

THE ALPHA KING'S OBSESSION Chapter 8 - THREAT

DAMON

Having Fiona in his company was Damon's worse nightmare. Fiona practically acted as though she's already married to him and she owned the company.

Its just a week to his sister's wedding which will be held in the pack's mansion. Damon felt sick in the stomach just for the mere thought of having too many guests around. He had always preferred being alone in a quiet environment and that was why he had a different mansion built solely for him which was close to his company.

His sister Xena had informed him earlier on of her coming to his company for her wedding shoot.

She had also told him about bringing with her personal Make-up artist which Damon objected to for he had professionals in his company who can do better than whoever she was bringing, but she insisted telling him the makeup artist was good and she's invited her over from the south.

He had no choice than to let her do what she pleased since it was her wedding.

Alpha Ferdinand requested for a meeting with Damon which he agreed to knowing fully well what the Sneaky Alpha wanted to talk about.

Damon informed his gamma and Delta to clear out the club for the afternoon for his meeting with the Alpha.

His VIP lounge was prepared for the meeting just as he requested.

It was known that whenever Damon is to have an important meeting with his pack council or with the Alphas from different pack, his VIP lounge was always used as the meeting spot. He preferred his club lounge since his castle was farther away.

He arrived ahead of Ferdinand so as to wait for him. This was one good feature about King Damon, he always respected his fellow Alphas despite the fact that he was king over all of them.

The Alpha arrived an hour later.

Alpha Ferdinand was in his late Fifty's and way older than Damon who is thirty.

Saga ushered him to the lounge where Damon sat waiting for him.

"A pleasant surprise to see you Alpha Ferdinand,"

Damon smiled showing off his pearly white teeth.

"Its nice to see you again your Majesty". He gave a bow of respect before sitting down.

Saga came in carrying a tray of two glasses with a wine in it.

"So tell me why did you request for us to meet up."

"Well your Majesty, am here on behalf of the marriage alliance you have with my pack and daughter Fiona.

Alphas from different packs are starting to make jest of our alliance since it has not being sealed in marriage yet. Fiona is also being made mockery of as an Alpha's daughter who is not favoured by the King.

Your Majesty I just wish the a date will be set for the marriage and made known as soon as possible to quench the rising tension for it will affect the King as well since he still does not have an heir yet.

Damon was beginning to get enraged by Ferdinand's words, he controlled his anger and wold from latching out on him.

"Are you threatening your King Alpha Ferdinand!?. Damon spoke in his Alpha tone which vibrated in the whole room.

"I would never threaten you your Majesty" Ferdinand cowered in fear.

"So what the hell did I tell you the day we formed the alliance?".

"You said you will set a date when it was convenient for you, but...

"Not buts!, I clearly told you I was going to pick up a date in my own convenience.

Now you will go back and wait for me to set a date.

No one dares pressurize me on my marriage not even you Alpha Ferdinand and as for Fiona, I guess it's high time she returned to her father's company since she's very eager to disrupt my peace!".

Damon walked out on Alpha Ferdinand leaving him trembling.

Damon was so terribly angry right now, his gamma and delta gave way for him as he marched out of the club in furry.

When his driver and guards saw how furious he was, they quickly got back into the car for fear of not being lashed out on by their King and Alpha.

Damon's anger is beastly and now one could afford being on his bad sides not even his colleagues in the modeling industry.

Damon punched on the car sit in anger, he could not understand how desperate the Alpha was in trying to force him into this marriage.

Maybe because he was Mateless and Ferdinand was trying so hard to take that as advantage to gain more power. Damon already knows how ambitious and greedy Alpha Ferdinand is, but just for the sake of not wanting to loose his throne he had to put up with these ambitious beasts who seeks nothing but power.

Meanwhile, Alpha Ferdinand got back to his company pacing.

"Damn you Damon!, if not for the fact that you are King and I want the kingship to be in my family, I would have killed him!.

He dared to tell me he was going to send my daughter back to me like she was some piece of trash. One day when my daughter is queen I will make you pay for all the humiliation and disrespect you have given me."

Back at the company, Fiona was preparing for her next shoot when she was visited by an angry royal werewolf.

"Fiona, I need you in my office right now!".

The photographers and models ran out of the studio for fear of not falling under King Damon's wrath.

Fiona trembled in fear wondering what she must have done to make Damon this angry.

She arrived at his office minutes later to find him sitting on his chair with his hands stretched on the desk hitting the table with his index finger looking very pissed.

"Anything the matter your Majesty?."

"You still see me as your King?, You know what Fiona, I think you have overstayed your welcome. I can't have you here in my company anymore. So you go in there take whatever crew you came with and leave my company!".

Fiona sobbed, still very confused as to what she must have done to be chased out of Damon's company.

"Did I do anything wrong, if I did you can tell me I promise I will change." Fiona cried .

"You and your father just won't let me be. Fiona go back to your Father's company alright?, I will send for you when I have fully set a date for the wedding."

Damon was so furious, he thought of ways to call off the engagement but none came to his mind.

Only if he could find his mate, everything would turn for the better, but where else could he find her.

He had gone to every pack he knew in search of his mate but he never could find her and he had long accepted his fate of being Mateless.

Patrick came into Alpha Damon's office expecting to hear about his meeting with Alpha Ferdinand.

"How did it go?, I bet he is becoming impatient with the marriage.

Damon hit his desk in fury, his wolf already on the surface.

Patrick quickly regretted ever asking Damon about the meeting, it was obvious Alpha Ferdinand is trying to force the marriage alliance.

"That sly Alpha!" Patrick thought.

"Patrick, I never want to see Fiona or Alpha Ferdinand around my company." Damon said still very angry.

Meanwhile, Fiona got home after getting herself drunk at a club.

When she got home, she went straight to her father's office where he was reviewing some papers.

"Dad, what did you tell Alpha Damon?, do you know he sent me out of his company?".

Alpha Ferdinand was very pissed seeing his daughter this drunk.

"That isn't enough reason to get so drunk, never forget you are an Alpha's daughter."

Fiona gave a sick laugh at what her father said.

"Did you just say an Alpha's daughter?".

Yes I'm an Alpha's daughter who is nothing better than an omega.

You should have seen how he chased me away from his company. I don't think Damon will ever love me Dad".

"He will, you just have to be patient, that throne will be ours soon."

Alpha Ferdinand's Major plan for the marriage was to make way for him to seize the throne. He wanted the throne for himself and the best way to go about it was to marry his daughter to the Alpha king.
