

Apocalypse 1301

Chapter 1301: Forced attack

Many beautiful colored wines were placed on the table, and many rare fruits were on each table. Many attendants walked around the meeting room and tried to make this place as perfect as possible.

The person in charge knew that his good days would be over if he couldn't satisfy Meng Ao. So he shouted loudly. He would even crush bones to punish those who did poorly.

Those injuries would take just a week for a one-star evolved to heal. The pain itself could make those people remember their mistakes.

The crisp sound of boots could be heard. The person in charge bent his back and walked to the door quickly. In the next second, a handsome guy in white military attire walked in.

He glanced at this person in charge and didn't say anything. He walked into the meeting room, and the guards bowed at him. He nodded slightly, and his eyes moved around the room.

"Take the fruits away and move them to the banquet hall. The commander would head over with the middle management and even invite the officers over."

"Yes."

Hearing the young person's words, the person in charge replied, "Do you have anything else to instruct Mr Lan?"

"Just have enough wine. No need to put so much. Take some away and only keep the red. Pour them into the decanter. We will just have a symbolic drink later."

"Understood, I will get it done."

The person in charge bent his back and instructed his subordinates to do something. These people started to change the fruits and wine. Mr Lan nodded in satisfaction with their efficiency.

"Do well."

He turned around and left.

While working, the attendants would glance at this beautiful guy. They were filled with envy and disdain, but that changed into respect.

Who was Mr Lan? These people knew that he belonged to the commander, which is why they were filled with disdain.

To many guys, they would rather die than do such a thing.

At the start, he wasn't Mr Lan but Sister Lan.

It didn't sound bad, but the meaning was obvious.

But after which, this Sister Lan showed his vicious side. He obtained the commander's full trust and even personally trained that terrifying thirty-men guards. As the captain, he was a seven-star evolved.

The decorations were done very quickly. The person in charge ordered, and the attendants left. A bunch of beautiful women in Qipao walked in and stood beside each table. They stood elegantly and had a professional smile on their faces.

If not for the apocalyptic scenes outside, you would even think this was a corporation's annual event.

After a while, many people dressed in clean military attire walked in. They didn't have any guards; at most, they came with their deputy. They looked around and sat down at their seats. They greeted familiar people and smiled when they saw the red liquid on the table.

In the apocalypse, the human body was greatly improved, and people were interested in things that could stimulate their senses. Cigarettes, alcohol, candy, tea, chili, and even drugs were things people chased.

Even if they took too much, their bodies could handle it.

Along with the fact that such things were not common in the apocalypse, such things became expensive, and ordinary evolved couldn't enjoy them.

Hongkan Freedom Army's middle management was strong, but not all of them could drink such good wine. They sniffed the fragrance, and many of them were tempted. But the commander wasn't here, so none of them started.

"Captain Fu, you came alone? Where is your deputy?"

A person asked the guy beside him.

These were all captains. The majors and colonels were all ahead and near the core area.

"Don't mention it." He was unhappy, "That kid disappeared, and I couldn't find him. I could only come alone."

"Haiz, so bold. He even dares to miss the boss's birthday."

Hearing the guy raise his voice, many people also paid attention to this side. Captain Fu scoffed and stared at that person to warn him.

That person gave a dried cough. They were both captains, so they didn't fear each other.

At this point, the corridor outside suddenly quietened down. These people all stood up and turned their attention to the sound of the footsteps outside.

Mr Lan was the first to enter. He stood at the door and looked around before saying, "The commander is here."

He turned and walked out. Twenty armed guards entered and guarded the various strategic locations of the room. After which, there was laughter.

"I made all of you wait."

As he spoke, a tall guy in a dark blue cloak with a similar color military uniform walked in. His hands hung by his side, and he wore a pair of black leather gloves. He had a gold-rimmed spectacles, and his hair was nicely combed. His short hair and handsome face made him very charming. He even looked a little devilish if one added the crystal ear studs on his left ear.

After entering, this guy sat on the chair in the middle. Ten guards blocked the door behind him. Mr Lan walked elegantly and sat beside this guy.

"Commander!"

After an orderly sound, the five hundred middle management sat down.

“Pour the wine!”

Mr Lan waved. The beautiful female attendants poured the wine into the glasses and then respectfully backed down.

Meng Ao shrugged, and his cloak fell onto the chair. He stood up and raised his glass, and the other people also stood up and raised their glasses.

“I am very happy that all of you could be here today.”

He suddenly paused. Everyone did not understand, but two seconds later, they turned and looked outside.

Through the bright window, they saw a foreign battle squad charging over with a sharp aura.

Chapter 1302: Forced attack (2)

Many middle management members who saw those scenes started sweating.

It wasn't that they were afraid of the enemy. It was because many people would lose their jobs and be punished because this battle squad was able to enter this core position.

“Ding!”

A translucent crystal glass was placed on the table. Meng Ao squinted his eyes and looked at this battle squad coldly.

Mr Lan had a worse expression than him; that handsome face was twisted.

Although he was Meng Ao's guard captain, everyone knew he had a role to play in all Ji City matters. He arranged the people in good roles. Due to his relationship with Meng Ao, everyone else could only close an eye.

But this time, everyone knew that he would have to take responsibility.

How did this enemy enter? How did they get here? How did they know the location of the meeting?

Someone would have to pay a price for this.

He would be one of them.

"Stop them, kill them!"

Mr Lan charged to the window. No one knew who he ordered. He stared at the enemy 3km away and wanted to rip them apart.

People in the room wanted to charge out, but someone stopped them.

“Don’t move.”

Only one person could override Mr Lan’s words in the Hongkan Freedom Army, and that person was Meng Ao.

For some reason, that guy’s voice had a power that could calm the middle management.

“Lan’er, you are too panicked.”

Mr Lan turned around, and that beautiful face was a little wronged.

“Although our Hongkan Army isn’t a strong faction, we are ranked in the country. Since they dare to attack us and even silently got close to us, they aren’t afraid of us.”

Meng Ao didn’t give an order and started to lecture Mr Lan. Although the others didn’t understand, they could only listen quietly.

Although this place wasn’t Ji City’s well-guarded area, many leaders were here. Many people came with their guards who were downstairs. Along with the patrolling squads around, there were many warriors in the area. They had started to intercept the troops below, and one could hear the sounds of intense fighting.

“Your orders make sense, but they are not clear. You told them to stop and kill them. Who should do it? Who should kill them? Such unclear orders will only be useful for people close to you.”

Even Mr Lan was stunned by that and looked nervously at Meng Ao to try to explain.

This Hongkan Freedom Army boss waved his hand.

“I am not blaming all of you, and I know your loyalty. If not, do you think you will have a chance to turn my people into your people? That is because you are mine.”

Although the words were like a rap, those people who were terrified calmed back down.

“Also, did you see the enemy’s situation? Did you observe their equipment? Can you judge their levels using their speed? Do you have a plan B? Do you have a plan C?”

“I, I...”

Mr Lan didn’t know what to say.

“Boss, they are about to arrive. Let’s talk about this later. We should send people to stop them!”

A colonel in the second row was anxious. As he was an anxious person, he said his thoughts.

The enemy was charging. Was there not a better time to talk about all this? Did it have to be now?

“Why do we need to stop them?” Meng Ao asked.

“Ah? Don’t?”

That colonel was stunned and didn’t understand.

The others didn’t understand too. If they didn’t stop them, they were going to allow them to charge here?

Meng Ao smiled and said while walking, “All of you don’t know how to learn and use what I just said?”

Many people reacted and looked at the charging squad.

“Number, equipment, speed. What have you judged?” Meng Ao walked to Mr Lan’s side and asked while pulling his hand.

“500, all green... At least five-star.”

Mr Lan calmed down and answered quickly.

But Meng Ao shook his head, “535 people with unknown battle beasts, all green with some blue equipment.”

“Look at their formation. Even if we attacked them, they didn’t panic, and their speed didn’t change. Judging their levels from this, even if they aren’t all six-star, most of them are six-star!”

What?

They might all be six-star?

The Hongkan Freedom Army's higher-ups were stunned. Who were they, and why were their levels so high?

“All female.”

Meng Ao said something, and many people thought about it.

“In this country, to have such a strong battle squad that is all female. You don’t need me to tell you who it is, right?”

Many people said in unison, “Cloud Peak?”

“Right, Boss Ye Zhongming that shone in Bright Water Feast is here to kill me!”

Meng Ao said it with a smile. But his eyes were filled with shock.

He thought about some things but didn’t tell his subordinates about them.

“Facing such a battle squad, do you think any squad can survive?”

Everyone kept silent. Even the colonels were shocked.

They were confident but not confident enough to face Cloud Peak’s elite forces.

“Since that is the case, let’s wait for them here.” Meng Ao raised his voice, “If your own battle squad isn’t their match, what about if we combine all of us here to form a battle squad?”

“I am curious. If all the Hongkan Freedom Army’s strongest warriors combined against that female guards, who is stronger!”

Meng Ao picked up a wine glass and drank it all. The red liquid flowed across his face.

“Aren’t you all unhappy with the rankings?” Meng Ao smiled. He placed his hands together and aimed it outside.

“It is time to prove to the world!”

A glow fired from his hands!

Chapter 1303: Forced attack (3)

The light’s attack was the first time Ye Zhongming raised his head.

Not only did he not attack, but he also hid himself in the squad.

After Qin Renxuann told him about the position and time, Ye Zhongming and Xia Bai’s battle squad decided to attack forcefully.

If they couldn’t hide their tracks, this was the best solution.

The few kilometers weren't far for Xia Bai's battle squad.

Truth proved that. When they started to charge, the unprepared Hongkan Freedom Army couldn't stop them.

The warriors in charge couldn't block a single hit. Only those guards of the middle management could give them some small problems.

But this full green squad that was used to working together and fighting, having survived many dire situations, wasn't threatened at all.

It took them just a minute to get from the starting point to this place, even after they had continuously fought.

Ye Zhongming's choice of fighting was a little risky. This wasn't because he thought that it might fail. He was afraid that if he was stopped, the middle management might have a chance to escape.

But now, it seemed that those worries were unfounded. These people wanted to fight Cloud Peak head-on!

Ye Zhongming believed that they knew who he was and who this battle squad was. After all, they were too outstanding.

But there was definitely a reason why they dared to make such a choice.

Ye Zhongming wouldn't underestimate them. This light might be one of the things they relied on.

The light crossed the distance instantly and hit Ye Zhongming's Staff of Nature.

Two forms of energy clashed and caused a huge shockwave. The Hongkan Freedom Army was hit, and the energy shattered their bodies.

Water Bottle Protection shattered.

Ye Zhongming and Meng Ao exchanged gazes.

The two bosses could see each other.

They smiled, and killing intent surged.

Everyone knew that someone had to die today.

There was no reason, and you didn't need to ask why. The apocalypse was like this: either you killed me, or I killed you.

Meng Ao placed his hands down, and his gloves were smoking. The gloves were a piece of equipment.

“Very good, as expected from Cloud Peak’s boss.”

This Hongkan Freedom Army leader reached to grab the table. When he touched the table, the wooden table started to turn into metal.

“Move aside!”

Mr Lan and the others backed off. Meng Ao grabbed this giant metal table and tossed it out from the window like a shot putt ball.

The metal table whistled as it smashed toward the Cloud Peak battle squad.

Many streaks of light flew from the battle squad and hit the metal table. But as it was heavy and powerful, they couldn’t change its flight path.

In the next moment, more shining light flew. Cloud Peak strengthened its attacks on that table.

Meng Ao stood in the windowless building and laughed coldly. He placed his hands together and made a few hand signals. That table was disassembled.

It turned into numerous metal pearls!

They were so dense that they covered a huge region.

As Meng Ao pushed with his hands, those pearls fired toward Cloud Peak.

As compared to the light from before, there were more pearls, and they covered a huge distance. But no one knew how powerful they were.

“Retract!”

Xia Bai’s sudden words caused her squad to change shape. They went from an arrowhead form into an 11.

Ye Zhongming raised Staff of Nature again.

The pearls hit the energy barrier.

“Defend!”

Ye Zhongming shouted this the moment they clashed. Xia Bai's battle squad used their defensive skills, and the formation changed again. Turning into a circular formation! ㄨA N ǒ#Èş

The pearls were very weird. After touching the energy barrier, it didn't shatter and bounced off instead.

One attack had caused the energy barrier to shatter.

While shattering, Ye Zhongming noticed that some pearls didn't move. Or rather, they did move and entered the staff's defensive region.

He switched to another gem, but those within the region had to be defended.

How did Cloud Peak get stronger? In what areas did Ye Zhongming nurture his close guards in?

People had different thoughts.

But the best way to test it was in battle.

Especially against a strong opponent. Or when they were in danger, the strength of this battle squad would be shown.

Different defensive skills and equipment abilities protected the area above the squad. The metal pearls clashed with these abilities.

These abilities weren't like the Water Bottle Protection. They were more aggressive, and while blocking the pearls, they destroyed them, too.

The pearls were gone before they could break the skills.

Staff of Nature's Water Bottle Protection was shattered for the third time today, and there were still many pearls. But there wasn't much left. The others were destroyed in the second clash.

“Charge!”

Xia Bai's voice was cold. The team that had slowed because of the pearls picked up speed again.

“Scoff!”

Meng Ao's two attacks that he felt would have succeeded didn't, and his smile disappeared. He waved, and the remaining metal pearls spun. Each pearl seemed to be grabbed in his hands, and he tossed them toward Cloud Peak's battle squad.

Ye Zhongming didn't use Staff of Nature this time. He placed the Explosive Mechanic before him. The moment he did, the third form's attack fired at the metal pearls. Then, a second and third attack.

It was time for Ye Zhongming to return the favor.

Firepower smashed into the building!

Chapter 1304: Level eight Big Yellow

Seven consecutive attacks that could cover a hundred square meters each charged into the building, causing it to tremble. The glass on the other floors shattered and fell, splattering on the ground.

You couldn't see Meng Ao anymore. The area before the window even collapsed slightly.

Ye Zhongming took a look and kept the explosive mechanic. He charged with the team. Without Meng Ao's disturbance, the team needed just a minute to get to that floor.

He believed that the people there wouldn't run.

At this moment, Hongkan Freedom Army's middle management was hit by those attacks and was in a bad state.

¼ of the 500 people laid on the ground. Half of those turned into scorched corpses. No more than 20 of the rest were still alive.

Although the others were still standing, many of their hair were standing, and their uniforms were in a mess. Many people held a part of their bodies, and their faces were in pain.

Meng Ao retreated to the middle of the meeting room. Before him, only corpses were left.

He slowly took off the damaged gloves and pressed his slightly messy hair. Rage surged in his eyes.

He was furious.

Furious that his attacks were effective. Furious that he had lost face in front of his men. Furious that one attack caused him to lose a fifth of his middle management.

Also, the pair of gloves that didn't have a level but had magical powers was destroyed.

Without those gloves, his strength dropped by at least ten percent!

Sometimes, confidence was a weird thing. Before facing something, it will be so high that you will be about to explode. But sometimes, a small setback would cause it to collapse.

Meng Ao was like that.

He was furious, but was he going to jump down to battle Cloud Peak?

No!

He might have had confidence previously but he didn't have any now.

He said those words to encourage his subordinates, but they were useless to him. He knew that life was the most important thing. Loyalty, persistence, and bravery were all nonsense. Surviving was the most important thing.

So he said something that was very shameless, "Retreat!"

The entire Hongkan Freedom Army middle management turned to head down.

They didn't have time to laugh at their boss as this was what they were thinking too.

They used several seconds to clear the blocked entrance and wanted to charge out. They would then jump from the windows in the back to meet with their subordinates. When they were able to, they would use their numbers advantage to drown Cloud Peak's strong but small female squad.

But the people at the front suddenly stopped. Not only that, they even started to retreat.

This signaled to Meng Ao that there was a situation.

But Cloud Peak's members were focused at the front. Ye Zhongming and the female guards were there. Even if they had other trump cards, how strong could they be? rANoBES

The rage in his heart exploded.

This bunch of trash couldn't help him against Cloud Peak's battle squad. They couldn't even charge out now?

Meng Ao knocked aside his subordinates and reached the first floor. He raised his head and punched two people.

"Why aren't you leaving? Stupid!"

Before they could reply, he found the reason.

Rage stopped on his face, and it turned into awkwardness.

Meng Ao saw a golden red dog at the entrance.

Even if it was squatting there and looked lazy, its special and bright fur showed a strong aura.

But this was not the reason they were afraid to move forward. The source of their fear was that this dog's forehead had an orange demon crystal!

"Eight, level eight?"

This thought rose in their hearts.

"Lan'er!"

Meng Ao shouted. Mr Lan brought people to occupy the entrance. The 30 close guards he personally trained raised their weapons.

A level eight lifeform was terrifying but they had faced some before.

"Calm down; we have killed lifeforms of such a level before. What are you afraid of?"

Meng Ao shouted, but this wasn't as effective as before.

Many middle management were thinking that if he wasn't afraid, why was he still retreating?

"Walk from the sides, break the walls!"

Meng Ao gave orders. Subordinates who had such a thought blew the walls open and headed out from the sides.

That big dog finally moved.

It slapped with its huge legs and caused the ground to be filled with cracks.

Those cracks weren't ordinary cracks; they had red flames like magma. The warriors standing on the cracks were burnt and had to change positions. Their shoes were all damaged. Even people with green shoes smelt a burning smell and saw that their shoes were damaged.

It wasn't over. The flames in the cracks were growing larger, and they started to burn brighter. In a breath, it was the size of half a human.

Some people with lower levels, like those five-star evolved, were instantly lit up. They screamed and used their skills or defensive equipment, but that was useless. They were quickly burnt to ash.

All this happened in a short time such that Hongkan Freedom Army which faced such a thing for the first time, couldn't react.

The flames descended and were hidden back into the cracks. Apart from them being hot, they didn't seem to have any other effect.

But they didn't dare to underestimate it anymore. They headed to the sides and avoided the room.

Chapter 1304.5- Level eight Big Yellow (2)

"What are you doing, kill it!" Meng Ao roared and was unhappy with Mr Lan.

His thirty close guards started to attack Yellow Ball.

But at that moment, the ground burnt again. This time, the flames were higher, reaching two meters. The people in the room were wrapped. Even six-star evolved were injured by the strong flames. Some weaker ones were burnt to death.

Yellow Ball showed its fangs. It bent its body and shot forward. Its body turned into an afterimage that smashed into Mr Lan.

It was too quick, and the seven-star Mr Lan couldn't react. He could only tilt his body. Yellow Ball's new dragon horn stabbed into the right chest of this beautiful guy.

The huge impact sent him flying back into the room.

Level seven and level eight's differences were huge.

However, apart from some strong level eight ones who faced weak level seven evolved, they would be defeated in one strike; if not, the level seven ones would be able to last for a while longer.

Although this Mr Lan didn't die, he was hanging on Yellow Ball's head and swung around. Even if he punched Yellow Ball's head, there weren't many that could land. Even if it did, it wasn't very effective.

Yellow Ball's golden red fur shone colorful patterns like ripples as he fought. Each ripple would heal his body once.

Not to mention that Mr Lan's best attribute wasn't strength, which resulted in his punches not doing much. Even if Yellow Ball was injured, it would be healed instantly.

During this period, the flames rose for the third time. This time, the flames filled the entire room. Some of the close guards that tried to surround Yellow Ball were burnt to ash. Even Mr Lan was badly injured.

The Hongkan Freedom Army middle management that had run to the sides would turn while fleeing. The scenes terrified them, and they lost every bit of hope in fighting back.

They knew that this dog wasn't an ordinary level eight lifeform. The few skills it showed in the short time were not something a lifeform of the same level could block, much less them.

Meng Ao had jumped from a window in the back. When he jumped, he looked at the meeting room and saw the big dog tossing Mr Lan to the ground and biting his head off.

The beautiful guy that he had spent countless nights with had died just like that.

Meng Ao recalled the big dog's name-- Yellow Ball! It was the mutated beast that followed Cloud Peak's boss since the start.

However, the news reported that this dog was in a negative state. Cloud Peak had asked for solutions, and they said that the chances of it waking up weren't high.

It was obvious that this fellow not only woke, but it also became a strong level eight lifeform!

Meng Ao's rage disappeared, and he felt like his confidence was a joke. In front of the strongest few factions in the country, the Hongkan Freedom Army couldn't take a hit.

No, he might have a chance, but...

Meng Ao hesitated and didn't know if he should use it.

Yellow Ball only used three abilities. One of them was a passive ability.

The ability to turn the ground into cracks and flames was called Flame Dragon Breathing. It would cause cracks within a certain area, and those cracks would have high-temperature flames that would split into three attacks. Each flame would be bigger and harder to defend against. After three times, the skill would disappear.

This was a flame aoe attack. The attack wasn't strong at first, which was why the flames were only a meter high. But as it continued, they would get stronger. The final time could insta kill level six lifeforms and hurt level seven lifeforms.

Of course, this ability had obvious flaws, such as that it was easy to dodge. Evolved that were within the attack range could judge the strength and dodge it, which would waste the third attack.

Just now, the ones hit were the evolved that were affected by the explosive mechanic and lost their walking ability, those weaker six-star evolved and also Meng Ao's guards.

The second ability was Unprepared Strike. This was the ability Yellow Ball used to strike Mr Lan with his horn.

This ability was simple and direct, and the key was speed. In a short distance, most evolved would be caught off guard. The strong and sharp horn would be able to pierce the target.

Mr Lan was a seven-star evolved, so he dodged slightly, and that horn didn't hit a fatal spot. Along with him having some equipment, he didn't die immediately.

The third ability was the passive, the upgraded Spirit Healing Technique. Previously, it would use this ability when it was injured, but now it became an instinct. Like breathing and sleeping, it didn't need to consume mental energy or stamina and could constantly heal its body.

When Ye Zhongming learned that the level eight Yellow Ball had this passive, he was very envious. This meant that Yellow Ball would have a doctor with it. It was a strong doctor who would never run out of mental energy and healing skill cooldown.

With Yellow Ball's chaos, the five hundred Hongkan Freedom Army middle management lost 25% of their number. The meaning jumped off the building and ran deep into the city. When Yellow Ball charged to the window, it also jumped.

At the same time, Ye Zhongming and Cloud Peak's battle squad passed the building and started to chase.

The battle was totally one-sided.

The female guards split up into two battle groups to chase targets. Xia Bai used her flying advantage to kill Hongkan Freedom Army people while directing her subordinates.

Yellow Ball was excited. As a battle beast, it was extremely quick. Each second, people would die to it.

Ye Zhongming locked onto Meng Ao. If others didn't block his way, he would ignore them and leave them to his subordinates. He only chased this fellow who should be seven-star.

He wanted to see where this Meng Ao would bring him at such a crucial moment. Would the Angela Earrings be there?

Chapter 1305: Crystal scorpion

Meng Ao kicked his room door open.

It wasn't that he consumed a lot of stamina but because he was nervous and afraid, which caused a body reaction.

On his way, he heard many screams.

Although terror and sadness caused the voices to change tones and even caused them to crack, he heard them clearly.

They were familiar voices. Some had followed him when he started building the Hongkan Freedom Army.

But now, those voices disappeared.

Meng Ao knew that they truly disappeared... They died.

The entire Ji City was in a mess. Without the middle management elites, no one could organise a good resistance. The huge level difference caused the warriors to collapse and feel like they were being insta killed.

Meng Ao knew that Hongkan Freedom Army was finished. This faction that he spent so much to nurture was destroyed on his birthday.

But his heart didn't ache, he just felt slightly frustrated.

He knew that as long as he didn't lose something, he would be able to rise back up.

He came to the toilet swiftly and pushed the basin aside to reveal the wall behind it. He pressed a part of it and the side of the wall caved in to reveal a square space. He reached and took out a small bag.

He didn't even look, grabbing it and running outside.

But he stopped after leaving the toilet.

"Ye Zhongming, give people a chance!" Meng Ao shouted, "We have no grievances. Whether you are doing this for the base, for the population, or the riches, I can give them to you! But move aside, I have to leave!"

Ye Zhongming looked at the bag and raised his chin.

"Don't ask for too much!" He grabbed the bag, "Don't think that I am really afraid of you; I just don't want to risk my life against you. If we fight, the outcome is uncertain."

Ye Zhongming shook his head, "We are leaders of the top thirty factions of the country; stop speaking like we are in a movie."

"You have the advantage, so naturally, you can say anything you want." He realised that his aura was being suppressed and calmed down, "No matter if it is childish or not, I just need to tell you the truth. I have the strength to fight my way out. There is another way to solve this."

"I shall kill you. That is the best solution!"

Hearing Ye Zhongming say that, Meng Ao panted vigorously and said, "Our faction territories aren't connected, and we have no clashes. Then... You are Talos Red Dwarves' spokesperson on Earth?"

Ye Zhongming was shocked.

"Seems like you know what this is about." Ye Zhongming moved, causing Meng Ao to be more nervous.

"Hand over the earrings, and I will let you live."

Meng Ao looked at Ye Zhongming for a few seconds and laughed.

“Do you know? When you stood there and didn’t say anything, I felt lower than you. But when you spoke, I noticed that the Cloud Peak boss was so-so. Talos Red Dwarves didn’t tell you what the Angela Earrings were, and you charged here. You are such a poor dog.”

Ye Zhongming wasn’t furious. On the contrary, he felt like Meng Ao knew something he didn’t.

“Let me say it again: hand over the earrings so you will live.”

Meng Ao had a mocking smile. The confidence he had lost reappeared on his body.

He opened the bag in his hands and took something out.

“Okay, here!”

He tossed a shining thing.

Ye Zhongming was naturally not so dumb to believe him. He paid some attention to it, just in case.

But that thing flew viciously. Ye Zhongming didn’t grab it. It smashed into the wall behind and left a giant hole.

Seeing Meng Ao stand there, Ye Zhongming felt weird.

Was this seven-star fellow going to fight him? Did he have something he could use to battle him?

Ye Zhongming's body suddenly moved, and a cold light brushed across his head.

He used the chance to tilt his body and saw a crystal scorpion slightly smaller than Yellow Ball appear out of the hole he smashed open. It was looking at him with its crystal-like eyes.

It raised its scorpion tail as if to tell Ye Zhongming where that cold light came from.

“Do you find it weird why our Hongkan Freedom Army does not even have an eight-star evolved, but the Talos Red Dwarves want revenge on us? Do you find it weird that I am not afraid? Let me tell you, it is because of this scorpion!”

Meng Ao laughed with pride.

“Didn't you want to know about Angela Earrings? Let me tell you, this is it. You can't see it? Your eyes are a problem, right?”

Meng Ao touched that ear stud on his ear.

That was Angela Earrings? Ye Zhongming did guess about that but didn't sense any energy fluctuation from it. The earrings didn't have any level, so he thought they were just ordinary earstuds.

Now that Meng Ao said it, was it really the earrings?

“You find it weird, right? It is easy to explain. I am another race's spokesperson, and I stole Talos Red Dwarves' things so they won't let me go. As for what I stole, this scorpion was the one.”

The scorpion charged out of the hole and tangled with Ye Zhongming. What was shocking was that they were on the same level.

“Angela Earrings belongs to the race I represent, its function... It strengthens this scorpion!”

Meng Ao took the stud off and tossed it forward. That scorpion raised its tail and gave out a strong energy current to absorb that stud.

Its body had huge changes.
