

Chapter 10

"LET HER FIGHT BACK OR TAKE ALL THE BLOW."

A tear rolled from my eyes. I was looking at Dylan. How could he be so ruthless? His mate was dying in pain. But he didn't care about me. Was it called mate bonds? But my mom told me different things. She said that mates could not see the tears or pain in their mates' eyes but my mate did not even care about me.

I wanted to fight back but how? Maybe Dylan was right. I was too weak to be a Luna.

"Girl, it was just my simple fight and you are done? What will happen when you fight with my wolf? She is eager to fight with her new Luna." After that, she kicked me again and I lost consciousness.

+

+

+

Third P.O.V

+

+

+

When Alice fainted, everyone was shocked. But they were aware of one thing. This woman could not fight back against Livia who was their Alpha's chosen mate.

They were upset about how their soon-to-be Luna was an omega and how weak she was in the battleground.

Dylan was looking at her. His wolf shouted at him, "She is our mate. How could you do that Dylan?" His wolf was growling at him. But he controlled his wolf. He could not let his wolf take over him like last night.

"Dylan! You are doing excess now. This fight was unnecessary. She came today for training, at least let her train first. But what you did was really brutal." Xavier yelled at Dylan.

"Don't you dare shout at me. You all are brutal too. Don't forget who we are. We don't have time for mercy." Dylan growled at him.

Ashar glared at Dylan but didn't say anything.

He went to unconscious Alice and took her in his arms. He was about to go to the pack house but stopped in front of Dylan. He gawked at him and said,

"Don't forget even if you are a true blood, your wolf needs this weak omega."

Dylan did not say anything, just stared at Alice in Ashar's arms.

Ashar turned his head to Livia and said,

"It is your luck that she is not our Luna yet. Otherwise, nobody could stop me to kill you and protect our Luna."

"ASHAR!" Dylan yelled.

"You are my Alpha. But I must protect your Luna too. You can't stop me to protect her until you break our rules and save another woman over our Luna." After saying that Ashar left with unconscious Alice.

Xavier also followed behind him.

Limon and Henry did not say anything. All the fighter wolves were afraid of their Alpha. So they could not dare to talk.

It was natural for them to see Beta Ashar and Theta Xavier talk like that with their Alpha.

Because they were childhood friends. They were friends before all the ranks and positions. And only they dared talk and call their Alpha by his name.

But one thing they were clear about was that their Alpha did not like their Luna because she was weak.

They left the ground and left their Alpha and Livia alone.

"Dylan, I am so sorry. I did not assume she was that weak. Otherwise, I never proposed to fight against her." Livia came to Dylan and said to him.

"What do you think? Who am I?" Dylan stroked her chin where Alice punched her, it was swollen there.

"What do you mean, Dylan?" She said while blinking her eyes.

"Do you think I don't know? That it was all your plan to humiliate her in front of the whole pack of fighters?" Livia was stunned after hearing that.

"D-Dylan it w-was not like that."

Dylan grabbed her chin tight.

"Ah, Dylan! I'm feeling pain. It hurts."

"Painful? It did not look like that when you were hitting her continually."

"It was a f-fight, Dylan."

"Exactly. It was a fight, not a war."

He grabbed her chin more tightly.

"P-please Dylan. You are hurting me. You were not like this before."

"Listen to me very carefully, Livia."

"Y-yes?"

"Maybe she is a weak omega but no one can deny that she is my mate."

"Dylan!" Livia teared up and looked at him. And said again, "You said you don't love her."

"I never said I love her but she is my Luna. And If you dare to play tricks like what you did today in front of everyone and hurt her again, there will be no one worse than me."

"Dylan, I didn't mean anything."

"That is better for you. Don't forget how your mate died." He patted her cheeks softly and went back to the pack house.

Livia was shocked and scared of Dylan's behavior. She thought Dylan would understand by the fight that she was the perfect match for being his Luna.

BUT WHAT HAPPENED TO DYLAN???

