

Ragnar's P.O.V.

I woke up early this morning, not wanting to wake Aziza I slipped out of bed and left her a note saying Donny went for a run.

As I walk down the hall I hear soft crying coming from a room to my left and I quietly open the door to the room. I am greeted with two big brown orbs as Brennon is standing up in his crib and I smile at the little boy.

"Hey, Buddy. What are you doing up already?" I ask as I make my way over to his crib to pick him up. I never held a Pup in my life, but it doesn't scare me as much as I thought it would and I leave a note for his parents on the door.

I walk out the backdoor and put Brennon on the ground to stirp down and shift in to my Lycan. Donny gets down to the ground and Brennon crawls on to his back, holding on tight to his fur as Donny stands up.

We walk around the backyard, making bigger circles around the Packhouse as we get more comfortable with Brennon on our back. The little boy is giggle every time Donny makes a little jump and we just enjoy walking instead of running.

As the back porch comes in to view again I see Aziza, Elon and Tullia standing there and I see a surprised look on all their faces. Brennon notices his Family to and pulls on the left side of Donny's fur, making him turn towards the back porch.

"Well, that is a first." Tullia says and Donny cocks his head to the side. As if she understands what he wants to know she says "Brennon starts crying whenever his Father shows up in his Wolf-form. I can't even walk up to him with Brennon on my arms."

"Ask her if he has ever shifted in front of his son, because that is what I did." Aziza asks her my question and Elon looks stunned for a moment. He quickly stirps down, shifting in to his Wolf and Brennon giggles as he sees it happen.

Tullia walks over to us to get Brennon of Donny's back and puts him on his Father's Wolf. Like Donny had done, he walks slowly around the backyard and Brennon has a big smile on his face.

Tullia puts her hand on Donny's flank as she whispers "Thank you." Donny releases control to me and after I shift back I quickly put on my sweats. Aziza steps close to me as I slide my arm around her shoulder.

"Want to see what it looks like when you have Brennon on your back?" She asks and holds out her phone, so I can see that she filmed me from her room. Looking at it I can feel a smile for on my face and I kiss the top of her head.

I hear the bedroom door close as I slowly open my eyes and I see a note on his pillow. I smile as I see what it says and I get out of bed to tell him that I am awake, but I see him walk in to Brennon's room.

I wait to see what happens and my jaw drops as I see him exit the room with Brennon in his arms. I expect him to come back to the room, but he walks down the stairs as he is whispering to Brennon.

As I close the door I wonder what he is going to do with Brennon and when I hear the backdoor open I get curious. I walk to the window and I grab my phone from the table as I walk past it.

I see him putting Brennon on the ground and as he starts stripping I remember Tullia telling me that Brennon always cries if he sees Dad in his Wolf-form, I want to yell at him to stop.

To my surprise Brennon looks at Ragnar as he shifts to his Lycan-form and when Donny kneels on the ground Brennon grabs his fur to climb on his back. I am glad I started filming as soon as they walked out the backdoor and when I hear the door open, I gesture who ever it is to the window.

We watch as Donny walks around the backyard and I stop filming when I see a finger from the corner of my eyes pointing down. I see Dad and Tullia staring at the scene in the backyard and I know my Father wants to know how he did it.

"Lets go out there and see if we can figure this out." I say as I walk to the door, Dad and Tullia following close behind me. By the time we make it out the backdoor we see his tail disappearing at the side of the Pack-house.

Looking at my Dad with Brennon on his back has put a smile on my face, Ragnar tells me that he is going to take a shower and that we should be leaving in the next hour. Rosa and Anna look at my Dad and Brennon as they tells us that breakfast is ready.

"Looks like you will have to take that shower later, Captain." Kaiden says as he slides his arms around Anna's waist. My Dad walks towards us and Brennon is giggling as he makes a little jump, just like Donny had done.

Before Tullia gets the chance to get Brennon, he leans towards the other side and I am glad that Ragnar responds so quickly enough to catch him. Brennon is giggling loudly as he lands in Ragnar's arms and everyone sighs in relief.

My Dad has shifted quickly and put on his sweats as he turns towards Ragnar, who is getting up of the ground with Brennon sitting on his shoulder. "Thank you, Ragnar." Tullia says as Ragnar gives Brennon back to her.

As we sit at the dining-room table Kaiden asks Ragnar if Donny enjoyed his run through the forest and he looks shocked as Ragnar responds with No.

My heart is still racing as I think back on Brennon leaning in the wrong direction, making him tumble off his Father's Wolf. I am glad that Donny was quick enough to catch him and break his fall.

I know Kaiden wasn't expecting my answer and I say "He took Brennon for a walk on his back and we both enjoyed just walking around the Pack-house. If you don't believe me, you can ask Aziza to see the video she shot of us."

Kaiden stares at me in disbelief and Aziza laughs as she pulls her phone out to show him that I am telling the truth. Her phone gets handed down the line as everyone wants to see the video of me and Brennon.

Brennon crawls from Tullia's lap on to mine and as he stands up he puts his little arms around my neck, making Donny purr out loud which makes Brennon giggle.

I place my hand on his lower back to make sure that he can not tumble down and my other arm slides around Aziza's shoulder pulling her close to me. We sit there just enjoying the responses of the others to the video.

I hear Brennon's breathing even out and slowly his body sags against my chest as he falls asleep in my arm. "Take a look at Brennon, Sweetie." I say through the mind-link, because I don't want to wake him up.

She smiles as she looks at Brennon's sleeping face and suddenly she is holding her phone up, snapping a picture of the two of us. She pushes a few buttons on her phone and then asks me to call her.

I do as she asks as she holds her phone in front of me and I see the picture appear as the phone softly rings. "My two favorite men in one shot." She says as she kisses me.

Tullia asks me to put Brennon in the car seat while he is still sleeping and I understand that they will be leaving shortly. After I put Brennon in the car it is time to say goodbye to Tullia and Elon, before we will also leave this Pack.

"Ragnar, thank you." Elon says and I know that it is not only because of Brennon. I shake his hand as I tell him there is nothing he needs to thank me for and I know that he understands what I mean.

"Take good care of our Daughter, Ragnar." Tullia says as she hugs me. She turns to Aziza and they hug as they say their goodbyes to one and other. Tullia quickly gets in to the car and I stand behind Aziza with my arms around her waist.
