

Aspen's P.O.V.

Daniel has taken me to the room we will be staying in, whenever we have to entertain Alphas and it is huge. The room is bigger than the living-room in my cottage and there is a huge bed in the center of the room.

We will have dinner here, before we head to the party at the Palace and I can't wait to meet his Sons, no I have to correct myself, our Sons. I still have to get used to that and I will leave it up to them on what they want to call me.

He slides his hands around my waist as he whispers in my ear, "Lets take a shower, Sweetheart." And I know that a shower is not the only thing on his mind as I can feel his cock pressing against my back.

I tug on the hem of his shirt once we are in the bathroom and he quickly pulls it off. I move my hands down his back and then over his stomach up to his chest, making him growl as my hands slowly roam his body.

Once we are both naked he turns on the shower and pulls me with him when the water is nice and warm. He gently cups my face as he pulls me in for a breathtaking kiss, I open my mouth under the pressure of his lips and our tongues meet.

His hands roam up and down my back, making my skin tingle wherever his hands go and I can feel the heat building inside of me. His hands slide up the front of my body and he cups my breasts, running circles around my nipples.

He breaks our kiss and starts kissing my face, down to my neck all the way to my collarbone. I let my head fall back to grant him more access, I cry out as he pinches both my nipples and I feel my pussy getting wet.

He replaces one of his hands with his mouth, making me moan loudly at the feeling coursing through my body. His unoccupied hand glides down the front of my body, all the way down to my soaking wet pussy and I shiver as he runs a finger over my clit.

I hold on to his shoulder with one hand as I let the other slide down his body and I wrap my hand around his raging hard cock, making it twitch as I softly let my fingers run down his shaft.

I slowly stroke his cock up and down as his finger is gliding through my folds, from my clit to the entrance of my core and back again. We are slowly driving the other to an orgasm and I love every minute of the slow torture he puts me through.

My breathing becomes labored and I know that it won't take much to fall into the abyss of pleasure he is pushing me into. Without warning he slams two fingers into my core and I shatter in an eye-blinding orgasm.

He doesn't slow down as he picks up the pace, I am still coming down from my first orgasm as I feel another one building and I squeeze his cock a bit harder every time I move down with my hand.

Suddenly he pulls his fingers out as he pulls his cock from my hand with his other hand, he spins me around and puts my hands up against the wall. Holding on to my wrists with one hand, while the other grabs his cock to line it up with my pussy.

He pushes his cock easily into my core as I am still moist and open from my orgasm, he fills me up as my pussy stretches around his cock. His huge cock feels so good, ripples of pleasure flow through me.

His hand is on my hip as he pulls back slowly before he starts pounding my pussy, pumping harder and deeper into my core and I start to push back on every thrust into me.

"That's it, Sweetheart. This feels so good." He whispers in my ear as he picks up the pace even more. His cock explores my insides as deep as he can go and he starts plowing harder into me, a little pain mixing with the pleasure he gives me.

All I am capable of doing is moan and tell him to go faster, right now nothing else matters to me. I feel my heat building as he loses control of his movements and I can feel that he is not far from coming himself.

I push back harder on his cock and then the orgasm hits me, Daniel close behind as he empties himself deep inside me. I smile lazily as I put my forehead against the wall and Daniel kisses my neck as we both come down from our climax.

Daniel's P.O.V.

I love the way Aspen makes me feel and I have to get used to walking around with a raging hard-on for the time being. As a newly mated couple we will take every chance we get on being with the other and everyone around knows not to bother us.

Instead of cleaning up I grab her by her ass and lift her off the ground, she wraps her legs around me and I walk back into the bedroom. I gently put her on the bed and start trailing kisses from her neck down her body.

The further south I go the more she starts writhing under me, I pin her hips to the bed with my hands and I use my elbows to push her legs wider. I lean down to blow softly on her clit, making her moan in pleasure.

I kiss her inner thigh, until I am close to her core and then I move to her other thigh to repeat the process. I keep kissing her everywhere, except where she wants me to kiss her and her body writhes on the bed.

I let out a breath of hot air, I let it blow towards her aching pussy and she cries out at the sensation my breath causes. I put my lips against her pussy, her body goes rigid as I finally kiss her clit and she is moaning in ecstasy.

I lick and suck on her clit, torturing her over and over as I stick one finger into her sopping sex. She comes straight away, her back arching off the bed and her pussy clamps around my finger.

I grab the back of her knees, pushing them towards her to get a better angle and I am not being gentle with her as I do so. When the head of my cock touched her soaking wet pussy I sucked in a breath, sparks and tingles running up and down my shaft.

After running the head of my cock along her wet slit I let go of one leg to line up my cock with her entrance, I feel her stretch around my shaft as I push into her body. I want to feel her all around my cock, around every last inch of my shaft.

I love the way her body tightens as I move in and out of her, I shove my cock in harder and I pound in harder and faster with every thrust. Her hips are rolling in time with my thrusts, it maximizes the friction between our bodies and I feel my balls tighten.

My balls are aching to release my load inside her, her orgasm hits her hard and the squeezes of her pussy push me over the edge. My cock keeps jerking as I shoot my cum deep into her pussy.

I collapse on top of her, keeping my weight off her by leaning on my elbows and when my cock is flaccid I pull out slowly. I lay down next to her and pull her onto my chest as I kiss the top of her head.

After a few minutes Aspen gets up and tells me she is going to take a shower, when I start to get up she gives me a stern look as she says, "Oh no, Mister. You can take a shower after I am done. I don't need our Daughter barging into this room to collect us for dinner."

She quickly walks into the bathroom, slamming the door behind her and I start laughing. She is right, though. Having Hunter barging in catching us.... I don't even want to think about it.

Once we both are showered and dressed we go downstairs to join the others as we wait on dinner. Brent informed the boys that we will join the party after we have had dinner here and I am curious as to what they had to say to that.

Normally I would go home first and discuss the outcome of an assignment with them, but in this case I decided that I wanted to surprise them with their baby Sister.

Thinking about Hunter makes me smile, she is going to drive my Sons nuts with her attitude. If only I knew what lay ahead of us, I might not be this amused with her driving them up the wall.
