

Apocalypse 541

Chapter 541: Lies Don't Hurt; Truth Is a Sharp Blade

The term "fox spirit" is quite enigmatic.

If a woman uses it to describe another woman, it's mostly an insult.

However, if a man uses it to describe another man, it's usually a compliment.

When the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder said this, it left the Infinite Buddha speechless.

The Infinite Buddha's mouth is great for chanting sutras and reciting Buddhist texts.

But when it comes to verbal sparring, he's not very capable.

When it comes to insults, no matter how much he racks his brains, he can't come up with many.

Right now, the Infinite Buddha's CPU is spinning at high speed, trying to combine insulting words from his mind into a sentence to vent his dissatisfaction.

But, there really aren't any words.

After thinking for a long time, the Infinite Buddha's CPU is almost smoking, and he still can't find the words.

"Old fox spirit." After a while, the Infinite Buddha spat out this sentence.

However, upon hearing this, the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder exploded with anger.

"Fox spirit" and "old fox spirit" are completely different matters!

If you call the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder ugly, she would definitely laugh it off.

Because she knows she is stunningly beautiful.

But if you call her old, she will truly be angry.

Because she is indeed very old.

Although her appearance hasn't changed a bit, the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder has lived for countless years.

Time urges people on, and even though time hasn't etched its marks on the face of the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder.

But the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder knows, she is old.

Lies don't hurt people; truth is the sharp blade!

Upon hearing the words "old fox spirit," the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder was genuinely enraged.

"Infinite Buddha, who are you calling old?"

"Repeat that one more time?" The Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder said through gritted teeth.

Seeing this, the Infinite Buddha realized that the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder couldn't stand it.

The more you can't stand it, the more I have to bring it up.

That's called hitting where it hurts and exposing weaknesses.

"Old fox spirit, old woman, old hag..." The Infinite Buddha didn't have many words in his head, so he said whatever came to mind.

No matter what he said, the Infinite Buddha added the word "old" in front.

The Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder couldn't tolerate this, and she was immediately fuming.

Standing above the Silent Sea, the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder was surrounded by eerie green flames.

"Infinite Buddha!"

"I'll make you realize what kind of price you pay for joking about a woman's age." The Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder was burning with rage.

Anyone who's dated knows, a girlfriend who can't even open a bottle cap.

But when she's angry, she's harder to handle than a pig at New Year's.

If the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder's combat effectiveness is one hundred percent usually.

Then now, in a furious state, her combat effectiveness is over one hundred fifty percent.

"Infinite Buddha, you're dead meat!"

The Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder roared, and countless green flames around her surged toward the Infinite Buddha.

But the Infinite Buddha remained calm, chanted "Infinite Great Sea," and golden waves rose around him.

The golden waves collided with the green flames, and the two sides were evenly matched.

In a furious state, the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder was indeed stronger than the Infinite Buddha, but a quick victory was hardly possible.

Both being Tier Two Peak experts, neither could eliminate the other quickly.

Unless there's a master like the Peacock Great Ming King.

Before you know it, three days had passed.

During these three days, Lady Ming King seemed to hold her composure, not letting Dingguang Buddha make a move.

Meanwhile, in the other three battlefields, prolonged confrontation ensued.

All three sides fought until exhausted, rested, and then fought again.

Over the three days, both sides suffered heavy losses, but the battlefield remained evenly balanced.

...

...

Elder Bai, the Peacock Great Ming King, and Lin Yuan were quietly observing the entire battlefield.

"The Gourmand disguised as a wounded soldier has returned to the sect headquarters for rest."

"The prerequisite conditions for the Robbing Buddha Prison plan have been met. When do we take action?" Lin Yuan asked Elder Bai.

Gazing over the entire battlefield, Elder Bai slowly opened his mouth and said, "Not yet, Dingguang Buddha hasn't made a move."

"To execute the Robbing Buddha Prison plan, we not only need Dingguang Buddha to take action but also need some of the Buddha figures from the sect headquarters to be drawn out."

"Otherwise, the success rate isn't high."

"If we get surrounded by Buddha figures, even if the Great Ming King can manage to escape unscathed, Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva will find it difficult to escape completely."

It's tough to lure out Buddhas and make the World Honored One Sect headquarters vulnerable!

"Why hasn't Lady Ming King let Dingguang Buddha make a move?"

"This is uncharacteristic of Lady Ming King's usual style!" Lin Yuan asked, puzzled.

Lady Ming King's tactics were somewhat puzzling to Lin Yuan.

She has four Tier Two Peak experts at her disposal, yet she sends out three in one go.

The last one remains unplayed?

It's like playing poker, where your first few hands are three aces, three kings, and a pair of jacks.

Exhausting all your strong cards up front and holding onto two kings but not sending them out at the end.

After Lin Yuan's words fell, the Peacock Great Ming King pondered for a moment before responding, "You might not know Lady Ming King very well."

"Lady Ming King, when doing great things, she saves herself; when seeing small parties, she forgets righteousness."

"The reason she's not sending out Dingguang Buddha is because she's unsure of our strategy. If she sends out Dingguang Buddha, she'd be left without any Tier Two Peak experts?"

"At that moment, if we have any cards left to attack her, she could be in danger."

"Hence, she's keeping Dingguang Buddha to have him support and protect her."

As soon as the Peacock Great Ming King spoke, everyone immediately understood.

Indeed, a woman with long hair but short knowledge is certainly incapable of accomplishing great things.

Having understood Lady Ming King's intentions, the next step is to consider the corresponding countermeasures.

On this front, Elder Bai would definitely outwit Lady Ming King.

If Elder Bai had equal strength, he would definitely crush Lady Ming King.

After thinking for a bit, Elder Bai already had a strategy.

"Since she doesn't actively send out Dingguang Buddha, let's force Dingguang Buddha out."

"Later, I'll make a move, teaming up with the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder to attack the Infinite Buddha."

"Then, Dingguang Buddha will surely make a move. If he doesn't, the Infinite Buddha faced with two of us will surely die!" Elder Bai said confidently.

The Infinite Buddha is already at a disadvantage against the Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder, adding Elder Bai would mean he can't hold out for long.

"After forcing out Dingguang Buddha, then what?"

"How do we execute the next step of the plan?" The Peacock Great Ming King asked.

Once Elder Bai makes his move, the Peacock Great Ming King remains the last card to execute the Robbing Buddha Prison plan.

Before making the move, Elder Bai must plan out the subsequent actions.

Chapter 542: Preparing to Lure the Tiger Away from the Mountain

The Peacock Great Ming King is not skilled at making battle plans, so he needs Elder Bai to give him some guidance in advance.

At this moment, Elder Bai naturally already has a plan in mind.

Only to hear Elder Bai slowly narrate: "Once I force Dingguang Buddha out, the battlefield at Silent Sea will inevitably fall into a prolonged stalemate."

"At that time, if Lady Ming King wants to end this prolonged battle, there is only one way, which is for her to actively summon one or two Buddhas to come and end the battle as quickly as possible."

"Of course, there is also another possibility, which is that Lady Ming King continues to drag things out with us, believing that she can still win in the long run."

"If Lady Ming King actively summons a Buddha to support, that would be for the best. At that time, the Great Ming King need not worry about us and can head straight to the headquarters of the World Honored One Sect, forcibly act alongside Guanyin Bodhisattva, and open the Buddha Prison to let Manjushri Bodhisattva and Guanyin Bodhisattva escape. The rest, Lin Yuan will assist you with."

"If Lady Ming King does not actively summon a Buddha and wants to continue dragging things out with us, then we should force her to summon a Buddha."

Upon hearing Elder Bai's words, the Peacock Great Ming King promptly inquired: "How to force her to summon a Buddha?"

"Three days."

"Once I force Dingguang Buddha out, you wait for three days. Within those three days, if Lady Ming King does not actively summon a Buddha to come."

"Then, you should go find Guanyin Bodhisattva and let him do this..." Elder Bai disclosed his plan to the Peacock Great Ming King.

After hearing Elder Bai's plan, the Peacock Great Ming King couldn't help but admire it.

The plan was truly brilliant.

Given the Peacock Great Ming King's understanding of Lady Ming King, that woman, in order to ensure her safety, will definitely summon a Buddha to protect herself.

After arranging everything, Elder Bai did not hesitate further, directly revealing his true form and heading towards the battlefield where Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder and Infinite Buddha were engaged.

Infinite Buddha facing the attack from Qingqiu Mountain Grand Elder had always been in a defensive posture.

Seeing Elder Bai charge in as well, he immediately felt overwhelmed.

Two against one?

He simply didn't have the skill for that.

If truly trapped in a siege, at most after dozens of rounds, he would be severely injured.

After two or three hundred rounds, he would face death and annihilation.

Everyone knows that the old turtle surnamed Bai is adept at arrays. Once he sets up the array, it becomes his home turf.

Thinking of this, Infinite Buddha did not hesitate, directly shouting: "Dingguang Buddha, save me!"

Dingguang Buddha must act first to hold off the old turtle surnamed Bai, preventing him from having the chance to set up the array.

Infinite Buddha and Dingguang Buddha are also a pair of good friends.

Their relationship was no less than the relationship between the Peacock Great Ming King and Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Therefore, upon hearing Infinite Buddha's call for help, Dingguang Buddha immediately showed up to confront Elder Bai.

"What's Dingguang Buddha doing?"

"Why not wait for my orders!" Seeing this, Lady Ming King was furious, feeling her authority challenged.

However, Dingguang Buddha is from the old school of Buddhas, facing her, Lady Ming King couldn't punish him, and could only be angry in vain.

Guangzhi Arhat next to her couldn't say much either, only trying to smooth things over by saying: "The situation is urgent; Dingguang Buddha's flexibility is understandable."

Lady Ming King understood too that she couldn't do anything about Dingguang Buddha. Guangzhi Arhat gave her a way out, so she decided to let it go.

"The old turtle surnamed Bai, Qingqiu Mountain fox spirits, Golden-Winged Roc, Black Bear Spirit, all four have acted."

"It seems they have no more cards to play. The only card left is the Peacock Great Ming King."

"If Guanyin Bodhisattva speaks truly, Peacock Great Ming King is now in the Void, and they have no more tricks left!" Lady Ming King muttered to herself.

After a round of muttering, Lady Ming King took out a mirror.

This mirror is a set of Mother-Child mirrors; the one in Lady Ming King's hand is the Child Mirror, and the Mother Mirror is with Medicine King Buddha.

Medicine King Buddha stationed at the headquarters is observing the entire battlefield at Silent Sea through the Mother Mirror.

At this moment, Lady Ming King took out the Child Mirror to contact Medicine King Buddha, to inquire whether to summon several Buddhas and Bodhisattvas to directly close the net.

Taking advantage of this opportunity to directly eliminate Elder Bai and the others.

Producing the Child Mirror, casting a spell with a pinch, the image of Medicine King Buddha's head appeared on the mirror.

"Medicine King Buddha, the old turtle surnamed Bai and the others have all appeared."

"Should we summon several Buddhas and Bodhisattvas to completely wipe them out!" Lady Ming King said through clenched teeth.

Among the opponents of the World Honored One, Elder Bai and his group are the most active, hence Lady Ming King hates them deeply.

Summoning other Buddhas and Bodhisattvas is not something Lady Ming King can decide on her own; she must consult with Medicine King Buddha and get his approval to proceed with the next step.

"I have been observing the battlefield through the Mother Mirror consistently, and now is indeed a good opportunity to wipe out the old turtle surnamed Bai and his group."

"But, do not forget, this time the command from the World Honored One is to eradicate Silent Sea and kill Black Dragon Heaven."

"The World Honored One is never wrong, so the key for us in this battle is to kill Black Dragon Heaven."

"We should deal with Black Dragon Heaven first, and afterwards, if possible, then deal with the old turtle surnamed Bai!" Medicine King Buddha analyzed rationally.

Lady Ming King dared not defy the command of the World Honored One, so she responded: "Very well, I will first order the sect members to speed up the attack to quickly deal with Black Dragon Heaven."

With the order accepted, Lady Ming King ended the communication with Medicine King Buddha.

"Order them to accelerate the attack pace, at all costs, eliminate Black Dragon Heaven, and wipe out his followers." Lady Ming King issued the command.

This time, Lady Ming King brought a large number of followers; if not facing Tier Two Peak experts like Elder Bai and others, just dealing with Black Dragon Heaven, the followers she led would already be enough.

...

The great battle continues, the Peacock Great Ming King, following Elder Bai's arrangement, patiently waits for three days.

Three days later, Lady Ming King showed no sign of summoning Buddhas or Bodhisattvas for support.

"Lin Yuan, I have to go!" The Peacock Great Ming King prepared to leave.

Lin Yuan nodded and said, "Great Ming King, as Elder Bai arranged, break into Buddha Prison, open its doors and release Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva."

"At that time, try to drag out the Tier Two Peak experts from the sect; the rest, I will assist them."

"Understood!" The Peacock Great Ming King responded, and with a flash, disappeared.

When the Peacock Great Ming King reappeared, he had already arrived at the temple of Guanyin Bodhisattva.

At this moment, within Guanyin Bodhisattva's temple, Guanyin Bodhisattva is still drinking and discussing the Dao with Duomu Arhat.

Nonetheless, having experienced being drunk last time, Duomu Arhat had learned a lesson, controlling his alcohol intake, and didn't dare drink too much.

Seeing Duomu Arhat there, the Peacock Great Ming King didn't reveal himself, instead opting to send a message secretly to Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Chapter 543: Setting a Trap for the Medicine King Buddha

"Guanyin, it's me..."

Guanyin Bodhisattva was drinking and discussing the Dao with Duomu Arhat, when suddenly, the voice of the Peacock Great Ming King sounded in his mind.

Upon hearing the Peacock Great Ming King's voice, Guanyin Bodhisattva couldn't help but feel delighted.

According to Elder Bai's plan, if the Peacock Great Ming King sought him out, it meant that the situation at Silent Sea was in full swing.

It's time for them to act.

Ever since Manjushri Bodhisattva and Pengji Bodhisattva were imprisoned in Buddha Prison, Guanyin Bodhisattva had been full of worry.

He feared that something would happen to Manjushri Bodhisattva and Pengji Bodhisattva in Buddha Prison, and only by rescuing them could Guanyin Bodhisattva breathe a sigh of relief.

"Great Ming King, can we proceed on our side now?" Guanyin Bodhisattva transmitted his voice to ask the Peacock Great Ming King.

"The plan has changed; I'll go to Buddha Prison myself."

"You go to Silent Sea, and here's what you need to do..." Peacock Great Ming King transmitted detailed instructions to Guanyin Bodhisattva on what to do next.

After hearing the Peacock Great Ming King's instructions, Guanyin Bodhisattva replied, "Alright, I understand."

Once the instructions were given, the Peacock Great Ming King left Guanyin Bodhisattva's Dao field and secretly approached Buddha Prison to prepare for the upcoming actions.

In Guanyin Bodhisattva's Dao field, after the Peacock Great Ming King left, Guanyin Bodhisattva continued drinking and discussing the Dao with Duomu Arhat.

As Guanyin Bodhisattva drank, he seemed to have drunk too much. He pulled Duomu Arhat over and asked, "Duomu, do you think Manjushri and Pengji could be traitors?"

Manjushri Bodhisattva and Pengji Bodhisattva held higher positions in the sect than Duomu Arhat.

Moreover, both Manjushri Bodhisattva and Pengji Bodhisattva were friends of Guanyin Bodhisattva, so Duomu Arhat certainly couldn't say they were traitors in front of Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Therefore, Duomu Arhat hurriedly shook his head and said, "They can't be, absolutely not!"

"Crash."

"Bang." As soon as Duomu Arhat spoke, Guanyin Bodhisattva flipped the table over, causing the dishes and wine vessels to smash on the ground.

"Outrageous, outrageous!"

"If they aren't traitors, then why imprison them in Buddha Prison?"

"Lady Ming King is a woman with long hair and short knowledge; how can she manage the sect!" Guanyin Bodhisattva cursed at Lady Ming King.

Guanyin Bodhisattva was a tier two peak expert, and he dared to curse Lady Ming King.

But Duomu Arhat did not dare.

At this moment, as Guanyin Bodhisattva appeared to be in a drunken rage, Duomu Arhat also dared not oppose him.

"Sigh!" Duomu Arhat sighed heavily, thinking that this task was indeed difficult!

He couldn't offend Guanyin Bodhisattva or Lady Ming King, so he dared not say anything, only offering a wry smile.

After scolding Lady Ming King, Guanyin Bodhisattva pulled Duomu Arhat over again and asked, "Duomu, where did you say Lady Ming King was just now?"

Duomu Arhat: "???"

Duomu Arhat was perplexed, not understanding what Guanyin Bodhisattva meant.

Duomu Arhat thought, if you want to curse someone, just do it. Why care about where the person being cursed is?

Duomu Arhat stood there, not answering, and Guanyin Bodhisattva shouted, "I'm asking you, where is Lady Ming King."

Startled by Guanyin Bodhisattva's shout, Duomu Arhat's body shivered, his mind blank for a moment, but his mouth opened first: "Lady Ming King led armies to Silent Sea to annihilate Black Dragon Heaven."

As soon as Duomu Arhat spoke, he sensed something was wrong.

Then Duomu Arhat hastily asked, "Bodhisattva, why do you inquire about Lady Ming King's whereabouts?"

Guanyin Bodhisattva pushed Duomu Arhat away and said angrily, "I'm going to find Lady Ming King and make her release Manjushri Bodhisattva and Pengji Bodhisattva."

"If she refuses, I'll kill her!"

After saying this, Guanyin Bodhisattva flew straight towards the direction of Silent Sea.

Duomu Arhat saw this and thought, this is a disaster, truly a disaster!

He rushed forward, clinging to Guanyin Bodhisattva's arm and shouted, "Absolutely not, absolutely not!"

"Bodhisattva, if you kill Lady Ming King, it will lead to big trouble!"

"Trouble, what trouble?"

"At most, I'll sacrifice for her!" Guanyin Bodhisattva seemed completely undaunted.

However, Duomu Arhat held tightly onto Guanyin Bodhisattva, refusing to let him leave.

"Do not stop me, or I will not hesitate to retaliate!" Guanyin Bodhisattva shouted angrily.

Duomu Arhat gripped Guanyin Bodhisattva's arm tightly, refusing to let go: "No way, if you want me to release, you'll have to kill me!"

"Alright!" Guanyin Bodhisattva agreed promptly.

Duomu Arhat: "????"

Seeing Guanyin Bodhisattva agree so swiftly, Duomu Arhat was bewildered.

Duomu Arhat thought, we just had drinks and discussions, and promised to be good friends, didn't we?

Yet...

You're incredibly fickle.

Before Duomu Arhat could react, Guanyin Bodhisattva had already struck out with a palm, sending Duomu Arhat flying.

With a loud "boom," Duomu Arhat was sent flying by Guanyin Bodhisattva and crashed into a mountain.

Duomu Arhat was embedded into the rock face, unable to be pried loose.

Finally extricating himself from the rock face, when Duomu Arhat went to look for Guanyin Bodhisattva again, Guanyin Bodhisattva had vanished.

"It's over!"

"This time, it's completely over!" Duomu Arhat muttered to himself, standing there in a daze.

After being stunned for a while, Duomu Arhat realized the sheer difference in strength between Guanyin Bodhisattva and himself.

Trying to stop Guanyin Bodhisattva was akin to a mantis trying to stop a carriage.

"Call for help!"

"I must seek help and inform Medicine King Buddha so he can quickly aid Lady Ming King!" With this thought, Duomu Arhat hurried off to find Medicine King Buddha.

If Guanyin Bodhisattva really intended to kill Lady Ming King, he could have simply killed Duomu Arhat, not giving him the chance to alert anyone, catching Lady Ming King off guard.

However, the palm strike Guanyin Bodhisattva just delivered was actually restrained, deliberately sparing Duomu Arhat.

Leaving Duomu Arhat was precisely for allowing him to report to Medicine King Buddha.

Guanyin Bodhisattva intentionally staged a drunken frenzy, claiming to kill Lady Ming King, as a trap for Medicine King Buddha.

Guanyin Bodhisattva, as a tier two peak expert, should he want to kill Lady Ming King, Medicine King Buddha would need to dispatch tier two peak experts from the sect to save Lady Ming King.

This way, Elder Bai's strategy of luring the tiger away from the mountain would succeed.

According to Elder Bai's prediction, the success rate of this luring strategy was at least seventy to eighty percent.

Unless Medicine King Buddha ignores Lady Ming King's life.

However, that's absolutely impossible.

Lady Ming King is the daughter of the World Honored One; if she were to die, Medicine King Buddha would have no way to answer to the World Honored One.

Chapter 544: The Tiger Lured from the Mountain Strategy Succeeds

Sect Headquarters.

Medicine King Buddha is using the Mother Mirror to observe the battlefield situation over at Silent Sea.

The situation is a four on four, with eight Tier Two Peak experts, still in a stalemate at the moment.

It seems that unless new Tier Two Peak experts join, it's difficult to break the stalemate.

Meanwhile, regarding the assault on Silent Sea, the congregation of the World Honored is gaining the upper hand.

Under Lady Ming King's swarm tactics, Black Dragon Heaven and his subordinates are starting to struggle.

The Giant City on the sea has been breached, Black Dragon Heaven and his subordinates have been forced into Silent Sea.

Ignoring the casualties among the small troops, Black Dragon Heaven's Twenty-Eight Celestial Kings have already lost eleven.

"As long as we continue this fierce assault, within three days at most, Silent Sea can be annihilated, and Black Dragon Heaven slaughtered."

"Then, seize the opportunity to capture that old turtle named Bai and establish great merit!" Medicine King Buddha looked at the battlefield situation, feeling exceedingly joyful.

In reality, if we count the casualties, their congregation has suffered more losses.

After all, they are the attackers, and furthermore, Lady Ming King is using swarm tactics.

However, Medicine King Buddha and his group don't care about the fate of ordinary followers.

To them, ordinary followers are like crops.

Once a harvest is wiped out, another can quickly replace them.

"Medicine King Buddha, something terrible has happened, a major disaster!"

Looking at the battle situation in the mirror, Medicine King Buddha was joyous, only to see Duomu Arhat running and shouting as he charged over.

Medicine King Buddha, interrupted by Duomu Arhat, frowned and asked, "Weren't you supposed to keep an eye on Guanyin Bodhisattva? Why did you abandon your post?"

"Also, what's the matter? Making such a fuss."

Guanyin Bodhisattva went to kill Lady Ming King, Duomu Arhat dared not conceal the truth and hurriedly reported, "Medicine King Buddha, it's Guanyin Bodhisattva who caused trouble, which is why I came to report."

"Just now, Guanyin Bodhisattva got drunk and started a drunken rampage."

"Claiming she wants to capture Lady Ming King, make her release Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva, or else she'll kill Lady Ming King."

"Now, Guanyin Bodhisattva is headed towards Silent Sea."

"I tried to stop her but barely escaped being killed by Guanyin Bodhisattva."

Medicine King Buddha: "???"

Upon hearing this, Medicine King Buddha was shocked, utterly unable to comprehend how Guanyin Bodhisattva could do such a thing.

"Bang!" Medicine King Buddha slapped the table and roared, "Rebelled, Guanyin Bodhisattva has rebelled!"

Duomu Arhat thought, isn't that indeed a rebellion?

"Buddha, let's not worry about whether Guanyin Bodhisattva has rebelled yet; the immediate priority is to protect Lady Ming King!"

"If anything happens to Lady Ming King, we cannot bear the consequences!" Duomu Arhat reminded.

Upon hearing this, Medicine King Buddha's expression turned serious.

In the past, Medicine King Buddha wouldn't worry about Lady Ming King being in trouble.

Because once Lady Ming King's life was in danger, the World Honored would sense it and intervene to help.

For example, last time when Bai tried to kill Lady Ming King.

However, this time is different.

The World Honored is in seclusion, in the critical stage of attaining enlightenment.

At this moment, the World Honored cannot spare the effort to rescue Lady Ming King.

So now, to stop Guanyin Bodhisattva and rescue Lady Ming King, Tier Two Peak powerhouses must be dispatched to Silent Sea.

However, there are not many Buddhas available to call upon within the sect.

Some Buddhas within the sect do not wish for the World Honored to succeed in attaining enlightenment; these Buddhas can be called the opposition.

The previous Peacock Great Ming King was the standard opposition, refusing to act in crucial moments, not assisting the sect in any way.

Medicine King Buddha cannot mobilize the opposition Buddhas no matter what.

Like Medicine King Buddha, Dingguang Buddha, and Infinite Buddha, they are staunch supporters of the World Honored and can be considered the loyalists supporting the World Honored's attainment.

Besides these two factions, there are the neutral ones.

The neutral ones are fence-sitters, swaying between the two sides.

They don't want the World Honored to succeed in enlightenment, cutting off their hope for further advancement.

However, they also dare not oppose the World Honored, fearing retribution should the World Honored truly attain enlightenment.

There are the most neutral Buddhas in number.

The neutral Buddhas can still be mobilized with proper persuasion and incentives.

"Joyful Buddha, Golden Wheel Buddha, let them go!" Medicine King Buddha has made up his mind.

Among the many neutral sect Buddhas, Golden Wheel Buddha and Joyful Buddha are the most indecisive.

With a target determined, Medicine King Buddha directly employs a spell, transmitting his voice to Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha to summon them over.

The direct transmission of sound into their ears forces Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha not to feign ignorance, leaving them no choice but to come.

Cultivating Joyful Meditation to its peak results in becoming the Joyful Buddha.

Previously, Joyful Vajra, who was slain by Bai, also practiced Joyful Meditation, but unfortunately, he hadn't mastered it thoroughly.

As for Golden Wheel Buddha, he is an elder among the Buddhas, with a conspicuous golden wheel on his back like a blazing sun.

After Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha arrived, Medicine King Buddha, not daring to waste time, immediately stated his purpose.

Upon hearing about being sent to the Silent Sea battlefield, Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha's eyes darted as they prepared excuses to decline.

"Medicine King Buddha, strictly speaking, I shouldn't refuse you."

"But my wife is giving birth right now, so I really can't leave!" Joyful Buddha earnestly spouted nonsense.

However, Medicine King Buddha wouldn't fall for this, bluntly exposing him, "You have no wife; the women in your domain are all just vessels for your cultivation."

"It's true about giving birth, but don't you have at least eight thousand to ten thousand women pregnant in your domain?"

"Practicing Joyful Meditation and seeding like a carp everywhere, your offspring must number in the millions?"

Joyful Buddha's excuse was ruthlessly exposed by Medicine King Buddha, leaving him speechless.

Golden Wheel Buddha was about to speak when Medicine King Buddha immediately cut him off.

"This time I'm sending you over, you won't have to fight against Bai and his group."

"You just need to ensure the safety of Lady Ming King and capture rebellious Guanyin Bodhisattva for me."

"Think carefully; if you don't go and Lady Ming King gets killed by Guanyin Bodhisattva, we'll all face severe consequences!" Medicine King Buddha pointedly stated.

With Medicine King Buddha's words, Golden Wheel Buddha and Joyful Buddha exchanged glances and reluctantly nodded.

Lady Ming King is the daughter of the World Honored; they have no choice but to save her!

Otherwise, if something happens to Lady Ming King and news of their failure to rescue her reaches the World Honored, they are certainly doomed.

"Alright!"

"We'll go this time, but let it be known, we will only capture the rebellious Guanyin Bodhisattva and return."

"We will merely cleanse our own ranks and not involve ourselves in external warfare!" Golden Wheel Buddha emphasized.

Medicine King Buddha nodded in agreement, "Agreed!"

Chapter 545: Avalokiteshvara Attacks Lady Ming King

After the Joyful Buddha and the Golden Wheel Buddha received the promise from the Medicine King Buddha that they would only clear the portal and not participate in the external war, they no longer hesitated and directly used the technique of transforming into rainbow light, turning into two rays of rainbow brilliance, and hurried towards the direction of the Silent Sea.

After all, Guanyin Bodhisattva had already gone in the direction of the Silent Sea, and Lady Ming King could be in danger at any moment.

The two of them, wanting to protect Lady Ming King, had to race against time to reach her before Guanyin Bodhisattva took action.

Meanwhile, the Peacock Great Ming King concealed himself near the headquarters of the World Honored One Sect, constantly watching the direction of the sect.

He merely waited for a few of the Buddhas to be drawn away, and then he could take action to save people.

While the Peacock Great Ming King was waiting, he saw two rays of light, one red and one gold, shooting like meteors from within the sect towards the direction of the Silent Sea.

"Is it the Joyful Buddha and the Golden Wheel Buddha?" The Peacock Great Ming King was very familiar with these two auras and immediately judged which two Buddhas had gone to support.

After the Joyful Buddha and the Golden Wheel Buddha had gone far, the Peacock Great Ming King muttered softly, "The Joyful Buddha and the Golden Wheel Buddha have already left; among the remaining Buddhas, few will take action."

"Even if the headquarters is attacked, at most two or three more Buddhas would act. Including the Medicine King Buddha who remains on guard, the Buddhas I have to face do not exceed five."

"One against five, the advantage is mine!"

Thinking of this, the Peacock Great Ming King shook his form, transformed into a Little Monk, and moved closer towards the Buddha Prison.

The next task for the Peacock Great Ming King was to first infiltrate the Buddha Prison and release Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva.

However, once the Buddha Prison is damaged, the Medicine King Buddha would be alerted, and at that time, the Peacock Great Ming King would be exposed.

By then, the Peacock Great Ming King's responsibility would be to hold off all the Buddhas, while the task of helping Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva escape would be handed over to Lin Yuan.

The Peacock Great Ming King disguised as a Novice Monk was completing the next task assigned to him.

...

...

At the same time.

Guanyin Bodhisattva had already arrived at the Silent Sea, as the battle there had reached a fever pitch.

Lady Ming King's central army, serving as the reserve force, had also joined the battle.

At this moment, before Lady Ming King, there was only one Bodhisattva and several Arhats, Vajra, and others protecting her.

At this moment, Guanyin Bodhisattva appeared in front of Lady Ming King.

Lady Ming King: "????"

Seeing Guanyin Bodhisattva, Lady Ming King was momentarily stunned, not expecting Guanyin Bodhisattva to appear at this time.

After a moment, Lady Ming King realized it. Guanyin was surely here for her, causing her to shiver inwardly.

However, Guanyin Bodhisattva did not immediately take action against Lady Ming King.

The target of Guanyin Bodhisattva was not Lady Ming King.

The reason for wanting to kill Lady Ming King was really a strategy of luring the tiger out of the mountain.

Lady Ming King, in plain terms, was just bait. Before the supporting Buddhas arrived, Guanyin Bodhisattva could not kill her.

If they surround the point to attack the reinforcements, and the reinforcements are still on the way, if you destroy the point, then the reinforcements will have no need to support and will surely retreat.

Therefore, at this moment, Guanyin Bodhisattva could not take action against Lady Ming King but needed to debate with her first.

"Guanyin Bodhisattva, the Medicine King Buddha ordered you to reflect behind closed doors. Who allowed you to leave the venue?" Lady Ming King asked first.

Guanyin Bodhisattva pretended to be angry and said, "Lady Ming King, I am here to seek justice from you this time."

"The Medicine King Buddha deliberately imprisoned Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva because he dislikes us brothers. He is exploiting his private grievances under the guise of public interests."

"Lady Ming King, is the sect under your leadership now, or is the Medicine King Buddha the leader?"

Upon hearing this, Lady Ming King immediately said, "Of course, I am the leader."

"Since you are the leader, then you should immediately order the release of Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva!" Guanyin Bodhisattva shouted angrily.

"Hmph!" Lady Ming King snorted coldly and replied, "The actions of the Medicine King Buddha are fair and just; he is my right-hand aide."

"The Medicine King Buddha is not someone you can slander."

"Guanyin Bodhisattva, if you know what's good for you, return quickly to reflect behind closed doors, or else, be careful that I might throw you into the Buddha Prison as well."

The panic that Lady Ming King initially felt upon seeing Guanyin Bodhisattva had already dissipated. Lady Ming King believed that Guanyin Bodhisattva did not have the courage to rebel.

Otherwise, last time he would not have sat idly by while Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva were thrown into the Buddha Prison.

So, she didn't pay much attention to Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Guanyin Bodhisattva had already sensed the presence of the Joyful Buddha and the Medicine King Buddha. These two Buddhas were not far from here.

Guanyin Bodhisattva thought, "I might as well go all the way with this act, and it's almost time for me to take action."

"Lady Ming King, I will ask you one last time. Are you going to release them or not?"

"Don't take the meaning of toast if you don't drink it and rather have me punish you. If you don't release them, don't blame me for being rude!" Guanyin Bodhisattva shouted, pointing at Lady Ming King's nose.

Lady Ming King's temper flared as well, angrily retorting, "Guanyin, I want to see how you plan to be rude?"

"Do you really think I am easily frightened, Lady Ming King?"

"If you truly had guts, you should have rebelled like the Peacock Great Ming King did, rather than watch as Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva were thrown into the Buddha Prison."

"If you truly dared to rebel, I would even respect you for being a real man."

At this moment, it seemed as though Lady Ming King was completely certain of Guanyin Bodhisattva.

However, the next move by Guanyin Bodhisattva shocked her.

Guanyin Bodhisattva brought his two fingers together like a sword, swearing to the heavens, "I, Guanyin, swear to the heavens that from this day forward, I am quitting the sect and regaining my freedom."

Lady Ming King: "????"

It must be known, swearing recklessly to the heavens in this world is never taken lightly.

With Guanyin Bodhisattva's vow, Lady Ming King's mind went blank.

At this time, Lady Ming King seemed to smell the scent of conspiracy.

What is going on? Everything seems very odd yet strangely smooth.

So smooth, it's like a director's scripted play.

After swearing, Guanyin Bodhisattva gritted his teeth and said to Lady Ming King, "Since you refuse to release Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva, fine, I will capture you and use you to exchange with Medicine King Buddha."

After Guanyin Bodhisattva finished speaking, he reached out to grab Lady Ming King.

Watching this scene, the Bodhisattvas and Arhats who surrounded Lady Ming King were also shocked and panicked, rushing to stand in front of her.

"Guanyin Bodhisattva, what are you doing?"

"Don't act recklessly!" The first to take action was the Treasure Tree Bodhisattva, who was at the Tier Two Early Stage, and was the strongest among those protecting Lady Ming King.

The Treasure Tree Bodhisattva transformed back into his original form, a lush and verdant pine tree, blocking in front of Lady Ming King.

The other Arhats also began chanting, bestowing blessings upon the Treasure Tree Bodhisattva.

Chapter 546: The Plan Succeeds

Guanyin Bodhisattva is a Bodhisattva.

Treasure Tree Bodhisattva is also a Bodhisattva.

However, the gap between Bodhisattvas can be worlds apart.

In the World Honored One Sect, Tier Two Peak is considered a Buddha, and Tier Two is referred to as Bodhisattva.

Treasure Tree Bodhisattva, having just entered Tier Two, is a newly appointed Bodhisattva.

Guanyin Bodhisattva originally was late-stage Tier Two, already an established Bodhisattva.

However, not long ago, Guanyin Bodhisattva ascended to the Tier Two Peak.

Logically, after ascending to Tier Two Peak, one can be promoted to Buddha.

In the World Honored One Sect, the title of Buddha requires personal bestowal by the World Honored.

Recently, the World Honored has been overwhelmed by Elder Bai and others, having no time to bestow the title of Buddha upon Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Thus, Guanyin Bodhisattva became the Sect's only Bodhisattva at the Tier Two Peak realm.

To say Guanyin Bodhisattva is the strongest Bodhisattva in the sect is not an exaggeration!

Guanyin Bodhisattva made a move against Lady Ming King, and Treasure Tree Bodhisattva took on the form of a pine tree, with the support of numerous Vajras, to protect Lady Ming King.

At this moment, Treasure Tree Bodhisattva was also feeling anxious.

Treasure Tree Bodhisattva thought, "I don't know if I can withstand this."

Yet, whether or not they can hold on, they must hold on.

Even if they die, they must die in front of Lady Ming King.

If they were to watch Lady Ming King die before their eyes, once the World Honored returns, things won't be as simple as just death.

By then, the World Honored will make sure they cannot survive nor die in peace.

Perhaps even imprison their souls, subjecting them to eternal torment.

Seeing this mere Treasure Tree Bodhisattva daring to obstruct her, Guanyin Bodhisattva could not help but snort coldly: "Hmph!"

"Overestimating your abilities."

Guanyin Bodhisattva placed a Glazed Buddha Palm on Treasure Tree Vajra's true form.

The golden light energy shield covered in scriptures on the outermost layer of the pine tree shattered like glass on impact.

"Puff!"

"Puff! Puff!"

Immediately, the sound of vomiting blood resounded at the scene, as numerous Arhats vomited blood one after another.

The golden light energy shield enveloping the pine tree was the blessing given to Treasure Tree Bodhisattva by numerous Arhats.

Now, with the blessing broken, they naturally suffered a backlash.

Guanyin Bodhisattva, with just one move, injured all the Arhats.

This demonstrated the vast difference between the Tier Two Peak and Tier Three, like heaven and earth.

However, things have only just begun.

Guanyin Bodhisattva's Glazed Buddha Palm continued forward, smashing through the golden light scripture energy shield before landing on the pine tree form of Treasure Tree Bodhisattva.

"Wow."

"Wow, wow."

After the Glazed Buddha Palm struck the pine tree, the pine tree shook continuously, with many pine needles falling to the ground one by one.

As the pine needles fell and the pine tree swayed, Treasure Tree Bodhisattva switched back and forth between tree form and human form.

Finally, unable to maintain the true form, he reverted back to human form, collapsing to the ground.

Treasure Tree Bodhisattva lay on the ground, vomiting large mouthfuls of fresh blood, close to failing.

Lady Ming King: "???"

Witnessing this scene, Lady Ming King was almost petrified with fear.

With just one move, Guanyin Bodhisattva resolved both Treasure Tree Bodhisattva and numerous Vajras.

Now, there wasn't anyone around her capable of protecting her.

At this moment, Lady Ming King was truly panicking, her previous arrogance utterly vanished.

"Guan..."

"Guanyin Bodhisattva, don't be reckless."

"Think it through, I am willing to release Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva!"

"Additionally, I can overlook today's departure from the sect, I am willing to help you rejoin!" Lady Ming King negotiated with Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Lady Ming King thought, first agree to save her own life.

Once she has the opportunity, she will settle the account slowly.

This matter will be accounted for clearly one day.

That Guanyin dared to betray the sect, dared to act against her, even imprisonment in Buddha Prison would be the lightest punishment.

However, at this point, Guanyin Bodhisattva certainly wouldn't waste time with Lady Ming King.

"Stop speaking, do you take me for a fool!"

"Lady Ming King, I will capture you now and exchange you with Medicine King Buddha for them!"

"After all, I've left the sect, we can just have Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva leave too!"

After saying this, Guanyin Bodhisattva resolutely made a move against Lady Ming King.

However, as Guanyin Bodhisattva made her move, she already noticed that Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha were very close.

Indeed, just as Guanyin Bodhisattva acted, a loud voice called out: "Guanyin, how bold you are to act against Lady Ming King."

"Here comes Joyful Buddha."

While Joyful Buddha shouted, Golden Wheel Buddha was silent, but his golden wheel had already slashed towards Guanyin Bodhisattva's hand.

Guanyin Bodhisattva reached for Lady Ming King, as Golden Wheel Buddha's golden wheel attacked.

At this moment, Guanyin Bodhisattva could only withdraw her hand, lest her hand be severed by the golden wheel.

With no choice, Guanyin Bodhisattva withdrew her hand, reaching for a whip artifact, to strike at Golden Wheel Buddha's golden wheel.

"Pa!"

"Pa! Pa!"

The whip continuously lashed at the golden wheel, causing its spinning speed to increase, yet it could never get close to Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Because, Guanyin Bodhisattva constantly controlled the golden wheel's direction using the whip.

Guanyin Bodhisattva striking the golden wheel with a whip resembled the childhood game of spinning tops during New Year festivities.

Golden Wheel Buddha used the golden wheel to stall Guanyin Bodhisattva, he and Joyful Buddha finally arrived, standing in front of Lady Ming King, shielding her.

Seeing her two backers arrive, and knowing these two Buddhas became Tier Two Peak much earlier than Guanyin Bodhisattva, increased her confidence.

Especially in a two-versus-one scenario, these two Buddhas would absolutely gain the upper hand.

Thinking this, Lady Ming King immediately gained courage, pointing at Guanyin Bodhisattva, said: "Joyful Buddha, Golden Wheel Buddha, detain Guanyin for me at once."

"It's one thing for her to act against our group, but she dared to betray the sect."

After protecting Lady Ming King, Joyful Buddha then persuaded, "Guanyin, there's still time to turn back!"

"Return with me to the sect, await the World Honored's punishment."

Turn back?

Guanyin thought, there's no way back now.

Rather than being ostracized in the sect by Medicine King Buddha, it's better to rebel alongside her friend Peacock Great Ming King more decisively.

"Humph!" Thinking this, Guanyin Bodhisattva snorted coldly and said: "Different paths, no mutual plans."

"If you have the skill, capture me back to Buddha Prison."

Chapter 547: Reversing Yin and Yang, Breaking the Red Gauze Screen

Looking at Guanyin Bodhisattva's current attitude, anyone who sees it can tell that he has no intention of surrendering without a fight.

Guanyin Bodhisattva has already sworn in front of Lady Ming King to withdraw from the Sect, so if he surrenders now, what would become of him?

Even if two Buddhas came, or even three or five, he would never surrender.

Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha exchanged a glance, understanding that they could only use force to capture Guanyin Bodhisattva and take him back to the Buddha Prison.

However, Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha did not regard Guanyin Bodhisattva highly.

After all, both of them were venerable Buddhas, formidable and experienced, especially since it was two against one; there was no reason to fear Guanyin Bodhisattva.

"Hmph!" Joyful Buddha snorted coldly and scolded, "Guanyin, since you refuse the offer of leniency."

"Then we shall not be polite!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha simultaneously attacked Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Suddenly, Joyful Buddha stood there, and an eerie yet ambiguous pink mist spread from his body.

This pink mist extended towards Guanyin Bodhisattva's position and enveloped it.

Soon, the pink mist completely covered the position where Guanyin Bodhisattva stood.

It was like a Red Gauze Screen, trapping Guanyin Bodhisattva inside.

This Red Gauze Screen formed by the pink mist was not just for entrapment.

The Red Gauze Screen also had the effect of enchanting the mind, as it enveloped Guanyin Bodhisattva.

Guanyin Bodhisattva began to hear all sorts of strange seductive sounds from all around.

Then, numerous naked beauties appeared around him.

Lust.

This was the specialty of those who practiced the Joyful Zen.

The Red Gauze Screen could provoke the utmost lust within a person.

Although Guanyin Bodhisattva did not practice Joyful Zen, he saw the mystery within the Red Gauze Screen.

Everything conjured inside the Red Gauze Screen seemed real yet not, illusionary yet not.

If your lust was not stirred, everything in front of you was a false delusion.

Once your lust was aroused, everything inside the Red Gauze Screen would become real.

At that time, the person trapped within would perish from exhaustion.

Guanyin Bodhisattva knew that as long as his lust wasn't provoked, the Red Gauze Screen was harmless.

Therefore, Guanyin Bodhisattva calmly sat cross-legged and began reciting scriptures.

Seeing Guanyin Bodhisattva unmoved, sitting cross-legged with closed eyes reciting scriptures, Golden Wheel Buddha asked Joyful Buddha, "Can your Red Gauze Screen affect him?"

"Hmph!" Joyful Buddha snorted disdainfully, "Does he really think that closing his eyes will help?"

"It doesn't matter if he sees or not; as long as he is within the Red Gauze Screen, even with closed eyes, these beauties will appear in his mind, and he will still fall for it."

The prowess of Joyful Buddha was not so easily broken.

Indeed, at that moment, a red light appeared on Guanyin Bodhisattva's forehead.

Following that, red smoke even began to rise from the top of Guanyin Bodhisattva's head.

"Heh heh heh."

"He he he he," Joyful Buddha emitted a sinister laugh, "Guanyin has fallen for it, his lust is stirred, and he's doomed."

"A mere newly risen Tier Two Peak is hardly my match."

Seeing this, Golden Wheel Buddha couldn't help but admire Joyful Buddha.

This Joyful Buddha was indeed formidable!

With one move, using the Red Gauze Screen, he subdued Guanyin Bodhisattva.

As a matter of fact, as Joyful Buddha stated, Guanyin Bodhisattva indeed fell for it.

At this moment, within his consciousness, Guanyin was indulging with those beauties.

As long as one is a man, with a man's thoughts and physiological makeup, they will inevitably be seduced by the Red Gauze Screen.

Even if you were to castrate yourself on the spot, it would be of no use.

Castration may stop physical arousal, but it cannot prevent the stir of lust in your mind.

Just like Guanyin Bodhisattva, he restrained his physical impulse but couldn't control his consciousness.

In his consciousness, Guanyin Bodhisattva was entangled with countless beauties; his awareness wavered between clarity and indulgence in lust.

"No!"

"I can't go on like this; if this continues, I'll surely die!"

"Joyful Buddha's Red Gauze Screen is too powerful; how should I break this predicament?" In rare moments of clarity, Guanyin Bodhisattva pondered.

During brief periods of clarity, Guanyin Bodhisattva racked his brain for a way to break free.

He knew that if he couldn't figure out a method, he would surely perish.

Just as he was about to be entirely consumed by lust, Guanyin Bodhisattva thought of a brilliant plan.

Joyful Buddha is a man, and the Red Gauze Screen he cultivates is targeted at men.

If Guanyin Bodhisattva were a woman, he could perfectly avoid the harm of this technique.

Thinking of this, Guanyin Bodhisattva began casting a spell, intending to transform himself into a woman.

This was not merely a simple transformation but reversing Yin and Yang, fundamentally turning himself into a woman.

Joyful Buddha, in his complacency, did not notice Guanyin Bodhisattva's changes.

After a long time, the black smoke above Guanyin Bodhisattva's head dissipated, and the red marks on his forehead began to fade.

Golden Wheel Buddha, still somewhat alert, sharply noticed this change.

"Joyful Buddha, this is not good; he seems to be breaking your Red Gauze Screen!" Golden Wheel Buddha reminded.

Joyful Buddha didn't even look over, coldly saying, "Impossible, no one has ever broken my Red Gauze Screen once their lust is stirred..."

Before Joyful Buddha could finish, his peripheral vision caught sight of Guanyin Bodhisattva.

His voice stopped abruptly.

"Boom!"

The Red Gauze Screen exploded, and Guanyin Bodhisattva slowly stood up.

However, at this moment, Guanyin Bodhisattva had already transformed from a male to a female form.

"Splurt!"

The connection between the Red Gauze Screen and Joyful Buddha was profound; when the screen shattered, Joyful Buddha coughed up a mouthful of blood.

Though the breaking of the Red Gauze Screen didn't heavily wound Joyful Buddha, rendering him completely powerless.

However, his full strength could now only exert about sixty or seventy percent.

Golden Wheel Buddha looked at the newly transformed Guanyin Bodhisattva with astonishment.

"You..."

"Are you Guanyin?" Golden Wheel Buddha asked, full of confusion.

Meanwhile, Joyful Buddha wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, his expression solemn, "What an exemplary Guanyin! Truly a remarkable talent."

"Within the Sect, aside from the Peacock Great Ming King, your comprehension is probably the highest."

"To think of using the reversal of Yin and Yang to break my Red Gauze Screen in such a short time. Impressive, truly impressive!"

Chapter 548: Breaking Into the Buddha Prison

The Red Gauze Screen is the signature skill of the Joyful Buddha, and naturally, the Joyful Buddha himself knows how to undo it.

However, he never imagined that Guanyin Bodhisattva could think of a way to dismantle his Red Gauze Screen in such a short time.

This level of understanding can only be said to far surpass his own conventional wisdom!

"Guanyin Bodhisattva, do not deceive yourself."

"You possess such insight; even if you make some mistakes, as long as you sincerely repent, the World Honored One will surely forgive you."

"Guanyin Bodhisattva, you'd best follow us quickly to the Buddha Prison to reflect!" Golden Wheel Buddha also advised from the side.

However, at this moment, Guanyin Bodhisattva resolutely stated: "There is no need for more words between us today, for I, Guanyin, have only two choices."

"One is to be killed by you two."

"The other is to kill the two of you."

With these words, Guanyin Bodhisattva then made the first move against Golden Wheel Buddha and Joyful Buddha.

The next moment, the three Tier Two Peak experts engaged in battle.

It should be said, Guanyin Bodhisattva is also exceptionally talented, with extraordinary understanding, capable of holding his own against two, without falling behind in a short time.

Of course, part of this is because Joyful Buddha's Red Gauze Screen was dismantled, and he was injured, unable to perform at full combat capacity in short order.

Guanyin Bodhisattva was battling against Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha head-on.

On the other side, Peacock Great Ming King, who disguised himself as Little Monk, had already infiltrated near the Buddha Prison.

Due to many injured returning for recovery these days, the sect personnel busy aiding them did not notice the stealthy approach of Peacock Great Ming King disguised as Little Monk towards the Buddha Prison.

Soon, Peacock Great Ming King arrived outside the Buddha Prison.

Outside the Buddha Prison, there were no monks guarding it, as it was deemed unnecessary.

On the gate of the Buddha Prison was a prohibition personally written by the World Honored One.

Without the key, ordinary people simply cannot force their way in.

The key was divided into two parts, requiring both parts together to open the Buddha Prison gate.

One part was with Lady Ming King, the other with Medicine King Buddha.

Peacock Great Ming King looked at the prohibition and indeed had the ability to break it.

But once the prohibition is broken, it would alert Medicine King Buddha who carried the key.

"Enough, there's no time to consider so much!"

"After breaking the gate, I must swiftly find Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva, and then stall any approaching Buddha." Peacock Great Ming King decided in his heart.

Once resolved, Peacock Great Ming King had no hesitation, and he directly summoned the Five-Colored Divine Light, casting it onto the gate of the Buddha Prison.

After all, even the lion uses all its might when hunting the rabbit.

To avoid wasting time, Peacock Great Ming King's strike was also an all-out effort.

The power of a full-force Five-Colored Divine Light strike was formidable and horrific.

As the Buddha Prison door hit by the Five-Colored Divine Light was reduced to ashes along with the prohibitions deployed by the World Honored One.

Though formidable, what was on the Buddha Prison gate was merely a prohibition he left behind.

Peacock Great Ming King, though not as powerful as the World Honored One, was here in his full form.

At the moment Peacock Great Ming King broke open the Buddha Prison gate, Medicine King Buddha, who was using the Mother Mirror to observe the Silent Sea battlefield, naturally felt the disturbance.

The picture in the Mother Mirror was precisely one of Guanyin Bodhisattva fighting against two.

Upon realizing the gate of the Buddha Prison was forcibly opened, Medicine King Buddha felt a chill in his heart.

At this moment, upon seeing Guanyin Bodhisattva take on two, Medicine King Buddha understood everything immediately.

"It's bad, it's the scheme of luring the tiger from the mountain."

"Their real intention is to rescue Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva, the one acting must be Peacock Great Ming King." Medicine King Buddha came to realization.

Without any hesitation, Medicine King Buddha headed toward the Buddha Prison.

Even knowing himself to not be a match for Peacock Great Ming King, he still rushed over to support.

Peacock Great Ming King's forcible intrusion into the Buddha Prison was sheer insult to the World Honored One, insult to the sect.

On his way to the Buddha Prison, Medicine King Buddha loudly shouted: "Traitor Kong Xuan forcibly intrudes Buddha Prison, intending to release the major criminals imprisoned within."

"All Buddhas, head immediately to the Buddha Prison to seize Kong Xuan, if not met with severe penalty."

Medicine King Buddha wasn't sure how many Buddhas would come to aid him.

He was caught in the scheme of luring the tiger from the mountain, this was the time when the World Honored One Sect's headquarters was most vulnerable.

Here, after breaking the Buddha Prison's gate, Peacock Great Ming King was headed straight for the prison, looking for Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva.

Fortunately, Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva were not held too deep, and Peacock Great Ming King quickly found them.

"Great Ming King, we are here!"

"We are here!" Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva shouted.

Upon hearing their cries, Peacock Great Ming King swiftly shattered their prison.

"Great Ming King, how come you're here to rescue us!" Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva asked in unison.

Peacock Great Ming King said: "Guanyin has already defected with me from the sect; if we don't rescue you, you both will die at the hands of Medicine King Buddha sooner or later."

Upon hearing that Guanyin Bodhisattva also defected, Manjushri Bodhisattva exclaimed: "Defecting should have happened long ago, this sect is too frustrating to stay in, better not stay!"

Manjushri Bodhisattva clearly more reasonable, asked Peacock Great Ming King: "Great Ming King, can we escape?"

Peacock Great Ming King nodded and said: "Our plan is meticulous, I'll break open the Buddha Prison to free you."

"Later, I'll hold off all the incoming Buddhas, Lin Yuan will find a way to help you escape."

Upon hearing this, Manjushri Bodhisattva inquired: "Where is Lin Yuan?"

At this point, a Tier Four robust Vajra appeared ahead.

"I'm here!" The robust Vajra said.

This robust Vajra was the Devourer in disguise.

Out there, numerous Devourers were setting fires everywhere, attacking the sect's remaining monks and novices.

Just as Peacock Great Ming King broke open the Buddha Prison, Lin Yuan controlled the robust Vajra disguised as the Devourer to follow closely.

Yet, his speed was not as fast as Peacock Great Ming King.

Just then, Peacock Great Ming King suddenly furrowed his brow and said: "Medicine King Buddha is here, I have to stop him."

After saying this, Peacock Great Ming King waved, first breaking the prohibitions on Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva, allowing them to move freely.

"Manjushri, Manjushri, both of you follow Lin Yuan's commands."

With that, Peacock Great Ming King shook his form and left the Buddha Prison.

After Peacock Great Ming King departed, Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva asked: "Lin Yuan, what should we do next?"

"This is the sect's headquarters, escaping won't be easy."

Chapter 549: Havoc in the Buddha Prison

The Medicine King Buddha has already arrived, and I'm afraid it won't be long before other Buddhas come to support.

After all, the sect's headquarters is under attack. Unless they're determined to completely break with the World Honored One, they won't just sit idly by.

Therefore, trying to fight our way out won't be easy.

Lin Yuan knew his own limits and wasn't planning to lead Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva out by fighting.

If fighting our way out isn't possible, we can sneak out.

Since the Gourmands disguised as sect members are causing trouble everywhere, the entire World Honored One Sect headquarters has turned into chaos.

Soon, once the Peacock Great Ming King keeps the sect's high-end combat powers occupied, we can take advantage of the chaos to slip away.

As for how to exploit the chaos, Lin Yuan already had an idea.

Lin Yuan took out two small basins and said to Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva, "Both of you, cut your wrists and bleed as much as you can without affecting your strength."

Manjushri Bodhisattva: "????"

Manjushri Bodhisattva: "????"

Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva were puzzled and didn't understand what Lin Yuan meant.

They didn't know why Lin Yuan needed their blood at this time.

Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva exchanged glances and, without hesitation, cut their wrists to let the blood flow into the small basins.

The two of them weren't familiar with Lin Yuan, nor did they know why he needed their blood.

Although they didn't really trust Lin Yuan, they did trust the Peacock Great Ming King.

The Peacock Great Ming King wouldn't harm them, so since he told them to listen to Lin Yuan, it was simple; they did as Lin Yuan instructed.

Soon, Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva stopped bleeding.

Even though they were Tier Two powerhouses, they couldn't lose too much blood.

Their blood contained their energy essence, losing too much could weaken their strength.

Lin Yuan looked at the two basins, each filled halfway with blood, and thought to himself that it was enough.

"Let's go!" After collecting the blood, Lin Yuan signaled Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva to get ready to leave.

Just then, a weak voice echoed from deep within the Buddha Prison: "Save me, save me!"

"Take me with you!"

Following the voice, Lin Yuan saw a green ox chained up in a distant cell, begging them for help.

This green ox also had Tier Two power and looked weak, as if it had been imprisoned there for a long time.

The Buddha Prison is the World Honored One Sect's jail.

It holds the enemies of the World Honored One.

Among those prisoners, there were indeed some strong individuals.

Your enemy's enemy is your friend!

The outside is already chaotic enough, so why not make it even more chaotic?

"Hold on!" Lin Yuan stopped and told Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva, "I'll prepare outside; you two go release the prisoners held here."

"After releasing them, have the prisoners join you in freeing the others as quickly as possible. Then gather everyone and charge outside."

"Go, and make it quick!"

After hearing Lin Yuan's instructions, Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva didn't hesitate and went to release the prisoners.

They had been held there for several days themselves, and the prisoners were their fellow inmates in a way.

Releasing these fellow inmates would make the outside even more chaotic, increasing their chances of escape.

....

....

After instructing Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva to release the prisoners, Lin Yuan went outside to prepare.

He distributed the blood of Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva to the Gourmands outside.

Once the Gourmands ingested Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva's blood, they immediately transformed into Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva.

At this time, the area outside the Buddha Prison was filled with Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva everywhere.

The Gourmands' transformation wasn't just some illusionary magic, but a change from inside out.

Even a Tier Two Peak Powerhouse couldn't tell the real from the fake.

Meanwhile, the Medicine King Buddha also arrived near the Buddha Prison.

Seeing the mountains and fields filled with Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva left the Medicine King Buddha stunned.

Medicine King Buddha: "???"

At this moment, Medicine King Buddha's mind was buzzing; he couldn't fathom why there were so many Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva everywhere.

"See clearly with the mind, open the mind's eye!" Medicine King Buddha chanted a spell to reveal the truth.

A Buddha's Radiance burst from his forehead.

As it swept over the "Manjushri Bodhisattva" and "Manjushri Bodhisattva" below, within his Buddha's Radiance vision, they all appeared genuine.

They were all real, leaving the Medicine King Buddha at a loss.

It was clear that the Peacock Great Ming King's aim was to rob Buddha Prison and rescue Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva.

Obviously, not all these "Manjushri Bodhisattva" and "Manjushri Bodhisattva" could be genuine.

Yet the Medicine King Buddha couldn't tell them apart.

If he couldn't distinguish them, what should he do?

Should he just let Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva blend in with these fake ones and escape?

Impossible, absolutely impossible.

Since the establishment of the World Honored One Sect, no one has ever escaped from Buddha Prison.

This is the first time something like robbing Buddha Prison has happened.

If Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva were allowed to leave, the sect would lose face.

With this in mind, the Medicine King Buddha decisively ordered, "All sect members, if you see Manjushri Bodhisattva or Manjushri Bodhisattva, attack immediately and kill them."

"Don't bother capturing them alive, dead or alive doesn't matter."

The Medicine King Buddha thought, since he couldn't discern the real ones among the throngs of "Manjushri Bodhisattva" and "Manjushri Bodhisattva," he might as well kill them all.

Since there must be real ones among them, and by killing them all, the real one would be dead too.

Although the Medicine King Buddha's plan was cruel, it was effective.

At that moment, the Peacock Great Ming King rushed out from Buddha Prison, shouting, "Medicine King Buddha, I've waited for this battle a long time."

"Come on, let's have a showdown."

The Peacock Great Ming King and the Medicine King Buddha were truly enemies meeting on the battlefield with blazing fury!

Back then, the Medicine King Buddha envied the Peacock Great Ming King's position, and repeatedly plotted against him.

The Peacock Great Ming King's defection was largely due to his ostracism.

The Medicine King Buddha bore at least half the responsibility for the Peacock Great Ming King's defection.

Seeing the hatred in the Peacock Great Ming King's eyes, the Medicine King Buddha, despite his fear, gritted his teeth and said, "Kong Xuan, hold your arrogance."

"Don't forget where you are."

Chapter 550: One Against Five, the Advantage Is Mine

If it were somewhere else, the Medicine King Buddha encountered the Peacock Great Ming King.

He would definitely turn around and run without a second thought.

After all, though both are Tier Two Peak Experts, he knows his worth.

No matter what, he is not a match for the Peacock Great Ming King.

If caught by the Peacock Great Ming King, he would have a score to settle, grievances to avenge, and he would suffer terribly.

But now it's different.

This is the sect headquarters, it won't be long before his support arrives.

"Don't care where this is!"

"Today, since I've come to kill, you must pay the price for what you did back then!" The Peacock Great Ming King spoke coldly, carrying a heavy killing intent.

The Medicine King Buddha also knows he is definitely not a match for the Peacock Great Ming King.

Thus, he wisely takes the initiative to attack.

To strike first is to delay as much time as possible, the Medicine King Buddha knows his support will arrive soon.

The Medicine King Buddha offered up a white jade sculpted mushroom-head object.

This mushroom-head toy, isn't it supposed to be used by women?

Why does the Medicine King Buddha, a man, have this thing?

Looking closely, it turns out the thing offered by the Medicine King Buddha isn't the type of mushroom-head toy used by women.

Rather, it's a pestle for grinding medicine.

The Medicine King Buddha's origin was as the World Honored's attendant.

This pestle dates back to when the World Honored had not yet attained the Tao, and the Medicine King Buddha was just a little attendant.

This pestle has been around ever since.

After years of consecration by the Medicine King Buddha, it can be said it's his most important treasure.

The Medicine King Buddha raised the pestle and aimed it right at the Peacock Great Ming King.

The Peacock Great Ming King, unyielding, directly cast out the Five-Colored Divine Light towards the pestle.

The Peacock Great Ming King's Five-Colored Divine Light is indeed powerful.

Since the Peacock Great Ming King debuted, his Five-Colored Divine Light has only been broken by the World Honored once.

Since then, no one has ever broken the Five-Colored Divine Light of the Peacock Great Ming King.

So it is to say, since the Peacock Great Ming King debuted, he only lost to the World Honored in that battle.

From that point, the Peacock Great Ming King never suffered defeat again.

"Boom!"

"Boom! Boom!"

In the sky, the Peacock Great Ming King's Five-Colored Divine Light and the Medicine King Buddha's pestle collided.

Clearly, it was still the Peacock Great Ming King who held the upper hand.

With each collision between the Five-Colored Divine Light and the pestle, the pestle grew slightly thinner.

After three collisions, the pestle was only half of its original thickness.

At most, after three more collisions, the Medicine King Buddha's prized pestle would be completely ruined.

Just then, four radiant beams appeared around the Peacock Great Ming King.

The Medicine King Buddha's support arrived: four Buddhas, four Tier Two Peak Experts.

However, the Peacock Great Ming King did not panic; it was all within his expectations.

Including the Medicine King Buddha, there were only five Buddhas.

One against five, the advantage was his.

"Treasure-Born Buddha, Lushana Buddha, Celestial Drum Thunder Sound Buddha, One-Character Golden Tripod Buddha, as expected, it's you four, I knew you would definitely come!"

"You fence-sitters, swaying whichever way the wind blows. Not willing for the World Honored to attain the Tao, cutting off everyone else's path to the Tao."

"And yet, afraid to offend the World Honored, not daring to attain the Tao with him."

"Do you really think opportunity will just come to you?" The Peacock Great Ming King withdrew the Five-Colored Divine Light, standing unfazed, fearless.

Facing five enemies alone, the Peacock Great Ming King showed no panic and even lectured them.

As the saying goes, you don't hit a person in the face or reveal their shortcomings when scolding.

The Peacock Great Ming King's every word stabbed at their hearts!

The four Buddhas before him, like the Joyful Buddha and Golden Wheel Buddha, were of the neutral faction.

Initially, they did not want to help the Medicine King Buddha.

However, the Peacock Great Ming King dared to attack the headquarters brazenly.

If the headquarters were attacked and they still ignored it, then they wouldn't be the neutral faction, but rather the opposition.

No one among them had the courage to be the World Honored's opposition, fearing retribution afterward.

Thus, in their view, it was all the Peacock Great Ming King's fault.

Why did the Peacock Great Ming King have to make a scene at the sect headquarters?

If the Peacock Great Ming King hadn't come to the sect headquarters to cause trouble, they could have continued to fish in troubled waters.

These four Buddhas were already in a bad mood, made worse by the Peacock Great Ming King's lecture.

Lushana Buddha suppressed the anger in his heart, stepped forward, and said to the Peacock Great Ming King, "Kong Xuan, I'll address you as Great Ming King once more."

"We are, after all, colleagues for many years, with some dealings, barely friends."

"We don't want to be your enemies; if you know what's best, leave now and we won't act against you."

Lushana Buddha and the others only wanted to avoid conflict and didn't wish to fight Kong Xuan, the exceptional and feared foe.

So if they could persuade him to leave, that would be ideal.

Leave right now?

Could the Peacock Great Ming King leave?

Absolutely not!

He came here to rescue Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva.

Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva hadn't escaped danger yet; if he left now, they'd be in jeopardy.

"Colleagues, dealings, friends?" The Peacock Great Ming King repeated these key words, then with a look of displeasure said to Lushana Buddha, "I'm telling you, if you're speaking, do it properly, don't insult me, okay?"

Lushana Buddha: "???"

Lushana Buddha was bewildered at first but quickly realized the Peacock Great Ming King was mocking them.

At this moment, the Medicine King Buddha spoke up, "He won't leave; he's here to rescue Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva."

"Unless Manjushri Bodhisattva and Manjushri Bodhisattva leave, he definitely won't go."

"What?" The towering and muscular Celestial Drum Thunder Sound Buddha exclaimed, "Great Ming King, you have the boldness to rob Buddha Prison."

"Ha!" The Peacock Great Ming King sneered twice, saying, "Not just robbing Buddha Prison, Avalokiteśvara has already gone to kill Lady Ming King."

"Today rob Buddha Prison, kill Lady Ming King, another day kill the World Honored, overturn this ridiculous sect."

Upon hearing this, the Buddhas present were all shaken.

If Buddha Prison were robbed and Lady Ming King killed,

then undoubtedly, the World Honored would fly into a rage.

Indeed, the World Honored's fury might extend to them.

Clearly, today they had no choice but to fight, take down the Peacock Great Ming King, and give the World Honored a reason.

"Act!"

"Take him down!" Lushana Buddha and the other Buddhas exchanged glances and said in unison.

Thus, five Buddhas together moved against the Peacock Great Ming King.

At that moment, in the sky, colorful energy shockwaves scattered everywhere, stirring up stormy energy gales.
