

ARCEUS' PIRATE JOURNEY

Chapter 14: Eliminate half the wrong answers

Chapter 14 Eliminate Half of the Wrong Answers

Charlotte Lingling, BIGMOM, an old acquaintance of Kaido, and a former member of the Rocks Pirates. When Kaido was still a trainee crew member, Charlotte Lingling was already a full crew member.

And when Kaido got on the ship, he told him that Rocks was untrustworthy, and he could find her if he had something to do. He regarded Kaido as his younger brother, and on the day when the Rocks pirates were destroyed, the fish, fish, fruit-eudemons The species-blue dragon form was handed over to Kaido.

It can be said that Kaido was able to leave the Valley of the Gods thanks to the Devil Fruit given by Charlotte Lingling, so Charlotte Lingling has always said that Kaido owes her a big favor.

Now, Locks, the sea overlord, has just died out for five years. Gore D. Roger has not yet become the Pirate King. There is no concept of Pirate King and Sea Emperor in the sea, but there are also many powerful pirates.

They regarded some islands as their own territory, developed their own strength, and became the emperor of a region. Among these pirates, the powerful pirates in the new world have the most status.

Charlotte Lingling is such a person, she now has her own territory in the new world, and she is more proficient in many intelligence than Kaido.

"John? What are you going to do with him?"

At this time, Charlotte Lingling's pirate group is on an island full of fruits. The chefs under her are making vegetable and fruit cakes, while she is rubbing her bulging belly and raising a baby.

Looking at the first four emperors, Whitebeard relied on taking care of his son, Kaido opened a kindergarten, redheaded all over the world looking for partners, and Auntie was looking for husbands all over the world, and she just gave birth to a family for herself.

The main members of the BIGMOM Pirates are also composed entirely of their own sons and daughters, son-in-law and daughter-in-law, and they are the one with the heaviest family atmosphere.

She had her fortieth child in her womb at this time.

She was rather happy when the little brother Kaido called suddenly, but she didn't expect that this little brother opened his mouth to inquire about John's whereabouts.

"You don't have to worry about that, I just want to know where John is?"

"Huh? Kaido, is this how you speak to your benefactor?"

"I said, don't keep holding on to this matter. Do you know John's whereabouts?"

"Well, well, Kaido, you are still so impatient. It is rumored that he has a large treasure in his hands. Do you also like this? Do you want to join forces with me, we will share those treasures equally, John is not good deal with."

Auntie smiled nonchalantly on the other side of the phone bug, but she had already made a gesture to Perospero beside her.

"No, I just want his whereabouts."

"It's really ruthless. You were not like this back then. He appeared on Hazinos Island not long ago, and then went to Paradise. There are many people in the new world who are eyeing him. I don't know the rest. ."

Looking at the information that Perospero brought over, the aunt said to Kaido.

As soon as he finished speaking, Kaido cut off the phone bug. Looking at the phone bug in his hand, Charlotte Lingling had a displeased look on her face, but she soon forgot about it under the aroma of the baked cake. thing.

She is not very interested in Captain John's treasure, mainly because the pay is not proportional to the income, and now her site can bring enough income.

John is a member of the Rocks ship after all. There are no weak people on this ship, and everyone who can get on the ship has his special skills.

If she wants to deal with John, her children are not strong enough, so she has to do it herself, but now she is busy giving birth to children.

In addition, John's whereabouts were erratic, and she only knew that the other party had left the new world for the first half.

If Kaido finds the other party, she can help if the payment is suitable, but since Kaido rejected her, there is no need to take the initiative to join him.

"Okay, now we can be sure that John is not in the new world but in Paradise, and that woman's words are still believable."

Not only the navy is paying attention to the movements of those big pirates, but other pirates will also pay attention to their movements.

Some of the pirates do go out to sea for exploration or life, but these pirates are only a few, and there are moths in the navy, but most people are more willing to believe in the navy than in the pirates.

In today's world without big secret treasures, pirates who go out to sea are more for wealth, that is, their own interests.

After robbery and leaving, that's what the lowest-level little pirates do. The big pirates have their own fixed territory. For the residents in the territory, they will even act as a protective umbrella, and of course they will also charge protection fees. They are like an alternative. lord.

Few people will do the stupid thing of exhausting the pond and fishing. The rabbits don't eat the grass on the edge of the nest, and they will not rob the residents of their territory. At least the big pirates who are bigger and stronger will not do this.

Charlotte Lingling belongs to the cruel category among the pirates. According to the normal timeline, the future of the world will be rented on the basis of lifespan, but even so, there are a large number of ordinary people who are willing to live within the world.

Ordinary people need shelter. The navy only protects the member countries of the world government. For those who do not have enough power outside the alliance countries, it is their job to find a suitable umbrella.

They need safe land to live on, and the big pirates need this land to support themselves and their subordinates.

In order to prevent others from robbing your territory, of course, you must pay attention to the movements of those powerful pirates.

There are countless powerhouses at sea today, and Charlotte Lingling, Golden Lion Shiki, Whitebeard, Captain John, these former members of the Rocks Pirates, are undoubtedly the best among them.

The bigger the reputation, the more people will know it, and the personality and hobbies will be well known to the world. For example, Captain John likes money, and he has been looking for money all his life.

The common man is innocent and guilty. I don't know when, rumors began to spread in the sea that Captain John had a large amount of treasure in his hands, and more and more people were eyeing the treasure in his hands.

He is not invincible, there are too many people in the new world that can threaten him, so after careful consideration, he decided to return to the first half of the great route, which is the area called Paradise, and hide the treasure first, so that is the safest.

"We first entered the great route, then recruited a group of people, and at the same time slowly inquired about John's whereabouts. The scope you gave is too general, so we can only find it slowly."

Kaido doesn't want to go completely the elite line. He wants high-end combat power, and he also needs a large number of subordinates. When he was young, he was a warrior of the Vorka Kingdom, and he knew that the number of wars was also needed.

But people from all over the world are too weak, so he decided to go directly to the great route to recruit his men.
