

Victor's P.O.V.

Our first day at Blood Moon Pack was an interesting one to say the least, Hunter finally explained why she needed to leave and we all agreed with her. Alpha Drake is her Mother's Uncle and unlike what she always believed her Grandfather is still alive.

The entire day was spent with her family and we all had a lot of fun watching the video her Grandfather send of Justin. An hour ago Alpha Drake put her to sleep in her Mother's childhood room and he told me and Matt to take the room next to hers.

My Mate in the bathroom getting ready for the night, I groan as he walks into the room butt naked and he just smile at me. He crawls onto the bed and as I watch him my cock grows harder, pushing the sheet up.

He lays down next to me, leaning down to kiss me hard and desperate, my mouth parts to accept his warm soft tongue. I wrap my tongue around his, sucking on it gently before I release it with a growl.

His hand glides down my chest to my stomach and I feel my cock twitch the closer he gets. I still can't believe I finally have my Mate and he is everything I ever wanted in a Mate.

The past year we learned what the other likes and I love what this man can do to my body and heart. His fingers wrap around my cock and he starts stroking firmly up and down my shaft, making me grow harder than ever before.

I groan as he strokes me, I don't bother holding it back and my hips buck up on their own accord. "You like this, Love.. You want me to keep going..?" he asks, but there are no coherent thoughts left in my mind.

I can feel myself getting closer to release and Matt knows that it won't be long as he gets on his knees, taking the full length of my cock in his mouth. I rock my hips up to fuck his mouth, sliding my cock over his tongue to the back of his throat.

He sucks and licks up and down my cock and I feel my balls tighten just before I am spurting into his mouth over and over again. He slowly kisses his way up my body and I can feel my cock come back to life.

"Look like some isn't done yet." He whispers before he slams his lips onto mine. He moves himself between my legs and he shoves his hips forward, rubbing his cock against mine.

I never thought this was something I could enjoy, but the first time Matt did this to me I came faster and harder than I had ever come before. The friction of our bodies sends heat through my body and I groan at the feeling.

My hand glides down his back to his ass as he increases the pressure on his ministrations, I let my fingers slide towards his hole and the closer I get the harder his cock becomes.

I press one of my fingers to his backdoor, making him groan as I press harder and I feel him opening up for me. We pick up the pace of pushing our hips together and I pump my finger in the same rhythm, Matt grunts as I push a second finger inside him.

"Victor, I want you to fuck me." He groans and I quickly move from under him. I don't stop the movement of my fingers as I crawl behind him, I press my rock-hard shaft against him and I slowly pull my fingers out.

I place my cock against his back entrance, nudging against it as my other hand grabs hold of his cock. I push harder once more and his butt opens up for me, letting me enter his ass.

I grunt as I lean forward against his back, pushing down on him as I glide deeper inside him. He pushes his ass up to meet my downward thrusts, making me push in every inch every time.

I pump and push my cock into his body, embedding myself as deep as I can go and his butt muscles squeeze my shaft as I glide back in. I feel my balls tighten as I pick up the pace, I drain my balls inside him and I feel his cock twitch in my hand.

I slow my strokes on his shaft, making him whine and I kiss the nap of his neck. I pull my softened cock out of him and flip him over on his back, lowering my head to take his cock in my mouth.

I take his cock between my lips, sucking his cock head hard and he groans loud. "Harder... fuck yes... harder..." Matt mumbles and I suck his cock harder, his hips bucking up.

I cup his balls, gently squeezing them, rolling them between my fingers. I feel his legs start to tremble, telling me he is going to come and a moment later I feel him shooting thick gobs of cum in my mouth.

I collapse on the bed next to him and it takes us a few minutes to catch our breath, before we both get up to change the sheets. Once we lay down, it didn't take long before we are both fast asleep.

Hunter wakes us in the morning by jumping in the middle of the bed, scaring the shit out of both me and Matt. "Hunter, get the fuck out. We are naked." Matt yells and she just stares at him, shrugging her shoulders.

"Hunter, will you please wait outside?" I ask as I look at Matt. "It seems that my Mate is a bit shy around you." I say teasingly and Matt growls as Hunter gets out of our bed giggling.

Once Matt is finished in the bathroom I ask him why he reacted to Hunter the way he did, he looks at me and says "I don't know. I think knowing she has four Mates and knowing who they are." I chuckle, but I do understand his reaction.

"Matt, they are not here and she didn't sleep in the bed with us. She is your friend and I think there is nothing wrong with what she did. Even though I know my groin doesn't agree with that." I respond and Matt chuckles at my words.

When we step into the hallway Hunter is nowhere in sight and we follow her scent to the living-room. We greet everyone that is in the room with Hunter and as we sit down Alpha Drake says "Victor and Matt, just call me Drake when it just family.

Hunter just told us she wants as little people to know who she is as possible and I think we have come up with a solution. For her Law studies she will be traveling to Packs and ours is the one she starts with.

We will tell our Pack-members she is a Law student, which isn't a lie completely and that she is here for an assignment." Drake says and I smile at the idea of Hunter as a Lawyer, one I don't want against me.

We talk during breakfast about everything except her Mates, that is a topic we avoid and just as we are finishing up with breakfast a woman walks into the living-room. "Debra, what can I do for you?" Alpha Drake asks and the tone of his voice tells me that he doesn't like her.

"Why is my Mate at the Palace?" She asks and I wonder who her Mate is, because as far as I know no one found a Mate last night. "Thomas is at the Palace at my request. I don't know how long he will be.

Why? Are you finally ready to give him his freedom? Are you finally going to accept his rejection?" He fires question after question at her and I see Hunter's eyes widen. "That is my Grandmother." She says through the mind-link.

Hearing about her from Matt had given me an immediate dislike of the woman and seeing her now I knew that would never change. "I will never accept it. He is stuck with me for the rest of his life." She growls and I see Hunter clenching her fists.

"Calm down, Princess. You don't want her to look at you too closely, you look too much like your Papa." I say and she slightly nods her head. "Alpha Drake, may I ask something?" Matt turns his head towards him and he nods his head.

"During my studies I had to learn a great deal about protocol and I can guarantee you there are a lot. I was taught that everyone has to address an Alpha by his title, even his Beta has to.

So why is this woman not using proper protocol?" He asks and I know that Hunter gave him that through the mind-link. I see Debra pale and a smirk appears on Drake's face.

"Matt, you are absolutely right. Everyone has to address an Alpha by his title, there are exceptions but I might explain those later on. Debra, can you explain to Matt why you don't call me by my title?"
