

Chapter 7

"Chosen mate?" I asked.

"Yes, she is Dylan's chosen mate. Before he found you, we all thought that Dylan is mateless. So Dylan chose Livia as his mate and wanted to mark her to make her his Luna." Xavier tried to explain.

"He wanted to mark her to make her his luna?? He wanted her? Now after finding out about me he is not happy because he has someone else in his mind?" I thought and got emotional.

"What am I to him, Xavier?" I asked with a low voice.

"You are his Fated mate. You are his Luna, our Luna." He replied.

"I see. Fate is really cruel and unpredictable." I smiled sadly.

I wanted to meet the woman who grabbed my mate's heart but before I could meet her Dylan and Ashar went to the car with her, got in, and left.

"Where did they go?" I asked.

"Maybe they try to make her understand the whole situation. She was a chosen mate of Dylan so she was our chosen Luna too. But now suddenly you appeared so it's a tough time for her." He said but there was no unhappy expression on his face.

We went to watch the sight and surroundings. Xavier gave me a cloak to wear. He said that Dylan didn't want other people to see my face before the mating ceremony. I wore the cloak to hide my face.

The pack was so beautiful I could not even explain it. First, we went to the village side where everyone was busy with their work. They looked like living a good life. I heard in my pack that in Alpha Dylan's rule, nobody could live a peaceful life but it was all rumors. All the pack members were living a happy life.

We had our lunch there in a small stall.

We went to the town side. There were schools, colleges, and offices, while men and women participated together everywhere which gave me a fair impression because I was a graduated woman. I know how important education and self-employment were. So I was happy about that.

Lastly, we went to the dark forest. The dark green rain trees were giving my eyes pleasure. I was delighted when I saw a beautiful lake. Every pack had a lake in the forest side. It gave our wolves happiness. They liked to watch their reflection themselves in the lake water. 1

After watching we started to set off to the pack house from the forest. It was dark everywhere.

"Thanks, Xavier, Today I saw so many beautiful sides." I thanked him.

"It's my pleasure, Luna." I nodded.

When we reached the pack house, I saw no one except maids and guards.

'He hasn't come back yet? Must be with his lover.' I said to myself.

I went to my room and took a rest. I called Diva after two hours. She came with my dinner.

"Don't I have to go to the dining hall?" I asked.

"No, Alpha hasn't come back yet," She said and set up my dinner on the table which was in my joint dining-living room. I went to the room and sat at the table.

I talked to Diva about everything I saw today. She was happy that I was not arrogant. She said she was lucky and happy to be my personal maid.

After dinner, I wished good night to her and she left with the dishes. I wanted to sleep because I was tired. I laid down on the bed.

But After some time I was feeling restless and my wolf wanted to be free. it's been three days since I hadn't gone for a run.

I opened my door and went outside. I left the pack house and went to the forest then started to run. In a few seconds, my wolf shifted. The White fur was gliding in the air. I felt relieved.

My mom said I had the most beautiful wolf she had ever seen. The flawless white fur with blue eyes. My wolf was really gorgeous.

After a long time when I was running around slowly in my wolf form, I felt someone following me. 2

I was scared to look back. I started running faster. But I couldn't get away from that person.

Moon was shining so beautifully. I could see a shadow of a wolf coming behind me.

It came closer and closer. It got bigger and bigger every time it came one step close.

'Is any Lycan following me?' I thought.

But suddenly I felt the sweetest smell of my mate.

Then I realized, 'Dylan?'

The moment I turned back to him, his wolf jumped on me.

I was startled and my wolf cried in the sudden push.

I wanted to say something but I realized he didn't mark me, so we didn't have a Mate bond yet which create a mind link.

His wolf started to lick my wolf's neck. Me and my wolf both were feeling shy.

He snuggled my neck as if smelling my scent and started to lick again.

After some time the wolf moved away from my body.

Then I found out how big and giant his wolf was. The black fur with a pair of red eyes. So dangerous yet so beautiful.

When I was about to run from him. I heard other wolves. Dylan came to protect me with his giant body.

When the wolves saw who he was, they didn't come close.

They were simple pack members. When they saw their Alpha was there they were afraid and left with their heads bowing.

Suddenly, Dylan shifted to his human form and I looked away from his naked body. Why did he shift suddenly?

"You shouldn't come here so late. Not until you can protect yourself properly. Everyone doesn't know you, so anyone can be harmful to you." He said in his deep voice.

"Does he care about me?" I thought.

I was in my wolf form but still looking away. I knew in our werewolf world, being naked after the shift was not a big matter at all. It was a kind of habitual fact.

But still watching him like this made me feel nervous so I didn't look at him.

He was standing there without saying anything.

Then suddenly I saw that Xavier was coming with some clothes.

He gave the clothes to Dylan and glanced at me.

"Wow, you are so beautiful. I never thought I would see this much flawless beauty in my life." Xavier praised.

"Who is she, Dylan? I don't remember if she is from our pack. So beautiful and I have never seen you before? Darling let's go for a run with me okay?" He winked at me.

"Shut up and Go back to the pack house, NOW." Dylan said while glaring at him.

"Why are you always doing this to me? You always grab the best one. Now you have a Luna also. Didn't I ask you to stop fucking around? Why are you still with a beauty like her? I bet your omega doesn't less beautiful than her, so leave her to me." He said.

Dylan growled at him.

And Xavier was shocked.

"Why are you behaving like this? as if she is your Luna. Just tell me Dylan, Who is she?" He asked again.

Now what Dylan replied to him made him shocked,

"YOUR LUNA."
