

THE ALPHA KING'S OBSESSION Chapter 10 - MATE!

DAMON

Damon was delighted to know his sister will be arriving at his company soon for it's been long he saw her.

He preferred staying in his own mansion which was closer to his company than the pack's castle where Xena stayed together with other pack members.

Today is the day she will be coming for the wedding shoot with her mate Beta Adrain from moonlight pack.

Damon has always thought Xena's mate would be someone in his pack, so she won't have to be too far away from him, but the goddess knows best.

He made the photographers prepare properly for his sister's coming.

Xena is his little sister and also his favourite.

He wants her wedding to be grand as any royal wedding been held for a princess.

"Your Majesty, you must be very excited about your sister's coming.

You look very nervous as though you are waiting for your bride.

If only you could be this way when Fiona visited, it would have been very nice."

"Don't be a pussy Patrick, I don't wanna hear her name mentioned around me."

Damon was still very pissed about what happened some weeks back.

An hour later, Xena arrived together with Adrian. The couple looked stunning together. Everyone was in awe at how beautiful their Alpha's sister looked.

Adrian was very handsome.

They were ushered to Damon's office who embraced his sister lovingly.

"Have missed you big brother", Xena said pouting her lips.

"Have missed you too my princess, you look so beautiful today my love."

Xena smiled brightly at her brother's words.

"Nice to meet you Your Majesty", Adrain bowed in greetings.

"You are very welcome Adrain. I can't believe you became my sister's mate. Well, you are welcome to my family Adrian."

"Damon gave Adrain a handshake with smiles."

He was very happy his sister will be getting married soon with her mate, unlike him who could not find his. If for anything he was really happy his sister did not end up like him who is mateless and have no choice but to be married to someone he doesn't have feelings for.

Damon, felt something strange the moment he came in contact with his sister, but he couldn't place his hands on it as his wolf seem to be very nervous for nothing.

His nervousness surely wasn't because of his sister's coming but for something he can't well place his hands on.

"Oh brother we got to get going now, my makeup artist will be arriving soon you know I told you I will be bringing someone."

"That reminds me, I have the best makeup artist here in my company. Why did you bother bringing another?"

"You don't understand brother. I have seen this lady's work and it's just what I really want for my wedding. Don't feel too bad brother, you know I will always model for your magazines when I have the chance.

It's just for my wedding, I promise after the wedding I will be using yours."

Xena and Adrian left Damon's office, and they were led to a room where they will be having their make-up.

The SUV carrying Mona and Sarah arrived at the company.

Sarah and Mona were yet again left in awe.

" No way, all this must be a dream. Am I really in the famously known modeling company in the whole of the country?" Sarah asked with mouth wide open.

Mona was also left speechless at the massive building in front of her. Her decision coming here was the best decision she has ever made in her entire life.

"Mona do you know, the King own this place? I heard he's the princess's brother. I never thought I would be alive to see this company. I have always seen it on the news and television."

"Sarah, surprisingly you are more updated than I am in matters like this. I am proud of you."

"Mona you don't know how much I researched about everything that we got to do before coming. I can tell you the king is a very young and handsome guy, but he's a flirt, never faithful to a woman."

Mona rolled her eyes . "What do you expect from a young handsome king just like you have said.

I guess most women will be head over heels for him so of course he can't be a faithful man."

" Let's go in Sarah, we are not here to gossip don't forget that."

They arrived at the company still looking very shocked at how big the company is.

They were led to the room where the make-up was to be done.

"Your Highness, are you ready now?"

Xena gave a cheerful smile urging Mona to continue.

The make-up session began.

Meanwhile, Damon's wolf started jumping in his head. He felt like he was about to shift to his monstrous wolf if he did not control it.

"What is wrong with me, why am I feeling this way?"

He called for Pearly to bring him coffee, he thought maybe he needed to take coffee to calm down.

He took coffee, but his wolf won't stop wagging his tail.

"Atlan what's wrong, why are you so on edge today? Let's go out, let's go out".

His wolf won't stop urging him to leave his office. Just what was outside, he thought.

Damon left his office and suddenly he perceived the scent of peaches and vanilla mixed together.

"Where is this nice smell coming from he thought. He followed the scent all the way to the room where his sister's make-up was been done.

He was confused. Why was the scent coming on strongly from this room?

Damon opened the door and his wolf got out of control as he purred "MINE".

Damon saw what he called the most beautiful woman he has ever seen.

She's got eye's that are sparkly green on her beautiful face, which was adorned with the best-looking makeup he had ever seen. Her hair was a wave of good and white. She is tall but not as a she wolf for she is human, but the most beautiful human he had ever seen.

Damon's wolf jumped telling him to go Mark her instant.

Xena and Adrian, were all looking surprised at what they found. Xena could not believe her brother finally found his mate after searching for her so many years ago.

Damon stood right there on his tracks like he just saw a ghost. He was afraid to move thinking if he did she might disappear from his sight.
