

Aziza's P.O.V.

I am talking with Anna when I smell pine-tree and my head snaps towards my right as I growl "Mine," to hear "Mate" coming from Ragnar. It is as if the rest of the world disappears the moment, he smiles at me and he pulls me close to kiss me.

Unlike others, who just found their Mate, we are not in a hurry to get back to our room. We walk back at a normal pace and we both chuckle as we see Armas shaking his head at us.

Once we are inside the room, I jump into his arms and he chuckles as he catches me, our lips finding each other as I lean forward. I love the feeling of his lips on mine, and I know that I will never grow tired of it.

Jenny is jumping up and down in my head, ecstatic about finding out that Ragnar and Donny are our Mate. She had been as nervous as me and now she is so hyper that I have to stifle a smile at her antics.

"What is going on in that head of yours, Sweetie?" Ragnar asks and I look into his eyes as I say, "A hyper Lycan, who is happy to have her Mate." He looks at me and I see understanding in his eyes "Same up here." He chuckles.

He puts me down and he slowly lowers the zipper on my back, making my dress drop to the floor. "Fuck." He mutters as he sees me standing in front of him, wearing nothing but high heels and little black, lace panties.

I help him get rid of his clothes until he is standing in just his boxers, and I cannot help as I stare at the bulge in his boxers. He grabs hold of my hips and pulls me against his body.

He slowly walks me backwards to the bed and gently drops me on to it, he quickly crawls up my body. Placing kisses on my stomach, my chest, all the way up my mouth and I open my mouth under the pressure of his lips on mine.

He pushes his rock-hard cock against my core, making me moan at the feeling and my hips buck up as he keeps grinding his cock against me. He starts sucking and licking down my neck and I cry out as he sucks my nipple hard in to his mouth.

His left hand is on my breast as his right hand travels down my side and I moan as he pinch my nipple between his thumb and index finger. His right hand glides from my hip to my ass, slipping into my panties and my hips buck up as his finger sinks in to my pussy.

My pussy is soaking wet, making it easy for his finger to slide in and I moan as he pulls his finger back. Only to push two fingers inside me as he pushes back in and his cock keeps pressing against my clit, driving me closer to the edge of my orgasm.

He picks up the speed on his ministrations as I get closer to my orgasm and the second, he gently bites down on my nipple I fall over the edge, screaming his name as I climax.

He slows down little by little as I come down from my high and then he collapses next to me, pulling me close to his chest. I put my head on his chest and as I slowly open my eyes, the bulge in his boxers comes in to view.

I slowly run my fingers over his stomach, every time I come near his boxers his cock twitches and I smile as I make my way back up to his chest. This time I let my hand slide down his stomach and as I let my hand slide in to his boxers, I hear him groan.

I wrap my fingers around his shaft, making him groan even louder and I slowly move up and down his rock-hard cock. I place kisses on his stomach as he starts to push his hips up every time my hand moves down his cock.

Ragnar's P.O.V.

I gasp as I feel her moving down my body and I cannot wait to feel her lips around my cock. She pulls my cock out of my boxers, licking the tip of my cock and I know pre-cum is dripping from the head of my cock.

She licks up the pre-cum and I hear her moan just as she slides her lips around the head of my cock. The vibration of the sound feels so damn good on my cock that my hips buck up, but it does not stop her.

I tighten my hand in her hair as she gently bites the head of my cock, she takes the full length of my cock in her mouth until it touches the back of her throat. She licks up and down my shaft before she sucks it hard.

I push my throbbing cock in and out of her mouth, enjoying the warmth and wetness surrounding it and then I shoot my cum in thick creamy gobs down her throat as I roar. She keeps sucking and licking until it has softened in her mouth.

She crawls back up my body and snuggles in to my side with her head on my chest, while I get rid of my boxers. Donny is becoming impatient as we still have not mated with her and I know he wants to mark her when we are balls deep inside her.

I kiss her forehead as I pull her on top of me and push her core down on my cock, making it come back to life as her soaking wet pussy presses down on it. We both moan at the feeling and my cock becomes even harder.

My cock is aching and trembling as she pushes down her core, my cock is being to be inside her and I lock my eyes with hers as I line up with her entrance. My grip on her hips is tight and before I can stop myself I slam her down on my cock.

I hold still to let her body adjust to the size of my rock-hard cock and the moment I feel her relax I lift her hips up before slamming her down again. She feels so hot and tight around my cock and I have to fight Donny for control.

I pick up the rhythm as I drive her pussy down my cock, I shove every inch of my cock in to her and her muscles quiver around my cock. I know I can't hold on much longer and I release the hold on my willpower.

I pound her pussy fast and hard as I feel my balls tighten and I pull her down to me, wanting to mark her as I come inside her. I feel my teeth elongate and I search for her marking spot with my tongue, not slowing down my torture of her core.

Aziza is sucking on my marking spot as I locate hers, we both bite down at the same time and I thrust into her one final time as we both orgasm. We keep trashing a few more moments as our bodies are shaking from our climax.

Her head is resting on my chest as we are both coming down from our high and my hands roam up and down her back. Donny pushes forward and I let him, because I know he wants our Mate too.

"Up for another round, Sweetie." He whispers as he pushes his hips up before he flips her on her back. He grabs her knees to spread her wide open, he lets his cock slide down until it is lined up with her entrance and then he pushes his cock in.

Being pinned to the bed does not allow her to add her own momentum to the rhythm and I get the feeling that she does not mind at all. Donny picks up the pace and soon she is breathing heavily, begging him to make her come.

He leans forward to whisper in her ear "Not until I tell you, Sweetie. You will come when I tell you to." She moans at his words and he stills for a minute. Letting her body calm down before he starts to push his cock in to her stretched pussy over and over.

Her body starts bucking against the bed and we both knew that she was close again, but Donny is not done with her yet. He shoved back in to her core and he started fucking her with long even strokes, making sure he would slow down every time she came close to her orgasm.

"Please, Donny, Please" She whispers as he keeps pounding in to her. I can feel that Donny is getting close and he loses control of the rhythm as he pushes every inch of his cock inside her.

"Come" He growls as he shoves in to her for the last time before he empties himself balls deep inside her. Her pussy is squeezing his cock, her legs shake as she screams her release.

Donny releases control back to me as we collapse beside her on the bed and I pull her close to my side. We are both panting and I know it will not take long before she falls asleep.
