CHAPTER 11

I can't get home fast enough. Even though it matters none to Declan, I want to freshen myself up before he gets back. I'm not sure why I'm feeling so jittery today, maybe it's a Dire wolf thing. I need to crack down and look into all of my mother's notes tomorrow and try practicing some of the magic that she listed to find what it is that I have inherited. There has got to be something in her notes explaining what happened to me this morning.

After checking on the boys, who are actually with grandma and Jonah, I run up to our room and into the ensuite. Being a Dire wolf, I'm able to speed through my shower, even shaving certain parts. That need it, being careful, of course. I don't bother with clothes since my mate ordered me not to wear any, but I'm feeling a little rebellious, so I go into his tie drawer and pull out his favorite tie and then go into the closet and get my tallest pair of heels. After putting them on, I remember why I've only worn them once, and thank the Goddess that I won't be walking in them tonight anyway.

Climbing onto the middle of the bed, I pose myself in what I hope is a sexy pose. Wearing Declan's blood red tie around my neck and these black with a red outsole, ridiculously high, and very expensive stilettos that Cici told me that I just had to have, on my feet, my left leg is bent as I rest my arm on top of my knee, spreading me wide open just for him.

I can feel him getting closer, and now I'm starting to rethink this whole trying to be sexy act. The time for me to change my mind passes, though, as I hear him in the outer room to our suite. Next thing I know, he's coming through our bedroom, stopping mid-stride once he sees me. Shutting the door, he turns the lock and then leans against it as he crosses his arms.

"What do we have here?" He sweeps me up and down, "I specifically remember that I told you I wanted you naked."

I graze the arousal between my legs, and then my clit with the end of his tie while he watches my every move, "I didn't think you would mind me borrowing your tie. After all, it can be very useful to you as you ravage me and bend me to your will, my King." I suck and then bite my lower lip.

He crooks his finger at me, indicating for me to come to him. Ever so slowly, I swing my legs over the edge of the bed and stand up. I'm not sure if I'm looking sexy as I walk over to him or just if I look like a newborn giraffe trying to walk for the first time, but I make it over to him without falling, so that's a win for me.

He grabs his tie and wraps it around his hand, pulling me into him, "Do you want me turning hard every time I scent your arousal when I wear this tie...which is quite often by the way?"

I smirk, "Why do you think I did it? I want you thinking of me every time you wear it." I reach up and drag my tongue up the side of his neck, over the mark I gave him.

Growling, he grabs my throat and turns us, slamming me against the door but not in a way that it hurts. "Do you think I want other males smelling my mate's pussy, knowing how arousing her scent is?"

"Just think of how jealous they would be because it's you that fucks me." I try to grab the bulge in his crotch, but he grabs both of my wrists and holds them above my head.

"With all due respect, my Queen, but I can't have my tie smelling like your sweet cunt because I don't have time to kill every bastard that dares to breathe around me when I wear it."

I gaze at him through hooded eyes; I'm so aroused right now that I could probably come just by him telling me too, "Are you going to keep manhandling me or are you actually going to fuck me?"

He squeezes my neck, adding a little more pressure to it and then kisses me hard. When he breaks away, he spins me around, so my chest is pressed against the door. Using his body to hold me in place, he rearranges the tie and puts it over my mouth, so I can't talk, "I love the shit out of you but sometimes you just talk way too much, and you're too cocky for your own good." He yanks me away and pulls me over to the bed only to bend me over the edge of it, "You want me to fuck you, fine, but you're going to be a good girl and take everything I give you."

I hear rustling and next thing I know he's thrusting his cock into me and battering my poor pussy. It's a damn good thing that it can. take a good pounding, because he isn't letting up, and all too soon, my cries are muffled as he has me coming hard. Each time he slams into me, my clit rubs against the bedding, causing the fire to reignite inside. I fist the bed for some sort of grip as he takes me. with everything he's got.

"Come for me one more time and then I'll give you a break." He says it amusingly, almost like he's mocking me, so instead of coming, I hold back, "Oh? Is that how it's going to be? Do you think you can win this game, little mate?" he takes hold of my hands. once again and brings them to my lower back, holding them in one hand, while his other hand comes around and starts rubbing circles on my clit, "You will come for me, my Queen. Try as you might, but you will give me another orgasm...now come, now!" He squeezes my clit and I'm lost.

My body shakes with need as it tumbles over and crashes into the waves of ecstasy. I'm drowning in them, and it has my body practically convulsing as I try squeezing every last bit that I can get. My head drops back down to the bed as I pant rapidly trying to catch my breath.

"Are you done running that beautiful mouth of yours?" My mate asks amusingly. I nod, "Good, because I want to feel your teeth as they sink into my mark during this next round."

He unties the knot and pulls the tie from around my mouth. I stretch out my jaw and then glance behind me, trying to see where he's gone to. When he comes back from wherever he went, I smile sweetly up at him, "Does this mean that I get to ride you?"

"Is that what you want to do, baby?" He stretches out beside me, "Do you want to ride your King?"

I nod, "Very much so."

"Well, who am I to deny the Queen of her rights to her King Consort."

I burst out laughing, "Consort really? Actually, I really like that I may just refer to you as my Consort from now on

"Unless you want the gag back in your mouth," my mate states, suggest you hop on and get to riding "

Sorry peeps, I know it's supposed to be a 2-chapter day, but I had a lot going on and was only able to get the one in. I hope you enjoyed it regardless! =)

Chapter 12

His bite causes my body to flood with warmth as his teeth sink into me deeply. My mouth waters in anticipation of tasting him as well, but first, I want to savor the burn of desire as it seeps down into my soul and causes every nerve ending to stir to life. Only then do I open my mouth and sink my own sharp canines into his mark. I feel his body jerk and his cock grow even more. I know he's about to knot me and pump me full of his seed. The thought sends my body into a higher state of arousal and I find myself coming for him once more.

His arms tighten around me as we drink from each other and just as I start to come back to myself, he pounds into me even harder, and I feel it as he releases himself deep inside of me. His climax sends me back into another one, and we ride the euphoric wave together as one.

He drops down to his back and I follow, laying on top of him as we wait for his knot to shrink. I can feel his rapid heartbeat as I press my ear to his chest and relax my body. I enjoy laying here like this in the aftermath of our love making while our bodies are stuck together.

"That, my Queen, was phenomenal!" Declan chuckles and rubs my back.

"You weren't so bad yourself, Consort." I giggle as he tickles my side as payback for the name.

"Oh!" I can't jerk around too much otherwise, his knot will hit against places, sending me in another state of arousal.

"Keep still then." He orders playfully.

Dividing into pages now

"Declan," my mind wanders to a completely different subject, "I want, no I need to go over my mother's notes tomorrow. I need to learn what I can do in order to keep this pack and our children safe."

He kisses the top of my head, "Then let's do that. I will be going back to Storm River for a while again tomorrow afternoon, but we can work on your stuff in the morning."

I nod in agreement, "Also, I think we need to talk with the Elders, now that they are our council. I want a trial to take place for the prisoners. I don't want to be the judge, jury, and executioner. We should do it the way the humans do it."

"I think that is a good idea, babe. I will send off an email to the Elders, asking them what their thoughts are on the matter. I'm sure they will agree with you."

"Hm, that will be the first..." I say as I begin to drift off to sleep.

"Again! You have to keep trying Quinn." Declan encourages as I try to concentrate while trying to light a fire, but it just isn't working.

"Maybe I'm just trying too hard. Let's try one of the other ones for a bit." I say, hoping that I get at least one other cool power aside from reading people when it chooses to do so.

"Well, let's just take a moment to think here," my mate states, "What were you doing when you used your other power yesterday morning?"

I sigh heavily, "I wasn't doing anything except just thinking about how I needed to find out who he was and where he came from."

"Okay! Now we are getting somewhere! Just look at this candle and think about how you want it lit." He instructs.

I huff and then concentrate on the candle that we have sitting on a little makeshift table made from an upside down recycling bin. I try closing my eyes first and when nothing happens, I try with them open. Frustration takes hold and I throw up my hands.

"I quit! I obviously don't have that power, so can we move on?"

"I think you're trying too hard, babe." He stands with his hands on his hips, looking all hot as hell like usual.

"How else am I supposed to do it, just say it nicely or what?" I walk up to it and bend down in front of it, "Candle, light." I say sweetly, and I jump back as a flame dances to life, "Holy shit! I did it! Oh, my Goddess...I did it!" I screech and then jump up and down.

Declan comes and picks me up, swinging me around in a circle, full of excitement, "That's my girl! See, I knew you could do it!"

When he sets me back down, I grab a few more candles and light them the same way. An idea comes to me, and I take off into the house, running straight for the fireplace, "Fireplace, light." A cozy fire fills the space and I laugh while clapping my hands.

"Quinn! You can't be doing this in the house yet, especially with the kids in here!" Declan lectures and guilt takes over.

"Shit! I didn't think, I'm sorry!"

"It's fine, just wait until you can control it better."

I follow him back outside, "Okay, I want to do the other elements."

"You're not a fucking witch, Quinn. Don't say it like that, it gives me the creeps." My big strong mate gives a fake shiver.

Laughing, I say, "Fine, let's try wind."

This one wasn't as easy as the others were, once I knew how to call upon them, and at first, I wasn't sure if it was me or the actual breeze passing through, until I ask for a strong wind and Declan gets knocked over by a huge gust of it. Needless to say, I had to put a halt to that one, now that I know that I can do it. One by one, I try each of the powers my mother listed and to both mine and Declan's surprise, I can do them all. The last one, healing, is my favorite. Knowing that I now have the power to help heal, just like my mother, has me walking on air.

"It must be why you are so important, Quinn. Not only are you the last female Dire wolf, but you have been blessed with all the powers as well." My mate pulls me in and hugs me tight.

"Yeah, well now I have to figure out how to use them against the Shikari when they come. They have magic too, so it will be hard to know what power to use when."

Declan pulls away from me and holds me by my shoulders as he looks down at me, "I have every bit of fate that when the time comes, you will know what to do with them."

"Oh nice, don't put any pressure on me or anything!" Worry takes hold because my biggest fear is going into this war and not being able to save any of my loved ones because I freeze up and don't know how to use my powers.

My thoughts are interrupted by a mind link from Spencer, 'Yes, Spence, what's going on.'

'Well, Doc is discharging Ledger and we are trying to figure out where to take him. If you don't want him at the pack house, we will understand, but know that wherever he goes, Cici and I will go.'

I never even thought about where the hunter would go when he got discharged, 'Give me a moment to talk it over with Declan.' I respond.

"What is it?" My mate asks.

"It was Spencer. He's wanting to know where Ledger is going to stay because he's being discharged."

"He can stay in the cells for all I care." He mutters, and I slap his chest.

"Seriously! He's our Beta's mate, we can't lock him up until we know more."

"Well, he's not staying in the pack house where our children are, that's for sure!"

"Well, I didn't want him at the pack house either just yet, but you could have said it a bit nicer." I bite my thumb nail as I think, and as always, Declan pulls my finger away from my mouth, "Oh, I know! Cam and Veronika's house is vacant at the moment since they moved to the Gamma suites. They can stay there."

"They?" He asks.

"Well, you don't think Cici and Spencer are going to make their mate stay by himself do you? Would you?"

He runs his hand down his face, "Fine, but I don't like the Beta not being close. We better figure this out soon!" I smile and give him a quick kiss. I then link my Beta, letting him know that they can bring their mate home.

Thank you for reading! I hope you all have a fantabulous day! =)

CHAPTER 13

Spencer

When Quinn tells me that we can stay in Cam and Veronika's house for now, I'm not going to lie, it hurts. I know me and Cici can. come home but Ledger is our mate too. How would she feel if the roles were reversed. I understand her concerns, especially with the pups, but it's as though she doesn't trust me as her Beta. So, with a heavy heart, I informed her that I would be taking a leave of absence from my duties. Of course, it doesn't go over too well and the next thing I know, I have a very angry Queen at our doorstep.

"What the fuck do you mean, you are taking a leave of absence? I need you more now than ever, Spencer!" Quinn's voice is loud, but she isn't using her aura on me, so that's telling me that she is hurt more than she is angry.

"I'm sorry, Quinn. I cannot serve as Beta to this pack when the Luna and Alpha, pardon me, the Queen and King do not trust my judgement." Now that I'm saying it to her face, it's breaking my heart even more.

"What the hell are you talking about? You're not making any sense, of course, we trust your judgement, I trust your judgement!"

"With all due respect, Luna, I beg to differ. If you did trust my judgement, then Cici and I would have our new mate settled into the Beta suite as we speak."

It's almost as if I had slapped her, her head whips back that fast as though I've hit her, "That is why you are stepping down?"

"What would you do, Quinn, if you were in my shoes?" I run my hand through my hair and then step outside, shutting the door behind me because I don't want to disturb Ledger resting, "Look, I understand your concern and all, but he's got amnesia for Goddess's sake, he can't even remember who he is!

When we told him that he had both werewolf and witch blood in him, he didn't take it all that well, and doesn't understand how he or his father would want to kill werewolves when he, himself, is one. He's lost and confused, and now he feels like he's a burden to me and Cici."

"Why does he feel as though he's a burden? He's just met you."

"Are you serious right now, Quinn? He feels like a burden because we are taking care of him instead of doing our job. I can't believe you, of all people are acting as if the mate bond isn't anything. special." I turn to go back inside because I can't even look at my Luna right now, I'm so disappointed in her at the moment.

"Spence, wait! You're right, I do understand, I'm only trying to figure out what all of this means. If you think that Ledger won't be a threat to us once he recovers his memory then, I will trust your judgement and you can bring him home."

"Seriously?" I ask, not believing what she's actually saying

"Yes, I'm serious." She chuckles.

"What about Alpha?" I know for a fact that he's not going to be happy about this.

"Let me handle Declan. I have my ways of persuading him to agree with me." She winks.

"I will take your word on that, Quinn, no need to explain," I chuckle, "But to be honest, I think having him around the pack and seeing how we interact and how we live; it will show him that we are no different than everyone else, but I really don't think we will need to convince him of anything."

"Okay then, I will see you at the pack house whenever you decide to come back. Tell Cici she can stop hiding behind the door, the big baby." Quinn laughs and then heads back to the pack house.

Cici opens the door, "What? You couldn't come out and talk sense into your best friend yourself?" I ask my mate as I cross my arms. over my chest.

“No, because I was ignoring her for the time being, until she got her head out of her ass. You did perfectly fine on your own, babe.” She turns and goes back inside, “Oh, Ledger was asking to speak to you in private.”

Glancing in the direction that the Luna went, I then head back inside to go see what my other mate needs to talk to me about. I can't imagine why he wants to speak to me alone, though. He always seemed a bit overwhelmed when it's just the two of us in the room, but I understand because I'm not sure what to do with a male mate either. He doesn't even know much about mates, only what we have told him, so it's got to be extra hard on him.

I gently knock on the door to his room, which is right next door to mine and Cici's. We figured he would feel more comfortable for now having his own, than sharing with two strangers. I hear his strong, masculine voice telling me to enter and my cock stirs. It does that almost every time I hear his voice, it's sexy as fuck.

“You asked to speak to me alone.” I close the door behind me before going over to where he is sitting in a chair by the window.

“Yeah. I couldn't help over hearing you talking to your Luna, I'm sorry, the window is open.” He nods towards the window, which is indeed open.

“There is nothing to apologize for, if anything, I should be apologizing for disturbing you, it was not my intent.”

“I've been awake for a while, but I called you in here, because I don't want you giving up your duties for me. I understand your Luna's concern after everything you and Cici have told me. She has a right to be worried. Besides, I think I may feel better being here for a little bit, until I get used to everything, than being in a house full of a bunch of strangers.” He gets up and comes to stand right in front of me.

“Whatever makes you feel more comfortable, is what we will do then; until you're ready to move to the next obstacle.” I've been watching him stare at me intensely and I want to ask if he's okay but then he speaks again.

“I'm ready to move on to the next obstacle.” He smiles at me, and I swear the room brightens a little bit more.

“That's great! What is this next obstacle?” I ask getting a little excited that he's taking a little bit more interest in things.

“This...” He steps into me, grabs my face and crashes his lips. against mine.

For a moment, all I can do is stand here and try to figure out what is going on, but then my mind catches up, or maybe it's my cock hardening, that has me kissing him back, I'm not sure, but I pull him into me as I open my mouth for him. I'm not quite sure who the dominate one is between the two of us because we both take and then give the same amount, only I wait for him to become more aggressive before I show any of my own.

My back hits the wall as he shoves me into it and presses himself into me. I can feel his own hardness digging into me and I moan. I'm not quite sure where to go from this point, and I don't know if he does either, but it doesn't matter just yet because we are suddenly interrupted when we hear a gasp coming from the doorway, and we break apart only to see our other mate staring in total shock.

CHAPTER 14

Ledger

I'm not sure what I'm doing, all I know is that when I heard him talking with his Luna outside, and how he stuck up for me, I could hear the emotion in his voice. It stirred something inside of me and I needed to see him right away. The moment I see him after hearing everything he said, desire begins to build, and I have the urge to kiss him. It's weird, because I'm not seeing him as another male, but as someone that matters to me. When I look at Spencer, he stirs the same desires inside of me as Cici does.

I can't hold back any longer and so I take the plunge and kiss him. Sparks fly as our mouths crash against each other, and just when I think he isn't going to respond back, he pulls me against him and opens his mouth for me. I push him against the wall and press my body into his, so he can feel what he does to me.

Things are becoming hot and heavy, when all of a sudden, Cici shows up looking a little shocked, “Please, don't stop on my account, that was actually really hot; you may precede.” She says as she sits in the chair I was in and props her head up on her hand. I grin, and then grab her, pulling her over to us.

“What, you don’t want to join?” I ask.

“Oh, I just assumed it was a private party, and I was just going to crash it.” She smirks at both me and Spencer.

I glance at Spencer, making sure it’s going to be okay with him, “May I?”

“She’s your mate too, you don’t need to ask permission.” He grins.

“Oh, I see. You ask him, but you never bothered to ask me if I minded if you manhandled my mate!” She pretends to be hurt.

I pull our little mate against me hard, “Do you want to keep talking or do you want me to kiss you?”

“Shutting up now...” She says as she stares at my mouth, waiting.

I don’t take her mouth like I did Spencer’s, not that I don’t want to, but somehow, I was able to sense Spencer’s need and it was right there with my own. Cici, on the other hand, even though I can feel her need as well, it’s more of a make love to me need, rather than a fuck me need; if that’s even a thing.

I tangle my fingers in her hair at the back of her head and hold her to me while I kiss her tenderly at first. She begins to press her body into mine, and so I deepen the kiss, surprising myself when I give a little growl. I pull back for a moment stunned at the sound that I just made but all Cici does is grin.

“You may not shift but you have a little wolf in you regardless.” She chuckles.

I look over at Spencer and then hold my hand out for him to take. Pulling him up and behind our little mate, we both start loving on her from both sides. Spencer is the one to lift the hem of her shirt. up and over her head as I gaze at her perfect breasts. Cici has curves that I’ve only seen covered, so I’m dying to see what they look like once she’s spread naked before us.

I look between them both, “Is this, okay? I mean, are you two ready to do this, to add a third like this?”

“Are you kidding me right now? This used to be at the top of my bucket list before I met Spence! Now I have a lifetime of fucking two smoking hot males!” Cici states excitedly.

I throw my head back and laugh, then glance over Cici’s head at Spencer, “And you?”

“I’m definitely ready!” He says and then kisses me as we squish our mate between us.

When I pull back, it’s only to walk over to the bed and pull my shirt up over my head and toss it on the floor. I unbutton my jeans but that is as far as I go at the moment, “Don’t make me beg for it.” I grin at them both as they just stare at my chest and abs. I glance down thinking there may be something wrong, but there is nothing there, and then I realize that me being really ripped is what’s causing them to stare. Spencer is ripped as well, so I’m not so sure why they are acting as though they have never seen muscle before.

Spencer shoves Cici at me playfully and I catch her, picking her up and tossing her on the bed. He finally relieves himself of his shirt and we both stand here staring down at the half naked woman on the bed. I feel as though I am in a dream right now, like I’m going to wake up at any minute. Being here with these two, like this, I couldn’t have asked for anything better.

I move to stand behind Spencer and reach around to undo his jeans. I watch Cici as she watches my hands unbutton, and then. unzip them. She licks her lips as I begin to slide them down past his hips. He jerks when I take hold of his cock and begin to stroke it only to motion Cici to come over.

“Take your bottoms off, I want you completely naked for what we are about to do.” I grin as she fumbles trying to take her own pants off while keeping her eyes glued to my hand on our mate’s cock. It’s just as I thought, she’s got curves that go on for days and I can’t wait to get my hands on every single one of them, “Come here gorgeous and take this beautiful cock into your mouth.”

I hold Spencer’s shaft up, so she can take it deep into her mouth, and then I watch as she begins to bob her head. I tug at his head and bring him in for a kiss before leaving him to go to the other side of the bed. Cici is on all fours as she sucks Spencer off and I have a perfect view of her glorious peach. One of these days, I’m going to fuck it, but right now, her glistening pussy is calling out for me.

Climbing up on the bed behind her, I drag my tongue through her wet folds, tasting her essence for the very first time. Sweet mango is the first thing that comes to mind when tasting her, and all I want to do is take hold of her luscious ass and bury my face until I'm drowning in her arousal. Instead, I take my sweet time in bringing her to orgasm.

"I need inside you, Cici. Can I..." She doesn't let me finish.

"Yes! Please...I need you inside me!"

Regardless of what he said earlier, I still look at Spencer for permission, "Seriously, Ledger, I've been waiting here hoping you would get to fucking her soon! You're going to love our mate's pussy."

That's all I need to hear as I discard the rest of my clothing and line myself up to her entrance. I push the tip in slowly and can feel how tight she is around my girth. I was hoping to thrust hard and deep, but I'm afraid to break her even though her wolf will heal her. Nevertheless, I take it slow until I'm balls deep inside her and have to take a break myself.

I take a few deep breaths with my eyes closed because her pussy is like a vise grip around my cock, and when I open them, Spencer is staring at me with a huge grin spread across his face, "I fucking told you so!"

I hope I did these scenes justice, and you enjoyed them... please comment your thoughts! I hope you all have an amazing day! =)

Chapter 15

Cici

The sound of something hitting the wall worries me and I take the stairs two at a time up to the second landing. I silently open the door to Ledger's room and gasp, but then curse myself because the little sound I made has them stopping the hot make out session that they decided to have without me. I never thought I would get off on two males kissing, but damn, they make it look so hot.

I try making myself comfortable but I'm being pulled into their little circle and all too soon, I'm finding myself naked, on all fours, and sucking off one mate while the other works his way into me. This is my eighteenth birthday wish finally coming true! Well, it was actually to have a Ménage a trois before meeting my mate, but this is so much better!

I whimper when Ledger finally fits himself all the way inside. It's a very tight fit, telling me that his cock is huge. Spencer has a big cock, the biggest that I've ever had, until now; Ledger is definitely on the girthier side.

I try to move but he takes hold of my hips and holds me in place, "Don't you dare move just yet!" He says through gritted teeth.

I have to chuckle because it's the same exact thing Spencer did the first time we had sex. Speaking of my mate, I look up at him as he pushes himself down my throat, holding himself there until my eyes start to water. He loves seeing my tears when giving him a blowie and causes them every chance he gets.

"Cry for me, baby, that's it." He pulls out and thrusts a few more times before holding himself in once again. He looks behind me, "You will get used to the tightness, I promise, but you might as well spill now, and get it over with. Only then will you be able to enjoy fucking her."

"How the fuck are we supposed to take her together with her already being this tight?" Ledger asks my other mate.

"Very carefully, but that's going to be a really fun time, won't it baby?" He wipes away one of my tears and then goes in deep to make some more.

I moan when I feel Ledger pull almost all the way out but then push back in, "Oh fuck!" He starts slamming into me and then I feel his hot seed painting my insides. He continues to thrust a few more times before slamming in and keeping himself inside until every drop is out. "Damn, I wonder if that's the fastest I've ever came." He chuckles but both Spencer and I growl low thinking about our mate fucking someone else. "What?" Ledger asks.

"We don't talk about past fucks in front of mates; we are too possessive." Spencer explains.

"Oh, I'm so sorry. If it makes you feel better, I don't remember any of them."

I can't help but to choke on Spencer's cock as I laugh at his statement. Spencer pulls all the way out until I'm ready to take him. again, but then he moves away and goes to Ledger. He takes hold of his face and kisses him hard, trying to stake his claim on our mate.

Seeing both of my mates loving each other behind me makes me a bit jealous just to be kneeling here with a cock up inside me but not doing anything. "Yooohoo, did you forget about me over here?" | say it more to be a smartass than anything.

Suddenly, I'm rammed hard by Ledger, "Oh, no worries there, gorgeous. We will both be with you in just a moment, and then you will be begging us to stop."

I scoff, "I highly doubt that."

"Why is it that even though I've only just met you, it seems like I can't get enough of the two of you?" He's so cute when he furrows. his eyebrows like he's doing right now, but it's not so cute when he's deep inside me and he decides to carry on this kind of conversation.

"It's the mate bond, and we can tell you all about it once we are done with the actual mating part, if you know what I mean." I wiggle my brows and then my ass, making him wiggle along with me.

A grin, that I haven't seen on him as of yet, crosses his face, and he pulls all the way out of me. I pout but then watch as he lays on his back and holds his arms out for me. I happily lift my leg and straddle him, but not before I get a good look at the monstrous cock that is going back inside of me.

"Fuck yourself down on it, mate." It's a crafty grin that he's giving me, and even though I oblige and line his cock up to me, it makes me wonder what it is he's up to.

My walls stretch all around him as I sink down little by little until our bodies are touching. How I'm able to fit him all inside of me, I haven't the slightest idea, but he's in and I begin to ride him slowly as he watches me. I feel the bed dip as Spencer comes up behind me, moving my hair aside, so he can nibble on my neck. His teeth. scrape over the mark he gave me, and Ledger's eyes follow my other mate as he nips the sensitive area.

“Will both of you be marking me?” Ledger’s voice is thick with lust as he continues to watch Spencer.

“Do you want us to mark you?” I ask. We haven’t talked about it yet because he is new to all of this and we didn’t want to scare him but the way his cock keeps jerking inside of me as his eyes stay glued to my own mark, tells me that he’s very interested in being marked. “What does it mean to be marked, anyway?”

“Well,” Spencer begins to explain as his hands come around, one to squeeze and play with a nipple, and the other to slide down and start rubbing my clit, making me lean back into him as I continue. to ride Ledger, “it tells others that you’re mated and off limits, but it seals the bond between the mates and those mates can feel everything their mate is feeling. Your souls connect as one, if that tells you anything. Also, when mating and you bite into the mark, you will have the best orgasm ever and you will knot your mate in order to breed her.” Spencer ends with a nip to my mark, and I giggle.

“I’m not sure how it will work with you because you don’t shift,” I say to our new mate, but you should be able to knot me if we can figure out how you can mark me yourself.

“Well, I guess that can be left to figure out for another time; right now, I just want us all to be together for this first time. Spencer...”

I hear the sound of a cap as Ledger pulls me down, so our chests come together, “I’ll take it slow because this is going to be one hell of a fit.” Spence states.

I close my eyes as he uses his fingers to prepare my back hole to take his cock. I love anal, usually, but even I’m skeptic as to how this is going to feel as we add Ledger’s beast to the mix. I grind myself on Ledger as Spencer fucks me with his digits, bringing me. to a big climax.

“That’s right, give us a nice big one, baby.” Spence says soothingly.

As I begin to come down, he pulls his finger out and replaces them with his shaft, lining it up to the hole and pushing the tip in slowly. I whimper at the pressure, but Spencer knows that I don’t need him. to stop yet, and so he continues to push himself in.

“Fuck, this is going to be a challenge. Why the fuck are you so big, Ledger?” He snickers as he inches himself in a little more.

“Sorry, not sorry,” our mate chuckles and then pulls out almost all the way, “Try now.”

“Oh yeah, so much better.” Spencer claims and then thrusts all the way in, making me gasp at the familiar fullness.

“Now, it’s my turn.” Ledger grins as he pushes himself back in.

The pressure really builds as inch by inch his cock sinks back. inside of me and then stops when it can’t go anymore, “Holy shit, this is tight!”

I’m pegged between two hot ass men with their cocks inside of each hole, and I can’t even move. I’m okay with it, though, as they each take turns thrusting into me slowly. I can already feel the desire build inside of me as they pick up the pace. Getting up onto my hands is the most I can do as I watch Ledger’s face and all the emotions that are dancing across it.

My gums begin to itch; Rani wants to claim her other mate. I don’t realize that my canines have extended until Ledger nods and turns his head. I can’t do it, though, not until he gets his memory back and knows who he is. I push my disappointed wolf back and continue to enjoy the wild ride that me and my mates are on.

Sorry it’s late today, I fell behind and I’m trying to catch up, but I hope you enjoyed this chapter all the same. Have an amazing day peeps! =)

Chapter 16

Declan

“Well, howdy stranger!” My Beta greets me when I walk upstairs to my office, and I see him coming out of his own.

“I was just here yesterday smartass.” I chuckle as I walk into my own office.

"Yeah, but you spent more time in your office than anywhere else." Carter states.

I sigh heavily, "Yeah, I know. Every time I think I'm finally going to be able to spend more time here, something happens over at Dark Moon that keeps my attention over there."

"Are you regretting mating Quinn?" My Beta asks even though he already knows the answer to it.

"No, never! I just want all these annoying assholes to leave us alone so we can live in peace. I want to start having pups with my mate but she's too scared that war will come, and she won't be able to protect everyone because she can't shift."

"That's crazy! Quinn is a badass regardless of if she shifts or not. All she needs is Tala's claws and fangs and she's fucking lethal!"

"You try telling her that," I snicker, "Now it's all about your sister's new mate. I'm not sure what to think about him yet."

"Has he done anything wrong since coming out of the coma?" Carter asks as he takes a seat in front of my desk.

"No, he's got amnesia, he doesn't remember anything."

"So, he shouldn't cause trouble for you then. I mean, that sucks on his end, but good for you guys, right?"

"Not really. Your brother-in-law has stepped down from his duties. for now. We don't know when Ledger will get his memory back and if he does, we don't know how he will react. So, he's not allowed to move into the pack house with Cici and Spencer."

"Seriously? What the fuck would you do if that was your mate? Which, he could have very well have been. Would you leave him by himself without the only two people that care about him enough to help him recover?"

"Don't start on me, Carter. I could have thrown him in the cells." I growl.

"You might as well have, at least then he would know his place in the pack." My Beta doesn't say anything more as he gets up and stomps from my office.

“Well, I didn’t see that coming from him.” I say to myself.

‘He has a point, human.’ Duke speaks up finally, after staying quiet. all this time on the matter of the hunter.

‘Oh really? So, you think it’s safe to bring the son of the head of Shikari into our home where our pups are?’

‘I don’t get any kind of bad vibe from the male. He truly feels lost, not knowing who he is or where he’s from.’ Duke states, ‘I don’t think he will be a threat now or when he gets his memory back. All I know is that if my mate was being treated like a leper, I’d be pissed too, especially if it was my superior who was doing it. You and Quinn trust Spencer for a reason, trust in his judgement on this matter as well.’

‘That’s the thing, what if his judgement is hazy because Ledger is his mate? You don’t think that would affect him in that way?’

‘I never said that, but I don’t’ think that’s the case here. I’m not telling you or Quinn how to run your packs, but I know I wouldn’t want to lose my right-hand man at a time like this.’ I really hate it when my wolf is right, although I will never tell him when he is because we all know how much of a cocky bastard he can be.

After taking care of my pack’s business and then calling my cousin to get his advice on the matter as well, which turns out to be the same as everyone else’s, I head back to the Dark Moon pack. I want to have a little heart to heart with Ledger by myself, you know, feel him out and see if I can get a read on him without anybody else butting in.

My mate meets me outside just as I’m pulling up. She’s got Asher in her arms as she waits for me to get out, “Hey baby,” I grab her around the waist and kiss her tenderly. I then take Ash from her and walk back into the house, “Listen, babe, I want to go have a little talk with Ledger. Before you say anything, I think we may need to give him a chance to prove himself and he can’t do that if he’s isolated...what? Why are you looking at me like that?” Quinn is just standing there smirking at me as I go on and on about Ledger.

“Oh nothing, just that I was thinking the same thing and that I might have told Spencer that I would do whatever it takes to convince you to let Ledger move into the Beta suite with them.”

“Oh? And what exactly did you have in mind when you thought you could persuade me?” I ask feeling my cock start to stir.

She pretends to gasp shockingly, “Alpha Declan, not with small ears around!”

I roll my eyes, “Fine, but you’re going to tell me all about it later when we are alone.”

“Oh, most definitely, after all, I need to make sure it will work for the next time I think I need to persuade you.” She takes Ash back and winks at me, “Go talk to Ledger, I will be waiting for you when you get back.”

This is one of the reasons why I love my mate so much, she’s playful and is always up for some sexcapades. We are usually always on the same wavelength, and I’m not sure if it’s a mated thing or what, but it makes life so much easier when living with a mate like her. I watch her ass while she walks away with Ash and then adjust myself before heading over to where the Beta clan are holding up for now.

I’m waiting on the front stoop, waiting for one of them to answer the door, when Spencer finally appears in just a pair of shorts and reeks of sex. He’s got both Cici and Ledger’s scent all over him, but I see no new mark on him yet, not that I know how that will happen if Ledger can’t shift.

“Hey Spence, can I talk to your mate? Ledger, I need to talk to Ledger.”

“Are you going to be cordial, because with all due respect, Alpha, I can’t have you upsetting him right now.” The Beta states, and I totally get that.

“It’s not my intent. I just want to have a friendly chat with him to help put my mind at ease, that’s all.”

“Fine. I will go get them and we can all talk then.” Spencer starts to turn around, but I stop him.

“I want to talk to him alone, Spence, just one on one,” when he goes to argue with me, I hold my hand up, “You want us to trust your judgement on a complete stranger, so now it’s your turn to trust your Alpha to keep his word and not upset your mate.”

He studies me momentarily before nodding and then going up to get Ledger. I'm only waiting a few moments before the hunter comes out of the house in only a pair of jeans. I'm taken aback at the muscle this dude is sporting. Being an Alpha, I'm built bigger than the rest, but this hunter almost puts me to shame.

"You wanted to talk to me?" He asks.

Since he's new and doesn't quite know the ways of pack life, I let his little mishap of not addressing me properly slip. I honestly didn't come here to be a dick to him, so I give him a little smile and point to the set of chairs on the front porch.

"Yes, Ledger, please...take a seat."

Do you think Declan should allow Ledger to move in? What is your take on the stranger? Thanks for reading peeps! =)

Chapter 17

Declan

"I'm not going to disrespect you by beating around the bush, Ledger. As Alpha of two packs, and King of all werewolves, I have a responsibility that goes beyond worrying about whether I hurt our Beta's mate's feelings. I don't know you from jack, hell, no offense, but you don't even know yourself at the moment. With all that being said, though, I do want to help you get your memory back, and I do want you to be able to join your mates back at the pack house where you belong."

"Alpha Declan..."

I hold my hand up, stopping him from saying anything just yet, "I only have one question for you, and then you have the floor." I wait until he nods and then I proceed, "Do you think that there is a possibility that when you get your memory back, that you will turn on us and bring the Shikari here?"

Ledger blows out a long breath and runs his hand down his face as he leans back in the chair, "I have to be completely honest with you, I've thought about that same question since Spencer and Cici brought me back to this house. I can't tell you what you're hoping to hear because, well, I just can't know what it is that I will remember. Spending this time with both my mates, though, I can. already feel the bond with them. It may not be strong enough yet because we haven't marked each other, but there is still one there."

I stare at the male, taking in everything that he is saying. I don't feel as though he's only stringing me along, but again, I don't know the guy either. I wish I could be certain; I want our Beta's back where they belong, at the pack house.

Ledger continues, "I would like to think that when the time comes, I will choose my mates over the hunters. I don't understand how a father can hunt and destroy werewolves when his own son is one. That is something that I need to take into consideration as well."

"You are a witch too, you know. Have you had any kind of feeling come over you or anything, making you want to use your magic?" That is another thing that concerns me, his magic.

"No, I haven't but a lot has gone on today, so I haven't really paid much attention."

"So, I've noticed." I chuckle.

He gives me a questioning look.

I point to my nose, "Sense of smell is strong. This house reeks of sex." I laugh when I see him get a bit embarrassed, "Hey, wolves are very sexual beings and there is nothing to be ashamed of. You will get used to it. Who knows, if you're going to be a permanent fixture around here, you may be able to pick up some of your natural wolf senses, but I don't know much about wolves who can'

t shift."

"Yeah, me neither," he chuckles, and I join in, "I've got to say, though, everything that I've been learning from Spencer and Cici, really interests me."

"Are you going to let them mark you?" I just come straight out and ask him.

"I thought Cici was going to do it today; I even turned my head for her, but she decided against it. I asked her why and she said she wanted to wait until I know who I am first."

I nod, "That makes sense, but I would think that it should be left up to you to decide."

"Yeah, I don't mind waiting. I kind of want to find out how I can mark them back when we do complete the claiming or whatever it is that it's called." He chuckles.

"Claiming, marking, it's pretty much the same." I'm feeling much better after talking with Ledger. He does seem like a down-to-earth male...as of right now anyway, "Well, just so you know, you are welcome to move into the Beta suite with them, but please don't get defensive if we keep tabs on you for the time being. We do have children to consider, but I think everything will turn out fine." I give him a friendly smile, hoping he realizes that this is an olive branch that I'm holding out for him.

"Thank you, Alpha, and with all due respect, I think I would like to stay here, just for a few more days. I would just like to adjust a little bit more before moving into the pack house."

"I'm good with that," I stand up and hold out my hand for him to shake, "Thank you for hearing me out, Ledger, and I want you to know that Quinn and I want to help you remember as well, so if you need anything, please, let us know."

"Thank you, Alpha."

I leave shortly after my little chat with Ledger and head back home, only I don't make it too far before I'm being called out to the south border by patrol. Duke can use a good stretching anyway, so I let him shift and soon enough our paws are flying over the forest floor towards the border. It feels good to let my wolf out, it's seems like ages, and I know I need to be better at letting him stretch his legs, the same as Tala. Maybe we should go for that run that Quinn's been wanting to go on.

When I meet up with the patrol at the south border, I'm stunned at what I find. There, on the ground, are two regular wolves, lying dead with a note pinned to one of them. Once I examine the whole scene and ask security to check the infrared camera footage to make sure the hunters aren't lying in wait for us to step away from our border, I shift and go to retrieve the note before going back to the safety of the woods.

My eyes scan the words written in messy penmanship and then I curse. I read it once more to make sure I'm reading it all correctly.

'Release our friend or else next you will find one of your own kind. lying here with a note...'

"Bury these wolves please and make sure you stay vigilant while on patrol. I don't want these fuckers making good on their word. I will contact the surrounding packs and make them aware of the danger as well."

"Yes Alpha."

Sticking the note between my teeth, I shift back to Duke and take off in the direction to which I came. I think the Betas should be warned about this first and foremost. Regardless of what the note says, I will not be handing Ledger over. Their friend, my ass! He wouldn't have amnesia or even be here if it wasn't for them bashing his head in!

I slow to a stop just as I get to where I shifted in the first place and put my discarded clothes back on. Making my way back over to the house where I just came from, I knock on the door for a second time.

Once again, Spencer answers the door. "Alpha? Did you forget something?"

"No," I hold the blood-crusted note out to him, "but we do have a slight problem."

Please let me know what your thoughts are so far. Haven't had many comments lately and I would like to know that you are still enjoying the story...

Chapter 18

Spencer

"Bloody hell, I have to go." Ledger states.

“Are you fucking crazy? They will kill you! You are not going and that’s final!” I slam my hand down on the table.

“I won’t allow anybody to be hurt over something that I could have prevented!” My mate argues with me.

“And what about your life...our life? Do you want to know what it will do to me and Cici if you go, and they kill you? Losing a mate is hard on the one left behind, sometimes they even die themselves. You are part of this pack now and you will not sacrifice yourself.” I look to Declan, “Alpha, tell him please!”

He sighs as he turns to my new mate, “Spencer is right, Ledger, you are now part of this pack, and we defend each and every pack member no matter what...” Declan is interrupted when Quinn comes storming through the door.

“Where is it?”

The three of us glance at one another before looking back at a very irritated Luna, “Where is what?”

She rolls her eyes, “The note, I want to see the note!”

“Quinn...” She cuts her own mate off with a death glare.

“You and I will be having a nice little chat in just a moment. In the meantime, you just sit there and keep looking pretty.” She smirks at me and Ledger, telling us that she’s irritated but fucking with her mate. Leave it to good ole Quinn. There is a reason why her and my mate are best friends.

I hand her the note and wait to see what she says about the whole situation. She looks up at Ledger, “What do you want to do?”

“I’d rather not cause my mates to be upset but I don’t want trouble to come your way either.” He states and he seems to be in his own mind, as much of his mind that is there anyway.

“Then let him go.” She hands the note back to me, “Ledger is his own man with his own mind, so if he wants to go to help protect others, then it’s his right.”

“You can’t be serious, Luna...”

Holding her hand up to cut me off, which she has a habit of doing today, she turns to my new mate, "I will bring you into the pack, so we can keep tabs on you, and you will lead us to these two hunters. that you came here with. If you are serious about joining your mates and this pack, then you will help us capture these two hunters. We need answers and it's obvious that you won't be able to help until you get your memory back."

"You want to use our mate as bate!?" Cici comes through the front. door glaring at her best friend and Luna, "I came to you and told you about this, so you can stop him, and now you're using him!"

"Calm down, Cici. I am leaving it up to him, I'm not making him do anything." Cici comes over to me, begging me with her eyes, but Quinn continues talking, "How would you feel if people were telling you that you couldn't do something that you thought needed to be done? I know you too well, so don't even try to lie!" She smirks at my mate, and I can't help but join her.

Cici moves over to Ledger, "But we only just found him, we can't lose him so soon."

"Oh, love, you won't lose me. We will come up with a plan before I hand myself over to them." He hugs her to him tight and kisses the top of our mate's head.

"If he's going to do this, then I'm going to be the one to go with him." I state.

"No!" Cici cries out, "I won't sacrifice both my mates for this pack! I'm sorry Quinn, Alpha, but I can't do it."

I step up to her, "You're not sacrificing anything, baby. We will both come back to you, I promise."

"With all due respect Luna, Alpha," Cici says without looking at our Queen and King, "I need you to leave, so I can spend a little time with my mates before they leave."

"Cici, you make it sound as though they are going to be gone for a long time. I'm hoping that we can resolve this within the next. twenty-four hours."

"And what if something goes wrong, Quinn? What then?" My mate will argue until she's blue in the face, "We're just the Betas, right? We can be replaced..."

“Cici!” I hiss at her hoping to shut her up.

“What the fuck, Cici? You know damn well that you both mean everything to me!” Quinn states and I can see the hurt in her eyes.

“Quinn, she didn’t mean it, she’s just upset.”

“Oh, she meant it alright.” The Luna then hides her true feelings as she glares down at my mate.

“Don’t think that I didn’t notice how you said two…”

“Cici, I suggest you shut up right now!” I growl down at my mate. I’ve never talked to her like this before, and I don’t like having to do it now, but she is about to cross a line that she won’t be able to come back from.

“I’ll go with them.” Declan steps forward and I see Quinn flinch, but she doesn’t argue.

“No Alpha, you are needed here.” I try arguing but he shuts me right up with a raise of his hand.

“If it will help soothe your mate, then I will go too. Besides, I am the Alpha, I can’t be letting all my men have all the fun.” He smirks.

“Alpha,” Cici sighs, “Spencer is right, you are needed here, we can’t afford to lose you. Quinn has lost so much already.”

“I can’t be sending my men out on missions if I’m not willing to join myself.” The Alpha is now arguing with my strong-willed mate.

“You know what,” Quinn throws her hands up, “I’m done here. Ledger, if you want to do this, then come to the pack house when you are ready,” she takes a quick glance at Cici and then at me, “You too, Spencer, but I will not argue about this anymore, so leave your mate behind.” She then storms through the door as she leaves.

I can tell how much Quinn’s words hurt my mate, but I can’t blame her. We all know my little hot-headed mate. I go to her and put my arms around both my mates.

“She’s just upset, Cici, she will get over it.” The Alpha tries to soothe her, but all she does is nod. He then leaves to follow his own mate home.

I turn my little mate in my arms and make her look at me, “You do know that you were out of line, right?” twiding into pages Pow “Yeah, I know,” she sighs, “but I’m a little emotional about BOTH of my mates now heading into danger. I couldn’t keep my temper back. I will apologize once she’s calmed down, I promise.

“Hey,” I try changing the topic to get Cici into a lighter mood, “weren’t you trying to get rid of the Queen and King so you could spend some time with your mates?” I ask a bit amusingly.

She nods, “Yeah, so what if I was?”

I hold open my arms, “Well, looks to me as though we are all alone, so what exactly, did you have in that pretty little mind of yours?”

“Do you really want to know?” a smile creeps up on her face.

“You know I do.”

All of a sudden, she takes off running up the stairs, “Come upstairs and find out!”

Ledger and I look at one another and then grin before we both take off, following our beautiful little mate upstairs and back into the bedroom that already smells like a whore house.

Thanks for reading...any thoughts? =)

Chapter 19

Quinn

The nerve of Cici thinking that I don’t care about her or Spencer! I don’t know Ledger, so of course I didn’t add him into my response, but damn it all! I’ve only made it hallway back to the pack house but then decide to veer off and enter the woods, so I can try and cool down some. I know my best friend is a little hot-headed, but I never thought that she would turn it on me like this. It hurts more than anything, her thinking that I want to send any pack member into danger. I know Ledger isn't a member yet, but he is still their mate, which automatically makes him a member in my eyes.

"Quinn..."

I whip around at the sound of my own mate's voice, so far in my own thoughts that I didn't even hear or sense him coming; I need to get a hold of myself, "You! What did you think you were doing. back there... offering yourself up?"

Declan sighs, "Like I told them, I am their Alpha, and I should go as well."

I start poking him in the chest, "Do you want to cause me more heartache? I've already lost one mate; I can't lose another one."

He takes hold of my poking finger and brings it up to his lips for a kiss, "Do you not think me capable of taking care of myself?"

"That isn't is, Declan, and you know it! We don't know what we are dealing with yet, they are witches!"

"I will also have both Spencer and Ledger there with me."

"No, you won't have Spencer. If you insist on going then you will take Cam with you, because we both know that if there is danger, Spencer will protect his mate before he protects you. We can't fault him for it, either, but you and both know it's true."

"So, you want to sacrifice their mate in order to keep me safe?" He gives me a saddened look, "That doesn't sound like you, Quinn."

"No, I don't want to sacrifice anybody, but at least she will still have one mate left. Neither of you know what it's like to lose a mate, hell, Gavin wasn't even my fated and it hurt like hell, it still does, but you... if something happens to you, it will destroy me!"

Suddenly, I'm pulled into a set of strong arms and crushed against a hard chest, "I will do everything in my power to keep myself alive for you and our pups, Quinn."

I remain encased in my mate's embrace for only a moment and then I push myself away, "I'm still mad at you."

He has the audacity to chuckle at me, “Tell me then, how can I make it up to you?”

“I don’t know if you can, Alpha. You’re pretty deep in the doghouse at the moment.” I’m proud of myself for keeping a straight face.

He growls low, “Are you comparing me to a dog again, my Queen?”

“Humph, if the collar fits!” I cross my arms in a huff.

Next thing I know, I’m being tackled to the ground by a growling mate who turns me over onto my stomach, pulling my leggings down in the process. The sting of his hand goes straight to my core as slaps continue to rain down on my bare ass. I giggle at first, but then they turn into moans. Soon after, I feel his lips on my heated cheeks as he spreads my legs and descends even lower.

His thumb finds my tight hole and penetrates it as he continues to pleasure me with his mouth. I find myself practically humping the damn ground until I finally growl out my demands, “Either fuck me or let me go back to the pack house so I can fuck my favorite toy!”

I know he won’t like that very much as he pulls my ass high in the air while I keep my head down to the ground and he thrusts himself deep inside of me. Oh Goddess, I love when he takes me rough like this; when he lets his animal side out and just fucks me wildly. This isn’t even Duke, but oh, can his wolf fuck, too!

“Is this what you wanted, Luna? Huh? Did you want your Alpha taking you like this in the middle of the woods like a fucking wild animal?” He asks, picking up speed.

“Yes, Alpha...yes!”

His grip is solid on my hips as he pounds himself into me over and over, “Come for me, Quinn, you know you want to.”

He’s so right, but I’m wanting to hold off because it’s so much better when it’s built up. The way he’s hitting every nerve ending, though, already has me wanting to let go. I’m stubborn as hell, though, and refuse to give him what he wants just yet.

He's beginning to realize what I'm doing, so he doubles his effort, and then reaches around for my clit. I'm totally and completely defeated as my orgasm crashes over me. I cry out causing the birds nearby to fly away and the little critters to take refuge in a hollowed-out log or under a bush.

"That's it, baby. You can't keep them from me, I will get it every damn time." He chuckles as he slows just a little to let me ride out the wave.

Before I've even come all the way down, I'm fucking myself on him. fast and hard; two can play at this game. He curses as he tries to hold me still, but I cheat and use Tala's strength to keep pumping.

"Fuck!" He swears and then bends over me and sinks his fangs into his mark on my neck as he releases his load inside of me.

He takes me over once more with his bite and then I feel it; his knot is forming, and I begin cursing. I try to pull away, but he doesn't let me, and now we are stuck together for at least ten minutes or so. I'm panting and ready to drop to the ground as soon as he retracts his fangs.

"I can't believe you knotted me in the middle of the woods!" I gasp out as I catch my breath.

He chuckles, "It was never my intention, I just got carried away." He places soft kisses on my cheek and neck, "Can you really blame me? You drive me fucking crazy, baby. I love it when you're mad and you get that annoyed look; it's sexy as hell."

I laugh, because I don't find myself attractive at all when I'm mad, "Well in the future, can we try keeping the knotting to the bedroom only?"

"Yes, I will try, but you need to have that same chat with Duke. After all, he's the one that does it."

"Oh, I'm sure he can hear me clear as day, can't you Duke?"

'Huh? Sorry, my Queen but I wasn't paying attention.' His deep and sexy voice comes through Declan's lips as his eyes swirl darkly in his sockets.

"Don't play dumb, Duke! No more knotting me in public, do you understand?"

'Yes, my Queen. I apologize that I got carried away, but can you blame me?'

“Don’t you dare use Declan’s excuse! That just goes to show that you did hear me and that you lied to me!”

‘I’m sorry, Luna. Let me make it up to you,” he begins to grind against my ass, ‘I promise not to knot you again.’

“Oh, no you don’t! We need to get back to the pack house and come up with a plan on how to trap these damn Shikari males that are wandering around!”

‘Ugh, fine then, here! Take your Alpha back then since you are in no need of me.’ The Alpha wolf pouts and it’s the cutest thing ever.

“Tell you what, Duke, I’ll let you knot me one more time before you guys leave on this little mission, how does that sound?”

‘I think I can live with that, my Queen.’ He smirks.

“Why do you go back and forth in calling me Luna and Queen?” I ask Duke before he gives Declan back control.

‘Are you not both Luna and Queen? I must use them both equally, so you remember that you are so much more than just one or the other. You, Quinn, are everything.”

My heart skips a beat at his words, and I wish I could turn so I can kiss him deeply, “I love you, Duke. I hope you know just how much. love I have for you.”

‘I know my beautiful little mate, and I love you too.’ He leans in and I’m able to turn my head to the side enough for him to take my lips. He leaves me panting as he finally gives control back to Declan.

“Fucking Casanova!” Declan grumbles.

I giggle, “Jealous much?”

He tests his knot and he’s finally able to pull out, “Not jealous, just a little annoyed.”

“Awe, babe, you do know that you are one in the same, right? I love you both just as much as the other.”

“I know this, but he doesn’t have to show off by using sweet words on you.”

“Well, I guess you cancel each other out then because where he is sweet and loving, you are rough and dirty...and I love it both ways.” I finish putting my leggings back on and then look back down at him while he still lays on his back, “Do you know what I want to do now?”

“Hm, what is that?” He asks with his eyes closed.

“Race you back to the house! Last one there has poop diaper duty for a month!” I take off running and laughing my ass off, knowing that he has no chance in hell in catching up to me now.

Chapter 20

Cici

“I know what I said earlier, Ledger, but I’ve changed my mind. I want to mark you, if you are still willing. I can’t bare having you leave here and not know what’s happening.” I can’t believe that I’m saying this to him, knowing that he doesn’t know who he is. Hell, for all I know, he could have a girlfriend or even a wife wherever he’s from.

‘Don’t even think that Cici! He’s ours!’ Rani growls at me.

‘Well, what if it’s true? What if he has a family? Am I...are we being selfish for wanting what is meant to be ours?’

‘I’m not listening to you, human! I will not allow myself to even entertain that notion.’ My wolf huffs and goes back to her little corner.

I gaze at the beautiful male before me, with his dark brown hair that is a bit shaggy but in a neat way, and his chocolate brown eyes that will melt the toughest of hearts. I can’t believe the Goddess gave this God-like specimen to us as a mate. Where both Spencer and I have blonde hair, Ledger is the darkness to our light, but that is just in his looks. I haven’t been able to see any kind of darkness in him. Either he already had a kind heart or him getting amnesia was the best thing for him.

"I won't pressure you into doing it, Ledger," I continue, "but I want to do it now. I'm just scared that you may already have someone, a family out there somewhere and when you get your memory back, you will leave us."

He steps up to me and runs his finger down my cheek, "We will cross that bridge when we get to it, if we get to it. I don't feel like I have anybody like that in my life. Not like I can feel that I have parents, but I can't remember them, if that makes sense."

I give him a little smile, "Well, I will leave it up to you."

"How will I mark you?" Ledger asks as he looks between me and Spencer.

"Sterling is telling me that we need to be as one and trust in the process, whatever that means." Spencer enlightens us of this but for some reason, I feel like I already knew that. Maybe it's my wolf telling me the same thing, so I nod in agreement.

"I don't really know what that means," Ledger confesses.

Spencer steps up to our mate and takes hold of his face. I take a step back, so I can watch and see what he's going to do. Hey, don't judge me, I missed the hot make out session earlier, and now I'm here and I'm all for watching my two hot mates make out with one another.

"It means," Spencer begins to explain, "that the three of us need to have sex and be as one. I'm assuming, both of us need to be inside Cici, or at least each other, but I think we still have a little way to go before we get to that part. I don't want to hurry our first time along. Instead, we will use Cici's body to fuse us together." My mate chuckles and glances over at me, "You don't mind us using your body, do you?"

"Fuck no! But first, I want a little less talking and a little more kissing between the two of you please." I give them my cheesy grin.

"What," Spencer asks, "like this?" He then takes Ledger's mouth in a soul crushing kiss as he holds his jaw in one hand and slides his other into our new mate's hair, holding him in place.

Ledger's hands come up to Spencer's waist and grip his bottoms as he pulls him into his own body, "Fuck, I can't get enough of this!" He says and then squeezes Spencer's muscular ass cheek. He takes control of the kiss and takes Spencer to the bed without releasing his mouth. He follows him down onto the mattress and the two of them begin grinding on each other. I don't think I have ever been so turned on in my entire life as I am right now.

He slowly pushes Spencer's bottoms down over his hips, releasing his raging hard on. Moving off to the side, Ledger takes hold of Spencer's cock and begins to slide his hand up and down, causing little moaning sounds to leave our mate. I watch as Ledger breaks the kiss and starts nibbling on his neck as he continues to jerk our mate off.

"Jesus that feels so fucking good." Spencer thrusts up into Ledger's hand.

I decide to go over and join Ledger in pleasing our mate, so as he pumps his cock, I cover the tip with my mouth and begin to suck. While undoing Ledger's pants in the process and setting him free as well. I lay here sucking Spencer off while jerking Ledger's cock all while he still continues to make out with Spencer.

"Fuck, I'm going to come if you don't stop now." Spencer grunts.

"Come then. Fill our mate's mouth up full with it." Ledger orders as he takes hold of my head now and starts bobbing it faster. As soon as Spencer explodes in my mouth, Ledger holds my head down, "There you go, swallow it all."

When Spencer is done coming, Ledger rips me from his cock and crashes his mouth into mine, demanding entrance. Opening my mouth, he moans as he begins to taste our mate on my tongue. As he begins to pull away, I bite his lip, drawing a little blood and reveling in his sweet taste. I push him onto his back and then pull his bottoms completely off before tearing away my own clothes. and climbing up, not wasting any time in penetrating myself with his thick cock.

Mewling sounds spill from my lips as I take him all the way in. Spencer leans over and kisses him for a few moments while I ride him, but then he moves to grab the lube once again. I would love to have Ledger in my ass, but we need him in front of us in order to mark him.

While Spencer prepares my ass to be fucked, I gaze into Ledger's brown eyes and I swear I see a slight swirling of some kind, but it may just be my imagination, "Are you ready for us to claim you Ledger? Are you ready to be a part of us?"

He brushes some hair from my face, "I know I don't remember anything of my past but for some reason, I feel deep within that this is where I'm supposed to be, and I'm beginning to feel complete, if that makes sense."

I grin, "That's what Spencer said when we realized that we were mates, too."

"Well, I guess this is meant to be then." He smiles back and then watches my face as Spencer enters me.

My mouth goes wide and my eyes close as he slowly begins to push inside of me, "Damn, this is so tight." Spence states from behind but he doesn't stop, and Ledger doesn't pull out this time.

"Look at you, beautiful, taking his cock without me needing to pull out. Your body is adjusting to us." Ledger reaches down and begins to rub my clit.

"Mm...it's so...full." I moan.

"And it will only get fuller once he's all the way in, so be a good girl and let us both in." He brings my mouth down muffling my cries as Spencer pushes himself the rest of the way in.

"Fuck, I always find it hot when you use your dominance over her. She needs more of it." Spencer says to Ledger as he begins to thrust in and out of my tight ass.

I feel like a rag doll, pinned by the two of them as they take what they want, and I wouldn't want it any other way. I want to give my mates everything they need in every way possible. When they have me coming for the first time, Ledger bites down on my shoulder with his blunt teeth, not trying to mark me, just wanting to cause me sweet pain.

Once they have made me come three times, Ledger sits up, so he's at the edge of the bed and I'm still riding him with Spencer standing on the floor behind me with his cock up my ass. I begin to lick one side of Ledger's neck while Spencer leans in, crushing me to Ledger's chest and starts licking and kissing the other side of his neck. Our fucking starts getting intense, and in sync, I bite into Ledger's neck the same time Spencer sinks his fangs into it on the other side.

"Oh, Fucking A...." Ledger begins to slam into me harder from below and suddenly, I feel a pinch in my own neck.

I'm enjoying the sweet taste of my mate when my eyes fly open at the feel of his own bite. I don't know how he did it, but the euphoric feeling is sending me into a mind spin as we claim each other and become one. I get all of his feelings crashing inside of me, and I truly know now that he has been sincere with us this whole time.

The orgasm that hits has me releasing his neck and crying his name out so loud that I'm afraid the neighbors are going to hear but I don't give a shit. I feel him swell inside of me just before he releases his own load. He's still coming inside of me when he pulls away and I faintly hear Spencer gasp as Ledger claims him as well. My ass begins to fill with Spencer's hot seed as our mate claims him, and I know I'm going to be a dripping mess once again by the time we are done.

I hope you have enjoyed these two longer chapters. I appreciate you all for continuing to read this story and can't wait to take you more into it as you continue to follow these five characters. I hope you all have an amazing day!
