Chapter 31

Ledger

Now that I know my mate and the Queen are safe again, I can start planning mine and the King's escape. I'm just coming back into the compound when my father calls out to me. I turn and I see a disturbed look on his face as he hurries over to me. I try keeping my expression bored as to not give anything away.

"What is it now, Father?"

"Where have you been?" he asks grudgingly.

"If you must know, it's been a while since I've had the pleasure of female company, why?"

"There was a disturbance at the airfield, that's why!"

I straighten up, pretending to be alarmed, "What kind of disturbance?"

"I'm not quite sure. It was odd actually. An American jet landed but nobody got off and no one boarded it before it took off again. It didn't even fuel up."

I furrow my brow, "That is a little strange, but how is that a disturbance?"

"Why would an American jet land and then just take off the way it did? Especially after we have captured an Alpha from the States."

"Father, you do realize that planes do land at the wrong airfields every once in a while. There is nothing to be suspicious about."

"You don't know much about shifters son, but when they find their fated mates, they will do whatever it takes in order to protect them. We took the Queen's King; do you not think that she won't come for him?" My father's little speech is hitting way too close to home, and I need to be careful on how I play this.

"I understand this, Father, but the Queen also has two young pups at home that need her protection. I've never met her, but listening to others talk there, she will do whatever it takes to protect the two Alpha heirs, so I highly doubt she would go on a suicide mission. Those heirs are more important."

He rubs his chin as he thinks about what I've said, "Hm, maybe you're right. Maybe I'm just hoping that they were going to bring the fight to us. I just want to be done with all this nonsense, take their Queen out and let the rest fall right behind her."

Sighing, like I usually do, I rub my forehead, "I still don't understand why we are so obsessed with these shifters, but whatever, have your little fun with them. I'd rather be finding me a nice warm female to be sinking myself in."

"That's your problem Ledger, you're always thinking with that damn cock of yours! I'm surprised you haven't knocked up any of your sluts yet." He rolls his eyes and then turns to walk away but then turns back, "By the way, be ready by nine in the morning. I've got meetings in the afternoon, so if you still want to go see your breeder then it will have to be early."

I inwardly cringe at the term he uses for my mother, but I nod, "I will be ready, Father, and I promise not to keep you away too long. I just want a peek, you know, just enough to satisfy my curiosity."

"That's understandable, I suppose. Oh, now that you're back, next week will be the start of finding a bride for you. It's almost time for this old man to retire and you need a whore willing to breed your heirs for you before you take over. One that's going to give you strong male heirs; the females are useless."

"I understand, Father. As long as I don't need to put a bag over their head in order to fuck them then I don't care who I take to spit out my heirs."

"Very well, spoken like a true Hastings!" he slaps my back, chuckling, and then walks away.

I hold back any and all actions that may give my state of mind away at the moment because I'm ready to kill. The thought of using a female that way makes me sick and it's worse that he talks about me in that way. It's no wonder we have no female hunters, at least not in England where my father rules, because he thinks they are weak and only good for breeding. Sure, I think about Cici growing big with mine and Spencer's pup but I don't think of her as a breeder, she's our equal. How I didn't turn out like my father, I'm not sure, but it's got to be a miracle.

When I get back to my room, I lay down on my bed to make it look like I'm resting for a bit as I close my eyes and reach out to Alpha Declan, 'Are you there, Alpha?'

'Yeah,'

Uh oh, one word answers must mean he is in pain, 'Is it safe for me to come and heal you?'

No answer.

'ALPHA?'

'Yeah?'

'Is it safe for me to come and heal you?'

'Guard sitting right outside cell...'

Fuck! How am I supposed to heal him now? I Can't even sneak in there because they will feel my presence if they are close enough, and right outside the cell is too close.

'Stay with me Alpha. Let me know the moment they leave, and I will come to you.'

'Okay, I'll be fine for now...'

I can hear it in his voice, he's getting weaker by the hour, even with me healing him. If he can last another few hours, then we will be free. My father having meetings works perfectly for our escape. The only issue is that whenever any of us teleport, everyone knows, so I need to come up with a spell of some sort to delay them finding out.

Going over to the book case in my room, I run my finger over the titles of all the books lining the shelves until I come to the one I'm looking for. If I was more organized, I'd put them in alphabetical order, but I'm the most unorganized person that you will find.

Taking the book back over to the bed, I flip through the pages looking for something that I can work with. I come across some really good spells that I have forgotten all about, and I note to myself to make sure I take this book with me when I leave here tomorrow.

About three quarters of the way through the book, I find the perfect spell. It's not exactly what I'm wanting but it will have to do if I don't find anything else as I go through the rest of the book. By the time I'm done with the book, I've decided on two different spells. The first one will freeze time here at the compound for at least fifteen minutes unless I break it myself, but with my father gone to meetings, he won't be frozen in time, so I will have to try using a cloaking spell on not only me, but Alpha Declan and then my mother once we get there. It's going to be tough with two other passengers, but I know I can do it. Now that I have some semblance of a plan, I feel better going into all of this. I'm more concerned for the others than for myself; I need to get them out of here.

After getting a few hours of sleep, there is a banging on my door at five minutes to nine. When I open the door, my father is standing on the other side, impatiently tapping his foot, "Sorry, but one of my meetings got moved up an hour, so we need to make this quick."

"Oh, okay, well I'm ready if you are."

He hmphs, and then the next thing I know, I'm in a sun-filled room that is over-looking an ocean, "Where the hell are we?"

"We are on the coast in a town that was named after our family, Hastings. This is the Hastings family home, it's where I will be retiring to once you take over."

I'm confused, "You have my mother locked away here?"

"Yes, of course. Where else would she be?" He asks as if my own question was a stupid one, "She's my breeder so I need to keep her close."

His words enrage me, "You still...use her?"

"Eh, when I feel like it, but I have the whores in London to keep me company in between my visits."

All I can say without showing him my true feelings is, "I see. Well, let's get this over with."

"Yes, let's!" He has me follow him down a hall and then unlocks a door that has a set of stairs heading down to a basement of some sort.

I follow closely behind him expecting to find cells lining each side, but instead there is a wall of silver bars and on the other side of it looks like a makeshift apartment type area, with a little sitting room on one side and a kitchenette on the other. There are three young girls sitting in the middle of the floor playing a game of sorts.

When they look up, their eyes go round and they run through a door that I hadn't noticed. A woman then comes out, a woman that I know is my mother because I look just like her. I can't take my eyes off of her, she's beautiful, even if she does look a little tired and pale.

"Marco, I hadn't realized you were coming. Let me go tidy myself up for you."

"I'm not here to fuck you Brianna, I just fucked my whore this morning. I brought someone that wanted to meet you." My father sounds annoyed that my mother would assume why he was here but if that's the only time he comes, then what else is she to think?

My mother flinches at his words but then her eyes fall on me and they widen. A bond snaps inside of me and I know she feels it too. I plead with my eyes for her not to say anything and she must understand because she then plays dumb.

"Oh? And who may this be? You never bring anyone here for me to meet unless..."

"Shut up woman! This is our son, Ledger. Do you not know your own son? Unlike the rest of the little spawns you have running around here, he's the only useful one!"

"That's not true, Marco, our daughters can be very useful, can you please let them out of here? They need the fresh air and the sunlight."

"Do you want them to die, Brianna? We have been over this; their blood and heritage doesn't allow them to be able to go outside in England and I will not allow you to go back to the states! You're my whore until the day you die and that's that!"

"Then why is Ledger allowed to go free? He has the same blood and heritage."

"A few reasons, one, he must not have inherited your disgusting heritage, and second, the wards are made of his blood, so they won't affect him." He turns to me, "Now that you have seen her we can go," he glances at his watch, "Yes I need to be at my meeting soon."

"Yes, Father. I've seen all there is that I want to see, lets go." When he turns I stare at my mother, trying to convey that I will be back but all she does is smile and nod; that doesn't mean that she understood what my stare was meaning, just that she was acknowledging me.

I hurry after my father, "Were those three girls my sisters?"

He sighs heavily, "Unfortunately, yes. They are my three disappointments. I was hoping for another boy but got those three instead. All they will be good for is to sell as somebody's whore once they are of age. The oldest is fifteen, I may say fuck it and sell her on her next birthday instead of waiting until she's eighteen. The laws don't apply to them like they do normal people."

"What do you mean by that?" I ask.

"Unlike you, they inherited their mother's traits, they are nothing but filthy mongrels, son."

Chapter 32

Ledger

My whole life I've felt as though I was different than everybody else and now, I know why. My father always spoiled me, and I never wanted for anything except for a mother who he had hidden away from me. Now I learn that I have three sisters who share the same fate as my mother all because their father is too pigheaded to see them as actual human beings. I can't and I won't let my father do this any longer.

So, closing my eyes and taking a deep breath, I make a split decision, I magically produce a dagger and then get my father's attention, "I'm sorry, Father."

He turns, "What is it, son?" For a split second, I see the father that I remember from my childhood, the loving one, not the vile monster that he is today.

"I love you, but I can't allow you to continue doing what you are doing." I plunge the dagger into his stomach and twist it back and forth, saying a little chant before his life force leaves him for good, all of his magic shifts to me, making me twice as strong as I was just a moment ago. "They are my sisters, my flesh and blood, and I cannot let you hurt them any longer, Goodbye, Father. Rest in peace."

The light in my father's eyes dull until it is no longer there, and he slumps in my arms. I allow for a few tears to fall for the man that I was once proud to call my dad, but that's it. I lay him down on the floor and quickly go back downstairs to release my mother and sisters.

"You killed him." My mother says as soon as I appear once more.

"I did, how did you know?"

"Your father was my mate, Ledger. I felt it when he died. It wasn't as strong since our bond has weakened over the years, but it was still there.

"How was he your mate and still did what he did?" I ask in disbelief.

"It's the Shikari's way of life, Ledger, but he couldn't ignore the bond between us either, that's why he locked me up here." I grab the keys hanging on the wall and go to unlock the cell door, "Why did you do it, son?"

I glance at her, "I grew up being told that you walked out on us, that you didn't love me. It was just recent that I learned of you and learned of my heritage, but when he just told me of my sister's fates, what he had planned for them, I knew I couldn't let him follow through with it and there is only one way that I could have stopped him." Using my shirt to grasp the bars and open the door, I open it as far as it can go.

"So, what is your plan now? They will never let you live once they find out that you killed Marco."

“I already had a plan to get you and my Alpha out of here; I didn’t know about my sisters. Now that I have father’s powers too, I should be able to get us all out of here. I need you to stay here for just a few minutes while I teleport back and get my Alpha. I will come back and get you and my sisters, and we will go back to the states.”

My mother begins to cry, “I never thought I would ever get out of here alive, Ledger. Thank you for not turning out to be like your father.”

I step up and kiss her forehead, “I will keep you safe from now on, but we need to get a move on. You gather up the girls while I go grab Alpha Declan, and I will be back for you.”

“Okay, please hurry! The guard will be back within the hour to check on us.” She informs me.

Shit, I should have known that he would have guards watching them as well, “Okay, I have to go then, so I can make it back before then.”

Closing my eyes, I teleport myself first to my room to grab the book I was looking at, and then I make a pit stop in my father’s office as well. I grab his big book of spells that he looks at religiously and the small picture frame of the two of us from when I was about twelve years old.

‘Alpha, is it safe to come to you?’

No answer.

Damn it! ‘ALPHA?’ Still nothing, so I have no choice but to chance it. I won’t have much time but if I can at least grab his hand, I can get him out of here. Hearing hurried voices out in the hall I have a feeling that it’s already spread about my father, the council would have felt it, so I teleport down to the cell and it’s just as I thought, they’ve beaten him until he passed out and didn’t heal him. He’s unrecognizable at the moment.

Taking hold of his hand, I chant the freezing spell and I teleport us just as one of the guards get to his cell, “Stop, Ledg...”

The spell goes into place, and I'm gone before he can even finish my name which means they will be on our tail just as soon as the spell lifts, so I have no time to waste. Getting to my family home, my mother and sisters are anxiously waiting for me, all crowded together where I had left my mother just moments before.

"Are you ready? They are on my tail, so we have to go now!"

"Yes, we're ready when you are." My mother states as she smiles.

Securing the bag with my books on my shoulder, I take one of my sister's hands, "Take hold of each other's hands and don't let go no matter what or you will be lost."

Throwing the Alpha over my shoulder and taking hold of my sister's hand again, I look at the others, making sure we are all linked together and then close my eyes, imagining Dark Moon's pack house.

It's still the wee hours of the morning at the pack house. Luna and Spencer, I'm sure have just gone to bed because they would have gotten back just an hour or so before. Having the five-hour difference between us fucks with my head, because where it was about nine thirty in London, it's now only four thirty in the morning here.

The pack house is dark, but I know I landed us in the living room, so I quickly go over and turn the light on and then lay the Alpha on the couch.

'Luna, are you awake?'

'Ledger?'

'Yes, Luna...'

'Wait a minute, if you're linking me then...'

I chuckle, 'I am downstairs, come tend to your Alpha, he's in rough shape.'

Waving my hand over him, I heal him quite a bit but teleporting six of us has taken a toll on me. I sit down in a chair to catch my breath as I hear footsteps pounding down the stairs. I'm too exhausted to link my own mates at the moment, so I decide to wait as I watch Alpha Declan begin to wake up and the Luna throw herself at him, forgetting that he's hurt.

"Careful Luna, I didn't have the strength to heal him all the way." I warn her and grin as she jumps up.

"Oh, my goodness, I'm so sorry, baby!" She says as she goes to her knees and starts checking him over.

"Who are these people, Ledger?" My mother whispers.

"They are my Luna and Alpha. You are in Dark Moon's pack house, and that is Luna Quinn and Alpha Declan, who are also Alpha and Luna to the Storm River pack as well."

"Storm River?" My mother asks surprised, "Is that Luna Amelia's son?"

"How did you know?" I ask, furrowing my brows.

fa-

"Son, Storm River was my pack before I left with your ther. Amelia had been Luna for a few years by that time and she had a son that they named Declan."

I nod, "That's him, and there is one more thing. They're not just Alpha and Luna, Quinn is the last female Dire wolf; they are Queen and King of the werewolves."

My mother goes to her knees automatically even though her and Quinn haven't looked at each other, she's showing her respect, "Uh, Luna. Could you please..."

When Quinn glances back at me, I shift my eyes to my mother who is still bowing. Quinn rolls her eyes and smiles, "You may stand, and please, don't call me Queen, Luna Quinn is fine."

My mother is so stunned that I get up and have her take my chair before she faints. I should have stayed sitting though because I end up on my ass anyway when a familiar scent hits me, and then knocking me over as Cici mauls me in front of everyone.

I laugh, "Down girl, we have company."

She literally growls at me, "It's only Quinn and Declan..." she continues.

"Uh, and my mother and sisters."

She stops all together and jumps back before looking around until she spots them, "Oh, um hello. I'm Cici, one of Ledger's mates."

"One of his mates?" My mother looks confused.

"Yes, and I'm the other part of the triangle," Spencer comes up to me and kisses me briefly as he pulls me into his arms, and then glances at my mother, "I'm Spencer. It's a pleasure to meet you."

"Oh wow, I've only seen one other mated trio, but it had two she-wolves." My mother chuckles, and I don't miss the giggles coming from my little sisters.

"These three are my sisters, but I've yet to learn their names." I inform them a bit embarrassed, "We were kind of in a bit of a hurry."

"Oh yes! This is Jessie, who is fifteen, Sasha, who is twelve, and Danika, she's nine."

"Oh yay! I've always wanted a sister, and now I have three of them!" Cici claps.

My sisters are skittish, though. They aren't used to being around other people, "Um Cici, can we tone it down just a little bit? They aren't used to people," I lower my voice, "We will talk later."

She gives me her beautiful smile and nods, "Actually, how about I show you to your rooms and you can rest or freshen up. I know with the time difference, you're probably not tired, but you're more than welcome to get a little more sleep if you want. Breakfast isn't served until eight."

"That would be lovely, Cici, thank you." My mother smiles kindly at my mate, "Maybe put us in connecting rooms for now, at least until the girls are used to it."

"Of course! I know the perfect rooms for you and it's in the Beta's wing." My mate states.

“Oh, we can’t impose on the Beta’s! Read The alpha who saved me (Quinn Night) novel Chapter 183 online free

Chapter 33

Declan

They’re coming in more often, having their fun with me and then leaving me without healing any part of me. I don’t want to say anything to Ledger because we can’t afford for him to get caught while helping me; we need him to get us home. They’ve also given me another dose of wolfsbane and I’m afraid that if they give me anymore, I won’t be able to handle it; I’m already weaker than I’ve ever been in my life. If I can just hold out for a few more hours...

I feel myself being jarred but when I try opening my eyes, I can’t. Maybe this is the end for me. I wish I could see Quinn one more time, and tell her that I’m sorry I’m breaking my promise to her. I thought for sure I would make it back home to her and the pups. I hope she stays strong for the kids; they will need her now, more than anything.

I feel weightless. Is this what happens when the Goddess Selene brings her wolves back home? I’m sure going to miss Duke, as much of a smartass that he was, he was my other half and my best friend. Whoever gets him as their wolf in the next life is going to be a lucky son of a bitch!

More jarring and I can still feel every painful mark the hunters left on me. A woman’s voice is near but I don’t think she’s talking to me. Could it be the Moon Goddess herself that is coming to greet me? I wish I could open my eyes, so I can see her because I’ve heard that she’s very beautiful. Not that she could hold a candle to my Quinn, but maybe she’s a close second.

Weightless once more, I can feel that it’s coming to an end. Soon I will be able to watch over all my loved ones at once. I wonder if Gavin will be there to greet me or if he’s pissed at me for taking his mate as my own. I would hope that he understands why I did it and that she was always meant to be mine.

More jarring but this time, I feel as though the pain is being lifted and my eyes are fluttering, trying to open. There is pounding in the distance, but I keep my concentration on opening my eyes. Just as I get them open, a big blur throws itself at me, only it smells very familiar. Then I hear it; it’s the one thing that kept me going for hours after I last talked to her.

“Oh, my goodness, I’m so sorry, baby!” Her voice is music to my ears and her touch is even better. Did I die and this is what it’s like, you get to hallucinate your afterlife?

That’s when I start hearing more voices, ones that are very familiar and shouldn’t be in my imagination. My Beta’s and a strange woman, whose voice I remember from just a bit ago. My eyes open all the way and I fight to focus on everything. Lucky for me, my mate is the first that I feast my eyes on.

“Am I dead?” I ask as I lift my hand up to push aside a lock of her gorgeous auburn hair.

Her giggle makes my body stir, “No, you’re not dead,” she leans in really close, “and once you’ve healed all the way, I will show you just how undead you really are, my King.” Her sultry voice has my cock rock hard but then her attention is turned away for a moment and I just gaze at her as she talks to who- ever it is that has her attention. I’m beginning to get jealous because I should have all of it.

I feel high as fuck right now and I don’t understand why. that is and I’m not liking it one bit. I don’t feel in control of my- self, and that can be dangerous for an Alpha. Suddenly, my mate’s attention is finally back on me, and I watch as she straddles my lap and moves her hair over to one side.

“We don’t have much time, but we are alone at the mo- ment; you must drink from me, let me and Tala heal you, babe.”

“Tala? Where is that gorgeous bitch?”

Quinn laughs at my question but then Tala’s voice comes. out, ‘I’m here, Alpha. You must drink first, so we can play lat- er.’ The wolf snickers.

“Yes, ma’am! Goddess you’re bossy! Has anyone ever told you that?”

‘Every day!’ Quinn takes control back, “Drink, now.” She leans in, bringing me her neck and showing me the mark that I’ve left upon it.

I run my tongue over it and feel her body quiver just be- fore I sink my fangs into her. I wrap my arms around her body and hold her tight to me as I continue to suck on her sweet blood. I can already feel myself gaining my energy back, and Duke, he’s there, yawning like he’s been taking a long nap. My mate is truly healing us more than usual and I can’t help but be thankful to her for everything. I am truly blessed to be mated to her and I will always cherish her and never take her for granted.

I break free, "Let's go to our room. I need to thank you privately, baby."

I hear her moan, but as soon as I stand up with her still wrapped around my body, our Beta stops us, "Not so fast! We must talk war first and then make love." Spencer chuckles.

I growl, "Do you know what you're asking of me?"

"Yes, I know exactly how you're feeling, Alpha." The Beta glances back at Legend and I realize that he really does understand, so I let out a long sigh and sit back down, but I never let go of Quinn.

"The council and the rest of the Shikari know that I killed my father, and they will come, not just for me but for all of you. We need to prepare because I honestly don't know when they will come." Ledger stands in the middle of the living room as he says this.

"I thought they would be right behind us?" I question.

"I thought that maybe they would send some, but then again, it would be dumb to come unprepared, so I'm guessing that they will be here within the next few days. We need our allies here for when they do."

"Exactly how many Shikari are there?" Quinn snuggles into me just a little bit more.

"In England, there are about five thousand spread throughout, but I can't say if they will have any other ones come in and help. I do know that a lot have retired and may not even join in the fight, but it's better to be safe and prepared." Ledger reaches into a bag that he brought back with us and pulls out two books, one much thicker than the other, "This was my father's spell book; he read this religiously, so we do have a bit more help with it, but if the council has any hand in it, I'm sure they know all the tricks in this book as well."

"Can I see that?" Quinn reaches her hand out for the book, "I wonder if I can do any of these with my powers. I'm not sure how different they are from a witch's magic."

Ledger hands my mate the book, "It would be awesome if you could, because then there would be at least two of us that can wield magic."

"That's not true, you have three others that can do magic as well," we all look towards the doorway to where Ledger's mother stands, "Your sisters can do magic as well."

"I will not have my sisters in this war, they are too young." Ledger frowns.

"This is their war too, Ledger. They just got their freedom; do you think they will stand by and do nothing? Even Danika's magic is strong, it may even be the strongest of the three."

"If we can keep them out of the fight and in a safe place and still be able to use their magic, then we may have a fighting chance, but there will still be a lot of casualties," the Beta's mate states, "We need to be prepared for it, and I prefer none of them are children."

"Most homes have a safe room in them," it's one of the things that Delcan made sure of after the slaughter that took my family and the majority of the pack, including your mate's family," Quinn explains to Ledger, "Those that have no safe room are welcome here in ours. It's plenty big, but will it be an issue if we put up some kind of wards to keep the Shikari out of the homes?"

"Hm, I don't see why not, but my only concern is that they may know how to break the protection wards. It's still a good idea to put them up, though, because it will take them a bit to be able to break them, especially if we do each one individually. They would then have to break them individually as well, giving us time to take them out if at all possible." Ledger agrees with Quinn.

"Spencer," I search the room for him, and find him typing away on his laptop, "Can you email our allies..."

"Already on it!" He grins with his eyes glued to the screen.

"And I've already texted my brother to have him call in all of Storm River allies that aren't in with Dark Moon yet." Cici informs me.

I can't say just how proud I am of this pack. They started out with only a handful of members, and they already have well over a thousand pack members, with about nine hundred being warriors, male and female. My mate has done an amazing job leading this pack, her father would be so proud of her. I'm sure both of her parents are looking down on her with so much pride.

"If there isn't anything else right now, I'm going to try and get a few hours of sleep now," Quinn yawns, "My eyes are like sandpaper and I might as well get some sleep before shit hits the fan."

"Go get some sleep, Luna," Ledger smiles, "I think you're going to need to be well rested for when you wake up." He winks at me, and I grin, knowing that he is one hundred percent correct.

Chapter 34

Quinn

I had set my alarm clock to wake me up about nine in the morning, but it isn't the alarm that is sliding up my bare leg and over to my already heated core. It's not the clock that is slowly slipping inside of me to make sure I'm ready for something even bigger, and it's certainly not the object that makes an annoying sound that is now spreading my legs and situat- ing itself between them.

I moan at the first lick and that must be the sign for him to thrust his tongue deep inside me and help himself to his morning meal. He reaches up under my thighs and takes hold of my wrists in each hand as he feeds himself; with my legs draped over his shoulders and him gripping my wrists, I can't move while he smashes his face against my core. It's not long before I'm coming all over his tongue and he groans, going at it even harder.

Once my climax is over, he flips me and brings my ass in the air as he plunges into me with a ferocity that I've never felt before, but that I absolutely fucking love. A few smacks here and there to my ass and he has me coming again. He has yet to say two words to me as he uses my body to for his own needs, but I'm okay with that because he has his link open, and I can feel the love he has for me as he takes me.

Once he's done with me in this position, he picks me up and turns me around as he lays back. He settles me over his cock, and I know exactly what he wants from me. I impale myself on him and then I ride him hard as he plays with breasts and clit while thrusting up into me over and over. When I climax again, he sits up and sinks his fangs into my mate mark and I do the same to him.

The euphoric feeling it gives to the both of us as we take each other's essence into our mouths is truly indescribable. We become one, linking to each other if only for a moment and then we get tossed over as we each ride the waves of pleasure. I feel his knot swell inside me, and I know he's going to give me his seed. Deep down, I know it will take and in just a few days, maybe a week, I will know that I'm carrying his pup.

I know what I said, that I didn't want to get pregnant until the shit storm is over, but I'm tired of waiting. Why must we sacrifice everything when we have it all within our reach. The worst is that I won't be able to shift but that wouldn't be for a little bit yet, so I'm throwing caution to the wind. After what we just went through, I could have lost him and never been able to carry his pup.

'I want your seed to take, Declan; I want to carry your pup now.' I mind link him.

He growls, 'I'm going to knot you every chance I get, so make no mistake, you will be carrying my pup by the end of the week.'

Damn his words are so hot that I'm coming once again as his seed continues to pump into me. By the time I'm done, I can't move, and I go limp against shoulder. He lays back, bringing me with him and runs his fingers through my hair as we wait for his knot to go down.

"I love you so much, Quinn. For just a few moments I thought I was dying and that I wasn't able to keep my promise to you. I think that had Ledger waited just a bit longer, I wouldn't have made it. They had pumped me full of wolfsbane and if our Beta's mate hadn't healed me as much as he did before you got to me, I would have died in your arms."

I can hear the sadness in his voice as he tells me this, and I send up a huge thanks to the Goddess Selene for bringing him back to me, "The Goddess isn't done with you yet, there is no way you can die on me, mate." I try to lighten the mood just a little.

"Oh yeah? What am I needed for?" he asks amusingly.

"Well, aren't we supposed to start the new generation of badass Dire wolves? How can we do that if you die, duh!"

He begins to tickle me until I cry out his name, "So, I'm only being used for my cock?"

"Oh no, babe. I don't need your cock, I've got toys for that, but I do need your seed, so..."

He bursts out laughing, "Well you will be getting plenty of that in the next few days, that, I can promise you!"

We shower and then head downstairs to find Demi and the kids already in the kitchen eating their breakfast. Asher takes only bottles now, but it's still my breast milk, so that's what Demi is feeding him as he lays back in his seat as she holds the bottle. I take it from her, so she can eat in peace, and I pick up my son just so I can feel him in my arms. I love holding him, it always helps me feel closer to his father. I may be in love with Declan, but I will always love Gavin as well.

Female chatter reaches me, and I look through the French doors to see Amelia and Ledger's mother drinking coffee on the back deck. I smile because I'm so happy that they both have someone closer to their age to talk with.

"What are you smiling about?" Declan asks as he comes up behind me and nuzzles my neck, "Are you thinking about all the naughty things I did to you this morning?"

I gasp and glance around the kitchen as I elbow him, "Mind your manners, Alpha!" I chastise him but I do it with a smile. Demi is sitting at the table wearing a knowing grin. "For your information, I was watching your mother and Ledger's mother chit chat and thinking how happy I am that they seem to be fast friends.

A new voice enters the kitchen, "No, apparently, my mother is from the Storm River pack and knew Luna Amelia before she left to be with my ungrateful father."

I'm pretty sure my jaw drops as Ledger finishes his little story, "Wow, this is a small world!" I chuckle.

"What's your mother's last name? That is if she didn't take the Hastings last name." Declan asks.

A frown appears on Ledger's face, "My father never gave her his name. They were mates, but he was too stuck in the Shikari way to really be with her, but he couldn't give her up either. My mother's name is Brianna Gregory. At least that's what my father told me. I should probably confirm it with her, though, since he wasn't known for being truthful to me."

"I'm sorry to bring up any bad memories, Ledger. That wasn't my intention," Declan states, "I was just wondering if maybe you still have family in my pack." we?"

Declan's words pique Ledger's interest, "Do I, I mean, do

Declan laughs, "Yeah, I believe you do. If your mother had a brother, then I think you have both your grandparents and an uncle still within my pack."

The grin that forms on Ledger's face warms my heart. He looks as though he could cry. We all step out onto the deck to chat with Brianna, "Mom, what were your parent's names, and do you have a brother?" Ledger comes straight out and asks.

"Oh, that's too funny, we were just talking about that! Yes, the Gregory's that belong to the Storm River pack are your family," Amelia chuckles, "I just told your mother that I would be happy to take her and the girls, and of course, you, over to meet them. They will be so thrilled to know that you are all safe and well."

"Thank you, Amelia. We would really appreciate it." Ledger smiles.

I stand back and study the male who only a week ago came into our pack with amnesia, and now, he seems like a completely different male, and yet he's the same. There doesn't seem to be a mean bone in his body and that makes me really happy. Cici and Spencer are two of my very best friends and I would hate for anyone to deceive them, but I don't have to worry about Ledger. He truly does seem like a kind and caring guy. My visions were correct and now I can move forward in learning more about my powers because I'm on the right track. I needed to confirm that my visions were true before I really dove into everything, and now that I have, I'm ready to go and get my hands dirty.

I hope you enjoyed these last few chapters. I would really appreciate it if you left a comment, so I know how much everyone is liking the story! =)

Chapter 35

Spencer

I wake up with only one mate in our bed. By the time we were finished going over plans, both me and Cici crashed hard, but I do remember Ledger being in the bed with us. He must have left soon after we fell asleep because there is no indication of a third person being in the bed with us. I send him a link, though, because I want private time with both of my mates, it seems like forever, even though it's only been a couple of days.

"Hey sleepy head." Ledger chuckles as he comes into the room quietly, "I couldn't sleep, so I've been downstairs with the others." He looks at our still sleeping mate and grins.

“I want to wake her up nicely, but I want you to do it, while I’m doing... other things to you. Are you up for experiment- ing?” I ask him as I climb out of the bed and go to the drawer that holds the bottle of lube, “I want first dibs on doing the ass claiming. That is if you’re up for it.”

He walks over to me slowly, “I’ve never thought that I would look forward to getting my ass fucked, but if our little mate can take it, I know I can too.” He grabs my throat and kisses me hard, but only briefly and then he’s pulling away, “But you better be gentle at first.”

I look down at my own cock now standing at full staff and jerk when Ledger wraps his hand around it and jerks it a few times before stripping himself and climbing onto the bed. With his ass left in the air, he keeps his head low while he spreads Cici’s legs nice and wide. He doesn’t waste any time and dives right into pleasing our mate.

“Oh!” She wakes up disoriented at first and then starts moaning as Ledger hits the spot.

Her eyes land on mine as I come up behind Ledger and squirt a generous amount of lube, not only on his ass but on my cock as well. I really want to make this a pleasurable experience for him; I’d hate to make it hurt and then he never let me near this fine ass again. I grin when I notice Cici watching intensely, one hand gripping the sheets while the other grips our mate’s hair, keeping him in her pussy.

I insert one finger and pump it in and out a few times before sliding in a second. I work him a little longer this time. only because I love the little sounds he’s making each time I scissor my fingers. After I’ve fucked him with three of my fingers, I pull them out and add more lube. Cici bites her lip as she watches me bite my own while inserting my tip into Ledger’s puckered hole. He tenses a bit and I slap his ass.

“Relax, you know better.” I hear him grunt, so I slap him. again as I push in a little further. It takes a little bit, but I finally slide home and wait, so he can adjust.

“Jesus, this really does make you feel full!” He chuckles and Cici joins in.

“You can only imagine what it’s like for me to have both of you inside of me!”

Ledger looks over his shoulder, "I'm going to fuck our mate now, so hold on tight and stay with me."

I move when he moves to crawl between Cici's legs. He lifts one leg up and thrusts inside of her in one swoop, "Holy shit, this feels too fucking good. If I move, I just might lose my shit!"

"I'm in the same fucking boat!" I grit my teeth.

When I finally get to move it doesn't take long at, his ass is so hot and tight that it's pulling me in deeper with every thrust and squeezing the living shit out of me, I pick up speed and soon I'm slamming into Ledger's ass, making him slam into Cici. A chorus of names get called out, and possibly a few curse words as we all climax together. I'm tempted to bite into Ledger's mark but the last thing I want to do is knot his ass, that would not be good!

I'm the first to pull out and go to the bathroom to get some wet clothes, so I can wash my cock off before fucking Cici with it.

"Was I gentle enough for you?" I run my fingers through Ledger's soft brown hair.

"You were, thank you. You get a reprieve, though."

"I do? Why is that?"

"I want to make a little wager, one that will have our little mate here taking our cocks at the same time." Ledger's smile is devious, and I can't wait to hear more, "I'm sure if we are careful and get Rani on board to help with any healing, we can fuck our mate and knot her to see who knocks her up first."

I laugh and look to Cici to see if she's on board with it, "You mean I'd have both of your monster cocks inside of one hole? Will they even fit?"

I shrug, "I'm sure with a lot of lubes and some stretching, you could fit us. Besides, women spit out whole babies!"

"Yeah, with drugs!"

"It's fine, baby. It was just a thought; we don't have to do it." I kiss her lips briefly.

"Wait a minute, I never said that I didn't want to do it." Her grin is big, "Challenge accepted!"

"Fuck baby, just when I thought that I couldn't love you anymore!" I grab her by the back of her neck and slam my mouth to hers, my cock is already hard again. Breaking away, I press my forehead against hers, "Are you ready for this?"

"What? Ready to have my two mates fuck me at the same time to see which one fills me with their pup first?" She giggles, "I was born ready, babe. Bring on your cocks, mama needs a pup!"

Ledger sits on the edge of the bed, and I move Cici, so she impales herself on his thick cock, she's positioned away from me, but this is the best angle for this specific style. I hold the lube up to her, "Want the honors?" When she nods, I squeeze generous amount into the palm of her hand.

Wrapping her hand around my cock, she begins to coat me with the cool gel until I'm fully covered while Ledger watches with hunger in his eyes, "Down boy, you just had your turn." I joke.

"It doesn't fucking matter, I will always want another turn, and another, and another."

"Greedy much?" I wink.

"No shame in my game, love."

Reaching down, I grab him by his nape like I did to Cici just a few moments ago and kiss him hard. Pulling away, I stare into his gorgeous brown eyes, "Don't forget to bite the mark you gave her when you're almost ready to come." He nods, "This is going to be interesting." I chuckle.

Ledger lays back and I push Cici down, so they are chest to chest. I lube my fingers first and begin to slide them in right alongside of Ledger's cock. It's a tight fit with just my fingers but she will stretch out the more I play with her, and I do. I use the fingers on my other hand to fuck her ass while adding more digits to her cunt. Once I have three of my fingers thrusting in and out of her and can spread them, I know she's as ready as she's going to be.

'Rani, I need you to make sure we don't hurt her.' I call upon Cici's wolf.

'10-4, big guy, it's a go!' Her wolf jokes and I snicker inside, 'Just make sure the two of you get the job done right the first time.'

'I think it's safe to say that by the time me and Ledger are done with Cici, you will be with pup.'

'I hope to the Goddess that you are right.'

Adding just a little more lube to my cock, I place it at her entrance and very slowly start pushing forward until my tip is all the way in, "Talk about a tight fit!"

"No shit!" Ledger states from below.

"Oh... don't stop, keep going." Cici moans.

I push in a little more and then back up a bit before moving forward once again. It takes a lot longer to get in than it did to get into Ledger's ass, but I finally bury myself in her. I can feel my other mate's cock throbbing against mine, and I know this isn't going to take too long at all.

"How is everyone doing?" I ask my mates.

"Fuck, this is definitely an experience!" Ledger chuckles.

"I'm good, but are you guys going to be able to move?" A giggle comes from between the two of us.

"Oh, we can move, but you can't, babe. All you can do is lay there and take everything we give to you." I kiss her shoulder.

"That sounds hot, baby."

I glance at Ledger, "Are you ready?"

He nods and together, we begin to move in sync. Our thrusts quicken and become harder and faster while Cici cries out in pleasure between us, "Oh, my fucking Goddess, yes! More...harder!"

Sweat rolls down my forehead and my back from the amount of strength I'm using not to come just yet, "I'm not going to hold out much longer."

"Please bite me..." Cici begs of us and of course, we give her what she wants. I sink my fangs into the mark I gave her while Ledger does the same thing.

It gets even tighter as our cocks swell and we both slam into her one last time, making sure we are all the way in as our knots form, and we release our hot seed. Cici comes hard screaming out both our names as we continue to pump her full of our pup batter. Our poor girl is worn the fuck out by the time we retract our fangs. The three of us lay here panting and trying to catch our breaths as we wait for the knots to go down. I can't help but think of where my life has led and where I'm at now with my two mates. I smile as I lay my cheek on Cici's back, thinking how I wouldn't change anything for the world if it meant not having my two mates in my life.

Chapter 36

Asher

Lying here and listening to everything going on around me gives me hope. I have to say, though, I thought that us being able to break this spell might have been the case after they healed me of the carvings. Let me tell you, that was a huge relief, once the pain from those cuts were gone. I was able to get a good night's sleep and didn't wake up until mom and dad showed up. Then came the Beta trio and there was no going back to sleep with Aunt Cici in the room, but then I heard her voice, and sleep was far from my mind at that point.

Emery has always had my heart, even as little kids, I always looked out for her. I knew her and Decker were close because of them being so close in age but she always made sure to include me and Holden in things as well. Her smile always lit up the room whenever she saw any of us walk in. I knew one day I would make her mine, and I was ready to forgo my mate, if need be, if only she was willing to give me a chance. I never thought that I would be sharing her with both my brothers, but hey, as long as I get to have her, I'm fine with it. I've shared with my brothers my whole life, why not share a mate.

Yesterday, when her and the witch were inside and Emery was talking with me, I found it so cute how she kept concentrating so she could push her thoughts to me. I didn't have it in me to tell her that I could hear her when she speaks. I guess the witch hadn't realized it either. The only reason that the witch had to bring her in was so she could hear me.

Emery comes straight over to me and kisses me on the mouth and all I want to do is reach out and grab her and pull her to me, never to let go. I can scent Holden on her, so I know they were intimate this morning and now I'm jealous. Hopefully, I can lock her away with me for a whole day once I get out of here, and love on her the whole time.

I'm so lost in my thoughts that I hadn't realized that the witch has shown up and they are now discussing setting me free. I hear the witch say something about remarking me and making me bleed, but then Emery is all upset about having to be intimate with me. I concentrate on what's being said because I have to be misunderstanding it. There is no reason for my mate to not want to be intimate with me.

"You're telling me that I have to have sex with my mate while we mark him, and while he's still in this comatose state?" Her voice is loud and clear but it's as I thought, she's not upset about being intimate with me, but with having sex with me while I'm not awake and alert.

“Baby, I’m here, and it’s okay...fuck me all you want!” I yell inside my head a few times, trying so hard to make her hear. She doesn’t, but I do draw the attention of my big brother.

I can feel Holden’s stare on me. Don’t ask how I know this but it’s just an overwhelming feeling that I have. I then feel his hand slowly come to rest on my arm. Did he hear me, or did the Seer in him hear me? I go and repeat what I was saying only this time, I direct it at him, and tell him to tell our mate that she has my consent.

After a few times of repeating myself, I hear the smile in his voice when he addresses our mate, “Hey, Em,” he calls out without taking his hand off me, “I’m pretty sure that you have Asher’s consent.”

“Yes! Yes, she has it! She can do whatever she wants to me!”

Holden now laughs, “I can sense him, and he’s being his perverted self, telling me to tell you to go ahead and fuck him, and to do whatever you want to him.”

A few throats clear within the room, and I realize that our parents are still here... awkward. All of this is so surreal, though. I mean, I grew up knowing about Dire wolves and the Shikari, but the rest of this... the power of Four... it’s just not something that seems real. And to think, I have a huge part in it.

“Are you messing with me right now, Hold?” My mates voice rings out, capturing my attention once again.

“I am dead serious, baby,” I feel his other hand lay beside the first one, “It’s like he’s talking to me and yet, he’s not.”

“Yes, I am, asshat! For being a Seer, you don’t seem to be so smart, and we already know that I’m the better fuck.” I throw in with a grin.

He yanks both of his hands away and growls down at me, “You’re fucking delusional if that’s what you think!”

“What is it? What’s he saying?” I can hear the anxiousness in Emery’s voice.

“Nothing, baby. Ash is just being his usual self; it’s a sib- ling thing.”

“Awe, I take it he told you that he is the better fuck.” My baby brother pipes in. He’s always been a smart one, and very intuitive, but nothing like Holden.

Bock 3-Chapter 36

“Whatever, he can keep dreaming!” Holden growls, Achilles adding in his own little growl at the end.

“Did he really give his consent?” Emery asks.

“Yeah, but now I’m thinking we should leave his ass in this state for a while longer.” My older brother gets too butt hurt at times; I tell you.

“Holden Quinly Storm! We will do no such thing!” Our mate chastises him.

I hear my brother sigh, “I know, but it felt good just to say it.” He chuckles.

I have to chuckle myself too. Emery doesn’t realize the kind of kinship Holden and I have. We have always been like this with each other, but we have each other’s back, and it’s a ride and die type of relationship. She will learn soon enough, though, after all, she’s now part of it as well.

“Well, I guess you all should probably go... do something.” Emery giggles nervously.

“Oh, we will be right outside, sweetie.” I hear aunt Cici state.

“No, Mom! That is so embarrassing. Go somewhere far away from this room. I don’t need our parents hearing us...”

“Doing it?” My mom finishes my mate’s sentence and then chuckles. If I could facepalm myself right now, I would.

Silence covers the hospital room as I stare first at Holden, and then at Decker, “Well, shall we get this started?” His voice slices through the quiet room.

That’s when I turn my attention to the only mate that can’t talk at the moment but wishes he could. I nod apprehensively; I’m not quite sure how to go about doing this. How do you have a comatose patient get hard, so you can have sex with them? I take a step closer to his side and both Decker and Holden step up as well.

“How?”

“Do you not know Ash?” Holden snickers, “I’m pretty sure he can hear us, so all we really need to do is turn you on and he will be harder than a fucking rock.”

“You really think he can hear us?” I ask as my brows furrow. I thought Miss Beatrice had me pushing my thoughts to him because he couldn’t hear.

“How else would he know what we were talking about when he gave us his consent.” Holden replies all while standing behind me and slipping his hand into my shirt, “So, how about you close that pretty little mouth of yours and let us strip you.”

Decker comes to stand in front of me, his hands going to the waistband of my yoga pants, “Yes, mate. Let us get you ready to fuck our brother. If I slide my hand into your pants, what am I going to find?”

“Decker...”

His hand meets my core, and he bites his bottom lip, "What is this, Em?" He runs his fingers back and forth through the wetness that now lubricates my opening.

"It's what you do guys do to me..."

"Yeah? Should we show Ash what we do to you?" Decker asks as he sinks two fingers into me, and I moan, "Answer me, beautiful. Should we show my brother what we do to you?"

I nod, "Yes..." The word he is waiting for comes out softly.

Smirking, he pulls his fingers out of me and holds them up in front of my face, "Look at how wet she is, Holden."

"Fuck, little mate, Asher is so fucking lucky." Holden nuzzles my neck as he begins to fondle my breasts, squeezing and pulling at my nipples and causing my core to throb even more than it already is.

"Let's see how Ash likes it, shall we?" Holden and I watch as Decker traces his brother's lips with his fingers, smearing my arousal over their soft plumpness before pushing them into Asher's mouth, "Here you go, bro; Bon Appetite!"

Decker thrusts his fingers into Asher's mouth, making sure to rub them onto his tongue, "Come on, little brother, wake your ass up, so we can enjoy our Luna together," Holden orders amusingly, "I'm sure you're hungry; our little Luna here has something delicious that you can eat." He winks at me as he pulls my shirt and bra off all together.

Decker pulls back and, in the process, grabs the cover covering Asher and yanks them back. I notice right away that he's semi hard, "Go ahead and wrap that gorgeous mouth around him, baby. Make him hard enough that you can impale yourself on him."

Still staring at my mate's cock, I see it swell even more. Holden is right, he can hear us! I move forward and lean over him, brushing my lips across his and tasting myself on them, "Mm, I taste so good, baby. Wake up so you can really taste me, okay? I'm going to climb up on you and sink myself all the way down until my pussy is clenched all around you. Then, I'm going to ride you hard like a bull rider rides their bull. Would you like that, baby?" I rub my hand around his chest, barely feeling the sparks but I still continue until I reach his erecting shaft, "Look at that, already hard for your Luna. I kiss him one last time before I let Decker pull my bottoms all the way off.

Both Decker and Holden kiss me hard before I swing my leg over and straddle Ash. I hover above for a moment while I take hold of his hardness and run it through my wet lips. For just a moment, as I look at him, I feel a bit disturbed by what I'm doing to him. All those times that you hear about not having sex with an incoherent person, and here I am, doing exactly that.

"I'm so sorry that it has to be this way, baby." With that being said, I sink down, impaling myself on him. He's big, so I'm thankful that the others prepared me to help make it easier. I moan at the stretch that his cock gives me and once I'm all the way down, I can feel him deep inside me, touching places that I'm not sure he should be touching.

I begin to move my hips, "That's it, little mate, ride your Alpha good." Holden instructs me as his mouth descends down to a breast.

Decker follows suit and next thing I know we are all naked and my two mates are making love to my body with their mouths. They move my hands to their cocks, and I begin to jerk them off as I continue riding Ash hard. Holden, being the one on the side with Asher's mark, is the first to lean over and sink his teeth into the mark. Taking a few pulls, he then releases Ash's neck and Decker then takes his place, doing the same thing.

I need to make my mates come; an overwhelming feeling is telling me to do so before I mark Asher. So, letting go of their cocks I lean forward and act a little wanton as I spread my ass cheeks, indicating that I want someone to take my ass. Decker is the first to catch on and climbs up behind me.

Picturing a bottle of lube, one appears in my hand, and he takes it from me, lubing me and himself up really well before working his way in. It only takes a few minutes of discomfort before he slides all the way in, and I moan even louder. I then look to Holden and open my mouth.

"You better make this quick, we don't want his mark to heal before you can mark him." Holden states.

"I know, but I need to do this too."

Taking my hair, he directs my mouth onto his cock and presses himself all the way in, "Fuck, Em. I love this damn. mouth of yours." Two of my mates fuck me hard as I try and fuck my third mate hard.

"I'm going to come, Emery..." Decker informs me as he grips my hips and helps me to grind myself against Ash.

57 20%

"Me too, baby!" Holden growls.

I quickly pull my mouth off his cock and continue pump- ing vigorously with my hand as I lean down and sink my teeth into Asher. I feel my own climax coming on and I can feel Ash- er's cock swelling inside of me. Before I can release his neck, I hear someone inhale deeply and then I feel a pinch to my own mark. Asher is awake!

I moan, and then both Decker and Holden grunt and groan as they release themselves. I feel Decker fill my ass with his load, while Holden's shoots out onto my back and wherev- er else it reaches. I see white spots dance across my vision as my own explodes into tiny pieces, and that's when I feel it... Asher's knot.

It's music to my ears after he releases my neck and curses while taking hold of my hips and slamming inside of me. He's trying to go deeper but he's already as deep as he can go, "Oh Ash...fuck!"

"That's right, baby, I'm back...and I'm going to tear this shit up!" He chuckles and his brothers decide to pull away for a lit- tle bit in order to let Ash have me.

"Kind of hard to tear shit up when you're stuck in me at the moment." I giggle.

"That's so true," he grins as he looks at me, "Goddess, I'm so happy to be back! It was so lonely inside my own head."

“That’s hard to believe.” Holden states jokingly.

“Fuck you, Hold! You’re lucky I’m in a great mood or else I’ d kick your ass.”

“No, I think it’s more because you’re knotted to our Luna at the moment.” The oldest replies.

All the brothers laugh, “How about you get your asses over here and help me love our Luna some more.” Asher then takes hold of my hair kissing me hard.

“It will be our pleasure!” Decker responds and I feel the bed sink down as all three of my Alphas descend upon me.

Chapter 38

Emery

The moment we step out of the room, we are swarmed by parents and grandparents. Of course, me, Decker, and Holden are pretty much shoved out of the way, which is totally fine with us as the three of us stand back, smirking at the scowling face of my third mate.

I pull Miss Beatrice aside and hug her tight, “Thank you. for all of your help.”

“Oh dear, I really didn’t do all that much.” She chuckles.

“We wouldn’t have known what to do had you not told us.” I pull away and look my former instructor in the eye.

“Emery, you are the Power of Four. In the future, keep in mind that as long as the four of you are together, there isn’t anything that you can’t achieve. You four are meant to forge a brighter future for all, whether it be shifters, witches, humans, vampires...”

“Wait, what?”

The witch laughs, “Yes, I said vampires, but they are not what you think...they aren’t monsters.”

1

“Wow, I’ve never met one before.”

“Yes, you have, dear.”

“Huh? I’m pretty sure I would have known if I met a vampire.” I snicker a bit nervously because now my brain is on overdrive trying to think of who and when.

“Emery Davis-Storm, since when do you judge a book by its cover? We are all the same for the most part, well, aside from the Shikari, all we want is to live in peace with one another.”

“Back up Miss Beatrice; don’t try and distract me from what you said a moment ago. When have I met a vampire?”

She sighs and then looks up at the ceiling before looking back at me, “You were trained by one of the best ones.”

My mouth drops, “Mr. Lynx is a bloodsucker?”

“Emery!” the witch chastises, “Don’t ever call them that, especially Lynx! They can’t help that they have to live off blood but it’s nothing like the stories say. They don’t suck any- one dry, at least not most of them. As always, each species has a few bad seeds, but it doesn’t mean they are all alike.”

“You’re right, of course. I don’t know why my thoughts even went there. I’m intrigued to know more about them now.” I perk up with interest.

The witch scoffs, “Good luck there! Vampires aren’t very open about their lives. They would rather keep to themselves, especially after what so many stories say about them. Hell, even romance novels make you shifters out to be all hot Al- phas and Lunas...” her words trail off as she eyes my mates up and down, and then shakes her head, “The point is, very few have romance novels where they don’t have the vampire sucking everyone’s blood.”

12.52%

“That is so true...” I think about everything that she’s just told me, and it seems as though we have even more studying to do. If we are the ones that are supposed to right every- thing, then I guess we had better make sure we know all that we can in order to do just that.

“Can we please go home now?” I turn towards Asher’s voice and right away I see that he’s overwhelmed.

I glance at my other two mates, and they nod, “Go ahead and take him. We will deal with the parentals.” Holden grins. and winks at me.

Turning back to Ash, I smile, “Of course, hold tight big guy.” Grabbing his hand, I teleport us straight to the Alpha suite.

“Damn, I don’t think I will ever get used to that!” He chuck- les. When he looks around and notices that we are alone, he pulls me to him by my waist, “I’ve missed you so damn much.”

“It felt like a lifetime to me.” He crashes his mouth to mine and takes what he wants.

I don't object as I wrap my arms around his neck and open up for him. I hear Blaze growl and then I'm slammed against the nearest wall and in a matter of seconds, my clothes are shredded. I've never known Asher to be this rough, but then again, looking into his eyes, I'm pretty sure that Blaze is the one in charge at the moment.

"You should shower and relax." I grin.

"We will relax after we fuck you, Luna." It's his wolf who speaks to me.

"Blaze, you guys have just been through a lot, and we were just knotted not that long ago," I stress, "You should re- lax a bit."

"We've been relaxing ever since that fucker put that spell on us, now, we want our Luna! Will you deny us?" His wolf sounds a little crushed.

I caress the stubble on his cheek and shake my head, "I would never deny either one of you, Blaze. You are my Alpha, and I am your Luna, I love you. I just want to make sure you are well rested is all."

His hand comes to my throat, but he doesn't put too much pressure on it, it's mainly just to hold me in place but it turns me on all the same. Blaze inhales deeply, "It smells like you are wanting me to fuck you, Luna."

"I'd be lying if I said I didn't want it, Blaze." I let Kiki forward, so she can enjoy our mates as well.

"Ah, there's my pretty girl. I've missed you Kiki." He states and then briefly bites my bottom lip.

"I've missed you too, Blaze...please!" My wolf begs.

"Please what?"

"Take what you want, Blaze...we are yours."

"Yes, you are..." He crashes his mouth against mine and then lifts me up making me have to wrap my legs around his waist. He thrusts into me instantly and I moan with the stretch, even though I just had him in me, "How are you so tight already, little one?" He grits his teeth as he asks.

I don't know the answer to his question, so I just don't answer him. My nails dig into his thick shoulders as I throw my head back with cries of ecstasy.

These Alpha brothers truly know how to please a woman, it's no wonder they were sought after but they are now all mine, and my only concern is, will I be able to please them in return?

I wake up in our bed, lying on my stomach and still naked under the covers. The room is quiet but before I can glance around, I feel lips on my bare shoulder. Turning my head to the other side, I see Asher laying on his side, propped up on his elbow. He must have taken a shower because I can smell the soap and he's got a towel around his waist.

"Thank you, little one." He says as he brushes some hair out of my face.

Smiling, I ask, "What are you thanking me for?"

"For not taking a long time in bringing me back. I'm sorry that I ran off like that, I never thought that a Shikari would get past our wards." His forehead crinkles in dismay.

"Yeah, me too, babe. We will have to readjust a few things. It's apparent that they used some shifters in order to get in, but how, I'm not sure."

"I heard the witch say that there may be a mole within the pack," Ash states as he runs the backs of his fingers down my bare arm, "I'm going to make it my mission to find out who it is."

"Asher, you just came out..."

"No. Stop treating me like an invalid, Emery. I'm completely fine and there is no reason why I can't get back to my Alpha duties." He slaps my ass through the covers, and I giggle.

62.97%

"Okay, I'll stop being a mother hen, but I will never stop worrying about any of my Alphas." I inform him as I turn and lay on my back, my breasts in full view for his eyes to feast on.

"You're such a tease, Luna!" He growls.

"Who, me? I'm not doing anything but laying here." | smirk.

“Yeah, and rubbing these glorious tatas in my face!” He brings his mouth down and takes a nipple into his mouth.

“Mm, if you remember correctly, it was your wolf that undressed me.” I grab his head, pulling him against me as I arch my back.

Unfortunately, he pulls away all too soon, “That was earlier, this is now. You should probably get dressed so we can go over strategy, otherwise, we won’t be leaving this room the rest of the day.”

“Hm, I’m opting for option number two.”

He throws his head back and laughs, and then throws the covers off me, “Come on my little nympho Luna. We have work to do.”

“Oh, I see, when I try stopping us from doing it, you become/dominating and now that I want to do it, you become dominating as well, only not for the same thing.” I cross my arms and pout.

Asher growls, “It’s not my choice but my duty that has me pulling away from my Luna’s hot pussy, but make no mistake,

80.9 NG

I will be right back here tonight, picking up where we left off.”

“Promise?” I grin.

“Scouts honor...”

“You were never a boy scout.” I laugh.

“No, but I was a scout during Alpha training.” He winks at me and then drags me out of the bed.

Decker

I decided to go with Holden over to his territory to try and talk some sense into Ian, Emery and Emmett's cousin, and the son of the former Beta. He's been butthurt since Holden named Bo, his best friend, as his Beta, and so when my brother offered him the Gamma position, he turned it down. I know we had discussed this beforehand, that we didn't want anyone with a title that will have a sore disposition, but we need him to accept the Gamma position.

Gammas are the righthand man to the Beta and in charge of the warriors. The Head Warrior answers to the Gamma, and so on, but most importantly, the Gamma protects the Luna. Me and Asher have yet to choose our Gamma's but it's unanimous that Ian be one of them. Emery is special all the way around and so we want extra protection for her and since Ian has always been close to both our mate and her twin, he's the only option for us, and that's how we are hoping to bring him. to see that it would be the right decision for him.

'I just don't understand why Ian is being so stubborn,' I say though our mind link as we head over to Holden's territory, 'I mean, he was so easy-going when we were kids, he never had a chip in his shoulder.' Even though we can speak out loud, thanks to the bonds, I still prefer keeping our conversation between us as we let Blaze and Achilles run, in case there are others running around or we get close to patrol.

'I think he just assumed that he would be Beta because his dad was the current Beta.' My brother responds.

'But he knew that the Beta Heir doesn't always get the position.' I feel like a broken record, always repeating myself on this topic.

'Well, hopefully we can get him to see the light. I mean, technically, he will be the Beta to my Beta so...'

I chuckle, 'Yeah, let's see if he sees it that way.'

'Well, at least I have someone in mind; look at you and Ash. Does Emmett or Ayden even have anyone in mind?'

I sigh, 'No, at least they haven't told us, but I did inform Emmett of getting me his list of candidates by the end of the day tomorrow.'

'Decker, with this new threat, we really need Emery well protected, or at least with good warriors that will fight for and with her, because we both know that our feisty little Luna won't just sit off on the sidelines.' He chuckles, 'Man, you should have seen her the other day when one of the rogues came at me. She shifted instantly and Kiki was magnificent. I can watch our Luna battle every day, she's that good.'

'Well, let's not wish for that, okay?' I chuckle at my brother's statement. The last thing I want is to live our lives having to battle every day.

We find Ian talking to a couple of young she-wolves. You can tell they are just out of high school, if even that. Ian rolls his eyes when he notices that we are coming his way. He says something to the girls, and they glance our way before hurry- ing off. The male pushes himself away from the wall that he's leaning against and waits for us to approach.

your eyes at your Alphas!"

"Sorry, Alpha." He doesn't sound too sorry but he's not a complete asshole either.

"Ian," I say his name in a friendly manner, "We need to talk to you about the Gamma position."

"I already told Holden that I don't want a pity position!" He raises his voice a little bit.

“Hey...” Holden begins but I place my hand on his arm to stop him.

“Let me explain something to him first, and then you can yell at him all you want.” I grin at my older brother.

Yeah, I may be the ‘softer’ Alpha, but I’m also the more sensible one, knowing that you catch more bees with honey than you do with vinegar. Hm, I wonder where I’ve heard that from. I turn back to Ian and study him for a moment, contemplating on how to start. Finally, I just dive into what it is that we need.

“You know that we love your cousin more than anything, right?”

He nods, “I would hope so, since you are mated.” He smirks.

I follow suit with my own smirk, “Yeah, well, even though we know she can take care of herself for the most part, we need someone that we can trust and that will have her back no matter what. You love your cousin, and I know you would protect her from any danger; am I right?”

“Of course! I’ve always helped to protect Em. She’s family, one of my favorites actually.” Again, Ian smirks.

“Okay, and you know why a lot of packs have Gammas, correct?” I ask but right away I can tell that he really isn’t sure.

“Well, I know that they are in charge of the warriors. I know I’m a good warrior, Alpha, but I don’t want to be stuck training them.”

I chuckle at this, “That’s fine because that’s not what we want you for, that’s the Head Warrior’s job. Granted, you will oversee the Head Warrior and the rest, but you don’t have to train them. In fact, if for some reason the Head Warrior would need help, then I would suggest that you choose a Delta to help with that because your main job as the Gamma will be being the Beta’s first in command and most importantly, protecting your cousin, Luna Emery.”

Holden glances over at me when we start to see the wheels turning in Ian’s head. Making the job title a little more interesting and having it be a very important title is the key to winning him over. I really do want him to be the one protecting our mate because I know that he would give his life for Emery.

"Ian," Holden gets his attention, "I know that you were wanting the Beta position, but I need you, we need you in this position because you are the only one that we trust. Yes, there will also be two more Gamma's, one from each territory, but you are the first Gamma and the other two, once they have been chosen will follow you."

Hook, line, and sinker! He stands a bit straighter, "Okay, I'll do it."

"Yes! Thank you so much for accepting this position, Ian." Making him feel important is the only thing that we really needed to do, "Oh, a little advice on women," I grin, "Number one, you have Beta blood, so you should end up with a high- ranking mate and shouldn't be dallying with omega's; break- ing their little hearts, and number two, don't be a male whore before you meet your mate," I look over at Holden who's smil- ing sheepishly, "or you will regret it." My brother nods in agreement.

"No, that's not what that was..."

I laugh, "Hey, as long as they are of age and it's all consen- sual, you don't have to explain, but heed my warning. I waited for mine and it was so worth it."

By his expression, I'm taking it that it's already too late. and I shake my head, "To each their own, Ian. I'll have Emery contact you about your new position. You know how she likes to have plans set in place for everything that may possibly go wrong." I turn to leave but then stop, "Oh, and as soon as we figure out the Gammas in the other two territories, I will be in contact with you myself."

"Yes, Alpha, thank you."

"I think Decker is fine when we are in a private setting, you're family, remember that." I grin and then Holden and I head towards the pack house to pay Bo a little visit. He needs to know our decision and be aware of that he now has a bit more help around here when Holden isn't here.

"Do you really think we made the right decision with Ian?" Holden asks on our way.

76.92%

"Yeah, I really do. Once he realized the importance of the position and that it involved protecting his cousin, it all snapped into place for him. I think Ian Stone will prove to be a great Gamma.

Chapter 40

Emery

I'm out making my rounds to all the businesses in town, it's ; something that previous Lunas did, and I don't want to break tradition, so I asked Silver, my sister-in-law to come with me. She's always so bored and I know that sooner or later, she may start hanging around the wrong crowd and get herself into trouble. She's a wild one, just like Asher but up until now, has been able to stay out of trouble.

"Silver, what is it that you want to do with your life after high school?" I lead us over to a bakery, so we can grab a little snack before moving on to the next business.

The young she-wolf shrugs, "I never really thought about it because I just assumed I would be a Luna once I meet my mate."

Normally, an Alpha female would be fated to an Alpha or even a Beta as long as it has Alpha blood somewhere down the line and a Beta female will be mated to an Alpha or Beta. Some instances, high ranking shifters have been fated to low- er ranks, again depending on bloodlines. Silver on the other hand, she's the highest Alpha female that you will find be- cause she's also got Dire wolf in her and in all sense of the word, she's a princess, so she should be mated to an Alpha. One only knows what the Goddess has planned for this little spitfire, though.

"Don't you have any plans of your own, though? I mean, you won't find your mate for another five years. You need to have something that will occupy your time." I chuckle.

"Nothing really interests me, though. I used to help mom manage the pack when dad wasn't around; I liked doing that. Otherwise, nothing really stands out for me, though."

She now has the wheels in my head spinning in overtime. I don't have a Beta female or a Gamma female yet, and I know mom and Aunt Quinn want to retire even though Aunt Quinn is still Queen for a few more years. I'm going to need an assis- tant, and, in the process, Silver can learn more about being a Luna. I'm sure she learned a lot form her mother but she's get- ting older and can continue her education.

"Silver, are you looking forward to going away to train on being a Luna?"

She rolls her eyes, "Goddess no! I'm dreading it! I have an- other two years before I go but still."

"Well, what if I talk to your mother about having you stay here. I'm in need of an assistant since Emmett isn't mated yet and we don't have a Gamma yet either." I don't miss the little flinch she does when I mention my brother but I'm not going to bring that up just yet, "How would you like to continue your education with me and also assist me along the way? That is, if it's okay with your parents."

"Oh, em gee! I would love to assist you, Luna!" The young she-wolf claps in excitement.

"Really, Silver? We are sisters, there is no need to call me by my title."

She grins, "Oh, thank Goddess! No offense but it's weird calling you Luna." Her nose crinkles up.

1860%

Laughing, we step up to the counter and order some pastries and drinks and then go and find a table to sit at. It's such a nice day that we choose to sit out front where it's less crowded. Silver and I are in the middle of discussing which business to visit next when an unwanted voice speaks up behind me but it's not to me, so I don't turn around. I know what the bitch is doing as soon as she mentions my mate's name.

"And then the head nurse asked me to give Alpha Asher a bed bath and let me tell you, the rumors about him packing are no lie! Just the weight of it when it was soft, was a hefty number!" Emily goes on as if she doesn't know that I'm here, "I might have stroked it a few times as I washed him, just to see how big it was when it's fully erect."

Silver's eyes are huge as she glares at the bitch behind me. I give her a slight shake of my head and then turn in my chair, staring right at the she-bitch, "Oh, Luna! I didn't even see you sitting there."

I stand up, so as not to be below her and then I cross my arms and glance first at the other she-wolves that are with Emily, "The funniest part of her made up story is the fact that anyone would believe that she volunteers at the hospital." I then turn to the bitch herself, "And then comes the part where my mate was able to hear everything around him; do you actually think he would be turned on by you stroking him? Oh, and lastly, just on the slight chance that you were volunteering and, in the room, stroking my mate, an unconscious patient in the hospital; that will get you a prison sentence. Oh, and I do believe that Alpha Decker already told you that you only have one strike left."

Emily glares at me and then looks at the others in her little group, "Come on, girls. It's apparent that the new Luna isn't the friendly sort. I swear, she accosts me at every turn!" She continues to complain about me as she walks away and all I can do is roll my eyes.

"Are you really going to take that from her?" Silver asks in a shocking tone.

I shrug, "You have to pick your battles, Silver. Besides," I look over my shoulder at the group still walking down the street, "I call that one a win." I turn back and smile at my sister-in-law, "Come on we still have quite a few stops to make yet before we can head home."

Spending the day with Silver and talking with all the different businesses within this territory of the pack, has been so refreshing. Tomorrow, Silver and I will head over to Asher's territory to do the same and then the day after that, we will tackle Holden's territory. Having my sister-in-law here helping me takes so much stress off of myself that I'm having more fun than I thought I would. She's going to be a huge asset for me, at least until she goes back to school, but at least I will get her for a few hours after her classes.

"Hey gorgeous, how was your day?" Decker comes up behind me just as I step through the door.

"Hm, much better now that I'm in your arms. Where are my other handsome Alphas?"

"Holden stopped to talk with Emmett about the Gamma position here, and Asher, I believe ran over to talk with his grandmother. Am I not enough for you?" He jokes.

"Oh, you're more than enough for me, Alpha. I just don't want to make anyone jealous when I do this..." I spin and take hold of his nape, crushing my lips against his and taking what I want.

"Mm..." He groans and then opens his mouth for me as he grabs my ass and lifts me. My legs automatically lock behind him while he quickly carries me up to his office. He can't even wait to climb one more flight of stairs, so his office will have to suffice. He breaks away as he locks the door, "The others will have to wait their turn; you are all mine right now."

"Oh, Goddess..." I moan when his hand slips into my pants and he plunges his fingers into me.

"So fucking wet already, Luna..."

"It's what you do to me, Alpha... UH!" I end my sentence when he thrusts another finger into me.

"Are you ready for your Alpha's cock, Luna?"

"Always...please!"

He carries me over to the desk and then relieves me of my bottoms before plunging into my depths hard and deep, "Is that what you wanted, my little naughty mate" He doesn't let up, just keeps hammering into me while I lay back, my hands gripping the edge of the desk above my head.

"Yes...Decker! Goddess...I love you!"

He licks his thumb and then I watch as he brings it down. to my clit and smiles when he begins to rub circles over it. Arching my back because I feel the climax coming on strong, I throw my head back as well as I let go, giving my Alpha exactly what he wants.

e this more uncomfortable for her than it already is?"

"What? I'm not meaning anything by it," mom goes on the defensive, "I thought I was making it easier by saying it myself instead of her having to say it. I'm sorry, Emery; I didn't mean anything by it, sweetheart."

"It's okay, but please..."

"Okay, okay, we are going!" Cici chuckles and then I can hear them all filing out of the room.

"So, is there anything else that we need to know aside from the intercourse and marking?" Our mate asks and then I hear the witch speak up once more.

"I honestly don't know, really. I'm assuming, like when using any other power, just keep imagining him waking up? I'm not too sure. Spells can be so finicky sometimes, but I think all you really need is the sex and bites, I just wouldn't count out the thoughts because it won't hurt, only help." Her little cackle makes me laugh but creeps me out all at the same time, "Now, I'm going to step out and visit with everyone else while you all get your freak on."

“Miss Beatrice!” Emery hisses and I can only imagine her face colored pink from the witch’s words.

A moment later, the room is quiet, but I can hear three other heartbeats. Decker is the first to break the silence, “Well, shall we get this started?”

My mother gasps.

“Oh no, we are the Beta trio. It’s our wing, so you won’t be imposing at all.”

“I didn’t know that!” My mother turns and looks at me.

“We can talk later when there is more time, Mother. Right now, we need to strategize for when the Shikari come.” I kiss her forehead and then let my mate take my family upstairs to settle in.

“So, you now have a mother and sisters, huh?” Spencer pulls me back into him, “I need you to come with me briefly.” Before I can say anything, he pulls me into a side hall and shoves me against the wall before crashing his mouth against mine, “I’ve fucking missed you!” He mumbles and then his tongue is tangling with mine.

Fuck, I’ve missed him too, and Cici, and I can’t wait until we can get to our room and fuck each other’s brains out, but unfortunately, there is no time for that. I pull away, “Are you ready?”

“Ready for what?” He asks through swollen lips.

“The Shikari, they are coming.”
