

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7241 - 7250

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7241-James stared at the Waitara Path's soul spirit and said, "Your Historial Daoism has a fundamental principle. It insists that everything must be respected in human form. Only when creatures evolve from their original forms into human forms do they qualify to seek Daoism.

"And even Alcide beings must transform into human form to be recognized and deified."

The Waitara Path's soul spirit retorted, "What's wrong with that? They're just masses of energy or some kind of beast. That's not the Haleth Realm I envisioned as it would be no different from the Xanadu Realm."

James asked, "What exactly is your vision?"

The Waitara Path's soul spirit said hesitantly, "Well..."

James scoffed, "You haven't thought about it, huh? From the beginning, you never really considered what kind of world you want to create with the Historial Daoism.

"You created the Historial Daoism to escape the Forty-Nine Daoisms' control. It's just a strategy for you to have complete dominance over the Haleth Realm.

"That's the true essence of the Forty-Nine Derivation Paths and leaving one behind. You are that one who is left behind."

"Nonsense!" The Waitara Path's soul spirit had a baffled expression.

James sneered, "Is that so? Then why is it necessary for all beings to achieve a human form to come close to Daoism?

"Yet when it comes to Historial beings and humans, who should have every right to seek Daoism, we struggle and are faced with insurmountable challenges?"

The Waitara Path's soul spirit stammered, "That's because...because..."

James squinted and stated, "In the Historial Daoism, humans are regarded as cunning beings with endless desires and are controlled by emotions, hence are unqualified to seek Daoism. Our life cycle has been destined for us. We're bom into existence and go through aging and sickness, which ultimately leads US to death and reincarnation.

"In rare cases, humans somehow manage to embark on the path of cultivation.

But, we're required to sever our emotions, desires, and all ties of our past selves."

The Waitara Path's soul spirit frowned but could not retort.

James further accused, 'There can only be one explanation. You decided to escape the Forty-Nine Daoism a long time ago but knew the Nine Caeloros Gods of Nothingness would intervene after discovering your plan.

'To prevent them from getting in the way, you secretly created the Historial Daoism and created the first Historial being. Then, you used the Haleth Realm's natural evolution to spread your Historial Daoism. By doing so, humans became highly respected and it helped hide the first Historial being you had created.

The Nine Caeloros Gods of Nothingness's Forty-Nine Daoism did not accept the Historial Daoism. Hence, you consumed them one after the other and turned them into the forty-nine cauldrons in the Wuia Palace.

"It's forty-eight," the Waitara Path's soul spirit interrupted angrily. "Also, this is nonsense!"

James facepalmed and said, "Oh, right! I forgot the God of Virtue, Emperor Yevgen. It's unfortunate he has already lost the power to control the Haleth Realm's virtue and has become a mere servant for Xanthakos

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7242-The Waitara Path's soul spirit fell silent.

James condemned, 'You're well aware that once you succeed, even if the Nine Caeloros Gods of Nothingness discovered your scheme, it would be too late.

They wouldn't be able to hold you accountable because they can no longer modify or reclaim the Haleth Realm.

"However, the Nine Caeloros Gods of Nothingness still took action.

"They first had Emperor Yarden separate Great Historial Land from the Greater Realms you control, and then used Emperor Harlan's Hokuwn to break away from the Haleth Realm.

"From then on, the Haleth Realm was divided into three forces, each operating independently."

The Waitara Path's soul spirit slowly clenched his fists, and his anger showed on his face.

Clearly, James had struck a nerve.

James deduced, "I'm guessing it was a warning from the Nine Caeloros Gods of Nothingness. Instead of reflecting on your mistakes and correcting them, you destroyed Hokuwn.

“That’s why Morgott later attacked the Forty-Ninth Heaven to challenge your authority.”

The Waitara Path’s soul spirit took a deep breath and asked, it seems you have a thorough understanding of the Haleth Realm. Well then, let me ask you a question. If you were in my position, would you just sit and wait for death? Or would you fight back to survive?

“I’ve been to the Xanadu Realm’s Void World more than once to discuss the evolution of Historial beings in the Haleth Realm with the Nine Caeloros Gods of Nothingness.

“However, they remained stubborn and arrogant. What other choice did I have?”

Faced with the question, James took a deep breath and answered, “I never said you were in the wrong. On the contrary, I admire your courage and passion.

Why else would I be commenting on your actions?”

The Waitara Path’s soul spirit countered, ‘Then why does it sound like you are blaming me?’

James replied bluntly, “Because of your later actions. I am also a Historial being that you created.”

The Waitara Path’s soul spirit was stunned.

James elaborated, ‘You created Historial beings. Logically as a Historial being, I should be grateful to you and regard you as my faith.

“But out of fear that your Soremsia would be impersonated or killed by other Historial beings, you deliberately suppressed US to the bottom of the power hierarchy when you made the Historial Daoism.

“Our lifespan was less than a hundred years, and we had to experience aging, sickness, and death. On top of that, we are trapped by emotions and desires.

We go through ups and downs, joys and sorrows of the world.

Eventually, we are reincarnated and our memories are wiped out.

‘To ensure your Soremsia would return safely as you had planned, you prevented Historial beings from having the chance to embark on the path of cultivation.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7243-James squinted and said, “In short, you created US Historial beings, but you used us as sacrifices to cover your Soremsia. You never thought about US.

“Even if some Historial beings were talented and worked hard to cultivate, they walked a difficult path.”

After taking a deep breath, James added, “I was really lucky. Without my wife and Lesia, I wouldn’t be here now.”

The Waitara Path’s soul spirit closed his eyes, accepting James’ words. He never expected the very person to see through his plan was a Historial being, his very own creation.

Many other beings and entities had lived countless eons without grasping his plans.

After a long silence, the Waitara Path’s soul spirit sighed and asked, “So, you’re here for revenge on behalf of all Historial beings?”

James replied coldly, “I’m just here to seek justice. Since you created US, then we too are creatures of the Greater Realms.

“The Haleth Realm was created for mortals. After the Alcide beings were created, their mission was over.

“We may be grateful, and worship you, but we won’t allow you to control our destiny.”

The Waitara Path’s soul spirit nodded and sat down, acknowledging, “I see how it is. You’re saying anyone who tries to control your destiny is an enemy?”

James answered firmly, “Yes. That should answer your question, right?”

The Waitara Path’s soul spirit nodded and stated, “I must remind you, James.

Your Gate of Annonymous can’t trap me forever. When the Leere Tribulation strikes, it will be a life-and-death battle between US. There will be no going back.

“You want to oppose me, but you can’t stop the divine beings from worshiping and following me. That includes your family and friends. The Haleth Realm was derived from me.

“The wisest thing for you to do is kill my soul spirit. Perhaps it might delay things a bit...”

James interrupted, “You underestimate me. I could bring you here and reveal your plan without hesitation because I never intended to eliminate your soul spirit.

“I will wait for your return, and prove that the Historial beings that you’ve created are no less than you.

“The biggest difference between US is that I refuse to be a despicable being like you.

“Lastly, I must say that you’re insidious and crazy, unworthy of being the master of the Haleth Realm. In the Daoism I follow, natural cause and effect will take its course.”

After speaking, James disappeared from sight.

The Waitara Path’s soul spirit opened his eyes. He was an entity that evolved from the Forty-Nine Daoisms and was the creator of the Haleth Realm. For the first time, he had an expression of fear and anxiousness.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7244-Meanwhile, in the Goyoan Temple’s ruins, as the soul of the Waitara Path appeared and then suddenly vanished, it attracted many great gods and divine beings from the Forty-Ninth Heaven. They gathered together, their presence creating an imposing scene.

Among them were not only emperors, path kings, and Holiness from all regions but also nearly all the powerhouses at the Daeclon Mahayana.

They represented over 80% of the Greater Realms’ core power and were undoubtedly loyal followers of the Waitara Path.

Upon their arrival, they demanded James hand over the Waitara Path’s Soremsia and threatened to launch a battle to protect him, leaving no room for negotiation.

With the advantage of numbers, they surrounded James’ staunch supporters, Lesia, Thea, Harper, Yianni, and Morgott, ready to fight to the death if necessary.

Though Thea and the others were outnumbered, they showed no fear and stood their ground against the hostile powerhouses.

Enraged, Morgott wanted to start a killing spree, but Lesia and Thea stopped him.

Amidst the tense situation, Taichu and the four Path Emperors acted strangely.

They neither gave orders to their subordinates nor defended James. Instead, they watched coldly, letting the situation unfold.

As the situation escalated to a point where a fight seemed imminent, several purple-gold lights flashed in the void. Shortly after, the Divine Marius, Xalvador, and Hankin arrived from the Goyo Daonus Realm.

Immediately, the Waitara Path’s defenders turned their accusations toward them.

“You’re Emperor Tapia’s representative to control the Greater Realms and are also a follower of the Waitara Daoism. Now that rebels are trying to overthrow the Waitara Daoism, and capture his Soremsia to steal the position of the Supreme Path, shouldn’t the Wyrmscale Source do something?”

"I agree! We know you've got a good relationship with Yehria, but this is the Haleth Realm's belief, tradition, and Daoism. You shouldn't involve personal emotions."

"James is attempting to defy the Waitara Path and undermine our beliefs!" "Enough talk! James must immediately hand over the Waitara Path's Soremsia.

otherwise, it'll be a bloodbath today!"

"He's just a lowly creature with the title of the Chosen One. It's wishful thinking for him to dream of becoming the Supreme Path.

"Whether he becomes the Supreme Path or not still depends on whether or not we accept him!"

"That's right! We don't acknowledge him!"

"We'll get back the Waitara Path's Soremsia, kill James, and return the position of the Supreme Path to its rightful owner."

"Kill James, and welcome back the Waitara Path!"

"Kill James, and welcome back the Waitara Path!"

"Kill James, and welcome back the Waitara Path!"

The crowd began to chant, their anger rising as they declared James as the Haleth Realm's enemy. At that moment, they were united in their desire to eliminate him.

Seeing this, Marius frowned and moved towards Thea and the others but was stopped by Xalvador.

"What are you doing?" Divine Marius questioned.

Xalvador sighed and answered, "Divine Marius, this is a crucial matter. You can't make a rash decision."

Marius stared at Xalvador and snarled, "Do you believe my master wants to steal the position of the Supreme Path too? Is the extent of the allegiance you have for my master?"

Xalvador released his hold with a complicated expression.

Then, Marius, accompanied by Hankin, stepped toward Thea's group.

A white-haired old man growled, "Are you siding with James and defying our Daoism, Divine Marius? If that's the case, then the Wyrmscale Source will also be declared enemies of the Haleth Realm."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7245-Faced with the divine beings' hostile gazes, Marius stood firmly beside Thea, his actions clearly stating his stance.

"What a shameless bunch. They're using the Waitara Path's Soremsia's return as an excuse because they're too afraid to directly invade the Taiyi Daonus Realm."

Thea's voice resounded throughout the void.

Harper chipped in, "We all know who orchestrated this farce. The real question is whether or not he has the courage to admit it."

Morgott roared, "Garbage! Everyone knows the Waitara Path has been gone for years. Using his return is just a cover-up for cowardice. Yet, you all have the nerve to be acting like righteous followers?"

Yianni snorted, "That's the nature of these divine beings. They're so used to their words being the absolute law. Overtime, they even believe in their own lies."

A few divine beings were infuriated and were eager to fight, while some others lowered their heads in silence.

Pierrette soared into the sky and hissed, "Nonsense! We sensed the Waitara Path's aura just now. How could he suddenly disappear? Besides James, who else could hide the Waitara Path's Soremsia?"

Her words instantly stirred up the crowd, causing them to grumble angrily.

Thea turned to Goyo and questioned, "Do you stand by your disciple's words as well?"

Startled, Goyo raised his head with a grim expression. He immediately reprimanded, "Pierrette! Don't speak of things that have not been confirmed" Pierrette interrupted, "We're Alcide beings, Master! They can't sense the Waitara Path, but we can! Everything I said is true!"

Thea snorted, "As if I'm not an Alcide being?"

Pierrette retorted, "You are, but a lowly one! You've lost your faith in the Waitara Daoism and have fallen to the level of siding with a mere mortal..."

Swoosh!

A purple-red spear shot through the air, instantly penetrating Pierrette's body.

Shortly after, Pierrette's body exploded. The gruesome scene of blood and flesh splattering happened in the blink of an eye.

"Anyone want to try to insult her again? Don't think that just because James isn't here nobody will stand up for her." Morgott's hostile voice cut through the air.

After realizing the situation, the divine beings present were furious.

"What are you waiting for? Don't you all want to fight? Bring it on! Today, I'll kill all of you high and mighty Alcide beings and show you what real fear is!"

Morgott shouted, and his entire body erupted with a terrifying purple- red light.

His spear flew back into his hand and hummed menacingly.

The divine beings that were enraged charged toward Morgott.

Taichu, who had been hesitant, hurriedly shouted, "Stop! Calm down!"

Unfortunately, her effort to stop the fight was in vain. A large group of powerhouses had already launched frenzied attacks on Thea and James' other supporters.

Cosimeon shouted anxiously, "What are you all doing?!! Stop the fight!"

Compared to their urgency, Goyo and Stavros were rather calm. They exchanged glances, and strange smiles immediately formed on their faces.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7246-A fierce battle erupted above the Goyoan Temple's ruins. The divine beings unleashed powerful attacks across the sky.

Thea and her companions, though besieged, fought back ferociously, wiping out numerous powerhouses at the Daeclon Mahayana.

Though their cultivation was inferior to that of the Forty-Ninth Heaven's divine beings, they were much stronger thanks to being blessed by James' Anonymous Gas.

Morgott, once known as a terrifying and notorious demon, unleashed his fury.

With just the strength of his Demonic Body, he devoured over a hundred Alcide beings, instilling fear among the divine beings and making them hesitant to approach him.

Thea, harnessing the power of the Three Treasures and the Silver's inheritance, faced the relentless siege. More than a dozen emperors and tens of thousands of powerhouses targeted her, but she moved effortlessly among them, creating a bloody storm with every strike.

Harper and Yianni fought side by side, their combined skills repelling all attacks from the northern side. Their synergy allowed them to kill several emperors and countless Alcide beings.

To the south, Marius and Hankin also formed a powerful alliance. Their combined strength decimated tens of thousands of the Waitara Path's followers.

The battlefield was littered with numerous souls and dissipating energy.

Amid the chaos, Taichu and Cosimeon watched anxiously from the ruins. They wanted to intervene but feared exacerbating the situation. The sight of their disciples and students in peril was torturous.

Goyo and Stavros' initial gloating turned to worry as they saw the ferocity of James' comrades.

Stavros warned Goyo, "If this continues, our elite disciples and subordinates will be slaughtered. Moreover, James hasn't shown up yet." Goyo replied, "You should intervene! If we can capture the Yin governor, James won't be able to turn the tide."

Stavros glared at Goyo and snapped, "There's no time. The Yin governor is only second to James. You must take action."

Resigned, Goyo spread his arms and unleashed a terrifying aura throughout the battlefield.

The divine beings paused, their expressions turning to shock.

The aura quickly enveloped everything, including Thea and her companions.

Lesia warned, "Goyo has taken action. Everyone be careful!"

As she spoke, a dazzling black and white light surged forth and created a formation around them. The next moment, Goyo's aura formed into Sword Energies and crashed into the formation, causing loud explosions.

Goyo's face changed drastically as he questioned, "The Nothingness Formation? Whose Soremsia are you?"

Stavros stood aside with a deep frown.

Meanwhile, Cosimeon hurriedly restrained Yulia and Taichu. "Don't move. Goyo has entered the battlefield."

Yulia and Taichu exchanged a glance, their faces mirroring their astonishment.

At the top of the Nothingness Formation, Lesia emerged from the black- and white light, her presence commanding attention. She immediately questioned, "Don't you recognize me, Hampton?"

Goyo's expression shifted from shock to utter disbelief as he pointed at her. 3

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7247-"You... you're the head of the Nothingness God, Frona! The revelation sent a wave of shock through the divine beings. Cosimeon immediately knelt, followed by Taichu and Yulia, too terrified to lift their heads.

Stavros hesitated, his cheeks twitching as he was about to kneel, only to be stopped by Goyo.

Goyo sneered, "She is just Frona's Soremsia. Is she worth kneeling to?"

Stavros frowned but slowly stood upright again, while Cosimeon, Yulia, and Taichu remained kneeling, glancing at each other in confusion.

Goyo snarled, "So what if you're the head of the Nothingness Gods? You're nothing special, Frona.

"This is the Haleth Realm, which was created by the Waitara Path. You're insignificant here."

Lesia responded with a calm smile, "Did I sing any praises for myself? I'm just amazed at how clumsy your plan is. If the Waitara Path's subordinates are as foolish as you, his Daoism is really disappointing."

Goyo raged, "You..."

Lesia interrupted, saying firmly, "If you're that scared of confronting Taiyi, you should've waited till we attacked. If you betrayed US then, you might have been able to save some of the Alcide beings.

"Yet, you chose to use the Waitara Path's return to incite everyone to turn against my master. You made a foolish decision, granting the extermination of all your subordinates. Do you have a wish for your kind to be completely wiped out?"

Goyo laughed, "Wiped out? Do you really think James is omnipotent and invincible? The return of the Waitara Path's Soremsia is imminent. Once the Leere Tribulation strikes, even you as a Nothingness God will face doomsday!"

Lesia replied calmly, "I see. Your impatient and foolish actions were not just out of fear for Taiyi, but to also put on a show of loyalty to the Waitara Path. You want him to see that you haven't betrayed him and are still a faithful believer.

For this, you're willing to sacrifice all Alcide beings and the Forty-Ninth Heaven's powerhouses."

Goyo's face contorted with rage. "Enough! Do you think stalling until James returns will save you?

"Too bad, that won't happen! Disciples and followers of the Waitara Path, attack now! Capture James' wife and his confidants! After we succeed, we can retreat to the Taiyi Daonus Realm and await the Waitara Path's return! He will be crowned again, and our faith will be renewed!" With his command, tens of thousands of divine beings surged toward the Nothingness Formation with overwhelming momentum. Terrifying auras accompanied by planets, stars, and Sword Lights struck the formation from all directions.

Goyo raised his hand and unleashed an even more powerful aura toward the formation.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Consecutive explosions erupted, shattering the Nothingness Formation in an instant.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7248-"Pantheon Nexus, the Divinities Formation.

In an abrupt and overwhelming display, Goyo ascended into the sky. He assumed a cross-legged position and suddenly transformed into a massive 'path' word, descending rapidly from the sky.

Simultaneously, tens of thousands of powerful divine beings cast their most potent Supernatural Powers, sending their powers toward the 'path' word. Their combined forces instantly created an expansive and vibrant net that spanned across the entire area.

Thea and the others who had just emerged from the explosions were immediately met with the gigantic net. In just a short moment, they suffered severe wounds and coughed up blood as they were forced down by the net's terrifying pressure.

Goyo laughed triumphantly, "Haha! I originally prepared the Pantheon Nexus to deal with Xanthakos. Unexpectedly, I have to use it on you. Take it as an honor.

“Resist if you wish. The more you try, the stronger it will suppress you. It’ll only cause you greater pain and torment.”

Thea instantly deployed the Three Treasures Formation to protect her companions. She bore the full brunt of the Pantheon Nexus’s force to keep the rest safe.

At the same time, her other Anonymous main self exuded a terrifying Anonymous Gas to single-handedly resist the suppression of the ten thousand powerhouses.

Under the constant onslaught, Thea’s body was covered in wounds and her condition was worsening over time. Even so, she refused to retreat even a step.

She understood that although she had cultivated extra main selves like James, hers were much weaker in comparison.

With the dire situation, she had to sacrifice one of her main selves to protect everyone as relying on her Three Treasures alone was insufficient to withstand the Pantheon Nexus’ attacks.

Suddenly, another thunderous roar shook the sky.

A beam of light thundered down from the ‘path’ word, forcibly cleaving Thea’s Anonymous main self in half.

Nevertheless, Thea’s Anonymous main self did not retreat a step and continued to exert the Anonymous Gas to block most of the attacks.

Unfortunately, a small portion of the attacks seeped through its defenses and landed on the Three Treasures Formation. Thea’s face contorted in pain, and her body was soaked with blood after sustaining the impact.

Witnessing Thea suffer, her companions were overwhelmed with grief and were pained by her sacrifice.

Morgott shouted, “Disperse the formation and let US handle this, Thea! It’s our duty to be protecting you!”

Harper cried out, “Nobody has ever gained my respect in my life, but at this moment, I have nothing but admiration for you! But it’s more than enough.

Please stop and let US face this together.”

Marius wept, “Please disperse the formation and let US take over!”

Yianni yelled, "Don't be stubborn, Thea! We're not worth it. We can fight alongside you. It pains US more to see you hurt than US bearing it ourselves."

With a trembling voice, Hankin pressed, "You don't have to do this, Thea."

Retract the formation. We'll escape with our joint effort."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7249-Thea suddenly smiled through her pain and said, "What nonsense is that? We're not the ones in trouble. They're the ones who should be worried. My husband will be back after he deals with the Waltraud Power. Once he returns, these fools will be done for."

The group within the Three Treasures Formation exchanged determined glances.

Amidst the chaos, Lesia remained unusually calm. Unlike her comrades who cried out anxiously, she silently used her powers to aid Thea, channeling her energy to treat Thea's wounds.

Although Thea would sustain new injuries after an old one had healed, Lesia persisted.

In the past, Lesia had doubts about Thea. She thought Thea was all looks and unworthy of James' devotion. But now, Thea's actions shattered her prejudice and earned Lesia's admiration.

As the saying goes, a friend in need is a friend indeed. Thea's recklessness was not for herself, but for James, embodying the true spirit of unity and sacrifice.

After calming down, Harper shouted, "Why are we being so stupid? Everyone, let's channel our powers like Frona and help Thea resist the formation's attacks."

She immediately rushed over to Thea's side and assisted in maintaining the Three Treasures Formation.

Inspired, Morgott, Yianni, Marius, and Hankin followed suit, lending their powers to Thea.

With their combined efforts, Thea, who had been in great pain, felt a surge of warmth and unleashed a stronger Anonymous Gas.

Her other main self that was severed gradually mended, instantly turning the tide of the battle.

Outside the battlefield, Cosimeon, Taichu, and Yiulia anxiously watched the scene unfold.

Taichu clenched her fists in fury and grumbled, "Although Marius is annoying, he is still my husband. How can I let him be tortured and humiliated? Goyo, you bastard! You've overstepped!"

After expressing her dissatisfaction, Taichu transformed into a beam of light and charged at the Pantheon Nexus.

Yiulia was also unable to stand by idly any longer and quickly followed suit.

"What do I do?" Cosimeon paced around the ruins anxiously and mumbled, "But regardless of whether the Waitara Path returns, James has a Nothingness God supporting him. I must stand on his side."

After making a decision, Cosimeon transformed into a purple-gold light and rushed toward a few divine beings.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

A series of explosions erupted around the Pantheon Nexus. The powerhouses that were focused on sustaining the formation were caught off guard and suffered heavy casualties.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7250-Sensing the situation gradually shifting in his opponent's favor, Goyo shouted, "Taichu, Yiulia, Cosimeon! Are you three crazy?"

Taichu suddenly appeared and replied, "Damn right, I am! If you want to hurt my man, you'll have to get through me first!" Yiulia waved her hand, and a beam of light killed dozens of divine beings consecutively. Then she shouted coldly, "The Yin governor is my best friend. You want to kill her? Over my dead body!"

"I hope you understand my actions, Goyo. You've gone too far this time. Frona is the head of the Nothingness God. Her status is higher than the Waitara Path.

How could you blaspheme against her?"

Goyo was infuriated by their responses.

"Fine! Since you've decided to side with evil, we'll have no choice but to kill you three as well."

As he spoke, the 'path' word expanded and hovered above Taichu, Yiulia, and Cosimeon. The next moment, a dazzling light erupted from it and darted toward the trio.

Instantly, heart-wrenching screams and cries of pain resounded.

The divine beings that came in contact with the light were instantly blasted into pieces, and blood splattered throughout the area.

Meanwhile, Taichu, Yiulia, and Cosimeon resisted the potent attack.

Taichu snorted, "He's insane! He's even killing his own."

Yiulia agreed, "He's lost his mind. If the price to welcome back the Waitara Path is so great, it'd be better to abandon belief and Daoism."

Cosimeon added, "They don't even respect Frona, the head of the Nothingness God. What Daoism are they talking about? It's all for their own power."

While conversing, the trio appeared beside Thea's main self and took action simultaneously, casting a light barrier above her to block the Pantheon Nexus' attacks.

Yiulia hurriedly hugged Thea's injured body and asked anxiously, "Are you alright?"

Thea looked at her weakly but immediately smiled in relief.

"I knew you would intervene."

Yiulia rolled her eyes and said, "You know me the best. Hurry, you should enter my Gate of Creation and leave the rest to US."

Thea shook her head and refused, "No. We must stay here and give them a false hope of victory. Then, my husband will return and kill them, eliminating a lot of future threats at once."

Yiulia took a deep breath. At that moment, she understood why she was not a match against Thea. She could not have the same connection and understanding with James as Thea did.

They were a couple that were synchronized and inseparable.

Meanwhile, Goyo was enraged that the Pantheon Nexus' attacks were blocked by the light barrier. He immediately summoned a Path Cauldron and shouted, "Have a taste of the Celestial Purge Formation's power!"
