a long sword emerged. She cleaved through the dragons and entered Lark’s dragon mouth.

Roar!!!

Lark soared into the sky, and his massive body, which spanned about tens of thousands of light-years, twisted in the void.

Suddenly, he rotated, causing a violent gush of wind. A torrential rain began to fall, and lightning bolts flashed.

“Haha! The Three Treasures is nothing special. Once you enter my stomach, you will perish.”

Lark laughed maniacally, and his colossal body soared through the sky, surrounded by ice, fire, water, and electricity.

It was a terrifying sight to behold.

The other eight Spiritual Saints nodded in approval of Lark’s strength.

“As expected of our leader. He could devour anything, including entire universes. How can the Yin governor hope to stand a chance against him?”

“She overestimated herself. Does she think we would believe her bluffs?”

“She is indeed beautiful, but it’s a pity that she’s a fool.”

“It’s not over yet. The Divine Marius appointed her as the Wrymscale Source’s young lady. Lark’s actions are a direct challenge of the Divine Marius’ authority.”

“Even though the Divine Marius controls the Wrymscale Source, we’re disciples of Emperor Tapia. We hold equal status as him.”

“That’s right. We can show respect and obey him. However, if he angers US, we can easily go our own ways.” “What are you suggesting? Have you all forgotten what Master had told US before he went into seclusion?”

“That’s unrelated. The Yin governor isn’t from the Wrymscale Source! We’re defending against invaders!”

Hearing their discussion, Emperor Zdravko, also in the void, was immediately enraged. “You fools! You’ve caused a huge disaster and still don’t realize your mistakes! Emperor Tapia will be furious when he returns.”

The Spiritual Saints turned their hostile glares toward Emperor Zdravko.

“What’s the meaning of this? Is this an act of rebellion?” The Divine Marius’ furious voice came from a distance.

The Spiritual Saints who were about to attack Emperor Zdravko immediately froze.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7127-The Divine Marius appeared beside Emperor Zdravko, his face dark with anger.

“You bunch of bastards, I can’t even focus on my argument because with you all around! Do you have any manners at all?”

After hearing his reprimand, the Spiritual Saints exchanged glances. Though they remained silent, they did not hide their dissatisfaction.

The Divine Marius put his hand behind his back and looked at Lark, who was still circling in the void. “I know your dragon form is powerful, Lark. There’s no need to show off. Spit the Yin governor out now, or I’ll rip off your scales.”

Lark snorted, “The Yin governor isn’t from the Wyrmscale Source. Yet, you gave her control over it. This is a violation of our rules. You’ve betrayed Emperor Tapia’s trust.”

The Divine Marius snorted, “Are you questioning me? It seems you’ve grown some guts and wish to rebel against me.”

Just as he was about to act, a dazzling lotus bloomed on the massive dragon’s body, hovering in the void. This unexpected sight shocked the Divine Marius, Taichu, Emperor Zdravko, and the other Spiritual Saints.

Lark shouted, “You’re the controller of the Wyrmscale Source, Divine Marius.

You should be more concerned with our welfare, not an outsider.”

The Divine Marius’ face twitched, but he remained silent.

At that moment, a second lotus bloomed on Lark’s body.

Taichi urged hurriedly, “No, don’t! Hurry and get your subordinate under control, old man!

The Yin governor has the intention to kill. She’s dangerous. Not only did she integrate the Three Treasures, but she also acquired the Nothingness Sword, the nemesis of Wyrmscale beings.

Realizing the gravity of the situation, the Divine Marius quickly waved his hands and shouted, “Don’t be rash, Yin governor. Though Lark is unruly, he is not truly evil. A little punishment will suffice.”

Thea, who was within Lark's stomach, remained silent. However, Lark laughed wildly at their words. "Nonsense, Divine Marius. Whether she is the Yin governor or Yang governor, even a Path Emperor won't be able to rescue her from my stomach."

"My stomach's environment is equivalent to the Five Path Emperor's Gates of the Supreme Path."

As soon as he finished speaking, numerous lotuses suddenly bloomed all over his massive body.

Lark realized something was amiss and immediately exclaimed, "What's happening? Why are there so many lotuses..."

Boom!

An explosion abruptly interrupted Lark. The lotuses covering his body detonated and instantly destroyed his body. Blood and flesh scattered from the blast as his agonized screams echoed throughout the area.

The Divine Marius rubbed his forehead in frustration and murmured, "It's over.

His true form had been destroyed."

Taichu closed her eyes and said, "His arrogance caused his downfall. He should not have provoked her. Does he not know how that invincible the Yin governor and her husband are in the Greater Realms?"

The void filled with explosions, and Lark's miserable screams echoed.

Emperor Zdravko and the eight Spiritual Saints were horrified, frozen in fear.

Soon, amidst the endless explosions, a beautiful figure emerged on a massive rotating lotus, glowing with sacred light and exuding a holy aura that commanded worship.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7128-The Divine Marius said regretfully, "It's fine to fight, but didn't you take it too far, Yin governor?"

Taichu sighed and commented, "You shouldn't have destroyed his true form.

Regardless, you're not the Wyrmscale Source's young lady..."

Thea slowly opened her eyes and interrupted, "Enough. You two should've seen what happened. They don't acknowledge or show me any respect as the Wyrmscale Source.

“Do they even respect you, the Divine Marius? They can even disregard the Wyrmscale Token’s divine order, so what’s the use of rules?”

“If they’re not convinced, then I’ll fight until they have no doubts.

“So, how shall we do this? Do you want to come at me one by one or all at once?”

Thea directed her gaze to the remaining eight Spiritual Saints.

The Spiritual Saints stepped backward in horror, afraid to utter a word or even breathe.

The Divine Marius was embarrassed by her words.

Taichu, who was standing beside him, suddenly burst out laughing. “Is that the subordinate you’ve picked? She’s quite entertaining.”

As if finally finding a target to vent his frustration, the Divine Marius snapped, “Shut up! I won’t forget you exist if you just stay silent for a moment.”

Taichu retorted, “You...”

Suddenly, a powerful roar interrupted their argument. “You think you can do as you please in the Wyrmscale Source? I’ll take you on!”

Accompanied by a gushing wind, a powerful force darted toward Thea.

Faced with the attack, Thea summoned a huge translucent barrier around herself.

Boom!

The raging force struck the barrier, splashing water everywhere and drenching the Wyrmscale Source in heavy rain.

The scattered water suddenly transformed into countless lightning bolts and flames, completely enveloping the translucent barrier.

After a while, Thea finally moved. She stretched her arms, and several lotuses formed another barrier to resist the fire and lightning attacks.

Gradually, Thea’s forehead was drenched with sweat, and her calm demeanor was gone.

At that moment, she acknowledged that her opponent was a transcendent powerhouse and that it would be difficult to withstand the attacks.

Thea pondered, 'Who is he?' At that moment, Divine Marius, Taichu, and Emperor Zdravko were astonished and held their breath in surprise.

The eight Spiritual Saints immediately knelt and bowed in reverence as if catching hold of their lifeline.

"How can someone like you withstand my Thunderflame Wrath? Kneel and apologize, then I might consider sparing your life."

A powerful voice came from the void, sending chills down everyone's spine.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7129-Seeing Thea enduring the flames and lightning with a pained expression, the Divine Marius suddenly grew anxious.

Emperor Zdravko asked, "Who is he? Why have I never seen him before? He doesn't look like Emperor Tapia, nor any great deity of Haleth Realm.

The Divine Marius slowly closed his eyes and replied, "He is the Wyrmscale Source, Gryphon Lorensen."

Upon hearing the name, Emperor Zdravko's expression changed dramatically, and his eyes filled with fear. He immediately asked, "Do you mean Sir Gryphone, one of the three Great Holiness of the Haleth Realm, a transcendent being on par with the Waitara Path and Emperor Tapia?"

The Divine Marius sighed lightly and nodded slowly.

Emperor looked at Thea, who was being tormented by fire and lightning, then said, "We're in trouble. Even James might not be able to save her."

The Divine Marius opened his eyes and said, "We must save her! Otherwise, how will I explain this to James?"

After speaking, his body released a dazzling light, and he instantly transformed into a purple-gold beast. His tentacles reached out to the flames and lightning surrounding Thea, then began shoving them into his mouth.

Thea suddenly raised her head and shouted, "You're not a match against him!

Leave!"

The Divine Marius, revealing his true form, ignored her plea and continued to devour the flames and lightning.

At that moment, a majestic voice echoed from the void. "You're so insolent, Marius!"

As the voice faded, countless flames and lightning from the surrounding void hurtled toward Thea with greater intensity.

After consuming the last flames, Marius spread his entire massive body into the shape of a hand fan to shield her from the attacks.

Each lightning strike inflicted deep wounds on his colossal form, exposing bone.

As flames closed in, his scorched flesh hissed and emitted ominous white smoke.

Under the onslaught of relentless lightning and flames, Marius' body became increasingly engulfed by the inferno and electrical fury. Soon, his body was nearly completely burnt. Yet, despite the overwhelming assault, he remained steadfast in shielding Thea, showing no sign of retreat.

"Divine Marius!" Thea cried, tears streaming down her face, attempting to break free from his protection, only to find herself immobilized.

At that moment, a graceful figure rushed forward, appearing atop Divine Marius' massive shoulders.

"He's my man! I'm the only one who can hurt him! Others, begone!" With a commanding growl, Taichu extended his hand and unleashed a stream of dazzling lights to form protective barriers to block the barrage of lightning and fire.

Marius protested, "Why are you meddling, you foolish woman? Get out of here! I don't appreciate your help!"

Taichu snorted, "Who's asking for your appreciation? You're overthinking it. I'm doing this for the sake of my beloved Yin governor, not you."

Marius insisted, "Leave..." Before he could finish, another figure wielding a scepter dashed over and took position on his other shoulder. He immediately cast colorful lights around them to defend against the lightning and fire.

Marius shouted with a quivering voice, "Are you also bent on adding to the chaos, Zdravko?"

Zdravko asserted, "I'm not causing any trouble. I simply can't bear to see the Yin governor in pain."

After speaking, he pointed his hand, and a brilliant purple-gold gate materialized. A powerful Innate Energy instantly emerged and surrounded Zdravko.

Marius said helplessly, "If you hadn't intervened, perhaps I could have persuaded him to stop. But now..."

A potent voice instantly erupted from the void.

"The Gate of Creation? Impressive. However, the Five Path Emperors aren't enough to stand against me. Even if Lord Goyo or Xanthakos shows up, they won't be able to interfere with the Wyrmscale's affairs."

As the voice trailed off, a spectral hand appeared in the void and descended to the Gate of Creation."

"Destroy!" His commanding voice resounded, and the spectral hand reached into the gate and grabbed a bead.

The next moment, the Gate of Creation disappeared.

Zdravko spat out blood and tumbled from Marius' shoulder.

"Lyla!" Thea shouted anxiously. The next moment, her body emitted a dazzling purple-red glow and pierced through the barriers.

Marius, Taichu, and everyone else gasped as Thea underwent a drastic transformation within the purple-red light.

Taichu exclaimed anxiously, "She might succumb to a corrupted path." Marius shook his head and protested, "No! You mustn't, Yin governor..."

Unfortunately, it was already too late.

After being corrupted, Thea effortlessly summoned several purple-black lotuses and obliterated the flames and lightning.

The Wyrmscale Source trembled violently as the explosions occurred consecutively.

Amidst the turbulence, the mysterious that had been lurking in the shadows finally revealed himself amidst a swirl of gray mist.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7130-Witnessing this spectacle, the Divine Marius widened his eyes in shock. Taichu, who was perched on his massive shoulder, mirrored his expression.

Thea paid no heed to anything else as she made a beeline for Emperor Zdravko.

The mysterious figure suddenly chuckled, "You're a survivor of eighty-one reincarnations, and your resilience is indeed commendable, Yin governor. But today, whether it's you revealing your true self or succumbing to the demon within, your fate is sealed.

"Nobody who disrespected the Wrymscale Source can leave unscathed."

Gryphone waved his hand, and a torrent of stormy waves and planets surged forth.

Even beings as mighty as the Divine Marius and Taichu were instantly overwhelmed by this formidable assault.

In the void where Thea stood, a thunderous explosion erupted and caused a shockwave to spread.

The reverberations of the explosion razed everything within the Wrymscale Source to rubble, even knocking the eight Spiritual Saints away.

"The Wrymscale Source stands apart from the outside worlds. Whoever provokes US, regardless of their identities, shall perish." The commanding voice reverberated throughout the void, instilling fear and awe in all who heard it.

Gryphon emerged like a titan from the void, exuding an aura of invincibility as he strode forward with the demeanor of a victor.

He approached Thea's position and then surveyed the debris-laden sky. After taking a deep breath, he said, "Your conflict has nothing to do with the Wrymscale Source. Do not tarnish this place's sanctity. Your husband may have some skill, but he is not invincible within the Greater Realms."

As his words trailed off, a faint crackling echoed from the dust below.

Gryphon frowned and said, "I know you're immortal, but if you continue being so persistent, I'll have to split you into eighty-one pieces to prevent you from causing more chaos."

However, only silence answered him.

Gryphon shook his head in frustration and said, "Sigh. If it weren't for my promise to Tapia to never leave this place, I would love to meet your arrogant husband."

Suddenly, a cold voice came from beneath him. "To meet my husband, you'll have to kill me first."

In an instant, accompanied by a resounding blast, a surge of magical light soared upward, its potency forcing Gryphon to retreat.

Gryphon raised his head and saw a radiant figure cradling the unconscious Zdravko. She peered down at Gryphon with disdain as though he were a mere insect beneath her contempt.

“Very well, Yin governor. Since it’s death you seek, I shall fulfill your wish,” Gryphon seethed with fury. With a casual gesture, he unleashed a violent wind toward Thea.

Thea quickly teleported the unconscious Zdravko into her spatial storage, then transformed into a dazzling Sword Light to meet Gryphon’s attack straight-on.

A loud clash ensued as the Sword Light clashed with the violent winds, each blow shaking their surroundings.

“Close Combat? My favorite.” Gryphon declared with a grin as he engaged with Thea’s Sword Light.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7131-The afterimages of the two figures intertwined as the light flashed around them, their collision so intense it seemed to shake the surroundings, creating a spectacular display.

Thea practiced both long-range and close-quarters combat. Her husband, James, also influenced her hand-to-hand combat skills, which sharpened her skills even more.

Gryphon, one of the three Great Holiness, effortlessly matched Thea’s fierce attacks with a perfect blend of offense and defense.

Meanwhile, the Divine Marius, having regained his human form, stood amidst the ruins. He watched the battle unfold in the sky with shock. Taichu, beside him, also focused intently, not wanting to miss a single moment of the fight.

Marius gasped, “After being corrupted, the Yin governor’s Three Treasures reached its peak. She also has Silver’s full inheritance. She’s ready to go all out in this battle.”

Taichu sighed, “This will be tough. Gryphon is as powerful as the Waitara Path.

Even if the Yin governor and James join forces, they may not be able to defeat him.”

Marius frowned, glared at Taichu, and said, “It’s your fault. Why did you intervene? I could’ve handled it. Now that Gryphon is determined to fight, nobody but Emperor Tapia can stop him.”

To Marius’ surprise, Taichu simply met with his gaze and did not argue.

Suddenly, thunder rumbled in the void, and Thea was struck by eighty-one massive lightning bolts and was sent flying. Gryphon swiftly followed after her and hit her ten thousand times.

Boom!

With a loud crash, Thea slammed into the Wrymscale Source's ruins and spat out a mouthful of blood. Her body was battered and bloodied after the collision.

"The Yin governor," Marius rushed forward, and Taichu followed closely behind.

However, Thea immediately stopped them.

Gryphon shouted arrogantly, "Kneel and apologize, Yin governor. I will consider sparing your life. If you resist, you will lose your chance to reincarnate."

Despite several threats, the injured Thea sneered with defiance. 'Kneel and apologize?' To her, it would be a great humiliation. She was the woman of the Greater Realms' Emperor, James. It would be a blow to James' dignity to kneel before another man.

Marius shouted, "You're one of the Haleth Realms' three Great Holiness. How can you bully a junior..."

"Presumptuous," Gryphon interrupted, waving his hand to summon a violent wind to knock Marius and Taichu away.

Gryphon declared coldly, "It's your last chance, Yin governor. After this, your husband must kneel and apologize for you."

Thea looked up at the arrogant Gryphon and said smilingly, "You'd be a fool to think he would kneel before you."

Gryphon roared, "Arrogant! Then, you shall kneel..."

Just as he attacked Thea, a terrifying purple-gold Sword Light pierced through the void.

Boom!

With a resounding explosion, Gryphon's attack was neutralized.
