Hunter's P.O.V.

I am sitting in the middle of our bed reading one of my study books, while Jayce is in the bathroom taking a shower. I am wearing a black sleep dress with on my back a Wolf's head that is see-through, Amanda had made it for me a few months back when I told her what I wanted to wear on the night I would finally mate with my Mate.

My back is towards the bathroom, so Jayce will see the back of my sleep dress first. I hear the shower turn off and I know it won't be long before he will walk into the bedroom, finding his Mate in a very sexy outfit.

As soon as the door opens I hear a growl and I know that Jayce will be fighting with Colt for control. I keep my eyes on my book as I wait for them to decide what to do, I can sense that they are getting closer and I feel heat spreading through my body in anticipation.

My eyes close as I feel the bed dip behind me and my core starts to throb the closer they move, "Princess, you better get the hell out of here or I will forget that my Brothers are not here." He whispers near my ear, sending a shiver down my spine.

I slowly lean backwards and I hear him suck in his breath the moment his eyes land on the front of my sleep dress, which is completely in lace and see-through. My nipples harden as his breath slowly fans over my shoulder and the groan I hear tells me that he sees what is happening.

He lowers his head towards my shoulder and starts sucking on the spot where one of my Mates will mark me, I moan at the sensation that runs through my body. I put my hands on the bed while I rest my head on his shoulder, suddenly I fall flat on my back as Jayce jumps of the bed.

"Princess, I can barely control myself and Colt is fighting me every step of the way. Go to one of the guestrooms, before I lose complete control." He says and his eyes show that he and Colt are fighting for control. A smile slowly creeps onto my face as I slowly sit back up, staring at his groin.

"Your Brothers know this is hard for you, especially for Colt and even though they would love to be here they also know that Colt and you need this. Now, get that ass of yours in bed and show me how much you love me." I say as I keep looking at him.

Jayce's P.O.V.

"Doesn't she realize what she is doing to us in that sleep dress?" Colt growls in my head, she stares at my raging hard-on and it gets even harder. I listen to her as I try to control Colt from taking over, but the second she tells me to get into bed Colt pushes forward.

I keep my eyes on her face to see if she is getting uncomfortable, but the moment I see a smile appear on her face I know I will be taking this all the way tonight. I slowly crawl onto the bed as I place kisses up her body, sucking her nipples into my mouth one by one.

Her back arches of the bed, pressing her breast closer to my face and I suck her nipple into my mouth even harder. One of her hands tangles in my hair and she gently pulls it as if she wants to tell me to keep moving up her body, once I reach her mouth I kiss her.

She wraps her hands around my neck while her tongue invades my mouth, I gently pull her head to the left and I deepen our kiss as Colt is howling in my head. With my knee I pry open her legs and the moment I am between them I push my rock-hard cock against her core.

Amazing little, breathy sounds escape her lips as I press my cock against her core even harder, I tuck on the hem of her sleep dress until it is under her breasts and I hold her up to take it off completely. My eyes trail down her body as I let my hand slide from her shoulder to her breast.

I cup her breast as my eyes reach her core and my eyes widen as I see the little piece of fabric she is wearing, "Fuck, Princess. You look amazing." I whisper as my eyes slowly travel back up to her face, I lower my head to suck on her nipple while my fingers play with her other nipple.

My hand leaves her breast to continue it's journey down her body and her breathing becomes heavier the closer I get to her core. I groan loudly as I feel how wet she is and I start rubbing her clit through the lace fabric of her panties, while I keep kissing her.

Colt tells me to move in between her legs and I slowly make my way down that gorgeous body of hers, kissing every inch of flesh I find on my way down. She is writhing under me as I put a little more pressure on her clit, her breathing tells me she is getting closer to her climax and I slow down my ministrations.

She whimpers as I pull my hand away completely, only to curl it around her panties to pull them down and as I move between her legs I am greeted by the sight of heaven. I spread her legs wider to see her soaking wet pussy and I slowly push one finger inside her.

It is enough to drive her over the edge and I keep pumping my finger in and out in a slow pace as she comes down from her orgasm, but before she is down from it completely I push a second finger in. I pick up the pace as I lower my head and slowly I let my tongue swirl around her clit, making her moan louder.

Her body responds quickly to my ministrations and I need to be inside of her before I come in my boxers. I don't want to stop what I am doing so after I sit up on my knees I free my cock from its confinement and place it at her entrance once I have pulled out my fingers.

She sucks in a breath when I push the tip of my cock into her soaking wet pussy, I feel her pussy stretching around my cock the further I push it inside her. With my thumb I run circles on her clit, her eyes don't leave mine as I slowly get deeper into her and when I feel her hymen I push through in one move.

I keep still as I enjoy the feel of her around my cock and to give her body time to adjust to my size. I start pumping in and out of her the moment she starts to relax and I can feel myself losing control of my movements. I keep pushing every inch inside her over and over again until I can feel her muscles start twitching.

I place my arms under her knees and pull her legs up higher to give me more access to her core, allowing me to go as deep inside her as I can get. I have her pinned against the bed, making it impossible for her to add her own momentum to the rhythm I have set for myself.

I can feel her body start to shake and her tight little pussy squeezes my cock with every thrust into her body, I push in as far as I can the moment her orgasm hits her. The squeezing of her muscles around my shaft are my undoing and I come with a loud roar, shaking the walls of our bedroom.

I place my arms beside her head, keeping my weight of my little Mate as I place my forehead against hers and I stare in to her beautiful eyes as she comes down from her high. "I could do this every day for as long as I life, I don't think I could ever get tired of being inside you, Princess." I whisper.

She smiles at me as her eyes slowly close and soon she is fast asleep. I pull out of her slowly and she whimpers the moment we are no longer touching. I quickly make my way in to the bathroom to get a wet cloth so I can clean her up and crawl back into bed with her.

I pull her close after I have done what I set out to do and I bury my face in her hair as she snuggles closer to my side. Colt is lying in the back of my head, feeling content with the events of this evening and he has a smirk on his face as he closes his eyes.

My eyes are on Hunter as I recall her words from earlier and a smile spreads across my face as I understand that she talked to her other Mates. All of them understood that Colt and I were close to losing control, we have waited for so long to find our Mate and when we finally did find her she turned out to be underaged.

Knowing that we had to wait almost four years nearly drove us mad and the year she spent at the Pack-house was even worse, but I know I have only myself to blame for that. Colt and I couldn't bear to see her near another, even when I was told that Matt was just a friend.

He was an unmated male near my Mate, but I think the worst was hearing about her dating Micha and even though he is happy with his Mate I sometimes wonder if Hunter would have hosen him over us, if he hadn't found his Mate.

I am happy that no one in the future has to go through what I went through and I know that Hunter will make sure that no one ever forgets again. Our Pups will be raised with the knowledge of all Laws and I know that Hunter will make sure they will always stay true to them.

"Colt." I yell at my Lycan as the realization hits me, we didn't use any protection and as he hears my thoughts he growls. "You better tell her in the morning or there will be hell to pay." As I think about how I am going to tell her I slowly drift off to sleep.
