

Daniel's P.O.V.

Hearing her breathy little moans, makes my cock harden even more and I can't wait to be inside her.

Her legs are wrapped around my waist, her feet locked together so she can pull me closer to her. Her hand slides in to my boxers and her warm, gentle fingers wrapped around my cock. My Lycan is beside himself at the feeling of her hand on my cock.

I slide a finger down her soaking wet slit, drawing a moan from her lips and I do it again just to hear that sound again. With one hand she tries to push my pants and boxers down, but it is not working out and I lend her a hand.

As soon as my cock springs free she grabs it even tighter, I groan, not holding back as she strokes my cock up and down. I am getting closer the more pressure she puts into her strokes.

I take her hand of my cock and kiss her knuckles, one by one. I put my hands under her knees, pushing her legs up and she has no other choice than to lay back on the kitchen island.

I run a finger across her soaking wet pussy, circling her clit before I let my finger slide down again. I keep repeating this for several minutes, her body is shuddering and quivering under my touch.

"You like what I can do to your body?" I whisper in to her ear and an amazing, breathy moan escapes her lips. I slide my finger inside her and I start thrusting in and out of her slowly, before I add another finger. When I feel her pussy take both my fingers, I push in deeper, faster, harder.

My other hand slides up her body towards her breast and as I cup it I run circles around her nipple with my thumb. She pushes her breast into my hand and I take her nipple between my thumb and index finger, pinching it slightly. The more she pushes, the harder I pinch and soon her breathing is heavy and labored.

My fingers are still pumping in to her pussy and I place my thumb on her clit, applying pressure as I push in. Every time I push in, I add more pressure to her clit and she starts pushing her hips up when I slam in to her core.

I can feel that she is close, so I whisper "Cum for me...Let me feel it." She comes, screaming my name and her juices flow down my fingers and hand. I keep my fingers sliding in and out, slowing the pace as she is coming down from her high.

I put my hand in her neck and pull her towards me so I can kiss her, she opens up her mouth so we can deepen the kiss. I pull her up, until I am standing up straight, her legs are still wrapped around my waist.

I have kicked my pants and boxers to the side, I lift her up effortlessly and walk out of the kitchen holding on to my Mate. My cock is stuck between our bodies and with every step I take her body moves up and down against my cock, making me groan every time.

She is peppering my neck with featherlight kisses and it is driving me fucking nuts. We are at the top of the stairs when I feel her licking the spot where she will mark me and I lose control of my Lycan.

He pushes forward and slams her with her back against the wall, sliding his cock harder into her slit. He keeps speeding up and her breathing becomes heavy again, her moans louder as he adds more pressure. One hand slides down to her ass, his thumb is pressing against her asshole as two fingers start rubbing her slit.

"Are you ready for me, Beautiful?" He growls into her ear and she whispers "Please." He places his arms under her knees and opens her up as far as he can, he uses her slit to let his cock line up with her entrance.

Slowly he pushed his cock between her folds and her pussy lips stretch out around the thickness of his cock. She feels warm and silky inside and he wants to feel her around all of him, every last inch of his cock.

He sinks his cock deep in to her and we can't keep our eyes of her pussy stretching around our cock. She is so tight, but so soaking wet that sliding in and out is easy. He draws his shaft out and it feels almost as good as when he slid in to her cunt.

Our cock is dripping with her juices, glistening with them and then he shoves back in to her core. He fucks her hard with long, even strokes, he makes her pussy swallow every inch of his cock on every thrust in to her body.

Aspen starts bucking up as my Lycan is pushing down, he pounds in to her pussy harder and deeper. We feel our balls tighten and we know that we are close to cumming, he release one leg so he can put his thumb on her clit and press down.

He slams in to her even harder and deeper, applying more pressure to her clit and then we can't hold on any longer. He cums inside her on a roar and she is right there with him as she comes all over his cock. My Lycan is sated and satisfied, releasing control to me as we are still coming down from our orgasm.

She slowly opens up her eyes and she smiles at me as our eyes meet. She pulls me down by my neck and starts kissing me, passionately.

I keep our lips locked as I gently place her back on the floor, holding on to her until I am sure she can stand on her own. I break the kiss so I can pull her close to my chest and just hold her as we are both catching our breath.

Her hands are running circles on my back and I slowly feel my cock coming back to life. I put my index finger under her chin to lift up her face, making her look up at me and I lean down to kiss her.

She breaks the kiss to lead me to her bedroom and my cock twitches every time her hips sway, I pull her in to my arms the second we are in her room. She wraps her arms around my waist as she lifts her head up towards me.

I slowly walk her back towards the bed, so I can repeat our actions from downstairs and I can't wait to mark her as mine. My Lycan has been waiting for this from the moment we smelled her.

Her hands are roaming down my chest and my cock twitches in anticipation as she nears my hips, but instead of heading for my cock her hands travel up my back. I groan in frustration as she avoids the part of my body that craves her attention.

She looks in to my eyes as she lets her hands glide down my back again and slowly her hands make their way to the front of my body, her eyes darken as she wraps the fingers of her left hand around my cock.

My left hand has traveled up her stomach to cup her breast and she moans as my thumb circles her nipple. She gently squeezes my cock as her hand moves up and down my shaft and I groan as she squeezes a bit harder on her way down.

My other hand travels down her ass towards her soaking wet slit and she moans as I slide two of my fingers in to her core, slowly I thrust in and out of her as her hand is still sliding up and down my cock.

I take one more step forward as I pull my fingers out of her and I gently push her on to the bed as I move on to the bed with her. She picks up the speed stroking my cock as I lean down to devour her mouth.

I grab her hand by the wrist to stop her from moving, because if she keeps going like this, I will shoot my load on her stomach instead of inside her. Slowly I pull her hand from between our bodies as I slowly push my hips forward.

The head of my cock is pressed against her entrance; she pushes up her hips to get my cock to enter and I give her what she wants as I push my cock into the hilt.
