

246 246- Lucien (Part IX)

Third person pov: 1

Trigger warning: This chapter contains depictions of se*xual assault and non-consensual acts, including group assault, which maybe triggering for some readers.

Giana tried to open her eyes. They had not only pushed her hard but also hit her on the head as a punishment.

Punishment for slapping their head who wanted to kiss her.

They were all wearing masks, hiding their faces, and she saw fury in the man's eyes when she not only rejected his touch but also slapped him.

"You made a big mistake, girl," He then hit something on her head and commanded his men to leave.

They all took their beast forms, and one of them picked her unconscious figure from the ground, grabbing her by his teeth.

Her brother couldn't save her because the poor thing was too busy crying on his father's dead body.

"Where am I?" Giana tried to ignore the sharp headache that blurred her eyesight for a minute.

Her body constantly shook due to the running of the werewolf. His teeth were pierced into her body, and she was feeling weak due to the loss of blood.

She wasn't aware... for how long they kept running, but when they stopped, it was an unknown pack where all the people came out of the packhouse.

Men, women, kids.

The attacker werewolves started taking their human forms, and Giana fell on the ground as she got free from the teeth of the wolf.

The head of the attackers was not a young man, but someone who was of the same age as her father.

She lay there on the ground, trying to make sense of everything. She still remembered that they killed her Dad... and the sting of the slap their leader had given her.

But after that... she didn't know what happened.

When all the pack members came out, she looked up, searching their faces. Maybe someone could help her.

But they seemed too happy over their victory.

Even the kids had hatred in their eyes for her.

What did I ever do to deserve this? She asked herself.

The leader who slapped her earlier came forward and placed his hands on his hips, "All the people of Crimson Claw pack! Today I've taken revenge on your behalf. They kidnapped your slave and killed her. Today, I not only killed their pack beta and Alpha but also brought their daughter here."

All of them cheered, clapping and hugging each other. Giana wanted to tell them that this was not a victory.

Holding a weak woman and giving her pain was not something a powerful werewolf would do. But she couldn't speak.

The way he gave the speech, she knew that the man didn't belong to this pack. He was the Beta of some other pack.

Loss of blood had made her weak. She couldn't transform into her wolf. None of them could.

The attackers sprayed something before the attack and weakened their wolves.

She placed her cheek on the ground and closed her eyes. Her only hope was Lucien. She wished she could send him a mindlink. She was certain that he would come looking for her.

"Look at her! She not only slapped me but also challenged me. So today, she will be punished before your eyes," The leader announced.

Glana didn't know what kind of punishment they were talking about. If they wanted to kill her, then so be it.

She was never scared of death. However, the man chose something which was more horrible than death.

Glana's eyes went wide when she heard some rustling. A strong hand came down and turned her onto her back.

He kneeled near her and started tearing her clothes. In panic, she tried to hold his wrist, but his one hand was enough to undress her.

She whimpered in pain and tried asking for help.

"H... Hel... p..."

Nobody could hear her. Once she was all naked, the man, who was already not wearing anything, lay on top of her and separated her legs.

She tried to push him clumsily, but her hands were very easily held in a male fist as he moved them on top of her head and entered her.

A tear drop rolled down her eye and got absorbed into the ground.

"Look at her bo*obs. She is beautiful," A voice rang near her ears.

"Her mate is lucky," Someone remarked.

"Not anymore! Ha-ha."

They all laughed. Nobody came to her help. When the man got done, she closed her eyes. The feeling that she was so helpless... that she couldn't defend herself was too much to bear.

But then she heard another man's voice, "I want to take her from behind."

There were more cheers, and her body was flipped like a leaf.

When the other man got done, he announced to all the pack members, "Come and have your way. She is all yours... hey... make a line. Where is discipline?"

That day, every man and male child who got an erection had his way with her. Without realizing that she had already passed out.

When they were all done, there was a man who wanted to do it a second time, but the Alpha scolded him, "Now enough. Back to work. This was not something to please yourself. It was just a revenge."

Her body was disposed of in the forest near Blood Stone pack so that they could find her easily.

Blake was the one who found her there. Her condition not only left him stunned but also made him cry.

He quickly took off his clothes and put them on her.

"Giana!" He wanted to slap her face lightly to bring her to consciousness, but it was in such a bad condition that he didn't find the courage to do it.

Her whole body was in bad shape. He could feel broken bones when he was dressing her in the forest.

Jai and Brian were his friends, and he always liked Giana, secretly hoping that she might be his mate.

Carrying her in his arms, when he reached back to his pack, for a heartbeat, the place went silent.

Jai and Brian, who were talking to a woman, followed her gaze when she looked behind them. The color drained from their faces. Brian staggered forward a few steps before his knees gave out.

"Giana!" Jai came running towards Blake in panic.

There were sounds of wailing and sobs when

Blake kept walking ahead. He was the one who needed to keep himself in his senses.

Now he was the one who had to take care of everything as an Alpha.

"Someone..." His voice came out in a hoarse whisper, trembling in shock, "Someone call Lucien...he...he needs to be here!" 1
