

Arceus 1161

Chapter 1161 Now, I am the general

"I don't know, Mr. Quinn only said that Kozuki Momonosuke was found, but he didn't elaborate on other things. It should be on Onijima."

Quine's contact with the general was not a report, but a notification.

If the object of the report is Kaido or Arceus, he can accurately time the time to the second and appear where he needs to appear on time.

Kuzuki Rihe is different, Quinn just said something casually when informing Budai to search.

"Has it been 20 years since Kozuki Momonosuke? How time flies, Kawamatsu."

"Hiyori-sama, I am here."

"Go and tell Denjiro and Kikunojo that my dear brother has come, or come back, anyway, let them go to Onijima together to meet this father's son."

Talking about it, Guangyue Rihe walked out first, as if he was very anxious about this matter.

Twenty years, this long time has caused her heart to suffer, and her attitude towards many things has also changed.

The good news is that she is very free in Wano Country. Except that the scope of real power is only within the palace, she also has a lot of face projects outside, and no one will stop her from going anywhere.

Travel abroad regularly, and even see more things than the previous generals. Although Kozuki Oden has seen more, but he has never officially succeeded the general, so he is not counted.

Under Kozuki Hiyori's order, the palace of the Flower City became busy again, not because Kozuki Hiyori was going out, but because of the name Kozuki Momonosuke.

Many of the waiters in the palace are also in their thirties and forties, and many of them here are offshoots of the Heitan family, and they have a deeper memory of those things back then.

"Have you heard? The prophecy left by Mrs. Kozuki and Oden's retainers appeared again."

"Don't talk nonsense, where did you hear this news?"

"The general's maid, I also heard from her that it was the general who spread the news on purpose."

"Forget it, forget it, what does it have to do with us? It doesn't matter who is the general? Life is pretty good now."

Similar discussions appeared in every corner of the palace, but the attitudes were the same, and no one wanted to respond to Momonosuke and his party.

The Wano country in the original timeline has become very dilapidated under the persecution of Kurotan Orochi and the pressure of Kaido.

The rebels were afraid of force and did not dare to take action. After discovering Momonosuke, the remaining supporters of the Kozuki family worked together to secretly send these people out of Wano country.

It's different now, Kaido doesn't care, as long as Wano can provide weapons, train soldiers, and provide special commodities for Beast Fruit, he doesn't care whether it's good or bad here.

Arzeus has his own rules. Pokémon has been integrated into Wano Country. Under the closed-loop economy, everything in Wano Country is closely related to beasts. Even a blind person can feel all this from the changes in his life.

And the scope of closed-loop economic radiation is not only the special commodities of Beasts.

Medical care, public opinion, religion, salt and iron, as big as birth, old age, sickness and death, as small as every plant and tree is inseparable from beasts.

People of the older generation still remember these things. People born in these 20 years have no idea who the so-called Momonosuke is. They only feel that someone is hindering their lives.

The whole district of Jiuli was closed and a large-scale search was started, which affected the pace of life of many people.

Many people who were blocked on both sides of the blockade have already cursed, but the outside world still doesn't know who made such a big noise, so they didn't name them

Denjiro and Kikunojo had already received the news from Kawamatsu when the big search was launched in Kuri.

"He Song, what did you say?!"

"Xiaosheng said that Master Momonosuke has appeared and has been caught. Hiyori-sama wants to take us to see him."

Kawamatsu's tone also had a bit of helplessness. They are the ones who remember the deepest 20 years, but no one mentioned this matter, just hoping that Momonosuke can leave here smoothly.

They have witnessed the development of the Wano country and the changes in the Wano country. Now they want to drive Kaido away. That is not an enemy of the beasts. We have to see if the ordinary citizens of the Wano country are willing to accept this matter. .

Originally, Momonosuke still had a group of diehard loyalists, but those people performed a mysterious operation a few years ago, and they actually wanted to assassinate Kozuki Hiyori directly. Not only did they involve themselves, but they also pushed Kozuki Hiyori.

Kawamatsu doesn't even know what Hiyori will do after seeing Momonosuke now.

It would be the best if Momonosuke could escape. Everyone never saw each other again, and they were extremely disappointed. If Kawamatsu's guess is correct, the signal flare just now was related to this incident.

It took less than half an hour from when he saw the strange signal to when he received the news that Momonosuke had been caught.

"Denjiro, let me remind you, calm down first, you don't have the ability to take away Momonosuke-sama, even if you add me and Akiku, the three of us won't be able to get out of Ghost Island, let alone."

Kawamatsu didn't finish his sentence, the current situation is a bit complicated, he doesn't know what attitude Kikunojo has, but Kawamatsu has a very tangled issue.

Assuming that the beasts want to execute Momonosuke, they can do their best and be loyal as retainers.

But the current situation, beasts may not care, but Hiyori is not necessarily.

If Hiyori wanted to kill Momonosuke, then who should they help is a question.

They are all descendants of Oden, no matter what they do, they will be a big trouble.

Denjiro was originally a thoughtful person, but at this moment his mind was confused, he didn't even notice the meaning of Kawamatsu's words, he just walked out first.

"Ah, your general has a lot of grievances."

On the roof of the palace, Drake hangs upside down from the eaves, communicating with Kikunojo who is on the lower floor. Originally, the roof was Jhin's privilege, but after Jhin didn't care much about the affairs here, Drake inherited it. partial permissions.

If the tiles on the roof were not flat enough, she could have placed a recliner directly.

"Miss Drake, it's not a good habit to eat while hanging upside down. Can you put down the meat of the sea beast first?"

"Don't pay attention to this kind of thing, so you can feel the feeling of food rising slowly in your throat against gravity, don't you wonder why I said your general has a lot of resentment?"

"You will naturally speak when it is time to speak. If you don't want to speak, I will ask in vain. If you don't speak, I will leave first. Hiyori-sama has already arrived at the gate of the hall."

"Tch, it's boring, she has a wakizashi in her sleeve, maybe she will be very passionate."

Thanks to the ability of the Roentgen cat, Drake's eyes have the ability to see through. Except for Jhin's special cloth and Shaina's bone mask, ordinary clothing can't stop her.

Kotsuki was no different from naked in front of her. Drake could see that there was an ordinary wakizashi in the wide sleeves, and the style was still made by a great blacksmith.

The hot-blooded statement is a cold joke that Drake learned from Kuzan, and it is used to express a special meaning, but Kikunojo is not interested in this "cold joke".

As Kikunojo began to accept the existence of Drake and understand her character, she realized how much she loves to tease others.

"I said Aju, don't make any wrong choices, otherwise, it will be very difficult for me."

Before Kikunojo left, Derek asked him lightly. Although he didn't get a response, the pause in his footsteps showed that he had heard that sentence.

The meaning of Drake's point is very clear. With the appearance of Momonosuke and others in Wano Country 20 years ago, the existing peace will definitely be broken. In the emerging tide, some people will surely sink to the bottom of the sea .

People who have been abandoned by the times cannot keep up with the tide of the times. If you want to reverse and change an era, you can't do it with just a few slogans.

At least in Wano Country, the wave of beasts is unstoppable.

After several people met, the team representing the general walked in the direction of Ghost Island.

Along the way, everyone seemed taciturn, not knowing what they were thinking. The mood of the accompanying personnel was not so complicated. Instead, they saw a very strange scene. In the direction of Jiuli, a large group of dark clouds appeared in the sky out of thin air.

Compared to ordinary dark clouds, this black cloud looks even more strange, like a collection of large ink.

It seems that there is a big secret hidden in the ink cloud, but this secret is not worth mentioning compared with what they are about to encounter.

"Master Quinn, according to the news from the Capital of Flowers, Kozuki Rihe has come to Onishima, and she seems to be very interested in that little ghost."

The communication snail on Quinn's body rang, and the latest news reached his ears again.

The general's travels are not small. From the Capital of Flowers to Ghost Island, it will take a while at the speed of normal people. They can't fly at random at high speed like Mandelfish and Quinn.

Now Quinn has not returned to Onigashima, let alone Kozuki Hiyori who just received the news.

"Mandelfish, take the three of them to play somewhere else, don't go back to Ghost Island, the next thing is still not suitable for these brats."

After thinking for a while, Quinn planned to send the three little ones away first. It is too early for them to dabble in this at their age. The fathers of the three of them are not Kaido, and they have no intention of letting their offspring grow up at a super speed.

The Hundred Beasts family has a great career, which is enough for the third generation to have more time and space to grow up, and receive corresponding training at an appropriate age.

They have worked hard for decades. If the starting point is still the same as that of self-made people, that would be the biggest dereliction of duty.

"I understand what you mean, Brother Quinn."

"Well, go to Linghou to have a snowball fight or go to Ximei to fly a kite. Jiuli is still going on now. If it doesn't work, you can go to Baiwu to find an amusement park. You can see the arrangement yourself. I guess it will be over when it gets dark."

"Brother Quinn, don't worry about me so much."

"Don't worry, I'm worried about what's wrong with these three little devils. I won't talk about Zeraola and Setsuna. If Mello gets injured accidentally, it has some indirect connection with me."

You don't take it to heart, but your wife does, and then blows your pillow every day, what will you do? "

"This. Rusaka won't do that."

"Heh, your answer has already explained everything. I'm just taking precautions before they happen. Let's take them to play, and you two, remember the promise, don't talk nonsense."

Finally, Quinn gave Miao Na and Worf another word, and then returned to Ghost Island with the three people in his hand.

After a period of time, when Hiyori Kozuki arrived at Onijima, Quinn had already returned, and even arranged for Momosuke to be cleaned and changed into a suit of clothes, so that he must not be filthy when meeting the general.

"Brother Kaidou is fighting again. Master Arceus is not here, so he can't even get through the phone. Why can't anyone get in touch at critical times."

Quinn looked at Rotom with no signal and the phone bug that no one answered, lost in thought.

He is very happy to watch the play, but it is not easy to decide whether to let Guang Yueri and himself decide at will, or whether the beasts will intervene.

The two masters are not around, if the decision made affects the subsequent decision, then the trouble will fall on me again.

"Miss Yamato, it's up to you to decide this troublesome matter."

Looking at the communication records in Lotomy, Quinn's expression suddenly became sinister. He and Yamato were already in a state of digging each other, and it was unrealistic to directly reconcile.

Since Yamato still has the idea of plotting him, it is reasonable for him to counter.

Quinn acted quickly, and immediately contacted Yamato, intending to let her make decisions for the follow-up arrangements.

It was at this time that Kozuki Hiyori met her long-lost brother.

In the empty room, Momonosuke sat blankly in the middle, while Inuarashi and Momomushi, who had been given muscle relaxants by Quinn, leaned against the wall beside them.

Compared to chains, the restriction of potions can make them look more natural.

Momonosuke sat in the room trembling.

Just now a pirate washed him roughly in the pool for half a day and then put on a suit of clothes. There is no maid for him here. This pirate was assigned this task because he lost in gambling.

Momonosuke is now full of confusion about the future. Just as he was immersed in fear, a mid-spirited voice came from outside.

"My lord general is here!"

Kozuki Hiyori, dressed in luxurious clothes, stepped through the gate and finally stopped in front of Momonosuke.

"Brother Momonosuke, long time no see, you are exactly the same as 20 years ago."

"You are Hiyori? How did you become a general?"

Looking at Hiyori who has grown up, Momonosuke's face is full of surprise.

There is surprise at the change in Hiyori's appearance, and there is also some confusion that Hiyori can become a general in Wano Country under the rule of beasts.

"Why can't I become a general? Do you know, Brother Momonosuke, for the past 20 years, I have missed you to death!"

Hiyori seemed to be gently stroking the top of Momonosuke's head, and at the same time, with a shake of his right hand, the dagger slipped out of his sleeve.

With a flash of cold light, Hikazu Kozuki completed Wakizashi's unsheathing with one hand, and the cold light pierced Momonosuke's abdomen, only two inches away, and the tip of the knife would pierce Momonosuke's skin, but it stopped in there.

"Hiyori-sama! Please stop!"

Denjiro stood aside with an ugly face, grasping the blade of Hiyori Kozuki's stab with his bare hands, and blood was already dripping down the blade.

Kikunojo had reminded Denjiro earlier, so when Hiyori approached Momonosuke, he was prepared.

"Why not domineering?"

Hiyori did not withdraw his sword, but looked at Denjiro with a questioning tone.

"Liu Ying is a martial art, and the retainers cannot use martial arts on the lord, it is disrespectful."

This is the reason why Denjiro did not use arrogance or weapons, but held the blade with his bare hands. Similarly, as retainers of the opposite sex, they are not allowed to touch each other's body at will.

"Do you still know that I am a general? Then, as a general, I order you to get out of the way and not to interfere in Guangyue's family affairs."

I will go out soon and try my best not to be in debt, but if I don't update before 12:30, I am in debt

Chapter 1162 My dear brother, death is kindness

"Denjiro, do you want to seek rebellion?"

Kozuki Hiyori tried to draw the knife, but Denjiro's hand didn't loosen at all, standing motionless in the middle like a pillar, as if he didn't feel pain, he tightly stuck Hiyori's Wakizashi with his muscles and bones .

Even without domineering, Denjiro himself is much stronger than Kozuki Hiyori. Kozuki Hiyori's practice only made her stronger than ordinary women, and she didn't inherit Mida's fighting talent.

Although not too weak, but not good at fighting.

So she questioned Denjiro's soul.

The most ruthless emperor's family, even if it is only a small country with a large city-state, brothers can fight for the throne.

In Wano Country, this situation has not been eliminated. For hundreds of years since the country was sealed off, although the general has always been a member of the Kozuki family, there have been * battles in the process.

For a country that is closed to the outside world, the country in front of it is everything, so many people are staring at the position of the general, even the Heitan family with a foreign surname have thought about it, let alone people who also have the blood of Guangyue.

Kozuki Oden has no brothers, if he had brothers, the position of general might have been handed over to his brothers long ago.

But his ancestors were not like this, so the Guangyue family had long established rules that the retainers of the father's generation were not allowed to participate in the competition of the children's generation, unless there was a secret instruction from the previous general.

If Denjiro has been following Momonosuke, then what he did at this time is understandable, but he is following Kozuki Oden, whether it is Hiyori or Momonosuke, they are just heirs to him.

Now that he stopped Kozuki Hiyori's actions, he was overstepping, not to mention Kozuki Hiyori is the current general.

In the eyes of Kozuki Hiyori, Denjiro's behavior is blatantly eccentric, and the word "rebellion" is not completely a label. In a sense, Denjiro's behavior is already committing treason.

"Subordinates dare not, but General, that is your elder brother. You are already a general. If you do this, you will be accused of murdering your brother for no reason. Why bother?"

"You really think about me. With such a fast reaction speed, should I say that you are superb in martial arts, or should I say that you have doubted me for a long time?"

"I"

"20 years, Denjiro, you are my father's retainer, but you spent 20 years more with me than my elder brother.

You know exactly what the general's position is, so I won't go into details.

After such a long time, even if you have a pet, you should have developed feelings, but you can stand on his side resolutely without seeing my dear brother for even five minutes.

You are like this, I am very sad. "

Although Denjiro didn't say anything, his actions still showed his attitude.

In the eyes of many people, as long as Momonosuke comes back, no matter what Hiyori did before, whether it was a good thing or a bad thing, and whether the development of Wano Country is good or bad, it has nothing to do with Hiyori.

It is what she should do if it develops well, and there is nothing she can do if it does not develop well. But in the final analysis, Wano Country should be handed over to Momonosuke, and he is the heir of Masahiro Miaohong.

Guangyue Rihe is always a substitute, and cannot be compared with the real master at all.

Denjiro might not have meant that, but his obstruction made Kozuki Hiyori think of the group of people who tried to assassinate her.

【We must awaken Wano Country's will to resist. 】

【If even the general obeys the beasts, how can outsiders continue to resist? We will use blood to reawaken the Wano country and start the reform of the Wano country again! 】

Speaking high-sounding words, but the price is her life. For the so-called righteousness in their mouths, she has to die herself. This is the fuse of Guang Yueri and resentment.

Even if those people have been killed, those words are accompanied by the light, the moon and the sun like a nightmare, and they often appear in her dreams.

"So, Denjiro-kun, I will give you another chance to choose. Who are you loyal to?"

"I am Kozuki's vassal. I have always been Hiyori-sama, there shouldn't be such conflicts between you brothers and sisters. He is your elder brother after all."

Listening to Denjiro's words, and seeing his resolute eyes, Hiyori let go of Wakizashi from his hand.

In terms of strength, she must be inferior to Denjiro.

Denjiro just thought that his words had an effect, and Hiyori changed his mind. He wanted to breathe a sigh of relief, but found that Kozuki Hiyori turned around and took out a pistol.

Drake told Kikunojo that Hiyori had Wakizashi on her body, but didn't say she didn't bring anything else.

"Then Momonosuke brother, why haven't you said a word? Did you never want to see me?"

The muzzle of the gun moved slightly downwards, but was blocked by Denjiro's body again.

"Denjiro, you really let me down, Kawamatsu, Kikunojo, pull him away, the next thing is a family affair of Kozuki's blood, and has nothing to do with you."

"Kawamatsu! Kikunojo! What are you two doing?! Don't you know what consequences this will lead to! Let me go!"

Seeing that Kikunojo and Kawamatsu actually came up and grabbed him, Denjiro also panicked. The strength gap between the nine of them is not small, and it turned out that Asura Doji was far ahead.

But Asura Boy had died many years ago, and there was not much distance between Denjiro, Kawamatsu and Kikunojo, and with the strength advantage of the murlocs, Denjiro really couldn't break free with Kikunojo's assistance. river pine.

"Denjiro, calm down, you will only make Hiyori-sama even more angry, what is going on here, have you forgotten?"

Because of the self-blame for being arrested that year, Kawamatsu's attitude is biased towards Kozuki Hiyori, and Kikunojo is in a similar state.

They don't care about Momonosuke as much as Denjiro, so they can see it more clearly.

It seems that there are only a few of them here, but it is actually the hinterland of beasts. Quinn may be staring at them somewhere.

Even if they don't obey Kozuki Hiyori's orders, there will be members of Hundred Beasts who are willing to obey her orders. Who made Hundred Beasts choose Kozuki Hiyori?

Especially in these years, after Kozuki Hiyori's attitude has changed, Hyakushou is more satisfied with this general. It is never Kozuki Hiyori, but Momonosuke who really decides Momonosuke's life and death.

The beasts want him to live, but no one can kill him, and the beasts want him to die, but no one can keep him alive.

If the two of them were like Denjiro, I am afraid that Kozuki Hiyori's heart will undergo even more terrifying changes, and the final result may not be certain.

Denjiro was also confused because of too much worry, and only then did he realize that his persuasion was only exacerbating the conflict. If you think about it carefully, if the angle of the knife is stabbed, it should be pierced from the abdomen instead of a single blow fatal.

But in any case, this is not a good tendency. Before the brother and sister, or the younger sister, had no affection for the older brother.

"It's all the fault of those bastards."

Denjiro recalled those psychopaths who engaged in assassination back then, but looking at Hiyori today, he suddenly found that those people's words were somewhat irrefutable.

【Denjiro-sama, let's go and see the current Wano country. Except for us old people, teenagers don't even know who the general is! I don't know the meaning of General!

They go to the school run by Kaido, and they call Lord Ming. If this goes on, will anyone still be willing to resist? ! 】

【You guarding her is not protecting Guangyue at all! Instead, he is destroying Kozuki's hope. If this continues, when Momonosuke-sama comes back, will anyone still be willing to help him? !

We are getting old, and our descendants are unwilling to continue this path, so while we still have strength, we have to do something! "】

Based on the current situation, what they said seems to be right. Even Momonosuke's own sister doesn't want to help him anymore.

"Don't you want to do something?"

"What can we do?"

Guangyue's family affairs made them unknown, and the difference in force made them unable to resist at all. Whether it was theory or reality, it was extremely painful.

Denjiro was taken away, and there was no one to protect him in front of Momonosuke. Inuarashi and Momusaki were helpless, so they could only watch from the sidelines, and Hiyori also squatted down in front of him.

The muzzle of the black hole was pointed at him.

"Hi Hiyori, this is... This is Momonosuke, this is your brother"

20 years was just a snap of his fingers for him. Before the haze of the Wano country war was completely over, he was pointed at the head by his own sister with a gun.

It wasn't until Denjiro was pulled away that he realized what was going on.

His impression of Kozuki Hiyori still stays on that little girl.

At that time, Hiyori was mischievous and lively, and would often greet Momonosuke with flying kicks, so that Momonosuke often thought she was a wild child, but the relationship between siblings was still good.

"You like to play Tsukihime the most, why do you want to kill me? Our enemy is the Beast Pirates! Have you forgotten what your mother and father asked you?"

"Entrustment? Do you mean that you will enjoy the benefits in 20 years, and I will suffer here, and finally hand everything over to you?"

"I don't mean that, and my mother doesn't think so! She just hopes that the blood of the Guangyue family will have a greater possibility of continuation."

Facing the possible death threat, Momonosuke's words seemed to make sense. If it had been a few years in the morning, Hiyori would have understood it, but it was too late now.

"Then please tell me, why am I the one who stayed behind and not you? She is obviously by her side, but it is still you that mother chose!"

Speaking of this, the muzzle of the gun was even stuffed directly into Momonosuke's mouth. The bitter taste of the metal stimulated Momonosuke's nerves, and he could even smell the smell of gunpowder.

"Of course, I can't blame my mother. After all, she gave birth to me and raised me. However, without you, my mother would not be partial, so all of this is your fault!"

The muzzle of the gun turned, and the front sight pierced his mouth, and the smell of blood spread in his mouth, making the tense environment a little more terrifying.

Kozuki Hiyori's tone was slightly crazy, Momonosuke instinctively grasped the barrel of the gun with both hands, trying to take it out, but his strength was much worse than that of an adult.

Seeing this, Hiyori didn't pull the trigger immediately, but kicked Momonosuke in the abdomen.

Everything is very similar to 20 years ago, but 20 years ago it was a fight between children, but this kick now has the accumulation of resentment over the years.

Momonosuke bowed to the corner of the wall like a shrimp, with two teeth falling to the side, and even the pistol slipped past. For some reason, when he kicked that kick, Kozuki Hiyori's hand let go of the handle of the gun .

"Don't come here! Please don't push me!"

In a panic, Momonosuke grabbed the pistol on the side. At this time, only weapons can give him a weak sense of security.

"You didn't open the insurance, the insurance just now was off."

Hearing Kozuki Hiyori's words, Momozhi's assistant hurriedly fiddled with the weapon, but he didn't know how to use a gun at all, and he just couldn't find where the insurance was.

Kozuki Hiyori also walked up to him slowly during the process, grabbed the gun again, opened the safety in front of Momonosuke, and inserted a new bullet. In fact, the gun had been empty before. It wasn't until this time that it really had the ability to fire.

"Are you really going to kill me?"

"Hahaha, Brother Momonosuke, you will understand, if I want to kill you directly, that is the most merciful way, some things are more terrifying than death.

You will never understand how I got here in the past 20 years! "

"Why? Why exactly!"

"Why? Of course it is because of hatred. I am the one who stays, and you are the one who leaves. Hasn't it already been said?

By the way, I mentioned my mother, but I haven't mentioned my father yet. You don't look like a father at all, but everyone thinks that you can inherit Wano's shogun, but you don't know, I'm not the only one.

In the entire Wano country, there are not many people who want you to come back. "

Saying that, Hiyori carried Momonosuke to the window, from which most of Wano Country could just be seen.

"See? What a beautiful country, this is what my father expected, but all of this has nothing to do with Guangyue.

Suppose I go out and announce my abdication now, maybe someone will stay, and someone will talk about it every day, but as time goes by, the general will become history sooner or later, and I, the last general, is at best a small piece of the history book.

But if the beasts leave, within a week, the operation of Wano Kingdom will completely collapse. "

The departure of Hundred Beasts is not just the disappearance of a ruler. Without the deterrent force of Hundred Beasts, countless forces will be eyeing this country with sea stone mine veins, and the local forces of Wano Country are completely powerless to deter external forces. .

Wano Country has no ability to recruit doctors from all over the world, and the retreat of all beasts means the departure of Pokémon.

No power plant can compare with Dengeki Warcraft. Wano Country does not have enough space to build a large power station with a power generation comparable to Dengeki Warcraft.

In Wano Country, where electrification has been popularized, a power outage would be a terrifying thing.

Without the smelly mud and double bomb gas, it is impossible for the factory to carry out environmentally friendly production.

Economic export channels, unique goods, magical holy mountains, all these will become a thing of the past.

Those who retain the general may be for the sake of face, but those who retain the beasts will be a group of people from the bottom of their hearts. No one is a fool. They can still see who can make them live well.

The new generation of Wano Country will not allow an heir who has disappeared for 20 years to take away their lives.

This is also the ultimate goal of Hundred Beasts' policy at the beginning. According to the previous secret investigation, it is almost the same.

Looking at Momonosuke who was trembling because of being hung high in the air, Hiyori's tone suddenly became gentle again.

"Don't worry, Brother Momonosuke, I won't let you die easily before you experience despair, I promise."

Guang Yueri and his smile at this time are very sweet, so sweet that it makes people feel chills Novelsb.com

ps1: As I said before, I won't hang up immediately

From suffering to despair to dying, this is a process. An activity of cutting flesh with a blunt knife

PS2:

Gun insurance should be a foreign word.

So there are two understandings for this policy

To open the safety, one way of saying is to "open" the safety function, and the gun is in the safe state at this time.

Another way of saying it is to set the safety to the "on" position, and the gun is ready to fire at this time

Chapter 1163 This is it?

"I...I don't understand what you mean! If you want the position of general, just take it, I won't grab it from you!"

"Hehehe you still don't understand, my stupid brother, I never wanted the position of general! I just want an ordinary life."

It's not that Kozuki Hi and Toko Tsuki have no grievances at all, but it's all transferred to Momonosuke. She doesn't understand why it has to be 20 years.

Since the ability of Guangyue Shi can travel through groups, why not take the whole family to the future hundreds of years later.

She couldn't remember everything at that time, since then Beast has been more friendly to Wano Country, but Heitan Orochi has been making troubles.

Although it was an afterthought, she also analyzed the situation at the beginning. If all the Guangyue family disappeared, neither Beasts nor Heitan could be regarded as orthodox.

Families with several big names may also be able to compete, but in the end, it is impossible to defeat Hundred Beasts, and it will still be like this in the end.

It would be nice for the whole family to reunite together in a few hundred years, but both Kozuki Oden and Kozuki Toki have a special obsession with the year 1522.

For these people present, there is good news, that is, there is no need to worry about Momonosuke's death in a short time.

But this is also bad news at the same time. Looking at Hiyori's appearance, Momonosuke will not feel happy afterwards.

While the fake general was thinking about how to deal with his older brother, the real princess of Wano Country was watching from another layer of Onijima, just as Kawamatsu and Kikunojo guessed.

"Miss Yamato, do you want to consider intervening? It's not good to let her mess around like this."

"I don't want it, and you want to cheat me again. The foster father said, if I don't do anything, nothing will be affected. Don't try to lie to me."

Among all the beasts, it may be Quinn who can understand Guangyue Rihe best. Only he can understand the feeling that no one can offend.

Originally, Quinn called Yamato to let her make a decision. As a result, Yamato was just like the one who had learned Hiyori, watching the play in front of the screen with popcorn in his arms, without expressing any opinions from the beginning to the end.

"But miss, are you not afraid that she will cause some trouble?"

"Don't be afraid, this is Wano Country, what kind of trouble can a kid make, but he is really cowardly, not at all like that Kozuki Oden."

Kaido's thinking also has an influence on Yamato. Weakness is the original sin. She hates this truth, but she has to admit that this sentence is very applicable in this cruel world.

As long as she is weaker, she may be tortured by Kaido and go crazy.

Quinn's plan died immediately. If it continues like this, Yamato's special intelligence attack on Kaido may be extended to Quinn. After all, Yamato and Quinn will not fight each other, but let the other party help him attract firepower.

"And to be honest, it's just so-so. It's nothing to be shocked about. It's not as interesting as a novel."

"A short novel?"

"That's right, Robin wrote it. It's about the Revenge of a Princess in Distress. It's much better than Robin."

With nothing to do, Robin also has some daily pastimes, such as writing some strange articles.

In Yamato's view, Robin can basically play Death Light Moon Hiyori in terms of mind and eye.

In fact, this is also the case. Robin's ability basically crushes Hiyori in all directions, even in the original timeline. The information Robin collected in a few days is even more than Kozuki Hiyori's 20 years.

Before, Guangyue Rihe had a general's post next to him, which was originally held by Jhin, but since some restrictions were lifted, Jhin didn't take this post very much.

Yamato intends to find a job for Robin. So far, it seems that this job is not bad. There is not much work, and it is very suitable for her.

Before Quinn could ask about the details of Robin's writing, a slightly flustered voice suddenly came from the side.

"Master Quinn! According to the latest information, two people have flown out of Wano Country!"

They only knew that Quinn was here, and didn't know that Yamato was there. Because the information was urgent, he didn't notice Yamato who was blocked by Quinn, but Yamato himself didn't care about this kind of thing. On the contrary, Quinn was scared one jump.

"What did you say?! What about the air cavalry? Are they useless? Can people slip away under their noses?!"

"No, Master Quinn, someone stopped them"

"Who? Who can stop the entire air cavalry in Wano? Let me meet that bastard!"

"Hmm, okay, I like your attitude."

As soon as the voice fell, Kaido walked in from the outside with his head covered. At this moment, Yamato switched from the lazy mode of watching the play to the fighting state, and Quinn also thought of something.

"Brother Kaito. Could it be?" n0V3lUS8.COM

"Ah, it was me. After the end, I just saw them about to take off, so I stopped them."

Hearing this sentence, Quinn's neck suddenly stretched like a beast, and he came to the little brother like a ghost.

"You bastard, can't you tell the priorities when reporting information? You pick the most important ones first! You won't just say that Brother Kaidou told them to stop?!"

If it wasn't for Quinn to know that there are only a few direct subordinates under Yamato, and this is an unexpected situation, he would have suspected that this younger brother was arranged by Yamato to persecute him.

While he was reprimanding his younger brother, Yamato also had a question in his mind.

"Father, those people also came from 20 years ago, why did you let them go?"

"Because it's boring."

"No boredom?"

"Yeah, there are only a few people fighting every day, even repetitive battles would be boring to me.

Those guys are looking for foreign aid. It's best to find some interesting guys back for me to add some fun to this boring life. "

The reason is very capricious and very Kaido. Yamato can't find anything to refute, but he just feels wrong.

"Would the foster father be unhappy if there was a mess?"

"Hey, Yamato, you are wrong, this is their last chance, they deliberately released these two people, and when they come back with foreign aid, they will be able to find out all those who have different intentions.

I have given them enough opportunities, if there are still uninterested ones, we can only liquidate them together.

It is the kindness of your righteous father to let them live and enjoy all this.

But Lao Tzu is a pirate, but he is not as easy to talk to as your adoptive father. Sometimes the opportunity has been given, but whether they can seize it is their own business. "

It seemed that he was educating Yamato, but Kaido suddenly turned around and put his hand on Quinn's shoulder.

Quinn's plan to sneak away also went bankrupt.

"Quinn, where do you want to go?"

"This... I'll deal with the aftermath for you."

"No need, I just happen to want to meet you too, choosing another day is worse than bumping into it, just now.

And you, Yamato, don't even think about running away, you will be next. "

Accompanied by a breath of despair, Quinn was dragged out by Kaido, and even left a notice to Yamato, only the younger brother who just delivered the message was still in a daze.

As for who the fun person Kaido deliberately let out is, we have to go back a bit.

A while ago, when Guangyue Rihe had just left the Palace of the Flower City, there was a new progress in Jiuli's hunt.

After confirming the identities of several people, Budai quickly passed the wanted information through the public screening screens distributed in Jiuli.

The characteristics of Kanjuro and Raizang are too obvious, coupled with Guri's rapid blockade, someone soon found their tracks.

"Here! The group is in the back alley!"

"They're running west! Right next to the udon shop!"

No matter where they go, as long as they are seen by others, there will be shouts immediately. In the end, the three of them were still blocked in a dead end. Cloth bags are no exception.

"It's really you guys. I haven't seen you in 20 years. Please come with me and take a rest."

Handai held up the knife very politely, intending to invite these people to travel to the prison.

"Damn it. How did these people get here?"

"Kin'emon, Kanjuro, you go to help Momonosuke-sama, I'll hold them back, something seems to be wrong with Momonosuke-sama."

Lei Zang pulled out a few scrolls from behind, resolutely intending to break the back.

"Three, don't worry, Momonosuke has been arrested, otherwise how would we know that you people have appeared? It seems that you are not going to cooperate, do it, catch them!"

Under Budai's order, the members of the Shinsengumi immediately surrounded them. Kin'emon and Kanjuro knocked down the first ones to rush forward. Their strength is still much stronger than that of the ordinary Shinsengumi, but this is not the case. It's useless.

They just knocked down one person, and more people will rush up behind them.

"Fox Fire Flow·Fire Willow Flash!"

"Scrolling Technique·Fire Escape!"

Kinemon's blade was ignited with flames, and he slashed towards the samurai in front.

Raizou released the flames stored in his own scroll. He is a superhuman-type scroll fruit capable user, but Raizo didn't know that he ate the devil fruit.

Due to the limitations of Wano Country, he regarded the fruit's ability as his own awakened ninjutsu, and called it "Ninjutsu·Makijutsu".

To put it bluntly, you can create scrolls and use them to absorb the attacks of others and release them.

Kanjuro's movements were not that big, but he still guarded behind them, and at the same time reminded his partners.

"Don't love to fight, Momonosuke-sama needs our help! Go and save him!"

"Then hurry up and leave this to my subordinates! Ninjutsu-Smoke Escape Technique!"

Raizou threw a smoke bomb to the ground, and thick smoke immediately enveloped the entire alley. Wano Country's ninjutsu has always been like this, but the name of ninjutsu is used to cover up the essence of the props used.

Just when Lei Zang wanted to retreat with the help of smoke bombs, a bone stick was thrown out by the cloth bag, which directly stirred up the smoke in the alley.

Chapter 1164 As we all know, the operation of the organization depends on undercover agents

"Ahem. Don't panic! Stabilize the formation! There are only a few roads here, surrounded by our people, they can't fly out!"

Times have changed, and the current Jiuli is not the original Jiuli. They were in the suburbs before, and they didn't feel much of the change in the road.

When they first entered the city, no one was chasing them, so they could explore slowly without getting lost.

Later, they found the signal flares in the area where Momonosuke was located, and knew that there must be something wrong there, but at this time someone was already investigating the "gang fraud" incident, forcing them to take a detour.

Before they could get out, Quinn had already rushed over to prevent any harm to his quality of life, and sent back the news of Momonosuke, and Kuri directly entered a state of martial law.

The Shinsengumi is only a security force in Wano. The ordinary members are not strong enough to maintain domestic security. However, the number of retainers targeting Oden can only be relied on.

They seem to be just ordinary retainers, but in fact some of them have extremely strange vitality, and they can even use their heads to harden Kaido's stick without dying, which is extremely weird.NovElusb.Com

Yes, it is Kin'emon, a creature with strange vitality. Before Lu Fei awakened and turned into Nika, he would have to roll his eyes when he was hit by a stick, but Kin'emon can wake up in a very short time with his body, which is still rare. The result of 20 years of practice.

People can't help but wonder if he has awakened the fruit of Fufu and developed costumes such as the resurrection armor.

It's just that the exaggerated vitality is not equal to his combat power. Under the circumstances of a large number of people chasing and intercepting, and even ordinary residents reporting to them after seeing them, they were quickly blocked into a dead end and entered a last stand status.

Because he is a capable person, Raizo can carry far more props than other ninjas, and a large number of smoke bombs block the sight of those around him. For most people, obstructed vision is a very troublesome thing.

"Get out of the way! What do you look like in a panic! What is this little trick?!"

The cloth bag at the back dispelled the besieging people in front, and the body was slightly inflated, and the bony mask covered the face, leaving only two triangular holes for the eyes, and only the fluffy hair scattered from the back.

Gala Gala, the ground-type bone-loving Pokémon, the evolution of Caracalla.

A bone stick appeared in both hands, and it was thrown forward after a little force.

The bones in his hands are their weapons. Since Budai is a dual swordsman, he also has two bones. After acquiring this ability, he no longer carries knives with him.

Bones born with abilities are far more convenient and easier to manipulate than ordinary katana swords.

The bone stick rotated at high speed in the smoke, and the rolled up cyclone dispersed the smoke from the smoke bomb, revealing the three people who wanted to retreat.

The bone stick didn't stop because of this, but continued to fly forward.

Bass! Clang!

Kanjuro and Kin'emon each blocked a bone stick. Although it looked like an ordinary bone, its hardness was not inferior to the sword in their hands, and the strength in it was also very exaggerated.

After they flicked it away with all their strength, the bone stick returned to Bu Dai's hands as if it had been manipulated.

Bone Boomerang, the exclusive move of the Gala Gala lineage, most of this Pokémon's abilities are in the bone stick in their hands. If they lose the bone stick, their combat effectiveness will plummet.

"You bastard. Budai?"

Although! The face was covered by a strange bone face, but Kinemon recognized each other from the voice and the shape of the hair. They had dealt with each other before, and the relationship was not friendly.

Strictly speaking, they were all street gangsters at the time, and to put it mildly, they were ronin.

Later, Kin'emon took refuge in Oden, and Hotei hung around the streets for a while, and finally chose to surrender when Beasts cleared up the internal security issues in Wachino.

It's just that after Kin'emon became Oden's retainer, they didn't have much interaction with each other. As retainers, they can't continue to hang out on the streets like they used to.

"It's terrible, it's terrible, Kin'emon-sama still remembers me, but it's true, after all, to you, 20 years ago was just yesterday."

There is no intersection, but it is not that there is no intersection at all. After Kinemon was accepted as a retainer by Mitian, his status can be said to have undergone earth-shaking changes, and his heart has become arrogant.

After the change in lifestyle, he no longer brought his younger brother to hang out on the streets. Even when he saw the enemies who were robbing the territory, there was a kind of contempt in his eyes. In Kin'emon's view, the status of retainers already meant that they were People from two worlds.

"You bastard, as a member of the Wano country, you actually joined the beasts to persecute the Wano country!"

"What nonsense are you talking about? Is your brain broken? If you are so loyal, why don't you follow Mi Tian to die together?"

Hundred Beasts didn't try to discredit Oden either. Today and He is also a general. In words, Budai still respects him very much.

"Bastard. Foxfire flow!"

The two swords collided, and a large amount of flames surrounded Kin'emon's blade, and he attacked the hotei. Now the hotei looked like the leader. I am afraid that only by taking him down can we continue the next action.

"You are defeated, don't think so! Don't think that becoming a magician can change the result!"

When the blade was swung, a large amount of flames shot out, and some sundries in the alley were also ignited.

"Sorcerer? Don't look down on people. This is the reward I have worked hard for 15 years. It is completely different from you!"

The front ends of the two bone sticks were wrapped in a khaki-yellow energy, and the bone sticks began to spin in the hand of the cloth bag, and then slammed into Kin'emon in front of him with great force.

Every contact of the knife stick will splash a lot of sparks, but Budai ignores the attached flames and doesn't care about them at all.

The principle of Kin'emon's manipulation of flames is a mystery, but one thing is certain, flames are not his specialty. This kind of ordinary fire has little effect on the ground-type ability of Hotei, but it is a little hot.

"I really couldn't beat you back then, but do you think nothing happened in the past twenty years? Why do you think I became the team leader!"

The bone stick in Fudai's hand suddenly flew out, drew a strange arc in mid-air, and finally hit Kin'emon's waist.

"Speaking of which, how did Team Leader Budai become the team leader?"

"This...isn't it because he can lick? Don't think he is usually very strict with us, I heard he is very flattering"

After hearing Hotei's questioning of Kin'emon, the younger brother on the side started whispering in private.

"Shut up! Is this the time to say something like this? First catch all these bastards, this is a rare feat!"

The samurai next to him stopped a few gossipers with a low voice, and continued to lead the attack. There are two other people here besides Kinemon.

"You like to use bones so much, it seems that you are very comfortable being a dog."

Although the kidney was hit hard, Kin'emon was still taunting Hotei with words, which didn't affect him, but suddenly something abnormal happened to Hotei's body.

He who wanted to continue swinging the bat suddenly lost his mobility.

"Ninjutsu·Binjutsu! Do it, Kin'emon!"

This move can be regarded as Raizang's serious ninjutsu. It can restrain the enemy's actions at the cost of being unable to move. In 1v1, this move will become a big-eyed and small-eyed technique. Can't do it.

In the battle of Ghost Island in the original timeline, Lei Zang used this trick against Fu Lu Shou in the sea of flames, defeating the opponent by relying on the tactics of competing for stamina and vitality.

In this small-scale team battle, his body binding technique is more effective.

However, the restrictions of this move are not small, the stronger the strength, the harder it is to restrain, even Lei Zang has been looking for a long time for the opportunity to restrain the cloth bag.

The chances of body binding are limited, there are not only a few of them here, Lei Zang himself was surrounded by other warriors while controlling the cloth bag, and the sharp blade pierced his body in an instant.

"Lei Zang! Budai, die for me!"

Seeing that Raizo would rather be attacked than dodge resistance, desperately controlling Hotei's movements, Kin'emon didn't waste this opportunity.

After a cry of pain, the two knives slashed at Bu Dai's head.

There was a faint sound of bone cracking, and a shallow X-shaped scar appeared on the bone armor on Budai's head, but that was all.

"Unfortunately, you should have cut my neck off!"

When Caracalla was wearing a bone mask, it was rumored that it was the skull of Caracalla's mother, but the credibility of this rumor is not high. After all, Pokémon are oviparous animals. , there will be a mask on the head.

When Caracalla evolves into Gala Gala, the mask on the head is no longer a mask, but a special layer of exoskeleton formed after fusion.

The structure of the inner and outer double skulls makes Gala Gala's head the hardest part of the body, and the characteristics of the cloth bag itself are still rare combat armor.

In the game, it appears that he will not be hit at the vital point, but in reality, it means that his vital parts have a stronger bone armor defense.

Kin'emon's attack failed to kill Hotei, but Raizo who was attacked had already fallen. Just as Hotei, who had lost his restraint, was about to continue attacking, the sky suddenly darkened, and a large amount of black rain suddenly fell. There was also a voice that frightened him.

"Stop."

"Master Mingming?!"

Seeing that Kaido appeared here at some unknown time, he immediately made the attacking Shinsengumi members stop what they were doing.

"No! It's fake! Lord Ming is not so young! Continue!"

After a brief hesitation, Bu Dai also discovered the problem. This Kaido is too young. Even though his voice is the same and his appearance is roughly similar, his face has lost the signs of aging.

He reacted, but the others were not so quick. The awe of Kaido had been engraved into the bones of this group of people, which gave Kanjuro a chance to break through.

Tsuji Shimei passed by, Kanjuro snatched the Kin'emon from the hand of the cloth bag, and then jumped high, and a huge flying bird was born in the weird ink cloud, and flew away to the distance with the two of them .

As for Raizo

Kanjuro could do nothing about it. It would be too costly to rescue him who had been stabbed several times. Even he was not sure, so he took Kinemon and fled quickly.

From the fake Kaido to the current Asuka, all of this is Kanjuro's handwriting.

Originally he was an undercover agent, so he kept hiding his painting skills. The things he drew were all abstract creatures, which were extremely difficult to move.

But after the death of Heitan Orochi, as an undercover agent, he lost his master, and with his character of interpreting life, he has completely integrated into the identity of Guangyue's retainer.

Unless Heitan Orochi is resurrected, he will be a loyal servant of Guangyue. For this reason, he no longer hides, and directly shows his true painting skills.

While dealing with the samurai in front of him, he continued to sway ink dots, and finally formed Kaido, the person in the painting.

In the original timeline, he once drew Kozuki Oden to deceive other retainers, and used the fake Oden to carry explosives to kill Asura boy.

Kanjuro's real painting skills are very good, even stronger than Usopp, but unfortunately Kanjuro doesn't know what Kaido will look like 20 years later, everything is painted according to 20 years ago, so it was quickly exposed Own.

But it still bought him precious time. The ink cloud in the sky is also his ability. Using this ink cloud, Kanjuro can paint more freely, just like this flying bird for escape.

The more realistic the creatures in the painting are, the smoother they will move. Compared with the big-headed ducks that Kanjuro usually draws, this giant falcon flies much faster.

And during the flight, Kanjuro kept using ink clouds to paint, made a lot of fake bodies, and flew in all directions to attract the attention of Hotei and others and confuse their sight.

"Ink Fire Ukiyo Fire Cloud Drawing!"

With the activation of Kanjuro's ability, the ink clouds in the sky began to scatter and fall, but during the falling process, these ink drawings, like flames, possessed the nature of burning.

This is the horror of Kanjuro's pen fruit ability. The objects he generates with ink can have the characteristics of the original substance. Rainwater turns into arrows, and ink clouds turn into fire, all of which are part of his ability. One of the hardest to deal with.

"The bastard"

"Team Leader Budai, us?"

"Ask for help from the air cavalry, let the air cavalry deal with those bastards, and the rest of them will fight the fire with me! Contact the fire brigade and ask them to help quickly, these guys really don't care about anything.

You guys, keep an eye on that ninja! Don't let him get away too! "

Looking at the part of the street that was burned under the influence of Kanjuro's ability, the cloth bag was very hot. He didn't expect that those who said that he persecuted Wano Country would be even more ruthless by themselves.

In order to retreat smoothly, not only released so many false bodies, but also directly ignited the town below.

It was originally intended to arrest these people, but it turned out that they did this kind of thing in the downtown area, and now the follow-up processing will be troublesome.

The news of the cloth bag spread quickly, and the Jenny Turtle fire brigade completed the assembly within 1 minute, and rushed here by the Tanabata blue bird, and the air cavalry just met Kaido who fell out.

Chapter 1165 Irreparable things

Beep~! beep~!

The sharp and long whistle resounded on the first floor of the small empty island. After hearing the whistle, the resting air cavalry members quickly assembled, carrying weapons and ready to go.

"You all saw that there are a group of guys flying randomly over Wano Country, let them understand that the sky is our territory! Let's go!"

Manpower and Millennium Dragon were ready to go, but before they took off, Kaido fell in front of them.

"Governor Kaido!"

"Huh? What happened? What are you guys doing?"

"It's Governor Kaido, Mr. Quinn discovered some special circumstances before, and those people reappeared 20 years ago, and then the Shinsengumi's Hotei just reported."

"Okay, you don't have to chase after it."

"Governor Kaido, what do you mean"

"It's just to add some fun to the ordinary life, why are you still here? Don't you understand what I say?"

"Yes! Yes!"

The air cavalry that had just assembled were directly disbanded. Kaido's order was absolute. If he didn't want to say more, the younger brother could only choose to obey. They haven't reached the level where they can give opinions.

Kaido is willing to explain such a sentence, which is already very good.

【20 years ago, ridiculous prophecy, let me see what you guys can do, I am in Wano country, I will not go anywhere. 】

In addition to external explanations, Kaido also has his own ideas, but these ordinary subordinates don't know this kind of thing, they only saw Kaido put on an attacking posture.

"Ugh, it's too boring to just let you leave like this, let me give you some parting gifts, hot breath!"

Although he planned to release the two of them, Kaido didn't want them to leave just like that, but released the heat himself.

The ink-drawn fake body is fundamentally different from the main body, and it can fool ordinary Shinsengumi members, causing troubles to the cloth bag, but it cannot fool Kaido.

Standing on the top of Onijima, he was like a fort, and the continuous release of heat wiped away all the fake bodies made by Kanjuro.

Under the attack of Heat Breath, a series of sacrificial explosions occurred in the sky. The false body made by Kanjuro collapsed at the touch of a touch. Kaido's domineering lock was not to kill them, but to miss them when he was afraid of intimidation. hit it down.

In the end, Kaido deliberately missed a shot, allowing them to escape smoothly, and then there was the outrageous incident experienced by Yamato and Quinn.

On the outside of Wano Country, above the giant falcon drawn by Kanjuro.

They had just "nearly escaped" from Kaido's attack. No one spoke for a while, Kin'emon didn't know what he was thinking, and Kanjuro was sorting out his words.

His current performance is too different from before. After all, in order to hide himself, he has been drawing with his left hand.

Being right-handed, he deliberately distorted his painting style, which made his paintings very abstract, which are completely incomparable to the present.

Now in order to retreat from Wano country smoothly, Kanjuro has exposed everything. He is thinking about how to make Kinemon believe in himself.

"Kin'emon, I"

"Needless to say, I understand that you are also powerless. Monanosuke-sama has been exposed, and Raizo has also made a great sacrifice. You can't rescue them together."

"No, I meant to say"

"I understand that now is not the time to be sad, we must hurry up and find suitable foreign aid so that we can rescue them.

But your painting skills"

"actually, I"

"When did it become so powerful? With this ability, subsequent actions will definitely be smoother."

Kanjuro never thought of it, he thought about the wording for a long time, and it turned out that Kin'emon, like a fool, never doubted him at all, and all the things he thought were in vain.

But that's good too, so he won't have to waste his tongue.

While rejoicing, Kanjuro also felt a sense of despair in his heart. He couldn't extricate himself from being too deeply involved in the drama, and was determined to play the role of Kozuki's retainer to death.

It is necessary to rescue Momonosuke, but the gap between the lineups of the two sides is a bit exaggerated now.

He himself is going to bring a naive man against Wano Country + Beast Pirates. This purgatory-level dungeon is the resurrection of Rocks, and he can't even deal with it, let alone Kanjuro with Kin'emon, who is likely to be a hindrance. .

For the sake of being an undercover agent, Kanjuro is unprecedented, not to mention that there will be no one to come after.

If you have to find a cause and effect, you can only say that it is the fault of Kurotan Orochi. He used Kanjuro's character to let him go undercover, and he was killed by others, which eventually led to this situation.

In Jiuli, the burning open fire has been extinguished. The Squirrels dispatched extremely fast. Cooperating with the Shinsengumi who had already started the fire-fighting operation, the fire was quickly controlled. Except for a large amount of property damage, no deaths were caused, but the number of burns Still a lot.

At this time, the Squirrels are surveying the fire site to make sure that there is no residual fire source that has not been extinguished.

The edge area is in charge of the Squirrel turtle, the inner part is the Cammy turtle, and the center is checked by a Blastoise.

"Kamey."

The water arrow turtle raised its arms high, blocking the collapsed beams.

This area was originally the center of the battle, and it was more affected. It had been completely burned into ruins, and there was a high risk of collapse.

The small body grid of the Cammy or Squirtle can easily be buried directly here, and only the fort-like body grid of the Blastoise can take on this task.

Then Blastoise adjusted the angle of the muzzle behind it, completely extinguishing the flames hidden under the ashes.

After some searching, it found a small iron box in the ruins. Due to material problems, it survived the flames. Blastoise patted the dust on it, picked up the small box and left the ruins.

"I said, grandma, you don't have to be sad, this house is also damaged in the battle, we will compensate you for a new house, and this is an old house, and it was originally in the demolition plan.

Even without the fire, this street will be rebuilt next year at the latest. Don't be sad, isn't your family all right? "

Bu Dai pulled his hair with a headache, grabbed one Lei Zang, and ran away with two.

He didn't know why the air cavalry was not dispatched, but he was not responsible for the affairs in the sky, and this operation could not be regarded as a complete failure. There was not much information 20 years ago, and there was no record about flying capabilities.

The problem is the damage caused by Kanjuro's last fire, so Hotei is working hard to deal with the aftermath.

"Alas, I have lived here for 60 years, and the memories of most of my life are lodged here."

Looking at the old man who was lost in memory, Bu Dai's head seemed to grow bigger, and he waved to his subordinates, motioning them to deal with the matter here, Bu Dai wanted to leave, and at this moment, Blastoise walked out of the fire field , with the box in his hand.

"Kamey."

"Thank you."

The old man took the tin box tremblingly, and held it in his arms like a treasure. No one knew what was inside, and few people were interested in it, but when Bu Dai was about to leave, the old man But suddenly stopped him.

"Captain Budai, you can catch him, that Nozomi monster."

"Nozomi's monster?"

"Yeah, you're too young to probably know about it.

"In the past, Nozomi had a hair-snatching monster who would suddenly appear during the day and cut off other people's hair, even the hair of the dead. That guy was the weirdo who set fire to it before."

The old man talked about the past in the tone of telling a horror story. It was a long time ago. Kanjuro would use these snatched hairs to make writing brushes and sell them for money. , and later became Oden's retainer.

This is an identity played by Kanjuro.

Because of his strange behavior and special face, many old people still remember him.

"Ah, I will, don't worry grandma, that guy is an arsonist."

Although Kanjuro's fire indirectly helped them escape, it also led to a worse consequence.

Kuri was originally the site of Kozuki Oden. When he governed here, he also tried his best to change the status quo of poverty here, and made some efforts.

So the old man in Jiuli has a deeper memory of him. Even after so many years, he has not been completely forgotten.

But today this fire has changed everything. Instead of blaming the dead Oden, they have resentment towards these retainers from the past.

Before they appeared, nothing happened, but as soon as these people appeared, they lost their homes, and the remaining prestige was further consumed.

And under the secret instruction of Hotei, his cronies are also spreading that this battle was caused by Momonosuke's retainers wanting to start a fight.

It causes property damage, or someone in the family is hurt and people start to resent this guy who disappeared for 20 years.

Beasts Pokémon Center, in the Pediatric Department, the physical examination process has ended, and Mandefish is waiting for the result.

"Master Mandefish, you don't have to worry about anything, it seems that the three children are all healthy, and the report will come out later."

"Trouble."

Looking at his daughter who became restless under the leadership of Miao Na and Worf, Mandefish sighed helplessly. He didn't think this medical examination was necessary, but Quinn asked them to come.

So Mandefish had to make a trip here before taking the children to play.

While they were waiting for the test results, people injured by the fire were also brought here, and the burn department became busy for a while. At the same time, Denjiro also came here with Kawamatsu and Kikunojo.

Hiyori asked him to come here to deal with the hand injury, seemingly caring about him, but Denjiro has already noticed something abnormal, and now Hiyori no longer trusts him, and I am afraid that his current position will change soon.

Momonosuke is not dead yet, but the future is worrisome. When Denjiro was struggling, he heard a few people swearing.

"Then who is Momonosuke? Why did he come back? It was his father who got hurt!"noVelusB.COM

Chapter 1166 Overwhelmed, lost trust

The corridors of the hospital are very noisy. When a large-scale emergency occurs, even if the hospital is well prepared on weekdays, the care and complaints of the family members and the pain of the patients will make the place look chaotic.

At this time, it is time to compare your voice, and no one can hear you when you speak in a friendly manner.

"Lucky!"

The roar of the lucky egg came from one side, and a lucky egg opened a path in the corridor with a hammer as big as itself, and quieted the noisy crowd

Although the painting style of the nurse swinging the hammer is very strange, it seems reasonable here. Pirates stationed in other areas will also be sent here according to their injuries.

The rules outside are looser than those inside Ghost Island. If you can't control your emotions, the lucky eggs are likely to help them in physical ways.

As for whether it will scare people, the hammer is painted with a layer of pink paint, and there is an exclusive red cross, which is not scary at all.

There is some order in the noise. Although it looks a bit chaotic, everything in the Pokémon Center is going on in an orderly manner.

Injuries complain about different things.

Some people were glad that they were not at home at that time, some were lamenting the things at home, some were comforting the injured, but all of them had one thing in common, they all spurned the guy who set the fire.

Even Momonosuke is the same, anyway, they have disappeared for 20 years, why not disappear forever? With him or without him, there is no difference for Wano Country.

These people don't remember Momonosuke at all, they just feel that he has broken their peaceful and beautiful life. Bu Dai successfully shifted the negative emotions in residents' hearts in this way.

Under his exaggeration, no one thinks that this incident was caused by Shinsengumi's ineffective action, and everyone thinks that the appearance of Momonosuke caused all this.

But these words became very harsh in Denjiro's ears.

By inquiring, Denjiro already knew what happened to Kuri. He didn't expect Kanjuro and Kin'emon to set fire to them in order to leave Wano country smoothly.

Today's Wano country lacks loyalty to Kozuki's family, to be precise, it is loyalty to Kozuki Momonosuke. What a kid who has been on the run for 20 years is just a grandiose scene.

Even without these things, it would be extremely difficult for Momonosuke to gather people's hearts, let alone make such a thing happen.

But for Denjiro, the troubles are not limited to these, he is powerless to change anything with Momonosuke, and now he is already in a state of being a mud bodhisattva crossing the river, unable to protect himself.

Denjiro came here to treat the wound on his hand, which is what Kozuki Hiyori meant, but it doesn't mean that she doesn't pursue the previous matter.

What Denjiro has done has already caused Kozuki Hiyori to lose his trust in him. When he came here, Kawamatsu and Kikunojo accompanied him, but in a blink of an eye, the figures of Kawamatsu and Kikunojo disappeared, replaced by It is the Koga Ninja Frog.

Although the Koga Ninwa is nominally the leader of the Hiyori Imperial Court Banzhong, and the Imperial Court Banzhong is Hiyori's direct armed force, the leader of this organization is Hiyori's bodyguard leader.

In addition to being responsible for the general's safety, he will also secretly eliminate dissidents. In theory, he is the most reliable person for the general.

But the Koga ninja is different. Except for the large number of Koga-ryu ninjas under his command, his own status in the palace is very detached.

Because Arceus' order was to temporarily obey Kozuki Hiyori's instructions, Koga Ninja would help her with some things.

Kozuki Hiyori also knew this kind of thing, Koga Ninja would not refuse to ask Koga Ninja to do something for her, but that would be equivalent to installing a surveillance camera in the bedroom, which would only make him very uncomfortable.

So she didn't take the initiative to ask Koga Ninwa to do something, and now she actually contacted Koga Ninwa, which clearly means that her retainers make her hard to trust.

Not only for Denjiro, but even Kikunojo and Kawamatsu were affected.

"Why are you here?"

"Of course it's your general's request. She is very concerned about your physical condition. She asked me to see if you have been treated well, and told you to rest well. Don't worry about anything else. Someone else will take over your work.

You should understand what this sentence means, right?

I used to think you were a smart person, but I didn't expect to be stupid at this time. "

Although these retainers have no power at all, at most they instruct some people in the palace to obtain some information in advance, but now, Kozuki Hiyori has deprived Denjiro of this power.

Different from Momonosuke who disappeared for 20 years, she still misses some old feelings for Denjiro who has been by her side for 20 years.

"What exactly do you want to do?"

"Such naive words have no meaning in answering, this kind of small role is not worth our troubles at all, instead of asking me, why don't you guess what your general wants to do now?"

Don't blame me for not reminding you, your general has said that if you behave abnormally, she suggested that I kill you directly. "

A small water shuriken brushed past Denjiro's forehead, and a few strands of hair fell with it.

"Let's go, that little injury has been delayed long enough, and your general has prepared a nice room for you to retire from."

"What about Inuarashi and Nekomushir?"

Denjiro didn't know that Raizo hadn't escaped, and only cared about Inuarashi and Nekomushi, who were caught together with Momanosuke.

"Wait for your general, she will naturally tell you what she wants to say."

Denjiro still had a doctor to treat the wound, but Raizo was different. He was thrown into the Rabbit Bowl mining field after a light bandage, and soon after, Momanosuke became his inmate.

Apart from this, Kozuki Hiyori did not make any other moves, as if he was waiting for something, while Inuarashi and Momomushi received different treatment because of their race.

The fur tribe has the right of autonomy, and this power also relies on the rules of the beasts, but what happens, they also deal with it internally.

There is no autonomous region of fur tribes in Wano, most fur tribes are still used to living in Zou, Wano country is just a tourist area for them, at most there is a special "embassy".

If Setsuna was there, this kind of matter would usually be thrown to her directly, but now she is not here, and Zeraola is also at Zowu's side today.

In the end, it can only be dealt with by a fur tribe who is highly respected and able to hold the place.

Not long ago, in the hot spring of Baiwu, Yang Jisihan was enjoying his retirement life, and beside him was Kuzan, who was also retired, sharing his experience with him.NovElusb.Com

In the past, Yang Jisihan and Kuzan had no intersection, but it took only half an hour for them to become good brothers.

They reached a consensus in a special place - it's too tiring to go to work, and it's good to have a bad retirement.

As a result, just after Yang Jisihan finished speaking, he was very relaxed recently, but troubles came.

"No. This is not a hospital, nor a fire station, can this cause trouble?"

There is metaphysics in the dark, and some things are very strange, especially in some departments that are relatively busy on weekdays. Some things are tabooed. If you talk about leisure in those places, you may work overtime until dawn that day.

When Jisi Khan came here, there were still some curls hanging on his head. He was doing hairstyle just now.

"You, Inuarashi, Momomushi? Didn't you disappear?"

Yang Jisihan's superior memory still remembers the two of them, and he didn't know where they went at the moment, so he could only be inconclusive in the end.

"What the * are you doing?"

Quin's muscle relaxant has expired, Inuarashi is fine, just sitting quietly aside, but there is an extra pair of handcuffs on the cat viper, and Pedro is still watching him from the side.

Pedro in the original timeline is a subordinate of Mamushir because he lived in the forest of whales, but now it is different, because of the age difference, the Viper who was sent to the future by Kozuki does not know Pedro .

"Senior Yang Jisihan, the two of them."

Jalot jumped on a stool beside him, grabbed the horns of the sheep Keith Khan with both hands and whispered in his ear: "The two of them suddenly appeared in Jiuli for some reason, and then attacked Meowna and Wolf."

The size difference of the fur clan is still obvious. There are small people like Garrot and big guys like Yang Jisihan. At Yang Jisihan's current age, it is difficult for him to bend down.

"Are those two little guys okay?"

"It's okay, but I heard that the cat viper didn't get along with the Duke before, so let the Duke know."

Hearing the news from Garrot, Yang Jisihan felt that his head was getting bigger. After finally retiring, he still had to deal with such troublesome things.

"Inuarashi, Neko Mamushi, do you know what you did?"

"We just want to protect the lord's child, Duke Yangjishan, why are you here? Why are there so many fur tribes here? This place is occupied by beasts."

"Protect the lord's children? Is this why you try to hurt children of the same clan?!"

Hearing Gou Lan's reasons, Yang Jisi Khan only felt that he was very angry. The number of the fur clan is small. No matter what time it is, the rights and interests of the same clan are higher than those of other clans, not to mention that these two children are the children of the Duke.

The reasons of Inuarashi and Nekomushiba made him unacceptable at all.

"Duke Yangjishan, Zou and the Guangyue family have a brotherly covenant?"

"So, in your opinion, it is more important for your own children and brothers' children to be brothers' children?"

Yang Jisihan wanted to reprimand them, but there was a loud elephant song in his ears.

Except for the elephant master, no other elephant can make this sound, and this sound also means that the true master has returned

It's time to owe debts again in Reincarnation (3k)

Chapter 1167: Public Indignation and Deathmatch

"Elephant Lord? Why so fast this time?"

Yang Keith Khan frowned. The Elephant Master also had a rough movement route after he started to move freely. It stands to reason that he is still some distance away from the Wano Kingdom.

"Senior Yang Jisihan, tomorrow is a holiday, and the elephant owner is very close to the Wano country. It should be that the Duke immediately asked the elephant owner to rush back after receiving the news.

Like the master's footsteps, you know, it's not slow if it goes all out. "

Pedro didn't think there was anything wrong, as the speed of walking on weekdays was faster than most ships.

Although the frequency of its steps is not high, it cannot support the long legs of the elephant master. ηοVελusB.cOm

With a height of more than 20,000 meters, its legs account for more than two-thirds, and it can cover a very long distance with each step. When it is deliberately hurrying, it walks faster.

"Pedro, you are still young, you don't understand at all, no matter how fast the elephant master walks, can the two of them fly as fast?"

"Senior Yang Jisihan, what do you mean?"

"You'll find out soon."

After living for so many years and being a duke for so long, Yang Jisihan sees farther than Pedro. If he is just impatient, it is the fastest to let Zeraora fly back with Shisu.

But they didn't, instead they returned here with the elephant master.

Because of the autonomy of the fur tribe, even if someone violated any regulations in Wano country, they would be brought back to Zou for further processing. They chose to come back with the elephant owner, which clearly meant to follow the rules.

But Yang Jisi Khan didn't think there was anything wrong. He had no children. To him, the young people in Zowu were his own children. pay the price.

Setsuna was trying to protect her shortcomings, and Yang Jisihan felt it strange that these two people touched her own child, and Setsuna didn't directly call the door.

"Senior Yang Jisihan! The elephant master is back, and there is this, let me bring this to you over there."

Before Yang Jisihan could make any further moves, Beibo rolled in from the door with a notebook.

Literally rolled in.

Beipo was very impatient along the way. He accidentally tripped over the threshold when opening the door, and finally bounced in front of Sheep Jishan like a fur ball, but Beibo seemed to have developed some very strange abilities.

In the process of scrolling, instead of exclaiming, he clearly expressed his meaning, and brought the dossier about the Momonosuke incident in front of Yang Jisihan.

"Be careful next time"

"sorry"

"What are you apologizing for?"

Yang Jisihan didn't quite understand why, as a bear fur, Bepo's character liked to apologize so much, but he had already adapted to this matter, so he took the file and read the details.

The parts about Inuarashi and Nekomushir have been sorted out, the specific details are not written, but the node events are also explained.

"Became Kozuki Oden's vassal and disappeared with Kozuki Momonosuke for 20 years. There was a conflict with Meowna and Worf

So the motivation for the two of you to do this is because that human brat is the son of Kozuki Oden? "

"Meow, what's the problem? Duke Yang Jisihan? The Hairy Principality is an ally of Wano, and we had a brotherly alliance with the Kozuki family hundreds of years ago.

Beasts took away the Kozuki family's rule over Wano country, shouldn't we help them take it back?

"Cat Viper, you made a mistake. We are allies, not vassals."

It's not that allies can abandon their allies at will, but I've never heard of any ally that will put itself in for the sake of an ally. There are conflicts of interest between countries. When this covenant does not bring benefits, but will damage its own rights and interests, the covenant will naturally no longer exist.

Even if it is a vassal state, I have never heard of a few people who died for the suzerain state after an accident in the suzerain state.

Being able to become a suzerain country is because the country is stronger, an enemy that even a strong country cannot defeat, let alone a weaker dependent country.

If the purpose of the beasts is the reign of terror, and even Zowu is included in this scope, the fur clan will definitely have to fight to the death, and most people understand the truth.

But the reality of experience told Yang Jisihan that the Wano Kingdom ruled by beasts is more beneficial to Zou.

In the past 20 years, Zowu's development speed can be said to be second only to Wano country, and Wano country still has the orthodoxy of Kozuki Hi and the general, Yang Jisihan didn't think there was any problem at all.

Yang Jisi Khan is acting as the king of Zou, but Inuarashi and Momushi are using the identity of Oden's retainers, and what they see is completely different.

He is not the person who had a brotherly covenant with the Guangyue family eight hundred years ago, he just saw the path that benefited Zou the most within his knowledge.

Zowu is becoming stronger, and the boring and monotonous life of the fur tribe has improved. Even if the fur tribe has problems in other sea areas, Zowu behind him has the ability to help them.

Momonosuke Kozuki is the heir of Oden, but so is Hiyori.

Although Kozuki and the general have no real power, Yang Jisihan can see that the civilians of Wano country like this kind of life very much.

At the beginning, Heitan Orochi took the biggest scapegoat, which gave the beasts an excuse similar to "the Qing emperor's side".

It is simply impossible for the current Zou to recognize the heir who has disappeared for 20 years, and then give up everything now to try to help Momonosuke take back Wano.

Even in the original timeline, the behavior of the Furry Principality is very strange. Jack destroyed their country.

The problem is that after Momomushi and Inuarashi inherited the position of the rulers of the Furry Principality, they still put the status of retainers before the throne. Momonosuke > the entire fur clan, this is unreasonable.

And after Kaido's defeat, he was able to directly throw Zou to the young Garrot, and happily became a retainer.

It can only be said that the aura of Mitian is too terrifying, and it can even affect a race.

"It seems that it doesn't make sense to reason with you, Pedro, Bepo, take them back to Zou, I am a retired old man, and I can't take care of so many things."

Yang Keith Khan didn't know the * things that happened 20 years ago. In his opinion, the nature of this thing was bad, but there was still room for maneuver.

It's true that they did something wrong, but Mowna and Worf were not injured. If Inuarashi and Maomushi honestly admit their mistakes, and he tries to reconcile with his old face, it may be over after a few years of confinement.

But according to Maomushi and Inuarashi's obstinate attitude, this matter must not be so easy to solve.

"Wait, retired?"

Inuarashi noticed this keyword at this time, and now I think about it, the way other fur tribes call Yang Jisi Khan is also a senior, not a duke.

"I am an old man, of course I have retired long ago. The new Duke of the Furry Principality is Setsuna."

After leaving this sentence, Yang Jisihan walked out of the house directly, and Mobamushi and Inuarashi followed without any fear.

Although they are stupid, they still have the awareness of retainers, at least they are not afraid of anything.

"Why is the elephant owner here?"

As soon as he left the house, Inuarashi saw an unimaginable scene. The elephant owner carrying the Furry Principality on his back was standing outside the wall of Wano Country, with a huge elephant trunk tens of thousands of meters hanging above them.

"Of course they came to pick us up. You probably don't know that the Duke can communicate with the elephant owner, and Zou now looks different from 20 years ago."

Pedro said something indifferently, and led them to follow the pace of Yang Jisihan.

The moment they stepped on the tip of the elephant owner's nose, the elephant owner curled up his nose and sent them to the back as if he had received the order. When the height of Inuarashi and Maobashi was parallel to the elephant owner's eyes, he even noticed it Danger.

At the same time, in the Furry Principality, the atmosphere here is a bit depressing.

Many fur tribes gathered in the meeting hall of the fur tribe. Whether it was members of the Musketeers or the Duke's assistants, they were all gathered together. They were regarded as individuals with higher status in the fur tribe.

The heir of the Duke was attacked, which was unheard of in Zou, but no one spoke.

The same was true for the moment when she sat on the main seat, but the electric sparks flickering on her body were enough to show that her heart was not as peaceful as it appeared on the surface.

"It's the * Cat Viper again. I shouldn't show mercy back then, I should kill him directly"

click

There was a crisp sound in the empty hall, and the stone armrests of the chairs had turned into a pile of debris. At this time, there was a loud noise from outside.

"Let go of me! I'm going to kill those two bastards, dare to touch my grandchildren, I will never end with them!"

"Captain Hatch, calm down!"

"Yeah, Zou has laws, you can't mess around!"

Setsuna is still suppressing his anger for the time being, but Hutch outside can't help it. Sometimes the generations are closer, he just lived with Ling Hui Zowu for a while, and the grandson and granddaughter had an accident when they were playing .

The fur family would be affected by the type of fur. As a dog fur of pure husky blood, he just wanted to have a good fight with the opponent, but was held back by the people on the side.

"Yes, Brother Hatch, the Duke certainly doesn't want you to be like this"

A cow fur just wanted to persuade Hutch, when he saw a blue arrow fly out and directly stuck in front of the cat viper's feet.

After realizing that they had arrived, Setsuna still couldn't suppress the anger in the end.

"Cat Viper, you bastard, I didn't hold you accountable for stealing more than 20 years ago, and I stopped you forcibly using the moon and lion to kill you, but without me, you would have died between you and me more than 20 years ago." country.

I ignored you, but you got it on my child instead, you are too deceitful! "

"There's no need to be hypocritical here, and I didn't ask you to help me. If you hadn't broken into Wano Country, there wouldn't be such troubles at all."

"Indeed, it's my fault, I forgot that you * never knows how to be grateful."

"Bah, I don't owe you anything, why should I be grateful? Oden-sama saved us, this is the kindness I want to repay!"

It is obvious that you are working for those intruders, and also deceived the whole Zou, you are not worthy to be this duke at all! "

As soon as this remark was made, the cat viper completely attracted the attention of all fur tribes.

Shina is self-willed, and pays more attention to her own small family. She is not a selfless king, but no one in Zowu questioned her position as Duke.

The changes she brings to Zou solidify this position.

The ability to communicate with the elephant owner is one of the reasons. This not only shows her individual specialness among the fur tribe, but also gives her a bit of aura.

Since the elephant master is a living creature, it does not have a complete circuit network on its back like Wano Country, only some private electrical appliances relying on batteries.

These electrical appliances, together with materials and condiments from Wano Country, have greatly improved the primitive and monotonous living environment on Zou's back.

Because the movement route of the elephant owner becomes controllable, ordinary members of the fur family can also leave the back of the elephant to see the colorful world outside.

The deterrent power of the beasts prevents most forces on the sea from provoking them. These changes are the foundation of a stable position and the origin of its reputation.

"You should go, what are you doing watching?"

The few fur tribes who had stopped Hutch before had let go of their hands, as if if you dare to go up, we will follow you and beat him up.

Before they could even make a move, a stone had already hit the cat viper on the head.

"You're talking nonsense!"

A young fur tribe picked up stones on the ground and threw them out, followed by a lot of sundries, but there were no such things as fruits and eggs. Food other than fish is very precious in Zou, and it is extremely wasteful here. Shameful behaviour.

The stone and the lead wire ignited the entire powder barrel. The words of Mobamushi directly aroused the public outrage, and the overwhelming condemnation and debris gathered in Maomushi. Even Inuarashi was not spared.

"Stop it all!"

Before the situation was about to get out of control, Setsumo stopped the other fur tribes, and finally walked in front of Inuarashi and Momushiru.

"Give you two one last chance, apologize, and then be punished according to the rules of the fur tribe."

"When did the fur clan have rules against fighting? Who wants to obey your rules? Even if everyone recognizes your Duke position, I will not recognize it!"

"So you agree with what Cat Viper said, is that what you mean?"

Su Mo looked at Inuarashi again, waiting for his answer.

"I"

Inuarashi didn't agree, but he didn't refute either. He wasn't as extreme as Nekomushir, but he was also very loyal to Kozuki Oden.

If the status of the new Duke of the Setsuna Fur Clan is recognized, it means that Kozuki Hiyori is orthodox, and Momonosuke is really rebellious.

"It's better, it doesn't matter if you don't recognize my position as a duke, I didn't intend to use my status as a duke to target you.

What happened next has nothing to do with Kozuki, the fur clan, or the kingdom of beasts and Wano, it's just our personal enmity.

I endured the previous things, but this time is different.

You reject the new law, then follow the tradition, let me see if you two have the courage to fight to the death! "

The interior of the fur tribe is relatively harmonious, but it is not a race that does not produce conflicts.

With the change of the furry principality's environment, some rules have indeed changed, which are based on the internal rules of the beasts as the framework, combined with the improvement of the fur tribe's own situation.

The death match under the moon is a tradition that was abolished before. Once the two sides have irreconcilable disputes, they will fight on the night of the full moon, and the winner is the right one.

This kind of thing hasn't happened in Zou for decades, but Momomushi and Inuarashi moved her child. Judging from their very firm attitude, even if they let them go, there will be no change.

Since this is the case, it is time to completely eliminate possible risks in an instant.

Chapter 1168 Strict defense against Tian virus, a new construction site family

Death fight under the moon, something handed down from the fur clan in ancient times, under the moon does not refer to night, but specifically refers to the day when the full moon is full every month.

This rule is also to fit the ability of the fur clan moon lion. Normal fur clan can only exert the strongest power on the night of the full moon, regardless of whether they control the moon lion or not.

The fur tribe who doesn't know how to use moon lions is not necessarily inferior to those who are proficient in moon lions.

After all, the Moon Lion is in a state, and any fur tribe will use this ability. The so-called "will" refers to freely controlling the Moon Lion and being able to stop the desire to destroy.

Those who cannot control the moon lion forcefully use the moon lion, and may even explode more terrifying power because they cannot control the power.

In history, there is even a record of two fur tribes who don't know the moon lion at the same time and are exhausted due to madness.

Because there is a possibility that both sides will die together, this kind of thing is called a death match under the moon.

"Please wait a moment! Your Excellency Duke, you don't need to do this kind of thing, let me do it for you."

Hearing that Setsuna proposed the decision to fight under the moon, Sicilian of the Musketeers put forward his opinion first. He felt that there was no need for Setsuna to do it himself.

And Sicilian is not an exception. Many fur tribes of the Musketeers have this idea.

"Quiet! As I said, this is a personal enmity, so you don't need to intervene."

Dispelled the musketeers who wanted to fight for her, Setsumo let someone uncuff the handcuffs of Neko Mamushi, and then said: "Inuarashi, Neko Mamushi, you two were no match for me 20 years ago.

Now you are even worse, especially you, Cat Viper, before you could be stubborn and refuse to admit defeat, but the death match under the moon will not give you a chance to be stubborn.

How to do it, you better think about it before answering me. "

"Don't think about it, just come, where's your partner? Is that your boyfriend?"

"Hahaha, you really think highly of yourself, this time I'm going to beat you two alone, 2v2 is too bullying, it doesn't make sense at all.

Tonight is the full moon, cherish the last time. "

Then Shi Mo contacted the elephant master with the power of the waveguide. In the waves, the elephant master turned his huge body and walked towards an isolated island in the distance.

That island is a dedicated island for the Beast Ranking Battle. Everything on the island is a venue for battles, and it can be used as a ring at this time.ηΟvℰℓu.sℬ.cΟm

The sudden departure took away some cronies, and the rest of the fur tribe also dispersed, leaving only a few members of the musketeer team still staring at Inuarashi and Momomushi.

When those fur tribes left, they looked at Inuarashi and Momushime with contempt and disgust in their eyes. It wasn't long after they returned to Zou, but Inuarashi and Momushimusi had completely become outsiders. A fur clan understands what they do.

Time passed quickly. When the elephant owner arrived at the predetermined location, night fell completely, and the bright moonlight sprinkled on the ground, adding a touch of chill to the peaceful night.

Without saying anything, Ji Su on the island looked directly at the moon above his head.

The full moon is reflected in her eyes, and the dents of the craters hit by meteorites are all very clear under the reflection of the pupils,

Because of the reaction between the light and the pupils, the pupils of the moment suddenly contracted when they looked directly at the moonlight, and then bursts of lightning surrounded the body.

The tall figure has become more slender, and the exposed canine teeth have become extremely sharp, as dangerous as a blade under the moonlight

The extended hair hangs down behind him, and the scarlet pupils have already locked on his enemy.

"Come on, let me see what you two can do for that so-called Oden."

She didn't use Lucario's power, but simply used the fur tribe's own power. When things got to this point, neither Inuarashi nor Momomushi did not back down.

The two looked at the sky one after the other, and the fur color of their bodies changed accordingly, but there was more madness in their eyes.

Without systematic training and twenty years of training time, they can't control this power well.

When Inuarashi and Momomushi also entered the moon lion state, only the roar of beasts and the roar of thunder and lightning remained on the island.

Because of Setsuna's order, no one else from the fur tribe went to the island with her, including Meowna and Worf, who are still playing around in Wano Country.

No knowledge of what their parents are doing at this time.

But on the head of the elephant owner, there are many fur tribes gathered, and they are all concerned about the situation below.

No one could see clearly what happened below, they could only see the occasional flashes of thunder.

The difference in force between the two sides in the battle is also a knowledge blind spot for the residents of the fur tribe. They know that their Duke is strong, but they don't know how strong she is.

No one knows how Setsuna fights, they only know that the duration of the battle is very short.

In less than a quarter of an hour, the thunder had dissipated, and there was no trace of any battle on the island. Two minutes later, Setsuna returned to Zowu alone.

Except for the slightly tired eyes, she didn't have any scars on her body. The people in Zou knew exactly what this meant.

But Setsu did not have the joy of winning the battle, only full of helplessness.

"Sicilian, remember to tell me to go down, all those who go to Wano country to play in the future, stay away from anything with the word "光月" on it."

If their battle hadn't affected their children, Setsuna didn't want to do this, but in her opinion, Inuarashi and Momushiba had already entered a state of bewilderment, and the Oden virus was affecting their brains like a storm.

If this virus is allowed to spread within the fur tribe, the harm will be too great.

Even at the last moment, Inuarashi and Momushiba did not change their minds. They would rather face death than change their minds.

It's okay if such a person is a teammate or friend, but when the two sides are hostile, it is a real disaster.

The Fur Tribe solved this problem in their own way, but Wano Country didn't know it.

But the whole incident did not end with this.

Some people have died, but the destroyed buildings of Guri have not been restored. While Setsu is dealing with personal grievances, Guri is also doing restoration work, and compared to the Kaili family, they have more reliable new Pokémon,

Some gray-skinned, child-like Pokémon are carrying wooden beams to transport building materials.

The Pokémon with the same gray skin, but more muscular and much older appearance, is mixing concrete.

The Pokémon that looks like a mature man is holding a large I-beam and is demolishing an old house

Bad news: I failed to repay the debt, I will change the 3k tomorrow

Chapter 1169 Born as a civil engineering soul, a lifetime civil engineering man

"Boss Hong Kong Friends! Do you think this is okay?"

Workers from Wano Country walked up to Hong Kong Friends wearing hard hats. Safe construction is still very important. Even Hong Kong Friends have changed their routine. In addition to the cloth strips tied on the top of their heads, they also wear rattan safety helmets. cap.

It looks like ordinary tree vines, but these tree vines are also a by-product of the great planting of quince fruit.

The fruit can be eaten, the dead branches are high-quality fruit charcoal, the leaves can be used as medicine, and even some vines are particularly tough.

Although the planter in the later period was Quinn, the seeds were provided by Arceus after all. In Wano, everything related to Arceus will be used to the extreme. Waste of everything related to the Lord of the Heavens will be destroyed in Wano. considered disrespectful.

These hard hats are similar products. In the past, the buildings built in Wano country generally only had one or two floors, and they were mostly wooden structures. Even if you don't wear hard hats, it will have no effect.

But it's different now. The proportion of reinforced concrete is gradually increasing, and the height of the floors is also rising. Even among the helping workers, there are a lot of Pokémon.

Unintentionally bouncing gravel and hitting the head is very fatal. Even if Hong Kong friends are more rigid, they don't mean to use their own heads to test the hardness of the stone.

"Well, it's not bad, the two of you can also become teachers."

As he grows older, Hong Kong friends also begin to bring in apprentices to let them inherit their mantle, or to learn together. Even he has never built this type of building before.

This is what he learned from some people who immigrated from the outer islands. With the technology in his hand, he can enjoy it anywhere. Attracted by beasts and huge profits, many people finally chose to immigrate.

But talent is sometimes really confusing. Hong Kong friends are very good at this aspect. Even if it is an architectural plan that has never been touched, it is in their own hands in a very short time.

defended his name as the legendary carpenter of Wano.

As the person who built Onishima, the monastery, and participated in the reconstruction of most parts of Wano Country, his name is destined to remain in the history of Wano Country, but in the long history, there are only a few strokes.

"Although it's inappropriate to say this, the fire burned really well."

Gangyou's disciple muttered in a low voice, and then there was a "snap", and Gangyou hit his head with a wooden stick.

The rattan safety helmet relieved the impact, but I didn't feel anything, but the apprentice still squatted on the ground with his head in his arms. This is the experience and lessons he has learned from Hong Kong friends.

If there is no response, Hong Kong friends will just continue to beat him.

"Don't talk nonsense, let the people here hear and beat you and you won't be able to escape."

Guangyou criticized the apprentice's words, but did not refute him.

The reconstruction of Nine Mile was originally only short of this area, but now the process has been sped up.

The disposal measures of the bag were timely, and the fire brigade did not delay, but the Hong Kong friends still felt that the fire was a bit weird.

No one died because of it, it was all property damage, which is nothing at all in the case of new house compensation.

And now the build speed

It won't be long before this street will be completely completed.

Put the previous thoughts behind him, no matter what the reason is, the situation has already happened, as long as he fixes the house well, nothing else has anything to do with him.

There is no problem with the design and layout, and Hong Kong friends also began to inspect the construction site below to correct some mistakes.

"Hey Hey, Hey Hey"

Two people are walking on the construction site carrying a wooden beam.

Wood has not been completely abandoned, and some areas still rely on wood.

From the slightly immature palms and youthful face of the person in front, it can be seen that he is a newcomer who has just entered the industry.

"Damn it, why am I working hard here!" NoVELUsb.coM

"Because you don't know anything else, you failed the written test of the Shinsengumi, and you haven't played the special move of force.

If you are asked to work as a waiter in the capital of flowers, you will not lose face, and if you are asked to work in a factory, you will find it boring.

You don't know how to do technical work, and you can't continue your studies. If you don't come here to work hard, what else can you do? "

"But."

"No, but, if I hadn't been following the boss of Hong Kong Friends, do you think it's so easy to do this job?"

The man asked a little angrily, but the boy was full of disdain.

"It's just selling your physical strength, who can't do it if you have the strength?"

As soon as he finished speaking, he almost swallowed that sentence. A short figure walked past with a bigger wooden beam on his shoulders. It didn't speak, but the boy got a meaning from its eyes.

【Weak chicken get out of the way, don't get in the way】

This is not a Pokémon of the strange force family. Although the strange force family can also be seen on the construction site, this race is not only in the construction site, but also in the gym and boxing gym. There are strange force families in many places.

But these newly born Pokémon are different.

The Pokémon walking past carrying the wood are all gray, but pink "veins" can still be seen on the gray skin. These exposed blue veins and the huge wood on the shoulders are enough to illustrate the strength in their bodies.

Muscle and bone Pokémon, a porter.

The bigger the wood block, the older the porter is, and the closer he is to evolution. Unlike the Weili family, it is also exercising, but it is targeting the construction site.

In the Pokémon world, as long as there are porters living in the area, they will definitely be seen on the construction site.

"Understood? It can do more than the two of us, and it only needs one wage. With these Pokémon, simply selling physical strength has long been unpopular."

Compared to Pokémon, the power of human beings is very humble, and super newcomers are rare.

After the number of Pokémon such as Carpenter, Wrist Power, and Hao Li gradually increased, the foremen also found that these Pokémon were much more efficient than humans.

However, they are not good at technology and can only assist humans. This has led to a sharp rise in the demand for skilled workers, while the status of manual workers has gradually declined.

The environment forces them to make changes, and continuing to study is the best way out, otherwise they have to consider jobs like the assembly line.

The emergence of Pokémon has improved people's livelihood, which is a good thing for most people, as evidenced by the shortened construction period.

But their appearance has also squeezed the living space of some people. In the era of the increase of Pokémon, the industrial transformation in Wano has not stopped for a moment.

For example, people who originally burned coal turned to produce fruit charcoal. If it is purely for heating, it is more useful to use large charcoal that falls from the car body.

It's okay for people who have joined the team a long time ago. Today's construction team is increasingly full of newcomers. They don't have any skills, and no masters are willing to recruit apprentices to teach them.

"What are you doing in a daze? Today is just the beginning, the weather is still cool now, and you don't know what heat is until the sun comes out.

You complain of suffering and tiredness every day, just follow me to work honestly today, and I will see if you will shed a layer of skin. "

The relationship between the two is not a newcomer and an old man, but a father and son. This is just an ordinary teaching. The man does not understand the truth, but he is telling his children what the future will look like with reality.

After all, Beast's policy does not include social welfare to make people lie down, that kind of person is not what they want.

The small porters were enthusiastically transporting the wood, but there was a dusty scene among the ruins left by the previous fire.

He has the same head shape as fluffy curly hair, the same large red nose as Bucky, and more developed muscles than the porter, but the thing in his hand has changed from a wooden beam to an I-beam.

Now they are walking among the ruins with I-beams in their hands. After looking up and down, they found the key load-bearing parts, and then swung the I-beams in their hands vigorously and smashed towards the center.

Boom! Boom! boom!

The house fell in response, and none of the fragments fell out of the circle drawn in advance on the ground. The Pokémon inside also patted the dust on its body, showing a very satisfied smile.

Although they didn't wear safety helmets, the gravel didn't affect them at all. Relying on their strong muscles and skin, they mitigated most of the injuries.

Iron Bone Earthman is also a muscular Pokémon, the evolution of the porter, his hobby is to show off his muscles, and his favorite weapon is the I-beam in his hand. This kind of Pokémon seems to have all the talent points of the I-beam superior.

Hold the I-beam, they are the bravest fighters, but if you switch to other weapons, they will become reckless and foolish.

After evolution, their hobbies have also changed. Small builders like to carry, but iron-bone natives like to demolish. They obviously have muscles that wrestlers envy, but they have been exercising themselves on the construction site.

According to the philosophy of these iron-bone natives, this is the real strength, and the fake muscles in the gym are nothing compared to their muscles.

They are not good at demolishing, steel-concrete structures are their forte, but when they demolished the ruins and laid the foundation with the I-beam in their hands, they found that there seemed to be a bundle of steel bars missing.

"Too goofy?"

Several iron-bone natives looked at each other, but in the end they didn't figure out what was going on, they just thought it was taken away by workers from other areas.

These iron-bone earthlings are still too young. If an experienced person finds that a small amount of steel is missing, they will immediately look for some pink figures in the construction site.

In fact, this is exactly the case. Where they couldn't see, a few pink-haired twintails broke the steel bars in their hands like breaking bamboo, and chewed happily.

In some places where the frame has been laid, there are Pokémon with more muscular muscles than the iron bone soil man, and the nose has become bigger, the kind that Bucky will feel very friendly when he sees it.

However, their faces are much older, wrinkles can still be seen on their foreheads, and there are even beards on their chins. At this time, they are holding huge stone pillars and stirring the concrete below.

Pokémon are usually not engaged in technical jobs, such as the ultimate evolution of the Wrist Force family. Although it is powerful and has four arms, its fingers are no longer flexible and cannot do fine work at all.

But these Pokémon are an exception.

The final evolution of the old builder and the small mover, has a natural and powerful talent for mixing concrete.

The ratio of cement and sand moisture, what kind of water should be used to prepare what kind of concrete.

They always concoct the most suitable concrete for the type of building in question.

According to the legend of the Pokémon world, human concrete technology is learned from the hands of old builders.

The evolution of the small porter into the iron-bone soilman is tested by strength. As long as the strength is broken through, the opportunity for the evolution of the small porter will come. The test of the buildable old man is no longer a single strength.

Their brute force is terrifying, but there is also a skill hidden under this terrifying brute force.

It has proficiently learned the move of wielding concrete stone pillars without relying on strength, and flexibly using centrifugal force, and even if it loses its weapons, they are still very powerful fighters.

So experienced construction veterans have higher fighting skills, and at the same time, this power will be used by them in the process of mixing concrete.

In addition to the ratio of materials, the frequency of stirring is also the unique ability of the old builders. With their own special abilities, they can use the pillars in their hands to complete the mixing of concrete in an extremely unscientific way.

From the initial form to the final form, the ability to build the old craftsman's family is closely related to civil engineering, from just relying on brute force to understand the structure of the building, be able to build the frame, and complete the demolition work.

At the end of the day, he mastered a unique technology, and he was regarded as a leader, vaguely reflecting the reality of some civil engineers.

Chapter 1170: Cherish life, stay away from Guangyue, the reappearance of Zhenzhen

The neighborhood of Jiuli is still being rebuilt, and elephant owners have returned to their normal parade route.

Then on his rest day, Setsuna returned to Wano Country again.

She won "Death Fight Under the Moon", but she didn't feel the joy of victory.

In all fairness, she never thought of killing Inuarashi or Nekomushiru before.

But the two of them went too far, they just came to this point.

The fighting process was very monotonous, so monotonous that Set Setsu had no interest, because she was just fighting two lunatics.

Inuarashi and Maomushir have lost 20 years of training time, and they have not mastered Moon Lion proficiently at all.

Even if you learn it from an early age, the moon lion is not an easy skill for fur tribes.

With the bug item of the soothing bell, the risk of the fur tribe mastering the moon lion is getting lower and lower. However, this accidental factor can be eliminated. Without external interference, the fur tribe was actually the first to master the moon lion. Gallo special.

She is very talented in this area at a young age.

That's why Setsuna was fighting two berserk and irrational guys from beginning to end. He wouldn't feel pain even if he was injured, and he wouldn't be afraid of the enemy. He could only use the purest violence to deal with them.

Even if they only use the fur tribe's own strength, the two of them are not instant opponents.

Setsuna himself had no interest in killing the enemies. In the final analysis, they were conflicted because of faction issues, so they just defeated them neatly.

And this is where she regretted it. When she was about to die, her physical strength was exhausted, and the moon lion was naturally relieved. Anyway, they were playmates when they were children, so Setsuna gave them a chance to leave a last word.

Can be the content of their last words.

Master Momonosuke is orthodox, Mrs. Toki's prophecy is definitely not wrong, whenever I think of these things, I feel annoyed instantly.

"It's fine with Mamushi, but even Inuarashi is like that. What is the charm of Kozuki Oden?"

"Who knows, maybe this is their belief. You have seen what fanatics look like. Your steps are messed up. There is no need to worry about this kind of thing."

Outside the residence, Setsuna and Zeraora are sparring. Even at this level, they still need to exercise daily to maintain their fighting status.

The frequency of battles decreased immediately after inheriting the throne, and she could only practice with Zeraora to maintain her condition on weekdays. Proper exercise can help relieve her emotions. It is estimated that she is the first one in history to make herself so depressed. The winner of the deathmatch under the moon.

"That's different, Kozuki Oden has saved their lives, that's fine, but what is that Momonosuke?"

I think if the two of them become dukes, they will have to bring in the whole Zou as his retainers.

I'm going to find out who Kozuki Momonosuke is, who made the two of them follow to this point.
"n0Veb.usb.com

Since that day ended, a virus named Kozuki appeared in Setsuna's cognition.

"But they are already dead, even if you get the result you want, what can you do?"

"It doesn't matter, anyway, they can't persuade them, I just want to figure it out for myself, or I always feel that something is missing."

The husband and wife were still in the mood to chat during the battle, but it was different in the eyes of the onlookers. The nearby Onion Duck could only see two shadows flickering in the sky, but nothing else.

Oden had died a long time ago, and now Momonosuke is in the Rabbit Bowl Mining Field, and Hiyori is in the palace of the Flower City. The moment of rest is very short. She wanted to hurry up and visit both sides, but Hiyori helped her solve the problem. problem of distance.

"Mom, today's domestic daily."

The next day, not long after the sun rose, the newsboys in Kehezhi had already started working to earn money.

Miao Na also got today's morning newspaper from the mailbox at the door.

【The real murderer of the Guri Fire, General Hiyori apologized to the people for this】

I know every word, but when they are connected together, the meaning it expresses makes Mo moment confused.

She knew exactly what happened to the fire. It was nothing more than someone setting the fire on while escaping, which delayed the pace of the pursuers. But according to the newspaper, the real culprit was Momonosuke Kozuki.

According to the meaning of the report, if Momonosuke hadn't appeared, those people wouldn't have come out, and the Shinsengumi wouldn't have done anything if they hadn't come out, and naturally the fire wouldn't have happened.

【General Rihe deeply apologizes for this, and announces that he will sever relations with him, and all losses of the residents of Jiuli will be borne by the General's Mansion】

"Teraola, I'm sure, it's not the Momonosuke that's the problem, the whole family is the problem."

Rubbing his own eyes, after making sure that he read the content correctly, Setsuna came to his own conclusion.

Compared to brother and sister, these are more like two enemies.

"Remember, you two, no matter what happens in the future, even if you quarrel, you have to sit down and have a good chat when you calm down, understand?"

Rubbing the heads of Miaona and Worf, Setsu asked this question. The split between Momonosuke and Hiwa brothers and sisters gave her a headache. It would be terrible if this happened in her own home.

"We won't fight."

"That's right, that's right, I don't want to quarrel with my brother."

"That's right, I was thinking too much."

Looking at the appearance of Miaona and Wolf, Setsu felt relieved. The two of them also fought, but if they fought in the morning, they would make up at noon at the latest.

She and Zeraora never disagreed, and the gifts they prepared were double. As long as the parents treated their children equally and did not let one party perceive the unfairness, then there would usually be no overnight feud between siblings .

The split between Momonosuke and Hiwa siblings was caused by many factors. Kozuki was worried about the destruction of the children, so he separated them, but did not consider what the people who stayed behind would have to go through.

Beast's previous handling method brought great pressure on Hiyori, and those who wanted to assassinate Hiyori pushed the fire again, and today's situation came into being.

"By the way, remember it for me. Stay away from Guangyue in the future. There is something wrong with this family. You are still too young."

This newspaper dispelled Setsuna's previous thoughts. In her perception, there are no normal people in Kozuki's family, and Momonosuke is probably half a catty. She is out of sight and out of mind, so she better not find aggrieved .

Facts have proved that her decision is correct, and there are more outrageous things in the corner she can't see.

The Rabbit Bowl Quarry, according to Hiyori's intention, today's morning paper specially sent a copy to Momonosuke.

He knew how to read and write. Seeing Hiyori's unfeeling words, and thinking of Hiyori's unfeeling before, his heart was very sad, and he curled up in the corner without any intention of moving.

His position in the quarry is very special, Kozuki Hiyori hasn't arranged any heavy work for him yet, it seems that he has other plans.

He is also isolated in the quarry, because whoever talks to him will double the amount of work the next day. The work here is already extremely heavy, and continuous doubling is really exhausting.

Except for an old man who delivers meals every day, Momonosuke has no contact with any living people, and the old man looks at him very strangely, which makes Momonosuke feel creepy from time to time.

This old man's name is Udon, but this is just his pseudonym.

His real name should be called - Kozuki Sukiyaki.

The father of Kozuki Oden and the grandfather of Momonosuke.

Everyone thought that he died in the hands of Heitan Orochi, but in fact, Heitan Orochi didn't kill him at that time, but just imprisoned him. Taking advantage of the war in Wano Country, Sukiyaki escaped , And lived his little life incognito.

When Kozuki Rihe was used as a puppet, he did not appear, and when Kozuki Rihe was assassinated, he did not appear.

Even if Kozuki Hiyori was blackened, Sukiyaki didn't have any ideas.

At this time, he didn't appear by Momonosuke's side to help, it's because this is his current job.

If it weren't for Quinn's investigation of identity information in the entire Wano country for self-protection, the current sukiyaki might still be living in the mountains.

That's what he did in the original timeline. Before Kaido was defeated and Momonosuke became a general, no one knew that the former general was still alive. They only knew that there was a masked weirdo in the mountains called Tenguyama Hitoru.

If the Guangyue family can come back, he will stand up again. If not, he will never reveal his real name in his life.

The restoration of Wano Kingdom was like a flash in the pan, without causing any waves, but on the sea outside, the waves never stopped.

Pirates are fighting for treasure, and the navy is besieging and killing pirates in various sea areas.

After Akainu took office, the initial third fire has ended. The initial actions of the navy did greatly curb the emerging pirates, but as the number of new sea pirates gradually increased, the number of pirates in the sea increased again.

Chaos breeds war. Under this chaotic sea, the forces that are qualified to do mercenary business are making a lot of money.

The famed Bucky Express has become a new sea force, and Doflamingo's men are also moving around. After another mission, Pica brought back a valuable loot.

"Dover, I'm back, this is the spoils for this time."

Pica solemnly took out a small treasure chest. Seeing that Pica was always carrying it with him, Doflamingo became interested.

"哆哆哆哆哆, what is it? The size makes me guess, is it a devil fruit?"

is a very powerful devil fruit. Those who found it haven't recognized him yet, and they don't know the value of this fruit at all. "

Devil Fruit Illustrated Books are rare, and most people may have never seen a Devil Fruit in their entire lives, let alone the illustrated books that record the appearance of most Devil Fruits.

As Pica opened the box, a light blue devil fruit with cracked lines appeared in front of Doflamingo.

"This is... 哆哆哆哆哆, Pika, this is really a big treasure, almost two years, this fruit finally appeared again."

There are many fruits in the illustration book, but there are always some fruits that make people remember deeply. For Doflamingo, the fruit he remembers most is the fruit of surgery.

This fruit is far less meaningful to him than the fruit of surgery, but it is enough to cause a bloodbath on the sea. Such a fruit will not be forgotten by Doflamingo.

It is nothing but the Zhenzhen Fruit, and its original owner was the former Four Emperors - Edward Newgate.

Different from natural fruits, if other people eat the Zhenzhen fruit, they may not be able to exert the power of Whitebeard, but as Whitebeard uses the Zhenzhen fruit to nickname the world's strongest man, this fruit is vaguely related to The strongest made the connection.

There are still some people in the Don Quixote family who are not capable, but Doflamingo has no intention of letting them eat the fruit directly.

He didn't want to give away such a strong fruit, he just planned to use it to extract the maximum benefit and distribute it to his subordinates.

"It just so happens that the prize will be available soon. Torrebol, contact Monet and ask how her actions are going.

Diamanti, get ready, there may be new guests coming to the arena.

By the way, who snatched this fruit from? "

"I didn't * it, I bought it. The person who found this fruit was from Bucky Express, but they didn't know the product. I got it back with 200 million Baileys."

"Good job, don't spread the word about it, wait until everything is ready."

As an excellent devil fruit supplier, Doflamingo has had many powerful devil fruits in his hands, but this fruit is very special.

Whitebeard has not been forgotten by the world, the power enough to destroy the world comes from this devil fruit, the navy and the world government will not just watch this fruit disappear, and countless forces on the sea will be attracted by it.

In addition to this, there are also the remnants of the Whitebeard Pirates.

As long as the news is released, they will never let this fruit fall into the hands of others. Doflamingo has already predicted how lively Dressrosa will be in the future.
