Daniel's P.O.V.

I can't wait to get home and hold Aspen in my arms again. When I felt a spike in her emotions I had hoped for a moment she would tell me she was pregnant, but the news she told me was almost as good and I am grateful that Hunter thought of it.

Aspen asked me to keep it a secret as Hunter wants it to be a surprise and I can't wait until the day she will reveal what she has been up to. I hope that around the same time we will have a surprise for everyone as well and I know that Aspen can't wait either.

The front door opens to reveal the woman I love with all my heart and right behind her is my Daughter, not that she has eyes for me. She rushes past her Mother into the arms of my youngest Son and I see a huge smile on Jayce's face as he looks at the both of them.

Aspen jumps into my arms and I smash my lips to hers as I pull her close to me. I place my hands under her ass as I walk up the steps towards the front door and as I keep kissing her I walk to our wing, up the stairs to our own floor.

I love the way she feels in my arms and I have every intention of enjoying that body of hers before we meet up with the rest of the family again. I place her on the bed and take her clothes of while I keep kissing her, only breaking our kiss shortly to remove her shirt.

My cock is straining against my zipper and I quickly remove my own clothes as I start kissing down her body towards my own piece of heaven. The moment we are both naked I lay down next to her and I pull her on top of me, placing my cock at her wet entrance.

I slam her down on my cock, she screams in pleasure and pain at the intrusion and I thrust my hips up every time I slam her down on my cock. I don't give her time to adjust to my size as I am in desperate need of my Mate and I pump into her core harder and faster.

I hear her breathing become labored and I can feel she is getting close to her orgasm, Joshua pushes forward to take control. He pulls out of her before he flips her on her stomach and he pulls her ass in the air, giving him access to her pussy.

He slams back into her core as she whimpers and I know she is going to enjoy this a lot, like she always does. We use our knees to spread her legs as we keep pushing every inch of our cock into her, suddenly Joshua slows down and I hear her whimper again.

She was close to her orgasm and Joshua teasing her like this has proven to be a success in the past, I know he will prolong this as long as he can. He slowly picks up the pace again, her breathing starts to becomes labored again.

Joshua starts moving faster in and out of her as I feel our balls tighten and I know we are near the edge. Her soft moans spur Joshua on, picking up the pace even more and I hear her scream his name as her orgasm hits.

Joshua keeps thrusting into her core as she comes all over our cock and after a few more pumps into her body Joshua roars as he shoots our load inside her. Joshua kisses her mark as we are all trying to catch our breath, before he gives me back control and I collapse on the bed right next to her.

Aspen's P.O.V.

As I am catching my breath I smile at my handsome Mate and softly whisper, "Thank you, Joshua." They both know what I like and they are not afraid to give it to me, even though that might change when they find out about my little secret.

I rest my head on his chest as I think of a good way to bring up my little surprise, but I can't seem to find the right words. "What is wrong, Beautiful?" Daniel asks and I know that this is my chance to tell him.

"I was thinking about everything Emma, Ella and I have done after you left, there is still so much we need to do and with that She-wolf carrying two Pups, them getting born will happen sooner than later.

There is something I want you to look at and tell me what you think about it, I am not sure if I did it correctly." I say as I look at Daniel, he nods his head as he sits up straight before we both get out of bed and get dressed again. I grab his hand to lead him out of our bedroom.

I stop in front of the door next to ours and I take a deep breath before I swing open the door. Daniel steps inside and for a moment he says absolutely nothing, "Aspen." He whispers and as he turns around I can see the question in his eyes, I grab his hand to place it on my belly.

"We are going to have a Pup." I say as I look into his eyes with a huge smile on my face. I see total panic in his eyes and for a moment I am worried that he is not happy, but then he asks how I feel and if I am okay. "We didn't hurt you, did we?" He asks and I immediately understand what he is talking about.

"No, you didn't hurt me or our Pup. I will tell you if something is feeling uncomfortable or if I start feeling sick." I whisper as I wrap my arms around his body and I feel him relax instantly as he wraps his arms around me, "Do you want to tell them at dinner or should we wait a few days?" I ask.

"Joshua and I will become very protective of you and our Pup, more than we already are and that means that it will be obvious for some people. We will tell them at dinner, that way everyone can get used to the idea of a Pup arriving and it won't look strange if you are looking at any baby stuff." Daniel says and I smile up at him.

"Is it possible for you to become even more protective?" I ask teasingly, knowing that they will because of their unborn Pup and I smile at him as he playfully growls at me. "Wait until you start showing, you will not walk one step again." He says and we both start laughing.

We both look at the nursery I have been working on and even though there is still a lot that needs to be done, I like the mural I made on the right side of the room. There were boxes with furniture on the left side of the room and Daniel starts to place them on the floor, in the spot where he wants to put them.

It doesn't take long before he has sorted everything out and even though he didn't ask me anything he has placed the boxes right where I wanted the furniture to go. Just as Daniel is about to open the first box there is a knock on our door and we quickly leave the room, locking the door behind us.

Gabe's P.O.V.

My life is amazing, I always wanted to find my Mate and I did everything I could to find him. From an early age it had been clear to me that I would find a male instead of a female, even my parents have always known and not once did I get the feeling I was letting them down.

I know that the same goes for Brent and his family, but we both know there is one thing our parents want that we can not give them and that is Grandpups. Brent and I discussed this issue over and over again, both coming to the same conclusion we want to adopt a Pup.

We are going to talk to Daniel and Aspen about what we need to do before we can take a Pup home. Both of them have experience with Pups and they will know what we need to do to our Quarters to make is Pup proof as Grant calls it.

Daniel opens the door as Aspen walks out of the kitchen with two cups of coffee in her hand and he gestures for us to come in as Aspen asks us if we want coffee as well. Once we are all seated with a cup of coffee Brent tells them what we have decided and I see a huge smile on Aspen's face.

"You will make excellent parents to a Pup that doesn't have any and we will help you in any way we can. Did you look at adoption agencies?" She asks and Brent and I stare at each other, while we shake our heads. "Okay, lets get that sorted first." She says as she grabs her tablet and starts typing.

About half an hour before dinner we have found an agency that doesn't care about same sex couples and Aspen goes through the website to tell us what we need to do. It is a lengthy process that we will have to go through, but we don't care.

"It says here that it will take at least a year before you will be able to adopt a Pup, but that most couples they have worked with hardly ever have to wait much longer than that." Aspen says and I ask her to send me the link of the website.

"Don't start on a nursery yet." She says. "It will only make the wait much longer as that room will remind you of what you want every single day, I would suggest starting a month or two before the year is up and I will help in any way I can."

We are heading down to the main living room to wait until dinner time, Daniel and Aspen wanted to get changed before coming down to meet us.
