Chapter 1091 Qiwuhai is eyeing me, and I am eyeing Qiwuhai

When the dragon people are attacked that day, the admiral will dispatch to retaliate. This is common sense at sea.

There are countless people who hate Tianlong people, but most of them are afraid of the opponent's power and dare not resist. The general's deterrence is also an important factor.

More than a year ago, the Celestial Dragons that Luffy beat would cause the yellow monkeys to dispatch directly, but now, the navy has not done so. One of the reasons is the replacement of the general.

Akainu was promoted to Marshal, Kuzan resigned and temporarily joined Hundred Beasts, and the original three generals were only Kizaru.

But compared with the period when the Warring States period was the marshal, the overall strength of the navy has declined.

As admirals of the navy, it is also their responsibility to guard Marie Joa. Originally, this matter was rotated by the three generals, but the newly joined Green Ox and Fujitora were not enough to make people feel at ease. ape.

Without the mobility of the yellow monkey, relying on the anti-gravity flight of Fujitora and the "plant bamboo dragonfly" of the green cow, Wald would have disappeared long ago when they flew to the place.

He is not a newcomer waiting to go to the new world in the Chambord Islands, but a world destroyer who has made a name for himself thirty years ago. His character makes the world government have to be careful. No one knows how this madman can be. do something.

Furthermore, Fujitora's character doesn't like Tianlong people. If he is asked to go out to do this kind of thing, there is a high probability that he will not work hard.

Green Bull supports the Tianlong people and the world government, but it doesn't have the ability to move at high speed like the yellow ape, nor does it have the trust of a veteran general like the yellow ape.

"According to unreliable sources, Wald seems to want to retaliate against the World Government, but the specifics are unknown. This is the latest news. If you have nothing else, then I will go and prepare today's itinerary for Governor Kaido."

"Go."

Baohuang walked out of the office backwards and started a new round of task reporting, and Wald's matter was not taken seriously. He was Kaido's defeated 30 years ago, and now, he will not be Kaido. There are many opponents.

In the first half of the great voyage, members of the Walder Pirates also gathered together on the newly built ship of the Walder Pirates, but his old subordinates were a little worried about Walder's recent actions.

"Bing Jack, isn't Captain Walder too irritable?"

In the previous attack on the Tianlong people, he disliked that the manpower he sent out was too slow, so he simply launched an indiscriminate attack.

People who disobey orders, fail to complete orders within the stipulated time, fail to fight for him, and fail to die for him have no value in his eyes. Compared with Wald thirty years ago, Wald at this time has become more callous.

"There's nothing to do about it. After all, he was attacked by an undercover CP at the time, and he didn't trust these people at all, even if I recruited them with great difficulty in the past thirty years. Ahem"

While speaking, Binjack coughed. Although he is a brother, he does not have the physique of Wald. After thirty years of wind and rain, he is already plagued by old diseases. Naiqin has prepared several medicines for him and is slowly recuperating.

"But no matter what, Wald is "resurrected" after all, so we can too."

Before Binjack finished speaking, the cannon on the ship blasted a cannonball into the distance. With the multiplication fruit of Wald multiplied by a hundred times, the cannon flattened the surface objects of the target island with just one blow.

"Wa! Gailam, Naiqin, Sebastian, Bin Jack, you have worked hard all these years.nOVeLusB.cOm

This is the ship we wanted to build thirty years ago, and now it has finally come true. With this giant cannon and my ability, even the World Government and Marie Gioia will be wiped out in an instant!

Now that we are ready, let's have a big fight! Wow! "

Although he lost to Kaido at the time, Walder put more hatred on the world government who arranged for people to stab him in the back. Compared with the powerful enemies in the front, people who play tricks and tricks are more irritating.

Being frozen for thirty years, Wald's heart is still in prison, and the hatred in his heart has not eased with the passage of time.

But just as he swells, Binjack pours cold water on him.

"Ahem, Wald, this matter may not go so smoothly, ahem"

"Um?"

"Because of your previous actions against the Celestial Dragons, the World Government has confirmed your news."

"Hmph, that's what I did, nothing to be afraid of."

"But in order to deal with us, they are said to have summoned Shichibukai, the king."

"Shichibukai? Are you sure, Binjack."

Listening to Bin Jack's words, Nainin had a bad premonition. Beasts have dealt with Qiwuhai all these years, and Nainin is also very aware of the strength of those Qiwuhai. Each of them is a powerful monster. Let them gather together words together.

"OK, my information will not be wrong."

"Shichibukai? What is that?"

Wald was imprisoned too early. At that time, even Crocodile was not the king of Shichibukai. This word was completely unfamiliar to Wald.

"By the way, you have been imprisoned for the past 30 years, so you don't know that the so-called Shichibukai is the pirates recognized by the world government with a license to plunder. As a price, they have to act as lackeys to obey the orders of the world government.

Although they are running dogs, their strength should not be underestimated. They have already accepted the call this morning."

"This morning? Isn't that just right, just make good use of it, Binjack, who is the closest lackey here?"

"This. Doflamingo from Dressrosa, Jinbei from New Murloc Island, and Boa Hancock from Hydra Island, the three of them are all about the same distance. Cough cough, Walder, what do you want to do? ?"

As his own brother, Binjack once thought he knew Walder well, but now Walder seems to be a different person, and even he feels strange.

"What to do? Since those lackeys want to help the world government deal with us, then we should take the first step and kill these so-called Qiwuhai first.

Doflamingo and Jinbei are both in the New World, so let's start with the so-called Pirate Queen! Set off! "

At this time, Wald had already become self-willed, and he would not listen to anyone's opinions on the things he decided. Bin Jack and others had no choice but to change their course and move towards the direction of the Nine Snakes.

At this time, Shichibukai has accepted the call of the world government and walked on the road, but he regrets it a bit.

"Roronoa, the biggest mistake I made was trusting your sense of direction!"

Chapter 1092 The truth is always not accepted by the world

I don't know which sea area it is, and Hawkeye, who just took a nap, doesn't know what to say.

He will generally save face when summoned by the world government, depending on the level of the opponent. If it can make him interested, then he doesn't mind moving his hands and feet when he is bored.

The World Government is well aware of Wald's ability, and he was named the World Destroyer because of his indiscriminate destructive behavior thirty years ago.

Navy, pirates, world government, anyone who stands in front of him will be attacked by him.

Because of this, the world government doesn't want Wald to get too close to Mary Gioia.

Their order to Shichibukai is to stop Wald nearby, to prevent him from threatening Mary Gioia's safety and destroying the face of the World Government. nOVeLusB.com

The work of guarding Marie Gioia does not require the Shichibukai, and the generals stationed there are not simple-minded, and Marie Gioia still has some strange force.

The mysterious Knights of God, and the five old stars who can be delayed by the old Cobra, the current security of Marie Gioia is enough to make Quinn laugh to death, no matter how bad it is, there will be no Arceus or The case of a small hole in the wall of Kaido's room.

If there is, it must be a big hole, and it was made by Kaido and Yamato.

All in all, Hawkeye didn't intend to go directly to Mary Gioia, but only planned to move around, so he brought out Zoro who was photographed by the bear on Kraigana Island.

According to the original timeline, he should take Perona with him when he goes out, but now Perona is living a leisurely lunch break in the basement. Apart from Sauron, there are only baboons on Kraigana Island.

But now Hawkeye felt that he might as well bring some baboons.

Planning to bring Sauron to see the world is one thing. On the other hand, Hawkeye needs a power device to drive his boat, and Sauron acts as the human rowing machine.

He knew that Sauron was a little road-crazy and always lost his way in the castle, but now it was different. His task was to row the boat in a straight line in the direction of the record pointer. Hawkeye never thought of it, so he could steer the boat sideways.

Bass!

The knife flashed, and a sea king was cut in half by the eagle eye. At this time, the sail of the boat did not show any signs of fluttering, which showed that they had come to the windless zone.

"Roronoa, you are the first one who can do this kind of thing."

"Damn, what does this have to do with me?! This ship came here out of nowhere, and I'm just paddling!"

"Oh, it doesn't matter, just let me see your achievements over the past year, Roronoa, your next task is to take this ship away from this Neptune's lair! A little to the left!"

Hawkeye just wanted to say that he wouldn't help, but the reality told him that if they didn't help control the direction, they would never even think of reaching the scheduled location in this life.

Marin Fando, the reconstruction here is still going on, and the structure of the house has reappeared on the wasteland of the war, but it is not easy to reproduce the prosperity before the war on the top.

"That's right, but a Tianlong man said that seeing me upset him, and he was going to sentence me to death. This is really terrible, so I came back first, anyway, Mary Joa is not far from here, enough for me to go there gone."

Huang Yuan sat on the sofa in the office with his legs crossed, complaining about the bad behavior of the Tianlong people.

Just looking at his expression, he didn't take this kind of thing to heart at all. The admiral has his own patience in this regard. If he couldn't help it, he should have been **** off.

"And shouldn't you be in G1 now? Sakaski, that's the new headquarters you decided on."

"Many institutions have not been transferred, and this matter will take time."

On the chief seat in the Marshal's office, the figure of Warring States has dissipated, replaced by the figure of Sakasky, but he is not very happy now.

"Speaking of which, Wald is really a mad dog, attacking anyone."

"It's just a guy who has been frozen in Imperton, but people from the world government actually passed us and directly issued a summoning order"

Strictly speaking, both the Shichibukai and the Navy are just agencies under the command of the World Government, but in most cases, the World Government will first notify the Navy, and then the Navy will call the Shichibukai. This situation is relatively rare.

"There is nothing strange about this kind of thing."

"Ms. Crane? Why are you here?"

Seeing Crane walking into the office, Kizaru put down the newspaper in his hand, and Akakenu also focused on Crane.

"It's just a little new information. Although the name of summoning Shichibukai is to prevent Walder, in fact, the world government is also worried that someone in Shichibukai will take the opportunity to mess with Walder.

Until thirty years ago, he was known as the World Destroyer, and the World Government was still very scruples about his power.

The 100-fold increase in speed and size of the multiplication fruit has too much influence on weapons.

But their convening was not so smooth. "

The navy also has its own news channel, and they can also know some news that the world government has not notified.

"Anything special?"

"The summoning order of the World Government was issued about three days ago, and after the Tianlong people were attacked, they directly summoned Qiwuhai.

But so far, only Qianliangdaohua-Baki has clearly responded to the call of the world government and arrived at the predetermined position.

Both Doflamingo and Jinbe used the reason that their own territory must be protected, and they were only active in the periphery of the new world, and the Pirate Queen did not respond.

Trafalgar Law seems to have some new agreement with the World Government. As for Hawkeye, he said he was here, but the latest news says that he got lost and may be absent from this convening. "

Doflamingo's and Jinbe's reasons are barely plausible, but Hawkeye's reasons are different.

The credibility is extremely low, and the world government doesn't believe this kind of thing at all, and regards this reason as an extremely perfunctory excuse.

"It's a group of lawless guys preparing warships. The navy is not dead yet. The navy is capable of handling this kind of thing. There is no need to rely on those pirates."

Listening to Crane's information, Akainu didn't continue to wait, but chose to take the initiative.

While the navy began to move, Wald's giant ship also began to move in the waters near Nine Snake Island.

It's just that his subordinates have different voices about Wald's actions.

"Captain Walder, it's better to change the target, this is not a wise decision"

Chapter 1093 The plan to die before leaving the teacher

"Naychen? What are you talking about, why did you change the target?"

In the command room, Naiqin raised objections again, which made Wald very unhappy, but after all, Naiqin is one of his few surviving cadres, so Wald is still willing to listen to the reasons.

But it's just to listen to the reason, no matter what, his decision will not change.

"Boa Hancock is different. Although she is Shichibukai, she has a close relationship with the Beast Pirates. Attacking her is not only a slap in the face of the World Government, but also provokes the beasts.

His title of being the strongest after the war is almost unshakable, it's not worth it, Captain Wald, and you were the one"

"Enough! That was just my carelessness!"

Seeing that Naiqin wanted to bring up the original battle, Wald interrupted him directly.

Wald's prison life is different from other prisoners. Other prisoners are bound by sea tower stone chains, and their lives are wasted in endless darkness.

Very few people will continue to temper themselves in prison, such as Barrett, he was also constantly exercising during the days of his arrest, even in Infinity Hell, he is still a top powerhouse.

Ke Wald has been frozen since the day he was imprisoned. He has not experienced the feeling of being imprisoned. To him, these thirty years are nothing more than a sleep.

Wald's perception of the outside world is still at the level of thirty years ago. In his heart, he is still the feared destroyer of the world.

"But."

"Naiqin, that's enough cough cough, you should leave now. cough cough."

Seeing that Walder was about to get angry, Binjack hurriedly stopped Naiqin from trying to dissuade him. He and Walder are brothers, so Walder can still listen to him a few more words, but others will not Certainly.

"Wald, Naiqin is also kind. In fact, I don't quite agree with this plan, or we should."

"Stop talking, the plan won't change."

"Wald"

"I heard that Naiqin has been in the Beasts Pirates all these years? It seems that she is no longer the ship doctor she used to be."

"No, ahem, everyone has worked hard these years. This is just a way of life, and the key parts of this ship are all supplemented by Naiqin. Without her, this ship may not be able to be completed today."

Bing Jack was explaining for Naiqin, but he didn't listen to Walder's impatient expression, but talked about other things instead.

"That woman is just a stepping stone. My goal is to use this woman who has been recruited by the World Government as a shield. As long as I can reach Marlin Vandor smoothly, I can fire that giant cannon at Marie Gioia from there.

Just imagine, Mary Gioia being blown away, and the marines foaming at the mouth, what a beautiful sight that would be! Wow! "

"Ahem, Wald! Wasn't that cannon and this ship originally a symbol of our freedom?!"

"That's why they are used to attack the world government! They are the biggest enemies of our freedom! You just need to obey the orders obediently, and my orders are absolute, even if you are my eldest brother!"

Go ahead and end the fight as quickly as possible before they react. "

Bing Jack's persuasion didn't work after all. When he appeared in front of Naiqin again, he just shook his head helplessly.

"Bing Jack, I don't worry about anything else, but Captain Walder is like this. The danger is himself."

Jack Bin thought of decades ago, when they went to sea with a yearning for freedom, but today, he can no longer see the original intention.

"There is no way. Unless you lose, Walder will not give up now. Naiqin, you are not considered a combatant. If you are too embarrassed, don't participate in this matter. I will talk to Walder."

After leaving such a sentence, Binjack began to perfect Wald's plan. He hoped to launch a surprise attack when the enemy did not react. According to the habit of Nine Snakes, they would not pay attention to the ships outside the calm zone.

Under Binjack's order, Wald's ship began to dive, and the submarine disappeared on the surface of the sea. Diving is one of the capabilities of this ship. In order to build this ship, they have invested a lot of energy.

Bing Jack intends to sneak in quietly by using the habit of Nine Snakes, but Bin Jack doesn't know that their whereabouts have been discovered.

"Captain Bucky! I found Walder's ship, and their target seems to be Nine Snakes!"

"Captain Bucky, Walder's ship has started to dive, what should we do?!"

【Damn it, why is it such a coincidence.】

Bucky did accept the call, but he just came to join in the fun. In his opinion, so many people can fish in troubled waters by themselves, and there is no need to fight head-on. He didn't expect to bump into this group of people directly.

"Captain Bucky, just kill him, and use his head as a memorial for you becoming Qibukai."

"Yes, as long as you kill Walder, captain, the world government and navy will treat us differently, so you can become famous in one fell swoop!"

"Celebrity? Sounds good"

"Hey, Bucky, would you like to hear what you're saying? Do you really want to kill that Walder?!"

Seeing that Bucky was bewitched by his fame, Mr. 3 tried to calm him down. He is one of the few normal people in the Bucky Pirates.

"No, this is an opportunity. If this guy's target is Kusnake, just let the Pirate Empress fight him, and then we will take the opportunity to sneak attack 3. I have a plan."

"What are you going to do?"

"Send a notice to Pirate Empress first, telling her that Wald is going to attack her.

Wait a while before notifying the Navy Headquarters, saying that the Bucky Pirates are teaming up with the Nine Snake Pirates to attack the Walder Pirates.

It's not far from Marin Vando, and the navy will come over soon. We just need to watch from the sidelines and make a symbolic move at the last moment, hahaha! Let's do it!

The navy will know how powerful I am, and Nine Snakes will also owe us a favor. I really am a genius! "

In just a few minutes, Bucky has planned a plan that he thinks is perfect, but he has neglected a very important thing.

"Hey, are you the Nine Snake Pirates? We are the Bucky Pirates. Walder has already passed towards you. Captain Bucky said that he can help if necessary. What? You guys hello?!"

"What's wrong?"

"Captain Bucky, the other side said that they haven't heard of Bucky, if they dare to disturb them, even you will be killed together."novelusb.com

24 days a day

Chapter 1094 Indirect liability relationship

"Captain Bucky, what should we do now?"

"That's right, those women don't even know your name, so just kill them and Walder together!"

If you want to find a group of the bravest younger brothers in the sea, then Bucky's younger brothers will definitely be selected, not because of their strength, but because this group of people has obsessive confidence in Bucky.

In their hearts, Bucky is the punching general, kicking the Four Emperors, the leading legendary figure in the sea, and different from those who think he is the only stain on Roger's ship, in the hearts of these pirates, Bucky is the only one god.

With the end of the Dingshang War, this misunderstanding not only has not been eliminated by chance, but also gradually deepened with Bucky's increasingly novel brain circuits.

At the beginning, they all dared to believe that Bucky wanted to take off Whitebeard's head. In their view, Bucky's declaration of war on a Shichibukai was a matter of ease.novelusb.com

But Bucky didn't think so. In the war on the top, others were fighting for life and death, but Bucky was recognizing the world.

At the beginning, those Shichibukai were all monsters. Even Moria, who had suffered a huge setback and turned into a fat house, was not something he could deal with, especially Boa Hancock, who attacked unreasonably and indiscriminately on the battlefield.

Whether it's a pirate or a navy, they are all her targets, and Bucky doesn't want to be kicked into a stone statue.

"This. Is that so. This matter is not that simple, we must first."

Bucky thought hard to find a reason to fool his younger brother, but as a qualified brain monster, the first thing to do is not to embarrass the boss. Before Bucky could speak, someone had already thought of a reason for him.

"Idiot! Master Bucky still needs the identity of Shichibukai, how can he fight Qibukai at this time? This will affect Lord Bucky's future plans! Don't you think so, Lord Bucky."

"Ah, yes, that's right, that's it. In short, follow up quietly. My uncle has his own arrangements."

Being moved by my little brother's confusion, Bucky's boat also sailed in the direction of the nine snakes. During this process, Mr. 3 also came to Bucky's side.

"I said Bucky, what exactly is your plan?"

"how could I know."

"What did you say?!"

"Calm down, calm down, Mr. 3, the boat will be straight when it reaches the bridge, there will always be a way."

"I'm afraid you want the boat to sink naturally at the bridge."

Whether it is Bucky or Wald, they are still some distance away from Hydra Island.

For Nine Snakes, they rejected Bucky's "good intentions", but Bucky's words still had some effect.

"Wald, grandma, does this name sound familiar?"

"Of course it sounds familiar! He was the one that the world government summoned you to deal with before! But you just threw away the bat biography without even reading it!"

Snake Princess, you are the king of Amazon Lily, you can't be so capricious about this kind of thing."

"Enough, I just asked casually, I don't need you to explain so much."

Gu Loliosa's words were not taken seriously by Hancock, and even the citizens of Nine Snakes next to him were not surprised by this kind of thing, they had long been used to Hancock's attitude.

Even if Gu Luoliosa thinks that this is not the attitude that a king should have, but due to Hancock's own strength, she is only supporting Hancock and thinking of some countermeasures for Hancock.

"Walder, isn't that Aunt Naiqin's pirate group? Aunt Naiqin and the others have been waiting for Wald for thirty years. Has he done anything?"

"Grandma, my concubine is suddenly interested in this matter, please explain in detail."

Olga's words made Hancock change his attitude in an instant, and Guroliosa's hand was placed on his forehead helplessly again, and he was no stranger to such things.

"Attacking the nobles of the world, attacking the navy, and attacking pirates, since Wald, who escaped from prison, started his activities, everything on the sea has become his target of attack.

It was because of this incident that the pirates panicked at the beginning. If I remember correctly, some pirates even planned to join hands with the navy to kill Walder first, but in the end it didn't matter. "

"That's right, after all, he was defeated by Captain Kaido at that time, and he seemed to be imprisoned afterwards.

Thirty years have passed, how time flies. "

"Yes, I was still young at that time"

Guroliosa suddenly recalled the past, but Olga could still speak in this regard, and all this made Hancock feel a little overwhelmed.

"Wait, Sister Olga, did you join the Beasts thirty years ago?"

"Didn't I tell you? I'm the elder."

"Then how old are you this year?"

Olga's appearance and growth rate make it easy for people to forget her real age. Even Hancock didn't delve into this issue, but now she suddenly became curious.

"I'm going to be 205 years old this year, and I'll be 206 years later. If I'm not mistaken, that's how it is."

Olga began to ignore the passage of time due to her own experience. After all, looking at the individual situation alone, even the giants are not as good as her.

"205 Sister Olga, you are joking again."

This is older than Hancock's great-grandmother. If you look at it this way, Guroliosa would have to call Olga mother-in-law.

It is not a question that Hancock cares about whether he is young or not, she knows that Olga is much older than she looks. But if the gap is so big, she will still have a headache.

Because Olga often jokes in a bad manner, her truth is not so easy to believe.

In the end, Olga's answer was taken by Hancock as a perfunctory excuse for Olga not wanting to answer her real age. It is reasonable for girls to keep their age secret.

With Wald as the center, they chatted about some other things.

But not long after, the roar of the explosion suddenly reached their ears, and even the curtains of the Nine Snake Palace fluttered under the influence of the explosion.

"Master Snake! It is... an island! An island suddenly appeared outside of us and bombarded the sea next to it!"

"Boa Hancock! You, a lackey of the world government, if you don't come out, the next shell will not hit the sea!"

Wald's voice reached Hancock's ears through the loudspeaker, and the island in the eyes of the Nine Snake warriors was Wald's ship. Its size was comparable to Moria's terrifying three-masted sailing ship.

Wald wanted to use the living Hancock to go to Marlin Vandor, so he only bombarded the sea surface. The lethality of the artillery is a mystery. Even the strong may die under the explosion for no reason.

"How did they get here?!"

Hearing that the enemy had broken through the windless belt and reached the edge of the Nine Snakes, Guloriosa's expression changed. Hancock ignored Bucky, but Guloriosa still took those words to heart. Already arranged for other people to strengthen the surrounding vigilance.

But her vigilance didn't work, and even the windless belt around the Nine Snakes lost its defensive function.

"It's underwater, mother-in-law, that boat suddenly emerged from the water."

"Is it actually underwater?"

"Okay, mother-in-law, don't worry about how he got here, the next thing will be left to my concubine."

Hancock's brows have already turned livid. Bucky's purpose of calling is to inform, and strictly speaking, he is one of his own. He doesn't get a good face like this, let alone Wald who called at the door.

Now Hancock is very angry. Even if she puts aside her personal emotions, she is still the king of Nine Snakes. The people of Nine Snakes can tolerate Hancock's willfulness largely because she is strong enough to protect the safety of Nine Snakes.

"Wait, I'll go with you."

"Sister Olga, this is a matter of Nine Snakes, you don't need to intervene."

"No, I have a little personal matter, and it cannot be said that this matter has nothing to do with us."

"Why do you say that?"

"Well, if I remember correctly, we sold the main cannon on his ship. Wald is not a normal person in the first place. With that cannon and his fruit ability, if he is not careful, he may cause some trouble. ."

Beasts are just a seller of arms. They don't know where this thing will be used after it is sold. Sometimes the weapons sold are even used to attack themselves.

In order to deal with this situation, the specially made powerful weapons of Beasts will deliberately keep their hands hidden. This is something that only the cadres of Beasts know.

The cannon is powerful Olga knows very well that she is just taking precautions, and she is also worried about Naiqin, so she wants to go out with Hancock.

"Is that so, I understand, Mary, Sanda, you take the soldiers to prepare to deal with other enemies.

Grandma, you take ordinary citizens to evacuate. "

Facing the approaching flames of war, Hancock also showed the majesty of a king. After assigning tasks, he took the lead in walking towards the outside world.

The ordinary citizens that Hancock refers to are only the old, weak, sick and disabled. Nine Snakes are also a fighting nation. People born here will be trained as soldiers from the day they are born. Similar to the situation of the fur tribe, they can be called all soldiers. .

After receiving the news, Hancock rushed towards the direction of the sound, but Wald was getting impatient.

"Start another round of shelling, this time targeting the island directly."

Such a large battleship certainly has more than one artillery piece. Now Wald just doesn't plan to use the main gun, but it doesn't mean he won't use other weapons.

Boom! boom! boom!

"The Arrow of the Captive!"

Before the shells hit the ground, dense pink arrows streaked across the sky. Due to the superiority in numbers, the shells were hit by the arrows one after another. After losing their kinetic energy, they turned into heavy stone **** in midair and sank into the sea.

"Ability user? It's finally here"

Readers can't see the comment area these days. The reason is that they understand everything. For details, you can study today in history

Chapter 1095 Crazy

"Give me the shell." novELusb.COM

At this time, Wald is located on the "top of the mountain". According to the structure of the ship, this is a watchtower. Watching the shells being stopped by Hancock's arrows, Wald knows that the Lord has come.

I saw him reaching out his hand to Binjack, and then took a handful of walnut-sized projectiles.

This size is at best a bullet, but in Wald's hands, they can exert completely different powers.

"Double! Fifty times the gun!"

With a wave of one hand, the shotgun-like projectile suddenly became larger in mid-air, both in terms of speed and mass, which were fifty times greater than before.

This ability itself is also a headache for the world government. With this ability, even if Wald only has a handful of iron sand, he can still exert the power of artillery clusters.

Although Hancock's arrows still turned them into stone bullets in mid-air, they did not stop because of this, but continued to fly towards the inside of the Nine Snakes.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

At the same time, there was a sound of piercing through the air, and countless arrows were shot from behind Hancock. They were arrows shot by the warriors of Nine Snakes.

The well-trained women are proficient in armed domineering, and attaching it to arrows to generate explosive arrows is their forte.

"Empress, this is just to say hello, if you don't want them all to die here, just obediently follow them!"

As soon as the words fell, a group of pirates holding chains appeared on the deck of the ship. Looking at such a group of people, Hancock's already violent temper was completely ignited.

"Attacking the concubine's territory, and talking to the concubine in this tone, the old thing from thirty years ago, don't be too self-righteous!"

Most of Hancock's physical skills are on his legs, and his own jumping ability is extremely superior. With just one jump, Hancock has already crossed the distant beach and came directly to Wald's boat.

"Aromatic feet!"

Long legs swept in front of all the pirates. In normal times, these legs would be enough to make most of the pirates sluggish, but at this moment, Hancock only brought a fatal crisis.

As soon as they came into contact, those pirates were turned into stones by Hancock's ability, and this was just the beginning. If they were only turned into stones, then Hancock still had the ability to restore them.

But she is very angry now, so she kicked the enemy into pieces while turning them into stones, which also means that these people have no possibility of recovery.

"Kill her!"

"Wait, Walder, aren't we going to use her as a hostage to Marlin Vandor?"

"If you want to use this kind of person to deal with the concubine, do you just look down on the concubine? It seems that you who have been frozen for thirty years have no idea that Qi Wuhai was selected because of strength, sweet and sweet wind!"

The pink heart-shaped light waves cleaned up all the pirates on the deck. In less than a minute, only the stone statues remained on the deck.

"Why, do you still want to watch there? So you can only rely on this kind of trash? It seems that my mother-in-law's worry about you is completely unnecessary."

"It seems that you are not as useless as I imagined, did you perceive the attack of the concubine?"

Hancock didn't have the hobby of intentionally molesting others. Her kissing gun was aimed at Wald's head, but he avoided it after being perceived by his knowledge.

But this seemed to anger Wald.

"Binjack, go start that."

"But Wald"

"No, but, I changed my mind, it's better to destroy it directly, start it now!"

"yes"

Bing Jack knew that Walder was doing something wrong, but Walder was his younger brother. Even if Walder was doing something wrong, he still chose to help him. After all, Walder first went to sea to realize his ideal.

"Double multiplication · 10 times faster!"

The ability to multiply fruit was activated, and Wald's own speed was greatly enhanced, and he had already come to Hancock in a flash.

Hancock kicked forward, but it was a pity that the kick was in vain. Wald, who was boosted by ten times the speed, came behind Hancock in an instant, and swung his hands towards Hancock like a heavy hammer.

"Big Fragrant Feet!"

Hancock bent his waist into a slightly exaggerated arc, thereby avoiding Walder's attack, and took this opportunity to kick Walder with both hands on the ground.

"The level of domineering is not bad. It's a pity that people like you are willing to be the lackey of the world government."

"People like you seldom comment on concubines! Has your brain been broken after being frozen for thirty years?!"

Wald still has some foundation after all, the domineering level is enough to resist the ability of petrification, although the multiplication fruit only increases his speed, but under the absolute speed, the strength will also be increased.

Hancock himself is not a brute force player, and the wrestling with Wald did not take much advantage, and 10 times speed is far from the limit of Wald, it is just his temptation.

"Doubling · 30 times faster!"

Walder's speed has become like a ghost. At this time, the battle no longer depends on the naked eye. Hancock's knowledge has become the way to lock Walder's position. Only the remnants of Walder and Hancock's confrontation can be seen on the surface of the ship. film.

While they were fighting, a mechanical roar sounded from the ship, and a giant artillery gradually revealed its true face.

Boom!

Wald hadn't finished his sentence when black smoke rose from the giant artillery he had placed high hopes on. There were several large holes in the barrel, and the twisted barrel had lost the ability to fire shells.

Where Walder didn't notice, Olga also put away the operation manual she just got from Quinn. She left the Palace of the Nine Snakes with Hancock, but no one noticed her whereabouts.

In fact, her movements were faster than Hancock's, but she was just activating the hidden hands of the beasts left on the weapons. If possible, Olga didn't want to interfere in this matter.

Olga believes that Hancock has the ability to deal with Walder, so she just helped Hancock solve the weapon that could threaten the safety of Nine Snakes. Her ability is special, and the type like Walder can't notice Olga who deliberately hides .

But watching the artillery being destroyed, Wald's few sanity seemed to collapse again.

"Who, who betrayed Laozi again?!"

Three thousand words short, tomorrow

Chapter 1096 That adult is the concubine's mother

Betrayal, this is a hurdle in Wald's heart. Everything that happened thirty years ago is still vivid in his mind.

In order to eliminate Walder as soon as possible, the world government sent agents to join his pirate group, and gave him a fatal blow at a critical moment.

Walder was defeated, and Binjack could only order everyone to flee in order to protect the rest of the people, but this incident has become a thorn in Walder's heart.

【As the acting captain, I order you to flee immediately. There is only one next goal, to survive! 】

These are the last words of Binjack in Wald's memory. At that time, his consciousness had already become blurred due to excessive blood loss. In his heart, this was betrayal.

Betrayed, Wald no longer believed in his companions. All Wald did now was for revenge, to vent his anger to the world.

This giant cannon was the revenge tool he had hoped for, but he watched the tool collapse in front of him.

This artillery has also been tested before, even without the additional fruit ability, Wald has seen its power and quality.

In the same way that Kaido first identified the authenticity of the stone slab, punch it with the right strength.

The gun barrel could withstand his fist, how could it break by itself inexplicably, someone must have destroyed it secretly.

【You can rest assured to fight, I will take care of other problems】

These were the words left by Olga before she disappeared. At this time, Hancock fully understood the meaning of her words.

"Ah, Sister Olga is indeed very reliable. If it's not right in the future, now is not the time to think about it."

"Aromatic feet!"

Hancock kicked Walder in the chin. If it was Walder just now, with the blessing of the multiplication fruit, he could still react.

Although the effect of multiplying fruit is to increase his speed, with the blessing of dozens of times the speed, even if the knowledge-colored prediction falls to the wind, as long as the gap is not too big, he can recover with his body's reaction.

But this time he was kicked unpreparedly. If it wasn't for Wald's habit of maintaining a full-body armed state in battle, the damage caused by Hancock's kick would not only be a physical impact.

The petrification ability of the aromatic foot has nothing to do with the heartbeat or not. Once the brain is petrified, even Wald will have to hate on the spot.

"Fighting against the concubine is still distracting, do you think it's still thirty years ago?!"

Actually, Hancock is not qualified to say this, after all, she is also distracted, and the reasons for distraction are even more outrageous, but the fact is that she regains consciousness faster than Wald, so she has the upper hand in this respect

"Go away! I'll deal with you later!"

Wald raised his arm to block Hancock's blow, and then stomped on the deck with one foot, stamping a big hole in it.

The position below that happened to be the artillery control room. If he didn't clarify this matter, he would never feel at ease, and he would never be able to continue fighting Hancock.

So he ignores Hancock and just jumps.

Seeing that Walder wanted to leave like this, Hancock didn't consider whether it was a trap, and followed Walder's figure and disappeared on the deck.

"Ahem, Naiqin, what's going on with this thing?"

At this time, Binjack was trying to press some operation buttons, but no matter how hard he pressed, he didn't get any response, so he had no choice but to ask Naiqin beside him.

The production area of the artillery comes from Hundred Beasts, and Naiqin did the transaction at the beginning.

At the beginning, Binjack was very happy about this matter. No matter what it is, it will always be pleasing if it is high quality and low price.

"I do not know."

"You bought this thing, and you have lived there for so long."

"I'm not in the technical department. This thing is not in my business scope. It's more useful for you to ask Guy Ram than to ask me. Where did he and Sebastian go?"

Naiqin couldn't figure out what was wrong with this artillery. The combat cadres of Hundred Beasts knew that the weapons they sold outside had hidden hands. She had never officially joined, and she was not responsible for the frontal battle. Of course, she knew nothing about it. up.

"A ship from Shichibukai also appeared behind us, it's Senryo Baki, Guy Ram and Sabastian are going to deal with him, and they also want to do their part for Wald.

You are not good at direct combat, so I didn't tell you. "

At this moment, the wall above was suddenly shattered, and Wald also appeared in front of Naiqin and Binjack.

"Heh, so it was just the two of you here, right?"

"Wald? Ahem. Aren't you fighting?"

"If I continue to fight, who knows what you will do, the machine will not break down inexplicably, Gai Ram and Sebastian are not here.

This cannon was brought back by you, Naiqin. I'm afraid you know its structure better, and you are the one who destroyed it. "

"Wald?! Kekekekeke, do you know what you're talking about?! You doubt your companion?!"

Before Naiqin could speak, Binjack complained for her first. How many thirty years can there be in the world, and what they have insisted on for Walder for thirty years now is actually Walder's suspicion.

"I didn't mention you, why are you excited? Or did you two do this? Also, since I proposed this plan, you don't agree with me. It's really disappointing, big brother."

"Ahem, Wald you"

At this moment, Binjack felt his legs lose strength, not because he betrayed Walder, nor was he frightened by Walder's aura, but because of Walder's distrust.

These words almost drained all of Binjack's strength, but Binjack still underestimated Walder's awakening at this time, and he grabbed a few pieces of gravel in his hands, and then he was about to throw them in the direction of Naiqin and Binjack .

"Stop this concubine!"

"Meddle in your own business, you really have a problem."

"Shut up! Heartless person, you don't care what your elder brother does, but you are not allowed to hurt that lady, because that lady is the concubine's mother!"

Hancock put on a gesture of contempt, but because the contempt was too much, it turned into a different kind of looking up. At this time, she pointed at Wald with one finger, and then said something amazing, saying something unbelievable. if.

There was a ding bang, and a pile of things in the corner were scattered all over the ground. In a place that was ignored by everyone, Olga slipped and fell directly knocked down the debris piled aside.

"Elizabeth, help me, what did she just say?! When did she have this relationship with Aunt Naiqin?!"

Olga has performed countless missions, ranging from sneaking into the Navy branch to fish for Kaido, to sailing a boat to fool the red hair, and this is the first time such an accident has occurred.

"I think she misunderstood the relationship between you. Assie's worry is not unreasonable."

"There is nothing wrong with ordinary girlfriends."

Not to mention that Olga didn't slow down, even Binjack and Wald, and even Naiqin himself were shocked by Hancock's words.

"Ahem. The Pirate Empress should be 30 years old this year. Ahem... Naiqin, do you mean? She is your daughter?"

The bottle holder in Bin Jack's hand fell to the side, but he didn't rush to pick it up, but counted the age in the information with his fingers.

"When did I have such a big daughter, why didn't I know it?! Hey! Empress, please speak clearly!"

"Ah, sorry, it's a little too early to say that."

Hancock suddenly switched to the posture of a little daughter, and even put on a shy expression, and she could vaguely hear her saying something like marriage.

If the people here are given a devil fruit that can peek into dreams and illusions at this time, then they can see a slightly weird wedding scene.

Such as weddings and dresses, Mary and Sanda as bridesmaids, and even Kaido as a witness.

It's just that this kind of thing has little to do with Wald, because of Hancock's wild thinking, Wald has completely misunderstood something.

"I understand. Do you want to betray Lao Tzu because of an illegitimate daughter? No matter what, this is an unforgivable sin. You should... die together!"

"It seems that you didn't take my concubine's words to heart at all. If I say no, I just can't!"

A gust of wind suddenly surged in the closed cabin, with Hancock as the center, and the domineering arrogance washed the surroundings. Hancock's combat power will also float within a certain range, and the floating value is usually related to the people she cares about. .

"Big Fragrant Feet!"

"Multiplied · Thirty times faster!"

Wald re-entered the fighting state, but instead of resisting Hancock's attack, he used his own speed to get rid of Hancock's entanglement.

"Little ghost, I admit that I have underestimated you, and it will take a lot of effort to hit you, but if I don't want to fight you, you can't keep me!

Experience the powerlessness, I will kill the people you hold dear in front of your face! "

Wald turned around and punched Naiqin instead.

This is also the troublesome part of multiplying fruits. Just like Wald said, if he wants to destroy it, it will be very difficult to stop him.

But at this moment, dark purple energy fluctuations had enveloped the entire ship, and nothing seemed to happen, but Wald's fist missed.

"Really, I'm sorry, Aunt Naiqin, I didn't want to show up, but your captain is even crazier than I thought."

novelUSb.com

Chapter 1097 It started as a dream and finally became an illusion

Purple energy is naturally Olga's fantasy field, just like the room of Luo's operation fruit, it is a way to display abilities.

But Zoroark's ability can not only be activated in the middle, but with this illusion domain that belongs to her, Olga can manipulate the illusion more easily.novelUSb.com

"Your speed is very fast, but if you can't hit people's attacks, what's the use of being fast?"

Olga's frontal combat power is the lowest among the disasters, and even Jack, who has just been promoted, is stronger than Olga in this respect.

Struggling hard, Olga is the bottom of the big cadres, but she is the most troublesome enemy in the eyes of outsiders.

Phantoms that are absolutely real can't even be distinguished by ordinary knowledge. If you are not familiar with her abilities, you will only be played by her. Even if you are familiar with her abilities, you still need an open place to stabilize her.

Quinn's tactics are disgusting, using toxins and parasitic seeds, plus a variety of props to gradually consume the enemy's physical strength, while Olga's ability is untouchable.

Especially in Wald's current state, he lost his composure and couldn't perform to his usual level at all.

Even if his knowledge is still above the level, he may not be able to accurately lock Olga, let alone the current state.

The more he is like this, the more he will be unable to get rid of Olga's control, and his belief will be destroyed by illusory cognition, and then he will fall into a vicious circle.

Wald is an example. In his cognition, he has achieved his goal, and he is laughing maniacally at this moment.

"Are you coughing or phantom disaster?"

"Ah, it seems that my reputation is not small now, and I was recognized immediately."

"Don't be joking, ahem, the four major disasters under Kaido's command, you have long been famous."

Bing Jack has been constantly updating information over the years, and has enough understanding of the pirates in the outside world, four generals, four disasters, the remnants of the white beard, red-haired cadres, and the Shichibukai under the command of the world government.

These are the first echelon pirates under the emperor of the sea, and they are also the big pirates that Bin Jack remembers in his heart.

"Sister Olga, I'm sorry, I have to ask you to solve the mess."

"It's nothing, I remember Captain Kaido spent a lot of time dealing with Walder, but Aunt Naiqin, your captain is not very good, I think you are a lunatic."

Olga didn't take Hancock's apology to heart, but talked about Walder's problem face to face. Now Walder has been trapped in the illusion by her. According to her control of the illusion, Walder It will be impossible to break free.

To be precise, he didn't even realize that he was already in the illusion.

It is not a good thing to say bad things about the captain in front of other members. In normal times, this sentence is enough to cause conflicts, but Binjack and Naiqin have nothing to say, after all, they have seen Wald's madness just now.

Not only did he target Naiqin, but even his elder brother was included in the attack range.

"Your thirty years are not worth it at all, why don't you go back with me, that stupid old man still has something to say to you."

"I"

"Naiqin, let's go, the current Walder Keke is no longer the original Walder, after thirty years of waiting

Now that you have a better destination, it may be more suitable for you. "

Bingjack, who was paralyzed on the ground, did not dissuade Naiqin, but persuaded her to join other forces. Even if Wald was Bingjack's younger brother, Bingjack was disappointed in him at this time.

"Wait, no, if you leave like this, Aunt Naiqin will be confirmed as a traitor, even if you want to leave, you have to leave cleanly.

To be honest, I just broke that cannon. It's not okay to let him destroy it endlessly. I plan to use illusions to let him understand what happened. Do you have anything I want to convey? "

Although Naiqin hasn't made a decision yet, Olga wants to clarify the misunderstanding first, and she doesn't want to take Naiqin back by "deceiving".

Deceit is a tactic against enemies, and she prefers sincerity when it comes to people who might be family.

Olga, who had misunderstood Assiere for more than a hundred years, knew how sad a misunderstanding is. If she couldn't explain clearly, it would be a haze that would linger in a person's life, so she made this suggestion.

Now her manipulation of illusions is even more powerful, fully capable of putting a movie in someone else's head.

"I don't know what to say to Captain Walder."

There is nothing wrong with the fact that Olga broke the cannon. This artillery did not interfere with the battle between Walder and Hancock, and Bin Jack and others did not agree with Walder's crazy actions.

It's only because he insists on doing so that he will go crazy with him.

Wald thought she was a traitor, and his merciless attack had already broken Naiqin's heart. Now Naiqin didn't know what to say.

If Wald trusted her, this situation would not have happened at all. The damage to the cannon was just an inducement. From this point of view, Wald had already lost his trust in them.

"Ahem... let me talk about this matter, ahem, Wald was not like this back then."

Bing Jack's thoughts went back to decades ago. He was still very young at that time, and he didn't have so many beards on his chin, but his body was still very bad. Unlike Wald, his body was not very good.

【Wald, you must go to sea in the future. This sea connects various countries and islands that we have never seen before. At the end of this boundless sea, there must be adventures beyond imagination waiting for you. 】

【Aren't you going, brother? 】

【Ahem, it's really unrealistic to have a body like this since childhood. 】

【Then me too】

【Do you want to live on this small island for the rest of your life? Ahem. The future of this island can be seen at a glance. You should go out, see the world and thrive, and go to the distance instead of me. 】

【Big Brother, I want to go with Big Brother, let's go around the world together, Big Brother, I will protect you! 】

"At that time, ahem, our dream was to travel around the world, which was originally our ordinary journey around the world.

A few years later, Wald grew up, he built a small boat, and took me away from the island, but we underestimated the sea."

Their boat was shipwrecked not long after, and they encountered a group of pirates when they drifted to another island. In order to protect themselves, Wald fought the enemy for the first time.

And in that battle, he seemed to have found the joy of fighting.

In the name of the Bundy brothers, the name of the Walder Pirates was launched, but in the process, their original intentions also changed.

"Our goal is freedom, but in the process of pursuing freedom, we have gradually become pirates cough cough Whether it is the navy or the world government's ships, they were defeated by Wald, and the name of world destroyer also appeared on us.

This ship, this Gulas Yadi, is our initial pursuit. I think as long as we sail underwater, we can avoid unnecessary battles and continue to travel around the world.

But Wald he. Keke cough."

Binjack said too much in one breath, coughing violently for a while, leaning against the machine behind and patting his chest.

This is an old problem, and Naiqin can't help it, but just took over the unfinished topic.

"Captain Wald thinks that a cannon plus multiplier fruit can make the enemy fearful, so he gave up fighting us. Now that I think about it, he has changed a long time ago."

Bing Jack and Naiqin are talking about the past, but there is an extra chair under Olga, and Hancock is still behind her helping her shoulders, and they are completely different from before.

"Where did this chair come from?"

"It's an illusion, although it's false, but I can trick my brain into thinking I'm sitting on a chair, so that I won't feel mentally tired.

However, the consumption of the body is still real. Sitting for a long time is the same as zama stance. "

Laziness will also promote progress. This trick is an exercise method that Olga thought of when she was young. While exercising ability, she can also exercise her body. The side effect is that it may cause muscle damage.

"I figured it out, that is to say, do you think Wald is a good person?"

"No, those of us who have embarked on this path are no longer worthy of the word, we can only say ahem, he used to be a good man and a trustworthy captain, if it wasn't for that incident"

"Forget it, it doesn't matter, in short, he had a conflict because of your "abandonment" back then, so let's repeat it again."

In Wald's cognition, the world around him suddenly shattered like a mirror, and he returned to the ship thirty years ago. The deck was full of corpses, surrounded by warships, and several CP members were attacking another Vald. Germany launched a sneak attack.

But no matter how hard he tried, he couldn't see other people's faces clearly. This was an illusion created by Olga based on the descriptions of Naiqin and Bin Jack. The reason why he couldn't see the faces clearly was that no one remembered what those costumes looked like.

"Bastard. Multiply · Hundred times shot!"

Wald grabbed a piece of sawdust on the deck and threw it forward. Not only the navy and CP, but even Bingjack and others who were trying to escape were included in his attack range.

Under Walder's attack, the illusion was shattered again, and the one in front of Walder was replaced by Olga.

"It's really ruthless. Have you seen it now? This is what your crew experienced at the time. In addition, I broke the cannon. Naiqin has been waiting for you for thirty years, so she rejected a The recruitment of a more powerful pirate group."

"So what? I knew this kind of thing a long time ago. I didn't lose consciousness at the time. If I can't let go, I just can't let go. If I don't take revenge for all this, I will not be able to calm down in my heart!

Do you think you can make me forget all this by letting me watch it again? ! Everything that happened thirty years ago is vivid in my memory! "

Wald punched Olga. Although there was a real blow on the arm, and even blood spattered out, Olga appeared on the other side unharmed.

"Don't get me wrong, I never want you to forget anything, I just want to explain something for Aunt Naiqin, and at the same time I am giving you a chance.

But at present, it seems that you have not seized this opportunity. "

Chapter 1098 Forgotten original intention, the final voyage

Will it be reality after breaking the illusion? Olga again gave a negative answer.

Even if Walder's brute force can smash a layer of illusion, the illusion is still outside the illusion. Countless illusions made of energy have already surrounded the place, and even Walder's spiritual world has been infected by the power of illusion.

Your speed is very fast, but you don't even know where the real me is, so how can you defeat me?
Diablo Blast! "

A wave of dark energy was hit by Olga to Walder. Walder wanted to take advantage of this gap to fight back, but he didn't expect that when he attacked Olga in the direction of the pain, he still failed to achieve his goal. .

In his cognition, "an Olga's body" was added again, but Olga's subsequent attacks still did not stop.

"Bastard. Hidden, have the ability to come out and fight with me?!"

Olga's voice echoed around Walder, making the already irritable Walder even more crazy, but in the eyes of outsiders, the battle situation was completely different.

Naiqin knew that Olga's ability was focused on phantom, and Bin Jack had also seen similar information, but the information on paper was much worse than the live performance.

This is far beyond Binjack's cognition. He always believes that phantoms are just a deception of human vision, and this ability is far from being a disaster.

It wasn't until he observed Walder through the monitor on the ship, but found that the illusion still existed, that he understood the horror of Olga.

And this is where Olga's ability is extremely incomprehensible. It is not difficult for someone who has the ability to break her illusion and stronger physical skills than her to knock her down.

When encountering such an enemy, Olga will throw a large number of phantom fakes to disturb the vision, and retreat as soon as possible.

But once she falls into the vortex of her illusion and cannot get out of her control, she will become a prey, and Olga will use the most stable method to gradually wear down her physical strength and look for opportunities to kill with one blow.

Wald is such an example, no matter how strong or fast he is, he cannot pose the slightest threat to Olga.

"I said, don't you have a way to calm him down? I really can only kill him if this continues."

Whether killing her former captain in front of Naiqin will affect her future life is the question that Olga struggles with, otherwise she would have had a chance to kill her long ago.

"Multiplied · Forty times shotgun!"

Before anyone could answer Olga, Wald directly started to attack indiscriminately. This is one of the situations Olga hates the most. invalid.nov&USb.cOm

Everyone's power-generating skills and energy flow when using moves are different, and Olga has no way to deceive such things she doesn't know.

She can't make an enemy into a state where they think they have launched an attack, but they have not done anything.

And Wald's indiscriminate attack was just the beginning, and then he actually started punching downwards crazily.

"Not good! Below here is the power room, Wald wants to blow up this ship... cough cough cough cough.

Boom! boom! boom!

Just as Binjack finished speaking, a series of explosions came from the outside. The explosions came from above, and obviously had nothing to do with the power room below the ship.

Hancock's phone bug also rang at this time, and Sandersonia's anxious voice came from inside.

"It's not good, sister! It's Akainu, and Akainu appeared near here with a warship. He didn't listen to my advice at all, and started to attack indiscriminately. You guys leave quickly."

At this time, the reason for the attack from above is clear. It is nothing but Akainu's Meteor Volcano.

As for Shichibukai, Akazumi doesn't care about that kind of person's life or death. For Akaken, pirates are damned bastards. It doesn't make any difference whether Qiwukai is dead or not. a good thing.

"Why did that annoying mad dog come out again? Didn't he become the admiral of the navy? Why can't he just sit in the office honestly!"

"Sister Olga, what are you going to do next?"

"It's time to withdraw, let them find out that our relationship is not good, and it will affect future actions. As for Wald, let him fend for himself here.

Don't say that I don't care about people. The illusion will be dispelled in two minutes. Whether you can leave here is your own business.

Aunt Naiqin, come with me, you, the captain, are obviously crazy, and you want to blow up this ship directly.

Once the ship and the ammunition depot below are blown up, no one on board will try to run away. Follow this kind of lunatic who doesn't trust you, and sooner or later you will get yourself into it. "

Leaving a word to Binjack, Olga took Naiqin and planned to leave here. Wald was not a threat to them at all, and there were too many people who could solve him.

And there is a red dog outside. Although Olga says he is a mad dog every day, Olga is also familiar with the character of this enemy. Wald is now the main target of the navy.

Walder will never be let go when Akainu has arrived. She is not familiar with Walder, and there is no need to help him leave. Such an unstable time bomb is not a worthwhile target.

Naiqin didn't resist either. Wald's actions one after another had already broken her heart. Thirty years of persistence only brought her doubts, which was a major blow to anyone.

The truth is already in front of Wald, and since he doesn't want to believe it, there is nothing anyone can do about it.

"Bing Jack, you can go too."

"Ahem. No need, no matter what, he is my brother after all."

Jack Bin didn't intend to leave. Now the main target of the navy is Wald. Because they disappeared for a long time, this group of old cadres has long been forgotten by the world government and the navy.

If he wants to go, he can go, but Binjack has no idea in this regard. Wald has been Binjack's spiritual sustenance for the past 30 years.

This ship is also the sustenance of dreams. Now Wald actually disregards his companions for the sake of fighting, and even wants to directly destroy his previous dreams. No, for Wald now, this ship is no longer his dream.

The changed Wald had already made Binjack desperate, and his old body did not intend to go on alone.

Bin Jack was very determined, and Olga didn't talk nonsense, but just pulled Naiqin and left here.

Under the attack of the meteor volcano, the ship gradually ignited a fire. Feeling the approaching heat wave, Binjack sighed a little.

【The ship is sinking, and this voyage should be over, but it's okay, Wald, let's start again】

Later, according to the naval battle report, the Bundy brothers launched a desperate charge to the navy after being besieged, and eventually lost to the enemy and died at the hands of Akainu

Chapter 1099 Refreshed record

"It's all over."

"Yeah, it's all over"

On Hydra's Perfume Snake, Hancock and Olga, who withdrew in time, watched the Gulas Yadi gradually fall into the flames. The flag belonging to Wald burned out in the flames, and Wald's life was also destroyed. It has come to an end.

"He used to be. It wasn't like this. Wald still loved his companion decades ago. That time Binjack was captured, and we chased him for a whole day in the rainy night before we rescued him."

That was the age of her youth. Even if she could maintain her appearance through special means, the traces left by the years in her heart could not be erased.

What she has experienced will not be forgotten, it is her precious memory.

"Although it's not appropriate to say this, Aunt Naiqin, Wald is no longer the same as he used to be from the time he left the prison, or from the time he was backstabbed by people from the World Government.

With his ability, he should be able to escape if he wanted to, but he made the worst choice. "

Olga could see clearly that shortly after they left, Wald, who regained consciousness, did not choose to escape, and even took the initiative to attack the warship where Akainu was.

At that time, Wald didn't even want to take Binjack with him, but hoped that he could leave in a lifeboat, but Binjack chose to drive the burning Gulas Yadi after Wald's surprise attack. hit.

As for Sebastian and Guyram who attacked Bucky before, although Bucky was not their opponent, Bucky's split fruit restrained Guyram's cubic fruit to a certain extent.

Coupled with the luck of the younger brother and Bucky, although they were defeated, they managed to persist until the arrival of the navy.

Bucky thought that Akainu would support him before, but Akainu directly included him as the target of the attack. Now his younger brothers are fleeing for their lives in the water, and the especially loyal younger brother is responsible for holding Bucky's feet so that He can fly over the sea.

Of course, Bucky was also unable to deal with Guy Ram and Sebastian. The power of his specially made Bucky bullet was a mystery. According to Bucky's description, his Bucky bullet was a weapon capable of destroying heaven and earth. The bomb, but in fact, this is more like an entertainment prop.

It didn't have any effect in a battle of sufficient weight. When Akainu launched indiscriminate fire coverage, Sebastian took Gailam into the water and fled to the distance.

Like Naiqin, when they reached safety, all they saw was the shattered Gulas Yadi.

"Okay, I'll go back first too, I've been out to play for a long time this time, Hancock, see you next time."

"Sister Olga, Akainu doesn't seem to be leaving immediately. According to our agreement with the World Government, the Navy is not allowed to set foot in Nine Snakes. Why don't we wait until he leaves?"

If it is getting late, and it will be night after a while, then you can use the darkness as an excuse to stay in Olga for another day, but Olga doesn't care about this kind of thing.

Olga has extremely rich experience in how to leave under the eyes of Akainu.

"It's okay, he can't find me at such a long distance, besides, I'm not going to never come back, see you next time."

In the end, Olga took Naiqin and left Nine Snakes. Under the cover of the phantom, the Shadow Fox passed through the gap in the navy's encirclement net as if it had entered no one's land.

Olga often comes to Nine Snakes, so she is familiar with the surrounding terrain. This is the only island near Nine Snakes. It not only has water sources, but also has its own ecological environment.

Based on the actions of seabirds on the sea surface, it is easy to judge that there are islands here. After all, seabirds also need a fixed habitat.

According to Olga's estimate, if Sebastian and the others managed to escape, they would definitely rest here. try your luck.

After all, the two of them are also Naiqin's old teammates, so Naiqin must have something to say to them.

Facts proved that Olga was right in her bet. Here she did meet Sebastian and Guy Ram who escaped from the sea to fight. After listening to Naiqin's recounting of the final situation, the two also fell silent.

They can also feel the changes in Wald, especially Sebastian, who is blind himself and is more sensitive to other things.

Wald doesn't seem to have changed much, but the tone of his speech has long been very different from before.

"Do you have any plans? The Walder Pirates are now completely disbanded. Do you have any plans? Do you want to come with me?"

Naiqin watched as her former partners solicited them.

Gaylam himself is a shipbuilder, and Sebastian, as a hybrid of a murloc and a giant, has his own peculiarities, and his combat power is considered to be acceptable. If they are interested, Naiqin would not mind recommending them.

"I'll forget it."

"Me too, Walder's choice was poor, but I enjoyed the voyage with him, and I don't plan to start a new voyage.

I have already talked with Sebastian before, we plan to find a place to live in seclusion together, originally I wanted to ask you, but now it seems unnecessary.

See you in the future. "

Scratching his bald head, Gailam gave his own answer. Naiqin and Olga did not make things difficult for them. After Naiqin treated their wounds, Naiqin sent them away. .

Their ship was destroyed by Akainu's indiscriminate attack. Akainu didn't even give them a chance to get close to the warship. Originally, Bucky and his party wanted to land on Kusnake, but they were almost shot into a hornet's nest.

Finally ran here.

"Miss Olga! Another Shichibukai is here, what should we do with him?"

"Qiwuhai? Isn't this the red nose? I'm an old acquaintance. Let's go back to Ghost Island. I'll just play with him."

Under the order of Olga, the pirates on board began to prepare for the return voyage, while Bucky and his party fell into a new predicament.

"Captain Bucky! Damn it, no matter how hard you go, you can't get out of this beach!"

Compared to their younger brothers, Bucky is also flustered, but he can't show it, and deep down in his heart, he has already remembered the past experience.

He has experienced this kind of thing before, and it happened twice!

Chapter 1100 Lucky Bucky, Busy Akainu, Surprised Kuzan

"Don't panic! I have experienced this kind of thing twice! That guy Shanks got out of trouble with my assistance!"

With the passage of time, Bucky has gradually let himself go, and nonsense can be said to come out of his mouth.

In order to maintain his personality, he needs a comparison. Others may be beaten up if they joke too much, so Bucky dare not say anything, but Shanks doesn't care. Bucky knows very well that Shanks will not hurt he.

Praise himself by belittling Shanks, something Bucky has been doing a lot lately.

Mr. 3 doesn't believe this, but he doesn't have the strength to refute it now. Bucky floated over with his own ability. I feel weak all over.

After finally reaching the shore, he has not recovered yet.

"Huh? How do I remember that I can't tell the difference between the two of you? If I hadn't played enough, you wouldn't be able to discover the truth at all. Why did you change here?"

Bucky's forehead was instantly covered with cold sweat, and Olga's voice was engraved in his bones. Although he has experienced many setbacks in his life, Olga is the only one who can make him and Shanks suffer together.

"Then it's a phantom disaster!"

"A major cadre under Kaido's command has a bounty of 1.52 billion Bailey. Such a person is actually the old enemy of Captain Bucky!"

"As expected of Captain Bucky, to be remembered by such a big man!"

Baki's little brothers have long been buckyized. For them, everything Bucky does is right, and even if it's wrong, they can forcefully come up with a reason.

"What are you talking about, Captain Bucky is now the Qibukai. Since the death of Whitebeard, there has been a vacancy for the emperor of the sea. Captain Bucky will definitely turn the world into the Four Emperors again!"

Only a pirate like Kaido can be compared with Captain Bucky! "

"Let me tell you, where did you recruit these pirates? Are they out of their minds, or do they want you to die on purpose?"

This is the first time Olga has encountered this kind of situation. Originally, she just wanted to play with Bucky. Based on the principle of rain and dew, after playing with Shanks, Bucky must not be left behind.

Now being confused by this group of people, Olga almost forgot what her purpose of coming here was.

"Forget it, I don't care about this kind of thing, I just want to tell you that before the war on the top, the red-haired guy was played by me once, in order to make you balance, I decided to let you experience it too.

For the next period of time, these people will treat you as their worst enemy, good luck to you. "

"Wait! I shouldn't have provoked you?!"

"What are you talking about? When you and that red-haired kid saw me for the first time, you wanted to grab something from my hand. It's already very polite just for fun. I wish you good luck, Qianliangdaohua, Baba Master Ji~"

As soon as the words fell, Olga's figure became unreal, and before Bucky could react, he was surrounded by the younger brothers behind him.

Ba basically wanted to escape, but just after flying out, his body flew around uncontrollably, and his feet were still held by other younger brothers.

"Help!"

Bad news, Bucky was no match for his younger brother, and his torn body was beaten in all directions.

Good news, Olga's ship was very fast, and soon after leaving, Bucky's little brothers got rid of the interference of the phantom.

But at this time, they fell into a brand new self-movement.

"Captain Bucky! In order not to hurt us, you would rather be beaten than fight back!"

"Yes, Captain Bucky has paid too much in order not to kill each other. Woohoo, I want to dedicate my life to you!"

Even though his nose was bruised and his face was swollen, Bucky was sought after by everyone. Olga, who left, never thought of this result.

Not only Olga, but even Mr. 3 and Bucky's old subordinates don't understand why they are so crazy.

"Speaking of which, I played pretty cool just now."

Mr. 3 looked at his fist, he was also one of the victims of the illusion. Looking at Bucky's extremely embarrassing face, Mr. 3's inner guilt was gone.

"Uh-huh."

Not only that, Bucky's former subordinates even nodded in agreement with Mr. 3

At the same time, no one knew which sea area it was, and Hawkeye received another call.

"Roronoa, you can stop now."

"Ah? Why, is it already there?"

"No, it's over there, let's go back by boat, I don't want to be taken to some unknown sea by you."

Even if Hawkeye kept staring at Sauron, it didn't stop Sauron from going off course and being sucked into by unknown currents.

Hawkeye didn't want to row the boat by himself. For the sake of the future, he decided to change the way.

Olga is still on the way back, and the red dog who solved Walder also brought the fleet back to Marlin Vandor, but instead of being praised, he was questioned by the five old stars.

As the admiral of the navy, he led the attack without informing the world government. This is undoubtedly an act of ultra vires.

It was at this time that Akainu discovered that the position of marshal was inconvenient. Instead of making his actions smoother, he put two shackles on himself.

Compared with Akainu, Kuzan, who has left the navy, seems much more comfortable.

"Thank you, Mr. Kuzan, for your help." nOvelUsB.Com

"It's just a small matter, let's go deliver the goods, remember to strengthen the frame next time."

After joining, Kuzan was not assigned a task. Instead, he became a jobless vagrant, doing helpful things in Wano Country every day.

This is mainly because Kaido went out again, Arceus has no interest in Kuzan for the time being, and the rest of the people can't order Kuzan, after all, he was brought back by Yamato, even if he ordered, Yamato had to do it.

Believe it or not, let's not talk about it. Yamato's goal is to use Kuzan as a shield. Kaido may come back at any time, so naturally he will not let him go outside to do things.

So Kuzan relaxed instead.

Just now he met a man whose carriage axle was damaged. In order for him to deliver the goods on time, he temporarily reinforced the carriage body with ice.

"Camel? Camel, where have you been, it's time to go back!"

After a day of ordinary life, Kuzan plans to take the camel to study the shaved ice made by Frost Milk Fairy and Sweet Lengmei.

It's just that when he turned his head, he found that the camel had run into a nearby farmland and was still helping a giant repair tools, and the face of that giant was familiar to him no matter how he looked.

"Sasauro?!"
