

Apocalypse 178

Chapter 178: Jian Bing, Zhi Ming, Ling Guang

"La la."

"La la la!"

Ling Guang sat on a tree branch, her legs swinging below, humming continuously.

Although Deceitful Demon was fraught with peril, her mood was still delightful.

Ling Guang was an optimist. Ever since the enigmatic invasion, she had been this way, seemingly cheerful every day.

In her view, crying through the day is still a day spent, and smiling through the day is also a day spent.

Even if you cry your eyes blind, you can't return to the world before the invasion.

After a short while, Zhi Ming and Jian Bing arrived with the troops here.

Unlike Ling Guang, who was singing on the branch, although both women, Jian Bing's face was cold as ice.

"Ling Guang, if after entering the Deceitful Demon you dare act on your own again."

"I promise, I will chop off your wings and make them into Orleans chicken wings!" Jian Bing's voice was extremely cold.

Clearly, she was very displeased with Ling Guang's recent departure.

Ling Guang looked at Jian Bing with a hint of fear, and then protested: "I only went a mere few hundred meters ahead, and besides, I didn't go into the Deceitful Demon on my own, I'm waiting here for you."

However, Jian Bing didn't listen to Ling Guang's explanation, just kept staring at her with that cold look.

Ling Guang felt uncomfortable being stared at, and pulled Zhi Ming's arm, whining, "Brother Zhi Ming, sister Jian Bing is bullying me again, can you judge between us?"

Ling Guang knew she wasn't a match for Jian Bing alone, so she tried to pull in an ally.

However, Zhi Ming wasn't an idiot either.

Zhi Ming discreetly pulled his arm away from Ling Guang's grip and stepped aside, wryly smiling: "Little girl, your sister Jian Bing is only doing this for your own good."

"You're too reckless, you need to be steady, understand?"

Zhi Ming thought, you'd have to be crazy to ask me to judge between you two!

Seeing Zhi Ming wasn't siding with her either, Ling Guang puffed her cheeks in grievance, muttering softly: "Sister Jian Bing, you're too fierce. If you keep being like this, no man will dare take you."

Although Ling Guang's voice wasn't loud, everyone present turned to look at Jian Bing.

Looking at Jian Bing, the Life Pattern Masters present couldn't help but inhale sharply.

Everyone knew about this woman, Jian Bing.

In terms of appearance, she's undoubtedly a stunning beauty.

In terms of physique, considerably endowed — her hips alone scream child-bearing potential.

In terms of aura, her cool demeanor exudes a certain conquering desire.

But if you want to date her, you better consider carefully if you can take a beating.

Jian Bing seemingly disliked men. Not just dating her, but even ordinary men who approached within three meters would get slapped twice.

Upon hearing Ling Guang's words, Jian Bing glared at her and said coldly, "If you don't want your mouth anymore, I can help rip it off."

"No!"

"Don't rip my mouth off!"

"I still want to sing! When society is back to normal, I want to become a singer!" Ling Guang covered her mouth, speaking timidly.

"Alright, alright!"

"Let's head into the Deceitful Demon, no more delays!" Zhi Ming perfectly played the peacekeeper role.

...

Jian Bing, Zhi Ming, and Ling Guang led the team into the Deceitful Realm.

Their location was on the outskirts on the other side of Tang City.

The situation here was different from when Lin Yuan and his group first accidentally entered the Deceitful Demon.

When Lin Yuan and his group initially wandered into the Deceitful Demon, they were surrounded by pitch-black mist that obscured everything.

However, they hadn't encountered such black mist in this area.

The place Lin Yuan's group stumbled into was precisely at the core of the summoned Deceitful Demon, hence the engulfing black mist.

That black mist was a product of another world.

While the area the trio entered belonged to the edge of the Deceitful Demon's coverage, where the black mist hadn't spread yet.

The danger in their direction was actually less than what Lin Yuan's group faced.

However, despite this, they were too many in number.

More people meant a larger target, easier to attract attention.

After entering this realm, their choice, similar to Lin Yuan's, was to hastily move towards the city's refuge.

"Is this the right direction towards Tang City's refuge?" Jian Bing's voice was still cold as ice.

Zhi Ming nodded, answering: "That's right, it's this direction. Given our current speed, we'll reach the refuge in no more than half an hour."

Upon receiving Zhi Ming's confirmation, everyone continued moving towards the refuge.

"Brother Zhi Ming, how do you know the location of the refuge?" Ling Guang asked.

Zhi Ming replied: "I've executed missions here, naturally I know."

"Oh!" Ling Guang responded, saying: "It's a shame I didn't visit here before the invasion, or I could have enjoyed a feast then."

"Brother Zhi Ming, if I had come here to eat, I'd definitely bring you along."

After Ling Guang finished speaking, there was no response from Zhi Ming.

Seeing Zhi Ming ignoring her, Ling Guang hurried forward, shaking Zhi Ming's arm: "Brother Zhi Ming, aren't you curious why I want to bring you?"

"No!" Zhi Ming shook his head replying.

"Brother Zhi Ming, just ask, ask!" Ling Guang shook Zhi Ming's arm so hard he nearly fell apart.

Annoyed beyond words, Zhi Ming helplessly asked, "Why?"

"Because..."

"Because when Brother Zhi Ming turns into a tortoise, you'll be really tough!" Ling Guang finished speaking and burst into laughter, her voice like tinkling silver bells.

Zhi Ming: "?????"

Zhi Ming's face turned dark, correcting angrily, "That's the Black Tortoise, not a turtle!"

"Oh, Black Tortoise!"

"Black Tortoise is great! It's tougher too!" Ling Guang said as she bounced ahead, her ponytail swinging.

"Too playful!"

"Someone should have Jian Bing hang her up and beat her!" Zhi Ming said, looking helpless.

The team swiftly moved towards the shelter, and Ling Guang's mouth never stopped on the way.

After Zhi Ming ignored her, she went to chat with the Life Pattern Masters at the back.

The Life Pattern Masters didn't dare offend her, so they braced themselves to chat with her.

Actually, everyone thought, does Ling Guang have ADHD? Is that mouth rented or something?

She dared not harass Jian Bing, but she didn't spare anyone else.

Why didn't she dare harass Jian Bing?

It's mainly for two reasons: she can't beat him, and Jian Bing actually beats her.

A few days ago, Ling Guang didn't know how she angered Jian Bing, but she was hung and beaten by him.

After he finished, he didn't let her down and kept her hanging on the beam.

Zhi Ming pleaded for her, but Jian Bing didn't give him any face.

With Jian Bing adamant, no one dared to release her!

Zhi Ming had no choice but to seek out the principal.

In the end, it was the principal who personally sent someone to let Ling Guang down.

Since then, Ling Guang has been very afraid of Jian Bing, fearing he would hang her up and beat her again.

"Shut up!"

Suddenly, Jian Bing, who was walking ahead, stopped, and shouted coldly.

Ling Guang, in the midst of talking, stopped abruptly. She just froze there.

Zhi Ming stepped forward to Jian Bing and asked in a low voice, "What's going on?"

Zhi Ming furrowed his brows, staring ahead, and answered coldly, "Something's approaching, a repulsive aura."

"It's dogs!"

Before the paranormal invasion, Jian Bing was the owner of a cat café, and she really loved cats, keeping many.

Even after the paranormal invasion, she still has the same hobby.

There are still many kittens at Jian Bing's residence now.

Jian Bing doesn't like animals; she just likes cats. As for dogs, she really hates them.

Just as Jian Bing finished speaking, a pack of dogs appeared in the front, over a dozen of them.

Golden Retrievers, Teddy bears, Huskies, Border Collies...

All quite rare breeds, they were once city pets.

After the paranormal invasion, humans struggled to survive, naturally these dogs were abandoned.

"Not Evil Spirits, just stray dogs."

"Drive them away!" Zhi Ming instructed his subordinates.

These dogs approached wagging their tails; as they say, you don't hit a smiling dog.

In these times, life is hard for both humans and dogs.

Zhi Ming was reluctant to kill these dogs without reason, so he ordered them to be dispersed.

Once Zhi Ming gave the order, several people from the group immediately came out to drive away these stray dogs.

"Wait!" Jian Bing stopped those who were about to approach the stray dogs, speaking in a serious tone, "Something's wrong. These dogs aren't afraid of me!"

Jian Bing likes cats, hates dogs.

Her dislike for dogs is blatant and unhidden.

You must know, she is one of the rare masters.

If she reveals just a tiny bit of presence, she can scare dogs to death.

Usually, stray dogs avoid her.

Now, not only are these stray dogs not avoiding her, they are actively approaching, which is clearly strange.

Upon seeing Jian Bing halt her subordinates' approach, the stray dogs revealed a savage look in their eyes.

In the next moment, these stray dogs leapt up and lunged at the Life Pattern Masters.

The stray dogs seemed to know their strength was insufficient to harm Zhi Ming, Jian Bing, and Ling Guang.

So, they intentionally avoided the trio, choosing the weaker Life Pattern Masters as targets.

This woman, Jian Bing, is something else!

Her observations are sharp, she had long noticed these stray dogs were strange.

Hence, when the stray dogs leapt, Jian Bing was the first to act.

Countless weapons appeared out of thin air around them: long blades, swords, spears, hammers...

In the next moment, these weapons pierced through the stray dogs' bodies.

These stray dogs were similar to the big Golden Retriever Lin Yuan encountered.

Their strength was weak, easily disposed of.

Lin Yuan faced a big Golden Retriever; Jian Bing met a pack of stray dogs.

Undoubtedly, within this Deceitful Demon, there's an Evil Spirit manipulating the city's stray dogs.

Though these stray dogs aren't strong, they play the role of scouts.

After all, no one would suspect seemingly ordinary stray dogs.
