

Ward's P.O.V.

Damn, I am glad Taliyah is on my side. Hearing her talk she actually scares me a little and I feel a tad bit sorry for Eva.

Eva gets guided out of the Courthouse and Anwir looks as if he just lost his entire fortune. I am still staring at my Mate and I wonder how she knew that the sentence would be carried out after the Pup was born.

The second everyone is out of the Courthouse, I ask her the question that has been running around my mind. "Well, do you remember the book that went flying?" She asks with a huge grin on her face.

None of us can help ourselves from laughing and I just nod my head, not capable of doing much else as I laugh at the expense of my best friend. She tells us she had asked Armas to give her a book on the Law which would address the most unexpected outcomes.

"I wanted to make sure I was prepared for whatever a representative could come up with. When I read this particular part, the first person to come to mind was Eva. I made sure I understood the meaning of it and even asked Armas to clarify a few other things I had read."

"Princess, I am proud of you. However I am curious, was there anything in that book you can use against one of us?" I ask her teasingly and she wraps her arms around me as she tells me she didn't find anything yet.

"Can we go home?" She asks and suddenly I see her getting on the bed in that red negligée. I groan out loud, I don't bother answering her as I grab her hand and walk out of the Courthouse.

My Brothers are right behind me and I have a feeling she flashed them the same image. I want to toss her over my shoulder and run down the stairs to get to our SUV, but I know her Guards won't appreciate it if we leave without them.

I hear laughter coming from behind, but I don't care, I just want to get my Mate home and naked. As we approach the door to the stairwell, I pick her up bridal-style and Amand is right there to open the door for us.

She squeals as I start running down the stairs and she is holding on to me, tightly. As we are about to hit the bottom of the stairwell, Camden rushes past me to make sure we don't have to slow down.

Nearing the car I start to wonder if I can keep my hands of my Mate until we get home and I know I have to, because I don't need an audience for what I have in mind.

I hear the car-doors unlock and Malachay quickly opens the door for me. I don't see Amand near the SUV and for a moment I want to ask where the hell he is, that is until Eamon gets behind the wheel.

Malachay tosses something on the front-seat as he gets in the back with us, it only takes me a second before I figure out that her Guards will be running home in their Lycan-form.

Taliyah's P.O.V.

I hold on to Ward for dear life as he is running down the stairs and I am glad that I didn't get the chance to flash that image at them in the Courthouse. It would have been a huge breach of protocol if Ward had done this in there.

I look over his shoulder the second I hear the unmistakable sound of someone shifting and I see that my Guards are now in their Lycan-form, looks like they will grant us some privacy on the way home.

Once we are in the SUV, I snuggle closer to Ward. I want to forget about the trial, I want to forget about what lies ahead and the changes it will bring for me and my Mates.

Right now all I want is my Mates, I just want to block out the rest of the world for a while. Ward moves me so that I am facing Malachay and Malachay has pulled my legs on to his lap.

His left hand is traveling up my inner-thigh as Ward starts sucking on one of my marks. I turn my head towards Eamon and I see that his eyes are moving from the road ahead to the mirror, over and over.

I don't really like the fact that he is in the front seat, but with Ward sucking and biting my mark and Malachay's hand moving closer to my core I am to distracted to be bothered with it too much.

This morning Eamon had picked out another suit for me to wear, this one was dark-gray checkered and had a blazer reaching my hips with one button and a tortoise button skirt. At first I was not sure if I would be comfortable in a skirt, but the moment the guys whistled at me I had relaxed.

Now I find it has another benefit as well, because as Malachay is moving his hand up the skirt moves up with it. His hand touching my skin sends tingles up and down my body and I can't help but moan at the sensation.

The tingles on my body intensify as Ward slides his hand under my blouse and pushes my bra up to cup my breast. I moan as he runs circles over my nipple and my breathing becomes heavier.

The fact that Eamon is watching us through the mirror is a huge turn on and I can feel my panties getting wet. "Looks like someone is enjoying herself." Eamon says in a husky voice.

Malachay is running a finger over my soaking wet panties, he slips his hand in towards my clit and I open my legs further. I cry out the moment his finger touches my throbbing clit and my head falls back against the window.

Ward keeps sucking and licking my mark as his hand keeps teasing my hard nipple, Malachay slowly slides his finger in to my soaking wet pussy and I push my hips up to take his finger in deeper.

I slide my right hand between my body and Ward's body, I feel his cock respond as my hand glides towards it. I turn my head towards Eamon and our eyes meet in the side mirror.

Lust is reflected in his eyes and I know that mine reflect the same, he glances at the road every now and then. "I will get my time with you, Princess. Just enjoy yourself." Eamon says through our mind-link as he smiles at me.

Ward takes my nipple between his thumb and index finger and gently pinches it as Malachay starts to pick up the pace in finger-fucking me. I keep my eyes on Eamon as they push me closer to the edge.

Ace decides to push me to my orgasm a little faster as he shows me the view they had when I sucked Eamon's cock the first time. I see his cock sliding in and out of my mouth as I see Malachay's cock gliding in and out of my pussy.

I moan loudly and I hear my two Mates mutter as they see what I am seeing. Ward's cock is twitching under my hand and I squeeze it gently, I slowly move my hand up and down as I squeeze it a little harder.

Malachay is pounding my pussy hard and Ward bites down on my mark, over and over again. The harder Malachay pushes his fingers in to my core, the harder Ward bites down and Ace keeps showing me their view of me sucking their cock.

Eamon finally pushes me over the edge in to an earth-shattering orgasm as he says "Now" in his husky voice. Ward mutters "Fuck" as I make him come in his jeans. We are all breathing heavily and I wonder if it will be like this every time from here on out.

Malachay adjusts my clothing as I snuggle in to Ward's chest and slowly my eyes close until I stop fighting it. I fall asleep feeling loved and safe in the arms of my Mate.
