

The Almighty Dragon General

Chapter 7276-At this moment, in the red-gold light, James, who was demonized, activated all his Supernatural Powers. The Wuia Demon-Slayer Sword turned into nine pieces sometimes and turned from nine pieces into one. It constantly flew around. The Sword Light filled the sky, killing the Alcide beings.

Regardless of their cultivation ranks, regardless of their gender, they were instantly killed by the Wuia Demon-Slayer Sword. Their physical bodies and Ultimate Golden Bodies were completely destroyed. Even their souls were swept away by the Sword Lights. Their souls were scattered.

After countless waves of attack, the group of Alcide beings disappeared without even touching the corner of James' clothes.

Gradually, the Alcide beings that had survived began to retreat in fear. However, when they were about to flee in all directions, they were engulfed by the red gold light. They couldn't get out.

More importantly, the Sword Lights of the Wuia Demon-Slayer Sword expanded.

With every Sword Light flashing, an Alcide being would lose a head. Then, their souls would be scattered.

The group of Alcide beings had gradually changed from defending the Path and arrogantly attacking in groups to being in fear and waiting for death.

As the Alcide beings within the red-gold light gradually died, the ruins of the Goyoan Temple turned into mountains of corpses and seas of blood. There were broken limbs, internal organs, and fragments of Ultimate Golden Bodies everywhere. Countless souls were struggling weakly.

"We can't wait any longer." Suddenly, Taichu said, "We must take the opportunity to seal James first, otherwise, it will cause a greater catastrophe." As she spoke, she turned into a ball of black-and-white energy and entered the cauldron. The boundless black-and-white energy merged with Xabat's Path Cauldron quickly.

It also caused the three layers of black-and-white energy clouds that previously suppressed James to increase to eighty-one layers.

At the same time, based on these eighty-one layers of black-and-white energy clouds, the red-gold light that was spread by James was gradually sealed.

Seeing that the black-and-white energy was slowly solidifying, the divine beings and powerhouses became anxious.

"No, don't seal him," Yiulia choked out, "He didn't mean it." "Emperor Yiulia, calm down." Cosimeon hurriedly grabbed Yiulia. "If we don't seal him now, how can we buy time and find a way to eliminate the malevolent energy from him?" "That's right" Marius raised his head and sighed. "It's not like we can summon all the divine beings from the Forty-Ninth Heaven and let him kill them all to buy us some time, right?"

"What ideas do you have?" Yianni stared at Marius and clenched her fists. "Are you sure that Taichu's seal can seal him?" "I know you've gone through life and death with Master." Helplessly, Marius said, "But there is no other way now." "I've notified Taiyi and Emperor Tapia to come over to handle all this. Now, in all worlds, only they have the strength to help Master." Having said that, Marius looked at the black-and-white energy that was gradually sealed.

"It's just that i'm also worried about whether or not master can wait until they arrive. Once he completely loses his mind and is controlled by the malevolent energy, we will also die under the wuia Demon-Slayer sword "Are you afraid?" Morgott looked at Marius. "If you are, you should leave. I will protect my friend." Facing Morgott, who was stubborn, Marius wanted to say something but couldn't.

He used to be Febby. Although he , was mitakenly reborn as a woman, his relationship with James was much deeper than all the powerhouses present.

In this critical moment, how could he abandon James and run away?

At this time, in the formation, Lesia slowly got up. She wiped away her tears and said, "Everyone, I'm leaving. Take care." Upon hearing that, all the divine beings present were shocked. They looked at Lesia in astonishment.

"Are you leaving at this time?" Yiulia shouted angrily, "You're his second body!" I know." Lesia glanced at Yiulia. "Because I'm his second body, I know him best.

He used to be Febby. Although he , was mistakenly reborn as a woman, his relationship with James was much deeper than all the powerhouses present.

In this critical moment, how could he abandon James and run away?

At this time, in the formation, Lesia slowly got up. She wiped away her tears and said, "Everyone, I'm leaving. Take care." Upon hearing that, all the divine beings present were shocked. They looked at Lesia in astonishment.

"Are you leaving at this time?" Yiulia shouted angrily, "You're his second body!" I know." Lesia glanced at Yiulia. "Because I'm his second body, I know him best.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7277-"No matter Taiyi or Tapia, even if they come, they can't completely get rid of his Inner Demons. I have to give it a try myself." No one understood what Lesia said, but Cosimeon seemed to have understood.

He hurriedly got up and said, "I'm willing to go with you." "You aren't powerful enough," Lesia shook her head. "But it's rare that you have this thought." Then, she suddenly shot out two rays of amethyst-gold light. They flashed past Yiulia and Cosimeon.

Afterward, she rushed out of the formation without hesitation. She turned into an amethyst-gold light and left.

Yiulia and Cosimeon, who were engulfed in two beams of light, exchanged glances. They were shocked.

The two rays of light Lesia gave them only had a few words.

"Protect him and wait for me to come back. I don't trust anyone except you. If there's a mistake, I will escape into Nothingness Purgatory." These few words were more lethal than Cosimeon. It was because he knew whose Soremsia Lesia was.

However, Yiulia was angry at Lesia for finding an excuse to leave at this time.

At this moment, the black-and-white energy clouds created by Taichu and Xabat had already sealed most of the red-gold light that filled James' surroundings, leaving only one opening that was about to be sealed.

However, at this moment, a dazzling and terrifying red light suddenly shot out from the opening.

In the next second, the red light instantly turned into James' figure.

He was dressed in red and had red hair. He was like a monster in a purgatory that had experienced countless years of killing. He looked strange, evil, and terrifying. As soon as he appeared, the large formation that originally enveloped several divine beings and Powerhouses suddenly collapsed. Seeing this scene, the divine gods led by Marius were stunned.

“He’s coming for US,” exclaimed Cosimeon.

“James,” shouted Yianni immediately.

At this moment, she didn’t know whether she should be happy or terrified.

James wasn’t sealed, but he appeared in this state.

Then, he stretched out his arms. Countless terrifying red Sword Lights flew toward them.

“Oh no. James is going to kill US,” exclaimed Morgott.

The other divine beings had a change of expression at this time too.

Suddenly, there was a loud explosion. Countless red Sword Lights shot out by James collided with a ball of black-and-white energy, collapsing instantly. “The Inner Demon is really dangerous.” Suddenly, a woman’s voice sounded from the void.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7278-In the next second, above James, there were gray clouds and lightning bolts. It was as though there were thousands of soldiers and horses running. It was terrifying.

When they took a closer look, they realized that the gray clouds were formed by thousands of universes. It was just that because of the gray clouds, it looked boundless and oppressive.

With the sudden explosions, countless shining stars fell from the gray clouds, forming huge beams of light. Mixed with lightning, thunder, Yin and Yang energy as well as Innate Energy, a dense halo surrounded James, bombarding him continuously.

In an instant, the entire Forty-Ninth Heaven shook. All worlds were trembling too.

Upon seeing that, Marius and the other divine beings who had survived used all their Supernatural Powers to stabilize themselves.

James, who previously exuded red light, was devoured by countless light beams. It was as though he had no resistance.

“No, this isn’t Taiyi,” Yiulia suddenly shouted, “She’s not trying to save James.”

She's trying to kill him." Then, she turned into a ray of divine light and rushed out. Nonetheless, she was caught by Marius, who returned to his original form.

"Let go of me," roared Yiulia as she struggled.

"Yiulia, calm down," Marius shouted, "Of course, she isn't Taiyi. She's Emperor Tapia, my teacher." Upon hearing that, Harper and Yianni, who were about to rush out as well, were stunned.

Morgott suddenly turned around and cursed, "Marius, is she the divine being you called for help? She wants to kill James." Helplessly, Marius sighed. "My teacher has always done unexpected things, but I'm certain she won't kill Master. I can assure you that." His assurance was of no use.

Countless beams of light that were devouring James had become more dense it was obvious that they were going to completely destroy James' soul Yianni didn't say a word. Instead, she instantly turned into a light and rushed out.

But just when she was about to hit the periphery of countless light beams, she was instantly knocked away by a lightning bolt Harper, who then rushed out, was also struck by another purple lightning bolt.

They spat out a mouthful of blood. Harper looked at the countless light beams in shock.

Yianni, who was blown away, instantly exploded in the void and turned into a ball of dark energy.

"It turns out that you're the culprit of the Zenthur Rank." In the gray clouds, a woman's voice sounded.

In the next second, a large hand with gray energy shot out. It grabbed the dark energy formed by Yianni.

Another explosion sounded. The dark energy formed by Yianni suddenly exploded, collapsing together with the gray hand.

Then, a black light beam shot toward James and merged with him.

"Oh no!" the woman exclaimed.

After that, James, who had been motionless under the attacks of countless Light beams, suddenly opened his eyes. Two red lights shot out, slashing the countless huge light beams and rotating shining stars in front of him

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7279-A steady stream of explosions sounded. James, who opened his eyes, turned into a red Sword Light. He spun rapidly, shattering the light beams and stars around him.

Then, James, who was violent, soared into the sky. As a Sword Light, he went into the gray clouds and started a battle against Tapia.

In an instant, the shock wave spread in all directions. It instantly filled the entire Forty-Ninth Heaven.

Under such a powerful shock wave, both the Five Path Emperors and Taichu Temple were razed to the ground. Countless living beings collapsed and exploded under the shock wave. Their souls were scattered. There were countless casualties.

This made the Forty-Ninth Heaven, which had already been ravaged by the war, even more tragic.

After another round of shock waves, the Daonus Realms turned into ruins.

Countless divine beings and powerhouses were looking for places to hide.

Even the Taiyi Daonus Realm that didn't participate in this and the Taiyi Formation that no one had broken into before erupted with dazzling light. The defense power reached the extreme.

At this moment, in Taiyi Temple, the divine beings and disciples were panicking.

Even if they activated their Supernatural Powers, they couldn't stabilize themselves from the tremble.

In Jaert Region. Taiyi, who wore a white robe and had white hair, was sitting on a futon. She closed her eyes and let the shock waves attack the formation outside. Even though the wall cracked, she stayed indifferent.

It was because there was a beautiful figure lying before her. The person had long hair and was unconscious. It was as if she was dead.

It was Thea, who was severely injured. She had been in this state since she was brought back by Taiyi.

At this moment, the door on one side of the formation suddenly opened. A handsome man wearing a white robe hurriedly walked in.

"Master." He bowed to Taiyi and said. "James has gone insane. Emperor Tapia has appeared."

Upon hearing that, Taiyi kept her eyes shut. She remained indifferent.

The man in a white robe was taken aback. Then, he continued, "Wesley has been kneeling outside for an entrapoch. He refuses to listen to anyone and insists on you saving James."

Taiyi took a deep breath and said slowly, "This isn't a matter of saving James but a matter of all worlds saving themselves. We have all underestimated him. His return is by no means simple."

The man in a white robe nodded. "But he doesn't understand." "He understands," Taiyi said. "He just wants me to express my stance."

The man in a white robe was stunned. "Does that mean that Wesley wants you to support James and oppose Waitara?"

"Gillian, tell him this." Enunciating each word, Taiyi said, "I'm just an old Xyloria god i admire James, but it doesn't mean that I must support him. Regarding the disputes in the Haleth Realm, I shouldn't inter fere in the first place. In fact, I shouldn't even show up.

"I've agreed to save the Yin governor. It's the greatest respect I can give James.

Don't push it." The man in a white robe took a deep breath. "Master, James is a pitiful..." Before he could finish speaking, he noticed something off with Taiyi's expression. So, he hurriedly left.

"When someone is entrusted with great responsibility, one must first strain his mind, muscles, and bones. Then, orie needs to destroy one's body and skin as well as deplete his desires. How can it be as simple as stumbling?"

Then, a stream of Waltraud Power appeared before her. It then condensed into a charming and handsome young man wearing a black robe With one hand behind his back, he looked at Taiyi arrogantly He revealed an extremely evil smile.

At this moment, Taiyi opened her eyes She was shocked "Why are you here?" "Am I not supposed to come?" the handsome young man asked Taiyi sighed. "Is this your arrangement?" 'Since you've predicted it, you should come out and take action.' The handsome young man used a voice that didn't have any room for rejection 'You're the greatest protector.'

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 7280-Taiyi frowned. "I've never expressed any agreement or support for what you've done." "Do I need your support and consent?" The man snorted. "The only thing you have to do is respect the Daoism." Taiyi fell silent.

"We've prepared, endured, and struggled for such a long time," the man said in a deep voice. "Now is the perfect opportunity." Then, he looked at Taiyi again. Trona's Soremsia has returned. With her ability, there might be some twists and turns in crossing the Xyrisia Gate. I need you to help her..." "Waitara!" Taiyi shouted, "Protecting the Daoism isn't only protecting the Historial Daoism. It includes the Forty-Nine Daoisms of Nothingness. These are the foundations of the Haleth Realm.

"You and James signed a soul contract. There will be a battle three entrapochs later. However, you took advantage of this matter and made him reach the Five Spirits Integration. His Inner Demons gathered and exploded. Are these the actions of the Supreme Path?

"Don't forget that you're still respected and worshipped in the Haleth Realm.

You're still the ruler of the Haleth Realm. How could you go to great lengths to scheme against a living being despicably and cruelly? Aren't you afraid that the Haleth Realm will learn conspiracy and trickery from you?

"If that's the case, how can there be fairness, justice, effort, and perseverance in the Haleth Realm?" The last sentence was shouted by Taiyi.

At this level, there were very few things that made her care, let alone get angry.

But what happened in front of her really overturned her understanding and impression of Waitara. It also subverted the Daoism she wanted to protect in her heart.

With his hands behind his back, Waitara raised his head and smirked.

"After so many years, this is the second time you've spoken to me in this manner." "It was for the Historial beings last time. This time, it's for James." "Isn't James a historial being?" Taiyi retorted. "When you created the Historial Daoism, you were determined to hand over the Haleth Realm to the talented and virtuous historial beings. Now that James has appeared, why did you go against your previous motion?"

"Taiyi," Waitara's expression darkened. "You aren't me. You're just my natural derivative.

"You don't understand what I've been through. You don't understand how unfair it is to me that they modified the Forty-Nine Daoisms.

"Why can they dominate anything while I can't even make the decision in the Haleth Realm that I derived from myself?" "James is doing the same thing as you. Yet, how did you treat him?" Taiyi suddenly asked.

Waitara was at a loss for words.

“You suppressed and tortured him.

You made all kinds of conspiracies.” Enunciate each word, Taiyi said “You ever doubted the Daoism you create yourself. You don’t trust the historial beings you created yourself, let alone US, the divine beings derived naturally from you.

“Xanthakos was used by you. Goyo was used by you too. The trillions of Alcide beings in the Forty-Ninth?’ Heaven were the believers who truly protected you.

They could be sacrificed by you as well, “What about me? Am I a pawn for you to return to the Supreme Path?

“Waitara, let me ask you this. Since you were born into consciousness, who have you really trusted among all the living beings and divine beings?” After hearing Taiyi’s heart-wrenching remarks, Waitara clenched his fists. He was obviously on the verge of rage.

“Taiyi, are you going to rebel against me?” “It’s not too late to find your way back.” Taiyi stared at Waitara. “If you can really defeat James with your strength in two entrapochs, that’s your capability.”
