

Hunter's P.O.V.

Daphne, head of my protection detail, follows me inside and as soon as the door is closed behind me Aunt Sasha pulls me into a hug. "You look so much like Thomas, does he know?" She asks and I give them the high lights of the past few weeks.

"Oh, by the way. Uncle Luke and Max are here as well." I say and I see tears forming in her eyes. June is clinging to my leg and I am afraid she might never let me go. Peter and Cara are both smiling at me, while Benjamin is hiding behind his Father.

"Uncle Todd, just so you know. If anyone asks in the future why you named him Benjamin, tell them you named him after the King's Father-in-Law. That is what he will be telling everyone that is willing to listen to him and he is also here.

I call him Pops, because it suites him and it sounds better than Grandpa. I know he can't wait to meet his name sake and neither can Papa." I say and it only takes Aunt Sasha a second to realize that two of her siblings are with me.

Suddenly I hear a small voice ask, "Does he really want to meet me?" and I get down on my hunches to tell Benjamin that I am telling the truth, but it is the confirmation from Daphne that has him smiling widely. I link Max to ask him what the accommodations are like and if there is room for six more people.

He tells me that my Mates and I each have a suite on the Alpha floor, which means there is enough room for Aunt Sasha and Uncle Todd with their Pups. "Aunt Sasha, can you pack an overnight bag for all of you? I will not allow you to stay here a moment longer, you will stay with us on the Alpha floor.

I will enjoy annoying the hell out of Alpha Frank and by the time we leave he will be lucky if he is still breathing." I say and I see a shocked look on her face. Uncle Todd rushes the kids up the stairs and tells them to grab some nightwear and clean clothes for the following day.

I ask Daphne to take a few pictures of the interior while the rest is upstairs packing a bag and I link one of the girls to secretly take pictures of the outside. I want everyone to see how they have been living and I want to use it to embarrass the hell out of Alpha Frank.

Peter and Cara are the first once back down again and they ask me what it is like to be a Princess. "Sometimes tiring because people act differently when they know you are a Royal, but most of the time my life is as normal as yours." I answer and I can tell they don't believe me.

"Like the two of you I have to go to school, we can't have a dumb Princess, now can we." And they quickly shake their heads. "I have a Mom and a Dad that teach me right from wrong, just like the two of you. However I have something the two of you don't have to worry about, everyone watches what I do.

If I do something good, everyone will know real fast and that also goes for doing something bad. Others will always criticize everything I do and that is something you don't have to worry about, at least not until you are all grown up.

I also have another small problem, I have four Mates and they are also my Step-brothers. Not that I am supposed to know because I am not of age yet, but they told me and I am trying to find out why they were not allowed to tell me." I say to them and their eyes are as big as saucers by the time I am done.

Uncle Todd is standing next to Peter and says, "I never understood that rule either, it nearly costed me my Mate. I am lucky she was willing to give me a chance to proof that I wanted no one else but her."

My eyes shift between my Aunt and my Uncle as I quickly close my mouth, but I see Aunt Sasha shake her head. "Sorry, Your Highness. I meant my first Mate, she died in a rogue attack a few months later." I can hear the sadness in his voice and I just nod my head.

"Princess Hunter, will you point out Pops to me when you see him?" Benjamin asks as he grabs my hand and as I nod my head June grabs my other hand. Daphne opens the door for us and we walk out the front door, with the rest of the family following.

"Alpha Frank, that is no place for anyone to live in and I will be taking them with us to the Pack-house. They will stay in two of the suites assigned to me and the Princes." I tell him and he understands I am not going to accept an argument from him.

Cara asks if all the Princes are at the Pack-house and Daphne tells her they are, which earns her a huge smile from Cara. The kids are happily chatting about going to the Pack-house and the closer we get the angrier Alpha Frank looks.

I warn some of Uncle Luke's men after I asked Matt to make sure he kept Max and Uncle Luke on the Alpha floor with Pops and Papa. John is waiting outside with four men of his team and I see a flash of recognition in his eyes, but I know he will not say a word.

"John, this family will be staying with us on the Alpha floor. The cottage they live in is a disaster waiting to happen." I say and I hear a few of the men growl at my words, John just nods his head.

We follow him up the stairs while I link my Mates and ask them to join us in our suites. I soon hear their footsteps behind us and I hold on tighter to Benjamin and June, making them both giggle.

I hear Peter and Cara squeal and I look over my shoulder to see that Justin and Jason put them on their necks, Benjamin and June follow quickly as Jax and Jayce pick them up. "Just in case you hadn't figured it out yet, these are the Princes." I say laughing.

Victor is waiting outside the suite everyone is in and he smiles as he sees the Pups high up in the air. "Princess, where did you find those giants." He whispers hard enough for everyone to hear him and Peter taps him on his head to make him look up.

"I am sitting on his shoulders, dummy." Peter says and I can't stop myself from laughing. Victor looks at Aunt Sasha, "Are you ready, Sasha?" He asks and the moment she nods her head he opens the door for her.

She runs into the room jumping into Papa's arms while calling out his name, Uncle Luke steps in behind her and wraps his arms around her. I turn to Uncle Todd as I say "Max, this is Uncle Todd." Before he can respond Max has wrapped his arms around him.

I turn to my Mates and ask them to put the Pups on the floor, I bent down to Benjamin and point towards Pops as I say "That is Pops." Pops is already on one knee with his arms wide open and Benjamin doesn't waste minute as he runs towards him.

I see Cara looking at Matt and Victor as they look at the scene in front of them, she is staring at their interlocked fingers and I see a strange look on her face. I pull her into my lap as I sit down and tell her to ask me what ever she wants to know.

"Are they Mates?" She asks and I nod affirmative.
"Doesn't the King mind?" She asks and I tell her he doesn't, because his best friends, who are also his Beta and Gamma, are also gay and Mates.

"Alpha Frank hates same sex couples." She whispers in my ear and now I really hate the fucking prick. I ask her, "Do you think the Goddess would have paired them together if she was against same sex couples?" She frantically shakes her head, making her ponytail hit my cheek.

I tell her that Matt is my best friend and that he and Victor are perfect for one and other. I introduce her to Ella and Emma, who have been talking to Peter and I see the most adorable thing I have ever seen.

Jayce is sitting in an armchair with a sleeping June in his arms, I quickly grab my phone to take a picture of it and I send it to Nanna. In seconds I get a videocall from her and I answer it with a huge smile on my face.

Nanna is trying not to cry but I know it will only be a matter of seconds before the dam breaks. "Hello, Nanna. How are things there?" I ask as I tap the button to use the camera on the other side of my phone.

"Sasha.." I hear Nanna say before she starts crying. Sasha turns her head towards me and sees I am holding up my phone. I quickly switch the camera back as I hand her my phone and both of them just stare at the other as tears stream down their faces.
