

Apocalypse 2541

Chapter 2541 Violating Common Sense! I

If they were to participate in this war, they would be branded his mortal enemies as he would not rest until the Genesis Institute of Extremity, Singularity Overseers, and the Avernus Clan were wiped out from existence!

This being actually dared to say such words boldly under the eyes of many prominent inheritances here.

His cerulean robe glimmered with majesty as he continued.

"This is an Apex War of Annihilation. Any Lineage and factions on this Battlefield...I hold the right of Annihilation!"

WAA!

"Any Hyperversal Extremities from the Genesis Institute of Extremity, Singularity Overseers, and Avernus Clan...my words are for you to make a decision now. You have lived long enough to come across Entities and phenomena that even you do not understand. I assure you that this junction is one of them. When the War starts...everything thereafter is irreversible. You have until it starts to decide."

...!

As soon as he finished, the blinding spatial light that had begun to bloom and covered the region behind him became clear as astonishing auras unveiled themselves.

One...two...ten...twenty!

One blazing aura of Apex Aeonic Lifeform after another blared forth as they weren't weak ones!

At the very forefront, a young man adorned in a milky white Armament could be seen, his Breastplate swinging radiantly with a blue infinity symbol as in his hands, a burning Quintessential Helm of Atonement was held.

His hair shone with blue, black, and gold radiance as his eyes carried a deep emerald hue of an Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity.

The pure power he released was suffocating as it far exceeded any common Apex Aeonic Lifeforms, those watching from afar and about to erupt up in clamor and shock at Noah's dazzling words finding their mouths tied and unable to speak as their eyes constricted in different levels of surprise and shock!

From the appearance of Henry Osmont alone, his blaring pressure alone seemed to be at upper levels of power that would only be present on Grand Primeval Elders of Inheritances who led squadrons of Apex Aeonic Lifeforms!

But this wasn't the main point of surprise about this being.

It was the fact that the Armament his body glimmered with...exceeded any Apex Aeonic Relics as many eyes blinked wondering whether these beings were fitted with Quasi-Extremity Relics, the only thing they didn't feel from these terrifying Armaments being traces of Hyperversal Extremity Authority marking them as such!

What was astonishing was that the dozens of Apex Aeonic Lifeforms to appear behind the appearance of Henry...all wore similar Armaments blaring with a shining aura of brilliance.

Above their heads, the Quintessential Banner of Loot could be seen as a single illusory gold character signifying [LOOT] blazed with ecstatic power and brilliance!

It was the Quintessential Loot Seeker's Regalia Set that all of them were adorned in, the gazing upon gazes counting 200 of these oppressively powerful Apex Aeonic Lifeforms as each of them held a Quintessential Greataxe of the Loot Harvester in their hands!

"...."

It was a breathless scene.

It was a beautiful scene that felt as if time had stopped.

Besides Henry, the appearance of the Emperor Penguin could be seen covered entirely by the Quintessential Loot Seeker's Regalia Set as near them, Barbatos was present.

Above Henry's head, a bouncing Blue Slime could be seen as its eyes shimmered with a sly smile that seemed to gaze at everything around it with scrutiny.

Eowyn, Ophelia, the humanoid form of the Kraken, Kazuhiko, the Oathkeeper, the Sword Emperor...a myriad of beings who had been with Noah this whole time got the grand opportunity to be here as their appearance made the grand Apex Aeonic Lifeforms leading Legions opposite to them...feel just a little lacking in brilliance.

But this wasn't all.

Just when the spatial light died down, another one even more dazzling appeared as near the radiant Legion of 200 Apex Aeonic Lifeforms, the appearance of a golden-haired Caterina Aurelia Dismukes appeared.

"Huu..."

She sighed out calmly as she gazed around coolly, her surroundings also flashing with light as the appearance of the True Emperor of Genesis appeared beside her.

They were followed by the appearance of Lucia, the Mad Apex Emperor Caesar, and the other Lernaean Apex Aeonic Lifeforms that had bent the knee to have their Realms Reconstructed!

When they appeared...they were also decorated in the Quintessential Loot Seeker's Regalia Sets as the auras of Aurelia and Orion felt even more obscene than the Legion of 200 that had appeared first!

It was to the extent that...

"Aurelia? Orion?"

Roan's voice came out in utter shock as he actually felt his soul be pummeled by a profound sense of oppression when he looked at Orion and Aurelia.

As if their power was so much higher that they could extinguish him with a single tap of their finger!

Not too far from Roan, Grand Primeval Elder Silas gazed on in shock as he found these beings he had met before...he questioned whether he could withstand a few of their strikes and come out unscathed!

It had only been a few days.

What the hell happened?!

Who were all of these Apex Aeonic Lifeforms, and where did they come from?

Most of all, why were they all under the banner of a single being who hadn't even undergone Apexification?!

The advancing Commander Vladic who had risen from the center of the Legions came to a stop before he reached the transparent barrier as his eyes opened wide with incredulity.

The number of Apex Aeonic Lifeforms on the other side...held no Legions of Reverend Emperors or those in the Boundary Expansion Realm who only held Boundaries up to the 9th Layer.

But the Apex Aeonic Lifeforms alone...were nearly 10 times the number that were contained in the whole Noblesse Lineage!

This was a maddening thought and reality to see as suddenly, him going forward as the Commander to fearlessly stand opposite to Noah near the transparent barrier did not seem so enticing!

The silence in the surroundings was deafening as after Noah's words and the arrival of just some of his forces...those observing were utterly gobsmacked.

And at this moment, the roiling skies filled with Ruin and Nullity began to seethe and buzz.

Chapter 2542 Violating Common Sense! II

[This was your trump card?]

In the isolated space that seemed to be far above the skies of Dissolution, the veiled figure of the Adjudicator of Dissolution rang out towards Noah's Clone.

[It is astonishing even by my standards, with a preliminary gaze at these Apex Aeonic Lifeforms letting me know they hold astounding potential. But still...why mark two Inheritances and one of the Seven Clans your enemies?]

...!

A sense of surprise was evident even in the voice of the Adjudicator as Noah's figure gazed down at the scenes below them while he replied.

"You told me before that if anyone seeks trouble with me or my livelihood after I am known, I have the right to retaliate and that you wouldn't interfere."

His words were calm as they caused Svetlana's gaze to more tightly wrap around him.

"I'm also a reasonable being and I took into account the larger situation of these unknown Hyperversal Malignancies around us as before they make themselves my mortal enemies...I am giving these two Inheritances and the Avernus Clan a chance. This is me showing appreciation to you for your actions so far, and also an opportunity for established Inheritances and one of the Seven Clans to not face utter destruction and humiliation in my hands."

WAA!

Noah's words were filled with utmost confidence.

As if what he was saying was that of utmost surety!

Hearing such words...Svetlana actually did not reply as she gazed back below!

She seemed to be pondering.

Her profoundly perceptive eyes seemed to be questioning as her gaze landed on the visage of Aurelia among the many Apex Aeonian Lifeforms Noah had called out.

And...

Her veiled robes fluttered as she voiced out in surprise.

[What...?!]

She seemed to have sensed something rather alarming with her piercing eyes that others had yet to observe, this being just one of the surprises of what was to come!

The skies above the Apex Battlefield seethed.

The battalion of over 200 supremely high quality Apex Aeonid Lifeforms made many beings pause as after a deafening silence, immense clamor was about to erupt!

But this clamor never came.

Because the seething skies pulsed with the aura of Hyperversal Extremity Authority- and multiple ones at that!

—

In a hidden pocket of Vacuous Hyperversal Authority.

Dense nothingness and emptiness of time and reality itself permeated as the figure of the Hyperversal Extremity of Destruction could be seen within it, his gaze currently as if he had stepped on stellar shit as he gazed at the scenes of the Apex Battlefield.

Beside him, a woman with fiery purple hair and two burning purple horns could be seen as her aura was blazing with an even grander sharpness than his, her voice ringing out at this moment as she locked onto the visage of Noah and the forces he had called out with a wave of his hands!

[You and the Avernus Clan are one, but you promised us you would move with our disciples covertly and not put them in any major spotlight that would reflect on our Clan too much.]

Her words were filled with terrifying authority as she was definitely a Tier 3 Hyperversal Extremity, and a particularly powerful one at that!

[...]

At her words, The Hyperversal Extremity of Destruction remained silent as this being continued.

[Now, the name of the Avernus Clan is being besmirched before the eyes of numerous Inheritances and even the representatives of multiple Clans, with a being actually placing themselves on a high enough pedestal to say that he would eradicate the Avernus Clan itself lest we choose to be his enemies! At this juncture, how do you think we should move, Destruction?! Do you think we even have a choice other than to remind others of the power of the Avernus Clan?!]

She was freely enraged as the visage of Destruction had his eyes turn into blazing slits of flames as he glared at her dangerously.

And yet...

[Glare all you fucking want, but you brought this all here. This Ahpuch you're raising better be worth it, because now...we have to truly have the Avernus Clan participate in this Apex War.]

...!

[What? But the Avernus Extremity Senate would never authorize...]

[I already sought permission, unlike you who acts wantonly.] The Hyperversal Extremity burning with purple flames spoke out curtly as she snapped her fingers.

[If any of this goes wrong any further...both your seat and mine in the Avernus Extremity Senate may be jeopardized. So you better tell me anything else I am missing about this Osmont.]

The Power of Hyperversal Extremity Authority erupted as while she carried a conversation with destruction...

The seething skies filled with Ruin and Nullity above the Apex Battlefield carried her voice as it thundered down with impunity.

[I have lived long, but not long enough to witness the name of the Avernus Clan be disrespected like this. For your indiscretion...we shall very well take your so-called stand of being mortal enemies! No matter what Absolute Seed of Extremity a junior sprouts, the whole Havens need to be reminded that this alone isn't enough to besmirch the magnificence of the Seven Clans!]

WAA!

As her voice thundered out, the gazes of numerous changed and looked above.

There, the skies split as from them, dazzling purple Hyperversal Extremity Authority proliferated as grand auras of Apex Aeonic Lifeforms began to appear, and as if to mock and tell the True Emperor of Quintessence of how far out of depth he was... exactly 200 Apex Aeonic Lifeforms were appearing.

And they weren't weak.

Each one held wild contained power and might as they each held a power equivalent to a Grand Elder of an Inheritance or Clan!

The sight astonished many as they didn't know, but this was a fourth of the most potent battalion of Avernus Apex Aeonic Lifeforms who were meant to participate in the Culmination Step of Extremity Sanctification that were redirected here with the power of this Hyperversal Extremity!

The scene was an utterly shocking one as instead of pulling out, the Avernus Clans representative made a grand move that caused the current situation to become even more chaotic!

Many entities watched this scene and this stunning reaction to the words of the True Emperor of Quintessence.

But he didn't just name the Avernus Clan.

In the Apex Battlefield, there were also forces of the Genesis Institute of Extremity as at this moment, the Hyperversal Extremities who had arrived in Dissolution to bring the battalions of their Apex Aeonic Lifeforms for the Culmination Step also heard his words!

In an isolated domain that no Apex Aeonic Lifeform would ever be able to locate in the faraway skies above the Noblesse Domains.

A marbled golden floor could be seen as feathery thrones rose from them, golden pillars and archways having been fabricated to stand straight on this marbled floor as at this moment, a Hyperversal Extremity rose with pulsing power in his eyes, his voice directed toward a white-haired Extremity still sitting down beside him.

[Extremity Marcellus, we talked about recruiting this being even if forcefully, but his words now are spitting in the very magnificence of the Genesis Institute of Extremity! For this-...!]

Before the Hyperversal Extremity could finish, the aged old man known as Extremity Marcellus raised his hand and all words stopped.

Multiple gazes landed on him as his stellar eyes took them all in calmly, his stare on the illusory screen showing the figure of none other than Noah.

Nobody could know what he was currently thinking, but his next words were explosive!

[What irreconcilable enmity do we actually have with this being before us?]

Chapter 2543 Violating Common Sense! III

Extremity Marcellus.

He held many disciples in the Genesis Institute of Extremity as Titus was among them.

When he had perished, he noticed and talked to a being that was devouring Titus' memories, even understanding that the whole squadron Titus led was about to die!

The being he had talked to then and the one he was looking at now...were one and the same.

He remembered that he had told this being the last time they met that if their paths crossed in the future, he may even discuss destiny with him.

And now, this being gave a warning to make the whole Genesis Institute of Extremity his enemies should they participate in this Apex War.

So he spoke towards the three other bodies of Hyperversal Extremities that came with him to the Aeonic Haven of Dissolution.

[What irreconcilable enmity do we actually have with this being before us?]

What great enmity did they have?

[He massacred some of the squadrons of Scions we sent during the Initiation Step-]

[He also killed Scions of many other Inheritances, but I do not see them here in this Apex War. I'm asking what this being did against our Inheritance that we have a smidgen of our forces, however small it is, supporting a War where from his perspective, he is fighting for his very livelihood and the lives of his whole Lineage.]

[...]

The other Hyperversal Extremities didn't reply as they could see where Extremity Marcellus was going with this.

On the third feathery throne, a woman squinted her brows as she spoke cautiously.

[Extremity Marcellus, you couldn't possibly be thinking...]

[Why not? What do we lose from it? Do you think our Inheritance would look weak from such an action?]

WAA!

His white hair danced with authority.

The other Hyperversal Extremities were quiet for a while as the female one sighed again.

[You've lived longer than all of us and are known as the Wise Extremity of Genesis. If you believe this is the best course of action, I have no qualms with it. But this Osmont's mouth...]

[Live and let live...] Extremity Marcellus waved his hands as he came to a shocking conclusion.

[For this Apex War of Annihilation, the forces of the Genesis Institute of Extremity will not be involved.]

...!

—

The seething skies palpated with the aura of Hyperversal Extremity Authority even now as a moment after the voice of the Hyperversal Extremity of the Avernus Clan ended, another one came down with an equally shocking message.

A message that was simple in nature, resonantly sinking into the ears of all here.

[The forces of the Genesis Institute of Extremity will not be involved in this conflict.]

...!

Words that caused the minds of many to buzz.

The mind of Vladic and the other Noblesse Commanders buzzed even more so than others as this faction...was their own backing!

They were about to lose the very backing they had allied with before the Apex War could even begin?

The Genesis Elders were just as shocked as them as the figures of Grand Genesis Elder Meiyang and others began to disappear with a glimmer of light from the battlefield as if they were never there.

"This...!"

Commander Vladic who had just experienced euphoria when 200 terrifying Apex Aeonid Lifeforms began descending from the crack in the skies felt his smile fading as his eyes burned with shock and rage, but he gritted his teeth when he looked at the terrifying figures from the Avernus Clan while steeling his resolve.

Thereafter, his gaze went towards the beings stemming from the Singularity Overseers.

What would they do?

Before the choice came down, the figure of Noah floating before the transparent wall gazed above at the distinct Hyperversal Extremity Authority from the Genesis Institute of Extremity that had yet to fade, his hand waving upwards and sending out a portion of his volition in a vibrant ball of light.

A light merged into space and disappeared along with the Hyperversal Will that had spoken on behalf of the Genesis Institute of Extremity!

Noah's eyes were vibrant as this single action was him being intrigued by whoever was bold enough to actually reverse the course of the Genesis Institute of Extremity, and he established a line of communication with this single move as thereafter, he continued gazing above while voicing out.

"What shall be the path that the Singularity Overseers take?"

WAA!

He ushered forth a reply from the last remaining faction supporting the Noblesse as in the crimson silver skies, there was only silence so far.

—

[Devouring, you made a move on your own when this was a small scuffle, what shall you do now?]

In an isolated domain close to the lands of the Planeswalkers, a voice entered the mind of the Hyperversal Extremity of Devouring as he healed the visage of Extremity Kabul who was in a sorry state!

His eyes flashed with a vicious brilliance as he gazed before him where illusory screens showed the Apex Battlefield, his voice decisive as it thundered out.

[I shall redirect a portion of the Singularity Elders here for the Culmination Step for this War. I do not fear a creature who has merely forged an Absolute Seed of Extremity, nor will the Singularity Overseers fear such a being. This is still a minor and insignificant skirmish as we shall treat it as such...and cause as much chaos to tarnish the reputation of Svetlana!]

His eyes throbbed with both viciousness and age.

Truly, in the viewpoint of beings who had lived billions of years and held the profound power of Extremity...would they fear the words of a single existence in the face of the power they wielded, the power their Inheritance wielded, and the very Aeonic Havens themselves that they had founded themselves in?

[...]

The Hyperversal Will that had reached out to Devouring was silent with recognition as it instantly acted.

And above the recently calm skies of the Apex Battlefield...

BZZZT!

Space was torn apart once more as if it were paper, and the answer of the Singularity Overseers came with actions instead of words.

Blazing auras of exactly 300 Apex Aeonic Lifeforms descended with stern expressions, all of them riding on variations of massive stellar beasts whose bodies seemed to be formed of constructs of Cosmos, Realities, or even pulsing Singularities!

ROOAAR!

The Tamed Apex Astral Leviathans roared out with majesty as the 300 Lifeforms riding them...at least half held pulsing majesty akin to a Grand Elder of an Inheritance!

Chapter 2544 Violating Common Sense! IV

The Apex Battlefield became rowdy.

200 pristinely powerful Apex Aeonic Lifeforms from the Avernus Clan and 300 from the Singularity Overseers were added as the force supporting the Noblesse became utterly massive!

Commander Vladic's dark expression became many times lighter when he saw this ever changing scene as his fists tightened.

So what if they lost the support of the Genesis Institute of Extremity?

Their number of Apex Aeonic Lifeforms on their side alone had increased by more than 5 times since just minutes ago!

Meanwhile, the opposing side, however surprising it was, held a bit over 200 exceptional Apex Aeonic Lifeforms.

Would they be able to stand against the enraged forces of the Avernus Clan and the Singularity Overseers?

This was a question that some believed they had the answers to as at this moment, the silent clamor in the surroundings rose as those watching realized just how much bigger this War had become.

But while their discussions began amongst themselves, the visage of the True Emperor of Quintessence remained unfettered while staring at the myriad of beings before him.

His voice was even calmer than before, a smile forming on it as very few would be able to understand why he was smiling!

"At times, the smallest of decisions can forever change the course of one's destiny."

WAA!

"Today, the destiny of the Avernus Clan and the Singularity Overseers has diverged into another path entirely."

As he spoke, he waved his hands again.

A simple motion.

But all beings who were watching aptly remembered this motion.

When he did it before, 200 utterly powerful Apex Aeonic Lifeforms adorned in Relics far exceeding Apex Aeonic Relics had appeared.

What exactly was he calling forth now?

Time felt like it was crawling by extremely slowly.

Besides the True Emperor of Quintessence, space fluctuated as an instant later, an aura of utmost brilliance bloomed as an Entity appeared.

His mere presence caused the surrounding space to buzz and grind on itself heavily as on his very skin, a pristine authority of an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity could be felt!

His hair shone black, gold, and green. His pupils shone with an obsidian verdant sheen that seemed to be filled with both life and death as any weak Apex Aeonic Lifeform gazing into them may have their Soul shattered!

His body was adorned not in the Loot Seeker's Regalia Set...but with wondrous armaments that shone with a stellar obsidian and green crystalline light as they seemed to be forged from bones.

In his right hand, a verdant staff was grasped as at its tip, a skull with its sockets inscribed with a deathly green infinity symbol could be seen.

Armaments that were forged just for him.

Relics that came together to forge a Set known as the Raiments of the Quintessential Lich Emperor!

A bony helm of this set stably adorned the visage of none other than Alexander like a crown as it blazed with horrifying green flames.

All of this was stunning, but nothing was more so stunning than his aura and the fact that from him, an aura of a fully converged Absolute Dynamis of Extremity could be felt.

Not an Absolute Seed that had yet to bud, but a genuine Absolute Dynamis of Extremity!

At his appearance, the far-away Ahpuch that the forces of the Avernus Clan had gathered near rose as his body throbbed with grandeur.

His heart beat loudly like a drum as if it was telling him...his destiny had arrived.

Before any surprise and alarm could be expressed, the motioning hand of the True Emperor of Quintessence was not done as behind his stellar force of 200, dazzling lights of titanic stature began to bloom.

The figures of Regal Beasts began to unfold by the dozens as even with their massive size, there were dozens of them who were led by none other than a titanic Draconic Elephantine Ender of Extremity!

All around him, the images of Beasts that seemed like massive celestial creatures only born in ancient times proliferated as their forms varied a great deal, taking on statures of Qilins, Phoenixes, Serpents, Crows, Dragons, or a myriad of combinations of such creatures with even more Beasts!

They didn't bellow out or roar to show their power as their eyes held interminable brilliance, gazing around at everything coldly and with precision as even average Apex Aeonic Lifeforms watching in the distance felt their blood run cold.

Their numbers and sizes filled the scanty battlefield as a count had 300 Enders of Extremity pulsing with Extremity Foundations and a dazzling aura of the Apex Aeonic Lifeform stage.

"..."

Wondrous dread and power unveiled itself as the myriad of watching gazes each held their own thoughts, each one observing a different part of the unveiled forces.

Roan could not believe the scene before him.

The figures of Oriona and Aurelia felt utterly unreachable as even though it was hard to believe, he could somewhat go through the phases and bring himself to accept it.

But when he looked at the other Apex Aeonic Lifeforms he knew very well to be weaker than him just days ago, and their auras were many times more powerful than him right now...he couldn't accept it!

This was...until his eyes fully focused from his shock as he blinked when his gaze came to land on a figure he recognized very well.

A being with broken meridians.

A being that had failed Apexification.

Maximilian...was he...was he seeing things or was this past Lineage Emperor an Apex Aeonic Lifeform with an aura just as maddening as all the others?!

"..."

Roan's will couldn't formulate any thought as at this moment, his soul felt like it had ground to a halt from utter incredulity!

He and many others found themselves unable to even discuss as they truly never expected the True Emperor of Quintessence to call forth a force that would make an Inheritance jealous!

And before any of the disbelief could be expressed...

BZZZT!

The skies seethed once more with Hyperversal Extremity Authority.

An authority more insane than any that had come before it.

It was the authority of the Adjudicator of Dissolution as above the Apex Battlefield, space cracked open while a hidden visage stepped out!

Chapter 2545 A Cleaving Blade of Destiny! I

The time neared!

This was the only reason why the figure of an astonishing existence now seeped out from the cracks of space and stared at the glorious Apex Battlefield below.

Both sides were filled to the brim with Apex Aeonic Lifeforms, each one more astonishing than the last as it showed an utterly deadly battle was about to unfold.

The form of Svetlana stepping out of the cracks of space was veiled with dense Hyperversal Extremity Authority that her figure could barely be recognized of its curves and blessings, some existences being too frail to stare at her for too long as they gazed away!

She appeared with a veil over her head as those who could barely withstand the power of Extremity surrounding her may have been able to tell that her eyes...held traces of sadness!

The attention of the myriad of watchers became divided from peering at the Apex Aeon Lifeforms the True Emperor of Quintessence had called out and the visage of the Adjudicator of Dissolution as her will began to emanate out across this region.

[Our Seven Havens are staying in a precarious balance with our strongest forces holding truly terrifying enemies at bay. Every single force we add over the years contributes to this balance as every life is of utmost importance.]

...!

Her words were filled with both regality and a sense of disapproval as she gazed towards Noah's visage, towards Vladic, and towards the vast number of Apex Aeon Lifeforms on the tense Battlefield below as she continued!

[What I hate the most is precious lives and forces of the Havens of Extremity being reaped for no reason, and even worse if they are reaped for sport. Today, every side here has chosen to ignore the larger picture and involve the lives of powerful future defenders of these Havens in a senseless war or Annihilation. It gives me no joy to govern over such an event...and yet here we are.]

"..."

Power and sadness went hand in hand in her words.

It caused the burning sensation of war and conflict to feel stifled just a little.

It caused the surroundings to feel empty.

It felt desolate.

It felt sad.

And her words weren't done as she continued.

[Here we are in a field of battle where even Hyperversal Extremities who know full well of the situation we are in contributed to. And the rest would go so far as to recline on their comfy thrones getting ready to watch this senseless war for amusement. Such a scene...paints a grim future for the Seven Aeonic Havens of Extremity!]

She admonished the war about to occur, those involved, those who contributed to it, and those watching!

And even further...

[What I am most disappointed in is myself for allowing this future to develop the way it has as after this war...even the smallest violation of the Investiture of Extremity will be personally handled by me with scrutiny! So enjoy this War you will watch with amusement and strive for your future when the

Culmination Step of Extremity Sanctification fully unfolds, because from now on, my stare will pervasively glance at every single thing!]

...!

With the end of her words, her fair hidden hand rose and snapped.

And an instant after...

BZZZT!

The transparent barrier separating the two sides began to glare with dazzling light as it actually...began to dissolve.

The appointed time had come.

And yet it was so sudden that many were left flabbergasted as the barrier very quickly began to dissolve, the Legions on the side of the Noblesse beginning to buzz with power.

[At this point, the inclusion of any foreign influences in this War has been closed off.]

The voice of the Adjudicator of Dissolution thundered out amidst the shocking progression.

[The war being fought is against the Lernean Lineage and the Noblesse Lineage. The victor holds the right of Annihilation over the defeated and their supporters!]

BOOOM!

Her last sentence caused many wills to rouse as it felt like it was directed towards certain inheritances and a Clan!

And yet once more, those watching couldn't properly react quickly enough.

Because in the next instant...

"My people!"

The voice of the True Emperor of Quintessence thundered out.

His body shone with pristine brilliance as at this moment, a dazzling multicolored throne rose below him that he grandly sat down on.

As if indicating that he...would not even need to lift a finger himself for the fight to come.

The moment he sat on the grand throne, a symphony began to play.

THUMP!

Booming drums and sonorous strokes of sounds emanated out as they seemed to usher forth the call for war, his voice continuing to ring around.

"Today, we fight to defend ourselves from the threat of annihilation from a faction that doesn't truly understand us. Today...we fight to establish the grandeur and identity of our Infinite Hyperversal Haven!"

BOOM!

He sat on the throne grandly as tendrils of Absolute Dynamis of Extremity rose on his skin and caused him to give off terrifying majesty.

His eyes seemed like spinning singularities of infinity as those watching and listening to him realized they were holding in their cycling of essence across their Aspects of Existence!

"We shall establish the grandeur of our Infinite Hyperversal Haven to the extent that no Inheritance nor Haven would dare to turn their swords against us, and those who do...their fate shall be nothing other than destruction."

...!

Infinite Hyperversal Haven.

A concept that others hadn't heard before.

But the way that the True Emperor of Quintessence was speaking about it...it was akin to him giving a proclamation of a faction along the same lines of an Inheritance or Clan!

It was a shocking assertion.

It was an impossible goal.

And yet the True Emperor of Quintessence sitting upon his throne paid no heed as he spoke out coldly while watching the fading barrier, the momentum of the conflict entirely on their side as Vladic nor any other commander opposing them was able to say any word.

"Throw out the first strike that shall carve out the majesty of our Infinite Hyperversal Haven, my Son."

Chapter 2546 A Cleaving Blade of Destiny! II

His word beckoned forth an existence to make a move.

His son.

Those who heard this scanned their wills to see who would move as from the masses, the radiant golden visage of none other than Henry Osmont stepped forward.

He was adorned in the Quintessential Loot Seeker's Regalia Set as above him lay an innocently bouncing blue slime.

His power was among the highest of the Apex Aeonic Lifeforms as he grasped the massive golden Greataxe in his hands and stepped forward!

His son...was an Apex Aeonic Lifeform whose power could rival Grand Elders of Inheritances?

This was the only thought that passed through their heads before a moment later, the visage of Henry Osmont appeared at the forefront of the forces of the Infinite Hyperversal Planes, the moment that the barrier completely disappeared...his hand swung down and carried forth imposing momentum.

It felt heavy.

It felt full of responsibility and a weight that very few beings could bear!

And yet he carried this weight as he called out with his swing.

"Destiny Cleaving."

A greataxe thundered down.

With it came the cleaving of all destiny as wondrously...the might of an Absolute Seed of Extremity came with it!

...!

What!

This single word blazed in the minds of all.

That couldn't be the grandeur of another Absolute Dynamis of Extremity, right?

How many beings on the side of the True Emperor of Quintessence would that make who held such a pristine authority?!

Just...what was this?!

SHIIING!

A golden radiance of destiny overflowed.

And in the skies above, a massive halcyon Axe of destiny eclipsing the whole battlefield formed and thundered down towards the masses!

The very will of the being ushering forth this massive cleaving of destiny seemed to somberly permeate throughout, his eyes clear and filled with clarity as before him, a panel of fantastical details was reflected.

[Name]:: Henry Osmont's Absolute Vitalistic Clone of Extremity

[Realm]:: Third Haven of Destiny

[Lineage]:: Quintessential Hyperversal Emperor(Destined Hyperversal Emperor)

[Titles]:: True Emperor of Destiny, Son of Destiny, Little Henry, One Who Looks to Scale an Impossible Wall...

[Destiny Hyperversal Mana Value]:: 1,299

[Destiny Hyperversal Vitality Value]:: 1,299

[Destiny Hyperversal Soul Value]:: 1,999

[Destiny Hyperversal Defense Value]:: 1,299

[Destiny Hyperversal Damage Value]:: 1,999

[Hyperversal Destiny]:: .3

[Hyperversal Mastery]:: .3

[Absolute Hyperversal Authority Resistance]:: 1%

[Dynamis of Extremity]:: Destined (Absolute), Arcadian(Aeonic)

[Boundaries of Extremity]:: Destiny, Fate, Karma, Fortune, Moirai, Kismet, Quintessence, Wisdom, Blood, Manadynamics...

He had absorbed the Crimson Extremity Panacea to obtain an even more pristine Extremity Foundation- the Unrecorded Aeonic Destined Hyperversal Extremity Foundation!

With such an outrageous foundation as the foothold, the concepts of Destiny, Fortune, Karma, Moirai, Kismet, Wisdom, Pathfinder, Nexus Emperor, and Quintessence that he had already dabbled in and understood to an extent...

were capable of being taken and forming an Absolute Seed of Extremity.

He didn't impose any grand names as he simply called it what he wished for it to be.

Destined.

And so, he used one of the features of the Destined Absolute Dynamis of Extremity.

Destiny Cleaving.

An ability that could be used in a myriad of ways- whether through the Aeonic Annals of Extremity or directly as he used it now as in this instance, he utilized it in an extremely offensive fashion.

It was the action of severing the destinies of his targets as the Authority of his Dynamis went so far as to sever their potential, their Foundations, and the very Aspects of Existence that contributed to their destiny if they couldn't stop this authority!

He applied it as an area of effect attack.

He had it descend on the Legions before him!

...!

HO!

The bodies of the Apex Aeonic Lifeforms from the Avernus Clan and Singularity Overseers pulsed with grandeur as the lights of numerous of Dynamis of Extremity rose from every single being.

The figures of the Noblesse Apex Aeonic Lifeforms moved and came close together as their bodies shone with brilliance- dense waves of the VOID erupting out as they overlapped on each other and tried their best to extend to the Legions of Reverend Emperors that were brought into this battle!

Their hearts felt tight at the grandeur of fall of an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity!

Henry saw the vast sights occurring before him as he closed his eyes.

And the massive golden Greataxe in the skies thundered down and dispersed its authority upon the masses!

It cleaved Destiny!

The Lifeforms from the Singularity Overseers and Avernus Clan would feel the weight of the Absolute Dynamis of Extremity, but they wouldn't perish from it.

But the Noblesse...

"Ah...!"

The cries of two Noblesse Apex Aeonic Lifeforms rang out as they were on the fringes of the Layers protection they all cast with Commander Vladic at the center.

With his eyes closed, Henry felt his authority surge into their bodies as they cut up everything that contributed to their grand destiny.

Their Foundations.

Their Aspects of Existence.

They were all cleaved as like broken kites, they fell from the skies silently!

Their cleaved fate surged out and grandly rushed towards Henry, but this wasn't all.

If among the Apex Aeonic Noblesse, two could not be protected...what of the crowds of Reverend Emperors that the Noblesse called out to form Legions?

The answer was presented in an ecstatic scene.

The myriad of Legions stretched across the aids of the Noblesse were covered by the brief flash of golden light, and then...every single one slumped to the ground.

"..."

Destiny pervaded and proliferated all around as Henry felt the souls of all he had cleaved apart the destinies of, what was their streaming out and rushing towards him to become his as he sighed!

They all had their own dreams and fates. They all had their own destinies and hopes to live for millions of years.

And he had reaped away all of this from thousands as this...this was a War!

Along with their Destinies, the effects of the Quintessential Loot Seeker's Regalia Set activated as numerous of deaths among the thousands that died had triggered the [Explosion of Loot] that granted 1,000% more Loot, hundreds of prompts cascading past his closed eyes!

Chapter 2547 The Dead Are Not Done With You! I

When he opened his eyes again, the Apex Battlefield had greatly changed.

Only Apex Aeonic Lifeforms remained.

The gazes of the Apex Aeonic Lifeforms from the Avernus Clan and Singularity Overseers were bright as they withstood the weight of an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity together, their commanders already making plans!

Ahpuch's visage didn't even cast any defensive skill as he stood tall in the crimson silver skies with a smile.

As for Commander Vladic...the void faded to reveal his figure as his face was ashen when he looked around him!

Had he not utilized the combined strength of the Noblesse Apex Aeonic Lifeforms, he would have just become the first Commander in history to fall in the first strike.

But when he looked at the utterly devastating state of the Legions of his people lying lifeless...his heart burned with immense pain and hate!

His gaze was that of utter malice as he gazed at the single being who had made this move, seeing him hold his Greataxe on his chest as if to pay respects for all that he had instantly killed.

Above him, the Blue Slime pulsed with tendrils of light and jumped from his head as it was about to move.

The force of 200 Apex Aeonic Lifeforms behind him also buzzed with tendrils of light as it seemed they were about to move!

And at such a junction...

"Do not despair for the dead."

The voice of the terrifying Entity floating beside the multicolored throne of the True Emperor of Quintessence thundered out after a shocking first move.

Adorned in verdant obsidian bone Armaments, his movements caught the eyes of the most powerful Apex Aeonic Lifeforms standing opposite to them as he continued!

"As the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven, I shall etch many lessons of death onto your souls. I will first teach you not to despair for the dead because the dead...are not done with you yet."

HOONG!

As he spoke, the staff in his hands began to shine- Alexander King making his first move at this moment!

But the enemies opposing them were existences that had lived and fought for a great number of years.

The first move was given away...but that was it.

SHIING!

With shocking crimson brilliance, the faraway figure of Ahpuch that had been in the center of the Avernus Clan Elders instantly appeared past the area of the dissolved barrier while he shone with the grandeur of Destruction, his target being none other than Alexander!

The being who had proclaimed himself as the First Commander of Infinite Hyperversal Haven!

Towards the appearance of Ahpuch, Alexander didn't even bat an eye.

His serene gaze remained on the lifeless bodies strewn on the opposing Battlefield as he uttered out.

"Undead...Rise!"

...!

A grand symphony began to pick up pace and became more pronounced.

A symphony of death and destruction!

It was carried forth by the Thanatos Absolute Dynamis of Extremity as it washed out like a tide towards the dead in the distance!

As for Ahpuch's figure...

WAP!

The brilliant visage of Caterina Aurelia Dismukes appeared as her body radiated the grandeur of the Thesauros Absolute Dynamis of Extremity.

"Hey big guy, remember me?"

Her figure blazed with brilliance as it thundered forward, but she wasn't alone.

A milky white rose bloomed as from it, the countenance of Genesis thundered out- his sockets filled with an astounding concentration of light as they shot out stellar beams of utter wonder!

Thereafter, another figure rose up as his body shimmered of countless quasars.

His eyes held a hint of unresolved anger and majesty as the gravity around him became twisted, the Mad Apex Emperor Caesar also coming forward to make a move against the newly appearing Ahpuch!

And it still felt like it wasn't enough against this being as finally...

BOOM!

Space fissured and cracked as the massive form of a Draconic Elephantine Ender of Extremity appeared in the skies, its golden trunk seeming like a cylindrical haven of apocalypse as it roared down with at the very minimum 2,000 Natural Apex Damage Values!

Aurelia, Orion, Caesar, and Hyperion.

These four beings advanced with harmony to rebuff an immense aura of Destruction as the True Emperor of Quintessence had yet to lift a finger from his throne!

Ahpuch moved, but he didn't move alone.

There were hundreds of terrifying Grand Elder Level Apex Aeonic Lifeforms from the Avernus Clan and the Singularity Overseers as all of them also made a move.

The Apex Battlefield was akin to a brilliant stellar field of blooming light as hundreds of authorities of Dynamis of Extremity were called out, the eyes of the Elders from the Avernus Clan cold and decisive as they moved in groups of ten while calling out.

"Planar Domain of Destruction."

"Planar Domain of Cataclysm."

"Planar Domain..."

Planar Domains of Dynamis of Extremity began to unfold en masse as reality itself was being twisted, dozens of Elders appeared before the army of the True Emperor of Quintessence as they fought with power and synchrony!

The Apex Aeonic Lifeforms of the Singularity Overseers weren't far behind them as Zeitgeist clasped his hands, a heavy force of Devouring erupting out as around him, bestial Roars echoed out as the Tamed Apex Astral Leviathans bellowed out while moving like mountains.

It was a horrifying counterattack that pitted the very concepts of Extremity the two sides grasped, the impact no doubt being something that would produce casualties as all sides surged forward with power!

On the side of the True Emperor of Quintessence, the Son of Destiny rose his Greataxe again as along with him...

RAA!

A gallant existence with a golden beak turned into a stream of light that surged forward, its eruption only matched by a form shrouded in darkness drawing out his Katana and calling out coldly.

"Planar Severing."

Kazuhiko's voice carried weight and excitement as he moved, the skies above his head also changing colors at this moment and becoming painted with a cerulean hue as the countenance of a certain Blue

Slime expanded massively- a unique aura of Devouring far different from what the Elders of the Singularity Overseers released emanating from it as it was ready to absorb any authorities thrown its way!

The scene was completely chaotic with too many moving pieces.

But some pieces were more influential and crucial than others.

The words of the piece that was Alexander King...they should have been taken with utmost gravity and importance as all attacks of the Avernus Clan Elders and Singularity Overseers should have been focused on him!

But he was given free rein as due to this...

A verdant obsidian light began to shine.

An aura of death began to rise.

And the lifeless bodies in the distance...terrifying waves of deathly authority pulsed from them as their very Recorded Histories were being changed, monstrous anomalies knowing nothing but death about to unfold!

Chapter 2548 The Dead Are Not Done With You! II

One had to have a truly special pair of eyes to capture and understand the horror about to unfold.

Due to the Convergence of so many powerful factions in the Aeonic Haven of Dissolution, there were actually a great number of beings who could pierce through the veils of secrecy and easily gaze upon the Aeonic Annals of Extremity!

There were many...and then there was Ayame.

Ayame of Infinite Extremity!

She stood from her throne as she wasn't the only one, the figures of Erikson and Atlas being the same as their gazes were locked onto the confounding authority of life and death radiating from the existence beside Noah- the one who had termed himself the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven!

Ayame's gaze was locked onto this authority of an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity and how it had begun to suffuse and build up in the surroundings, but more so how it flowed into the lifeless bodies of the Legions the Son of the True Emperor of Quintessence had struck down with a single strike.

Her pupils constricted as her gaze saw an entirely different scene.

One must not forget that in the Initiation Step of Extremity Sanctification, only three beings had attained genuine Crimson Extremity Panaceas.

One of those beings was Ayame!

The other two beings attained shocking Hyperversal Extremity Foundations, so one could only assume how grand of a change she had undergone.

But among her many changes, her perceptiveness, freedom, and control of the Aeonic Annals of Extremity became utterly obscene.

Her eyes could see the locked and ended Records of the dead Reverend Emperors and the 2 Apex Aeonic Noblesse that had fallen.

Locked Records.

Records of beings whose lives had come to an end!

She saw the authority of the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven flow into these Locked Records as an instant after...it began re-writing them in a taboo fashion as it utterly altered these Records and Unlocked them once more!

"Do not despair for the dead..." She stared at this blankly as she found herself repeating the words he had said.

How could she not when she stared at the impossible task of the Records of thousands of existences being altered right before her eyes- something that would need pristine concentration and heavy Soul Values to alter in the Aeonic Annals of Extremity, and yet it occurred simultaneously for thousands as thereafter...

THUMP!

Their lifeless bodies began to pulse with deathly essence as their Altered Records burned even more fiercely than when they were alive.

And from them...she saw a process of ascension as their new archives were utterly horrific to gaze at.

Their bodies pulsed with verdant obsidian tendrils of light as their skin and musculature receded, a bony crystalline exterior being seen as each one of these rising Entities had their own peculiarities- but they were skeletal in nature!

And from their birth, Ayame was able to peer at the archives that they were giving off.

From the bodies of the Reverend Emperors, a single Record repeated itself.

[The Prince Tier Thanatos Vassal, Death Knight, has been born.]

[The Prince Tier Thanatos Vassal, Death Knight, has been born...]

Their Altered Records were similar even though their forms varied, their backbone remaining skeletal in nature as their sockets began to shine with grand verdant obsidian flames that caused the hue of the skies to match it.

Ayame stared at all of the different variations of the Prince Tier Thanatos Vassals with wonder until her eyes came to lock onto the already altering bodies of the 2 Apex Aeonic Noblesse.

These were even more obscene as the Noblesse humanoid forms expanded rapidly, dense verdant black smoke covering the region they were in as from them, massive figures rose!

One held a serrated bony skeletal body of a creature reminiscent to a dragon form, expansive bone wings spreading out left and right as its record unfolded before Ayame's eyes.

[The King Tier Thanatos Vassal, Void Dracolich, has been born.]

Void Dracolich!

From its crystalline obsidian green bones, liquified death dripped freely as its draconic jaws rose up to the crimson silver skies and opened to release a billowing mist of death that covered the whole region!

A mist of authority that Ayame knew had to be the Absolute Dynamis of Extremity that brought this creature to be.

Its power was unimaginably higher in this altered Record compared to the History of the Noblesse that had died, Ayame fully understanding the words that the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven had uttered as she heard Erikson speak the last words that reverberated out with a grim expression!

"The dead are not done with you..."

WAA!

An existence who could alter the archives of perished beings and utilize them appeared before their eyes as even though it wasn't something revolutionary or new, the way he did it was utterly obscene and full of impossibilities!

Ayame's piercing eyes were one of the few confirming this as she saw the record of the last Apex Noblesse that fell flash brightly.

[The King Tier Thanatos Vassal, Chaos Nightwalker, has been born.]

...!

A second King Tier Thanatos Vassal rose as this one held a titanic humanoid bony form, his visage releasing a deathly glacial chill around him as he looked like a mummified Emperor shining with white and green light.

The region around him very quickly had its reality frozen as glacial tendrils of light began to proliferate, its deathly cold sockets lighting up with verdant obsidian flames that Ayame was briefly lost in!

And at such a moment, the flames burned brightly as they turned towards her direction.

...!

It was a change that instantly caused her guard to rise as the verdant obsidian flames felt like they were staring straight at her, and it wasn't the Thanatos Vassal that was gazing at her...but their Master!

Their Master who radiated dense Absolute Dynamis of Extremity besides the True Emperor of Quintessence!

And through the Records of the Aeonic Annals of Extremity, Ayame heard a single word from the Will within the verdant obsidian flames as thereafter, her entry and stare were restricted from any more information.

'Nosy.'

...!

Chapter 2549 The Dead Are Not Done With You! III

Nosy!

Ayame fell back on her seat in surprise as she was flabbergasted when this single word thundered in her mind.

Who was she? What Inheritance did she belong to? What pristine Extremity Foundation did she now hold? What terrifying access did she have into the Aeonic Annals of Extremity?

For her to be seen by another soul while peering through the Records of the Aeonic Annals of Extremity, and then subsequently blocked by them...this should only be something a Hyperversal Extremity was capable of- or an existence with an extremely domineering Absolute Dynamis of Extremity that couldn't easily be grasped by an Apex Aeonic Lifeform!

And yet...

ROAAR!

Her thoughts were brought to a stop as the deathly energies in the Apex Battlefield reached the peak, the Void Dracolich roaring out and instantly rising in the air with a power that terrified normal Apex Aeonics Lifeforms, while the Chaos Nightwalker began to rise with chilling waves of essence with a slightly more terrifying aura!

They were followed by droves of Prince Tier Thanatos Vassals that took on the forms of a myriad of Undead- all of them moving in sequence and like a billowing wave of death as they swarmed the forces of Singularity Overseers and Avernus Clan from behind!

—

[Name]:: Thanatos Vassal Death Knight (Prince Tier)

[Realm]:: Second Haven of Thanatos

[Lineage]:: Quintessential Undead Thanatos Vassal

[Titles]:: Slave of Thanatos, Death Seeker...

[Apex Thanatos Mana Value]:: 100

[Apex Thanatos Vitality Value]:: 100

[Apex Thanatos Soul Value]:: 100

[Apex Thanatos Defense Value]:: 100

[Apex Thanatos Damage Value]:: 100

[Dynamis of Extremity]:: Thanatos(Absolute)- Limited Access

[Boundaries of Extremity]:: Death, Necromancy, Quintessence...

The stats of the thousands of what used to be Reverend Emperors showed themselves before Noah as they showed a terrifying potential and possibility.

When the Thanatos Absolute Dynamis of Extremity was converged past 50%, the stats of rising Quintessential Undead Thanatos Vassals was at a minimum of 10 Apex Thanatos Soul Values!

Now that Noah had taken Thanatos to full converge and held yet another dazzling Perennial Yggdrasil of Extremity in his soul, this power was shown to be even more obscene!

And this...was the transformation of existences that weren't Apex Aeonic Lifeforms.

The Altered Records of the Apex Aeonic Lifeforms produced an even more terrifying result!

[Name]:: Thanatos Vassal Void Dracolich (King Tier)

[Realm]:: Third Haven of Thanatos

[Lineage]:: Quintessential Undead Thanatos Vassal

[Titles]:: Draco, Slave of Thanatos, Death Seeker...

[Apex Thanatos Mana Value]:: 999

[Apex Thanatos Vitality Value]:: 999

[Apex Thanatos Soul Value]:: 999

[Apex Thanatos Defense Value]:: 999

[Apex Thanatos Damage Value]:: 999

[Dynamis of Extremity]:: Thanatos(Absolute)- Limited Access

[Boundaries of Extremity]:: Death, Necromancy, Quintessence...

"..."

A violation of common sense and nature.

The stats of the dead Apex Noblesse were utterly transformed and made into a terrifying Entity that nearly gave off the intense aura of a Grand Elder of an Inheritance.

With their limited access to the Thanatos Absolute Dynamis of Extremity, they very well represented this terror and power as they instantly moved and brought down tendrils of death from behind enemy lines!

...!

It caused chaos to instantly spread, Noah- nay, Alexander King wasn't done.

Quintessential Undead Rise was the first taste.

What was truly terrifying had yet to come as at this moment, he saw the billowing waves of strength that the existence who was stopped by Aurelia, Orion, Caesar, and Hyperion expressed as his terrifying waves of Destruction were pushing all 4 back!

For such a being, Alexander's staff shone as he called out calmly.

"Quintessential Thanatos Embodiment."

...!

BZZZT!

The crimson silver skies darkened.

Verdant black clouds and tendrils of grandeur began to seethe and gather as above Alexander's terrifying visage, a stellar doorway made of bones instantly bloomed and radiated terror!

And the instant it formed, a skeletal hand pulsing with terrifying power erupted out and formed into a fist- a force bursting out to instantly shatter the door of bones as deathly mist covered everything!

And from this deathly mist...

[Ka Ka Ka!]

A deathly cackling could be heard.

It was a cackling of a lich that reveled in death and destruction.

The deathly mist dispersed to reveal a figure shrouded in a billowing black robe that covered a crystalline skeletal humanoid form with withered flesh tightly wound on stellar bones.

On the back of this skeletal figure, an expansive aurora of verdant black wings expanded out gloriously as above his skeletal head, an Obsidian flaming crown rotated with mad power while releasing tendrils of grandeur in the surroundings!

Its sockets were pure verdant flames of life as they contrasted beautifully with the aura of death he released, the cackling coming as he moved his jaws up and down as they seemed to show happiness at having finally returned.

Returned.

It meant he had been here before as this was none other than a manifestation of an Arch Lich that the True Emperor of Quintessence had utilized before!

Under a different name now. And yet holding even more grandeur.

Its flaming sockets gazed at the battlefield as its jaws formed into a cruel smile, the power that it released being something that shone among the brightest on this Battlefield!

[Name]:: Quintessential Thanatos Embodiment(Thanatos Haven Lich Ra'Zan)

[Realm]:: Fourth Haven of Thanatos

[Lineage]:: Quintessential Thanatos Embodiment

[Titles]:: The Arch Lich, Haven Lich, Ka Ka Ka!...

[Apex Thanatos Mana Value]:: 9,999

[Apex Thanatos Vitality Value]:: 9,999

[Apex Thanatos Soul Value]:: 9,999

[Apex Thanatos Defense Value]:: 9,999

[Apex Thanatos Damage Value]:: 9,999

[Dynamis of Extremity]:: Thanatos(Absolute)

[Boundaries of Extremity]:: Death, Necromancy, Quintessence...

Thanatos Haven Lich Ra'Zan.

He came to be once more as his burning sockets transformed into a cruel smile that caused the swarming Elders of the Singularity Overseers and Avernus Clan to feel a chill and a sense of danger!

A billowing aura of death surged around him as he raised his skeletal hands up- a crystalline bone staff forming within them while he called out.

[Rise, my children!]

...!

A call was made as behind it, gates of hell seemingly began to open as Legions of Undead were waiting behind them....

—

The Avernus Clan was a terrifying behemoth that had lived for too many eons.

Those that were a part of this force...were the brightest and most astute entities as if they weren't, they were forcefully forged to be this way!

This was why amidst the unfolding chaotic battle, there were portions of the Wills of the Avernus Clan Elders engaging in this battle resonating and communicating with each other.

They all joined together in a unique domain accessible only by their wills as it manifested as a forum of a roundtable surrounded by thrones, with the manifested figures of the prominent Avernus Clan Elders sitting on these thrones as they debated the battle at hand and made decisions rapidly- barely a fraction of a nanosecond passing between their discussions!

"Ahpuch, can you handle the monstrosity that this First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven has called out and its minions? It exudes the authority of the Absolute Dynamis of Extremity even more than the Death Minions risen behind us."

A voice from one of the thrones rose towards the visage of Ahpuch who had an expression of utmost happiness at this moment.

He nodded as he looked at the over a dozen Commanding Avernus Elders in this manifested space around him.

The strongest of the Battalion of 200 released on this Apex Battlefield!

Each of them held approximate Apex Aeonic Soul Values ranging from 8,000-18,000 as he...exceeded them all in this aspect! The rest of the 200 apart from these Commanding Avernus Elders had an approximate average of 2,000-4,000 Apex Aeonic Soul Values as there was a vast discrepancy between power that was determined by many factors!

"I'll take care of both this Lich and the Master that called him forth. Will you all be able to handle everything else? This is a War that the Avernus Clan cannot lose, or our souls will not be let off even in death!"

...!

The Wills of the Elders knew this very well as they nodded, a woman with burning black flames on her head taking on a leading role and nodding while they all scrutinized the battle and made judgments quickly.

"Very well, if you see anyone being overpowered, lend aid right away and work together to grind down the enemies, and...oh for fucks sake!"

...!

Her words had to change mid-way as they saw the authority of an Absolute Dynamis of Extremity gather around the First Commander of the Infinite Hyperversal Haven again.

"He's calling out more of his Undead Minions...since we don't know what their might will be, try to stop him if you can!"

They quickly conveyed and moved as their bodies on the Apex Battlefield heard ecstatic words.

[Chthonian Sinners of Thanatos].

...!

Four words.

They called forth the advent of even more death and destruction!

Chapter 2550 Madness! I

The Thanatos Haven Lich Ra'Zan.

He was the Quintessential Thanatos Embodiment of the Absolute Dynamis of Extremity that held 21 Boundaries within it!

He could exist from the moment the Dynamis was Recorded as now that he was out, even death could never truly reclaim him unless the Thanatos Perennial Yggdrasil of Extremity was destroyed.

'Death.'

BZZT!

The bright verdant flames in his sockets blazed as this idea that was at his very core buzzed with wonder!

With it ringing in his deathly will, he gazed at the battlefield before him as what he saw was very different from what others saw.

His vision showed the myriad of entities represented as brilliant illusory hearts of differing sizes and intensity!

These hearts were filled with life, concepts, and everything that defined these beings.

The Avernus Clan Elders had their vast majority of forces showing illusory hearts half the size of the Haven Lich himself.

About a dozen of them almost neared the same size as his heart by about 80%!

This proportion remained the same for the 300 forces of the Singularity Overseers, where only about 10 out of the 300 Apex Singularity Overseer Elders commanded strength similar to him!

The massive Apex Astral Leviathans they stood on were barely above the Prince Tier Thanatos Vassal level that could be conjured by his Master from the lowest Dead Record.

Ra'Zan read the field of battle and scanned all of this in an instant as behind him, he also saw the forces called out by his Master.

The 300 radiant Enders of Extremity were great accomplishments as their illusory hearts under his gaze seemed the same as the Apex Elder on the enemy side, their power singularly being 4,000 Apex Aeonic Soul Values as some Enders like the Draconic Elephantine Ender trying to hold off the strongest enemy here held a bit more Values than the other Enders!

As for the 200 Vassals that followed his Master, their Values could be set at a minimum of 1,000 due to their own Foundations and the effects of the Quintessential Loot Seeker's Regalia they adorned as beings like the Son of Destiny, Aurelia, Orion, and Caesar went towards or slightly exceeded the 2,000 Apex Aeonic Soul Value benchmark.

The Haven Lich Ra'Zan could see all of this with a glance as the Vassals of his Master would have to move in groups of two or three in order to survive against their enemies, with the Enders of Nature capable of moving by themselves to withstand the enemy Apex Aeonic Lifeforms!

His Master existed to balance out this discrepancy as death would soon begin to proliferate and the number of their forces would rise.

Then there was him.

The Haven Lich!

His purpose here...

THUMP!

He felt his illusory dead heart beat with astonishing life as he came to gaze upon the strongest enemy combatant here.

He knew the Record of this being from his Master.

Ahpuch.

His illusory beating heart...was the largest on this Battlefield!

Larger than even the beating heart of his Master as this being held a much greater edge in the concepts that made his Heart.

But this didn't alarm the Haven Lich.

Because to him, it didn't matter if the enemy had greater Values.

So long as they fell prey to the sweet release of death...their values would mean nothing!

His Master had just cast [Chthonian Sinners of Thanatos]- another boon of the Thanatos Quintessential Absolute Dynamis of Extremity that Ra'Zan stemmed from as another deterrent against this enemy, the dense aura of death becoming ever concentrated as at the same time- the illusory heart of Ahpuch blazed as this being also made a grand move!

Ra'Zan knew the children that would come from [Chthonian Sinners of Thanatos] as surely, they would be a sufficient deterrent against this enemy.

But Ra'Zan thought about himself as the unimaginable flow of deathly essence coursing through him and the endless essence flowing from his Master.

He could draw everything from his Master as assets were not an issue for him.

His Master.

The True Emperor of Quintessence!

His Master concentrated on many things apart from death that he didn't really need to.

Ra'Zan knew this innately as he had appeared when his Master beckoned throughout his reign, but he didn't stay out for long.

He wanted to let his Master know that he didn't need to focus on anything else.

He wanted to let his Master know that if he just concentrated on Death...all of his problems would be solved!

'Ka Ka Ka! Why am I thinking so much? I only need to let death flow through me!'

...!

BZZT!

He grasped the crystalline bone staff in his hands.

Tendrils of verdant and black light overflowed as his raging verdant flames dimmed!

The bone crown spinning atop his skull flashed with brilliance as within the body of the Haven Lich Ra'Zan, an illusory Thanatos Perennial Yggdrasils of Extremity becoming ever real!

He was embodying it as at this moment, he let the death he was used to so much flow freely into the concepts that made this Perennial Yggdrasil of Extremity.

He saw how they were intricately connected as his authority surged at their very stable center as the deathly authority at his core guided all of these 21 concepts to converge at the very center of the illusory Yggdrasil of Extremity as in the next moment...he breathed only death with the Methodology belonging to his master. And thereafter...

CRACK!

Something bloomed at the very center.

It was akin to a Singularity being born as for Ra'Zan, it was another Heart.

It was akin to a Singularity being born as for Ra'Zan, it was another Heart.

A Vessel of Life and Death!

With it, Ra'Zan took reign and resonated all 21 Concepts that made Thanatos to a terrifying degree-more so than his Master currently did as the Thanatos Perennial Yggdrasils of Extremity solidified in his body!

He wanted to let his Master know. And so he let his actions speak for themselves.

'Ka Ka Ka! Yes...this is it. This is death!'

Ra'Zan bellowed out in his mind as he felt his Values break past 10,000 and begin to climb upwards.

He grasped Recorded Histories of Deaths in the very Aeonic Annals of Extremity and drew them to himself as his visage began to grow larger and more dominating, his flaming sockets coming to focus on Ahpuch and the many enemies before it as his skeletal staff waved forward.

'Here is a peek of death and madness...a reflection of my mind as I lay inactive all this time!'