Alpha's Purchased Luna-Chapter 5

"I didn't purchase you for the mate bond,

I PURCHASED MY PACK'S LUNA"

I was shocked after hearing that. He finished smoking, crushed the cigarette bud on the ashtray, and stood up.

He walked to the door and opened it. Before going out he turned his head and said,

"I will tell the maid to clear up the ex-Luna's room so that you can shift there. When any maid comes to tell you about that, just move out of my room."

Then he left.

I should not cry. He was right, my life was saved by him. Otherwise, I would be someone else's slave now. I controlled my tears and didn't want to cry anymore.

I was surprised by how serious he was about his pack. He was accepting me because of his pack. He didn't love his mate but his pack.

I was upset because he told me how weak I was. But he was very powerful so it was normal for him to say something like that.

My wolf was upset too. Her mate insulted her. Her mate humiliated her rank. She felt low.

When I was in deep thought someone knocked on the door.

"Come in."

A girl came who looked in her early twenties just like me.

"Hello, Luna. I have prepared your room. Your room is ready." She said.

"What's your name?" I asked.

"My name is Diva." She said.

"How old are you?" I asked.

"I'm twenty one, Luna." She said.

"Ok, let's go to the room." I said while getting down from the bed.

She nodded and walked forward.

I looked back at the Alpha's room for the last time and started to walk. But what I saw outside, it shocked me, it was a joint two rooms. Just like the king's chamber. This pack house was really big, like a palace I thought.

I went to my new room.

When I reached there I saw a very beautiful white room. Where every piece of furniture was furnished in white and pink color. There were a few couches, a table for dinner and another separate room inside. In the room, there was a queen-sized bed a little small from the alpha's bed. The room was very beautiful, just like a Queen's room.

"The room is looking like a Queen's chamber." I said.

"Yes, because you are the Queen, Luna." She said happily.

"Queen?" I asked.

"Yes, You don't know? Our Alpha is the king here." She said.

"King? Oh, you mean the head Alpha?" I asked her, thinking how childish she was.

"No no. He is the king of the Northern & Southern sides of our country. This is his kingdom."
She said.

"KING?" I was shocked.

'How can he be a king? I have never heard about him as King. I only knew about the Lycan king of the East-West side. But I knew that someone ruled the North-South side but didn't know his name.

Why didn't dad tell me about him more? He always told me to stay away from him and didn't talk about him. Was he afraid of him?' I thought.

"But nobody calls him king, Diva. How can he be a king?" I ask her.

"It was history. I thought you knew that, Luna. Our Alpha doesn't like when someone calls him 'king' because of the Lycans." She said in a low voice as if someone would hear her.

"What about the Lycans?" I asked.

"Actually, our Alpha's father was the first king here and he had a very good relationship with the Lycans. But Our Alpha Dylan doesn't like Lycans at all. He even banished them to come to our kingdom after his father's death. We call it our territory, not the kingdom and call him our Alpha, not king. But deep inside our hearts, we all know that he is our king. ALPHA KING." She said proudly.

"Alpha king?" I was very confused.

Why didn't he like Lycans? I heard about them being enemies.

'Now I understand why people are afraid of him and why all the head alpha of different regions were afraid of him today, even the Alpha of Rogues also looked scared when he heard about him, because he was the king!!!! I thought.

And then I remembered about the people outside of the pack house!!!!

They did not bow to the Beta of their pack. They bowed down to their Queen, their Luna, to Me!!!!

I got goosebumps all over my body. I felt nervous.

Only a few regions were not under any kingdoms and the River Moon pack was one of them. That was why rogues could attack them. And that was why every alpha wanted to contact Dylan.

Because He was the KING!

And here I thought his pack was three times bigger than my pack. But in reality, it was only a wing of his kingdom!

That's why he was very serious about his pack's Luna.

I was going to be his Queen! His Luna?

THE LUNA OF ALPHA KING DYLAN.!
