

Ynanna's P.O.V.

I still wonder why Roger looked at me the way he did, but I have no intention of letting that distract me from what Kaelan and I have planned.

Today I don't feel as exhausted as usual and the image and screams are not flashing as often as on other days. The second I round the corner I get pulled in to a pair of arms, a smile spreading on my face as his head leans in to the crook of my neck.

I slide my arms around his neck as his hands grab my hips and he pulls me closer to his body. I feel the heat building in my body and I have to keep myself from moaning out loud.

"Get a room." Camden mumbles and Amand chuckles as they both walk away from us. Kaelan looks at me and says "Not a bad idea." Making me giggle as we hear Camden mutter something under his breath.

Kaelan doesn't hesitate and picks me up bridal-style, making his way up to my room. The moment he closes the door behind us his lips are on mine, I pull on his neck to get him closer to me.

His hands slide down my body as my other hand travels up his back and as soon as his hands grab my hips he pushes his hips forwards. I let my hand slide down his chest and I hear him groan as I get closer to his cock.

We quickly get rid of each other's clothes so we don't have be apart to long, the second his hands touches my bare skin I feel tingles all over my body. He runs his hands up my sides to cup my breasts and I cry out the second he starts running circles around my nipples.

I wrap my hand around his cock and start sliding it up and down his shaft, making his cock twitch in my hand. As he lowers his head to my left breast his hand travels down my body towards my soaking wet core.

His finger slides between my wet folds and I feel my juices running as his finger barely touches my clit. I moan as his finger slides in to my soaking wet pussy and my hips move on their own accord towards his finger.

He nips my nipple with his mouth as he pinches my other nipple, he chuckles as I moan loudly at the sensation of his ministrations. His finger is thrusting in and out of my pussy and then he adds a second finger.

I pick up the pace on stroking his cock as I buck my hips against his fingers, he picks up the pace on sliding his fingers in and out of my core. I feel myself getting closer to an orgasm, it is as if he picks up on it and presses his thumb down on my clit.

Kaelan's P.O.V.

I only have to press down on her clit twice to make her shatter, I keep up the pace on slamming my fingers in to her pussy as she is coming down from her orgasm.

Slowly I pull my fingers out as I grab her wrist with my other hand, I stop her from stroking my cock up and down. If I let her continue I will be coming with in minutes and all I want is to make her "Mine" as I come deep inside of her.

I lift her up to walk her over to the bed and she wraps her legs around my waist, making my rock-hard cock slide between her folds. With every step I make, my cock slide up and down her slit and I hear her moan in my ear.

I gently place her on the bed, kissing from under her ear to her collarbone as my hands rest on her breasts. As I make my way down her chest I let my hands glide further down her body and my lips follow the path my hands travel.

Once I reach my destination I push her legs wider as I run a finger over her soaking slit and again she cries out in pleasure. I slowly push my finger in to her pussy as my tongue flicks her clit and her hips buck up towards my face.

I keep torturing her pussy with my mouth and fingers, I feel her getting closer to her climax and I gently bite down on her clit pushing her over the edge. I love the sound of her moans as she comes on my fingers.

Before she has come down from her orgasm I push my cock in to her pussy in one thrust. "Fuck, she was still untouched." Dash mutters in my head and I still immediately to allow her body to adjust to my cock.

I keep my eyes on her face and the moment I see her smile I start pulling out slowly. As I thrust back in we both cry out at the feeling and I slowly start thrusting in and out of her, she brings her hips up to meet my thrusts.

As I pick up the pace I can feel the tension building inside both of us and I lose my rhythm as my balls tighten, I know I am going to come hard in side her.

I lean forward to find the marking-spot as I pick up the pace even more and I feel my canines elongate, her mouth is on my marking-spot at the same time. We both come hard as we mark one and other, I bury my cock deep inside her and as we both come down we both clean the mark we just made.

I slowly pull out of her and lay down next to her on the bed, pulling her close to my body. I kiss her forehead as she snuggles closer in to my side and I can feel that there is some sort of block inside of her.

Aziza's P.O.V.

I am enjoying our day off as we spend it walking around the Pack territory and we talk about what ever comes to mind. I feel that Jenny starts to act up even more and I have to block her so I can concentrate on our conversation.

Ragnar has proven that he actually has come to terms with his Brother's choice and tells me that he wants to reach out to his former Mate and her Daughter.

"If my calculations are correct, then her Daughter is my Niece and I would like to get to know her. However that is not my decision to make." He says and I know that he has thought about this carefully.

We talk a little more about his family before the subject chances to our careers and soon the men are butting in as they tell us stories of cases they worked on and their assignments for the King.

Ragnar tells us about the day they captured Roger, Talon and the others and about the attack on Princess Taliyah. Rosa and Anna gasp as he tells us how she handled herself and that she surprised everyone with how she reacted.

I tell them about a few of the cases that I have worked on over the years and how I was able to find some answers that would have gone unanswered if I hadn't been on the case.

Rosa and Anna don't like talking about their past, but I get them to tell us what they want in their future. Both of them want to become nurses and I quickly send a message to Council-member Atlas, he responds pretty fast that he is on it.

We have our lunch on the back porch and our dinner in the dining-room, Rosa has also made some brownies for dessert. I enjoy the taste of them and they actually remind me of the brownies Tullia made the first time I came home again.

My mind wanders to my Family, to the past four years of my life and I am glad that Armas found out about my Stepmother. I don't know what my life would have looked like if I hadn't found out the truth and I don't even want to think about it.

"What is on your mind?" Rosa asks and for a moment I am not sure if I should speak my mind, but the Squad already heard most of it. So I tell Anna and Rosa about my Stepmother as I hold on to Ragnar's hand.

Even though he already knows the story it doesn't make it easier for him to listen to it and I am glad that I am holding his hand in mine. Kaiden and Gunnar have to hold on to Anna and Rosa as I am talking, because their Wolves are getting angry.
