Chapter 171 Quinn with a confused look

There are many members of MADS, but there are mainly two people who have been incorporated and reused by the world government. One is Vega Punk, who is known as leading the world's technology for 500 years, and he is the well-deserved leader of the science class.

And now the second person in the science class is Caesar Courant. Caesar Courant is also one of the members of MADS, and those members looked down on each other at the beginning.

Even if Vega Punk is called the number one in the world, they don't think they are better than others, and they even think they are better in special fields.

"Quinn's stupid pig has further cracked the bloodline factor? It's impossible!"

The main reason why MADS was forcibly incorporated by the world government was that they discovered the lineage factor, and many people have their own research directions in this regard.

After was included, Vega Punk made the first artificial devil fruit based on Kaido's bloodline factor, but it was rumored that it was a failure, and Vega Punk did not continue research in this area after that.

Now he is studying the transmission conditions of Devil Fruits and how to make inanimate bodies eat Devil Fruits.

However, Caesar did not give up research in this area, and he believed that there was still great prospect in this area.

Artificial devil fruit, huge human body, and weapons of mass killing are the three topics he studies, but now his main focus is on the last weapon.

Because the world government values this most, and the first two are very difficult.

MADS also has its own chain of contempt. Quinn despised Gage, and Caesar despised Quinn a little bit. He recognized that he was inferior to Vega Punk, but he would never accept Quinn's achievements in his own research.

【Quinn seems to have cracked the ability of the bloodline factor and achieved certain achievements. 】

"How could that guy walk in front of me! Impossible, this is absolutely impossible!" He continued to look through the information sent.

The self-proclaimed genius scientist" Caesar Courant is a very crazy person. For the sake of research, he will do all kinds of behaviors. He is conceited, cunning, and insidious. Many adjectives can be used to describe him.

But he didn't dare to show too much in front of Quinn, because he was bullying, afraid of hardship, and greedy for life and fear of death, so he was very cautious when facing Quinn who was more powerful than him.

"The power of thunder and lightning, the human body modification weapon of the electromagnetic gun. This **** is the same as Gage. Did you choose this application? No, it is not the same, there is still a difference"

Although his character is despicable, Caesar has his own abilities. According to this report, Quinn should have used the bloodline factor and the technology of transforming people to make special weapons of war.

And the source of the bloodline factor is probably Kaido, because most of the abilities discovered by the beasts are related to fire and thunder, which are the abilities that Kaido's blue dragon fruit can use.

But this report is not to say anything else, but to let the science class advance a plan, which is the war weapon plan.

The reason why Quinn was not included is not just Quinn's will and character, even if his research is cruel, they can say nothing as long as they serve the world government.

One of the reasons Quinn wasn't included was because the world government thought he wasn't as skilled as Caesar Courant and Vegapunk.

They don't believe that their vision is wrong, so what Quinn can do, Vegapunk and Caesar must also do.

Originally they had a plan for a weapon of war, but it was shelved because it was too difficult to implement, but this time it was brought out ahead of schedule.

At this point, the World Government Science Class No. 184 project has begun to study, and the project code name is - Pacifist.

Because Vega Punk is currently researching a topic, this task is temporarily handed over to Caesar.

At the same time, because he is analyzing Kaido's true hobby, CP0 has also temporarily stopped contacting him. The world government needs a deal, but it can't let the other party handle it like a licking dog.

Related items can also be purchased on the black market, so they decided that the purpose of the beasts is not to completely cut off the transaction. In the eyes of the world government, they just want to extort a higher price.

Therefore, Wano Kingdom has temporarily entered a stage of peaceful development, and even Ammonite has been idle for a while, because the frequency of phone calls has significantly decreased after the limelight.

There is only one person who feels incomprehensible, and that is Quinn, who is doubting his life by looking at his wanted warrant.

He didn't even notice that Shaina was near him. This kind of thing was absolutely impossible in the past. He had already formed a passive, and as long as Shaina was close to the body signal, he would give an early warning.

Even the early warning mechanism was paralyzed this time, which shows how much impact this incident had on him.

"Quinn, Quinn? Quinn! Do the **** have to force me to use violence?" After so many years, she wouldn't beat Quinn when she was okay, at least she wouldn't make sudden moves when she met normally.

She came here to get the monitoring records of the ammonite beast. If there is no urgent news, the usual news will only be collected after a day or two.

Shaina didn't know where that thing was, but Quinn ignored her when she spoke normally, so she had to use a more traditional way.

It turns out that pain is more noticeable than sound.

"Can't you be gentler, woman!"

"Huh? I'm talking to you well and you ignore me, can you still blame me now? What is this guy in a daze?"

"Look at this."

Quinn handed Shaina her reward, but Shaina didn't think there was anything special.

"What's so good about your own face? Isn't there enough mirrors?"

"This is not the point, the point is here, onlyalive, what the **** did Lao Tzu do? Why does this reward order change every few days, what is in the minds of those people in the World Government?"

The last time I was cultivating the fruit honestly, my reward suddenly became 444.4 million, and I became the cadre with the highest reward under Kaido and Arceus.

This time, he still did nothing, and even the country of Wano only left once. As a result, the reward order changed again. Although the price did not increase, this onlyalive was much more serious than the price increase.

This is also a new consideration for the World Government. Although the analysis department believes that its analysis cannot be wrong, the current situation is very strange. If it really misestimates Quinn's technical level, it will be a great loss to the World Government.

Changing the bounty order is a matter of one sentence, and it doesn't take much effort, so Quinn likes to offer a new bounty.novelusb.COM

However, the investigation of the Beast Pirates by the World Government has not stopped because of this. They have too many unknowns, so investigating the Beast Pirates has become the exclusive task of the CP0 team.

Because they have the most contact with the beasts, they are relatively more familiar with them

Chapter 172 Pokémon integrated into the lives of residents

Quinn's confusion did not hinder the progress of the times, and the development of Wano country continues. The transformation of the Rabbit Bowl area has basically been completed, and the number of factories has reached saturation, and this output also meets the needs of the Beast Pirates.

Externally, Beasts and Fruits have vaguely become the food giants, fruits, dairy products, meat products, and some special medicines in the underground world of the New World.

These monopolistic products ensure the status of all kinds of beasts and fruits and make their own reputation in the industry.

After establishing word of mouth, the beasts began to expand their market, and some common crops also became their trade goods.

Compared to those products that focus on the high-end market, the profits brought by these bulk commodities are also very high, but the amount is the amount, and the behavior of the beasts has also led to a major reshuffle in the new world underground world.

Many winter islands or islands in the desert environment can't meet their own needs for food, and they have been relying on foreign trade to obtain these grains, while the beasts and fruits monopolize most of the business.

As for the original black market merchants, they have been gradually eliminated in the competition. Through the research of tree fruit and some plants, Quinn and Naichen have come up with new high-yielding crops.

And whether it is Umit's transportation industry or Kibson's warehousing industry, they have to give Kaido and Charlotte Lingling a face. Charlotte Lingling is because the bigger Kaido's business is, the more she can acquire. lots of fruit.

Her taste has been cultivated, and it is difficult for ordinary fruits to meet her needs, so she also supports Kaido's development in this regard.

In this environment, their normal means of competition can't compete with the beasts at all. As for the abnormal means, Kaido hopes that they will use more, after all, there are not enough mining people.

In Wano Country, with the support of Beasts, Kojiro's Chamber of Commerce re-emerged, and began to attract local people to join it, so that the residents of Wano Country gradually became accustomed to the existence of Beasts.

And there are also many people who have begun to accept the new things brought by the beasts, but these people were not born in Baiwu or Rabbit Bowl, but first appeared in Jiuli.

Under the rule of Kozuki Oden, the farmers of Taoyuan Farm were the first to accept the existence of the Beast Pirates.

Thanks to the operation of Kinemon, they rented out Taoyuan Farm, and the farmers who were most affected were actually the farmers living in Taoyuan Farm, because that was the way to support their families.

In Kinemon and their previous propaganda, the Beast Pirates had sinister intentions, and the scenes they saw were all fake.

The strange cows raised are also very scary creatures. After all, how can normal cows have three tails or can walk on two legs, which will attract unfortunate ghost cows.

The local residents of Wano Country are mostly ignorant. In this case, they have a kind of resistance to the Beast Pirates, that is, other areas have been affected to some extent.

Unfortunately, after ceding Taoyuan Farm, they couldn't find a way to settle the original farmers, so they had to face the management of the Beast Pirates.

But after some contact, they found that the truth seemed to be less terrifying than Kinemon and the others said.

Hundred Beasts developed mixed agriculture in Wano Country. Although there is more agriculture in the Guri area, there is also animal husbandry. After the Taoyuan Farm was handed over, a batch of large milk jars were sent here.

The taste of their milk will also change according to different foods, and they are sent here to let them eat tree fruits to improve their taste.

In order to sell these milk farther, in addition to the weapons factories in the Rabbit Bowl area, dairy factories and fruit factories have been established in Jiuli and Baiwu.

Rational industrialization will not damage the environment and will improve the national economy.

And industrial wastewater has also become the fodder for Alola's smelly mud, and the poisonous crystals they produce have become Quinn's weapon materials, forming a virtuous circle as a whole.

Every time the people of the Beast Pirates expropriate land to open a factory, the Black Charcoal Orochi can be happy for a while, but after that, their operation of the Black Charcoal Orochi is no longer happy.

In his opinion, all he needs to do is force those people to work with swords and guns, but the beasts still have to give money, but the money is useless for him.

Because the profits from these new factories have nothing to do with him, he can only get part of the profits from the weapons factories, and similarly, the wages of those craftsmen are paid by him.

But no matter who paid the money, he couldn't fully realize his purpose of persecuting Wano.

And Kaido didn't interfere with him. The commoners who were persecuted and bankrupted and moved out of the Flower City were the priority targets of Kojiro's Chamber of Commerce and the factory of Hundred Beasts.

Jiuli, a peaceful day begins again. Before the sun rises, the farmers on the farm are about to get up and get ready to work, and the same goes for the children.

Going to school was the right of the descendants of the warriors and nobles, and the children of ordinary peasants could not go to school.

And their recent job is very simple, milking the big milk tank.

"Kentaro, be careful not to fall, just squeeze the milk and put it there waiting for someone to move it!"

Although it was not the first time to work, she still told her little son a few words.

"I know mom, don't worry about me."

Big milk jars have a very gentle personality, and they are very easy to get along with as long as they can accept their appearance.

However, these big milk tanks do not like machines. Using machines will affect the mood of the big milk tanks, which will reduce the quality of the milk. Therefore, the farmers here rely on manual milking every day.NovElsb.com

There are dozens of large milk jars scattered around the farm. There are no fences or chains. They are all stocked here. It is naturally impossible for Kentaro to complete all the work alone.

He is only responsible for part of the big milk jugs, and those big milk jugs that have been mixed with him will wait for him at a fixed position.

On the way, there were many children of the same age as him. Almost all of them came here to milk. Because the big milk tank will cooperate with them very well, they do not need strong labor.

The strong laborers are responsible for the work of farming, weeding, and watering.

And the intelligence of the big milk tank is not much worse than these children. They even became friends with the big milk tank. After the initial fear, they found that these strange cows were completely different from what those people said.

The Beasts Pirates will deliver the prepared bottles every morning. All they have to do is store the milk and wait for it to be recycled in the evening.

And after milking, the big milk jars will not only look for food, but also play with these children, and the children's faces are full of smiles.

This is just a microcosm. In Wano, the existence of Pokémon has gradually become a part of the lives of some residents.

Chapter 173 Cats, Dogs and Wolves*NovElsb.COM*

And the time quietly came to the middle and late 1496, Arceus did not find a new slate for the time being.

The World Government has not been able to establish a stable relationship with the Beast Pirates, and is still purchasing Hailou stone products from the black market.

CP0 negotiated twice with the Beast Pirates, but each time they were led by the nose, so that they suspected that someone inside Marijoa was deliberately revealing information to interfere with their plans.

eventually led to a factional struggle. The officials of the World Government have their own lines. It is very common to hold others back in this kind of transaction.

In the "unintentional" disclosure of the beasts, they also believed in this problem, and an invisible political struggle took place on the red soil continent.

Through the News of the World, the Beast Pirates of Wano Kingdom also have some understanding of the major events in the outside world. The most arrogant newcomer this year is a man named Crocodile.

His battle with Barrett and Whitebeard was put on the front page by Morgans, but he who challenged Whitebeard's fiasco has since disappeared, and the new world lost his movement for a while.

Fishman Island, Neptune became the king of Ryugu Kingdom. In Dressrosa, Cyrus won an unprecedented 1,000 consecutive victories and became the army commander of the kingdom at the invitation of King Liku.

And outside the sea, the Golden Jackson is already close to here.

Some time ago, the Whitebeard Pirates and the Roger Pirates met. Gol D. Roger learned that Kozuki Oden could translate the historical text. In order to find the final destination, at his request, Kozuki Oden was arrested. He borrowed it.

At the same time he got on the ship, his retainers Inuarashi and Cat Viper also sneaked into Roger's ship and sailed with them on the Golden Jackson.

Earlier, his daughter Kozuki Rika was also born on the ship.

And the reason why they came to Wano country is for a piece of historical text, and there is a red historical text hidden in the country of Wano, which is a must for going to Love Drew.

And his wife Tianyuki had a high fever for unknown reasons, so he decided to keep her in Wano country.

Without going to the diving port, the Roger Pirates entered the Wano country from the waterfall under the leadership of Kozuki Oden. The current Wano country has not become a factory under the control of Arceus, and the scene of black smoke rising everywhere does not exist. does not exist.

Kozuki Oden just noticed some changes, but he didn't have any doubts. It's normal to have a little change after so many years away.

And Roger's time is running out. He doesn't have time to stay here for too long. As a descendant of the Kozuki family, of course he knows that the red historical text is under the inland sea of Wano country.

He didn't even choose to go there from the secret passage, but directly dived to complete the rubbing work with a monster-like physique, and then went ashore to leave his wife and children here.

And all this was seen in an instant, from the time Roger's boat flew over the waterfall, the news had already reached Arceus and Kaido.

If there is only Kaido himself, then he intends to avoid the limelight for a while, because he is very aware of Roger's strength, and now he is not his opponent, and there are many strong people in his crew.

But now he still has Arceus, even Gol D. Roger can't even try to drive them away.

But now the Beast Pirates are not stable after all, and there is no direct conflict between them and the Roger Pirates, and rash battles will make all these years of hard work come to nothing.

So the beasts are just watching and watching.

On the coast of Kuri, Kozuki Oden also saw the retainers who came to pick him up, but it was strange that only Raizo, Kanjuro, and Xiaoju came over, and their clothes were tattered.

"What about Kinemon and the others? Why are you three here?"

"Oda-sama, Ashura-douji will return to Toyama to manage those humans after you leave. Denjiro is doing business in the flower capital. As for Kinemon"

Although they wanted to say what happened to Wano during this time, in order not to delay Oden's plan, Tianyuki stopped them and let Oden leave in peace.

And this person with a big heart really left Wano country like this. Although Wano country is completely different under the management of beasts, he missed the best opportunity because of this.

In addition to Tianyue Shi, or Guangyue Shi, according to the rules of Wano country, she should be surnamed Guangyue now. Besides her, there are also Kozuki Momonosuke, Kozuki Hiyori, Inuarashi and Cat Viper. The snake was also left behind by Oden.

Although they are all his retainers, the others, Guangyue Shi, did not know each other after all, and leaving two acquaintances would also allow her to better adapt to the environment here.

And they have been watching the Golden Jackson leave Wano before they plan to leave here.

Just when they were still introducing each other, Shanna called her.

"Master Holy Beast, that ship has left Wano Country, can you move freely in an instant?"

"What's wrong?"

"I met two acquaintances, and I may have found a way to go back to Zou." The life card to Zou is difficult to find, at least the Beast Pirates have not found such a thing over the years.

After seeing Inuarashi and Cat Viper, he immediately thought that they had a high probability of carrying the life card of Zou.

"As you feel, be safe."

"clear."

Inuarashi and Cat Viper are chatting with Raizo and the others over the past few years, and plan to take Kozuki and them back to Oden Castle in Jiuri.

However, the ears of Inuarashi and Cat Viper suddenly stood up, and they heard a very familiar voice.

"Inuarashi! Cat Viper! Long time no see! Did you all come here?"

"Instant?!"

"Why are you here?"

The population of Zou is not large, and the total number of a race is about 20,000 people, not only people of the same age, it can be said that everyone has dealt with each other in life even if they can't name them.

Not to mention children of the same age, they are quite familiar, but in the eyes of Inuarashi and Cat Viper, Momo should be in Zuowu, and they should not appear here.

"Of course it's because I also went to sea. You two guys left Zuowu without saying a word, and this kind of thing doesn't call me!"

"You're too young" They hadn't seen each other for several years, but before they said a word, Inulan discovered something was wrong. Whether it was Leizang or Juzhicheng, the eyes they looked at Shanna were very wrong.

"What happen to you guys?"

"Do you know this guy? She's a member of the Beast Pirates"

Chapter 174 Revenge.jpg

"Beast Pirates"

Inuarashi and Cat Viper have been sailing with Kozuki Oden all these years, and they have left their shadows on both Whitebeard's boat and Roger's boat.

Although the outside world does not receive news from Wano Kingdom, the Beast Pirates have a good reputation in the outside world.

Compared to the Whitebeard Pirates, the legendary big pirates like the Flying Sky Pirates have a lot of background, but they are also a force that cannot be ignored.

They have naturally heard of the name of the beasts, but they didn't expect the beasts pirates to be in Wano country. If it is another country, it is not uncommon to encounter pirates in the country, and it is even very common.

But this is Wano Country, which is closed to the country. Even Leizang, who has never been abroad, knows the name of the Beasts Pirates. It can be seen how long the Beasts Pirates have stayed here.

And it is impossible for pirates to stay in a country for a long time without any reason. What happened in Wano country can only show one thing, that is, it is regarded as their own territory by the Hundred Beast Pirates.

For the retainers of Oden, Kozuki Oden is the one who will inherit the position of the general of the Wano country, so this behavior of the Beast Pirates is undoubtedly hostile to Kozuki Oden.

"In an instant, have you really joined the Beast Pirates?"

Inuarashi didn't see the pirate flag on her body, so she still had an expectation that they, Oden's retainers, had a kind of ignorance and loyalty in their minds.

According to the original time line, Inuarashi and Cat Viper can directly throw the throne to Garrett after Mr. Kay is out of class. In their opinion, the lord's country is far more important than their own.

As for the problem of the logo, it is caused by the poor information. The Beast Pirates' identity is not only the skull flag that symbolizes Kaido, but the logo of the Arceus Thousand Universe Arm also has the same meaning.

In an instant, Zeraora and Shaina's clothes had the logo of the Thousand Universe wrist pattern on them.

There are similar situations. The Whitebeard Pirates often use a cross with a crescent to symbolize the identity of the Whitebeard Pirates. However, like the beasts, it is very rare for two patterns to symbolize two people. .

Inu Arashi, who didn't know the Beast Pirates, hoped that this was a misunderstanding, but he was disappointed.

"Yeah, it's been almost five years, probably just a few months after leaving Zuowu.

After you two sneaked out, the Duke of Sheep Gisikhan lost his temper, and it took two years for me to find a chance to sneak out, after that."

"Have you forgotten the covenant between Zou and Wano Country!"

She originally wanted to tell the two about her experience in the past two years, but was interrupted by Cat Viper.

"This stinky cat is still so annoying, it's not a good habit to interrupt others."

She used to have a bad relationship with Cat Viper, but the two sides often quarreled, and it was usually Inu Arashi who was the peacemaker in the middle.

But as soon as we met, he talked to her in this tone, as if she had made a big mistake, which made her feel very uncomfortable, so she went back directly.

"What if you know about that so-called ancient covenant?"

"How's it going? Meow, we have a covenant with the Guangyue family. By looting this place with them, you are breaking this covenant!"

"First of all, I remember that it was a covenant between the Furry Principality and Wano, not an individual-to-individual covenant, and secondly, we came here to develop this place, not to loot!

Don't put a hat on me as soon as you come! "

Most of the residents of Zou have heard of this covenant, but the covenant between countries has a limited impact on individuals, and many people in Zou only regard this covenant as a legend.

One is a closed gate, one is on the back of a giant elephant and has little contact with the outside world. There has been no contact between Zou and Wano for hundreds of years, so Momo didn't take it too seriously.

Cat Viper's attitude of taking it as an imperial decree and condemning her from the moral high ground made her very unhappy. novelupdates.com

The joy of reuniting just now was dissipated almost in an instant, and even the two sides had a desire to fight, but they were stopped by Inu Arashi as before.

"Enough for the two of you!"

"This stinky cat picked it up first."

"Who made you join the Beast Pirates."

"Where do I need to report to you? Do you think you are the Duke of Zou! The Duke of Yanggis Khan won't interfere with other people's decisions here!"

The two were about to quarrel again after a disagreement, but Guangyue's cough interrupted them. She had returned to China due to illness and had not fully recovered at this time, so she felt uncomfortable being blown by the sea breeze for so long.

"Inu Arashi, Cat Viper, let's take Madam and Young Master back first."

Because she was also a member of the Beast Pirates, Oden's retainers had nothing to say to her, and left here surrounded by Kozuki.

And at the time of Kozuki, in order to make Kozuki Oden feel at ease to do what he wanted to do, he actually kept insisting, and at this time, his brain was also burned and dizzy, so he did not stop what happened here.

In the face of the same clan and companions, Inuarashi and Cat Viper chose their companions. They have already left here, so it is not good for the two of them to stay here, and if they continue to stay, I am afraid that they will fight with Cat Viper in an instant.

"Sorry for the moment, let's talk about it another day." Saying that, Inuarashi also pulled Cat Viper and left here.

In the evening, she returned to Taoyuan Farm in a gloomy mood. She was quite happy to see the two former partners, but she ended up getting angry.

After all, this farm is in Jiuli, and it is a bit uneasy not to let people guard it here. Baba Nucky and Mandefish are also outstanding among ordinary cadres, not every member of the Beast Pirates of Wano country is. There is that level.

Babanuki is now guarding the mining farm, and Mandelfish is still exploring the underwater ruins, so the farm is handed over to Zeraora, and he can keep abreast of the condition of the big milk tank, Pokemon's Language is universal.

Zeraora changed to live here, and Shanna naturally followed. When Shanna returned here, Zeraora just finished today's training.

"What's the matter, didn't you meet two acquaintances? Why didn't you bring them here, did you get into trouble?"

"There's a little bit of that, the cat Viper is still unreasonable. Sure enough, cat fur is the most annoying creature. Ah, no, I'm not talking about Zeraora, I mean that stinky cat."

Cat Viper's words made her so angry that she forgot that Zeraora was also a member of the cat. After explaining it, she ran back to her house and pulled out her diary.

【October 17, 1496

It's all my fault for that bastard, Cat Viper, who actually made me embarrassed in front of Zeraora. I have written down this hatred.]

The next update will be back to normal tomorrow

Chapter 175 Mom? !

【It's all to blame for Cat Viper, if that guy hadn't been angry with me, I wouldn't have said the wrong thing. They're all cat fur as well, so why is the gap so big. 】

A round ball, and has a cat tongue that is very afraid of scalding, and has a very impulsive personality, quarreling with her at every turn.

One is handsome, powerful, and takes good care of her in every way. In contrast, Cat Viper's reputation here plummeted.

She can't remember exactly what happened before the age of two, but from the age of three to five, she was almost playing with Inuarashi and Inuarashi. When she was five years old, Mausana and Inuaran secretly left. Zou.nOveluSB.com

And she also left Zou when she was seven years old. After that, she was caught very badly and was rescued by Shaina on the way. As of today, she has lived in the Beast Pirates for almost five years.

After careful calculation, she actually spends more time with Zeraora.

[It's okay for him to learn from Inu Lan, really, Yang Jisihan and Dad never said that to me, who does he think he is] Writing here, she inevitably thinks of Zuowu, and then she realizes that she forgot a very important thing.

She went to Inu Arashi and Cat Viper because she met acquaintances and because she wanted a life card from them.

The size of the life card does not affect the use, as long as a small piece is enough to guide her to Zou, but being stimulated by the cat and viper, she forgot all the business.

【It's all to blame for this bastard, Cat Viper! !】

At the end of the diary, she drew a sketch of a cat viper on the diary, and then made a big fork on it, as if she was venting her inner anger in this way.

Then she turned off the light and lay on the bed, covering her head with the quilt, wondering what she was thinking.

There is no electricity in Wano country, but for Quinn, it is very simple to build a generator and lay a few circuits, but the generator here on the farm is something special. In addition to solar power, it can also generate electricity manually.

The motor that generates electricity is in Zeraora's house. His daily training method is to exercise his physical strength by riding a bicycle, and at the same time, he will connect the electric wire of the generator to himself to charge himself.

It is good for him to have no electricity.

In Oden Castle not far away, Denjiro also returned to Kuri. He is now running around Wano Country during the day, basically doing three things, borrowing money, repaying money, and making money.

The Kinemon incident has drained their savings, and now they are basically relying on the support of the Shimotsuki Yasushi family, but it is impossible not to return the money.

Debt and repayment is justified. They already owe the Shuangyue Yasuo family too much. Among the people, Chuanjiro is the person who is best at this, so these tasks are placed on him.

And after the loss of Taoyuan Farm, he was trying to figure out what to do with the people in Oden Castle.

He was also very happy that Inuarashi and Cat Viper came back, and he was even more happy that the lord had a wife and children, but in addition to being excited, he also had to recognize the fact that there were five more mouths to eat at home.

Children are not counted, the two fur tribes, Cat Viper and Inu Arashi, are both big-bellied men.

Thinking about it now, the Toudan Thieves Group of Asura Boys seems to be a good place to go, at least in Toudan they are self-sufficient and there is no shortage of food and drink.

Looking at Inuarashi and Cat Viper, Denjiro suddenly had some strange thoughts.

At the same time, they also knew why Kinemon didn't go to greet Oden, and suffered a series of tortures. Even the physique as strong as King Jin did not fully recover, and now it has just improved.

"These are all made by the Beast Pirates?"

"Yes, but not all, last time Kinemon was too impulsive, and he had a conflict with Hundred Beasts because of his former younger brother. As a result,"

The words have all been said on this, and the result is very clear.

"Is there any conflict between Momo and you?"

"Instant?"

"It's the fur tribe in the daytime. She used to be our friend. We grew up in Zou together. I didn't expect to see her here."

Compared to Cat Viper, Inuarashi is calmer and more rational. He is more worried about Momo's relationship with them. If there is hatred between them, it will be difficult for them to be mixed in.

After all, a choice must be made at that time. According to his understanding of Moment, what she believes cannot be easily changed.

"There is no direct contradiction, and the residents of Jiuli seem to have a very good evaluation of her."

"Kawamatsu, she is also a member of the Beast Pirates!"

"Xiaosheng is just telling the truth. Although she is a beast, the residents of the farm say that she is easy to get along with, and the children are not afraid of her."

"But she's still a pirate, and she's also connected with the Black Charcoal Orochi. Don't forget, those people were brought into Wano by the Black Charcoal Orochi guy."

Speaking of the black charcoal snake, Kanjuro even had a feeling of gnashing his teeth, and he was able to substitute the role to his level. He is also a very good talent in the undercover industry.

And listening to the remarks of his companions, Cat Viper seemed to have a different idea.

On the ghost island, a strange thing happened at this time.

Yawa is more than two years old. Ordinary children can speak fluently at the age of two, let alone the people here. Yamato is definitely not bad in terms of physical development.

The milk of the big milk tank and the eggs of auspicious eggs are extremely nutritious foods, and at the same time, they also inherit the blood of Kaido. Now Jack, who is of the murloc blood, may not be comparable to her.

But today she used a word that he couldn't accept when addressing Arceus.

"Hey, Yamato, tell me, who made you call my mother."

Yamato's remaining good days are actually not many, because according to Kaido's plan, she will receive training from Kaido in less than a year, and there will be people teaching her during this time. some text or something.

Shaina, Naiqin, Olga, their own knowledge is enough to teach a two-year-old child.

But the problem is, just now Yamato didn't know why, instead of calling him godfather or adoptive father, he used mother.

"Kaido is dad."

"That's right, then what?"

"The foster father has a very good relationship with his father, and the teacher said that the pronunciation such as でもね is used by girls, so the foster father is a girl, and a woman who has a good relationship with his father is not a mother."

"Call Dahe, it's good to draw inferences from one case, but don't use it in this kind of place next time, remember, I'm not your mother, and I'm not a woman."

He now knows where the problem lies. Back then, his language was self-taught, and self-taught would make many details unclear.

Coupled with the type of his original fan dramas, it led to a consequence that many of his habitual oral fetishes were pronunciations only used by women.

Kaido doesn't care about such details, even if Shaina and the others find out, they won't take the liberty to ask this question, which led to the occurrence of Oolong today.

Chapter 176 The mother of the pirate world is always a mystery (except BIG · MOM)

"Then who is my mother?"

Compared with the small question on the title, this question is a little more difficult to answer. After all, Kaido is very tight-lipped in this regard, even when he was drunk, he did not mention who Yamato's biological mother is.

Calling him mother is just an accident caused by his oral addiction, but asking him to answer who her real mother is, this is really embarrassing Arceus.

"Maria has Aunt Lizi to accompany her, do I have no mother?"

"How is that possible, your mother just can't accompany you because of some things, just ask Kaido when you grow up."

This is a question that only a biological father can answer, and there is nothing he can do about it.

"Besides, even if your mother is not by your side, we will be with you. If you look at Jack, he doesn't know who his parents are. It's just as good."

Although Jack does not inherit Kaido's blood like Yamato, but the murloc blood has also made himself stronger and stronger, and now he has begun to swim in the water.

For the murlocs, swimming is easier than walking, which also makes Mandelfish have a small valet by his side. Although it can't help much, but in the dark deep sea, there is also an extra helper. Speaker.

Otherwise it would be boring to explore that kind of place every day.

Many things about children are hot in three minutes, and she no longer struggles with this issue under the words of Arceus.

was then taken back to play by four auspicious eggs. If the language of auspicious eggs is considered a foreign language, then Yamato today has roughly mastered a foreign language.

The language of Pokémon is universal, but it is for Pokémon. Like phone bugs, they can understand the special wavelengths there. Yamato's auspicious egg language can also be heard by a few auspicious eggs. Understand.

But it's not necessary, after all, Pokémon can understand the meaning of human words.

The advantage of this peculiar language is that it allows her to better understand the words of Gilly Egg.

and upright encrypted communications

She has grown very fast recently, and she is already over a meter. I am afraid that in a year or two, the auspicious eggs will not be able to hug her, especially Jack. The size of the murloc has made him almost as tall as the auspicious eggs. .

I can't be picked up for a long time, and I don't know if it's because the nutrition is too good or because the grouper murloc is born like this. His body is relatively round, and he looks ugly when he hasn't developed muscles. It's probably this strange. status.

After playing crazy for a while, Yamato was also brought back to the bedroom by the auspicious eggs. Two of the auspicious eggs were also exhausted by her, and they could use up the physical strength of a Pokémon as a human cub. In this regard, she can also say It's talented.

Then Arceus came to the roof of the ghost island. From here, you can see most of the scenery of Wano Kingdom. The country of Wano looks very empty at night, and only a few places can still see light.

Including the Flower City, under the reflection of the candles and lanterns, there is a look of lights that are always on. This is also the only prosperous area under the rule of the snake, a very different kind of prosperity.

Under his reckless development, some businessmen in the flower capital have indeed made a lot of money, and the price is more family bankruptcy, and they are completely supplemented by the blood of Wano civilians.

This has caused serious class differentiation inside and outside the capital of flowers. The poor are getting poorer and the rich are getting richer.

In addition to the flower capital, only the Rabbit Bowl area and some areas of Baiwu can see some lights. These two areas are the most developed areas of the Beast Pirates.

Then his eyes turned to Nozomi, who was farthest away. Thanks to the black charcoal snake, the number of civilians displaced in Wano has been increasing, and those people were gathered by the Beast Pirates with the help of Kojiro's Chamber of Commerce.

With almost the same number of people, Nozomi's vast wasteland is about to be used.

A dark shadow flew across the night sky, and Kaido came here from somewhere.

"You are still watching this boring night scene."

"Otherwise? By the way, Yamato asked again who her biological mother is today. Although I put it off for a while, the child might remember it again at some point. Do you still want to keep it a secret?"

"Uh giggle. Is she at this age too, the children under her mother's protection are immature, if she asks you again, tell her that I will tell her the answer when she can beat me.

But do you spoil her too much? "

"Is there? I don't think so."

"Of course, there's still a year left to start training her, so don't be reluctant to start."

In a sense, from physical fitness to martial arts, from moves to domineering, Kaido already has a complete training content.

Arceus has seen that content, and it is terrible for ordinary people, but Kaido thinks that Yamato can persevere.

"I know, after all, this world has no strength, but it's not good. What's going on with the World Government?"

Pampering does not mean spoiling, this is not an ordinary world, and a girl like a vase can't stand in the outside world at all.
novelupdates.com

"They still want Hailou Stone, and it's almost certain that they have what you want in their hands, but what are those people still negotiating, and the content has not been eavesdropped."

In addition to raising children, finding the slate is still the top priority. He really hates the current world government, but if the other party really has something crucial in his hand, it is not impossible to get the thing first.

Anyway, when the time comes, they will know what the result of investing in the enemy is.

"There's nothing else, but that guy Roger has been very active recently and has been the headline of the newspaper for a long time. He seems to have discovered something new."

It is not the first time that the Roger Pirates have sailed on the Great Route, they have already reached the nominal end of the Great Route - Shui Xianxing Island.

But that island is not difficult, as long as you follow the signal of the recording pointer, it is not difficult to find there, the real focus is Ralph Drew.

"It is said that the red historical text hides a real secret. The woman at BIG MOM has a piece in her hand, but unfortunately I don't know where the rest is."

"There is a piece under the country of Wano, and I said that there is also a piece on Zuowu, and I don't know about the other piece."

Originally, Kaido just said it casually. He didn't expect Arceus to know this kind of information. After all, he hadn't even found all his own slate, but Arceus gave him the answer of two pieces directly, and the tone was very strange.

"Why didn't you say it earlier?"

"Say? The information compiled by Jin and the others is clearly written. Tell me how long it's been since you read those things. You are really relieved to be a hands-off shopkeeper."

Chapter 177 Vegetable Stealers

In the Beast Pirates, except for some secret information, they can only communicate verbally, and the rest are basically in duplicate, and Arceus will take a look every day.

Kaido is no exception, he is the governor of the Beast Pirates, and it is naturally impossible to exclude him from this kind of thing.

Although he didn't tell him verbally, he still took the documents to him.

It can be seen from his answer that he hasn't read a word of it recently, and it's all news from several months ago, so it can be seen how long he hasn't dealt with these things.

"Well, don't worry about these details, I can rest assured that these things are left to you."

Kaido's unbridled laughter came from the roof of the ghost island, and the people who heard this laughter were no longer surprised. Kaido's character was changeable, and he was at least much safer to laugh than to cry.

At least when Kaido laughs, it means that he is not drunk and will not act aggressively. If he starts crying, then not getting away from him in time may lead to very dangerous things.

As for the historical text, it refers to an indestructible stone stele cast by the ancestors of the Kozuki clan in Wano country during a 100-year blank period.

It is no longer clear what its material is, but the handwriting on them is still very clear in the hundreds of years of history, and the world government has not been able to destroy this kind of stone.

The historical text is divided into two types. One is the historical text of the road sign that records the location information of Ralph Drew. They are characterized by a red color, a total of four pieces.

Now one piece is in Charlotte Lingling's hands, one piece is in the deep part of Wano Inland Sea, one piece is on the back of Zou Giant Elephant, and the other piece of the Hundred Beast Pirates is not clear.

The other is the 26 historical texts that recorded the blank 100-year history, including 9 historical texts that recorded important information. The location of these historical texts is probably even harder to find than the slate of Arceus.

The slate also has a way of sensing, and the historical text really can only rely on luck.

The world government is strictly forbidden to interpret the above content, and it is not known what Rafrud has, but this does not affect Kaido's interest in it.

But after this incident, the Beast Pirates are looking for one more "stone".

The conversation on the roof of Onishima didn't affect anything, but in the Taoyuan Farm in Jiuli, she suddenly woke up from her sleep because she heard a scream, and the voice was very familiar, it seemed to be the voice of a cat and a viper.

After leaving the house, she did not go there immediately, but looked at Zeraora's residence.

There is no doubt that Zeraora is stronger than her. It is impossible for Zeraora to hear the voice she heard, but at this time, the sound of electricity can still be heard in his room, which means that Zeraora Ra did not leave.

"Zeraora, there seems to be something wrong on the farm."

"It's not a big deal, if you're worried, you can go and have a look."

There was a mistake in Shin's judgment. It wasn't that Zeraora didn't go, but that he went and came back.

His task is to guard the safety of Taoyuan Farm, but there are not many members of the Beast Pirates except him, because the main force here is not them, but those big milk tanks.

Though those big milk jugs have a gentle personality, get along well with children, and look weak, it would be a big mistake to think that they are ordinary cows because of this.

These big milk tanks are not something that anyone can deal with, they are also capable of fighting.

"By the way, it may be the nasty cat you mentioned earlier. I'm afraid they will suffer tonight."

Hearing Zeraora say that, he seemed to understand something in an instant, and immediately left the bedroom and ran towards the place where the sound came from.

"Meow, what are these strange cows!"

In an open space on the farm, Inuarashi and Cat Viper are being besieged, and they are naturally attacked by the big milk tank. After they shrunk into a ball, they are rushing towards Inuarashi and Cat Viper one after another.

Although Cat Viper likes balls, this kind of ball is not in his favorite category.

"I told you not to come, you don't listen to me, now you know the consequences!"

Inuarashi crossed his hands to block the rolling of a large milk can, and then complained to the cat viper.

They just returned to Kuri not long ago, so they should be resting in Oden Castle now, but after listening to Denjiro and the others talking about what happened during this time, Cat Viper was dissatisfied with it.

And because of Kinemon, their finances are severely deficient, and even there are only some cheap things left in the kitchen. They can endure starvation, but they cannot let the lord's wife and children also starve.

From the point of view of the cat and the snake, this place was originally built by Oden. Even if it was forcibly leased by the Beast Pirates, it still belonged to the Guangyue family, so he came here to steal vegetables.

Inuarashi felt that it was not good for him, and originally wanted to stop him, but in the end, he was brought here by Cat Viper.

As for the reason, it was similar to when they went to Shuangyue Kang's house to steal money.

Black Charcoal Orochi borrowed Oden's money, and he was the servant of Shuangyue Yasushi's family, so they went to his master's house. novelusb.com

And now the Beast Pirates caused the situation in Oden Castle, so they came to their farm to get their things back.

It didn't take much effort for Cat Viper and Inuarashi to sneak into the farm, and not all trees and fruits were planted here, and some fields were planted with ordinary fruits and vegetables.

There were no guards in the farm, but where they couldn't see, there were many large milk jugs resting, and their stealing of vegetables was discovered in this way.

The big milk tank can walk upright, but its height is average. Only a cow's head is exposed in the farmland. Seeing that it was discovered by a cow, they didn't take it seriously, but continued to steal vegetables as if they were no one else.

This kind of behavior naturally angered the big milk tank. Under its cry, the resting companions also woke up. When Inuarashi and Cat Viper realized that something was wrong, they were already surrounded by more than a dozen large milk tanks.

At first, Cat Viper didn't take these big milk jugs seriously. In his opinion, they were just some strange breeds of cows. He was also a man who had gone to sea. He followed Roger and Whitebeard to many magical places. islands.

The closed nature of the island has allowed many islands to derive their own unique species, so I just waved away those big milk tanks.

Cat Viper and the others ignored the big milk tank again and again, and the big milk tank was no longer polite. The big milk tank headed directly shrunk into a ball and rolled towards the Cat Viper.

When Cat Viper heard the movement behind him and turned around, what he saw was the big milk tank that was getting bigger and bigger in his sight.

The fur tribe inherits the characteristics of beasts, which allows them to inherit their weaknesses while acquiring the natural abilities of beasts. The cat tongue of the cat viper is a prominent feature.

And the cat's nose is also more fragile. They didn't expect the big milk can to take such an attack, so the cat viper was hit by the big milk can firmly on the nose.

However, Inulan and Cat Viper are not ordinary fish. As young fur tribesmen, their physical fitness is much stronger than that of ordinary people. After Cat Viper was rolled and ridden by the big milk tank, Inulan also reacted. Blocked the rolling of the second big milk jug for him.

But the problem is that the big milk cans here are not one or two, but a group. Before he could breathe a sigh of relief, the third big milk can slammed into it, and the big milk can he stopped also adjusted its direction, An acceleration was added to the rolling sequence again.

There are more rut marks on the ground. Rolling is a continuous attack, and the rolling speed will be faster and stronger, and the power will also increase.

Inu Lan also became more and more difficult to parry from the very beginning. The big milk pots were divided into several echelons under the order of the leader. They would not interfere with each other, but also ensure the continuous attack, not to give each other. respite.

"Cat Viper! Are you okay!"

The big milk jars had formed a circle to wrap them in the middle, and Inuarashi's waist was hit hard.

Copper-headed and iron-boned tofu waist, although this sentence is to describe wolves, wolves and dogs are very closely related species, and they have a commonality in this regard. Inuarashi's waist can be said to be one of his weaknesses.

Because they came out quietly to steal vegetables, neither Inuarashi nor Cat Viper were armed. They didn't want to make things too big, so Inuarashi wanted to leave here quickly.

"All right."

"Then go quickly, if you are caught, you will be in trouble, and you can't cause trouble for your wife!"

This is a bit strange, after all, when they made this decision, trouble had already occurred.

And it's hard to go now. When the big milk cans first started rolling, they could break out, but as the big milk cans rolled to complete the charging, after entering the fighting state, their power has been turned over. several times.

There is a layer of light on the big milk tank, which is a move - rounding, rounding and rolling can be said to be a fixed combination. Higher defense makes them less prone to injury, and can indirectly increase the damage of rolling.

The claws of the cat and viper who came back lit up with electric light, and they would naturally use the power of the iconic static electricity of the fur tribe. Lightning and flames have always been things that beasts fear, but this is of no use to the big milk jug.

In the end, under the command of the leader, Inuarashi and Cat Viper were forced to a corner.

"Inu Arashi, wait until you defeat the leader first, or we won't be able to deal with these strange cows!"

They weren't doing errands on the pirate ship. They had experienced many battles, big and small. One of those big milk tanks was obviously different. After taking the lead in the attack, it retreated to the back and turned to command the other big milk tanks.

"You don't need to say this, the question is how to do it!"

Capture the thief first and capture the king, this is the most basic principle, but there is a necessary premise to do this, that is, they can break through the formation of the big milk tank in front of them.

"What kind of creatures are these strange cows, don't you feel dizzy!"

Ordinary creatures should feel dizzy after turning a dozen laps, but these strange cows rolling on the ground and attacking have no idea how many laps they have made. Not only are they not dizzy, but their strength and speed are getting bigger and bigger.

They could still be careful not to make too much noise when they were stealing vegetables, but they couldn't do it when they fought. As the battle became louder, the farmers who lived outside the farm were also woken up.

Listening to the movement on the farm, they did not run away, but took the hatchet and pitchfork, and walked inside together.

The Beast Pirates have a fixed planting target for their new farm policy. After this target is exceeded, the crops harvested will be converted into equivalent ordinary food and given to them.

For these farmers, a delicious fruit is far less important than three kilograms of rice, and eating is the most important thing for them.

Although the Koyuki family originally set up Taoyuan Farm to provide the residents with three meals and enough food, but their method is to distribute them collectively by the daimyo after planting, and people's enthusiasm is limited in this way.

Anyway, no matter how much you plant, what you can get is the same, so there is no need to work hard for it.

But it has been replaced by more work and more pay. After less work and less gain, everything will be different. The whole family, young and old, go into battle, and the children are also milking. This is the promotion of this policy.

Now when someone moves the farm, they are moving their interests. The loss of every crop means that their own interests will also be damaged. Under the condition of binding interests, they defend the farm better than the few seas of the Beast Pirates. Thieves have to be active.

But when the ordinary farmers came around with torches, the situation became strange.

The soil was brought into the air under the high-speed rotating bodies of the big milk tanks. A large amount of dirt formed a large piece of dust in the air, which interfered with people's sight. The approach of those farmers slowed down the speed of the big milk tanks.novelusb.com

As the dust gradually dissipated, they also saw that the people surrounded by the big milk jug were the Cat Viper and the others.

Inuarashi and Cat Viper are the retainers of Kozuki Oden, and Kozuki Oden is the name of Jiuri. As residents here, these people naturally know them.

"That's Inuarashi-sama and Cat Viper-sama."

"What if it's them, this place has been abandoned, and we have been abandoned together."

In the original agreement, all the beasts wanted was Taoyuan Farm. These farmers were later recruited because the retainers of Oden failed to arrange their way back.

And they had done a lot of negative publicity to the Beasts Pirates before, so these people were very panic at first, accepting the employment of Beasts is rather a life force.

Afterwards, reality told them the truth. In the face of the objective facts that they came into contact with, those "rumors" were naturally self-defeating.

So seeing Inuarashi and Cat Viper appear here, a complex emotion appeared in their hearts.

However, when someone saw the vegetables that were trampled on the ground, a surge of anger still appeared in their hearts. Those grains that they had worked so hard to grow were actually wasted like this.

"Inuarashi.. The expressions of those people reminded me of some very bad things."

"Ah, me too, same as when we first came here a few years ago."

Chapter 179 The pain that life cannot bear

When they just drifted to Wano Country, the residents of Wano Country regarded them as monsters and wanted to burn them directly with a fire. Now those people's eyes are very similar to those before.

Kozuki Oden saved them last time, but now the situation is different. Although they have the ability to fight back, they can't fight against those residents, but Cat Viper saw an opportunity.

With the arrival of the inhabitants, there was a slack in the dense rolling of the big milk jugs, and the previously untouchable leader was closer to them.

Electric light flashed across his body, and he stimulated the muscles on his body with static electricity for faster bursts.

According to the herd thinking, as long as the leader can be defeated, these members will be afraid, and they can leave here at that time.

"Cat Viper! Come back!"

Looking at the cat viper who suddenly rushed out, a few drops of cold sweat dripped from Inu Arashi's forehead. Although he has dog fur, he is still different from a dog. For example, his skin sweats just like he does, so he doesn't need to rely on his tongue to dissipate heat.

Those big milk jugs that stopped suddenly were a bright trap in his eyes, and the cat viper just plunged into it.

Although they were forced into the corner by the big milk tank, there was also a reason for taking the initiative to back down. When there was no road behind, Cat Viper and Inuarashi only needed to defend a quarter of the range each.

And now Cat Viper rushed out actively, it was like his body was completely exposed to the attack range of the big milk tank.

They just slowed down, but they did not stop completely, but formed a pocket array. Now that the cat viper rushed in, they tightened their pockets.

"Moo, moo, moo!"

Under the command of the leader, only a few large milk cans were left to contain Inulan, and the rest was to concentrate firepower to besiege Cat Viper. One-to-one Cat Viper is not afraid of these large milk tanks, just one-to-many. Not necessarily.

But he didn't have a weapon, and because he was contemptuous at the beginning, he was attacked by the leader of the big milk tank. Now he can't resist the siege of the big milk tank.

Without the help of Inu Arashi, the defense was quickly broken through under the enemy's belly and back. A big milk tank took advantage of it and adjusted its angle by using a small pit on the ground, and then hit the cat and pit viper from below. crotch.

The fur tribe is also a kind of demi-human. Although the big milk jugs that roll down seem to be very sleek, they have horns and hooves.

Being hit under the crotch by an irregular high-speed rotating ball, the pain is hard to describe in words, the cat viper let out a shrill scream, and this was the sound I heard in an instant.

Cat Viper's performance made the surrounding villagers feel that their hips were restrained, and they unconsciously took a few steps back. Before, the people from the Beast Pirates told them not to anger the big milk tank, otherwise it would be very dangerous.

The gentle performance of the big milk tank during this period of time almost made them forget this sentence, but today, they completely understand the horror of the big milk tank.

"Cat Viper!"

Looking at the Cat Viper lying on the ground, Inu Lan was a little impatient, and the next moment he almost suffered the same fate. This time, there was no Kozuki Mita to save them, but it didn't take long after the Cat Viper's screams came out. , appeared here in an instant.

"Wait, you stop first!"

Taoyuan Farm is now nominally managed by Zeraora, and she also enjoys certain rights, so the big milk tank will still obey her orders.

"Why are you two here?"

Looking at the cat Viper lying on the ground and the panting Inuarashi, he didn't understand what was going on for a moment.

"Moo, moo." Before Inuarashi could answer, the big milk jug expressed his meaning with words and gestures, and people who have been with Pokémon for a long time can still understand the general meaning.

"You two are actually here to steal something?!" Hearing the leader of the big milk tank say this, he instantly showed an incredible expression.

Zou's national background makes their folk customs tend to be primitive society. There are only a few people in total. If they steal things, they will be despised by the whole family.

Then she looked at the surrounding villagers and said to them: "It's all right, everyone, just a little thing, everyone, go back to sleep."

She still cares about kinship. It would be too embarrassing to be in front of so many people. It is serious business to let them go first.

Under Moment's persuasion, the villagers also packed up and left here one by one. After all, the people from the Beast Pirates had already arrived, so they didn't need to delay.

There were only a few pirates left around. If the previous trainee was Olga, then now Olga has begun to turn to the cadre and became a new reserve cadre in an instant.

She, who has been by Zeraora's side, can also command these pirates.

"You guys go back too, I'll deal with it here."

"Miss Setsuna, you are alone"

"Don't worry, I know them, and isn't there a big milk jug here?" At her insistence, those pirates also left here.

"Okay, can you two explain to me why you're stealing here?"

Although she said that, she had already turned her eyes to Inuarashi, and she didn't expect the cat Viper, who was already lying down, to give her a serious answer.

Not because he was beaten down, but because she didn't believe that Cat Viper could spit out any good words.

"This. How do you say it?" Inu Arashi's expression was a little embarrassed. They could deceive themselves for the sake of the mistress, but they couldn't hide that their behavior was stealing.

"Forget it, by the way, do you still have the life card of returning to Zuowu? I accidentally lost mine."

Insane remembered the business this time, and first asked Inulan for the life card in his hand. Inulan's life card was not lost, and he always carried it with him. Hearing that, he tore half of it for her.novELUsb.coM

Then she picked some vegetables and fruits and gave them to them.

"Come to me if you really don't have anything to eat. I can still call the shots." The children of the Beast Pirates have their own pocket money, and usually have no place to spend money, so these can be regarded as her personal sponsor.

"Don't steal anything next time, forget it this time, and you will be punished next time."

It stands to reason that they should be punished for doing this, but for a moment, thinking of the friendship of the same clan wants them to leave directly, so they let others leave early.

But not everyone wants to accept her kindness, such as Cat Viper, he is not convinced when he comes over.

"Meow. This place was originally our farm, but it was just stolen by you. How can this be called stealing?"

"Cat Viper!"

As soon as these words came out, Inuarashi knew that the trouble was big, and the electric current flashing on his body in an instant also showed this.

"Cat Viper, I have endured you for a long time today, don't be ashamed!"

Chapter 180 Beating

Fur tribes value kinship in most cases. Because the number of ethnic groups is small, they need to help each other even more. This is the case in Zowu, not to mention the rare compatriots they meet overseas.

Whether it was taking some crops for them in an instant or dividing the life card of Inuarashi, they did not hesitate. This is the assistance of the same clan.

Similarly, they also attach great importance to kindness, and it is their characteristic to repay the kindness, even if the price of repayment is very high.

Koyuki Oden is kind to Cat Viper and Inuarashi, and the Beast Pirates is kind to Instant. Under this premise, it is understandable that they chose different forces.

But Cat Viper is different from Inuarashi. Inuarashi can think rationally about the situation, and he is easily impulsive. He directly brings the blind worship of Oden into other personal feelings.

Setsuna and Inuarashi focus on kinship when dealing with problems, but Cat Viper is different and is so influenced by Oden that all he thinks about is the contradiction between the Beast Pirates and the Kozuki family. novelusb.com

Although it has not yet erupted, there are objective disputes, such as the ownership of Taoyuan Farm, in the eyes of Cat Viper, this is the tyranny of the Beast Pirates.

From his point of view, there is no problem with this view, it can only be said that each has its own master.

And the Beast Pirates are pirates after all, even if they have a lot more rules than ordinary pirates, it will not change this fact.

Although Hundred Beasts used the Huairou policy most of the time, it did not mean that they gave up force completely. When they were repairing the factory in the rabbit bowl, they meant forcibly demolished them.

Although those were made by the Black Charcoal Orochi, it is not right to say that the beasts did not move at all. After all, without Kaido behind them, those daimyo would definitely object to the behavior of the Black Charcoal Orochi.

Even if the beasts did not continue to persecute those residents as the black charcoal serpent wished, but instead settled them properly, the balance of merits and demerits does not mean that the "demerits" disappear.

And Taoyuan Farm can be said to be the only farm that receives compensation from the land, this is the price paid because Kinemon violated the rules set by the Beast Pirates.

The right to use Taoyuan Farm is used to offset the penalty for mining in Kinemon, except that Oden Castle cannot continue to use the crops in it unconditionally, and there is no change in other aspects.

Kinemon is not a victim in the eyes of the instant, but a criminal who reaps the consequences, but she did not exert this emotion on Cat Viper and Inuarashi, there is still a big difference between individuals.

Since they met during the day, there was a little conflict with her because of her identity. Just now she kindly wanted to send the two of them away, and she bought a lot of things for them out of her own pocket. She is tough.

"You think you're wrong?"

"It was said that this place was taken away by you."

"Very good, Inu Lan, put the things down for me, and I regret it." Seeing the meaning of Cat Viper, she should have given these things. .

Since the cat and the snake are so clearly separated, there is no need for her to show her goodwill. Letting them leave here is the last kinship.

Although the crime of stealing is not as good as robbery, it is not too much to dig mines for a few days.

As he said that, he planned to bring back the things he handed to Inu Arashi, and waved to them to leave quickly, but Cat Viper didn't seem to want to leave just like that, after all, their purpose of coming here had not been achieved.

"Inu Lan, go first, I'll stop her for a while."

"Isn't this bad?"

"Mrs. Shi is still ill." Although Inuarashi was more rational, he was also shaken when he talked about Kozuki, and his heart was still shaken when he looked at the green vegetables in his hand.

And Cat Viper's actions finally broke through the bottom limit of the moment, again and again, again and again, she has endured the other party twice, and this time she couldn't bear it anymore.

"I said put things down, can't you hear me?!"

With her legs exerting force, she almost bounced off the spot, and her claws that flashed electric light also grabbed what was in Inu Lan's hand. Cat Viper wanted to stop it, but he hadn't seen him for seven years. He misestimated Mo's strength. , not even touching a single hair of hers.

The wolf claws cut through the air, the straw woven basket was shredded by the sharp claws, and the fresh fruits and vegetables were scattered and rolled along the **** into the distance.

"You keep saying that we robbed your farm, aren't you robbing me now? You should go back and ask those people why this place was given to us!"

said and kicked the cat viper. Due to the repeated friction of the big rolling milk can several times, he just stood up tremblingly not long ago, and he was directly kicked out.

The resentment that had accumulated earlier broke out completely at this moment, and the instant fist hit the cat's face directly on the cat viper.

"I told you to condemn me, make me say the wrong thing, and tell you to steal! I've put up with you for a long time, you know!"

There was still a faint flash of electric light on the fist, it could be seen that Momo had already moved the real fire, and the cat and pit viper was directly beaten. They had fought before, but Momo was not his opponent at that time, so in his heart he always Moments are not taken seriously.

Moment, which he hadn't seen in a few years, became much stronger than before. He had just recovered from the pain caused by the big milk tank, and was directly hit in the eye by Moment, leaving a **** eye.

But just when she was going to make the cat and viper symmetrical and put a bruise on the other eye, Inu Lan blocked her attack.

"In an instant, Cat Viper said the wrong thing, just give me a face and forget it, it's our fault."

The arm is slightly numb, not because of the current, but because of the difference in strength, it seems that the changes in these years are much more than they imagined.

"Give you face. Where will I put my face!"

Although Inulan blocked the attack of the instant, but the instant did not mean to stop, the cat and the snake provoked her again and again, if she hadn't missed the old love, they would have fought long ago.

She threw off Inuarashi and didn't stop, still beating Cat Viper.

After a few attacks, although the shot was a lot lighter, it still didn't mean to stop. In this case, Inuarashi also threw himself into the battle with the instant.

His relationship with Cat Viper is better. The fact that things have gotten to this point has a lot to do with Cat Viper's impulsiveness. It's not impossible to make him suffer a bit, but if it continues, Inu Arashi will not be able to watch it anymore.

"In an instant, it's almost there."

Although she had beaten Cat Viper, she didn't want to kill him or anything. She hadn't finished venting just now, and it's almost the same at this point.

"Cat Viper, you apologize to me, as long as you admit that it was your fault this time, I will let you go this time."
