Chapter 93

Auri was quiet for a moment before she lifted her head from my chest. I looked down at her and watched as her hands came up and brushed the tears away. She cupped my cheek and pulled it down to her, kissing me. My eyes widened in shock. This was the first time we had kissed on the lips. Cato purred but I didn't know how to react. When she bit my lip, the shock broke and my hand wove into her hair. I kissed her back with a fever and a need to tell her how much I loved her. How much I missed her. My heart beat fast and hard.

She leaned back, staring at me, waiting for me. I searched her face for anything that might fix my confusion. That might tell me why. None came though. Auri didn't say anything. Her hand wove into mine and she stood up. Walking around the bench, she pulled me along through the house. We reached my bedroom door and she opened it. She didn't stop but walked through to the bathroom.

Standing there, I watched as she pulled the shirt over her head and unlatched her bra. My eyes roamed her body. She was still so thin but at the same time she was otherworldly beautiful. Her fingers hooked her pants and she pulled them down, underwear and all. Reaching in, she turned on the shower. I didn't understand why she brought me with her. Her hands roamed my chest as her fingers unbuttoned my shirt. Untucking it from my pants, she pulled the shirt off, her body brushing mine as she reached behind me and pulled it off.

I stood frozen where I was. My mind raced of what was happening in front of me, what was unfolding. She reached my belt and finally I reacted, grabbing her hands in mine.

"What are you doing, Auri?" Her head cocked to the side. "Taking a shower."

I blinked, my hands letting go of hers as she unbuckled my belt and tugged down my pants. Just as she had done with hers, her fingers had looped my boxers and dropped them down as well. Weaving her hands back in mine, she tugged me towards the shower. Auri stepped in first before she pulled me in. Closing the shower door, she left me under the water, watching her as she turned her back and started to lather soap on her body.

Cato hummed inside of me and for a moment he took over, I watched as my hands reached and rested on her hips. Chuckling, Cato walked back, pleased with his work. I stood there, feeling her skin, the curve of her hips, and the warm water running down her body. It was enough to make me shiver. What the fuck was I doing? What was she doing?

"Auri?" I growled out

"If you're just going to stand there, you can help." She handed the luffa over her shoulder. It was bubbly with the body wash I used. The scent was all wrong for her but it was all that was in here

Slowly, I pulled my hands away from her hips letting my fingers brush against her back. Grabbing the luffa, she pulled up her hair so I could start at her neck. I scrubbed gently and aware that as I brushed across her mark she shivered. My jaw was set as I focused as best as I could on gently scrubbing her back. I started to go further down her back to her round ass and I squatted down as I scrubbed. Her hips swayed as she separated her legs so I could wash her legs. Washing the inside of her thigh, I leaned in too close and the smell of her arousal hit me. Freezing, I tried to control myself.

My vision was blurred as I slowly tried to finish scrubbing her. She lifted her feet up and I brushed the bottom of her feet. Stepping forward, I closed the distance between our bodies, handing her back her luffa.

"Thanks." She murmured.

I watched over her shoulder as she scrubbed the front of her. Watched her as she scrubbed her chest much harder than I had. The luffa scrubbed between the valley of her breasts and then she scrubbed under each one. She moved to her stomach, making circular motions as she scrubbed down her body. Bending down a little, she scrubbed her legs, her ass bumping into my legs. My mind was lost in the haze that was this creature in front of me. I refused to move, afraid if I moved, I would pounce this woman.

"What are you doing to me?" My voice croaked out

She turned around. Standing on her tip toes, she reached over my shoulder, pressing up against me as she putting the luffa back where it was hanging. The electricity burst through my body and I shook

"I said taking a shower." A smile played on her lips, lips that she currently were biting. "Did you want help? To wash?"

I closed my eyes. "Sure." It came out so quiet I didn't think she heard me.

Turning around and reaching for the soap, her ass bushing me again. I almost coughed but she turned back and lathered up the soap in her hands.

"You don't use the luffa do you?"

"No."

She nodded and reached up to me. I flinched under the soap as it touched my shoulder. Auri paused for a moment but when I didn't say anything, she swirled the soap over my shoulders and across my chest. As she did, her right hand ran over the soap trail, gently massaging my skin. I closed my eyes, feeling the electricity as she rubbed my shoulders.

Her hand pushed gently, massaging my chest and back up to my other shoulder. Between her touch, the pressure and the electricity, my muscles relaxed more than I had felt in years. She soaped further down my chest and down my abs. After all the training she had ran us through, the pudge I had acquired over the years of not training regularly had disappeared. I also hadn't eaten out since I came back from vacation. Just as she had done before, her hand ran against my skin. Her fingers stopped as she felt the scar that was left from the Alpha King. They brushed ever so gently.

"I'm sorry it scarred." Her voice was small.

I smiled, looking down at her. "I happen to not mind scars."

A smile played on her lips again and she continued her massage. She pushed her thumb against my muscles, massaging them into a relaxed state. I closed my eyes again, reveling in her touch. The soap scrubbed my hips and then dipped down. My closed eyes now flung open as she ran the soap along my shaft and then down under my balls. She didn't pause though, bringing the soap to the inside of my thighs as well. Her hand started to brush down and I could only squeeze my eyes shut and pray to the goddess I had enough hold of the thin thread that was my control.

I sucked in a breath as she massaged my hips and ran her thumbs along my pelvic bone down to my dick. She never paused, never lingered longer than her initial massage. Squatting down, she put a little more pressure as she ran her hands down my calves, even going between my toes.

"True around." She ordered, still squatting down. ②

I did as I was told and felt her now start from the bottom and go up. She felt a few more scars on my back and her fingers did linger a little longer on the love handles I still had yet to completely get rid of. Auri wove her fingers up my spine just under where my hair started and I heard her set the soap down. Pumping the two-in-one shampoo bottle, she started to lather it in her hands.

"You might...need to get lower. You're too tall."

I didn't reply but I went down on one knee, my leg slipping between her feet. She came up behind me and her hands ran through my hair. Her nails scrubbed against my scalp and I sighed. She ran her fingers through my hair. Before the battle, she had sat everyone down at the other house and cut everyone's hair. Auri massaged my temples and down the sides of my hair. She was thorough, making sure she massaged every part.

"Close your eyes."

She gently pushed my head into the stream of water. Her fingers combed through my hair as she rinsed the soap out. When her hands left my head, I carefully stood, making sure not to knock into her with my foot.

"Turn around but keep your eyes closed."

She was lathering something else and I figured it was the face wash I never used but just kept it in the shower in case one day I might actually care. I opened my mouth but shut it as both of her hands reached up and cupped my cheeks. She ran her fingers softly across my skin. Her thumbs running under my eyes, as though she was releasing all the exhaustion that gathered there. My mouth pressed in a line as her fingers brushed my lips. She also ran over my nose and put pressure on my forehead as her hands ran the length of my face

"Take a breath." Her voice was hushed.

Both her hands held the side of my face as she tipped me back, the water falling down my face. She continued to brush her fingers across my face as the water streamed down over it. Pulling my head back up, she brushed the water out of my eyes. Opening up my eyes, I looked at her and realized tears were coming out of her eyes. She wasn't sobbing, there was no hitch in her breath, tears just leaked out of her eyes. My hand came up and I brushed her cheek. Auri smiled, it was soft and almost sad.

"It's been a while since I've seen you."

My mind raced. She had been seeing me with her touch. She was making a full image of me. My breath hitched and I closed my eyes, trying not to cry. She said something so honest and so simple, my heart wanted to shatter. I hadn't realized I started shaking until Auri held my hand and frowned

"I'm sorry. Did that make you uncomfortable?"

"Not at all."

Auri's hands came back up and took my face again, she pulled me down to her and kissed me again. It was so soft and gentle. My hands slipped to her hips and I pulled her closer. I loved this woman so much. Every thing she did. Small or big. I loved her. I would never stop loving her. She held everything I was in the palm of her hand. I was hers, and I would give her anything and everything she asked of me. No matter the cost

I felt her lips separate and I tentatively allowed my tongue to move into her mouth. She swirled her tongue around mine and I moaned. I could feel myself get hard and I tried to pull away from her but her hands moved from my face. They wove their way into my hair and pulled me to her. Holding her hips tighter, I used my strength and pushed her back, our faces still only inches apart

"Auri, what are you doing?" I breathed at her "Showing you love."

A frown wove its way and her thumb came down to brush my lips. Feeling the frown

"I'm not taking advantage of you, not when you can't feel"

She shook her head and kissed my frown. I felt her breath against me and it sent goose bumps down my body.

"Logan, I know I love you. I may not be able to dip into that but it doesn't change the fact. I don't feel the mate bond. Just the electricity, just your scent fills me. You've done nothing but be patient with me." She paused. "It allows me to feel physically though. It allows me to feel pleasure and pain. It would....." Auri didn't finish the sentence as her forehead rested against mine.

It would be the last time she could feel physical pleasure, I realized. Hearing her say that she knew she loved me made me soar but I just felt as though I flew too close to the sun as she asked me for her final feeling of physical pleasure. My eyes closed and I leaned into her forehead.

"I love you Auri. I love you so much."

"I know." She put her hands on my chest and played her fingers across me.

Finally, I just took a deep breath, breathing in the forest and spices. Breathing in her arousal. Kicking off the water, I bent down, wrapped my arms under her ass and lifted her up. She squeaked a little and giggled as I carried her out of the shower. I didn't bother with towels. I just carried her to the bed and laid her down gently. Hungrily, my eyes roamed over her naked body. Auri shifted a little, her hand going up and grabbing my pillow while turning slightly to clamp her thighs together. I growled and leaned over her. I took each side of her ribs in my hands and I just allowed myself to feel the smoothness of her skin as I ran my hands down her body.

"You make me lose my mind." I hummed, climbing on top of her.

I brushed a hair out of her face and traced the line of jaw. Auri closed her eyes and leaned into my hand. Leaning down, I kissed her lightly, my lips just sitting on hers. I smiled as she shivered under me. I pressed harder and tasted her with a new vigor and need. I needed her. I needed to feel every part of her. To file away every touch, every reaction, every sound. I would remember every moment of our moments together. Of this beautiful woman beneath me. She gave me her all, when she felt her all wasn't enough. I felt the same. Tonight though, I would show her that we could be whole together.

She whispered against my lips, "I'm yours."
