

Chapter 71 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

I had been meaning to give Alexa her office. It's the Luna's office. I thought maybe right now would be a good time. I could feel how nervous she was through the mate bond. She is afraid she will hurt someone, but I know she won't. I decided to give her some time to herself and maybe she will calm down a little. Someone knocking on the door pulled me out of my thoughts.

"Come in," I yelled.

"Sir, I have those bags of blood that you asked for." Said a nurse walking in.

"Thank you, you can place them right here," I told her, pointing to my desk.

"Sir I apologize if I am out of line but is everything ok? This is an odd request." Asked the nurse.

"Yes, everything is just fine," I told her.

She nodded and left the room. I needed to fill everyone in on what was going on and get things organized for our guests that were coming. I had two hours until our pack meeting and three hours until the Vampire King showed up. I grabbed the bags of blood and walked out of my office over to Alexa's. After I gave her these, I would bring in Mac and Liam and make them aware and then a group of Omegas to ready the rooms and also a private meeting with the group from the Elite Academy.

I knocked on Alexa's door and waited for her to come in, but I didn't hear it, so I knocked again. Still nothing.

"Princess, can I come in." I mind-linked her.

"No please don't, I don't know what will happen if you do." She linked back.

"What do you mean?" I asked her.

"I can literally hear your heart beating and the blood flowing through your veins and I want it and I don't know if I can control it." She said.

I knew she could, and I knew she wouldn't hurt me. I reached into my pocket and pulled out my key card. She didn't know but our cards unlocked each other's offices. I opened it and found

Alexa sitting in a corner with her knees pulled up to her chest. When she looked up at me her eyes were red instead of blue. She inhaled a deep breath and then moved so fast I didn't even see her until she was standing right in front of me.

"I told you not to come in." She said breathing hard.

"I know you won't hurt me," I told her back.

"You don't know how bad I want to sink my teeth into you right now. Your smell and the sound of the blood coursing through your body. It's the only thing I can think about." She said breathing even harder.

I didn't reply but I tilted my head to the side. If she wanted it, she could have. I would give her anything she wanted even if it was this. I had complete trust in her. She leaned forward and put her face in my neck and breathed in deeply again and let out a small hiss. She came even closer and ran her tongue over the vein in my neck. It sent shivers throughout my entire body.

"Princess, if you want my blood then take it. I am giving it to you." I told her.

She stepped back and took the blood bags out of my hand and then walked to the door and opened it.

"Please leave." She said as she opened the door.

"Please don't be mad at me," I said as I walked to the door.

She didn't say anything as I walked by. I wanted to give her a kiss, but I didn't want to upset her any further. I walked back to my office and sent a mind link to Mac and Liam to come to my office now. I went into my office and sat down and it wasn't long before those two were knocking on my door and coming in. They both came in and sat down in the chairs in front of me.

"What's up, boss?" Mac asked.

"Well I have some pretty big news and I am going to need your help with keeping the pack calm," I said.

"What's going on?" Liam asked and they were both giving me a questioning look.

"Well, Alexa is now part vampire," I said and both of them just sat there with their mouths open staring at me.

"What, how, I mean is she ok?" Mac said.

"She is now. That is why her body temperature was so high and she was in so much pain when we caught Robert," I explained.

"Holy, shit. I just don't even know what to say. Is she mentally ok? I mean that is a huge thing." Liam asked.

"She is coping. I have some other new stuff to discuss with you but for now, the news about Alexa stays between us. Liam that means no telling your mate." I told him.

"OK, sir."

"The Vampire King is coming and will be here in about three hours," I told them.

"The Vampire King?" Mac questioned me.

"Yes, he was at Julian's pack helping some of the people we rescued that transitioned and when I called Julian to let him know that we had captured Robert, he told me about the Vampire King who agreed to come here to help Alexa."

"OK, what do you need us to help with?" Liam asked.

"Get Omega's and have some rooms prepared for him and his group. We need three rooms ready. I will be announcing his arrival to the pack in an hour. I need you guys to stop any gossip from happening and to keep them calm afterward because I need to be with Alexa."

"Not a problem," Mac said.

They both got up and left my office. Leaving me alone in my office. I really wanted to check on Alexa but I knew she needed some more time.

"Grey, man you have been quiet through this. How are you doing and have you talked to Jade and Storm?" I mind-linked my wolf.

"Yes, they are fine. They are just trying to help her through this. She is struggling mentally, but the biggest issue she is having is she thinks she is going to hurt or kill someone she loves."

"She isn't going to do that. I know she isn't. I tried to let her feed off me. I know she wanted to but she refused."

"I know."

I cut my link and headed out of my office and went in search of the group from the Elite Academy. I needed to make them aware before our meeting. They aren't required to attend as they are not a part of our pack. Plus I wanted to know if they had information about the Vampire King. I was walking through the dining hall when I saw Joe.

"Hey Joe, I need to speak with you?" I hollared across the room so I could get his attention. It worked because he came jogging over to me.

"Alpha sir, how can I help you?" He asked.

"I need to have a meeting with you and everyone else that is here from the Elite Acadamey. Can you link them and tell them to meet me in the conferance room ten minutes and it is mandatory."

"Yes, sir we will all be there."

I walked into the kitchen to get something to eat real fast and then head to the conferance room. I found the fridge was stocked with some ready to go sandwhiches and chips. I grabbed some of those and inhaled them and then downed some water and headed down to the conferance room. They started filing in right after me. Alexa's friend Emma came in and came right over to me.

"Alpha sir, is Alexa ok? I haven't seen her and I am worried about her." She asked me.

"Yes, she is. She should be around tomorrow." I told her. She got a sad look on her face and walked to the table and sat down. After a few minutes they were all here.

"Thanks for getting here so fast. We have a pack meeting here soon and well you guys are not required to attend but I wanted to make sure that you heard this from me and not gossip because I promise there is going to be gossip." I stopped for just a minute to make sure no one had anything to say.

"The Vampire King will be here in a few hours. He is coming because some of the people that we rescued went through transition and are now vampires. Alpha Julian somehow knew him and he came to collect the new vampires and he wants to have a chat with Robert, so he is coming here."

"Thank you for letting us know. We will still attend the meeting, if that is ok sir." Joe said.

"Of course." I said.

"Is there anything else sir?" Joe asked again.

"No, you can all go." I said and they all got up and left.

"Princess, can I come see you now?" I mind linked her.

"Yes, I am still in my office." She linked back.

I got up and literally ran all the way to her office and tried to open the door but it was locked. I pulled the key card out and opened it up. She was sitting on the couch that was in there. I took long strides to her and sat down beside her and pulled her into my lap.

"Princess are doing ok? I am worried about you?"

She didn't answer me but she started kissing my neck moving up to my lips and as soon as they touched it felt like fireworks going off. It had been a while since we were able to be alone like this and I wasn't going to turn her down. She moved her body so she was straddling my lap. I ran my hands up her shirt and started to massage her breast over her bra.

"Princess, way to many clothes." I panted out.

She reached down and pulled her shirt off and I reached behind her and undid her bra throwing it to the floor. I brought my mouth up to a nipple and started to lick and nibble on it and I was rolling the other one between my fingers. She was grinding her pussy over my hard cock.

"Baby, strip down. I need to feel you inside of me right now." She said as she stood up and pulled her pants down. I followed suit and pulled my pants down as well freeing my raging erection. She pushed me back down and straddled me again.

She reached down and lined herself up with me and slowly sank down on me until she was all the way to the bottom. She started to grind her hips and started moaning. I reached down and started to apply so pressure to her clit. This caused her to start moving her hips faster. I need to slam into her hard right now. I grabbed her hips and pulled her off me and stood up.

"Princess, I need to slam into you hard right now, and I want to see your pussy dripping from the pleasure I give you."

I walked behind her and pushed her top half down so her ass was up in the air. I ran my hand across her pussy and she was already dripping wet. I stepped closer and lined myself up and slammed into her hard. She let out a scream and I began to slam into her as hard as I could. Everytime I pulled out I could see my cock dripping with her wetness. This wasn't going to take me much longer.

"Princess, rub your clit for me. Get yourself off while I am fucking you." I whispered to her.

I could feel her hand come up and start to rub her little nub that would get her there. She started to scream out as soon as she started to rub herself. It didn't take long for her to reach her orgasm. Her walls started to constrict around me and that is all it took for me to get there. I filled her with so much of my seed that it was running back out.

I found some tissue and cleaned us both up and when we were dressed I pulled her back into my lap and just snuggled with her.

"I need to go downstairs for our pack meeting. Do you want to come?" I asked her.

"I don't trust myself around people yet. I'm going to go shower and clean up."

I kissed her lips lightly and then pulled her up and walked her to our room. After she went inside, I headed downstairs to the meeting room where everyone would be gathering.

I got up to the podium and Mac and Liam were right behind me. I waited a few minutes for everyone to arrive. I finally decided to step up to the microphone and get this started.

"Thank you everyone for coming on such short notice. I just want to make you all aware of some guest that will be arriving in a few hours. I expect him and his people given the upmost respect. He will be here to talk with our current prisoner Robert Silver."

The room had broken out into whispers.

"Please everyone quiet down. He has been working with Alpha Julian and he has assured us there is nothing to worry about. We will welcome him with open arms."

"Who is coming Alpha?" Someone in the back yelled out.

"The Vampire King."

The room broke out in loud whispers.

"I assure you there is nothing to fear. Please just treat him with respect and everything will be fine."

I stepped down not taking any questions as they would just need to comply with this as Alexa needed him.

Chapter 72 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

After Colter dropped me off at our room. I went in and immediately went to the shower. I turned it on and then stripped out of my clothes and stepped under the hot water. It felt amazing on my body and it was washing away all of the last couple of days of stress. I was still trying to wrap my brain around being part vampire now.

"Girls, how are you doing with all of this?" I linked my wolves.

"We are fine. If you want to go sink your teeth into mate I wouldn't mind at all. So long as he sinks his thing into us." Storm said and Jade giggled.

"We just did that you two, but he could do it again or really anytime he wants to." I linked them back and giggled also.

"In seriousness though, are you two ok with what happened to us?" I asked.

"We really are ok, so long as you are ok. It doesn't change who we are it just gave us a few extra abilities and also you're just going to want some blood. Well, as far as we know that's it." Jade said.

"I think maybe it's time to get out of the shower and maybe go watch a movie or something," I told them.

"Or we can go see mate at his meeting," Jade said.

"I don't know that I am ready to be around people yet. I don't know how much control I have yet."

"You will be just fine. You are a strong woman who is capable of doing anything." Storm said.

"Thanks, Storm, but until the Vampire King gets here and teaches me how to control this I don't want to see anyone."

"You will handle this like the boss lady that you are!" Jade said.

"How about a run later tonight?" I asked them.

Both of them howled in delight. It had been a while since they got out to run and I felt bad. I finished washing and turned the water off and got out of the shower. I dried off and wrapped a towel around my head to dry my hair. I walked into my closet and found a pair of leggings and a bralette that matched and threw them on. Once dressed I went back into the bathroom to brush out my hair and brush my teeth. After I was done I felt so much better. I was completely clean and it was refreshing. I walked out to our couch and grabbed the remote and turned the TV on. I found a movie to watch and laid down on the couch and fell asleep so fast.

"Colter you can't run from me," I yelled at him.

"You can't do this Alexa." He said with pleading eyes.

"But you smell so good. I can't help it." I said licking my lips and getting ready to pounce on him.

He backed himself into a corner and I knew there would be no escaping me now. I lunged at him and he brought his arms up trying to protect himself. It really was funny. He was no match for my strength anymore. I threw his arms off me and slammed his head into the wall behind him and made him move his head so I had good access to the throbbing vein in his neck. I let out a hiss and licked the spot that I would sink my teeth into.

"Alexa you don't have to do this. We love each other." He said with fear in his voice.

"You just smell so good I can't stop myself," I told him as I sunk my teeth down into his neck. I could feel him getting weaker as his legs started to wobble. I couldn't stop though, he tasted so good.

"Alexa, wake up. It's a dream." Someone said shaking me.

I bolted upright and gasped for air. It felt so real. I thought I had really killed Colter. That I sucked all of his blood out, but it wasn't it was just a nightmare. I was suddenly picked up and placed in someone's lap but was comforted by the sparks that I felt. I buried my head in his chest and started crying. That dream was too much. I can't do this, I can't hurt him. I needed to leave this place.

"Princess, you're safe now. I promise I won't let anything bad happen to you." He said while running his hands up and down my back.

"It wasn't that, I was the monster. People weren't safe because of me." I told him crying even harder.

He pulled my face away from his neck and kissed away my tears, and then kissed my lips.

"Princess, you will never hurt anyone. I know you and you would never do anything to put anyone in danger."

"Ya well, that dream says otherwise."

"Go get dressed. The Vampire King is here and waiting for you in my office. He can explain things to you more."

I just nodded my head and got up and went to my closet and found a crop top to put on and a pair of sandals. As soon as I stepped out of the closet Colter was right beside me. He grabbed my hand and kissed the back of it and then pulled me out of the room. We headed to his office and ran into Emma on the way there. She bounced over to us.

"ALEXA!" She yelled out and then threw her arms around me.

"Hi, Emma," I said trying to push her back a little.

"Sorry, I feel like I haven't seen you forever and I was just excited to see you out of your room and OK," Emma said.

"I know, sorry. I am getting better and you will start to see me around more." I told her.

"Sorry ladies, but we have someone waiting for us. You can catch up later." Colter said and started to pull me away.

Emma continued whatever she was doing with a grin on her face. She was usually a happy girl but when it was work time she was a great worker. I am going to miss her when she goes home.

We finally made it to Colter's office and he just walked in. There were two men sitting in front of Colter's desk. Both were extremely good-looking. I mean they looked old but at the same time, they didn't. They both had sharp jawlines and jet-black hair that was cut short. One had blue eyes while the other had green eyes. Before I could form another thought, the one with blue eyes was standing right in front of me, he was so close to me that I had to take a step back.

"Sorry, you just smell like. No, it can't be." He said but I think it was more to himself.

Colter was behind me letting out low growls and wrapping his arms around me. "Mine" he growled out.

"Forgive me, she just has the most unique scent on her. I know it's not her's but it is someone very important to me. Have you spent time with another person recently?" He asked.

"No, I have been by myself or with Colter," I said.

He turned his head sideways and took another deep breath and his eyes got even wider.

"Brother, do you sense what I sense?" He said.

I was so confused. The Vampire King had a brother and why the hell did he keep smelling me? The other man sitting there came up to me and took a deep breath as well and then a smile formed on his face.

"I haven't seen one in years. So someone left their pack and a little fun." The brother said.

"I am sorry but what are you guys talking about?" I asked.

"You don't know what you are do you?" The first vampire asked me.

"I am a wolf and I am also part vampire," I said feeling really confused.

"Why don't we go sit down and you can explain things further Roscoe," Colter said.

"Sorry, how rude of me. I am Roscoe the Vampire King and this is my brother William. He is essentially my Beta for the Vampires." Roscoe said.

"I am Alexa. Colters Luna." I said.

"You are so much more than a Luna and I can't believe you haven't figured it out yet," Roscoe said.

"What do you mean by that?" I asked.

"You're a dual wolf," Roscoe said.

"What is that?" I asked.

"Why am I not surprised that you don't know. Dual wolves were a special pack and they all had two wolves. They had one for good and one for bad. They all emerge at different times. They are very powerful and very strong."

"Well, that makes sense. The moon goddess said something very similar to me but it was very brief and she didn't explain a lot. So where is this pack of dual wolves located?" I asked him.

"I can't just give that information away but I can get in touch with their Alpha."

"So what happened to them? The way you talk it seems like they are in hiding." Colter asked.

"They are. Other packs wanted them gone. They were intimidated by their power. They have been in hiding for a very long time." Roscoe explained.

"Can you please help me with my vampire side? That is why you came isn't it?" I asked him.

"Yes, I can. I would actually like to stay for a few days if I may. I would like to see what this does to your two wolves."

"What do you mean?" Colter asked.

"Well sometimes it can make them even more powerful and if it does it could mean that she would be the most powerful creature ever," William said after being quiet for so long.

"Can you just tell me how to control wanting to bite into everyone for now? I would love to get out of here."

"Have you bit into anyone yet?" Roscoe asked.

"No, I have refused but when the cravings start, it's all I can think about. I can literally hear the blood pumping through their veins."

"Yes and that will get better, but as a vampire, you need to bite your mate or for us, it's our beloved. You need to feed off him and leave your mark on him. Once you do you will not want to do that again. I must warn you though, once you do it will cause some desires similar to what you do when you mark each other." Roscoe said.

"What if I can't stop and I kill him," I asked.

"You will stop if he is your beloved," Roscoe said shrugging his shoulders.

"OK, what about wanting to bite everyone else?"

"What have you had so far? I know that you have had some type of blood otherwise, you wouldn't be just sitting here this calm."

"I have had some blood bags from the hospital."

"You need to have some live blood. You don't have to bite a human, you can do the same to an animal. No different than when you hunt in your wolf form. Having that warm pulsing blood will help and change things for you. You won't need as many blood bags and you will feel in control until it's time to eat again."

"How long does it take until you want to eat again?" Asked Colter.

"Well, it depends on the person. I usually eat once a day but others can go longer and some need it two or three times a day, but those are rare." William explained.

"I am curious to know how long from the time you were injected with venom until you started to show signs of transitioning?" Asked Roscoe.

"It was basically immediately. It started with getting really hot and then the pain hit and, to be honest, I don't remember a whole lot after that." I explained.

"Interesting. The others that transitioned took several days to start." William said.

"Why would it be different?" I asked.

"Well he has either injected you with a very strong vampire or he injected you with a lot of it. I need to figure out where he is getting the venom from," He said.

"We have him locked up downstairs and we know of one more of his locations. We know he has more but were not sure where." Colter said.

"Good we will talk to him, but first we need to take you outside and to go hunting. I am guessing you don't want to feed off a human?" Roscoe asked.

"No not really."

"Ok, what's the best location to go, and can we have it cleared out from everyone else?" He asked.

"I would go West and yes we can have it all cleared out, but I will be coming with you," Colter said.

We all got up and headed out of the office. My head was spinning with all the information he had provided. I had never known what I was once Storm showed up but now that we had a name to it maybe we could learn more.

"Girls, are you ready for this?" I linked both of my wolves.

"Yes, to us it's no different than when we hunt so enjoy and maybe later we can run with Grey and do our own hunting," Jade said.

"Yes, I will make sure it happens."

Chapter 73

Chapter 73 - Alpha Alexa

Julian's POV

Things are finally calming down. The Vampire King left yesterday and we haven't had any more attacks. I felt like I could breathe for the moment. I had a very important question to ask Nicki. I know that she was technically already my Luna since I marked her but I wanted to ask her and I wanted to see if she would also marry me. I know that it was something that we didn't normally do but I wanted to. I wanted her in every way possible.

"Zion, you got any ideas on how we can ask her?" I linked my wolf.

"Well there's always at a restaurant or in front of the pack or I am not sure." He linked back.

"Those are cliché, I want something different. I want it to be the two of us only."

"Let me think." He said and cut the link.

I needed to go find a ring now. I had an idea of what I wanted.

"Luca, you got anything going on today?" I mind-linked him.

"Nothing pressing. What's up?" He replied back.

"Want to go shopping with me?"

"I'm not the shopping type, but thanks."

"I am going ring shopping."

"Oh shit! That's big. Ya, I want to go."

"OK meet me in an hour."

I cut our link and headed to the shower. I stepped in and quickly got clean and got out and threw on some clean clothes. I was hoping to sneak out of there before she woke up. I walked to our little kitchenette and wrote her a note letting her know that I had some errands to run and that I wanted to take her out on a date tonight and that I would pick her up at six.

I put the note on the table where she would find it and left our room. I headed downstairs and Luca was waiting for me. We didn't say anything to each other and headed to the garage. I grabbed a set of keys and unlocked a truck. We hopped in and I backed up out of the garage.

"So you're going to ask her to marry you?" Luca asked.

"Yes, and I am also going to ask her to be my Luna. I know marriage isn't something that we normally do but I want to tie myself to her in every way I physically can."

"I can understand that. I want to get one for Lauren also." He said looking over at me.

"I thought you might. That was one of the reasons I asked you to come along. I also want your opinion on the ring."

"What are you thinking?" He asked me.

"I want something with an emerald in it to match her eyes. What about you?" I asked him.

"Well, Lauren is a little bit of a flashy type so something large." He said laughing.

It didn't take us long to get to the jewelry store, as we were pulling up. I was really hoping that they would have something I wanted because I wanted to ask her tonight. We got out and walked in.

"Hello gentleman, how can I help you?" Asked the old man behind the counter.

"We are looking for a couple of rings," I said.

"OH, Alpha I didn't realize it was you and Beta Luca. Are we perhaps looking for an engagement ring or a Luna ring?" He asked wiggling his eyebrows at us.

"Well, both actually," I told him.

"Anything in particular you want?" He asked

"I am looking for something flashy," Luca said.

"Come this way." He said as he led him to a case of jewelry.

Luca walked over and started looking at the rings.

"Alpha how about you? Anything in mind?"

"I am hoping that you have something with emeralds in it. My mate has the most amazing emerald eyes and I want something to match that."

"I have a few." He said and motioned for me to follow him.

We walked over to another case of rings and he pulled out a few fake fingers that had rings on them. There were three different rings that had emeralds on them. The first one had a large emerald with small diamonds on each side. It wasn't the one. I picked up the next one and it was the opposite of the first one. A large diamond with emeralds down the side. I handed it back to him and he handed me the third one and it took my breath away. It was perfect. It had a heart shape diamond on the top and the band had emeralds and diamonds on it, every other one.

"I will take this one," I said and handed it back to him.

"Luca, did you find one?" I asked him and walked over to him.

"Well I have it down to two, what do you think?" He asked me.

I was looking at both of them and wasn't sure what to think. One was so godly and ugly. It was almost cheesy looking. The other one wasn't horrible.

"I like this one," I told him pointing at the smaller of the two.

"Me too, I will get it." He said with a huge grin on his face.

We paid for our rings and headed out of the store. We walked out to the car and got in.

"I need to make another stop," I told him.

"Where are we going now?"

"Flower shop."

We didn't talk on the way to the flower shop. I think I had finally figured out how I wanted to ask her.

"Zion, what do you think? Candle-lit dinner at Luciano's and then we are going to take a drive up to the mountains where I will have a little dance floor set up and a little bed for star gazing, twinkle lights, music, and flowers. After a dance get down on one knee?"

"That sounds perfect but instead of going to dinner, why don't you have dinner brought out there and have a table set up."

"I like that even better. I am going to have to get some help."

He cut the link as we were at the flower shop. We went in and I ordered all of the flowers that I wanted and then we left.

"Do you know how you are going to ask Lauren?" I asked Luca.

"No, but I have some time. I wasn't going to ask her until the six month mark. That's why I want you to hold onto the ring for me."

"Ya, you can put it in my office," I told him.

Several hours later and a lot of work and help from people everything was set to go. I had gone into our room earlier that day and grabbed clothes so I could get ready in Luca's room. I was trying to not see Nicki all day, and so far I have been able to do that. I ran up to Luca's room and knocked on the door.

"Hello, Alpha," Lauren said as she opened the door.

"Hello, I am here to use your shower," I told her and that's when Luca came out of their bedroom.

"Hey man, you know where it is." He said and I stepped in.

I got my shower in and got all ready for this. I was starting to get nervous.

"Zion, we need to calm down." I linked my wolf.

"I don't know why you're nervous, you know that she will say yes. She wears your mark."

"I know that but I want it to be special. I want her to feel how much we love her."

"She will, she is our second chance mate."

I cut our link because he wasn't helping. He was just so sure of everything. I was ready so I left their room with a whistle from Luca. I ran to the kitchen where I stashed her flowers and grabbed them and headed to our room. I got to our door and took a big breath before I knocked on the door. I could hear her moving through the room and heading toward doorway the door. She pulled it open gently and she knocked my socks off with how she looked tonight.

She had on this deep dark green tight dress that had thin straps and was short and showed some cleavage. She also had on a pair of heels but was still shorter than me.

"Wow, you look amazing!" I told her as she stood in the door way.

"Why are you knocking this is your room."

"I want it to be like a real date."

She just laughed and it was music to my ears. I could listen to her laugh every day of my life.

"These are for you,candle-lit" I said handing her the flowers.

"They are beautiful." She said as she walked into our room and found a vase under the sink and placed the flowers in it.

"Are you ready?" I asked her.

She came over and took my hand and we left our room. She didn't say much on the way to our destination. I pulled up and went around to open her door. I reached my hand in to help her out.

"Where are you taking me?" She asked as we started down a candle lit path.

"You will see. It isn't that far."

We walked for a few minutes and came around a corner and that is where everything was set up. We had a table with candles and twinkle lights that had been strung up everywhere. Music was playing, and there were white and green flowers everywhere. I led her to the table and pulled out her chair, but she didn't sit down. She threw her arms around me and gently kissed my lips.

"Will you dance with me first?" She asked as soon as she pulled back from the kiss.

"Of course, anything for you my angel."

We stepped away from the table and started to dance to the slow song that came on. This was it. I wanted to do this now. I couldn't wait any longer or I might burst. I waited until the song was over and then I leaned in and kissed her again.

"I love you so much, Nicki," I told her with a big smile on my face.

"I love you too and this is so romantic." She said.

I stepped back and kept a hold of her hand. I let my eyes roam over her body for just a minute before I dropped to my knee.

"What are you doing?" Nicki asked looking really confused.

"Nicki, I love you so much and I want to spend forever with you. I want to tie myself to you in every way possible. I want the entire world to know that we are together. Will you be my Luna and my wife?" I asked her as I opened the box I was holding.

She had tears in her eyes and she wasn't saying anything. I could feel a slight tremble in her hand and before she could say or do anything she took off. She ran towards the trees. What is she doing? I had already marked her so we were together for life. The only way to get rid of it is by rejection which can kill you or by death and that can also kill you.

I heard her start vomiting and that's when it dawned on me that she was sick from being pregnant and not running from me. I ran to her and as soon as I got there I ran my up and down her back while she continued to vomit. Once she was done she stood up all the way and looked at me and I could see, how bad she felt on her face.

"I am so sorry. I just randomly get sick and can't stop it. I ruined it." She said as she started to cry.

"You ruined nothing. This will just be a funny story to tell our grandkids." I told.

"Yes, I will be your Luna, and I can't wait to be your wife. You are the best Alpha, the best mate and will be the best husband and father."

Chapter 74

Chapter 74 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

We were walking outside and I could feel how nervous Alexa was to be doing this. I kept trying to reassure her but she wouldn't listen to me. I know she has had a lot dropped on her today.

"Princess, you got this. I will be by your side the entire time." I told her for the fourth time.

"I know and thank you. I just don't know if I can get used to this part of my life."

"You will baby. It will be second nature to you in no time." I told her.

"OK, Alexa you are going to need to bring your fangs out. It can be a little painful the first time but I am guessing that since you have your canines it shouldn't be bad." Roscoe explained.

"How do I do that?" She asked.

"Well much like your wolf counterpart and you call them forward or think about being in your human for when you change back. For this, you will think about your teeth coming out and sinking into something."

Alexa closed her eyes and took a deep breath. I could tell she was concentrating. Her mouth opened up and you could see she now had fangs where her canines were normally. When she opened her eyes they had a red glow about them.

"Now Alexa, while you have werewolf speed, you will also have vampire speed so please just be cautious of that so you don't run into something accidentally."

She just nodded her head and took off running. She was literally a blur. I don't know that I have ever seen someone move so fast.

"Wow, even for us that is extremely fast," William said and then they both took off. I followed behind them but I wasn't able to keep up so I went back to where we started and waited for them to come back. I knew deep down they would protect her but I had a feeling she didn't need it.

I found a tree to sit down by and lean against and wait. They were gone for about an hour when I heard someone coming. About the time I heard them, Alexa was standing in front of me with a big smile on her face.

"Hey," she said.

"Hey yourself."

"Why didn't you come with us?"

"You were really fast and I couldn't keep up." I felt a little ashamed of myself for even admitting that but it was the truth.

"I am sorry. I just took off and it felt great to move at that speed. Even Roscoe and William couldn't keep up."

"Where are they?"

"They weren't done and told me they would come back to the pack house later."

"OK."

She sat down and straddled my lap and started kissing my neck. She moved up my neck, up to my jaw eventually making her way to my mouth. She had me getting hard but I wasn't really in the mood. I was sulking. I pulled away from her.

"Let's go back to the house," I said pushing her up and off me.

"What's wrong?" She asked me with worry across her face.

"Nothing, but I have some work I need to do in my office," I told her.

"I can help you."

"No why don't you go see Sloane? I know she has been worried about you."

"I want to be with you right now."

I didn't say anything else but took off to the house. She matched me step for step. She grabbed my hand but I really need some space so I dropped it and headed to my office as soon as we were in the house.

"Do you not want me around or something?" She asked.

"No," I told her and as soon as I did you could see the tears well up in her eyes, and the look of hurt that she had on her face, broke my heart. I knew it was me causing it but I needed to think.

I walked away leaving her standing there. I made it to my office and went straight to my liquor cabinet and poured a shot of whiskey and downed it and then another and then just poured a large glass of it.

"Grey she is stronger than us and doesn't need us now. She is probably the most powerful supernatural there is. She could rule both werewolves and vampires. What are we going to do? She makes us look weak." I linked my wolf.

"She is our mate and she would never make us look weak. You're being an egotistical jerk. Get over yourself." He linked back.

I cut my link because he was just pissing me off.

"Mac, what are you doing?" I mind-linked him.

"Spending some time with Aubree. What's up?"

"Nothing. Enjoy your night."

"Liam, what are you doing?" I linked him.

"Sitting here listening to the girls rant about us. I don't know what you did but Alexa is not happy." He linked back.

"Why don't you come to my office and have a drink."

"Be there in a minute."

I downed the last of what was in my glass and poured another and went and sat down on the couch I had in here. It didn't take long for Liam to show up. He started knocking on my door.

"Come in," I yelled.

He walked in and I handed him the bottle of whiskey. He took it and walked to the cabinet and grabbed a glass and poured and drink and then sat down.

"What's going on why is Alexa so upset?"

"I brushed her off tonight and wouldn't spend time with her."

"You choice whiskey over her?"

"I chose my ego over her. I know I am being an asshole but I just need some time to process everything."

"You are going to have to give me more than that."

"Ok, so you know that she is part vampire now right? Well, the Vampire King came not just because of Robert but also to help her learn to control that side of herself. He said that she is the most powerful supernatural. He knows the pack her father comes from and they are something called a dual wolf and there aren't very many of them left."

"I've never heard of that type of wolf."

"Me neither. He explained it was because people tried to eradicate them and they have been in hiding ever since."

"So now she has two wolves and also an extremely powerful vampire. I don't see the problem here."

"She is stronger than me. She doesn't need me anymore. She could easily lead the supernatural."

"Again, I don't see the problem Your mate is a badass."

He downed his glass and got up and headed to the door.

"Where are you going?" I asked him.

"Look your a great Alpha and so when I say this I don't mean any disrespect but you are being an asshole. You have an amazing mate who is strong and very capable." He said and walked out the door.

I walked over and picked up the bottle of whiskey and kept drinking it. I was going to have to drink something stronger to get rid of this feeling I was feeling. I finished the whiskey and picked up a bottle of wolf's liquor. This would do. This would get me drunk and then I could forget everything for a while. I just started drinking it straight from the bottle and that is the last thing I remember doing.

"Colt, get your drunk ass up now." Someone was yelling at me.

I moaned and opened my eyes. It was so fucking bright in here I couldn't see and my head was pounding. I felt like death. I let my eyes focus and then I saw that it was Mac that was yelling at me.

"What do you want?" I growled at him.

"How about you get your ass up and get your shit together and go be with your mate because she is getting ready to go down and confront Robert." He said.

"She doesn't need to," I said rolling over.

"Yes, she does. She wants you there. She needs you there." He said.

"No, she is stronger than me now and doesn't need me anymore. She will rule the supernatural world." I mumbled.

"You're being a dick. Get over yourself and go be there for your mate. She is going to interrogate the man who raised her. Who she thought was her father her whole life. Who had your baby killed. Who had your mate turned into a vampire. She needs you."

"Get the fuck out of my office," I growled at him.

He stomped out and slammed the door when he left. I continued to lay on the couch feeling like shit.

"He is right you know. She needs you. She always will. Either you go see her or I will take over and go see her myself." Grey linked me.

"I am not ready to face her yet."

"I don't care. You promised to always be by her side and you aren't there. You are one of like 3 people that she has been able to count on in her life. Don't fail her now."

"Fine, I am going but I really don't want to," I said

I groaned and got off the couch and headed to our room to get a shower. I walked up the stairs and all I could think about was how much I needed some water. I made it to our room and opened the door and was instantly hit with Alexa's scent and it had my heart hurting. I missed her and it was my own fault. I headed to our little fridge and took out a bottle of water and chugged it and then another. As I was throwing the bottles away she walked out of our room. Her eyes were still red and puffy from crying. Now I knew I was an asshole.

"Princess, I am." I don't get to say anything else because she cut me off.

"Don't. Right now I am so hurt by you. I wanted you last night. I needed you last night. I am scared and all I wanted was my mate to make me feel better but your fucking ego got in the way.

You don't think I don't need or want you anymore, but you're wrong. But right now I need space because you hurt me." She said as she started crying again.

"I am so sorry and you're right my ego got in the way."

She didn't say anything but walked out of the room slamming the door. I went to the bathroom and got a quick shower and quickly got dressed and went down to find her.

"Princess, where are you?" I mind-linked her on my way down the stairs.

"Eating." Was the only thing she replied.

I walked the rest of the way downstairs and found her in the dining room, sitting with Sloane, Liam, Mac, Aubree, and Roscoe, and William. I grabbed some toast and water and went and sat down by her.

"When would you guys like to go see Robert?" I asked them.

"As soon as we're done eating," Alexa said.

"OK, I will have him moved and chained to a chair in the torture room," I told her.

I reached behind her and ran my hand up and down her back. She went stiff at first but slowly relaxed into my touch. I could feel the sparks moving beneath, my hand. I reached down around her waist and pulled her to me so there was literally no space between us. I could feel her slowly start to forgive me.

"Princess, can we talk before we go down to the dungeon?" I asked her.

"If you want to talk it's right now." She said.

I got up and pulled her up and took her hand and pulled her up to my office. I opened the door for her and once we were in I shut it and walked over to her and just pulled her into a hug.

"I am so sorry. I never meant to hurt you. I thought that you wouldn't need or want me. I thought that since you are now stronger than me that you had no use for me." I told her trying to be truthful.

"Colt, you are my best friend, the love of my life. I will always need you. You are the person that I go to for everything. Well and Sloane, but I can't talk to her like I can you. I need you now and forever." She said crying again.

"Please don't cry baby. I know this but I like I said I let my ego make the calls and it hurt you. I won't do that again. I need you more than I need air to breathe. I love you so much."

I didn't let her respond because I brought my lips down to hers and kissed her with so much passion. She didn't fight me for control and gave me access to her mouth. I slipped my tongue in exploring every corner of her mouth and knew that we would be OK as long as I didn't do something stupid like that again.

Chapter 75

Chapter 75 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

When I pulled away from Colter's kiss I wrapped my arms around his waist and just held onto him. So much has happened so fast, but the one thing that was for sure was I loved this man.

"Baby take me upstairs and to our room," I whispered in his ear.

He didn't say anything but leaned down grabbed my ass and pulled me up and I wrapped my legs around his waist. He took off and left the office and I started kissing his neck. He moved so fast up the stairs that we were in front of our door in no time. He opened the door and kicked it shut with his foot and took off to the bed. Once there he gently put me down on it and crawled over me.

"Princess, I love you so much." He said between kisses.

"I love you too."

"I want you to bite me. Mark me again." He said with a serious look on his face.

I wasn't sure what to do but instinct took over. I flipped us over so I was straddling him. I went to the side of his neck that didn't have my mark on it and started sucking on it and nibbling it. Colter was letting out little moans and kept pushing his hips up and I could feel his hard cock underneath me. I finally found where I wanted and sucked on it a little hard.

"Are you sure about this Colter?" I asked him but I could feel my fangs coming out, so he better hurry up and answer.

"Yes, Princess."

As soon as those words left his mouth I sank my fangs into him. He let out a loud scream as my mouth filled with his blood. It was the sweetest thing I've ever had. I pulled back and licked the wound closed. I could feel Colter breathing hard beneath me and before I knew what happened he flipped me over and pinned me down to the bed.

"Princess I need you right now." He growled at me.

He ripped my clothes off and his in record time. He started kissing and caressing my body anywhere he could touch. He sat up and flipped me over and ran his hand along my pussy feeling how wet it was. It was ready for him. He just let out a needy growl and slammed into me.

"AAAAHHHH, Colt you feel amazing." I moaned out to him.

He just started to pump into me as hard as he could. All you could hear was the sound of our skin slapping together and our moans.

He suddenly stopped and flipped me back over and grabbed my ankles and spread my legs and slammed back into me.

"Princess, let me see you rub your clit. Make yourself cum for me." He grunted out.

I reached my hand down and found my clit and started to rub it in the motion that I liked. It wasn't going to take me long at this rate.

"That's it Princess make yourself cum. Do you like it?"

"YYYYEESSSS!" I screamed out as my orgasm hit me fast and like a freight train. It was like I was seeing fireworks. I could feel Colter cumming as well. His movements become frantic.

We both just sat in the same position trying to catch our breath. Finally, after a minute, he pulled out of me and laid by my side. I rolled over and laid my head on his chest. He wrapped his arms around me and we just stayed for a few minutes.

"Colt, we need to clean up and go integrate Robert. I have been waiting to do this. I need answers." I told him.

"I know baby. Let's go shower and we can go down there."

We both got up and headed for the shower. After washing each other and having a quickie in the shower we both got out feeling refreshed and clean. After getting dressed and I brushed out my hair we headed downstairs. We walked outside and headed to the dungeon. We ran into Roscoe and William on our way there.

"Well I see that you guys don't waste time," William said looking at Colt's neck.

"She was already my mate and I wanted to wear any mark that she can give me," Colt said smiling.

"You guys ready to go talk with Robert?" I asked them

"Yes, I want to know what is going on with that idiot," Roscoe said.

We got to the dungeon and headed down the stairs. Colt nodded to the guards and grabbed some keys off the wall. He led us back to where they had Robert locked up. He opened the cell and we all stepped in. Robert had both hands chained up with silver. He definitely looked bad. Someone had worked him over a lot. He also looked like he hadn't been fed in a while.

Colt walked over followed by Roscoe and they unchained him and pulled him to our torture room. They placed him in a chair and chained his hands and feet to the chair. They both stepped back and just looked at him. Robert had yet to look up and acknowledge me. I walked over to him and grabbed his chin and made him look at me.

"You should be dead." He spat at me.

"Ya well, I'm not. Now tell me where are your other warehouses?"

"Are you now part vampire?" He asked me.

"How about this you answer a question for me and I will answer a question for you," I said.

"Now where are your warehouses?"

"I can't answer that but I can tell you what we do there."

"Fine, what."

"We were creating hybrids. All types."

"Why?" Asked Roscoe from the back.

"Because I will rule the world with them." He said laughing.

Roscoe came up to him and punched him in the face. He then leaned down and got right in his face.

"Listen here mutt, you will tell me what vampires you are working with." He told him in a deadly voice.

You could see the fear in Robert's eyes, but he tried to hide it quickly.

"Filthy bloodsucker, I will not tell you shit." He said trying to sound confident but you could hear the fear in his voice.

Roscoe grabbed his hand and started to break each finger slowly. Once all of his fingers were broken he stepped back with a wicked smile on his face.

"Now mutt we can either move on to your next hand or you can tell me what vampires you are working with."

He still didn't answer so he moved on to his next hand and then stepped back.

"You have a lot more bones and I have all day," Roscoe said.

"Fine, it's John and Floyd." He got out with heavy breaths.

"I knew it. I knew they were doing something." Roscoe said as he turned around to face all of us.

"Lex, let me take over. I have wanted to sink my claws into this fucker." Storm said.

"You will get your chance but you can't kill him yet," I told her.

"Who are those guys?" I asked Roscoe.

"They are like our, version of a beta." He said.

"Will you please give me a minute here with Robert?" I asked all three of them.

"Of course Princess." Colter said and then came and gave me a kiss on my forehead and they walked out the door and closed it.

"Do you think that you really can do something to me, Alexa?" Robert said.

I closed my eyes and called Storm forward.

"What the fuck?" He mumbled out.

"Do you know who my father is?" Storm asked.

"No your bitch of a mother never would tell me."

"Well let me you that he was a dual wolf and now not only do I have two wolves who both can't wait to kill you, I am also part vampire now, and if you thought that Roscoe breaking your fingers hurt just wait until I break every single one of your bones." Storm spat at him.

"You wouldn't, I raised you. I cared for you. I provided for you and gave you everything you wanted." He said sounding a little scared.

I walked over and grabbed his hand and broke it. I bent it in different directions until I could hear each bone break. He let out a scream and was breathing hard.

"Now, start at the beginning or I can break more bones or I can grab a whip over there."

"I'm not telling you shit."

I walked over to the table and grabbed a whip that had silver laced through it and started to hit him with it. It was like a frenzy that took over and I couldn't stop hitting him. Strike after strike. His screams were like music to my ears. I wanted him to hurt the way I hurt from everything he did to me. After a while, he stopped screaming but I couldn't stop hitting him. The doors were thrown open and Colter walked up to me.

"Princess, you can stop. He is unconscious."

I didn't listen and kept hitting him, but Colt reached his hand out and took the whip out of my hand.

"Come on Princess, we will continue this tomorrow." He said as he took me out of the room.

Roscoe and William were standing outside of the room waiting for us. I could feel Storm still in control. I was trying to pull her back but she wasn't ready yet.

"Storm you have to give me back control," I told her.

"No." She said.

"How about we go for a run," I asked her.

"Yes."

"Colt, I need to run." That was all she said to him. He just shook his head and we headed to the tree line. Apparently, she couldn't wait because as soon as we were far enough away from the dungeon she shifted and took off running. Grey wasn't far behind us. I put up a block and gave those two some time alone. I was hoping this would calm her down and once she was done she would give me back control.

After a while, I felt her release control over to me but it didn't last long as Jade wanted control now. Once we had shifted into our human form we shifted into her and she took off. They ran together for several hours when I got a mind link from Sloane.

"Lex, I don't know where you are but we really need you and Colter back in the house. Like now before we have a fight on our hands."

"On our way." I linked her back.

I took control and shifted back into my human form and so did Colter. Neither one of us said anything and just took off towards the pack house. We got to Colter's clothes and he tossed me his shirt that I threw on quickly and he shoved his legs into his pants. We ran to the backdoor of the house and we could hear a girl yelling and someone trying to calm her down.

We made it to the commotion and I saw Emma yelling at Roscoe. He was trying to calm her down but it wasn't working.

"What is going on?" I yelled out.

"He is my mate. I am mated to a goddam vampire." Emma yelled at him.

"You don't even know me. I happen to be a good guy." Roscoe said.

"You suck people's blood until they are dead." Emma spat back at him.

"Let's go to my office," I said.

Emma and Roscoe took off and you could see the desperation in Roscoe's face and the disgust on Emma's face. We got to my office and I opened the door and they all went in. Colt went to my desk and pulled me into his lap.

"OK, someone want to tell me the problem here," I asked.

"He is my mate. I am mated to a vampire. This can't be real. I can't be mated to a vampire." She said more to herself than anyone else.

"Yes, my love you are and I promise to love you each and every day," Roscoe said.

"No, you don't understand apparently. I am a wolf and you are a vampire. We are enemies. We can't be mates."

Roscoe got up and walked over to Emma and pressed his lips to hers. You could see she was resisting but it didn't take long before she gave in and kissed him back. Once they finally pulled away Emma had a huge smile on her face.

"See beautiful, you are my queen and you will be treated as such," Roscoe said to her.

"I need time," Emma said storming out of my office.

"Roscoe, she is a very strong wolf but she will come around, give her time," Colt said to him.

He got up and left my office as well.

"Princess this has been an eventful day, let's call it a night and go to bed," Colt said standing up and dragging me to the door.

Chapter 76

Chapter 76 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

We made it to our room and Alexa was out as soon as her head hit the pillow and I wasn't far behind her. It was a great night's sleep. Something that I felt like I hadn't had in a long time. I was woken up by Alexa sitting up in bed.

"Good morning beautiful."

"We have things to do." She said but as soon as she said that I realized that it wasn't her but it was Storm.

"Storm what are you doing?" I asked her.

"I need to kill Robert. He must die today." She said almost robotically.

"Storm let's get some breakfast and then we can talk about this."

"No, I need to go now."

She got up out of bed and headed to the closet and put on some clothes. I was right behind her. I can tell that we wouldn't be getting anything else done until she was done with Robert.

"Mac you need to find Roscoe and William and meet us in the dungeon. Storm has taken over and won't rest until Robert has been handled." I mind-linked him.

"We will meet you down there." He linked back.

I hurried and finished getting ready so that I could go with her. She was out the door before I got my shoes on. I slipped them on without tying them up. I've seen this side of her before and she won't stop until she has handled Robert. This is what scares me. She is uncontrollable. We had made it to the dungeon and Mac was waiting for us with Roscoe and William.

"Good morning Alexa," Roscoe said but Alexa ignored him and continued down the dungeon.

"Is she ok?" Roscoes asked me.

"Her wolf has taken control and won't release it until she has killed Robert," I explained to him.

"That explains things." He said.

"What do you mean?" Mac asked him.

"Her father had a wolf that did the same thing. He was extremely powerful." He said.

She had gone into Robert's cell and dragged him out and was headed to the torture room. We had left the silver off of him so that he could heal some. We wanted him to be able to talk today. She threw him into the chair and we went to tie him down but she glared at us.

"Don't." She growled out.

We stepped to the back of the room and watched.

"Do not move." She alpha commanded him.

His head snapped up so fast because he should be able to ignore her Alpha command but he couldn't.

"How?" He asked her.

"Because we are more powerful than you or anyone. You will tell me the truth NOW!" She roared.

You could see him shrink back in fear. I could see that both Roscoe and William were frozen to their spots. I could feel the command as well but it didn't affect me as did everyone else.

"What do you want to know?" He asked with a shaky voice.

"Start at the beginning." She said.

You could see him trying to fight the command and it was painful but he was trying nonetheless. Alexa moved to him at such speed that it was a blur and her hand was around his neck squeezing. He was turning red really fast. She finally let go.

"It started ten years ago. I met someone who had an idea and I thought it was a good idea. We were going to create hybrids to take over the supernatural." He finally got out.

"Where are the other warehouses?" She asked.

"There is one in the town west of here and one outside of Blue Lakes Pack." He finally said.

"Now Robert tell me why did you make me reject my first mate?" She asked and I could see tears in her eyes as she did.

"He was weak and couldn't protect you, but I can see who needs protecting around here and it isn't you."

She didn't like this answer and neither did I. She was on him in a blur again and was hitting him in the face. Blood was flying. I walked up behind her and grabbed her arm so she would stop hitting him. I know there is more that she wants to know and if she continues he won't be able to talk.

She just turned and growled at me but knew why I was stopping her.

"How many people did you kill trying to turn them?" Roscoe asked from the back.

"I don't know we never kept track."

"Where did all of the pack's money go?" Storm asked.

"Into my experiments."

"Did Ryan know about this?"

"Yes, but he wasn't really on board with it so I had to make him by controlling his mate."

"Where is his fated mate?"

"That weak ass bitch is now at Blue Lakes pack. She found a way around the spell I had put on her."

"What spell?"

"So she couldn't find her second chance mate. I put a spell on her wolf so that it was weak and she couldn't shift or communicate with her, making it impossible to find her second chance mate if she had one. This also protected me from him retaliating against me."

This one truth set Storm off and there was no stopping her now. She lunged at him and released her claws and started to dig them into his chest. All you could hear was his screams and the sound of flesh being ripped open.

"This is what it felt like when you made me reject my first mate and then killed him, in front of me." She yelled out.

The three of us just stood back and watched her. She had torn down so much flesh that you could see his heart beating in his chest. He was still alive but just barely.

"And this is for every single person that you have hurt or ruined their lives including mine." She yelled out and then plunged her hand into his chest and ripped out his heart. She turned to us holding his heart in her hand still. I could tell that Storm had finally given control back to Alexa but I don't when she did.

"Princess you can put that down. It's over with. He is dead." I told her walking over to her. She dropped it and threw her arms around me.

I picked her up and I took her back up to our room. We got up there and I took her to the shower and turned it on and took her clothes off her and then mine and pulled her under the water and started washing all the blood off of her. Once she was clean I pulled her out of the shower and dried her off with a towel.

"Colt I just need to lay down and need some time to myself please." She told me with sad-looking eyes.

"Of course Princess. Why don't you go take a nap? I am going to go to my office and make some calls." I told her as I pulled her to the bed and tucked her in.

"Just link me when you're awake," I said and placed a kiss on her head.

I walked to the closet and got dressed and when I walked out of the closet she was sound asleep in bed. I left our room and headed to my office. I needed to call Julian and let him know that Robert was dead and that there is another warehouse near his place and then I needed to call the council and inform them about this as well. They really had stepped back and let us handle this. I am not sure why because they usually have their hands deep in anything like this.

I got to my office and went in but before I could even sit down someone was knocking at my door.

"Come in," I yelled and Roscoe and William walked in.

"What can I do for you two?" I asked them.

"Well, I want to inform you about your mate. I really think she needs to meet her father and that is something I can help with." Roscoe said.

"What about her and her father?"

"You do know that she is the most powerful wolf I've ever met and in my time that is saying something. I think she is meant to be the queen of this at least the wolves if not the supernatural."

"We don't have queens or kings. We have the council and they rule over us." I explained to him.

"Those old mutts won't know what hits them when they realize what power she holds."

"I know she is powerful but like I said we don't have queens or kings. There is no way the council will ever release control to her."

"I don't think they will have a choice. She is even more powerful than I am." He said.

"Well, I need to call the council and inform them about Robert and the warehouses so we can plan an attack to shut it down."

"Well, I will leave you to it then, besides I have a little feisty wolf I need to make fall in love with me." He said with a smile.

"Good luck with that," I told him and they left my office.

"Grey, do you think she could be queen and rule?" I linked my wolf.

"Ya, I do. She is our queen. We can worship her body all day long."

"Ok horn dog for real. Can she really be queen?"

"Yes! She would make an amazing queen. She is strong and fair and beautiful."

"I agree," I told him sitting back in my chair and just thinking about her

I finally snapped out of my thoughts and pulled my phone out and called Julian.

"Hey, man what's up?" He said as he answered the phone.

"I wanted to let you know that Robert is dead and we know where the other warehouses are and we also know what vampires were helping him."

"So my mate is safe?"

"Yes, she is."

"Thank you, because she has agreed to be my Luna and also my wife." He told me all excitedly.

"That's great man, congratulations!"

"Well, she is also making me a dad."

That one hit a little hard but I swallowed my emotions and congratulated him again. We finished our conversation and I hung up.

Maybe now that Robert was dead she would let me knock her up. At least we could practice.

All these thoughts about Alexa being pregnant with my pup had me wanting her. I left my office and ran up to our room and when I opened the door I found Alexa running through the room naked.

"Princess, what are you doing?"

"Clothes, I need clothes. Sloane went into labor and I promised her I would be there."

"Ok calm down. Let's find your clothes and then we will walk to the hospital."

She finally slowed down and then ran to me and threw her arms around me.

"Colt I want a pup. I want to try. Please tell me you want one too." She said with her head on my chest.

"Princess there is nothing else I want more than to get you pregnant, but right now we need to get you to Sloane."

"Shit I forgot for a minute. I need clothes."

"I do like you naked but you can't leave our room that way."

She ran to the closet and came back out a few minutes later dressed with shoes on.

"Come on princess." I told her as I grabbed her hand.

We walked to the hospital and went straight to Sloane's room. She knocked and opened the door but I heard Sloane scream at Liam and I knew that I didn't need to go in and would just wait for Alexa out in the waiting room.

"Princess I will wait for you in the waiting room."

She stood on her tiptoes and kissed my cheeks and then walked into the room.

Chapter 77 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

Four hours after I entered Sloane's hospital room she gave birth to a little girl and she was perfect. She looked just like Sloane with Liam's eyes.

"What is her name?" I finally asked.

"Alexis Marie," Sloane said.

"After me?" I asked her.

"Of course, she is named after her Godmother.

I went and climbed into bed with Sloane and I held her while she held the baby and the two of us cried, but they were happy tears.

Liam stepped out of the room at some point because he and Colt walked back in.

"Well look at you three girls. Liam, I think we're in trouble. We're outnumbered now," Colter said chuckling.

"Sssshhhhhh you'll wake the baby," I told them.

Colt walked over to the bed on my side and peered down at her.

"Come on Princess we should go home and work on making our own." He said.

"Yes please Alexis needs a friend," Sloane said laughing.

"I think I've rethought after watching her give birth I don't think I want to do that."

They all just laughed because we all knew it was a matter of time before it happened.

Colt and I left and headed back to the pack house and found Roscoe and Emma looking very comfortable on the back porch.

"Well, it seems that you two have worked out your differences?" I asked them as we got up to the porch.

"We are talking about it. The mate bond is a powerful thing." Emma said smiling.

"That is good. You two have a great night." I told them as we went inside.

"Princess, what do you want to do? Things are a little calm right now." Colter asked me.

"I don't know. It has never been like this." I told him laughing.

"Why don't we go upstairs and take a hot bath together." He said wiggling his eyebrows at me.

I didn't give him a chance to reply as I took off running up the stairs. He was right behind me slapping my ass the entire time. He enclosed in on me right before I got to our door and scooped me and turned me around so I was facing him.

"Princess I love your laugh and I want to hear it everyday for the rest of my life." He said smiling at me.

"I love you, Colter. You are everything I've always needed and didn't know it."

He had opened our bedroom door and had us standing in the bathroom now. He reached down and turned the water on and added some bubble bath. We both removed each other's clothes and he stepped into the water holding his hand out to me.

We sank down into the water and he pulled me back so that I was laying against his chest. We sat there in silence letting the tub fill up and the bubbles cover us. It was relaxing and felt so nice to be in his embrace.

He started to massage my shoulder and neck and I think I died and went to heaven. I was so relaxed that I could fall asleep right now.

"Princess I need to ask you something."

"What's that?"

"Do you want to meet your biological father?"

That was a big one. I didn't even know my dad wasn't my dad until a few months ago. Does he even know I am alive? I have so many questions.

"I don't know. I just don't know how I feel about that or what if he doesn't want me around." I told him.

"Princess, I think he could be some help. Roscoe knows him and he is the one who suggested it. He thinks that he will want to meet you."

"It's just that I have literally killed all of my family and they were bad people, what if he is bad also? I can't handle killing any more of my family."

"I understand that but if he was bad Roscoe wouldn't have suggested it."

"I will think about it."

He didn't say anymore and we lay in the tub soaking up all the warmth it had to offer. Colter continued to rub my neck and shoulders.

"Princess we should get out. Were turning into prunes." He said laughing.

We both got out and I grabbed a towel and dried off and wrapped the towel around me. I went straight to the bed and lay down. Colt go in beside me and I rolled over to him and laid my head on his chest. He gently rubbed his hand up and down my back and it didn't take long for me to sound asleep.

I woke up the next morning with Colt pressed into my back. I could feel his hard cock pressed against my ass cheek. This brought dirty thoughts into my mind. I wiggled out of his grasp and moved down so I could wake him up with my lips around his cock. I wrapped my hand around it and brought my lips down on it and slowly swallowed as much of it as I could and brought it back out and continued to do this as slowly as possible. On the fifth time going down, he let out a moan and thrust his hips forward shoving his cock all the way down my throat. It must have woken him up because the blankets were thrown back and I was busted.

"Princess what are you, damn that feels good." He said thrusting his hips forward again. I sped up my motion and started to play with his balls.

"I am going to cum." He grunted out and spurred me on. A few more times and he started to shoot his load down my throat. I swallowed everything he had to give me. I continued to suck on him as he came down from his high and once he did he pulled out of my mouth and was quick to pull me up to him. He brought his lips down to mine and gave me a good morning kiss that electrified every nerve in my pussy.

"My turn." He said with an evil smile on his face. He moved between my legs and quickly spread them apart. He wasted no time in spreading my pussy lips and flicked his tongue over my clit a few times before moving down to my hole where he drove his tongue into. I could feel myself getting wetter than I already was. He replaces his tongue with two fingers and curled them up hitting that magical spot I had and moved his tongue to my clit circling it and applying some delicious pressure to it.

"AAAHHHH Colter, make me cum." I screamed out while grabbing his hair and pulling further into my pussy. He pulled his fingers out and circled my ass hole before he started to slip a finger into it.

He got his finger all the way in there and it was a new sensation and I am not going to lie, it felt pretty good. He suddenly inserted a finger into my other whole so both had one and he continued to lick at my clit. I was so close to cumming.

"OOOHHH GGGOOODDD COLT," I screamed as my orgasm overtook me. He kept doing that until I came all the way down. As soon as I did he flipped me over and pulled my hips up until my ass was up in the air and he slammed his hard cock into me. He started with a slow thrust but put his finger back into my ass.

"You like that Princess?"

"Yes." I moaned out.

He worked a second finger into me and I felt full really full between his large cock and his fingers.

"I am going to fuck this tight little ass of yours one day but not today." He said as he picked up speed with his thrust. I was getting close to cumming again and I could tell he was too.

"Baby I want to feel your large cock stretch my ass out," I told him.

This just spurred him on and he started fucking me harder, although I didn't know that was even possible.

I let out a loud scream as my orgasm tore through me and he let out a loud roar as his hit him simultaneously. He pulled out of me and pulled me down to him and we both lay there until we caught our breath.

"I need to go shower and then I want to find Roscoe and let him know I would like to meet my biological father."

"Princess, I think that is great. I can use a shower also." He said wiggling his eyebrows at me.

"No more funny business!" I told him laughing and took off running to the bathroom but he was faster than me. He grabbed me around the waist and packed me into the bathroom. He put me down and turned the water on. I walked to the sink and brushed my teeth and then stepped into the water.

We both washed even though Colt kept trying to wash me but when my stomach growled so loud he finally stopped messing around so we could get some food. We finished washing and got out and I went and got dressed in some comfy clothes and headed downstairs. I saw William sitting at a table looking, board. We fixed our plates and headed over to where he was sitting.

"Hey William, you ok?" I asked him.

"Yes, I just miss my mate or our equivalent of a mate." He said.

"I am sorry. What is keeping you here?" Colt asked

"I have to help it's my duty. Don't worry I will call her later and all will be back to normal."

"Do you know where Roscoe is, I would like to talk to him today?" I asked William.

"He is with his mate. I am sure they will be down here soon."

"I am so happy to see they're working out. Emma is a great girl." I said.

"She seems to be. Hey Alexa we are going to have a meal later this evening if you would like to come with us." William said.

"That would actually be great."

We kept eating and not saying much until Emma and Roscoe bounced over. Well more Emma than Roscoe. She was a bubbly thing.

"Good morning, Alpha's," Emma said and then took off to fix a plate.

"Roscoe, I would like to talk to you after breakfast in private, please. Emma can join in if she would like." I told him.

"Of course." He said taking a seat by William.

"I will be in my office whenever you're ready, come on up," I told Roscoe.

"Where is your office?" He asked me.

"Sorry next door down from Colts."

I got up and so did Colt and we took care of our dishes and we headed to our offices.

"Princess, I have a few things I have to get done and then I will come over to your office. If Roscoe gets there before me send me a mind link and I will come over." He said kissing me at my door.

"OK."

I opened the door and walked in. I wanted to start by doing some google searches for those warehouses and where they could be. I was deep in search when someone knocked on my door.

"Come in," I yelled out and Roscoe and Emma walked in.

"Hey guys, have a seat, and let me get Colter in here."

"Colt, Roscoe, and Emma are here." I mind-linked him.

"So things are looking better between you two," I asked them.

"Yes, once I got over the shock that he is a vampire and learned how amazing he is I accepted the bond. However, we haven't completed it yet. I am making him date me first." Emma said giggling.

"I told Colt the same thing but then everything else happened and it was like three days after we were both healed that I was marked."

We were both laughing when Colt walked in. He was giving us a look of suspicion. He came over and lifted me out of my chair and then pulled me down on his lap.

"Ok, sorry. Roscoe, I was told that you could help me meet my father." I asked him.

"Yes. I know where they live. It's remote and they don't have phones so we will have to travel." He explained.

"Well, I can't go right now. I have to deal with these other warehouses, and we need to contact the council." I said.

"I could send William and see if he is willing to travel here." He said.

"I know that William is missing his mate. He was sad this morning." I told him.

"He always misses his mate. Don't worry this is nothing that they aren't used to. She is just normally the one traveling."

"If he is willing that would be great." Colt chimed in.

"He will do it," Roscoe said.

"Roscoe, I want to thank you for all of your help. If it wasn't for you I don't know that I would have been able to get through this. You and William have taught me a lot and also have helped us. You didn't have to come here but I appreciate it." I told him.

"You are welcome. I was happy to help and besides, I have people in there hurting other people so it's only right that I help." He and Emma stood up to leave.

"Alexa, I will have William leave right away, but we were going out tonight if you still want to join me."

"Yes, William had already invited me but I will be there."

They walked to the door without another word.

"Colt, we need to call the council," I told him as I snuggled down into him further and inhaled his scent.

Chapter 78

Chapter 78 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

We called the council and they pretty much told us to do what we needed to and to let them know when it was done. Usually, the council wants to be more involved. This had my suspicions raised but I am not sure why yet. I was currently headed towards our library to get some maps so we could come up with a plan.

"Mac, meet us in Alexa's office in ten minutes." I mind-linked him.

"Will do boss." He replied back.

I grabbed the maps we wanted and headed back to Alexa's office. She was sitting at her desk deep in thought looking at her computer.

"What's so interesting on there baby?" I asked her.

She jumped up and grabbed her chest.

"You gave me a heart attack and I was just reviewing what is on google maps."

I walked over to the table and started laying the maps out when someone knocked on the door.

"Come in," yelled Alexa and Mac opened the door and walked in.

"Hey Mac, what are you doing here?" She asked.

"Colter sent me a mind link to meet him here." He said.

"Well if we're going to make a plan he is included in that. I would have had Liam come also but he needs time with his family."

"You're right. Let's look at these maps compared to what is on google maps." Alexa said walking over to the table with her laptop.

We spent the next few hours going over different options and finally agreed that we would just ambush the building with enough people that they couldn't do anything. We would send a group out tonight to scope out the building and track any patterns and see if they could detect any weapons. Now we needed to prepare the troops, which I told Alexa that I would handle so she could go spend time with Sloane and Alexis. She gave me a kiss and walked out of her office. I gathered all material and her laptop and took it to my office.

"Mac why don't you go get us some lunch and I will call the group I want to go out tonight and then we can work on putting a team together," I told him.

"OK, I will be back up soon. Do you mind if I bring Aubree? She gets anxious if I am gone too long still."

"No that's fine."

I sent out mind links to the six guys I wanted to go out tonight to meet in fifteen minutes in my office and set out to find Jack. He was the top warrior from the elite pack and I wanted him to go with them as well. I walked down to the gym where I could usually find him and he was there working out.

"Jack, can you meet me in my office in fifteen minutes?" I asked him.

"Sure thing Alpha." He said and turned back to the machine he was working out on.

I left and went back to my office and found Mac just getting to my door with his arms full of food and Aubree walked up behind us.

"You guys hungry?" Mac asked.

"I am always hungry," I said laughing because he already knew this.

We went in and went to the end of the table where there were no maps and Mac started spreading the food out. I think he grabbed all the food in the kitchen. I grabbed a sandwich and started to inhale it.

"Eat fast because everyone will be here in about five minutes," I told them between bites.

We kept eating as much as we could because it wasn't long until someone knocked on the door.

"Come in," I yelled out and Jack walked in with several others that I had told to come.

"Jack, can you mind linking Emma and have her and Roscoe come up as well," I asked him.

He just nodded his head at me and then his eyes glazed over.

"She said they will be here in a minute."

"OK, everyone find a seat and when they are here I will explain what is going on."

Mac and I continued to shovel food into our mouths while Aubree started to clean up and it wasn't long before Emma and Roscoe showed up. I told them to find a seat and I took a seat at the head of the table.

"Thank you guys for coming. You guys have been picked for a mission tonight. We are getting ready to attack the next warehouse and I need you guys to go ahead of us and gather any information that you can. Ways in and ways out. Any patterns that you notice and most importantly we need to know if there are any weapons in there."

"When do you plan on attacking?" One of the warriors spoke up.

"In two days. That gives you guys tonight and tomorrow and I need you back by tomorrow night. So we can formulate an exact plan."

"Our goal is to get in and capture as many people as we can and as many criminals as we can. I want as many as we can alive."

"When do we head out sir?" Jack asked.

"I would like you on the road at 6 pm. You will drive until you are fifteen miles out and then by foot from there. You will need to find a place to stash the cars. According to google maps, there is some good coverage here." I told them pointing to it.

They all moved in closer to see where I was pointing to and started studying it.

"Here is where the warehouse is," I told them pointing it out.

"Does anyone have any questions?" Mac asked.

"Who will be leading this mission?" Another warrior asked.

"Jack will be in charge of this. He has expertise in this kind of stuff." I said.

"Thank you, sir. I am happy to do so."

"Anything else?" I asked.

No one said anything so I dismissed them all but Roscoe and Emma.

"I just wanted you aware of our plans. I don't expect you to go tonight." I told both of them.

"Sir I would like to go. That is why I was sent here and so it is my duty to go." Emma said.

"No, you will not put yourself in danger." Roscoe hissed at her.

"You are not my boss and you will not tell me where to go." She yelled back at him and moved out of his lap.

"Fine, then I am going with you."

They both headed out the door arguing. I turned back to Mac and Aubree who both had big smiles on their faces about the two that just left.

"I think the Vampire King has met his match. She is one tuff cookie I don't want to mess with," Mac said.

"Nope me either," I said agreeing with him.

"You guys can go also if you want," I told them.

Mac got up and grabbed Aubree's hand and they left my office. I put everything away in my office and locked the door and left as well.

"Princess, where are you?" I mind-linked her.

"I am holding my niece in her parent's room." She linked back.

I headed for their room as quickly as I could. As soon as I arrived at their door I knocked and soon Liam came and opened it up. The girls were sitting on the couch talking and the sight of Alexa holding a brand new pup and looking happy as could be just made me that much more excited to have one of our own.

"Hey, Princess you look pretty good holding that pup," I told her.

"I look good doing anything."

"You're right you do but I really like you with a pup in your arms."

Her and Sloane just laughed at me and my cheesy lines.

"Princess, would you like to go to dinner with me?" I asked her.

"I would love to if you're buying tacos."

"I will buy you whatever you want."

I went and sat on the couch opposite them, and visited with Liam, and filled him in on everything that was going on.

"Princess would you like me to get dinner and bring it back here for everyone and we can continue to visit with our friends." I mind-linked her.

"Yes please, but can you also invite Mac and Aubree if they are ok with it." She linked back.

"Will you two please stop sex-linking in front of us," Sloane said and then busted up laughing.

"What in the hell is sex linking?" I asked a little confused.

"Dude it's like phone sex only over mind link," Liam said laughing.

"You two are pervs. We don't do that." I told them.

"Don't knock it until you try it," Sloane said.

"How about I go get tacos for everyone and bring them back here so these girls can continue to visit," I asked them.

"Yes, please! Alexis wants tacos." Sloane said.

"Do you mind if I invite Mac and Aubree as well?" I asked them.

"Yes, I haven't gotten to really see Aubree," Sloane said.

"Liam I have to go and see everyone off for the mission tonight, want to join me and then we can go get tacos."

"Yes, I could leave the room for a while."

We got up and gave our girls a kiss and walked downstairs to where everyone was getting ready to leave. Loved ones were telling each other goodbye and hugging.

"Excuse me, everyone. I just want to say thank you to everyone going on this mission and to be safe. We will see you all tomorrow." I yelled out.

Mac came and stood by us while I was thanking everyone for going on this mission. I could also see Emma and Roscoe loading into an SUV. Roscoe didn't look too happy but I understand where he was coming from. I would do anything to protect Alexa but I also know that she is a strong capable woman.

"Hey Mac, we're going to get tacos and have dinner up with Sloan and Alexa, want to come to?" I asked him.

"Yes, can I take Aubree up to your room? She doesn't like to be alone for very long."

"Of course man. Sloane was saying she hadn't seen her in a while so she would love that plus it gives them time to get the baby loves in before the food gets there." Liam answered him.

"Perfect, let me go get her and walk her up to your room." He said taking off.

"Come on, let's go get a car and wait for him," I told Liam as I headed to the garage.

An hour later we were headed up the stairs with enough tacos to feed an army and plenty of drinks. We got to Liam's door and he unlocked it and walked in. We placed everything on the counter and I don't think the girls even heard us come in. Aubree was sitting on the couch holding Alexis now.

"Mac looks like you could be joining the daddy club soon," I told him.

"I can't wait. I wish she would let me get her pregnant now."

"Not happening yet Mac," Aubree yelled out.

We all laughed and walked over to the couches. Liam grabbed Alexis and went and laid her down in her bed. We got up and got plates and brought everything over so we could all enjoy dinner and each other's company.

"Princess, it's midnight. We should get to our room and go to bed," I told her, as she was yawning.

"OK party pooper."

I got up and grabbed her hand and we told everyone goodbye and headed to our room. She stopped me at our door before I could unlock it.

"Thank you for tonight. It was very much needed. It's been a long time since we have been able to do that." She said.

"Princess we will do it again soon. Our lives will calm down as soon as we get close down those warehouses, I promise."

I reached around and unlocked our door. I pulled her to the bed with me and she quickly stripped out of all of her clothes and crawled under the blankets. As soon as I got in there with her she rolled to me and laid her head on my chest just like she did every night.

Chapter 80

Chapter 79 - Alpha Alexa

Alexa's POV

We had two days of relaxing and hanging out with our friends. It was great. I couldn't wait for things to settle down and get into a normal routine. The group that went on the mission had come back unharmed and with a lot of information. We were able to come up with a plan based on what information they provided.

We were now surrounding the building and getting ready to storm in. We had a group of one hundred people with us. We had the whole building surrounded and had people that were going to create a distraction and then we would go in.

"Is everyone in position?" I mind linked out to every group leader.

I got back five yeses instantly.

"Set off the distraction." I linked to the group that was going to be setting off the bomb that we placed.

Twenty seconds later and a bomb went off. It shook the ground and was loud. People went running out the doors and headed towards the fire that was now in its place.

"Everyone move in," I linked to everyone.

Colt was right beside me and grabbed my hand as we ran into the building. We were the first ones through the door. A man holding a clipboard froze as he saw all of us storming in through every available entry. He was human I could smell it.

"Who is in charge here?" I asked him.

"Alpha Robert," he stuttered out.

"So that makes me in charge since I killed him and according to pack rules, the person who kills an Alpha takes his place." I boomed out.

He dropped the clipboard and started to run but one of the warriors was quicker than him and grabbed him pinning his arms behind his back. The man looked like he was going to pee his pants from fear.

"Do you have any weapons in here?" I asked him as I got closer.

"Yes."

"Where?"

"Through that door," he said as he nodded his head.

Five of our guys headed to that door and you could hear a fight break out but I wasn't worried. They were some of our top-trained men.

A back door flew open and several wolves came running and started attacking but they didn't stand a chance as we outnumbered them and we also were stronger. Our men quickly shifted and attacked back and had them pinned down in no time. I walked over to where they were.

"SHIFT NOW," I yelled out putting my Alpha command behind it.

They had no choice but to listen and all shifted back including our warriors.

"Impossible," said the human who was still being held by a warrior.

"Put these men in a cage, and any other person you find that is working for them. Let's get these guys free." I yelled out.

Colt and I took off to look through the other rooms and see if anyone was hiding and we did. We found three men in white coats that were human. They easily submitted to us and we took them out to the others and placed them in a cage. We continued going through each room and didn't find anyone else. This was a relatively easy takeover. They didn't fight us on anything. We had everyone involved in this locked in a cage and everyone that was a victim was in a group. There were twenty of them. There was a mixture of humans, wolves, and vampires.

"Alexa, what are your plans with everyone?" Roscoe asked me.

"I want to take them back to the pack and find out exactly what was done with them and then go from there. We are going to have problems with the humans and them knowing that we exist."

"We will follow you back there then." He said and walked off.

We got everyone loaded up into vans and everyone that was in a cage was removed from the cage and tied their hands together and loaded up as well. It was only an hour's drive back to our pack so it wouldn't take long.

Colt and I took our SUV back to the pack and he pulled up to the hospital so that we could help everyone that needed to be there. We ushered them all into a conference room that was there and waited for Roscoe and Emma to join us. If we were dealing with anyone who has been injected with vampire venom then he would need to explain things to them.

Roscoe and Emma finally joined us.

"I am sorry that this has happened to all of you. I can assure the person behind all of this is dead. We need to know if you guys know what you were injected with."

They all looked at us. None of them were speaking and they had huddled together.

"You guys are safe here," Colter said.

"We don't know." Finally one of the men stated.

"Ok we are going to get you all medical care and we will figure out what you were injected with and help you," I told them.

Some nurses came in and started taking people to rooms. We waited until they were all in a room and told the doctor to let us know when the results of the test were in.

We walked back to the pack house and I headed straight to the dungeon.

"Princess you don't have to do this," Colter said.

"Yes, I do."

I could feel Storm pushing forward and once she did there would be no stopping her. I closed my eyes and gave her control. When I opened them Colter just looked at us. He knew what was about to happen but he still had so much love in his eyes for us.

"Hello, Storm. It's good to see you again." He said.

She didn't reply back to him but she did smash her lips to his and jumped up and wrapped her legs around his waist. She finally pulled back with a smile on her face.

"Mate I would love to take you to bed right now but I must deal with these assholes."

He just chuckled and placed us back down on our feet. We took off to the first cell that held someone we captured. We opened the cell and it was a human.

"What were you doing working for Robert?" I asked. They cowered into the corner.

"He hired me to monitor the humans during and after they were injected." They stuttered out.

"What were you monitoring them for?"

"To make sure they didn't die. During the first set of injections, they always lived but the second set they would usually die. Please I am a doctor. He paid me a lot of money I couldn't turn it down. Please don't kill me." He was now crying.

I walked out of the cell and turned to Colter and the guard.

"Leave him here for now."

I walked to the next cell and opened it. It was a wolf this time I could smell him and his fear.

"What was your job for Robert?" I asked him.

"He was my Alpha, not my boss." He said with a sudden found confidence.

"He was not an Alpha, I took over his pack and killed his Luna and son. I am the Alpha. Now tell me what did you do for him." I growled at him and put an alpha command behind it.

He tried to fight it. His face was contorting due to the pain from fighting it.

"Answer me now." I roared at him.

This time he fell to his knees and bared his neck in submission.

"I gave injections and monitored them during their transitions." He finally said.

"What pack do you originally come from?"

"Twin lakes pack."

"Colter can you call them and tell them they can pick up his body if they want it," I told him.

"Please no, don't kill me. I am sorry. I needed the money."

"I don't care. You stole humans and forced them into this. You helped kill countless people. You must pay for your crimes with your life." As soon as I said this I released my claws and ripped out his heart. He deserved worse but I had more to go and didn't want to drag this on.

It went the same way with everyone in the room. If the human proved to maybe a little useful like the doctor then I let them live for now but if they had any part in someone's death they died.

"Princess it's done. Let's go clean you up," Colter told us still with so much love in his eyes.

I just nodded at him and we walked to our room. I was still fighting Storm for control. She wanted to spend time with Colter but what she wanted to do needed to wait. We had other things to do.

"Storm, I promise you can spend time with him later, please give me back control."

"Do you promise?" She linked back.

"Yes."

She finally gave back control and as soon as she did I stopped walking and grabbed a hold of Colter's hand and pulled him to me. He wrapped his arms around me and held onto me tightly.

"Welcome back Princess."

"We need to call Julian and make a plan with him."

"We can but you are covered in blood."

"I promised Storm that she could spend some time with you later."

"I think Grey would be very happy to come out and spend time with her. Maybe they can go on a run later."

Both of my wolves perked up with that and got excited.

"Great now I have both of them in my head getting excited about that," I told him.

"Well, then we will go for a run tonight."

We finally made it to the shower and I got cleaned up thanks to Colter and him thinking he needed to wash every inch of my body and I do mean every inch.

After getting out of the shower we got dressed again and headed down to our offices. We were going to call Julian. We really needed to get over there and shut down that pack. We walked into Colter's office and walked over to his chair and sat down and motioned for me to come to sit on his lap. I went and sat down and he pulled out his cell phone and dialed Julian's number.

"Hey man, what's up?" He said as he answered the phone.

"We were calling because we took down the other warehouse and the only one left is the one near your pack."

"Great. When do you want to take that one down?" Julian asked.

"The sooner the better. People are being hurt."

"OK, want to head this way."

"Yes, will you send out a group to see if they can get anything on the warehouse and people coming and going and entry and exits?"

"Already ahead of you. I have a group put together and ready to go just waiting for your call."

"Great we will be there tonight."

"Want to stay a few extra days, we are doing Nicki's Luna ceremony on Saturday and we are getting married as well." He said and you could hear the excitement in his voice.

"YES!" I shouted into the phone.

"We will see you guys tonight."

"Come on Princess, we need to go tell everyone we are headed out in a few hours."

"OK but don't forget we promised our wolves we would run tonight."

"Trust me Grey hasn't let me forget."

"What are you wanting to do with the humans that you let live?" He asked me.

"Well, I was thinking that maybe we could have an agreement with the doctor. It's always nice to have an extra doctor on staff and the others I don't know yet."

"Yes, but can we trust him?"

"Only time will tell, but he stays in the dungeon for now."

"I am going to link Mac and Liam. I think Mac should go with us but I will leave Liam in charge while we are gone."

"OK, you handle that and I am going to hunt," I told him and gave him a quick kiss, and got up to go outside.

Chapter 81

Chapter 80 - Alpha Alexa

Colter's POV

Alexa just left to go hunt and I needed to talk with Mac and Liam.

"I need you guys up to my office." I linked them both at the same time.

They both walked in a few minutes later. Although Liam had his daughter strapped to him.

"What's up, boss man?" Mac asked.

"We're leaving in a few hours for Julian's pack. We're going to take over the last warehouse. Liam, you're in charge here. Mac pack a bag you're going with us."

"Thank you, sir. My mate and baby thank you as well." Liam said and turned to leave.

"Alexa and I will be staying a few extra days. Nicki is having her Luna ceremony and they are also getting married. If Aubree wants to come and you guys attend as well."

"I will ask her and let you know. I don't want to push her too much."

"Ok well see you in two hours to leave."

I got up and headed to the hospital to see if any results had come back and see how everyone was doing. I walked through the front doors and headed to our little triage area where they last at. I walked through the doors and it was a little chaotic. People were running around and several people holding a man down.

"What is going on?" I yelled out as I ran over there.

"He is shifting and he is out of control. We need to sedate him before he hurts himself or someone else," one of the doctors explained.

I helped hold him down while the doctor gave him a shot of something and he eventually relaxed enough that we could let go of him.

"Thank you, Alpha."

"I would like an update on everyone we brought in last night."

"Certainly, if you will follow me to my office. I have all of their files there."

I followed the doctor to his office and sat down in one of the chairs in front of his desk. I looked around at his and it was a mess. I don't know how he got anything done.

"You brought us twenty people. From them, we found traces that five were injected with both wolf and vampire venom. Eight had just wolf venom and the other seven just have vampire venom. They all have different levels also. It seems like they were trying to figure out the correct amount to give them to turn them quickly and not kill them."

"Ok, we are leaving soon for Julian's pack. If there are any problems let Liam know. Roscoe will also be here if you have issues with the vampires."

"Thank you."

I got up and left his office. This whole thing was a mess but we were slowly getting it cleaned up. I got to my room and opened the door to my beautiful mate laying on our bed completely naked and her legs wide open to me.

"Mr. Alpha, I have a problem I need your help with." She said in a seductive tone.

"What is your problem, little mate?"

"You see Alpha I am wet and my pussy is throbbing and I think if you put your large hard cock in it, it would feel better," She said sitting up on her elbows.

"I think I better inspect it first to know exactly what is wrong with it," I told her as I took large strides to get to her.

"Alpha will you use your mouth to inspect it?"

"Of course."

"Alpha I'm scared will it hurt?"

"Oh no I make it feel all better."

I could smell her arousal. It was so strong and my mate had me so turned on with her little show she was giving me.

"Alpha it's really throbbing right here and when I touch it my pussy gets wetter and it makes me hot. Do you think something is wrong?"

"Let me check it out closer."

I brought my head between her legs and she spread her lips apart for me giving me the perfect view of her swollen clit. I brought my tongue to it and started licking at it. Her arousal was now pouring out of her.

"Alpha YES that's it. That's what makes me so wet. Can you help meeeeeee?" She screamed out.

"Does it feel better when I do this?" After asking her I instead two fingers and began thrusting.

"Yes Alpha something is happening, it feels good. Don't stop."

"Does my tongue help too?" I asked as I started to lick at her clit harder and curled my fingers in her to hit the magical spot.

"YYYYEASSS ALPHA!" She screamed out and started to buck her hips up and down.

She was so close so sped up my thrust and pushed my tongue harder against her clit and as soon as I did that her orgasm tore through and she squirted right into my mouth. I've never seen anyone do that and it was hot as fuck. My cock was painfully hard and ready to explode.

on

"Do you feel better now?" I asked her as I sat up. She was still breathing hard and had a nice pink flush to her face.

"Alpha, I still have a problem deep inside. I think you better use your cock to make it feel better."

I shredded my clothes as fast as I could and crawled up her body. She was fast to wrap her legs around me and pulled me down to her. I lined myself with her and slammed into her.

"Yes, Alpha that makes it feel better." position

She had me so turned on I wouldn't last long and there was nothing I could do about it. I continued to slam into her as hard as I could but it wasn't enough in this position. I pulled out of her and flipped her over and brought her up so she was on fours and I pushed myself into her as fast as I could. I started to slam into her as hard as I could and she was below me screaming each time I was in her as deep as I could be.

"Princess, I won't last much longer," I grunted out.

"Alpha fill me up with your cum."

That pushed me over the edge and my orgasm hit me fast and hard. I spilled everything I had in me into her pussy. I pulled out and laid down and pulled her to me.

"Princess that was amazing. Your little role-play there really turned me on."

"But Alpha I don't know what you're talking about. I just needed help and you really just helped me." She said and then we both started laughing.

"Come on, let's clean up and then we need to pack. We have to leave in an hour."

She rolled over and got off the bed and headed to the bathroom and swayed her hips as she went. At this rate, we would be late.

Two hours later and we were finally on the road. I had everyone else leave on time. So it was just my Princess and me driving which is what I preferred.

"Princess, why are you all the way over there? You belong in the middle next to me." I told her with big sad puppy dog eyes.

She unbuckled and lifted the center console up and scooted over. She wrapped her arms around mine and snuggled down. She wasn't saying much and that worried. She was usually talkative.

"What's wrong?" I asked her.

"I'm just worried about meeting my real father still."

"I know you are. Remember we talked about this and I promise it will be ok." I told her trying to reassure her.

She didn't say anything else and pretty soon she was asleep and not long after falling asleep she was drooling on my arm.

"Colt she may be our mate and we love her so much but the drooling is gross." Grey linked me.

"It's not gross we all drool in our sleep."

"Nope gross."

"Get a life, Grey."

I cut our link and focused on driving. Four hours later and I was pulling into Julian's pack. I rolled my window down to talk with the guard.

"Hello," I said as the guard approached.

"Alpha Colter, sorry I didn't know it was you. You can go in," He turned to the guard that was controlling the gate and motioned for him to let us in.

The gate opened and we drove inside.

"Princess we're here, you have to wake up,," I said and moved my shoulder.

She sat up and wiped her mouth and then looked turned bright red when she saw the drool on my arm.

"Sorry," quietly mumbled.

"It's alright anytime you want to drool on me you can. Although I do prefer if you drooled on another body part."

"Shut up!" She yelled turning even redder.

We pulled up to the pack house and she jumped out of the truck before I had a chance to. Julian and Nicki came out the front door to greet us.

"Hey guys glad you could make it. We've got dinner ready and then we can meet and set up our plan for tonight." Julian said.

"Sounds good I'm starving." Alexa said ignoring me.

"Princess I will be right there. I need to dry my arm."

"Go to hell Colter!" She said before turning red again.

I couldn't help it. I liked the red tint to her cheeks it was cute. I walked over to her and wrapped my arms around her.

I leaned in and whispered "You weren't singing that tune earlier today. I believe it was, help me Alpha."

"Yes and if Mr. Alpha doesn't be nice I won't ask for help again."

"Ok, Princess I will be nice but in all seriousness, you can drool on my dick anytime."

She turned even darker red and pushed out of my arms and stormed off to the dining hall. I followed behind her and fixed our plates and went and sat down.

"Princess I am sorry. You were just so cute. Your cheeks kept turning red and I couldn't help it."

She just leaned over and kissed my cheek and we went back to eating and visiting with everyone. After we were done eating we all filed into Julian's office.

"Excuse me but Alpha Alexa can I speak with you in the hallway?" Lauren asked her.

She got up to go with her but I wouldn't be letting her do that alone and so I got up and followed them. Lauren just sighed but continued out to the hallway.

"I want to apologize for my actions. I was out of line and if I ever would have known how truly wonderful the mate bond is I would have never done what I did." She said sounding very sorry.

"You tried to kill me. Hell, you almost did. Why should I forgive you?" Alexa spat at her.

"I don't deserve it and you have every right to stay mad at me, but I want you to know how truly sorry I am and how much I Julian's regret my actions. I am just thankful that you spared my life." Lauren said.

"Thank you. I accept your apology but I'm not ready to forgive you."

Alexa turned and went back into Julians office, while Lauren walked away with tears in her eyes. I walked back into the office and Luca looked up for Lauren.

"Where did she go?" He asked when I closed the door.

"I'm not sure. She walked away a little upset." I told him.

"Damn it Alexa, what did you say to her?" Luca said standing up.

"Just that I accept her apology but I don't forgive her."

"She is truly sorry and has changed and worked so hard to be better. She just wanted your forgiveness because she knows what she did was wrong, and now she is going to backtrack." Luca said and by the end of it, he was yelling.

"Luca you better back off. You don't talk to her like that. Your mate tried to kill her twice. She is lucky to even be alive."

Alexa stood up and I could see that Storm had pushed forward. This was bad. Alexa stormed to the door and threw it open.

"Storm stop!" I yelled out.

She turned around and I could see that she was angry and hurt. More hurt than anything.

"Storm please give Alexa back control. There is no fight here. I know you are hurt but please let me talk to her." I asked her.

She closed her eyes and when she opened them I was met with Jade this time. I swear it was like having multiple personality syndrome.

"Hello, Jade."

"Hello mate. Alexa is upset and pushed me forward for now but I promise to be on my best behavior."

"Come on beautiful we need to go to this meeting."

I grabbed her hand and we went back to Julians office and pulled her into my lap.

"You can begin now."
