

Arceus 1171

Chapter 1171 Confident Dover, an upside-down world

In very rare cases, Doflamingo is obsessed with self-confidence, thinking that many things are under his control.

The golden fruit back then was an example. He knew the meaning of that fruit very well, and it was originally prepared for his subordinates.

It was a gimmick to put it up for auction, but in the end, Tezolo was killed halfway, and the golden fruit finally went to someone else.

The fruit of the operation was almost in his hands, but with the efforts of Corazon, Doflamingo finally missed the fruit of the operation.

In a sense, devil fruit doesn't fit well with Doflamingo's feng shui. As long as it touches a powerful devil fruit, his arrangements will always go wrong.

Compared to his family members' Floating Fruits, Turning Fruits, Swimming Fruits, Art Fruits and other exotic fruits, the Devil Fruits released by him are actually stronger. The title of the best Devil Fruit supplier is not for nothing.

However, Doflamingo never realized this. After all, powerful fruits such as Tongqu Fruit and Xuexue Fruit also remained in his hands.

For Doflamingo, the devil fruit that reached his hand was the road ahead of Sauron.

Doflamingo firmly believes that he can control the fate of this fruit, and Sauron firmly believes that he will not get lost. Of course, Doflamingo's success rate is much higher than that of Sauron.

Unless there is no accident, Doflamingo will not overturn, but if there is no accident, Zoro will definitely get lost.

The execution ability of the Don Quixote family is still very high. It didn't take long for Monet's news to spread back.

"Dover, Monet wants to report directly to you."

"You really are a wayward girl, give me the phone bug."

After taking the Devil Fruit from Pica, Doflamingo closed the box again, and asked Torrebol to send the phone bug to him.

"Monet, how is the situation?"

"The plan is going well, young master, I have obtained most of Caesar's technology, but the most critical part is still missing. As long as we get this, we can get rid of him."

"Hey, well done Monet, pay attention to your own safety, don't be too impatient."

Doflamingo's character is also very special. He values those members of the family, but when giving up a family member can be exchanged for greater benefits and is more beneficial to his own development, he will not soften his heart.

In the absence of special circumstances, he still cares about family members.

"By the way, Dover, there is another man who confessed to baby-5."

"Kill him."

"Understood, Dover, but in this case, baby-5 will come to assassinate you again."

"Let her do what she wants, this character who doesn't know how to refuse is sometimes quite troublesome, but I'm looking forward to what the person who sold the fruit will behave when they know that this fruit is a shocking fruit."

The fruit with the strongest direct expressive force must be a natural fruit, which can be transformed into elements after eating, controlling an element to carry out elemental attacks wantonly.

Even if it is an ordinary person, a natural fruit can instantly raise him to the level of a supernova.

In the first half of the great route where domineering is not popular and Hailoushi weapons are very rare, the natural system has always been synonymous with invincibility.

The shaking fruit is different, where the lower limit of the shaking fruit is a mystery, but Whitebeard has already shown its upper limit.

One person, one fruit belongs to mutual achievement.

As long as you have heard of the prestige of Whitebeard, you will inevitably feel that you can reach that height.

But that was before Doflamingo spread the news. Before that, only the Don Quixote family knew the details of this fruit.

The transaction of this fruit can be said to be very happy for both parties, including the seller's Bucky.

"Captain Bucky, we exchanged a devil fruit for 200 million Baileys, please take a look."

"Huh? Well done guys, keep working hard next time."

Bucky didn't care what kind of fruit it was. It was an accident for him to eat the shattered fruit. At that time, he hid the fruit for money. If it wasn't for Shanks, he wouldn't have eaten the fruit at all. ,

Hearing that the younger brothers sold the fruits directly and got the money back, Bucky was not only not angry, but felt that they were doing the right thing.

In his opinion, the fruit is meant to be sold.noveLusb.com

At least until the fruit type is exposed, Bucky's smile can still be maintained.

If you know the specific species, the value of the Zhenzhen fruit is far more than 200 million Berries.

Doflamingo is planning their big event, and Beasts is also busy with their own affairs. Arceus' Origin has been lost for a while.

As long as the ship of a major cadre has been missing for so long, the beasts should mobilize other forces to find the trace, but the ship led by Arceus did not cause this situation.

They don't believe that there is something in this sea that can make Arceus' ship disappear from the sea without even having a chance to feed back information, just maintaining a fixed communication frequency.

Among them, Yamato is undoubtedly the most panicked. The inexplicable disappearance of Arceus means that Kaido's threat to her has soared.

So in addition to the regular contact, Yamato also tried to contact Arceus from time to time, and finally at noon this day, she successfully made contact.

"Father, I was scared to death. After several days, you finally wrote back."

"How many days? Has it been that long?"

"Yeah, we haven't contacted you for 10 days, foster father, where did you go?"

"It's a very special place, maybe you'll know it if you come and see it for yourself."

Yamato on Onigashima hadn't understood what Arceus was talking about, when a purple vortex suddenly appeared in front of him, sucking her in.

There was no sense of dizziness, but when Yamato saw the world around him clearly again, he found that everything was upside down.

It was originally dusk, but at this time the direction of the sun has been reversed, which also means that the time has come to morning.

The space is full of strange rock pillars and some special buildings. Many buildings are similar to the outside world in the eyes of Yamato, but they are all upside down without exception.

Here, the sky seemed to be the ground, and after Yamato made an inverted posture, he felt that everything became reasonable.

"Upside-down world? Foster father? Where are you? Is this your new trick?"

Before she finished speaking, the Siyuan had appeared beside her, and the people on board, like her, were looking at the world curiously.

"Father, where is this?"

"Here? People on the sea used to call this place Rainbow Fog. As for now, you can call it Reversed World, but this world still lacks very important things. Let's fill it in later."

Chapter 1172 The Incomplete Reverse World

"Rainbow fog? Reverse the world? Foster father, have you traveled too far this trip, I can't understand what you are talking about."

Two brand-new nouns overloaded Yamato's CPU, and Arceus' trip seemed a bit too mysterious.

"I should have known that I should go with you. I feel like I missed something very interesting."

"It's nothing interesting. This place was originally a space with very chaotic time. It exists above the sea, but it is similar to another world."

Rainbow Fog, a strange space known as the pirate cemetery.

Not only space, but even time has a huge difference from the outside world, and the time inside is extremely slow.

On Lulujia Island in the first half of the Great Voyage, there is a doctor who studies rainbow fog, because his childhood playmates strayed into rainbow fog 50 years ago, so he has always wanted to rescue them.

In the end, although they left the rainbow fog with the cooperation of Luffy, there are still many problems involving time paradox that have not been explained clearly.

As for now, those paradoxical problems are over, and Arceus took advantage of the existing environment here and transformed it into an incomplete inverted world.

Others entered by mistake, but Arceus entered this space on his own initiative when he accidentally encountered a nearby entrance. He became interested in the power of time inside.

Ordinary people can't get out if they enter here by mistake, but Arceus is different. After all, the way Luffy and others left here is only through a big explosion to open the passage.

Because the time here is very special, Arceus used it to transform the reverse world.

"So the only feature of this world is that it is upside down?"

"No, you haven't been to the space of the Rift Seat, but you have been to the world of Zekrom and Laceyram. Their world is essentially an illusory world of dragons, but this inverted world is real. .

If it is complete enough, it will be closely related to reality, everything in reality will be fed back here, and what happens in the inverted world will also affect the real world. "

At this time, the Rift Seat, Zekrom, and Lacey Ram are not perfect in the strict sense.

Kakuza is just fighting Kaido in its world, or being entangled by Kaido.

Zekrom and Lacey Ram also projected their own power through Yamato's body.

Although they are only short of the slates of the super power system and the ghost system, the power of these two slates is also the most powerful.

Superpowers that can do whatever they want, ghosts that transcend life and death, the power they contain is terrifying.

Different from ordinary Pokémon, the attributes of mythical beasts are a representative, which means that Arceus endows these mythical beasts with specific attributes, but the power of other stone plates is also related to them.

The reverse world is even more so. Compared with the illusory trial space, the reverse world is the real act of creation.

Whether it is the holy mountain of Wano country or the huge current flowing in the sea, it is Arceus' transformation of this world, making the world more suitable for his own power.

Inverting the World is a bigger attempt.

"So adoptive father, what does this world lack?"

"In a sense, a brother of yours."

Pokémon is the creation of Arceus, and Eudemons is regarded as the existence of heirs by him, but even if they are heirs, there is also a close relative, and the closest ones are nothing more than Giratina, Dialga and Palkia. Lucia.

As the three dragons in the Sinnoh area, their legends are closely related to Arceus. If the other mythical beasts are children who separated and went out to support themselves, then the three of them are the most favored children who stayed in Arceus' hometown.

"It's a bit early for now, and you'll see them in a while."

The reverse world is Giratina's home field. Before they appeared, Arceus was preparing the real estate in advance.

"Wait, foster father, you said before that the rainbow fog was in the first half of the great route, but I was just on Ghost Island, so how did I appear here?"

"The problem of the space channel, the inverted world is independent of the outside world, as long as it has enough ability, it can open the door anywhere, and the place where it appears and enters may not be the same.

However, there are not many such entrances. Fujiyama in Wano Country has been impregnated with my power for so many years, so he can open the door directly.

Semi and Darkley also have the ability to open the door to this world, so it will be more convenient in the future. "

After the transformation is completed, the Reversed World is no longer a world like Rainbow Fog, but a world with doors.

In addition to Arceus, Eudemons also have the authority to open the door, including Manaphy and Zeraora, all have ways to enter here, but the premise is that Arceus has reserved the door position.

It is not a completely complete world, and it is not closely connected with the real world, so the position of the door is fixed.

When I saw this world for the first time, Yamato thought it was very novel, but after watching it for a long time, I lost interest. Except for the Shiyuan, there is nothing in the reverse world today. Although those stone pillars and upside-down buildings are strange, there is nothing special The place.

At most, there are some big and unseen architectural styles.

"But adoptive father, you said that this place will affect reality, so if someone fights here, won't there be problems outside?"

No one survives in the reversed world now, but it may not be so in the future. If the impact is so strong, people living outside will have to think about something more.

"There are not many battles that can affect the reality through this place, and there are very few people who can do this kind of thing. Even if they are connected, it doesn't mean that dropping a stone will affect the past, at least the scale of the island's destruction.

Besides, they haven't been completely connected yet, so even if this place is turned upside down, it won't affect the outside world.

The islands where the numberers fought are a bit outdated, and it's time to give them a new place to fight. "

Reversing the world has many functions. The future home of Giratina, after its connection with the outside world gradually deepens, can be used as a space transmission channel with the help of the Eudemons who hold the key.

Right now, it can also become a new testing ground for beasts.

The ranking battles of the Numbered Ones happened from time to time. Although an island is big enough, the old people of Hundred Beasts have become familiar with the environment of the island after so many years.

As for the newcomers, except for the first group of old people who retired due to age factors, it is still rare for newcomers to directly defeat the old people to seize seats, and there are not many throughout the year.

Whenever such a person appears, it means that someone from the beasts will be whipped to death.

It is a shame for these numberers to lose to newcomers with the power given by Arceus, even if those people are supernovas.

Whenever this kind of thing happens, it usually triggers more intense battles to defend their honor, which indirectly leads to the involution of the beasts and strengthens the overall strength.

With the implementation of the reversed world, the internal drills of Hundred Beasts can be further upgraded. Even if the internal drills with a scale of tens of thousands of people are carried out, there is no need to worry about being detected or stabbed in the back.

Logically speaking, this is a good thing, but Yamato doesn't think so.noveLusb.com

"How can I fight without affecting the outside?"

Yamato's neck felt a little stiff, which was an extremely ominous premonition, but she still looked back at Arceus.

"Yes, and for a while, what's wrong?"

"Father, are you pretending to be confused with me? If that **** father knew about this kind of thing, he would definitely drag me in and fight for seven or eight days, and he would have no scruples!

Father, think about it, or don't tell him about it, just arrange other people to practice here, it doesn't matter if you have a father or not. "

Although Kaido has recently been obsessed with the battle with Rikakuza, he may become interested in it on a whim. Quinn is a living example.

In Onigashima, Kaido will still take care of some things anyway, and it's really here.

Swallowing, Yamato felt that he had seen hell, and re-examined the inverted world. This slightly gloomy and dilapidated tone seemed to be telling her tragic experience in the future.

"There is really no difference. Let me give you good news. Your father does not have the key to enter here."

"Very good!"

"However, if you destroy the house on Onijima again, the result may not be certain."

"No, father-in-law, I am innocent! That **** father finds reasons to fight when he is drunk, and I will be beaten if I don't fight back. The aftermath is somewhat uncontrollable. You can't blame me, you won't believe that one It's nonsense that can't be clapped."

"I don't believe in that fallacy, but there are only two ways to solve a problem, either to solve the problem, or to solve the person who raised the problem.

Until you can defeat your father, this situation may continue forever, so we might as well change places for you. "

"Actually, I think it's okay for foster father to use sanctions to make father lie down for a few days, so that it will really stop."

"Don't think about such crooked ways, at least he can spur you, otherwise you don't know where your heart is going, just work hard, it is not easy to overtake on a curve.

It's almost the same, go back first, if you like this place, I will give you a "key", and you can come here by yourself. "

The vortex of space appeared again in front of the Shiyuan, and it can be seen that Ghost Island is just opposite.

And Yamato also got good news from Arceus. If Kaido doesn't have a key and she has it, it means she has a new refuge.

Unlike Kaido's threatening training that does what he says, Arceus can see double-sidedness even if it is a punitive thing. Judging from the current situation, as long as the house on Onijima is not destroyed, **** will be destroyed. will not come.

Kaido's torment taught Yamato to take pleasure in suffering, and the hope in front of her gave her a new way forward.

Chapter 1173 Leading version and revenge

"Sishiyuan number?!"

The pirate outside Ghost Island rubbed his eyes, not believing what he saw.

Whether it was the submerged harbor or the waterfall, he didn't hear any news about the Siyuan. The place where the Siyuan appeared was not even the sky, and it just appeared in a group of ripples.

Before he recovered from the shock, Yamato jumped off the deck directly.

"Why are you in a daze, open the door of the dock, by the way, father is not here."

"Of order, Master Guiji, I will open it right away. According to Governor Kaido, I went out not long ago, so I probably haven't come back."

Originally he wanted to be sure, but the way the Shiwon appeared interrupted his thoughts. The era in Onigao Island is a bit fast, even if he has been stationed here, he still feels that he cannot keep up with the times.

Arceus can always produce something beyond the times, and every time a new product appears, it refreshes the inherent cognition.

For example, the current main source of electricity in Wano Country - Dengeki Warcraft.

The local people in Wano Country are okay, they have never seen electric energy before, and they regard lightning as the authority of the gods, and it is reasonable in their hearts that the creatures created by Arceus can control electric energy.

But some people from modern islands or future islands are different, especially those who have studied electricity. They can't figure out why a creature that only eats three meals a day can supply the electricity of an island.

This is unscientific, and even violates their known energy conservation.

Logically speaking, Kaido is definitely not in Onijima now, but ever since he started fighting with Rikuza, Wano Country has had a special weather called "Kaido".

Unpredictable. In an unknown time period, Kaido may fall from the sky at any time, but don't worry, because Lord Ming will control his landing point, which will only scare people and cause no harm.

Except for Quinn and Yamato, this weather is completely harmless, so he is not sure whether Kaido, who has already left, will suddenly jump out of a certain corner.

"It's fine if you're not here now, it's a new trouble if he sees it."

Regardless of whether Kaido will fall out of nowhere, as long as he does not see the appearance of the Shiyuan, it is a good thing for Yamato. Although this matter cannot be hidden from Kaido, the later he knows, the better for Yamato bigger.

If he knew Arceus' conditions, he would definitely destroy the house deliberately in order to pull Yamato into the reverse world for training, and force Yamato to play a house defense battle with him.

Now it is not difficult for her to fight Kaido, but it is too difficult to defend a dead object under Kaido's hands.

"Father, I don't have anything to do. I'm leaving first. Robin just came back yesterday. We made an appointment to go out today."

"Go, I will contact you if I need you."

Yamato left on the front foot, and Shaina came to him on the back foot. She has a lot of eyeliners in Wano Country. No matter which way Arceus comes back, Shaina can quickly receive the news.

"Master Holy Beast, you are back, I think my vacation can end, if I continue to be so leisurely, I think I'm going crazy."

"It's just for you to adjust your state. After you adjust it, just follow your mood."

"Yes, then I will go to work first, by the way, Mandelfisch also came back a few days ago, he seems to want to give all his achievements to her daughter.

Furthermore, a few days ago, people from Kozuki's family also showed up 20 years ago, and Mello also helped a little. "

"Melo? That little half-mermaid, right? Mandelfish is really locked up by the family. Let him bring his daughter over tomorrow. There are other things to deal with today."

"As ordered."

Although it was a vacation, Shaina didn't know anything about the outside world during this period of time, but she didn't intervene much in person. There are no major issues recently, and her deputy Emmaline is enough to handle these trivial matters.

Shortly after Shaina left, Zeraola of Nine Mile and Xie Mi of Queen Ling both felt the call of Arceus and came to Ghost Island one after another.

"Master Arceus, are you looking for me?"

"My lord, what's the matter with Mi?"

Walking through the window seems to be a tradition. The sky-shaped Shaymi and Zeraora flew in through the window one after another. According to this trend, some adjustments should be made to the structure of the house.

"No big deal, just a "key" for you two."

The faint brilliance flickered away, and there seemed to be something more in the minds of Zeraora and Xie Mi.

The so-called key is invisible, not some kind of entity. Eudemons already have a common energy in their bodies. Arceus only needs to give Symi and Zeraora a beacon.

With this beacon, Shaymi and Zeraora naturally knew what to do.

Even without this, given enough strength and the right position, they might be able to force open the entrance, but that would be more difficult to do.

"Master Arceus, do you have any additional thoughts?"

"No, I just want to tell you that the reverse world is not perfect yet. For the time being, the passage can only be opened at the location of Ghost Island and the original rainbow fog. Remember to pay attention to this."

Arceus gave them a few words. As for Genesect, Darkrai and Manafei, there is still time to do this when they come back.

Regis, who is dormant, will not be able to use this thing for a while. Without special instructions, Regis has no intention of waking up actively in a short time.

Jeraora's mind is relatively stable, even with this "key", she didn't show much, and just flew back to Jiuli in a normal way.

But Xie Mi is different. She has a younger heart. After learning about this, she can't wait to open the entrance to the reversed world and visit the reversed world.

When Xie Mi appeared again, it was no longer Ghost Island, but Quinn's laboratory.

Due to various indescribable reasons, Quinn at this time has some stress syndrome, and is extremely sensitive to creatures that suddenly appear around him, especially when the door is closed, the sudden appearance of Xie Mi makes him think it is something Here comes the assassin.

One second he was still doing the experiment, and the next second Quinn disappeared in front of Xie Mi.

Stealth fighter Black, the ability of stealth black in Jemal technology, stealth can not solve everything, it may make the enemy's eyes lose the ability to directly capture the target, it is very useful to deal with emergencies.

"What are you idiot doing? Mi can already smell you!"

Quinn's invisibility is just to hide his body, but his own smell has not disappeared. Even if he can't see it, Xie Mi knows that Quinn is right in front of him.

"It's you, you startled me, where did you come from?"

After confirming that it was Xie Mi, Quinn immediately released his invisibility and put away the weapon on his body.

"The reverse world created by Master Arceus, only a few people have the key there, others can't get in there, with this key, Mi can open doors in many places in Ghost Island, isn't it great?"

"Great? No, it's just... amazing! Hahahaha, there is nothing better than this! Take me in and have a look. If the environment is suitable, I will move in and live in it."

In the world created by Arceus, only those who have the key can open the passage leading to it. After analyzing these two sentences in Quinn's brain, there is only one word-safety.

In his view, no matter how powerful the enemy is, it is impossible to break into the world created by Arceus. If he settles there, there is nothing to worry about.

"Stay away from the microphone, your expression looks like a pervert!"

The dense seed machine guns repulsed Quinn who wanted to come closer, and then Xie Mi continued: "I can take you in, but it's empty and meaningless at all. You have to plant a sea of flowers for me."

"Deal! Isn't it just flowers? I will plant whatever you want, but you have to take me in to have a look first."

The deal was concluded, and Xie Mi opened the channel to reverse the world in front of Quinn, adding another visitor to this empty world.

While Yamato was still planning how to evacuate, Quinn had already put it into action. Although there was no sun, and the sky and ground were weird, Quinn thought it was very good here.

"Mi reminds you, this is the world rebuilt and created by Master Arceus, Mi just brought you in to have a look."

"I see, don't worry about this kind of thing, I will report to Lord Arceus when I get back."

The desolate inverted world allowed Quinn to see an infinite future. There is nothing here now. He even thought that he could first enclose a piece of land and find a safer place in a near-absolutely safe environment.

Quinn is still planning his new home, but some people are forced to start working in the new home.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

In the Rabbit Bowl Mining Field, muffled sounds continued to be heard, and the stones were shattered under the hammering, and then they were sent to the smelter by the prisoners.

Among the crowd, a thin and small figure was very special.

Kozuki Momonosuke's leisurely days lasted very short, and he started working just one day later.

There are some people who are loyal to Momonosuke in the mining field, but no one dares to help him, and no one dares to give him food. Anyone who does similar behavior will usher in a heavier punishment.

"Master Momonosuke, hold on, today's share will be completed soon."

A voice of encouragement reached Momonosuke's ears, and Denjiro was watching Momonosuke carrying heavy stones.

This is Kozuki Hiyori's final decision. She did not turn Denjiro into a prisoner, but transferred his position to become the exclusive supervisor of Momonosuke.

If Momonosuke cannot complete this share of work under the supervision of Denjiro, he will be handed over to other pirates the next day to do more heavy work according to adult standards.

And those overseers will not be as polite as him, they will use force.

In order not to make Momonosuke worse, Denjiro had no choice but to let Momonosuke complete the work that was still within the acceptable range of the body.

"This woman is really ruthless enough to torture two people at once." novelusb.com

On a boulder, Babanuki is staring at Momonosuke and Denjiro. Kaido and Arceus are not interested in Momonosuke, so how to deal with him is the matter of Kozuki Hiyori, even if Kozuki Hiyori wants to release him. Neither he nor beasts will stop him.

But at this time, Kozuki Hiyori didn't have such a thought at all. Instead, he used this method to retaliate against Denjiro's position.

She even told Babanuki that if the situation was wrong, she could choose to kill them, which is why Babanuki sighed.

"Master Babanuki, the Jiuli side is about to be completed. According to our "Master General", she wants the people there to meet the culprit."

No more tonight, no need to wait

Chapter 1174: Regretful past and confused future, strength and color

"Brother Babanuki, women are really troublesome. It's really bad luck to offend them. Fortunately, I don't have such troubles."

A gloating voice came from below the boulder, but Babanuki didn't follow him.

"Come on, you are born with poor conditions. Even if you don't mention this, if you bury yourself in the soil every day, who will look for you!"

The worst location of Beasts is undoubtedly the Rabbit Bowl Quarry. Although this is an important place for prisons, the prisoners here generally do not have the ability to escape. Those who can be sent in are either defective parts or chains made of high-purity Hailou stone. bondage.

Prison escapes only occurred in the first two years. Up to now, ordinary prison guards usually work, and their roles like wardens are just fishing for fish.

A document needs to be signed only if certain people are being interrogated.

They don't spend a long time on the toilet like Magellan, so they naturally have a way of fishing.

Babanuki's daily life is to bask in the sun somewhere, and "accumulate strength" in the process, a reasonable and irrefutable reason, because this is the daily life of the king of leave.

Pokemon capable users will also be affected by their own form abilities, but it is not serious, but they will have the same preferences as abilities.

According to Babanuki, the one buried in the soil every day is Duo Peng, whose ability is a hippopotamus. To him, being buried in the soil is the same as lying under the blanket in winter.

Compared to Babanuki's dormancy, Doppo can only expose his two nostrils outside, and his innate condition is like a relative of a hippopotamus, which can be regarded as a suicide.

"Brother Babanuki, I think my soul is still very interesting."

"Really? Then I wish you to find another interesting soul sooner. You'd better not forget that this is the Rabbit Bowl mining field, the place with the lowest proportion of women in the entire Wano country."

As a heavy industrial area, Rabbit Bowl is now roughly divided into three major parts: mining field, smelting plant, and military factory. The mining field also works as a prison. All physical work is not suitable for women.

The only factory flower is also at the level of the cafeteria aunt. The people stationed here have very few opportunities to be transferred outside, and the rotation frequency is also very low.

Appearance is not everything, but it is the first impression between two strangers, and it still has a great influence.

"Forget it, I think it's a good place here, it would be even better if someone escaped from prison and let people have some fun.

Brother Babanuki, I heard that the boy is Oden's son, do you think those stubborn guys will surround him to escape from prison? "

The surrounding ground begins to flow as if it was alive. Under the influence of Doppo's ability, the seemingly solid ground can be transformed into a quicksand **** that swallows everything at any time, and Doppo is a terrifying predator in the quicksand.

Steel will also be directly bitten in half by his giant jaws, not to mention the people involved in it.

This is also an unknown line of defense in the Rabbit Bowl mining farm. Up to now, no one has triggered this mechanism.

"It's best not to, since that Mitia died, I have been stationed here for 20 years without any accidents. I don't want anyone to break it."

"You can't say that, Brother Babanuki, the Wano country people...you never know what they think."

"Go soak your sand, if anything happens, it must have something to do with your bastard's crow mouth!"

Finding a reason to drive Doppo away, Babanuki began to continue to accumulate strength.

If Mandelstam is the winner of the scroll kings, then Babanuki is the victim of the involution era. The number of numbers has gradually increased, from the first NO.3 to the current double digits.

His main job is the warden, and he has no ambition to continue to be promoted, so he simply started a flat life.

Night came quickly, and Momonosuke, who had finished his day's work, fell exhausted on the straw mat of the prison, without crying or complaining. The heavy physical labor made him have no energy to do that kind of thing at all.

He fell into a coma as soon as he lay down. For him now, there is no hope for him today or tomorrow.

And a mystery has been entangled in his heart, he still can't understand why his sister hates him so much, what happened these years.

Kozuki Hiyori gave him the answer, but he couldn't understand it. After 20 years, he was still the same brat as before, and he couldn't understand Kozuki Hiyori's feelings at all.

Denjiro understands the meaning of Kozuki Hiyori, and he also knows that the current Wano country is the ideal Wano country in Kozuki Oden's ideal, but the beasts are not Kozuki, and whether there is Kozuki Hiyori or not, this cannot be changed. Essentially the problem.

Because of this, Denjiro was entangled when he saw Momonosuke.

He tried to convince himself, but the loyalty to Kozuki in his bones has been affecting him, so that the whole person is about to split.

"Is all of this... really the big snake's fault? Or are these all our fault?"

On the wall of the rabbit bowl, Denjiro looked at the stars in the sky in a daze.

If there were no Kurotan Orochi, and if there were no directional suggestions from their retainers to Oden, Oden who returned to Wano Country did not take a hostile attitude, but sat down and had a good talk with Kaido, what would be the situation now .

Denjiro knew that his lord's heart was never that general, and what Oden longed for was the freedom of the sea.

He didn't know what Oden saw in Ralph Drew, and thus strengthened the idea of founding the country, but if he had known that the Wano Conference was like this, everything would have been different.

A jug of strong wine was poured in, and the alcohol made Denjiro's distress slightly disappear, and then he looked at the scar on the palm of his hand, feeling extremely complicated.

The starry sky has not changed, it is exactly the same as 20 years ago.nOvEluSb.COM

There is no cloud in the clear sky, but the starlight has dimmed a lot. This is not an ominous celestial phenomenon, but the influence of Wano Country's lights.

The lights are brilliant and the sky is never dark. The scene that only existed in the prosperous area of Wano country before has spread all over the country. The night is no longer a trouble, and the streets and alleys are full of happiness, but all this has nothing to do with him.

Some people are destined not to come back, no matter what Wano Country becomes, those people will never see it again.

"Oden-sama, please give me the answer"

The confused Denjiro seemed to have seen a few black shadows in the shape of animals passing by in the sky. In a trance, he felt that he drank too much, so he fell asleep in a daze.

The wine jug in his hand fell. Thanks to the problem of the material, the wine jug didn't break. Instead, it became something that the prisoners in the nearby cages were fighting for. This was also a gift from heaven for them.

The black shadows in the sky are not hallucinations, but the nightlife of the third generation of Beasts.

Excited, they couldn't fall asleep at all, so they found a steel crow that was also used to staying up late, and started wandering over Wano Country.

The outer sea area is pitch black under the night, only two lighthouses are guiding the course, but the lights of Wano Country inside the high wall form a special picture.

In the car in the armored crow's claws, Meowna and Worf are flipping through an album with Melo, an album about Melo's tomorrow's ability.

The power of Arceus is gradually increasing, and the chances for members to acquire abilities are also increasing, and this time Mandelfisch has almost turned his back on his achievements.

The amount of money accumulated by a social animal for decades is still considerable, so luxurious that it gave Melo an extra chance to choose.

"How about this, the pliers feel really cool."

In the album, there is a Pokémon whose right arm is bigger than its body. It has the same structure as a gun shrimp, and the arm like a cannon is full of deterrence.

The atlas in Worf's hand happened to be a steel-armed cannon shrimp, one of the few Pokémon with super-launcher characteristics. The giant cannon-like arm and characteristics make it very good at wave-like skills, but the attribute problem caused its Strike is limited.

"It's too weird not to like this much."

Melo imagined himself in the form of a steel-armed cannon shrimp, then shook his head, throwing that impression away.

"Really. How about this one? It's the same as Uncle Turtle, the chief of the fire station.

Or the same ability as Uncle Mandelfish and Aunt Nereus, Gyarados has very comprehensive abilities. "

The water arrow turtle and Gyarados are also included in the atlas. Melo is a half-mermaid, which limits her abilities to water-type Pokémon. It is impossible to give the mermaid an attribute of being afraid of water.

As for Jack and Sasaki.

Both are heavy fighters, one is used to sinking tactics, and the other has eaten Devil Fruits for a long time, so he simply developed towards the steel type.

If Melo learns from Jack to play bottom-sinking tactics, it is estimated that Mandelfersh will have to go to Jack to fight desperately.

"Brother, you are almost ready, can't you choose a cuter one?"

"Uncle Mandelfish said, the ability to bombard with heavy firepower, and these seem to be very strong."

"So, Uncle Mandelfish must have misunderstood something. You don't have to do it yourself to direct the artillery group. I think these two are better. Melo, what do you think?"

Compared to the strength in Worf's eyes, Meowna is selected by appearance. She pulled out the albums of Menus and Xishi Hairen, which gave Mello more choices.

"Well, I think this one is better, it looks like my mother."

In the end, Miao Na's aesthetics are more in line with Melo's preferences. As she said, liking heavy firepower does not mean turning yourself into a cannon.

Melo's gaze tangled with Menus and Sea Lion Sea Ren, and finally wanted to obtain the ability of Sea Lion Sea Ren.

In terms of beauty, Menus is by no means inferior to the Western Lion and Sea Ren, but the body of the Western Lion and Sea Ren is more like a mermaid, with a mermaid-like tail and a humanoid upper body, which makes Melo even more interested.

After all, this is how Rusaka swims in the sea, and she also has a pair of fish tails that can change like her mother

Chapter 1175 Departed people, unexpected people, reunited people

Pure blood still has the advantage of pure blood. As a 100% mermaid, Rusaka, who is over 30 years old, can freely switch fish tail and legs to adapt to different lives on land and in the deep sea.

The difference in appearance made Melo directly give up the option provided by Worf, and the mermaid around her made her have a good impression of the western lion and sea lion.

She met many mermaids on Murloc Island, and the difference in her body made her feel special.

Seeing that Mello made a decision, Wolf and Meowna didn't say anything, they just continued to start their night tour activities.

They don't know enough about Pokémon. Strictly speaking, the western lion and sea lion are the brothers and sisters of the flaming roaring tiger on Worf. After all, they are the three royal families in the same area.

The process of granting abilities is not complicated. Mandelfish was the first person to go through this process, but with the ability of West Lion Hairen handed over to Melo, her future studies also have a new arrangement.

Different water-type Pokémon have different uses of water. Water Arrow Turtle shoots high-pressure water from a cannon barrel, Koga Ninja Frog condenses water into a powerful shuriken, and Thousand Faces turns itself into a powerful shuriken. A heavy sniper rifle.

While the method of the western lion and sea lion is air bubbles, the explosive water balloon is the killer of this race.

Tough water balloons can bounce around like a leather ball, and can also explode freely like a bomb. The more experienced the western lion and sea lion, the more balloon styles are used.

If the ability is strong enough, it is not impossible to create a series of big explosions, which is also in line with the characteristics of heavy firepower.

After all, it is the Yusanjia. The Yusanjia in each region has its own merits. The Yusanjia in Chengdu may be relatively weak, but it is still a relatively strong type.

Water balloons are the characteristic of western lion and sea lions, and the way they manipulate water balloons is through their singing.

Dodge the enemy's attack with dancing posture, and control your own water balloon with singing, the western lion and sea lion is the dancer in the real sense of the battle, and this leads to another problem, the combat effectiveness of the western lion and sea lion that cannot sing will plummet .

Different melodies will cause the balloon to take on different appearances and play different roles. The lion and sea lion who can't sing is a primitive man with a machine gun.

"Go to Tezolo. It's better for Melo to learn from Uta and An. There are special music teachers there. Let's master a few inherent tunes first."

"Master Arceus, thank you for your concern, then I will take Melo away first."

"Go, hurry up, after a while, Tezolo probably won't be so free."

"Yes, I see."novelusb.com

Without too much delay, Mandelfish ended his vacation, and when he returned to the island where he was stationed, he detoured to Gulan Tezolo's location.

Ever since he felt that the Red Earth Continent was no longer safe, it became Tezolo's permanent stronghold. Like Morgans, he fought a guerrilla war on the sea, and the location was not fixed at all.

Enter Guran Tezolo.

There was a farewell party here not long ago. Earlier, King of Soul Brook completed his curtain call performance, announcing his farewell to the entertainment industry, and his whereabouts became a secret.

We have been together for more than a year. Although we are not very close, and we are not considered partners, we finally met each other, so we sent a farewell party to see Brooke off.

At this farewell banquet, Cavendish looked extremely excited, and it was also the happiest day he had spent with Brooke in a year.

There is no other reason, it is because he can finally send away the bone man who has been pressing on his head.

Although he has never been able to surpass Brook in the rankings, as long as Brook is sent away, rounding up is equivalent to surpassing him.

Brook thought that the other party was very reluctant to part with him, and said that he would come back to have a look after the adventure was over. Hearing this, Cavendish's scalp tingled, and he lifted the anchor for Brook himself, and sent him away directly.

The new Melo did not make Cavendish feel a sense of crisis. He is very clear about his status, and neither women nor middle-aged men like Tezolo are his competitors.

Only peers or novelty hunters like Brook are my competitors.

He didn't care about Melo's appearance, but began to prepare for his new performance.

It was Melo who followed Uta to practice his voice, while Mandelfish talked with Tezolo about his views on the sea situation.

"Master Arceus said, you won't be safe here for too long, do you have any new plans recently?"

"There is no plan, but the World Government seems to be planning something new again. I don't know exactly what it is doing, but it must be a big move.

You don't have to worry about the safety here, you are well prepared, after all, my family is here too.

And as long as the world government doesn't go crazy, they won't attack me. "

The interest entanglement on Gulan Tezolo is too huge. It itself has connections with the two pirate groups Beast and Red Hair. Because of the underground world, the BIG MOM pirate group also has interests involved here.

It won't play a decisive role in what to do here, but it will detonate a giant explosive barrel.

But having said that, Tezzolo still made a lot of preparations, so it can be said that he was well prepared.

"How long is your daughter going to study here?"

"Just get started, Rusaka can also sing, just go back and let her learn from Rusaka."

The main purpose of coming here is to get started with Melo. The specific tunes have been passed down in Melo's mind. After mastering the basic skills, she can gradually get familiar with it.

Besides, as a water-type Pokémon, the lion and sea lion still needs to dance in the sea water. Uta can't do anything about this, and it still depends on the ability of the mermaid clan.

At the same time, Mary Gioia, Jay Golucia Satan, who is the God of Defense of Science, is preparing to talk to the two "women" in person, and this is also the root of the recent actions of the World Government.

After the death of Vegapunk, many research projects have stagnated, and they need a new leader. York and Lilith, who appeared here at this time, are the best candidates.

They are not Vegapunk, but as his avatars, they have similar abilities.

At this time, Jay Golucia Satan was observing York and Lilith in a secret room.

"York, how did you survive?"

"I don't know, that woman is like a lunatic. After catching up, she destroyed it indiscriminately. Both the main body and Pythagoras were destroyed, and most of my body was also shattered. Good luck. I took my life.

After that, the body was repaired in the past research institute.

Those junks in the navy actually regarded me as an intruder, which took me a lot of time, how about you? "

"The luck of the old man was even better. They didn't care about the old man at all, so they left smoothly after thawing."

"Yeah, that's a shame."

"What did you say?"

"I said it's great, from now on only the two of us can rely on each other."

Punk records have been destroyed, York and Lilith have lost the ability to share memories, but even if they can still upload memories, York will hide this part.

For her, it is not good news that Lilith is still alive. The value of orphans is higher. It is also a clone. Compared with Lilith, she is less competitive.

It looked like they were smiling, but York had already started planning **** Lilith.

When they were talking about it, Satan also came to them and began to talk about some projects, including the repair of the flame of the Virgin.

In the Chambord Islands, the Straw Hat Pirates returned here in various ways.

Brooke, who was sent by the Beast Fruit Merchant Ship, Nami, who was in a cloud hot air balloon, Franky, who was arranged for an icebreaker by York, Usopp, who was riding a giant unicorn, and the way that Rayleigh dragged him back from the sea Fly, the Straw Hat Pirates gathered here again.

Hero carried their luggage on him, and there was no extra space for Luffy to use, and in the end he could only "swim" with Rayleigh.

The Fake Straw Hat Pirates were killed in advance due to the problem of manufacturing fake lottery tickets, and Luffy's reputation is not as great as the original timeline, so there is no impersonation incident on the island.

Not long after, Chopper also came here on a big bird, but Sanji, Von Klein, and Zoro had no news yet.

"Strange, why the three of them have been delayed for so long."

"I don't know, but it should be soon, after all, the date is these two days."

In Xia Qi's Rip-off Bar, Usopp and Nami are struggling with the positions of other partners, while Luffy and Brook are watching Franky showing off his new body.

At this time, the door was suddenly opened, and Von Klein rushed in with his face covered in blood.

"Little Straw Hat~ Everyone! Come and save people!"

"Xiao Feng?! Are you injured?!"

"It's not the Lun family, it's Sanji-kun. We just met a dance troupe with a lot of dancers. He insisted on going to see it, but he started spraying nosebleeds like crazy. He couldn't stop it!"

As he spoke, he dragged Sanji behind him in, his face had turned pale, but his nose was still gushing blood like a fountain.

"Doctor! Where is the doctor? Oh, yes, I am the doctor, give me the medicine box!"

After a while of panic, Chopper remembered that he was the doctor, and launched first aid for Sanji, avoiding a tragedy.

"You really think they can go to the New World?"

Xia Qi stubbed out the cigarette in her hand, looking at Lei Li behind her with suspicion in her eyes.

"Don't say that, there are still more reliable people, don't you think so, Unicorn?"

"Hello."

"It's getting weirder and weirder, but the gathering time is almost over, is there another person?"

Looking at the Unicorn Immortal who had a headache behind the counter with her, Xia Qi felt that the prospect of this pirate group was even more confusing, at least their people hadn't really gathered yet.

At the same time, above the vast sea, Hawkeye seemed to be restraining something, and a long distance in front of him was Sauron who was gradually drifting off course.

In the original timeline, he was sent back to the Chambord Islands by Perona herself. In order to keep Sauron from getting lost, Perona tried her best, but now that Perona has settled in the basement, Sauron has lost his reliable guide. people.

"Roronoa, you **** had better not do it on purpose"

Seeing that there was no one around, Hawkeye turned the blade sideways, swung the weapon like a paddling water, artificially created a tsunami, and corrected Sauron's course again

good night

Chapter 1176: The amount of information is too large and the processor is overloaded

Hawkeye doesn't understand, even after two years, he still doesn't understand, why the thing that can reach the destination as long as you follow the record pointer in a straight line can't go straight.

He didn't know how many times he swung the knife. Sauron was like a very assertive young man. No matter how he planned his route, he would eventually go astray.

Kraigana Island is too remote, and after the kingdom was destroyed, it lost its fixed route. There are no merchant ships approaching on weekdays, otherwise Hawkeye would never use this method.

【The company does not provide live delivery service】

The brand in Kuailong's hands has also become a symbol of express delivery services. Kuailong's intelligence is extremely high, and it is not difficult for them to master a language as part-time programmers. Therefore, Kuailong will carry a sketchpad with him when he is dispatched.

Recalling the brand that Kuailong showed him back then, he felt that the service of this company was not comprehensive enough. Whenever the fat express could deliver the living, he packed Sauron away.

He couldn't bear the face to send it off in person, so he had no choice but to use this method to see him off.

With Hawkeye's unremitting efforts, he finally sent this Lu Chi to the Chambord Islands, but as they got closer to the Chambord Islands, there were more and more ships nearby, and some things were finally discovered up.

A pirate ship appeared near Hawkeye at an inopportune time, and ended up becoming "the prey of the Shichibukai".

Eagle eyes of merchant ships will still think about it, but pirate ships

For legitimate pirates, there is no need for any reason to attack pirates. As long as all insiders are silenced, no one will know the real reason why these people were attacked by Hawkeye.

After experiencing some twists and turns, Sauron was the last one to arrive at the Chambord Islands wetly.

But he still failed to reach the assembly point smoothly, and then circled a large circle on the island, and clashed with other pirates, causing a lot of commotion, which attracted the attention of Luffy and others, and put this The last one was brought back.

"Green algae head, what the **** are you doing, do you know how long you have been delaying?"

"Huh? What does it have to do with me? If it weren't for the unexpected tsunami on the way back, I would have arrived long ago.

But you, with such a pale face, can you continue to sail? Be careful not to die on the way. "

After two years of absence, the first thing the friends do when they meet is to mock each other.

"Huh? Even if you die, I won't die. Where have you been for the past two years? What happened to that eye?"

They are enemies. Sauron can appear here alive, no matter how hard the two years have been, it means that he has survived. At this time, Sanji is more concerned about the environment in which Sauron spent the two years.

The Shemale Kingdom is tantamount to **** for Sanji. No matter how suitable the recipes there are for his cultivation, a country without normal women is too scary for him.

If Sauron's environment is better than his, it will really make things worse.

"I studied with the Hawkeye guy for two years on an island with only baboons, and I got a little injury in the middle, how about you?"

Logically speaking, an island with only baboons is not a good place, but for some reason, Sanji still has a feeling of unfairness. He would rather face a group of wild baboons than face a group of monsters.

"Sanji-kun and Lun's family have spent two years in heaven. It's so wonderful there. It's definitely a fantasy sanctuary for transvestites."

"Don't take me with you! It's obviously hell!"

"Sanji-kun, if you say that, Little Dibney will be sad if he hears it. He has come all the way to see us off."

Listening to Zoro's inquiry, Von Klein directly took over the conversation, but upon hearing the name Dybney, Sanji felt a sudden cardiac arrest, and a man with long blond hair appeared in his mind. , a killer with an unshaven face from behind.

"Enough, stop talking about this, I don't want to recall that."

Grabbing his chest, Sanji sat slumped on the ground, panting heavily.

"Okay, take your time to reminisce about the old days. The coating of the Sunshine has been completed, and your personnel have returned. You can set sail at any time, but before you set off, you must understand some things."

Looking at the noisy crowd, Raleigh felt that he was much younger, but he still brought the topic back to the voyage.

"It stands to reason that it would be better for you to understand this kind of thing slowly, but the current sea is too dangerous. If you don't have a little common sense, I'm afraid you won't even be able to pass the test of Fishman Island."

Seeing that Rayleigh was very serious, the Straw Hats also put away the previous looseness. Except for their captain, everyone else sat on the chairs at the bar.

"After the war on the top, Whitebeard died, and the situation in the sea changed from four emperors to three emperors. To be precise, it was a situation in which one hundred beasts dominated.

Kaido, Charlotte Lingling, and Shanks are all emperors of the sea, but there is also a gap between the emperors of the sea, and Beast is undoubtedly the best among them. "

"What about Ace and the others?"

The partners all heard the information, and Luffy, who had nothing to do, followed. According to Rayleigh, the Whitebeard Pirates seemed to be forgotten by the world, which naturally aroused Luffy's confusion.

"Ace? He has also grown a lot, right? The current Whitebeard Pirates can be regarded as a stronger force in the new world, but it is not enough to fight against the top monsters.novelus8.com

In addition, the genius scientist Vegapunk died, and it was the cadres of Beasts who did it. Although I don't know why, but judging from the news in the newspaper, it seems to be a **** feud.

As far as the navy is concerned, they have recruited a large number of soldiers through the World Conscription, and there are even two general-level monsters.

Of the original three generals, only Kizan still retained his seat, but Akainu and Kuzan fought a big battle. Akaken won and became the admiral of the navy, while the defeated Kuzan joined Beasts and became a pirate. "

The navy did not publicize this kind of news, but the fact that Kuzan joined Beasts is no longer a secret, and everyone with some channels knows about it.

One big thing came out of Rayleigh's mouth, and every time he said one thing, the mouths of the Straw Hats opened a little bit.

They had insufficient information channels before, and the news they received was just a few words. For example, Franky knew that Vegapunk was dead, and Brook knew that the development of Beast Fruit was flourishing.

Now that many news are put together, they realize how complicated the matter is. Directly or indirectly, these events are more or less connected with the beasts.

"Luffy, in fact, in the past two years, my physical illness has not been cured. Now I have a disease that will kill me when I enter the new world."

Being hunted down by carnivorous plants and hunting butterflies, Usopp, who has undergone rigorous training on the island, thought he had grown up, but faced with the baptism of this intelligence, his old timidity relapsed.

The timid trio huddled together again. Although the others did not show much, the massive amount of information was also reshaping their three views. In two years, the world seemed to have become more dangerous.

But no matter what, their voyage plan has not changed. With many complicated emotions, the Straw Hat Pirates still embarked on a journey to the new world.

"Do you really think they can?"

Looking at the position where the Sunshine had already dived, Xia Qi spit out a smoke ring. She was more or less an information dealer in the Chambord Islands and knew the changes in the sea in the past two years.

Pure training and growth in combat are obviously two different things. It is not an easy task to grow enough to fight those top monsters in two years.

"Who knows, but isn't adventure challenging because of the unknown? Young people always have to grow, and they can only rely on themselves."

No strange things interfered with their travel, and Luffy's journey was extremely smooth.

The New Murloc Pirates also disappeared long ago, and there was no disturbance on the Murloc Island. Luffy can say that he arrived at the Murloc Island very safely, and he also saw the pirate flag belonging to the beasts hanging high at the entrance. .

At the same time, Chopper took out a black cloth strip and handed it to Sanji.

"Sanji, for the sake of your life, you should cover your eyes."

"I don't want it! It's a pity not to take a look at the big sister mermaid here after finally getting here!"

"But your body. If you see a mermaid, you will probably lose too much blood and die! Your blood type is a relatively rare type, so it is not so easy to replenish!"

"Chopper, this is a man's dream. Even if I die here, I won't cover my eyes! And I'm ready, this time... that will never happen again."

Longing, passionate, and with different ideas, the Straw Hats entered Murloc Island, but after entering, what they saw was not a passionate mermaid, but a battle.

The roar of the machine gun was endless, and a large number of bullet casings were scattered on the ground. At this moment, a huge quagmire appeared on the ground on Murloc Island. On the edge of the quagmire, a rotary machine gun popped out from Cariboo's stomach, and was shooting towards Fire poured forward.

Caribou with wet hair, the captain of the Cariboo Pirates, has a bounty of 201 million Baileys. He is this year's supernova. Because he likes to kill the navy, he is a dangerous element in the navy list.

Without the entanglement of the fake straw hat gang, Caribou even arrived at the fishman island one step ahead of Luffy and others, and then was attracted by the interests of the mermaid, and began to use his ability to catch the mermaid.

The banner of beasts is a deterrent, it can scare off 99% of the enemies, but there are always people who dare to take risks for their own interests.

Caribou is a nature-type swamp fruit ability user. Relying on the nature-type ability, it is difficult to meet opponents in the first half of the great route. This is the time when confidence is unprecedentedly high, and naturally he will not stop because of a flag.

The quagmire on the ground is actually an extension of his body. He is trying to limit his enemies in this way, but it seems to have no effect until the bullets in the gun are empty, and the figure in the smoke does not fall down. An impatient voice.

"Too slow, does it take so long to find a pirate's identity information?"

"Brother Sasagi, please wait a moment, we spend most of our time performing missions in the new world, and we know very little about the newcomers in the first half."

The pirate next to him was searching for information with a stack of reward orders in his hand, but before he could find the information, a chameleon-like man with well-dressed hair rushed over with a shovel in his hand, and slapped Sasaki on the head.

The shovel was broken into two pieces. Only then did Sasaki's younger brother find the information of the two

Chapter 1177 The eyes of monsters

"I found it, Boss Sasaki! Karibu with wet hair and blood splattered is this year's supernova."

"Then these white fat men are their crew members?"

"Well, it should be like this."

Other pirate groups mostly have uniform costumes, but the Cariboo pirate group even has a uniform appearance. A group of white fat men like swollen jellyfish are rushing from the ship with long guns.

"Exactly, such a thing just happens to go to the rabbit bowl to mine, and likes to use a shovel, so I'll let you use it enough."

Sasaki has no habit of being beaten, and he has never fought back. On the one hand, he is waiting for his subordinates to find out the information of these people, and on the other hand, he is pretending to be coercive.

Attacks that can cause fatal injuries to ordinary people have no effect on him. Through the shocked eyes of others, Sasaki can gain a sense of satisfaction.

The information he obtained also made him sure that these people were enough to be sent to the Rabbit Bowl for mining.

As the status of Beasts rises in the sea, ordinary pirates are no longer qualified to go to the Rabbit Bowl to mine. Except for a few people who plan to recruit, the rest of the coolies have to be famous.

Crib, who was a little dazed, hadn't realized what happened. He just stared at his broken shovel handle in a daze, but Sasagi's slap had already slapped him.

Crib was shot out like the ball, and knocked down a large number of younger players.noVELusb.com

Then Sasaki locked on to Caribou who was still changing bullets.

"This kind of person can have a reward of 200 million? A mere natural department can make such a big movement. The navy is really getting more and more useless."

Caribou just let Sasagi sink into the swamp, but Sasagi didn't want to break free. As his body started to move, Caribou's swamp didn't play a restrictive role at all, and finally he was beaten into the air like a broken sack middle.

"Hey, you guys, either register to enter the island, or get beaten up like the guy over there, don't block the entrance here."

Luffy and the others were attracted by the battle at Sasaki, and unintentionally blocked the entrance to the island, and only reacted under the urging of the murloc guards.

Except for the episode of the troublesome Caribou, there is no major event on Fishman Island. Luffy successfully met Kemi, who had helped him, and started a sightseeing trip on Fishman Island.

During this period of time, in the New World, a big news spread in the underground world again.

The Zhenzhen fruit reappeared and was used as a competition prize.

Doflamingo's preparations for the arena are also largely completed, and at this time he intends to catalyze the heat of the game.

Announcing the championship reward is undoubtedly the best way. During the reserved period of time, it is enough for this news to ferment.

"Have you heard? Whitebeard's shaking fruit was found by that fellow joker."

"Of course I heard, how about it, do you want to vote? This is the fruit of Whitebeard, as long as we get this, we can become the strongest, right?"

In a tavern on a certain island in the New World, some pirates have already released bold words, as if they regarded the Zhenzhen Fruit as something in their palms.

Whether you eat it directly or sell it, the benefits are very considerable. Attracted by this huge benefit, many people plan to give it a go.

Some people plan to participate in the competition, some people plan to steal this fruit, and some people even get together and plan to directly **** this fruit before the start of the competition.

These little characters can't affect anything, but Whitebeard has already earned the reputation of the shocking fruit, and it attracts more than just these trash fish.

In the Kingdom of Prodena, in order to increase the bargaining chip of its own country, the country's king Elizabello II is studying strategic guidelines with his military adviser Vasco da Gama.

In the country of flowers, the Eight Treasures Navy is about to make a move.

An unknown island in the New World. After seeing the news, Shiliu, who had lost his arm, seemed to be interested in it. He began to pack his luggage, intending to seize the Zhenzhen Fruit to enhance his strength.

The boxing gym of the long-handed family, the destroyer Eddie also plans to go to the bullfighting arena to fight his own battle.

Fighters, bounty hunters, mercenaries, pirates, and other famous guys active in the new world have all attracted the attention of this fruit and plan to participate in this event.

These people are not weak, and they can occupy a place in the new world.

Compared to their small fights, the attention of the big forces is the most important.

On Sphinx Island, the remnants of the Whitebeard Pirates gathered together again. Even the captain who couldn't return due to something happened, participated in the meeting through the phone bug.

"Everyone has heard, that guy Doflamingo found Papa's fruit and took it out as a prize for the competition."

As the captain of the first team and the member who has followed Whitebeard for the longest time, Marco spoke first.

The fruit will regenerate after the person with the ability dies. This fruit fell into the hands of others and was treated as a prize. They can't say anything. After all, if Doflamingo let other people eat this fruit directly, they would even fight for it. The chances are gone.

But now that they have this opportunity, they will naturally not watch the Zhenzhen Fruit fall into the hands of others.

"That used to be Dad's ability, we want to get it back."

This sentence has been agreed by all the captains, but the new question is, who should be let go.

They still have some territory left in their hands, and they can't abandon everything for the sake of the shocking fruit.

"Papa's fruit will definitely attract a group of monsters. Doflamingo deliberately spread the news. Now those guys are probably ready to act like the shark that smells blood.

So who will do this is a very important question. "

Marco finished his last sentence, then looked at his companions around him, waiting for everyone's answer.

"I'll go, Dad's business. After all, it's because of me, I have the responsibility to bring back Dad's relics."

"You can't do it alone, Vista, Sphinx Island will be handed over to you for the time being. I will go this trip with Ace and Joz, plus some pirates that were originally attached to Dad. Enough to fight for this fruit."

Three strong captains plus some elites, this is the final arrangement of the Whitebeard Pirates. This is already the strongest lineup they can take out besides the people they send to guard the territory.

If I have to say it, there is actually another combat power, but this combat power is very unstable.

It was none other than Edward Weibull who was captured at the time. It was difficult to release him, and it was difficult to kill him. In the end, he was locked there all the time.

After Ba Jin heard the news, he also suggested that they take Weibull with them.

"That's Newgate's legacy! How could it fall into someone else's hands?! Weibull is really his child. If you don't believe me, just ask Vegapunk!"

"Vegapunk is dead, where do you want us to ask?"

In the end, they still did not carry the unstable factor of Weibull, but contacted several pirate groups and began to plan future actions.

Totland sea area, Cake Island, Charlotte Lingling naturally also received this news that was widely circulated in the underground world.

"Well~ Well~ Has Newgate's ability been reproduced? It's really interesting."

"Mom, let me go, I will bring you this fruit back!"

Seeing that Charlotte Lingling became interested in this, Snug volunteered to go there and bring back the fruit.

Since he was defeated by Urki and deprived of the title of general, Snug has been looking for opportunities, but Charlotte Lingling directly rejected him.

"You who lost to a rookie, how can you guarantee to do this kind of thing? Those sons of Whitebeard will definitely go crazy for this fruit, you can't."

After thinking for a while, Charlotte Lingling finally made a decision.

"Katakuri, take Owen and Daifuku for a walk, and tell the sons of Whitebeard that my mother's son is the strongest."

The Shocking Fruit aroused a certain interest in Charlotte Lingling. After all, she was on the same boat with White Beard back then, and spent so long at sea, so naturally she would not give up if she had the opportunity.

If Doflamigo hadn't leaned against Kaido behind his back, Charlotte Lingling would have sent someone to rob Kaido directly, and would never have followed the rules set by Doflamigo.

She let her son participate in the competition, just to let Kaido have no reason to intervene.

And she also sent her most trusted son and his brother.

Charlotte Lingling gave birth to 85 children in her life, but the Katakuri triplets are the ones she most recognizes.

After all, it's just a fruit, and Charlotte Lingling wouldn't go there herself, and let Katakuri lead the team, which is enough to show that she attaches great importance to it.

"I see, Mom, I'll bring it back to you."

The white island, Barudigo.

A member of the Revolutionary Army is reporting the news.

"The leader, the chief of staff, has confirmed that in the recent wars in these countries, the behind-the-scenes weapon supplier is Doflamigo, and only he can sell this special weapon in those areas."

"Leader, let me go, actually using the Zhenzhen fruit as a reward, this matter is definitely not as simple as it seems on the surface, I just took this opportunity to investigate his weapon channels."

Sabo took off his hat and planned to go to Dressrosa to perform a new mission.

"It's not just that, since it is the Zhenzhen Fruit, then Fire Fist Ace will definitely go there. Have you been waiting for this day for a long time?"

Long had already seen Sabo's thoughts, but he did not stop him. Instead, he mobilized a small team of the Revolutionary Army and asked him to lead the team to Dressrosa.

Calle Bali, the atmosphere here is slightly different, and the wind of killing has begun to blow.

At this time, Bucky was looking at the new news from the underground world, and the picture of the familiar fruit made him very annoyed.

"That's the fruit of that old guy with white beard, I actually sold it for 200 million"

While he was repenting, a very harsh voice sounded from the crowd.

"How can a big man like Captain Bucky fail to recognize the fruit of Zhenzhen?! He said that for our face. Presumably, Captain Bucky, you have a bigger plan, right?"

After the news spread, some members of Bucky Express began to question Bucky's ability, and questioned the fact that he could not recognize the shaking fruit.

When Bucky's **** fans heard this sentence, they naturally refuted it.

"Captain Bucky is the man that Whitebeard remembers. He is the man who dared to say "I will take your head off" to Whitebeard. I must have recognized him a long time ago. You must have done this to impress others. Prove that you are the real strong!"

Chapter 1178 Dover, I suspect you want me to die

Some pirate groups have distinct styles. Most members of the BIG MOM pirate group have a preference for food, especially sweets. Especially the biological heirs of Charlotte Lingling have many people who value afternoon tea.

Beasts are generally reckless animals who fight hand-to-hand, focusing on a zoo system.

Whitebeard Pirates' adoptive style of painting, red-haired subordinates are a combination of old, weak, sick and disabled, and Bucky's subordinates are characterized by their weird thinking and self-brain ability.

No matter what Bucky does, they automatically make sense of it, and everything is fine except that Bucky just doesn't think about it.

At the beginning, Bucky didn't see the Zhenzhen Fruit at all, but his subordinates cut it first and played it later, showing him the picture of the fruit and the cash he got after selling it, but that's all, it still touched his subordinates.

For example, now, Bucky's subordinates have once again entered the tearful mode.

"Captain Bucky, for the sake of our face, you have never exposed this matter."

"Yes, you have brought such a big loss to Bucky Express, but you not only didn't punish us, but also encouraged us. Your heart is so open-minded."

Among the bursts of cheering and killing, Bucky gradually lost himself, and in the rear, the former Bucky Pirates and Mr. 3 were still relentlessly complaining about Bucky.

"Isn't this being tricked once?" NOVELUSB.COM

"That's right, Doflamingo's people directly increased the price to 200 million Baileys. They should have recognized this fruit a long time ago. If they had known that this was the Zhenzhen Fruit, the reserve price would have been more than one billion."

Mochi and Kabaji, as the elders of Baki Pirates, also enjoyed the version bonus with Baki. Although they could only be cannon fodder in the new world, they became the big brothers, and their bodies became fatter visible to the naked eye.

"Hehehe, these guys must have been imprisoned in the city for too long, and their brains have been broken, otherwise they wouldn't be so stupid. I have a hunch that Bucky will make some irrational decision again."

After taking a sip of coffee, Mr. 3 seems to have taken everything lightly, it can only be said that he is used to it.

And the fact is exactly the same as he guessed.

Obviously just sold the fruit at a low price without knowing the goods, but in the end it turned out that the great Captain Bucky had already seen through all this and did not hold the joker accountable, just because Bucky wanted to show his force.

The heroic Bucky wants to get the fruit back in the arena in a grand manner, so that Doflamingo will lose the money for buying the fruit in vain.

The rumors developed in front of Bucky to the point of being unstoppable, and before Bucky stopped them, the news had already spread throughout Bucky Express.

"That's right! Get ready to go! Little ones, let Doflamingo know how powerful we are. The Shocking Fruit is ours!"

Bucky, who had nowhere to go, fell into a state of breaking and falling, and immediately expressed that he would lead the team to participate in this game.

"I said Bucky, are you really going to compete?"

"Yes, I heard that in the bullfighting arena in Dressrosa, dead people are a common occurrence."

After Bucky ended his exaggerated declaration, he immediately ushered in questions from his cronies.

"It doesn't matter, this competition will definitely attract countless monsters, and those monsters will fight each other. In this case, we only need to quietly pick up the leaks. Now let's make a plan.

I decided to name it, the secret battle of the super invincible and great Mr. Bucky! "

Calle Bali began to formulate a mysterious battle plan, and on Marie Gioia, the five old guys who were named Valkyrie, but no matter what happened, just had a meeting and started a meeting again because of this incident.

"Doflamingo has also done something amazing, what does this guy want to do?"

Izan Baron V. Nasshouro is still holding his sword. Although he is the God of Wealth and Martial Arts, he is the only one among the five old stars who can't leave his body with a weapon.

"He still knows the rules. It's not the first time this kind of thing has happened. It's just that the reward is a little bigger this time. All the monsters in the sea seem to be ready to move about it."

Compared to completely disordered pirates, Doflamingo is indeed observing a certain order, so Satan can still accept his behavior, at least the consequences of Doflamingo are still within an acceptable range compared with what he did.

But no matter what, Qiwuhai is not a completely lawful organization.

"Know the rules? He really knows the rules. He used the gold in the sky and that secret to claim the identity of Shichibukai. If the shaking fruit falls into the hands of some pirate, he will create another white beard

No, a monster like Whitebeard is difficult to reproduce, but even if it is only half of Whitebeard's strength, after obtaining that ability, it will have an immeasurable impact.

This year's harvest is not very good, and Mary Joya's food reserves are not as good as in previous years.

The date of the World Conference is approaching. If something big happens at this time, it will not be good news. "

The blond five elders, the world government's **** of agriculture, Shepard X. Peter, also expressed his views.

"Although he has the blood of a Tianlongren, it is not good to let him die outside, but if he really dies, will it solve some troubles? This is a good way to make him disappear legally and compliantly."

The bald and mustacheed Wu Laoxing hoped that Doflamingo would disappear, so that they would lose an uncontrollable time bomb.

The laws of the world government seem to be a joke, but it does not prevent them from having legal warriors. Topman Vochuli is the five old stars who deal with legal affairs.

"It's not necessary, he can be regarded as a node of balance, but the impact of the Zhenzhen fruit on the environment is still very large, let's send some people there.

Those monsters won't accept the result even if they lose, so maybe they can take advantage of the chaos to bring back the fruit.

Aren't the two clones of Vegapunk perfecting something? Let CP0 take it for a try. "

The five old stars with long hair and long beard, the environment Macas Maz gave the final suggestion, and a team of CP0 was therefore sent to carry out this extremely dangerous task.

"Speaking of which, what about the navy?"

"Navy? They won't just sit by, order them to assist CP0, but Sakasky may not execute this order perfectly, would it be a mistake to put him on stage?"

"Probably not. His attitude towards justice is still very firm, but he has too much self-awareness. I think that green bull is pretty good."

The impact of the Zhenzhen fruit is indeed not small, but it is also not worthy of their dispatch, and in the end it is just that CP0 suffers and suffers.

The actions of the navy were similar to what Wu Laoxing guessed. Another desk was killed in Akainu's office. The logistics department of the navy has already begun to consider replacing wood with high-temperature resistant rocks to make a new desk.

Just knocking on the table is okay, but when Akainu gets angry, his arm is prone to magma, which leads to a high damage rate of the table.

"Whitebeard that bastard, no one will live in peace after death, and the same goes for Shichibukai, these pirates deserve to die"

The World Conference is approaching. Being bound by his status as a marshal, he can't act at will, so he can only arrange new tasks according to the task cycle of other admirals.

However, not all big forces are interested in this matter, such as the residence of the Red Hair Pirates, Shanks just smiled slightly after hearing the news, and then continued to start the banquet.

"Boss, that's Whitebeard's ability, just watch it being taken away by others?"

"It doesn't matter, it's just a fruit, come on, drink and drink, Zhenzhen fruit or something, how can drinking be important? Even if there is no Zhenzhen fruit, Newgate will still be an extremely powerful monster.

Fruit is important, but not the only one. "

"By the way, Shanks, Uta is going to hold a new concert. This time the location is a gray island, not far from our place. Do you want to go and see it?"

"It's a good idea, but let's go in a small boat. It's not a good thing for the emperor of the sea to go to the concert in a grand manner."

For Shanks, the Zhenzhen Fruit is not a big deal at all, far inferior to his daughter.

The news is constantly fermenting, and Doflamingo, who is the intermediary between the organizer and the underground world, has naturally received some news one after another.

Doflamingo is not a philanthropist, the prize is just a gimmick, essentially just to attract people to come here.

After all, there is a dark underground world under Dressrosa.

On the surface, Dressrosa is a warm country, and there are no illegal areas, but in unknown places, there is Doflamingo's underground kingdom.

The ports and factories for illegal trade are all here, and there are a lot of toy laborers inside.

These are the labors obtained by relying on the childlike fruit of sugar.

Eating the sugar of the childlike fruit can turn all the creatures it touches into toys. At the moment it is turned into a toy, the whole world will lose its memory of this person. Only the original records such as photos and texts will not disappear.

Santo can order these toys, sign contracts with them, and direct them to perform mechanical labor. Doflamingo's arena is also an opportunity to replenish toys.

He will pretend to trick these people into a place on the grounds of healing the wound, and then turn them into toys by sugar.

As the organizer, there is a lot of shady scenes in the bullfighting arena, and Diamanti has always served as the ring guard. But now, Diamanti is a little nervous, and the sweat on his forehead has never stopped.

"Phoenix Marco Fire Fist Ace Diamond Jozzy

Katakuri, the head of the three generals, Owen and Daifuku.

Qianliangdaohua Bucky Oh, it doesn't matter, but these monsters

Dover, do you think too highly of me? "

Looking at Doflamingo in the middle of the hall, Diamanti even had a feeling that the other party wanted to kill him. Although he thought he was quite strong, any of these monsters except Bucky was enough for him to drink a pot.

Now that there are so many people appearing at the same time, Diamanti especially wants to know how he can defend this ring.

Chapter 1179 Drive away tigers and eat wolves? Young man, you may not be able to grasp it

Diamanti has been in the New World for many years. Although he likes the praise of others, Diamanti is not a rookie who has just entered the New World. He has no B number for his own strength.

Forget about those ordinary forces who are in charge, what kind of green pepper, Elizabello II, some mercenary brothers and the like have some skills, but that's it, but the rest of them are more deadly than one.

The three captains of the Whitebeard Pirates, the head of the three generals of the BIG MOM Pirates, Katakuri, the Minister of Flour, and his brother, Doflamingo, all had to be beaten up.

As far as this premise is concerned, everyone has to look at the face of the arena here, and not completely kill it.

When it comes to a deathmatch, Diamanti will most likely be instantly killed by these monsters.

Let him guard the shaking fruit in front of these monsters, courage aside, Diamanti feels that he has no such ability at all.

The Whitebeard Pirates are no longer the glory of the past, but this is for Kaido, Charlotte Lingling and Shanks. Without Whitebeard, they cannot fight against the Royal Pirates, but it does not mean that they are abolished.

The skinny camel is bigger than the horse, so beating him is no problem.

As for Katakuri, it is even more troublesome. Whitebeard is dead, but Charlotte Lingling is not dead, and Katakuri has a brilliant record of only one defeat.

The real monster, Charlotte Lingling, can do it herself. Under this level, Katakuri is undoubtedly the top combat power.

This kind of person will make it to the finals smoothly no matter what. When they meet them, Diamanti has already begun to struggle with whether he should surrender, admit defeat, or be defeated.

"Dover, this scene"

"What's the matter, Diamanti, are you afraid? I trust you very much."

"Although I like your trust in Dover very much, my ability is not enough to do this."

Fortunately, Diamanti is not an undercover agent, otherwise, just judging by his posture, he would have wondered if he had been exposed, and Doflamingo planned to let him die violently.

"哧哧哧哧哧, Diamanti, you only saw part of it, Whitebeard, BIG MOM, besides them, there are many other forces that have moved.

The navy and the world government will not ignore it, and you don't have to worry, you are my important family member, I will not let you deal with those monsters, don't forget, there are still beasts who have not acted.

They will never be absent from such a big scene. "

"Edover, what do you mean?"

"Of course there are monsters to deal with monsters. Although we can't decide the details of the battle, we can allocate different fields. Adding more manpower to Granu is also the purpose of this event.

The shocking fruit has attracted countless players. If you divide those monsters into different areas, the guys who are on the same stage with them will only lose, and Granose can take the opportunity to convert more people.

You only need to pay attention to your own safety in the finals, they will naturally decide a winner, compared to them, you are just a small role, and will not attract their attention. "

Before announcing the news, Doflamingo guessed that this fruit would attract a lot of attention. Although the attraction was a bit too much this time, he still felt that these were all within his control, after all, he still had a bigger backer.

"But. What if those monsters are worried about being picked up by others, so why not join forces to clean up the weak first?"

Diamanti didn't want to admit that he was weak, but he had to accept this reality.

"Then there is no other way. The Zhenzhen Fruit is a bait. I don't want to lose this bait, but it is not impossible to exchange this bait for more benefits if it is necessary."

As an honest person, Doflamingo will not release empty baits or false baits. If he does so, once he is discovered, he may be ripped off by the players.

In the turbulent tide, he needs a stable backer, who can thrive in the underground world. His ability is one aspect, but without the beasts, his face value will plummet.

When the fruit was in the hands of Beasts, he could accept it, but at most it would be a pain in the flesh for a while.

Anyway, the golden fruit is gone like this, and it is not unacceptable if there is no shock.

It's good to keep it in your hands, but if you can't keep it, you have to maximize its value.
ηoVεlusb.com

After appeasing Diamanti, Doflamingo analyzed the players, who could move and who couldn't, he still had a good idea.

It's fine for ordinary people to be turned into toys. Those who are famous all over the world and have great backing, even if they become toys, they will leave countless traces. Once they attract the revenge of those monsters, the loss outweighs the gain.

The development of the situation far exceeded his expectations, but Doflamingo still felt that he could manipulate all this behind the scenes. As long as he could balance the power relations, he could be a good fisherman behind the scenes.

In this regard, Doflamingo always has some self-confidence, but many times, the development of things will not go according to his ideas.

Wano Country, Onijima, and Hundred Beasts will certainly not miss this kind of news.

"Miss, it's the fruit of Zhenzhen, this Dover is really lucky."

"Luck is good, but if the governor asked him to send the fruit, he should obediently hand it in."

Speed and Mizeka didn't treat Doflamingo as an equal at all. In their eyes, Doflamingo was just a subordinate attached to all beasts. Equal cooperation?

Being willing to trade is because of Beasts to give him face, a mere Shichibukai, how can he be qualified to sit on an equal footing with Beasts.

As Missy's personal guards, they are guards of honor and travel tools. Their vision is even higher than that of some cadres. As for Missy herself

"Shocking fruit? Are there any rare ones?"

As he spoke, Yamato stepped on the ground, directly causing a small-scale earthquake.

"Earthquakes and sea shocks are not difficult, but air shocks are really impossible. Well, that fruit is not bad."

Pokémon that are big enough basically have the ability to learn earthquakes, but the activation of earthquake skills depends on the medium. At least no one has developed the ability to release earthquakes into the air, and Yamato is no exception.

Earthquake is just something she uses to fill her skill pool. It is not commonly used, and she has no intention of developing it. The power of the three dragons of Tao is enough for her to worry about. There is no need to waste time on insignificant things.

A small earthquake did not cause a sensation in Guidao. The people here seemed to have gotten used to it. Only Peggy Wan on the shore was in a bad mood.

"Sister Yamato! What kind of earthquake are you using for nothing! All the fish have run away!"

"Huh? Sorry, sorry, I didn't notice that you were fishing. Didn't that stun one? You can catch it and make a living."

As he spoke, he even hung the fish on the hook for him with his own hands, while Peggy Wan looked at the unconscious sea fish on the hook and fell into deep confusion. Is this the air force, or did he catch it?

At this time, Urti walked over in disgrace, his eyes full of anger.

"Is there something wrong with you?! It's nothing to make an earthquake! Those things all fell on my head, you know?!"

"It was an accident, wait, what hit you on the head?"

"The outer wall over there is being renovated. Those Wano people don't know what to do. They say they want to celebrate the 20th anniversary of Lord Ming's residence. They are doing renovations there. You can save trouble and just help them tear down the wall."

Yamato's passivity seemed to be triggered, and his brain began to run at high speed.

It is known that Kaido is fighting with the cracked seat, and it is not known when it will fall out.

It is also known that Arceus is still not on Onigashima, and his own earthquake collapsed the outer wall that was being demolished.

Rounding up, it is equivalent to destroying the house by herself. If Kaido falls out at this time, only two simple hits are enough to complete the frame-up, so she needs to avoid danger urgently.

"Spider, are you saying that the Zhenzhen fruit is very important?"

"Ah, no, miss, I shouldn't have said that"

"No, you said it, I think what you said is very reasonable, such an important fruit cannot fall into the hands of outsiders, and Doflamingo still has a little contact with us, so we don't take it by force, let's go to the competition.

Decided, the goal is Dressrosa, go and get back the shaking fruit! No, win it back! "

There is always a reason for capturing a Devil Fruit, but Beast's reason is undoubtedly the most outrageous. Peggy Wan and Ulti didn't even realize what was going on, and were dragged away by Yamato's collar.

These two are witnesses at the scene, they cannot stay here, they have to be taken away together.

"Hey! What are you doing? Let me go!"

"Sister Yamato, is it necessary to delay us?!"

"Let's go, let's go, just go and have fun, if you stay on Ghost Island, you will be bored to death."

No matter what the siblings said, Yamato had no intention of letting go, and just dragged them to his Pokémon.

"Solithia! Set sail immediately, aiming at Dressrosa, we'll talk about supplies halfway, let's go!"

"But Missy"

"No but, set sail!"

The Pokémon was originally a biological battleship. Under Yamato's order, the ship moved quickly. For emergency avoidance, Yamato didn't pay attention to what was going on with the ship. It wasn't until it sailed away from Onigashima that something was wrong.

"Robin? Why are you on my boat? When did you get on?"

"It's always been there. The coffee machine on your ship is different from the one in the canteen. The coffee tastes better. I often come here to read books, don't you know?"

"Oh, yes, you told me, then why are you on my boat! I don't know you that well!"

"Don't be so indifferent, I came back by your boat, and the watchtower here is more comfortable for taking a nap."

Above the ship, Kuzan half leaned on the fence of the watchtower to explain his reasons to Yamato.

"It just so happened that I was planning to go out to see old friends, so I didn't go down. I've already arrived here. Give me a ride along the way."

Yamato looked back in the direction of Wano Country, and vaguely saw an unknown object falling out of the sky. She could be sure that it was definitely Kaido.

Going back to Wano Country now is tantamount to throwing herself into a trap. She will never return now, so she simply took Kuzan and Robin to the destination, planning to find a place to throw Kuzan out halfway.

Kuzan has proved his sincerity, so this kind of person will naturally not restrict his freedom, nor will he be allowed to stay on Ghost Island as a mascot.

During the voyage, Yamato also raised a very serious question.

"Robin, you said that demolishing something that was originally planned to be demolished, does it count as destroying the house?"

Chapter 1180 Deceiving teammates, escalating chaos

The convenience of the Pokémon makes it easy to steer without too many people. Solitia is at the helm, and Speed charts the course while acting as a lookout and navigator. The two keep the ship sailing smoothly.

The dangerous currents outside Wano Country did not pose any threat to the Pokémon, and there was no Kaido in Wano Country to threaten her safety.

"Phew, it's done, how long before the bullfighting arena starts?"

"Don't worry, miss, there is still a while, and it must be in time."

In the ship's kitchen, Mizeka is busy making desserts, and there are many Robin's arms handing her things around.

"Miss Robin, the coffee beans you like are on the top of the cabinet, the seventh jar from the left, please give it to me, thank you."

Compared with fighting, Huahuaguo has shown more convenience in life.

Coffee, smoothies, potato tarts, some drinks and snacks soon appeared on the table.nOVelusb.coM

Both Kuzan and Robin have the ability to do it themselves, but there are ready-made chefs in front of them, and they don't need to challenge the professionalism.

"Miss Robin, do you need to add some ingredients?"

"No need, the original one is fine, but what you are making now...is porridge?"

The milk in the big milk pot was heated by the stove in the hands of Mizeka, and a kind of tree fruit leaf used as tea was placed in it. After boiling, the residue was filtered out, and the refrigerator Rotom was used to instantly cool down. The ordinary milk pot tea was made.

But if Robin's coffee is minimalist, then this cup of milk tea is a new one. More and more ingredients are added, even the smoothie ingredients in Kuzan's hands are not as many.

Ordinary drinks just turned into a pot of porridge.

"This...Yamato-san likes it, so I did it."

As a cook, Mizeka doesn't have any opinions, she won't insist on following the recipes, she just cooks whatever her eldest miss likes.

A few years ago, Mizeka and others were still called Onihime-sama. As the relationship became closer, this title became Miss. According to the logic of Wano Country, the three of them are now regarded as retainers by Yamato.

Sailing is generally boring. Robin is writing, Peggy Wan is fishing, and Ulti and Yamato are wandering around on the boat, commonly known as making trouble.

After a period of time, Kuzan left the Pokémon first, and then they didn't go along the way.

"Remember to bring the bicycle back! It was borrowed from you, don't break it!"

Rather than a pirate ship, the essence of the Pokémon is more like a travel ship, and all kinds of weird things can be found on it.

Even Kuzan didn't expect that there was actually a bicycle in the warehouse on the ship. Although it was a women's bicycle, it also made up for the fact that he didn't bring a vehicle to go out.

"Ah la la, I see, but why is this bike called Sand Road? And this weird function?"

While adjusting the height of the saddle on his bicycle, Kuzan came across an instruction manual.

【Sand road bikes have a constant speed and strong balance, and can perform difficult movements such as mountain climbing and air jumping】

It's not so much for travel, it's better to say it's for performing stunts.

"I don't know, the adoptive father was equipped with these two sets, maybe you can try the wind speed over there?"

"Forget it, that one is too small, this one is fine."

That is to say, these two bicycles are made according to Yamato's body structure, otherwise Kuzan would not be able to use the seat when the seat is adjusted to the highest level.

After promising to bring the bicycle back, Kuzan made an ice road on the sea and rode towards the distance.

It wasn't until Kuzan's figure disappeared on the sea level that Ulti asked a question.

"You just let that guy go? He's a former general. He's still on Onigashima for so long. What if the secret is leaked?"

"It doesn't matter. He is of no use to me if he can't attract my father's attention. Maybe this is better. Maybe that **** dad will go after Kuzan himself when he gets angry, so I can relax for a while."

After the bankruptcy of the ice substitute project, Yamato's interest in Kuzan plummeted. If Kuzan really did this, she would be happy for a while.

"No, in that case, it should be Lord Arceus who is angry, after all, he hates this kind of thing the most.

Kuzan was brought back by you again. If this happened, Master Arceus might not go there himself, but he might ignore Mr. Kaido. In that case, well, you understand. "

Robin punctures Yamato's fantasies relentlessly, and describes to her the most terrifying situation that could arise.

"So, even if he really has a problem, you have to kill him yourself, otherwise, your trouble may be even greater.

Of course, even if you get rid of Kuzan yourself, some things cannot be avoided. "

"Well... I think that guy's character can still be trusted, after all... he didn't even take his pets away from Wano Country."

Although it was an affirmative sentence, there was already a trace of unconfidence in Yamato's tone, but it didn't last long. As the voyage continued, she quickly put this matter behind her.

The date of the competition is approaching, and among Dressrosa, the members of the Don Quixote family are also busy.

"Dover, is it really meaningful for us to make such a big commotion? Wouldn't it be better to distribute the fruits to family members, or sell them to beasts in private?"

Torropol didn't really understand Doflamingo's approach, but simply carried out his orders.

"Hey, Torrebol, don't just look at the immediate benefits. You have also seen the order for arms these days, which has doubled several times.

Chaos breeds war, and newcomers have limited abilities. Only when the monsters in the new world are fully mobilized can the sea become more turbulent and weapons can be sold better.

If you want these monsters to move, you can't do without enough bait. The shaking fruit is undoubtedly the best choice.

Compared with the direct benefits it can bring, only in this way can more benefits be obtained. "

Doflamingo is very satisfied with the business orders these days, and with the addition of toy workers later, no matter who gets this shocking fruit, he will not be the one who loses money.

But many things did not go as smoothly as he thought. Just when he was confidently thinking about the future, Punk Hazard sent one bad news after another.

After the nun and Tiger went to Punk Hazard once, Doflamingo did not continue to transport the personnel for the experiment there on the surface, but only regularly transported materials there.

But Caesar was still alive, and he didn't stop the experiment just because those children were taken away. Even if he thought the experiment couldn't be successful, he was still carrying out face-saving projects.

In this sea, it is not difficult to abduct a few children. With Caesar as the source, it didn't take long for Punk Hazard to return to its original appearance.

After sending those children back to their hometown, Smoker didn't follow Virgo's instructions, but continued to investigate the matter, and finally found Punk Hazard.

The Straw Hats, who had just arrived in the new world, finally came to Punk Hazard because of Luffy.

Under Luo's planning, several forces launched a scuffle. Luo also defeated his first enemy, Virgo, and snatched a very important thing from Monet.

At this time, Monet was communicating with Doflamingo.

"Young master. I'm sorry that I got the final process of SAD during the confusion, but Luo suddenly appeared and snatched it away."

"What?"

"The key to the production of SAD, and Caesar are now in Luo's hands."

"Monet, this matter was my carelessness, but now I have a very important matter for you to do. There is actually a terrifying weapon in Punk Hazard. As long as it is detonated, no one will survive except Caesar."

Doflamingo values his family members and doesn't mind sacrificing a family member at a critical moment. Hearing what Doflamingo said, Monet didn't refute.

"Young master, that's what I'm going to do."

However, Doflamingo's plan still failed to proceed smoothly. With the cooperation of Caesar, a pig teammate, Monet failed to press the detonation button and died of a heart rupture.

Doflamingo also rushed to Punk Hazard at the fastest speed.

Baby-5 and Buffalo, who were previously sent to Dressrosa by Doflamingo, are still alive, but their bodies have been separated from their heads by Luo's ability. Maybe it's because they spent time together in childhood, or maybe it's because of his follow-up plan. Luo didn't kill them.

Instead, they started negotiations with Doflamingo in front of them.

"Doflamingo, let's make a deal."

"Hey, oh, Luo, I advise you to calm down, kid, don't do things like adults, where are you now? Don't **** me off completely."

"Heh, your trading status in the underground world depends on beasts, and SMILE is your important commodity.

And SAD is its important raw material. Now Caesar is in my hands, and the production process of SAD that Monet has not had time to hand over to you is also in my hands.

Doflamingo, the news that the Punk Hazard factory has been destroyed cannot be concealed. You said that if Kaido knew that you had lost the factory and research personnel, and the formula was in my hands, would he change his partner? "

"Ro, do you know what you're talking about? Do you think you can replace me like this?!"

"Why not? You also used a similar method to kill the previous dealer, and you got your current position, right? The transactions in the underground world only look at profit. If you can do it, I can do it too, so why can't I replace you?"

Luo thought he had grasped the key to Doflamingo, but he forgot that he could not replicate Doflamingo's identity as a former Tianlong, and he didn't know the secret between Doflamingo and Quinn.

Artificial fruit is a semi-finished product, and those perfect products are obtained after processing by beasts.

Compared with SAD, Doflamingo's network and channels in the underground world that Doflamingo has operated for many years are more important, but Doflamingo has no intention of giving up the advantage of SAD directly.

Besides, Luo has clearly betrayed him, so Doflamingo will naturally not let Luo, who has eaten the fruit of the operation, continue like this, and chatted with Luo pretending to be threatened.

"What do you want me to do?"

"I want you to publish in the newspaper and give up your position as King Shichibukai. The deadline is tomorrow."

Doflamingo has a secret that Luo doesn't know, and Luo also has thoughts that Doflamingo doesn't know.

He never wanted to replace Doflamingo as the subordinate of Beasts. He just wanted to kill Doflamingo and take revenge. Everything he did was to weaken the support of Doflamingo in both black and white
